FAMILIES WHOSE CONNECTION WITH THE BOSTON FAMILY HAS NOT BEEN PROVED

A. THE BOSTON FAMILY OF SOMERSET COUNTY TODAY

The original edition of this family history included an elaborate conjectural hypothesis which had been worked out to link this Boston family of Somerset County with the Bostons who are subject of this history, but a careful search of local probate records from 1770 to 1820 and an almost equally close examination of judicial records has failed to turn up any substantiating evidence. The roots of this family must remain a mystery.

The earliest known ancestor of the Boston family currently located in the Marion and Princess Anne areas, Joseph F. Boston (1820-1879; see A3 below), had taken up residence in Somerset County, near Marion Station, by 18 May 1868. According to family tradition he moved there from the Eastern Shore of Virginia, where he had settled with his family for several years, after moving from Baltimore, Md. Of course, it may be mere coincidence that Joseph Boston should have chosen to settle in the area where another Boston family had flourished for two centuries. But it seems a more reasonable conclusion that he should have been drawn there because of family ties.

Assuming that he was drawn back by such ties, we may reasonably suppose that he was born in Somerset County. In all probability, therefore, he was a son of the Isaac Boston (A2) living in 1820 in the vicinity of the Great Annessex (that is, not far from what is now Marion Station). Unfortunately the 1830 census for Somerset County has been lost, so that possible aid from that source is unavailable. But other possible evidence for identifying Isaac as father of Joseph is that (1) both were shoemakers; (2) both lived in Baltimore: Isaac was listed in the 1833 city directory, Joseph in the 1850 census; (3) apparently this Isaac, as well as Joseph, was married in Baltimore; and (4) Joseph F. Boston's youngest son, Charles, named a son Floyd Walter Boston; presumably the Isaac here alluded to married (Baltimore, 1817) Elizabeth Floyd, possibly a daughter and/or sister of a Joseph Floyd. It may therefore be inferred that Joseph Floyd Boston (A3) was a son of Isaac (A2) and Elizabeth (Floyd) Boston. The family, then, would seem to have alternated between Somerset County and Baltimore.

Isaac Boston (A2) was quite possibly a son of the Sarah Boston living in the Great Annessex area in 1810, listed in the census next to Josiah Cottingham (67), whose descendants have lived between Crisfield and Marion Station. It is probably this Isaac (A2) who in 1810 was apprenticed to Henry Johnson (in 1810 listed just four pages from Sarah Boston). Isaac would presumably have been 13 or 14 years of age. Who Sarah Boston's husband was is unknown. The fact that there is no Boston in the 1800 Somerset or Worcester county census who could be identified as husband of Sarah and father of Isaac (A2) suggests that they were living in someone else's household or in another area. They may have been somewhat itinerant, to judge by the practice of their presumed descendants, Isaac (A2) and Joseph (A3). The name Isaac (I) has therefore been only arbitrarily assigned as Sarah's husband and Isaac's (A2) father.

Insofar as it may be at all possible to link this family with other Bostons of the area, Isaac (I) may have been a son of Margaret (Sommers) Boston (see F1), and a half-brother of Elizabeth Boston Ward (B1). A linking clue may be that in 1810 Sarah Boston is listed next to Josiah Cottingham, and in 1840 Elijah Ward (B3), son of Elizabeth Boston Ward, is listed next to Josiah's son-in-law, Lazarus Lankford. Nevertheless, the earliest ancestor for this family who can be identified with any degree of certainty is Isaac Boston (A2), but the proven history of the family begins only with Joseph F. Boston (A3). This family therefore appears not to be related to the Bostons who are the subject of this history, except through shared descent from other families. (Generations are numbered only from the earliest presumed ancestor named Boston.)

[FIRST GENERATION]

A1 [ISAAC] BOSTON [I], possibly a son of Margaret (Sommers) Boston (F1), born probably in Somerset Co., Md., in the Great Annessex area, about Feb. 1770 (?); died possibly in Somerset County about 1809, certainly before the summer of 1810. He married (c1793) Sarah, who was possibly a Harmison (Harmanson), for her presumed grandson, Joseph Boston, gave the name Harmison to his youngest son. It was evidently this Sarah Boston who was listed in the 1810 Federal Census of Somerset Co. (p. 307) residing in Great Annessex Hundred: she was head of a household composed of a boy and a girl, both under 10, and another girl between 10 and 16.

Probable child (born ?Great Annessex, Somerset Co., Md.):
i. Isaac [II], b. about 1796/97; d. about 1834; see No. A2.

[SECOND GENERATION]

A2 ISAAC BOSTON [II], probably son of Isaac (A1) and Sarah (?Harmison) Boston, born probably at Great Annessex, Somerset Co., Md., about 1796/97; he may have died in Baltimore, Md. about 1834; mar. (Baltimore, 12 May 1817) Elizabeth Floyd, possibly a daughter of Joseph and Nancy (Wheeler) Floyd (married in Baltimore, 21 Nov. 1797). In the Somerset Co. Court of 13 Feb. 1810 Isaac Boston was bound apprentice to Henry Johnson to learn the trade of a cordwainer, Johnson binding himself to give Isaac "reasonable education to wit, to read, write and cypher as far as the rule of three, inclusive, and to find and supply [him] with suitable clothing and maintenance during the time of his apprenticeship, and to give a suit of good clothes over and above his working clothes, and a set of tools when free" (Som. Bonds EB 28: 126). After his marriage in Baltimore Isaac apparently returned to Somerset Co., for in 1820, according to the Federal Census, Isaac was living in the 3rd Election District (evidently between Crisfield and the present Marion Station). He was head of a household which included presumably his wife and a female child under ten.

A possible brother of Elizabeth Floyd was Joseph (b. 1801/02) listed in the 1860 Baltimore census, with wife Elizabeth (b. 1798/99) and children: William (1814), Marion (1828), George M. (1830) and Alexena (1836). The names George and William which appear in Joseph F. Boston's family may thus be traceable to the Floyds.

Though not listed in the Baltimore directory of 1831, Isaac was listed in 1833, as a shoemaker living in Armistead Lane. By the time of the 1835/36 directory, he had moved, or died.

Children (assigned hypothetically):

- i. Elizabeth Ann, b. c1818; mar. (Old Light St. M. E. Church, Baltimore, 4 Sept. 1837) JAMES HIGH (though this Elizabeth could have been the widow of Isaac).
- ii. Joseph F [loyd?], b. c1820; d. 16 Mar. 1879; mar. Caroline Stevens; see No. A3.

[THIRD GENERATION]

A3 JOSEPH FLOYD BOSTON, son of Isaac (A2) and Elizabeth (Floyd) Boston, born in Maryland, probably in Somerset Co., near what is now Marion Station, about 1820; he died near Marion Station, 16 Mar. 1879; mar. (Old Light Street M. E. Church, Baltimore, 17 Jan. 1845) Caroline Stevens, born probably in Baltimore, 22 Jan. 1817; died, probably at Marion Station, 10 Mar. 1874. (Dates here and below from family Bible formerly owned by Jesse Harmon Johnson.) Joseph presumably grew up, at first in Somerset Co., then in Baltimore, where he continued to live after his marriage until about 1851, when he moved, according to family tradition, to Northampton Co., Va. (though the 1860 census shows him neither there, nor in Northumberland Co., Va., nor in Somerset Co., Md.); he thence moved to Somerset Co., possibly about 1861 on the outbreak of the Civil War.

On 18 May 1868 Joseph purchased for $60 from Henry W. and George W. Hall 1 1/2 acres on the southeast of the county road from William H. Holland's storehouse to Bennettsville, in Brinkley's District, adjacent to Henry J. Johnson, George W. Hall, and Charles C. Green (deceased); Joshua W. Tull took a mortgage on the land; on 18 Nov. 1872 Joseph sold this land to his son, William, who on 22 Aug. 1873 sold it for $100 to Henry J. Johnson, his brother-in-law (Som. Deeds 79:149-150; 82:285). Joseph was a boot and shoe maker. One son is said to have gone to the Western Shore of Virginia, where he owned or operated a cannery.

Children (first four born Baltimore, Md., others in Va.):

- i. Mary Ann, b. 7 Nov. 1845; d. 30 Mar. 1924; mar. Henry J. Johnson; see No. A4.
- ii. William Albert, b. 1847; d. 1888; mar. Sarah E. Lankford; see No. A5.
- iii. Elijah J., b. Mar./Apr. 1849; d. reportedly in New York City about 1905; married; no children; seaman and storekeeper; family tradition has it that he sold a boat that had sunk.

JOSEPH FLOYD BOSTON (A3)
1820-1879

- iv. Harriet Elizabeth, b. 10 Sept. 1850; d. 11 Jan. 1894; mar. James K. P. Williams; see No. A6.
- v. George W., b. June 1853; mar. Katie---; see No. A7.
- vi. Margaret A., b. 1855; d. 27 June 1884; mar. John W. Carey; see No. A8.
- vii. Charles Harmison, b. 8 Feb. 1857; d. 29 July 1895; mar. 1st Ellen S. Hasting; 2nd Nancy E. Laird; see No. A9.

[FOURTH GENERATION]

A4 MARY ANN BOSTON, daughter of Joseph F. (A3) and Caroline (Stevens) Boston, born Baltimore, Md. 7 Nov. 1845; died Marion Station, Md. 30 Mar. 1924; mar. (Somerset Co., Md. 15 Mar. 1863) HENRY JAMES ("SMILEY") JOHNSON, son of James and Ann Mary (Wilson) Johnson (see WILSON, p. 443, No. 6), born Marion Station in Nov. 1831; died at Marion Station, 8 Feb. 1892. He had previously mar. (4 May 1859) Ziporah S. Taylor, daughter of William and Ziporah (Salisbury) Taylor (she died 2 May 1862); they had one son, William H. (b. 1861/62). Henry was a farmer.

Children (born Marion Station, Somerset Co., Md.):

- i. Mary Elizabeth, b. 4 Feb. 1864; d. 1 Aug. 1943; mar.

Robert H. Maddox; see No. A10.

- iii. James Walter, b. 20 Nov. 1869; d. 21 Nov. 1889.
- iv. Samuel James G., b. 30 Mar. 1871; d. 10 Dec. 1891.
- v. Benjamin Franklin, b. 9 Oct. 1873; d. 16 Oct. 1945; mar. Mary L. Horsey; see No. A12.
- vi. Caroline L., b. 21 Jan. 1876; d. 17 Sept. 1891.
- vii. Charlotte Adelaide, b. 26 Aug. 1878; d. 8 Dec. 1955; mar. her cousin, Merritt L. Boston; see No. A16.
- viii. Walter Lloyd, b. 6 Sept. 1882; d. 4 May 1956; mar. Nellie R. Byrd; see No. A13.
- ix. Eugene Hendrickson, b. 10 Dec. 1884; d. 22 Feb. 1958; mar. Anna B. Chelton; see No. A14.
- x. Jesse Harmon, b. 23 Apr. 1887; d. 20 Feb. 1967; mar. Mary L. Ennis; see No. A15.
- xi. Ethel R., b. 22 Jan. 1889; d. 7 near Crisfield, Md. 7 ; mar. (Crisfield, Md. 13 Aug. 1924) STEPHEN T. GRAYSON, of Chester, Pa., b. 1886; no children; they lived on a farm near Crisfield.

A5 (WILLIAM) ALBERT BOSTON, son of Joseph F. (A3) and Caroline (Stevens) Boston, born Baltimore, Md. 1847; died Quindocqua, Somerset Co., Md. in 1888; mar. (Som. Co. 28 Apr. 1869) Sarah E. Langford (Lankford), daughter of Elijah S. and Mary Jane (Hall) Lankford, b. 13 Sept. 1848; d. Quindocqua, 1886. He was a shoemaker.

Children (born Marion Station, Somerset Co., Md.):

- i. Elijah H., b. 1870; mar. (Som. Co. 29 Apr. 1898) Margaret Cecilia Dize; she d. Somerset Co. before 30 Dec. 1920; no children.
- ii. Merritt Irving, b. 28 Oct. 1872; d. 14 Jan. 1923; mar. his cousin, Charlotte A. Johnson; see No. A16.

A6 HARRIET ELIZABETH BOSTON, daughter of Joseph F. (A3) and Caroline (Stevens) Boston, born Baltimore, Md. 10 Sept. 1850; died Marion Station, Md. 11 Jan. 1894; mar. (at James Johnson's, Somerset Co., Md. 12 Feb. 1868) JAMES KNOX POLK WILLIAMS, son of John and Sarah Anne (Blades) Williams, born Somerset Co. 4 Mar. 1845; died Marion Station, 2 Apr. 1901; both buried St. Paul's, Marion Station. He mar. 2nd Anna Somers Maddox. He was a farmer in summer, a waterman in winter.

Children (born Quindocqua, Somerset Co., Md., on the old Williams homestead):

- vi. Harriet Della, b. 16 July 1880; d. 17 Dec. 1950; mar. John C. Wilson; see No. A21.
- vii. Infant.

A7 GEORGE W. BOSTON, son of Joseph F. (A3) and Caroline (Stevens) Boston, b. in Va. June 1853 (1858 in 1900 census); d. presumably in Baltimore; mar. (c1885) Katie---, b. Va. Aug. 1865. According to an article in The Crisfield Leader, 22 July 1882, George Boston in 1878 was sentenced to prison for the latest in a series of crimes. Late in 1877 or early in 1878 he made an attempt on the life of his brother-in-law, James Williams (A6). Armed with a loaded shot gun, he shot at Williams in his bed through his bedroom window at night, but missed his target. Arrested and charged with attempted murder, he escaped to Baltimore, where about 1 Apr. 1878 he was again arrested, on a charge of larceny, for which he was sentenced to nine years in the penitentiary. During his trial he also pleaded guilty to stealing an ox, for which two years were added to his sentence; his term of imprisonment was therefore extended to Aug. 1889. The article was occasioned by an appeal to the governor for George's pardon. (For the full, highly dramatized, even lurid account of these events, see S-A7, p. 578.)

According to family report George lived in Baltimore Co. and also on Stricker St. in Baltimore. In the 1900 census he is listed at 20 Rope Walk Lane in Ward 23 of the city.

Children, listed in census (born Md., probably Baltimore):

- i. William, b. Nov. 1886.
- ii. Caroline, b. Nov. 1893.
- iii. Maggie, b. Oct. 1898.

There are nevertheless tantalizing clues that still point to a possible connection with Bostons. In 1840 the estate of Elizabeth Boston Ward's son, Elijah Ward (B3), owed money to an Esau Boston, possibly Esau, Sr. (1752-1846, No. 31), or more likely his son, Esau, Jr. (1784-1869, No. 58), both residing near Newtown, Worcester County. Maybe this is merely coincidence, or the product of a simple business relationship. Or could Elizabeth have possibly been an unacknowledged illegitimate daughter of Esau, Sr., born before his marriage? Another coincidence, of a geographical nature, is that in 1840 Elijah Ward was living next to Lazarus Lankford (136), whose father-in-law, Josiah Cottingham (67) in 1810 lived next to Sarah Boston (A2), a possible link between the Wards and the Joseph Boston family (A3).

- iii. Julius, b. 1843; d. before 1860.

B3 ELIJAH SMITH WARD, son of Levin S. and Elizabeth (Boston) Ward (B1), born Somerset Co., Md., about 1800; died Somerset Co. about 29 Dec. 1841 (between 22 Dec. 1841 and 6 Jan. 1842), shot accidentally in hunting as his gun discharged while he was climbing a fence. He was four times married: first (lic. Som. Co. 10 Mar. 1826) to Eliza A. Somers (c1808 - c1829); second (lic. Som. Co. 6 Oct. 1830) to Patty Parks. He married third (lic. Som. Co. 13 Feb. 1831) Elizabeth J. Hall, daughter of Richard and Sally (Moore) Hall (see HALL family), born about 1812; died between 8 Apr. and 10 July 1839. He married fourth (lic. Som. Co. 10 July 1839) Elizabeth M. Holland, possibly the daughter of Thomas and Polly (Benson) Holland, born Somerset Co. 1817; died, probably near Marion Station, Md. 16 Mar. 1884; she married second (lic. Som. Co. 21 Feb. 1849) George S. Holland, by whom she was mother of James A. Holland (b. 1852/53).

On 11 June 1816, with the consent of Levin Ward, his father, Elijah Ward was apprenticed to Severn Crosswell, for three years, to learn the trade of a ship carpenter; "without permission from his said master he shall neither buy nor sell, he shall not absent himself day nor night from his said masters service, but in all things behave himself as an faithful apprentice ought to do." Crosswell was bound to pay $30 (Som. Bonds GH 1:61). To judge by the inventory of Elijah's estate, he appears to have been both a ship carpenter and a farmer. The 1840 census shows two in the family engaged in agriculture, one in manufacturing and trade.

In 1829 Elijah purchased of Joseph B. Brinkley, Sr., a house and lot on the south side of Annesmessex River (Som. Deeds GH 5:502), and with his wife, Elizabeth J. Ward, he sold it, 10 June 1833, for $95 to Joseph B. Brinkley, Jr. (Som. Deeds GH 7:106). On 4 Nov. 1838, for $1050, Elijah purchased of Job and Leah Moore a 253 acre tract which was described at the time of its sale in 1849 to settle the estate as "that farm or tract of land whereon Elijah Ward... resided at the time of his death situated in Annesmessex and adjoining the lands of Stephen Ward" (Som. Deeds GH 9:528, LW 2:487).

An inventory of Elijah Ward's estate, made by John T. Adams and Henry T. Tull, 6 Jan. 1842 (Som. Inv. JP 16:153) shows, in addition to the usual gardening and farming tools, a plough and harrow, carpenter tools (5 planes, 2 saws, 5 augers, an adz and hammer, 4 chisels, a crow bar), a barrel of tar, 200 feet of 1 1/2 inch planks at $2.00, a lot of vessel timber, and a lot of cooper's ware. Live stock consisted of 2 yoke of oxen, 2 yearling steers, 3 cows, pigs, sheep, a horse, and 3 turkeys. There were also 4 beehives and an ox cart. Other items were the usual kitchen utensils, a barrel of salt, tables, a "lot [of] Books," 4 beds and 5 bedsteads, a bottle of Swain's Panacea, and a gun with powder flask and bag.

The documents for Elijah's estate are numerous. Elizabeth Ward and Nathan C. Conner were administrators. The first account (Som. Accts. JP 15:278), submitted 9 Jan. 1843, recorded payments to "Cuffu" Boston, for digging grave, $1.00; Thomas Langford on account for shoemaking; Nelly A. Lankford for weaving; Samuel H. Henry for medical services, $7.75. In subsequent accounts money was due Job Moore, on bill obligatory, amounting to $550; to Daniel Benson for services as auctioneer; to Elijah Broughton and John T. Adams, assignees of J. D. W. Porter for Ward's subscription to a School House at Carroll's Corner; to Dr. William P. Williams for medical bill, $33.50; to Smith Lankford for a coffin, $10; to John T. Cottingham for a charity levy in 1837, $11.62 (Som. Accts. JP 19:35, 53; SWJ 2:3, 31, 55). The seventh account recorded payment of $47.76 to Esau Boston on bill obligatory dated 18 Dec. 1840, payable 25 Dec. 1841. (This Esau could be No. 31, 58, or 108.) The ninth and final account on 7 Aug. 1847 recorded the distribution of the balance of $241.28: a third to the widow, Elizabeth Ward, and a fourth of two-thirds to each child: Elizabeth, Drucilla, Elijah, and John B. Ward (Som. Accts. SWJ 2:55, 107-10, 133-4).

According to Orphans Court Records of Somerset Co., on 8 Apr. 1845 Aaron C. Lankford was guardian to Drucilla and Elijah

Ward, orphans, and on 24 June 1845 Thomas Somers was guardian to Elizabeth Ward, orphan; Thomas was possibly her uncle.

Finally a suit in chancery (papers in Md. Land Office, Annapolis) was filed 6 Feb. 1849 by David B. Majors and Elizabeth, his wife, and Elijah and Drusilla Ward, minors, versus John Ward; on 13 Feb. the court assigned Edward M. Wise as official guardian for the infant defendant, John Ward. The suit involved a request to sell the land of the late Elijah Ward, his farm in Annesmessex, which "is deteriorating," and divide the proceeds; it was sold 1 May 1849, the deed finally executed 24 Jan. 1854 (Som. Deeds LW 2:487); Levin Woolford, appointed trustee of the complainants and defendant, sold it to Jephtha Hayman for $531.

Children (born in Annesmessex, Somerset Co., Md.):

By first marriage:

- i. Elizabeth Ann, b. 25 Apr. 1828; d. 22 Apr. 1896; mar. David B. Major; see No. B8.

By third marriage:

- ii. Drusilla, b. 1833/34; mar. Edward S. Seward; see No. B9.
- iii. Elijah Smith, Jr., b. 15 Sept. 1836; d. 8 June 1921; mar. Caroline B. Adams; see No. B10.

By fourth marriage:

- iv. John Bell, b. 14 July 1840; d. 4 Oct. 1916; mar. Margaret J. Tull; see No. B11.

B4 WILLIAM ANDREW WARD, son of Levin S. and Elizabeth (Boston) Ward (B1), born Somerset Co., Md. 10 Aug. 1804; died, probably in Somerset Co., about 1845. He married (lic. Som. Co. 14 Oct. 1824) Margaret Ann Landon, daughter of Jesse and Margaret (MITCHELL) Landon (see MINSHALL [MITCHELL], p. 421, No. 5, and LONG, p. 414, No. 12), born Kingston, Somerset Co., Md. 26 July 1806; died 1613 5th St., N. W., Washington, D. C., 17 June 1880, buried Rock Creek Cemetery, where a stone recording these facts marks her grave.

A bond in the Somerset Co. Orphans Court (Som. Bonds JP 1:81), dated 20 Aug. 1822, almost certainly refers to this William: William Ward, "with the consent of his mother," was apprenticed to John Johnston until the age of twenty-one, "during which time he shall well and truly behave, conduct and demean himself in every respect as a good and faithful apprentice ought to do towards his said master, and the said master shall furnish and provide for his said apprentice, good and sufficient meat, drink, hats, shoes, washing, lodging, and all the requisites (except clothing) so far as stipulated and agreed upon necessary during his apprenticeship; and to teach him... the arts, trades, and mysteries of a saddler and cordwainer." William was described as "an orphan aged Eighteen years on the Tenth day of August, Eighteen Hundred and Twenty two."

William Ward appears as head of the family next to Levin Tull in the 1840 census, where he is listed as engaged in manufacturing and trade.

Beyond these facts nothing is known, but according to one family tradition William moved with his family to Washington, D. C., about 1842, thence to Baltimore, where he died; he was reportedly a toll gate keeper at Seventh Street Turnpike and Rock Creek Church Road, in Washington, but since his widow is listed with her children in the Baltimore census of 1850, he probably died in Somerset Co., according to one tradition by suicide. He owned no property and left no will nor estate.

Margaret Ward, William's wife, is said to have been a member of Kingston Methodist Church (now St. Mark's Episcopal Church) in Somerset Co. By 1860 she had moved with her children to Baltimore, where her two brothers already lived, but shortly afterwards she moved to Washington, D. C. A more reasonable family tradition than that above (William as toll gate keeper) is that during the Civil War she was a toll gate keeper on the old Seventh Street Turnpike (Georgia Avenue). According to another tradition, she was a "doctor" (i.e. midwife), riding a white horse on her calls.

The family of Gustavus Webster Ward (her son) has preserved the tradition that he was born at Jamestown, in Somerset Co., identified as present Manokin, not far from "Landontown." It may therefore be concluded that all the children were born there. (Dates of birth below from family Bible in compiler's possession.)

Children (born Somerset Co., Md., at Jamestown, i.e. Manokin):

- i. Elizabeth Ann, b. 18 Oct. 1826; d. 9 Feb. 1904; mar. John Major; see No. B12.

Elijah Smith Ward, Junior (B10)
1836-1921

Margaret Ann Landon Ward (B4)
1804-1880

John Bell Ward (B11)
1840-1916

Elizabeth Ann Ward Major (B12)
1826-1904

- ii. William Henry, b. 16 Oct. 1828; d. 27 Oct. 1898; mar. 1st Emily J. Roberts; 2nd Maria L. Boehringer Coleman; see No. B13.
- iii. Levin Smith, b. 4 Aug. 1830; d. Washington, D. C., 4 Dec. 1896; legs crushed by a streetcar, buried Rock Creek Cemetery; mar. (Washington, 7 Nov. 1859) Mary Ann Taylor, who d. c15 June 1892; no children; adopted a daughter, Alice, who mar. John Preinket. Levin was orderly for Jeremiah S. Black, Attorney General under Pres. Buchanan; he was later in charge of the farm of Judge Bradley in D.C.; according to 1880 D.C. census, he was farm steward for the U.S. Soldiers Home. At time of his death he was a florist.
- iv. Thomas George, b. 25 Aug. 1832; d. 17 Nov. 1914; mar. 1st Eliza Montgomery; 2nd Mary Baxter Bunce; see No. B14.
- v. Margaret Miranda, b. 22 Mar. 1835; d. ? Washington, D. C., ? 2 Dec. 1876; single; she is probably the "Mary Ward" buried with Margaret Landon Ward.

B14 THOMAS GEORGE WARD, son of William A. (B4) and Margaret A. (Landon) Ward, born Somerset Co., Md., at Jamestown, i. e. Manokin, 25 Aug. 1832; died Washington, D. C. 17 Nov. 1914; mar. 1st (St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Rock Creek Parish, Washington, D.C., 7 May 1857) Eliza Montgomery, daughter of John and Ann Jane (Page) Montgomery, born Londonderry, (Northern) Ireland, 18 May 1838; died at home, Summers St., Washington, 3 Jan. 1876. He mar. 2nd (Washington, 25 June 1878)

Mrs. Mary Baxter Bunce, who died in St. Elizabeth's Hospital, Washington, 26 Sept. 1920; she was the widow of George Emanuel Bunce (married D. C., 23 Jan. 1871). Thomas Ward and both his wives were buried in Rock Creek Cemetery. In early life he was a member of Emory (Methodist) Chapel, Brightwood. He was a gardener, for a time at the White House (probably in the Cleveland administration, about 1885).

The MONTGOMERY family, which reportedly came from Londonderry, (Northern) Ireland, was evidently descended from a Scottish family among those settled by the British Crown in the north of Ireland in the early 17th century. Eliza Montgomery's parents, with four children, migrated to the United States in the late 1840's, in the wake of the Irish famine; they settled first in Montgomery Co., Md., near Washington, D.C., probably because Mrs. Montgomery's sister, Mrs. McBurnie, lived not far away, in Alexandria, Va. John Montgomery, born Londonderry between 6 Oct. 1818 and 18 Apr. 1819, was a staunch Presbyterian; a damask weaver in Ireland, he was a gardener in the U.S.; he died Washington, D.C. 5 Oct. 1893; he mar. (c May-July 1837) Anne Jane Page, born Londonderry, between 11 Aug. and 29 Oct. 1818; died Washington, 10 Aug. 1893; both buried Rock Creek Cemetery. Their children, besides Eliza Ward (the eldest) were: (2) Thomas, b. Ireland, 6 Dec. 1840; d. "General Hospital," 5 or 6 July 1863, as the result of a wound 3 July in Battle of Gettysburg, serving in Co. C, 1st U.S. Cavalry; (3) Mary, b. Londonderry, 25 Oct. 1842; d. Washington, 9 Dec. 1913, mar. James Miller; (4) John, b. 15 Dec. 1844, restaurant operator in Baltimore; (5) Charles Fairfax, b. Md., 15 May 1850; d. D.C. 1922, mar. (17 Nov. 1880) Alice M. Cole; (6) Ella J., b. Md., 6 Dec. 1852; d. Washington, 30 July 1935; mar. (9 Nov. 1880) John F. Weyrich; (7) George Albert, b. 10 May 1854, lived in Baltimore; (8) William Arthur, b. 8 Apr. 1856; d. July 1863; (9) Jesse Howard, b. 8 Apr. 1858; d. July 1863.

Children of Thomas G. Ward (born Washington, D.C.):

By first marriage (first two baptised St. Paul's, Rock Creek):

- i. William John, b. 15 Feb. 1858; d. There can be little doubt that the Boston family of Union Co., Ky., and the Richey family of Muhlenberg Co., Ky., are descended from the Bostons of Worcester Co., Md., although no proof has been found for a definite connection between the Maryland Bostons and Jesse Thomas Boston (1834-76) and his sister, Nancy J. Boston Richey (1832-1921), both born in Spencer Co., Ky., where a branch of the Maryland Boston family is known to have settled. In fact, the only positive link is that the name of Jesse's and Nancy's father, Silas Boston, appears in 1833 among purchasers of effects from the estate of James W. Boston, known to be one of the Maryland Bostons. Another possible link is that Silas named his son Jesse, a name common among the Maryland Bostons in Kentucky.

But other evidence can be adduced to substantiate a reasonable hypothesis for a connection, as illustrated in the diagram below. The descendants of Jacob Boston (17) were a clannish family for several generations, maintaining close ties and continuing associations among themselves. For example, John B. Boston (116) was evidently a business associate in Baltimore of his father's first cousin, Jacob (61); and Jacob's son, John E. H. Boston (122), was named executor by John B. Boston's wife in her will in 1870. "Tom" Boston (114), who lived near Pocomoke City, reportedly visited the family of his father's first cousin, Jacob Boston (61) in Baltimore until nearly the time of the former's death (1908). Jacob Boston of Baltimore also maintained contact with his brother John (62) long after their father (32) and uncle (33) moved with their families to Kentucky.

Moreover, the children of Luther Boston (63), William and Emily, in the 1850's went with their father's first cousins, Edward (65) and Jesse Boston (66) from Kentucky to Indiana.

An exactly parallel situation can be hypothesized for Silas Boston (C1). It may be inferred that he named his son after the child's two grandfathers, Jesse and Thomas; since it is known that Thomas Cooke was the boy's maternal grandfather, it can therefore be reasonably inferred that Silas's father was named Jesse. The only known Jesse with whom he could be identified was Jesse Boston (28), first cousin of Esau (31) and his two brothers (32, 33) who went to Kentucky. Jesse in 1810 was living very near his first cousin's son, Samuel Boston (56) at Pitts Creek, Md. It would be only natural that Silas, left an orphan, should decide to accompany his father's first cousins, Jacob (32) and Jesse Boston (33), with their families, from Maryland to Kentucky in the 1820's. As further evidence of the connection,

Jesse Thomas Boston (C3) also for a time (about 1859) lived in Vigo Co., Ind., whither his father's (presumed) second cousins, Edward (65) and Jesse Boston (66) had migrated shortly before. (The fact that according to the 1880 Federal Census for Muhlenberg Co., Ky., Nancy Richey reported the birthplace of both her parents as Kentucky does not necessarily invalidate the hypothesis. Since her parents died when she was a small child, she might very well have been led to believe that her father as well as her mother was born in Kentucky.)

C 1 SILAS BOSTON, (presumably) son of Jesse Boston (29), was born probably in Worcester Co., Md., at Pitts Creek, about 1801; he died evidently in Spencer Co., Ky., probably near Taylorsville, about 1835. He married (lic. Spencer Co. 7 Apr. 1831) Mary ("Polly") Cooke, daughter of Thomas Cooke, born probably at Taylorsville, about 1812; she died, probably at Taylorsville, about 1834. The only other record of Silas Boston is that on 13 Sept. 1833 he was among the purchasers in the sale of personal property of James W. Boston (64).

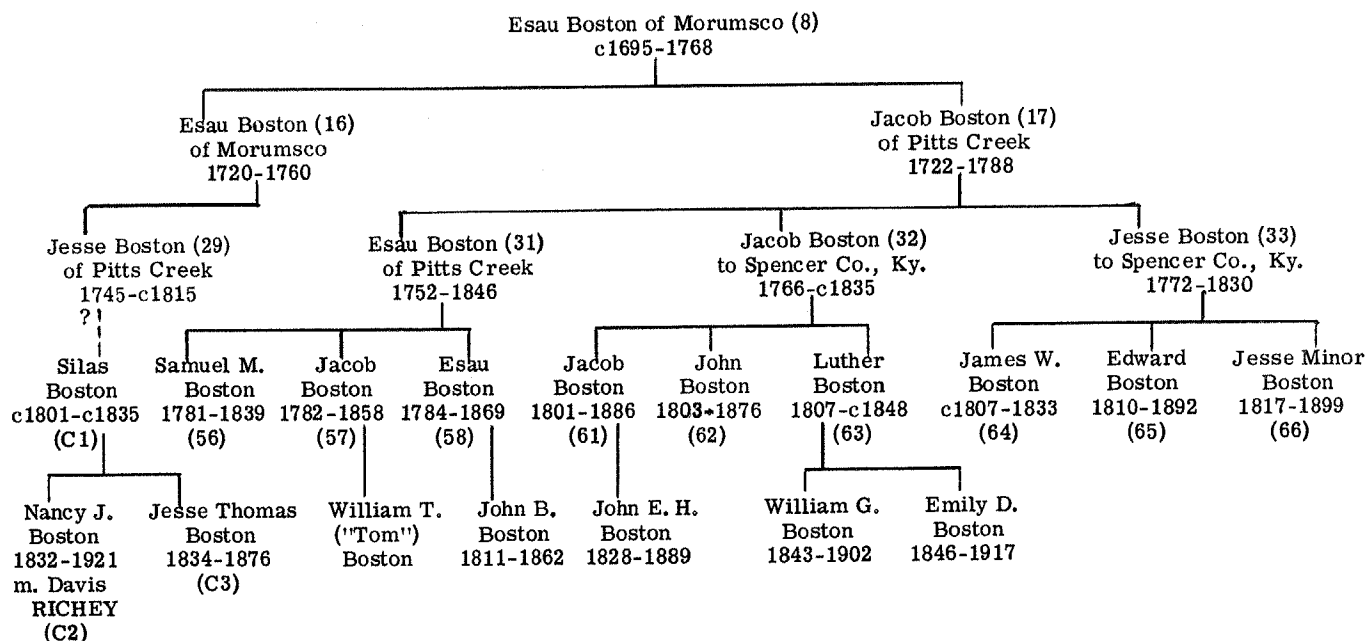

Children (born Spencer Co., Ky., probably near Taylorsville):

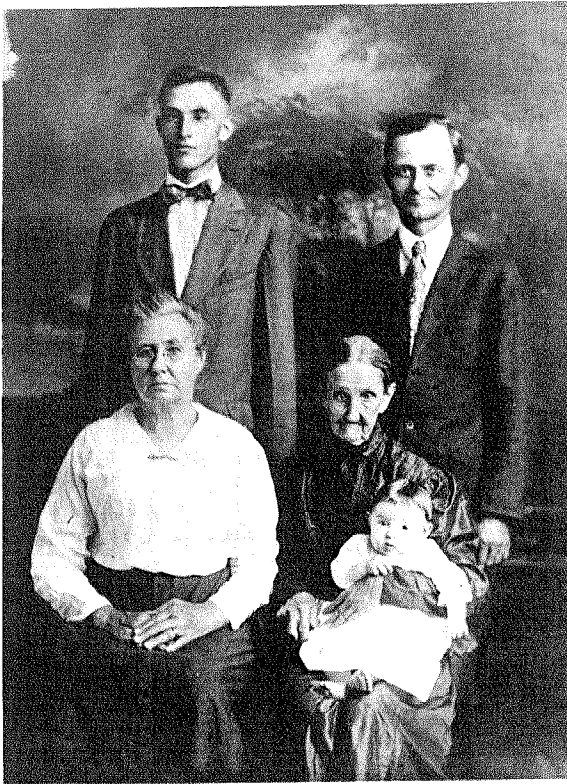

- i. Nancy J., b. 2 Mar. 1832; d. 15 Sept. 1921; mar. Davis Richey; see No. C2.
- ii. Jesse Thomas, b. 15 June 1834; d. 20 Jan. 1876; mar. Permelia E. Quick; see No. C3.

C2 NANCY J. BOSTON, daughter of Silas (C1) and Mary (Cooke) Boston, born Spencer Co., Ky., near Taylorsville, 2 Mar. 1832; died Muhlenberg Co., Ky. 15 Sept. 1921, buried Cedar Grove Missionary Baptist Cemetery, near Bremen; mar. ("at Thomas Cook's," her grandfather's, at Taylorsville, 19 Nov. 1852) DAVIS RICHEY, son of Elijah and Rebecca Richey, born Spencer Co. 15 Mar. 1829; died Muhlenberg Co. 12 June 1894, buried Shaver's Chapel.

Davis Richey's parents with their children about 1855 migrated from Spencer Co. to Muhlenberg Co. where the parents and several of the children were in 1860 (Federal Census), all reportedly born in Kentucky. The Richey family, from census records and family report, consisted of parents Elijah Richey, Sr., born 1792/93, and Rebecca, b. 1793/94, with their children: Matilda, 1817-1876, married Amos Bennett; a daughter, who married Noel Patterson; Elijah, Jr., who died in 1922; Riley, who settled in Mercer Co., Ky.; Presley, b. 1825; Nancy, b. 1827, married Robert Crist, from Indiana; Davis, 1829-1894; and Amos, b. 1838; enlisted in Union Army, killed in Tenn.

Davis and Nancy Richey migrated by covered wagon from Spencer Co. to Muhlenberg Co. in Sept. and Oct. 1855, for their eldest son was born en route. On 28 Aug. 1857 Davis Richey, for $600, bought 90 acres on Cypress Creek, the homestead which still remains in the family. Davis Richey was a farmer.

On 7 Dec. 1857 Nancy Richey and her brother, "children of Polly Boston, deceased," heirs of Thomas Cook, deceased, were awarded their share of their grandfather's estate by Joseph B. Cox, commissioner; on 16 Jan. 1858 Davis Richey and his wife, Nancy, of Muhlenberg Co., for $220, sold their share (22 acres) in the division of Thomas Cook's land (Spencer Co. Deeds K:439, 441).

Davis Richey served in the Union Army in the Civil War as a private in Company F, Third Regiment, Ky. Cavalry, under the command of Capt. Isaac Miller. Davis enlisted 20 Oct. 1861 at Greenville, Ky., for three years. In Apr. 1862, at Shilo, he contracted typhoid fever, as a result of which he was three-quarters disabled: with total blindness of the left eye, impaired sight of the other, total deafness in the left ear, slight deafness of the right. He was in a hospital at Corinth, Miss., May-June, then in July sent to Paducah, Louisville, and Bowling Green, then home. He returned to active duty 2 Aug. 1862, rejoined his regiment at Nashville in Apr. 1863 and was put on light duty on account of his disability, driving an ambulance. At the time of his mustering out in Dec. 1864 he was at Savannah, Ga. (Nat. Archives, Box 41:465).

On 6 Mar. 1848 Jesse T. Boston, "a poor orphan" aged 14 on 15 June 1848, was apprenticed to his grandfather, Thomas Cooke. On 7 Dec. 1857 a Joseph B. Cox is recorded as commissioner to Jesse Boston and Nancy Richey, children of Polly Boston, deceased, heirs of Thomas Cook. In the spring of 1858 Jesse and his wife Ellen sold to Richard Conner for $220 lot No. 8 in the division of Thomas Cooke's lands, by a deed executed in Bullitt Co. (Spencer Co. Deeds H:75, K:439, 634).

Apparently in 1858 Jesse migrated to Vigo Co., Ind., possibly to join his cousins, but before 1862 he had moved again back to Kentucky, settling near Sturgis, where he was a farmer.

D. THE HENDERSON-DRYDEN-WALTERS FAMILIES

Although there is no direct proof to connect Levin Henderson with the Boston family, there can be no doubt that he was the son of Elizabeth Boston Henderson (30). To be sure, there is no evidence that Elizabeth Boston was the only wife of William Henderson (30) or that she was the mother of his children named in his will. In the two wills of Elizabeth's father, Jacob Boston (17), in 1780 and 1786, he attached no last name to his daughters, an omission that might imply that Elizabeth was not yet married and therefore could not be the mother of Levin. In 1810, however, Elizabeth's brother, Jacob Boston (32), in declaring that he had purchased a slave from his brothers and sisters, attached the name of Boston to all of them, although it is clear that Elizabeth had married William Henderson by 1796.

Positive evidence that Levin Henderson's mother was Elizabeth Boston is the fact that his father in his will entrusted his son to Jacob or Jesse Boston (32, 33), presumably the boy's uncles, and Levin named his younger daughter Eleanor Ann, possibly after his mother's two younger sisters.

D1 LEVIN HENDERSON, son of William M. and Elizabeth (Boston) Henderson (30), born probably at or near Pitts Creek, not far from the Pocomoke River, in Worcester County, Maryland, about 1780; he died in Worcester County, probably at Pitts Creek, before 8 Mar. 1843. He married 1st (lic. Worc. Co. 30 Dec. 1801) Nancy Layfield, daughter of Isaac and Esther Layfield (see LAYFIELD, p. 409, No. 7). He married 2nd (lic. Worc. Co. 26 Dec. 1837) Charlotte Jane Boston, who mar. 2nd (lic. Worc. Co. 20 Jan. 1846) Wheatley J. Atkinson. (See Supplement, S-D1, p. 596.)

He was a cypress cooper, according to the 1820 census and the inventory of his estate.

Levin Henderson (of William) was living 13 May 1826 (Worc. Deeds AS:63) when he was listed as one of the commissioners with Samuel Boston (56), Levin Merrill, and John Stevenson to appraise lands of Henry Wheeler, but there is no direct evidence to associate this Levin with the Levin who wed Nancy Layfield and sold Layfield land (see below), except that it may be inferred that his son, William M. Henderson, was William Merrill.

On 9 Jan. 1817 a Levin Henderson was executor for William R. Merrill, Esau Boston, Jr. (58), and John Milbourn, securities (Som. Bonds GH 1:106).

Isaac Layfield, in his will (signed 7 Sept. 1800) made bequests, among others, to his daughter Nancy Layfield and to his son Thomas Layfield, a minor, and to his grandson Isaac Layfield; among the lands mentioned were "Hog Quarter" and "Cypress Swamp." On 18 Feb. 1815 Levi (Levin) Henderson and Isaac Layfield sold to George Starksman a small piece of land in Pitts Creek Hundred, land which fell to them by the death of Capt. Isaac Layfield, part of a tract called "Great Convenience." On 22 Sept. 1832 Levin Henderson sold to Samuel Benson, James R. and Elijah Merrill, trustees of the Pitts Creek regular or particular Baptist Church of Christ, land whereon the Pitts Creek Meeting House stands, part of a tract called "Hog Quarter." Finally on 28 Dec. 1837 Levin Henderson sold to John U. Dennis "Cypress Swamp," that is, one-third of the Cypress Swamp of Thomas Layfield, deceased, as divided by commissioners in 1817, adjacent to land of Barrett's and Patterson's heirs and to the swamp formerly belonging to Isaac Layfield (Worc. Deeds AE:514; AY:347; GMH 1:255).

It was the estate of the same Levin Henderson for which a bond was issued 8 Mar. 1843 and for which an inventory was submitted 31 Oct.; on 24 Oct. John S. Stevenson and Levin Merrill had been appointed to appraise the estate; Edward Lambden was executor. The inventory included the usual kitchen utensils and farm tools, and five harrows, oyster tongs, three hog troughs, ashes, and shells. Listed separately were a barn, a dairy, and a cellar. There were the usual farm animals, including chickens; crops (straw, corn, potatoes); a barrel of pork; one canoe, sails, oars; 2000 red oak staves, 3000 white oak staves; numerous jugs. Furniture included nine beds and one cradle and furniture, and a desk and bookcase. Most interesting were the books: Family Bible, Theory of the Earth, Benedict's History (2 vols.), Watts Glory of Christ, Bates on redemption, Reign of Grace, Flavil's Husbandry, 2 Latin and Greek testaments, one old Bible, one old dictionary, Dickinson's letters, and a lot of books and papers. There were also Negroes, nine males and six females. Sale of all the goods except the slaves was held 24 Oct., that of the slaves some time later (Worc. Inv. SRS 2:142-7, 166-71, 279-80).

A list of "sperate debts" (16 Sept. 1845) included notes against Thomas Watters (22 Jan. 1841), $36.75 and $105; William M. Henderson, $261.36; Isaac Henderson, $130; Sam Benson, $217; Henry M. Henderson, $350; and John Boston (107), $14.38 (as of 30 Jan. 1840).

On 28 Nov. 1844 William M. and Mary Henderson of Baltimore and Thomas and Ann Waters of Accomack Co., Va., sold to Levin Merrill of Worcester Co. land on the Pocomoke River, 2/5 part of land which fell to the mother of William and Ann by the death of Thomas Layfield. And on 26 Nov. 1844 Isaac L. and Harriet Henderson, Henry M. and Ann Percy Henderson, and Samuel and Matilda Benson, all of Grundy Co., Missouri, sold to Levin Merrill land adjacent to the heirs of Barrett and Patterson, 3/5 of 23 3/4 acres, plus 8 acres, a tract called "Hog Quarter" on Pocomoke River, which fell to the mother of Isaac, Henry, and Matilda through the death of Thomas Layfield (Worc. Deeds GMH 7:133, 8:245).

Children, two youngest by second marriage (born presumably in Worcester Co., Md., at Pitts Creek):

- i. William M[errill?], b. 1802; living 1850; see No. D2.
- ii. Isaac L[ayfield?], b. c.1806; d. Spring? 1850; see No. D3.
- iii. Matilda, b. 1808; living 1850; mar. Samuel Benson; see D4.
- iv. Henry M., b. c.1811; mar. Ann Percy; in Jan. 1848 living in Livingston Co., Mo.
- v. Eleanor Ann, b. c.1816; d. 8 Jan. 1850; mar. Thomas Waters (Walters); see No. D5.
- vi. Thomas, b. c.1838; d. by 13 July 1847.
- vii. Levin, b. c.1840; d. ?1847/50.

[SEVENTH GENERATION]

D2 WILLIAM M[ERRILL] HENDERSON, son of Levin (D1) and Nancy (Layfield) Henderson, born Worcester Co., Md., probably at Pitts Creek, in 1802; mar. (Baltimore, Md. 23 Apr. 1834) Mary Ann Cullen, daughter of Edward and Sylvia Cullen; evidently no children. Accounts for the estates of Edward and Sylvia Cullen, in 1855 and 1858, show payments to daughter Mary Ann Henderson (Som. Accts. 1851/58:200, 201, 282). The Hendersons resided in Baltimore in 1844, but in 1860 they are listed in household 319 in the Princess Anne District of Somerset Co., William Henderson a merchant. They are not listed there in 1850 or in 1870.

D3 ISAAC L[AYFIELD] HENDERSON, son of Levin (D1) and Nancy (Layfield) Henderson, born Worcester Co., Md., probably at Pitts Creek, about 1806; died, probably in Grundy Co., Mo., in the winter of 1849/50; mar. (c.1837) Harriet A., born in Md. 1819/20; he was living in Grundy Co. in 1844; his wife was still there in 1850, in Trenton Township.

Children (born Missouri):

- i. Elizabeth, b. 1837/38.
- ii. Aaron, b. 1839/40.
- iii. Matilda, b. 1841/42.
- iv. Mary, b. 1843/44.
- v. Cordelia, b. 1845/46; still single in 1880.
- vi. Emma E., b. 1847/48; mar. William W. Harris; see No. D6.
- vii. Sarah, b. Mar. 1850.

D4 MATILDA HENDERSON, daughter of Levin (D1) and Nancy (Layfield) Henderson, born Worcester Co., Md., probably at Pitts Creek, in 1808; mar. (lic. Worc. Co. 18 Jan. 1825) SAMUEL BENSON, son of John and Esther (Layfield) Benson; he died 1844/50. They migrated to Missouri about 1835/36; they were in Grundy County in 1844; Matilda was still there in 1850, in Trenton Township.

Children (first born Md., others in Mo.):

- i. Tabitha A., b. 1833/34.

- ii. Levin H[enderson?], b. 1836/37.
- iii. John L[ayfield?], b. 1839/40.
- iv. Mary E., b. 1842/43.

D5 ELEANOR ANN HENDERSON, daughter of Levin (D1) and Nancy (Layfield) Henderson, born Worcester Co., Md., probably at Pitts Creek, about 1816; she died in Accomack Co., Va., probably near Horn Town, 8 Jan. 1850. She married (lic. Worc. Co. 2 Jan. 1838) THOMAS WATERS or WALTERS, son of the Rev. Thomas Waters and his first wife, ---Waters, who was daughter of Isaac Waters. Like his father, the younger Thomas Waters was a Baptist clergyman; he died in Accomack Co., Va., before 10 Feb. 1863, when an inventory of his estate was made. He married 2nd (c1854) Gertrude M. Jones, daughter of Elisha; Thomas and Gertrude were parents of Thomas Barton Walters (born Wattsville, Va. 25 Sept. 1861; died Pocomoke City, Md. in Feb. 1931).

By the will of his father, the elder Rev. Thomas Waters (Acco. Wills 1828-46:325), signed 21 Sept. 1839 (prob. 26 Sept. 1839), the young Thomas Waters was residuary legatee after the widow Elizabeth of several slaves, and bonds and notes. In his own right Thomas was bequeathed the farm his father had "purchased from Teagle Warrington, except one half acre reserved for a family burying ground lot," also "the Church place bought of David Wallop," loaned to the widow Elizabeth during her widowhood, and the "Benson land adjoining George H. Dashiell and Oliver Logan." The elder Thomas requested that son Thomas take no timber off the land, but hand it down to his children. Thomas was also bequeathed a walnut desk, "my silver watch, all my library or books, and all my wearing apparel, also a horse and oxen, and all the other property which I have bought and loaned to him and all he has in his possession on condition he claim no more from my estate or executor than what he has received from me on account of a Military Land Claim which he inherited from his relative Isaac Waters." The testator also made bequests to children Patty (Watters) Massey, Sarah and Mary Ann Watters (the latter to be under the guardianship of Solomon Marshall); to grandson Watters Jones; to sister Rachael Watson; and to brother William Watters. Son Thomas was to be joint executor with son-in-law John Massey (the latter replaced in a codicil by Solomon Marshall); the executors were requested to "give off the legacies without selling or appraising."

It would appear that the Isaac Waters mentioned in the will was probably grandfather of the younger Thomas, for on 29 July 1835 it was "certified that Patty Massey (wife of John Massey), Thomas Waters and Sarah Waters are the only heirs at law of Isaac Waters," soldier in the Virginia continental line of the American Revolution (Nottingham, Revolutionary Soldiers... from Accomack Co., Virginia, Onancock, Va., 1927, p. 63).

On 22 Dec. 1842 Thomas Walters and Ellen Ann his wife for $572 sold to Walter (Watters) Jones (all of Accomack Co.) two parcels of land, 33 acres bought by Thomas Walters from Wilson Broughton, and 6 3/4 acres bought by "Elder Thomas Walters" from Daniel Benson (Acco. Deeds 32:442).

Ann Waters and her husband, Thomas, of Accomack Co., with her brother, William M. Henderson and his wife Mary, of Baltimore, on 28 Nov. 1844 sold to Levin Merrill of Worcester Co., Md., land on Pocomoke River, 2/5 part of the land which fell to the mother of William and Ann by the death of Thomas Layfield (Worc. Deeds GMH 7:133).

In 1851 Elisha Jones, of Worcester Co., for love and affection, granted to his daughter Gertrude Walters, wife of the Rev. Thomas Walters of Accomack Co., the sum of $100 and negro woman Ann, supposed to be 36 years old, with all her future increase (Acco. Deeds 38:128).

Children (born Accomack Co., Va., probably at Horn Town):

- i. William H., b. 30 Sept. 1841; d. 27 Dec. 1867; mar. Emily E. Coulbourne; see No. D7.

Co. 2 May 1871) Dr. Levin A. Dix, son of William.

On 14 Jan. 1867 William H. Walters bought from Mary A. Dryden (both of Accomack Co.) for $1250 all rights in lands loaned "to my father Thomas Walters by my grandfather Thomas Walters during his life and at my grandfather's death to go to his descendants" (Acco. Deeds 44:709). On 14 Apr. 1874 William S. Byrd of Baltimore, administrator of the estate of William H. Walters (deceased), late of Accomack Co., together with Mary A. and William S. Dryden of Worcester Co., Md., released John S. Walters from a bond due the deceased, returning to him "all his interest in lands devised to him [John] by the will of his grandfather Rev. Thomas Walters, Sr.," that is, 1/4 of 3 undivided tracts called Manor Farm, Church Place, and Benson land (Acco. Deeds 48:593).

PAYNE FAMILY

Evidence indicates that a branch of the Payne family of Worcester Co., Md., is descended from the Boston family, but the exact connection has not been established beyond doubt. Identification of Sally Boston (born about 1780), wife of John Payne (1776-1842), with Sally, daughter of Esau Boston (1753-1795; see No. 38), is largely conjectural, but Esau's daughter is the only known Sally Boston with whom she could be identified, and the connection seems highly likely. Sally and John Payne gave their sons the same names as those of Esau Boston's sons, and it is very tempting to speculate that the middle initial "W" in the names of all Sally Boston Payne's children stands for "Ward," in at least one instance, if not all, after Sally's presumed mother's family (Ward).

There is one notable difficulty in this hypothesis: in the census of 1820 for Worcester County the oldest female in the household of John Payne was born 1794/1804, but it is a well-known fact that ages were frequently misrepresented to the census taker, willfully or accidentally, or there could have been a mistake in recording.

E1 SALLY BOSTON, probably daughter of Esau (38) and Sarah (Ward) Boston, may have been born in Somerset Co., Md. about 1784; she died presumably in Worcester Co., Md. before 1826, perhaps in childbirth in Apr. 1824. After her father's death Sally may have lived with her aunt, Elizabeth Boston, at Pitts Creek, in Worcester Co. (see No. 19). According to the late Mrs. Beulah Payne Davis of Stockton, Md. (see below), Sally Boston became the common law wife [c1817] of JOHN PAYNE, son of Levin (see PAYNE family, p. 425, No. 9), born Worcester Co. 13 Dec. 1776; he died in Worcester Co. 6 Oct. 1842; he married 2nd (lic. Worc. Co. 12 Oct. 1826) Leah Payne, his first cousin, daughter of Wrixham Payne, born 3 Mar. 1804; they became parents, among others, of John W. Payne (1827-1890), father of Mrs. Davis (above), and also of Leah Ellen Payne (1840-1928), who married WILLIAM THOMAS BOSTON (see No. 114); for their other children, see PAYNE family. (See also F2, p. 356.)

John Payne was still living 17 Sept. 1842, when he and his wife Leah sold land to William W. Payne, "son of John Payne aforesaid and Sally Bolton" [sic], which must be a misreading by the clerk for "Boston"; all were of Worcester Co. For the sum of $50 John sold to William a tract of land bought by John from Stephen Blades and William Ward and also a small piece (15 acres) of timber land, adjacent land of Joshua Payne and the road from New Town to Marshall's Mills and also adjacent to "Little Harbour" now in the possession of Edward Lamden and, on the southeast, by the heirs of Levi Ellis, in Coston's District (Worc. Deeds GMH 5:477).

Within the month John Payne died; his will was admitted to probate 11 Oct. 1842 (Worc. Wills LPS 1:220); he had written it 2 June 1841. In it he made bequests to his wife Leah, to sons Oliver A., Moses A., Levin D., and John W. Payne (the latter to receive the "plantation where I now live, 'Miflin's Lot' or 'Smith-field'"), and to daughters Louisa and Leah Ellen Payne; his wife and "friend" Samuel A. Payne were to be executors. But he also left to "William W. Boston (son of Sally Boston)" two pieces of land which John had bought from William Ward and Stephen Blades, and the residue of the estate was to go to James W. Boston and Nancy W. Boston. Witnesses were Ben Aydelotte, W. J. Aydelotte, and William C. Slocomb.

The estate of John Payne was appraised 11 Oct. 1842 by Noah Riffin and William J. Aydelotte (Worc. Inventories and Sales SRS 2:14-19). The quite lengthy inventory listed the usual farm equipment, such as plow, harrows, draw chain, hoes, spades, flails, saw, scythe, axes, and barrels, including 2 whiskey barrels. There were also collars, gig and harness, and saddles; a barrel of molasses, a bacon cask, tubs, kegs, a canister of oil, warping bars, and a "gun & salt"; a barrel of tar, shingles, and a grind stone. The animals listed were a sow, pigs, 8 hogs, 8 shoats, the "residue of hogs in woods"; 2 pair red oxen, 5 red cows, a small steer, 2 brindle calves, 8 sheep, a mare, a colt, and turkeys, geese, and ducks. The farm included a barn, a shed, a meat house (containing a barrel of pork and a kettle, as well as a bedstead), a smoke house with a loft, a milk house, and evidently a separate kitchen.

Listed as in the kitchen were a loom, iron pot, Dutch oven, spider & lid, pot hooks, dye tub, 2 old spinning wheels, lantern, steel trap, "homeny maker," coffee mortar, tubs. Listed as in the kitchen or the milk house were leather bottom sieve, musket, pewter dish, stone pots, earthen pots, crocks, dishes, bowls, a lot of ox bows, "bred cooler," sheep shears, tin coffee pot & earthen coffee pot. Also listed were a "safe" storage cabinet, 2 gimblets, candle moulds & tin funnels, stone jugs, 2 bells, an umbrella, several lots of books, a barrel of whiskey, a bag of wool, a keg of sugar, and two Negroes, Daniel and Stephen. The rooms in the house were furnished with closets, walnut furniture, a spinning wheel, miscellaneous chairs, a shot gun, and a cradle and furniture. In the "back room" were listed a pine chest, tables, feather beds, linen, towels, a bed and white counterpane blankets, quilts. In the sale of the personal property, 1-2 Nov. 1842, among the purchasers were "the widow," S. A. Payne, James W. Payne, Thomas M. Hargis, W. W. Payne, H. S. White, George and John Ward, L. Mills, John O. Mills, Moses Payne (ibid., pp. 31-41).

Evidence that the following children are John Payne's is provided by his family Bible (owned by Mr. Mervin Jones of Stockton, Md.; information provided by Dr. Robert F. Jones) in which these three children (whose surname is "Boston" in John Payne's will) are named Payne, listed only as "children of John" without any mother's name.

- Children of John and Sally (Boston) Payne (born probably in the Remsen District of Worcester Co., Md.):

Church of Springfield, Pa. 6 Oct. 1956) ROBERT CAMPBELL KANTNER, son of George and Kathryn (Campbell) Kantner, born Gilberton, Pa. 8 Mar. 1931; engineer. Res. 941 Edwards Drive, Springfield, Pa. (See S-E57, p. 598.)

Children (born Philadelphia, Pa.):

- i. Robert Campbell, Jr., b. 7 Aug. 1957.
- ii. Gregory David, b. 2 Aug. 1958.
- iii. Kenneth Dean, b. 24 Apr. 1962.

E58 DONALD GREGORY HANEY, son of Reginald E. and Catherine R. (Hill) Haney (E41), born Philadelphia, Pa. 30 Dec. 1936; mar. (Marple Presby. Church, 11 Aug. 1955) Ivy Mae Vickers, daughter of George William and Ida Mae (Mudd) Vickers, born Philadelphia, 13 Apr. 1936. He served in U. S. Army, 77th Special Forces Group, Airborne (29 Jan. 1954 - 1 Feb. 1957), Sp 4/c, demolition expert; now salesman for truck equipment company. Res. 2586 Deerfield Circle, Marietta, Ga. (See S-E58, p. 598.)

Child: Donald Gregory, Jr., b. Bryn Mawr, Pa. 10 Oct. 1961.

E59 GAIL CATHERINE HANEY, daughter of Reginald E. and Catherine R. (Hill) Haney (E41), born Darby, Pa. 8 July 1939; mar. (Marple Presby. Church, Broomall, Pa. 9 Sept. 1961) JOSEPH GARY WIGGLESWORTH, son of Joseph P. and Frankie (Peterson) Wigglesworth, born Darby, Pa. 11 May 1940; assistant traffic manager. Res. 2478 Wharton Road, York, Pa. (See S-E59, p. 598.)

Child: Joseph Gary, Jr., b. York, Pa. 13 Dec. 1965. [p. 598.]

Several Bostons found in the records of Somerset and Worcester counties defy precise identification. An effort is made here to account for most of them, but, although no proof has turned up to connect them definitely with other Bostons of the area, most are probably of the same family.

F1 MARGARET BOSTON, b. [c1742], mother of the children below, was probably not a Boston at all. She may well be identified with Margaret Sommers (Summers), who on 6 July 1761 (Coventry Parish) married MATHEW BOSTON (20), b. c1730; d. 1763/1767, and bore him two children: Martha Boston, b. 26 Mar. 1762, and James Boston, b. 1 Nov. 1763, d. before June 1768. It is not unlikely that she gave her husband's family name to her three children born after her husband's death. An analogy can be found in the case of the widow of Solomon Warner (48).

On 16 June 1767 Margaret Boston, "late of Coventry Parish," appeared in the Som. Co. Court to answer the charge that on 29 July 1766 she had committed "Fornication with a certain Unknown Person and did Permit the said Unknown Person to have carnal knowledge of her body and [beget] a Bastard child on [her] body." Margaret admitted her guilt, declaring that Dennis Montgomery was the father of the child, and was fined 30 shillings. Montgomery was also fined 30 shillings and required to give bond for the maintenance of the child. Thomas Summers, probably Margaret's brother, stood security for him (Som. Jud. 1766/67, p. 148). At the Aug. Court of 1770 Margaret was again fined for a similar offense, this time with Samuel Smiley, 1 May 1769 (Som. Jud. 1769/72, p. 152). She appeared for another hearing at the Nov. Court, 1774, on a like charge (10 Sept. 1773), but refusing to declare the father, she was willing to pay a double fine. James Bloid stood security (Som. Jud. 1774/5, p. 143).

Whether or not Thomas Summers is Margaret's brother, he had close ties with the Bostons, for in 1762 he wed Rachel Dougherty Boston, widow of Esau (d. 1760), brother of Mathew Boston (see 16).

Dennis Montgomery subsequently married (Coventry, 14 Feb. 1769) Elizabeth Taws, who bore him a son, Thomas, on 14 Apr. 1769 (Coventry). Through Margaret's association with Montgomery some "evidence" of sorts can be adduced to connect her with Elizabeth Boston and the Wards: in 1769 Dennis Mungum-mery (Montgomery) sold 25 acres of "Dublin," adjacent "Cork," in Annessex, to John Ward (see WARD, p. 435, No. 4), grandfather of Levin Ward, who married Elizabeth Boston some 25 years later. No further clues are provided by the will of Samuel Smiley, signed 6 Dec. 1803 (prob. 14 Sept. 1808), for he bequeathed half his estate to "friend" James Ritchie of Salisbury, the rest to Levin Dorman, Sr., William Seabrese, and William Handy (Som. Wills EB23:129).

Children of Margaret (Sommers) Boston (with possible identifications; born probably Annessex, Somerset Co., Md.):

- i. Child, b. c1 May 1767.
- ii. Child, b. c1 Feb. 1770; possibly to be identified as [ISAAC] BOSTON (A1, p. 288).
- iii. Child, b. c10 June 1774; possibly to be identified as ELIZABETH BOSTON (B1, p. 299).

F2 SARAH (SALLY) BOSTON, probably to be identified as the daughter of Esau (38, p. 33) and Sarah (Ward) Boston, b. c1780; d. probably in Worc. Co. c16 Apr. 1824; it would appear to be the same Sally Boston who became first the common-law wife of Major White and, second, after his death, of John Payne (see E1, p. 350). If such is not the case, then at least one very curious coincidence remains unexplained.

On 2 July 1805 Sarah Boston and Major White stood bond in the amount of £60 (Worc. Co. Deeds X:374): "The condition of the above obligation is such that... the above bounden Sarah Boston or Major White... do and shall safe and harmless keep and indemnify the above mentioned State and County for bringing and providing for a Bastard Child born of the above Sarah Boston a single woman a female child by the name of Zeporah born on the twenty ninth day of July... 1804," the obligation to become void when the child should become seven." It may be concluded that Sally Boston was henceforth considered Major White's wife, for no bond was posted for two other children.

Major White, in his will, signed 20 Sept. 1811 (prob. 27 Sept. 1811), made the following bequests: to son John J. White the lands "whereon I now live" and the "note I hold against him" for £500, John to pay Charles Godfrey and John Bishop their claims against Major White; to daughters Mary Dykes and Nancy Atkinson, 20 cents each. To Zeporah Boston, Major Boston, and Sarah Ann Boston he bequeathed 50 acres, land he had bought of the representatives of John Fleming. To Sally Boston, mother of Zeporah, Major, and Sally Ann, he left a life estate in the above 50 acres unless she should marry; the it should pass to the "three afore-said children." To Zeporah, Major, and Sally Ann Boston he also left a negro Ned (or Edward), their mother to have a life interest in him if she remain single. In addition, to Sally Boston he left one cow and calf. Executor of the will was to be son William White, who was to receive all other lands and all negroes except Ned, as well as other miscellaneous personal property. Witnesses were Thomas R. Handy, Isaac Dryden, Elijah Powell (Worc. Wills MH 4:289). In the settlement of Major White's estate (Worc. Accts. MH 9:418-422, 466-472) John Cottingham and Thomas R. Handy, appraisers, submitted a lengthy inventory 29 Oct. 1811, which included 1 negro man named Ned left as a legacy to Sarah Boston and heirs, valued at $250, and a cow and calf, legacy to Sarah Boston, valued at $8. The Orphans Court authorized William White, executor, to sell and dispose of the personal estate (except the legacies) at public auction. At the sale on 6 Nov. 1811 William and Peggy White bought most of the articles, but other purchasers were James Cottingham, Capt. Josiah W. Haith, Isaac and William Dryden, Jr., John F. Atkinson, Cornelius and Henry and Parker Dickerson, Littleton and Milby Riley, Isaac Brittingham, and Joshua Fleming.

The only other record is found in the Chancer Docket for Worc. Co. (but no record of the actual case has survived). Among the Chancery Appearances in May Term 1824 (case BM21) was Zipporah Boston vs. William White of Major, on a Bill of Subpena. It may be inferred that Zipporah's half-brother, William White, laid claim to the land (or the negro) bequeathed by his father to the Bostons. Zipporah's mother presumably having recently died, Zipporah, now almost 20, the eldest (or possibly only surviving) legal heir, was evidently claiming her legal right in the property. The noteworthy coincidence is that the situation should have arisen only a month after Sally Boston, in the same vicinity, had borne John Payne their youngest child (16 Apr. 1824) and presumably died soon after. Sally would appear, then, to have died in childbirth, and the evidence seems to indicate that she was the mother of the following children, the first three by Major White:

- i. Zipporah Boston, b. 29 July 1804; she may possibly have contracted a common law marriage with a Bonneville and became the mother of James Boston Bonneville in 1827 (see No. F7).
- ii. Major Boston, b. c1806.
- iii. Sally Ann Boston, b. c1808.
- iv. William W[ard?] Boston or Payne, b. 4 Apr. 1818; d. 22 Aug. 1884; see No. E2.
- v. James W[ard?] Boston or Payne, b. 28 Apr. 1820; d. Jan. 1878; see No. E3.
- vi. Nancy W. Payne, b. 16 Apr. 1824; d. 17 Sept. 1878; mar. John S. Payne; see No. E4.

F3 JESSE BOSTON, possibly son of Jesse Boston (29), b. c1785. He was living in the 1st Election District of Som. Co. in 1820 (Federal Census), evidently in the vicinity of Rehobeth; he was b. 1775/94. With him were listed two females b. 1794/1804 and one female b. 1810/20. The younger, probably a daughter, could possibly be:

- i. Charlotte Jane Boston, b. c1812; living July 1847; mar. 1st (lic. Worc. Co. 26 Dec. 1837) LEVIN HENDERSON (D1), as his second wife; she mar. 2nd (lic. Worc. Co. 20 Jan. 1846) Wheatley J. Atkinson.

F4 MARY BOSTON, b. c1809/10; mar. (lic. Som. Co. 10 May 1831) THOMAS LANKFORD, b. 1807/8. They were listed in the 1850 census for Som. Co. in Brinkley's District (#680), with (presumably) a son, Alford:

- i. William Alfred Lankford, b. 1832/33; mar. (lic. Som. Co. 15 July 1851) Keziah Crowell, a widow. By her first husband she was mother of Charles W. Crowell (b. 1840/42), Henry (b. c1841), and Mary (b. c1845). William A. Lankford was head of households in Brinkley District in 1860 (#1136), reportedly b. 1827/28; and in 1870 (#259), reportedly b. 1834/35; and 1880 (#405), reportedly b. 1828/29.

Children:

1. John T. Lankford, b. c1854/55; farm laborer in 1870; gone in 1880.
2. Lazarus F. Lankford, b. c1857/57; in 1870 working in s. s. mill; gone in 1880.

F5 The widow of another BOSTON, Mary, mar. --- Dukes. In her will, signed 18 Jan. 1822 (prob. 22 Feb. 1822) Mary Dukes of Worc. Co. bequeathed to son HENRY JACKSON BOSTON all land in Somerset Co., and she also named daughter SALLY BOSTON. Witnesses were John N. Bowland, John F. Atkinson, and Loudy Riggins (Worc. Wills MH10:526). It would appear that Henry J. Boston died without issue, for it was probably his sister, Sarah Ann Boston, who on 15 May 1862 in Som. Co. secured a mortgage on the farm "whereon I now live," known as "The Garretson Tract." On 15 Oct. 1864 Levin Bounds was trustee to sell "The Garretson Trace," embracing the Gun Mills, 162 acres (Som. Deeds 75:437, 77:125). Indications are that this family was probably Negro. There was also GEORGE BOSTON, a Negro, b. c1774/75, in Som. Co., closely associated with other Bostons. His will, signed 17 Apr. 1856 (prob. 17 Nov. 1857) was witnessed by Jacob and Esau Boston and John S. Dryden (Som. Wills JP 5:303).

F6 LUTHER BOSTON, b. c1855/57; mar. (Upper Fairmount, Som. Co., Md. 23 Sept. 1879) Trephena Blake, b. 1860/61. He was an oysterman. Nothing more is known of him.

F7 JAMES BOSTON BONNEVILLE, b. reportedly Worc. Co. 1827; d. Somerset Co., Md. 30 Jan. 1912; mar. (no record in Som. or Worc.) Elizabeth Jones, b. Worc. Co., who d. Pocomoke, Md. in 1900; both buried Meth. Prot. Cemetery, Pocomoke. No record of his death is on file in Md. Vital Records. He reportedly had brothers Clarence Bonneville, who had several children, and David Bonneville, who had sons Al and Will. Possibly James, David, and Clarence Bonneville are sons of Zipporah Boston (F21 above). (Information provided by Dr. Robert F. Jones of Gainsboro, Tenn.)

Children (born Worcester Co., Md.):

- i. William Avery Bonneville, b. 1853.
- ii. Henry Thomas Bonneville, b. 1855; d. 1941; mar. (Worc. Co. 19 Sept. 1887) Eliza Jane Bennett.
- iii. James Bonneville, b. 1857.
- iv. Oliver Lee Bonneville.
- v. Samuel Erasmus Bonneville.
- vi. Capitola Bonneville, d. at age 11.

APPENDIX II: OTHER BOSTON FAMILIES IN MARYLAND

Since this compilation purports to cover the Bostons of Maryland, some account should be taken of other Maryland Bostons, who appear not to be connected with the Somerset County family.

Two other Bostons besides Henry were transported into Maryland: ROBERT BOSTON in 1677, and JOHN BOSTON in 1688 (Md. Land Records, Bk. 15, p. 435, and Bk. 13, p. 133, cited in Torrence). On 11 Mar. 1664 a summons was issued to THOMAS BOSTON (no county mentioned) to testify in court at its next session (Md. Archives 49:466). There was a SAMUEL BOSTON, contemporary of Henry Boston, who died in Baltimore Co., Md. before 6 Mar. 1677/78. In his will, signed 6 Jan. 1676/77, he made bequests to son-in-law George Goldsmith, daughter-in-law Mary Goldsmith (evidently step-children), James Mills, and Richard Clark, and he mentioned kinspeople in the parish of Pinchback in Lincolnshire, England, to whom he left the residue of his estate (Ann. Wills 5:175).

There was also a BOSTON family in Frederick Co., Md., whose name was originally spelled Bostian. They may have been of German extraction, having originally settled in Pennsylvania, where there are Boston-Bostian families. The will of Andrew Bostian, of Frederick Co., Md., signed 25 Nov. 1785 (prob. 27 Feb. 1789) named wife Alberdenia and children Anthony, Jacob, Henry, Daniel, Catherine Dotts, John, George, Barbara Burger (Bunyer?), Christina Smith, Michael, Salome Lock, and Mary Bostian.

It may be a grandson of Andrew Bostian, or of another member of his family, who was the progenitor of the Bostons of Woodford Co., Ky. In the county in 1850 was JOHN BOSTON, b. Md. 1781/82, with wife Sarah. Presumed sons were: (1) Willis Boston, b. Ky. 1810/11 (possibly father of Andrew Jackson Boston, b. 1831); (2) Jacob Boston, b. Ky. 1811/12 (father of Joseph, b. 1850, William A., b. 1855, and Mary, b. Feb. 1860); and (3) George Boston, b. Ky. 1813/14, whose children were Mary E. (1839/40), John F. (1842/43), William (1844/45), and Willis (1844/45-1891).

Possibly also a member of the same Bostian-Boston family was CHARLES BOSTON, born reportedly at Hampstead, Carroll Co., Md. in 1792, but his ages in records indicate a birth between 25 Sept. 1785 and 28 Apr. 1786. On 24 Apr. 1802 he was apprenticed in Baltimore Co. to Caleb Arnest, "with the consent of his mother," to learn the trade of house carpenter and joiner. During the War of 1812 he was a seaman, later became a merchant with vessels importing coffee from South America. He is listed in the 1850 census for Baltimore, head of household 30 in Ward 3, aged 61, his occupation: carpenter. He died in Baltimore, 7 Feb. 1870, and is buried in Baltimore Cemetery, where many of his family are also interred. He mar. 1st (Baltimore, 28 Aug. 1811) Mary Wilson; 2nd (Dumbarton Ave. M.E. Church, Georgetown, D.C., 20 Dec. 1827) Martha Ann Davis, b. 1800; d. Jan. 1878, niece of Gideon Davis of Georgetown. Children (born presumably in Baltimore, Md.):

By first marriage:

- i. Mary Ann, b. 1812; d. July 1870; mar. (23 Oct. 1844) Isaac Wareham (1816-65) and had: Isaac (1846-70).
- ii. Elizabeth, b. June 1814; d. ? 15 Oct. 1881; mar. (Baltimore, 14 Apr. 1834) George H. Cole (1810-1887), and had: Mary W. (1838-68), Charles Boston (1840-79), Martha Ann (1844-1904), and George Henry (1850-55).

By second marriage:

- iii. John Thomas Davis, b. 1828; d. 14 May 1876; mar. Mary Jane (1837-1905), and had: Martha Ann Davis (1855), Julia (1857), Mary Winifred, and Charles T. He was a ship joiner in 1850.
- iv. William Townsend, b. 1830; d. c1912; mar. (24 Dec. 1862) Elizabeth A. McQuilan Cole. His family reports that his ancestors were Dutch. He lived in Fairfax Co., Va., then in Washington, D.C., where he was a sailmaker, then finally in Dorsey, Md., where descendants still live.

Children:

1. Margaret Millis, b. 13 Apr. 1864; d. 2 Sept. 1871.
2. Mary Wilson Cole, b. 26 Oct. 1865; mar. J. A. Lebrun.
3. Charles, b. 23 July 1867.
4. James William, b. 26 Oct. 1869; d. 1 Sept. 1871.
5. Emma Maria, b. 21 May 1871; d. 10 July 1953; mar. Daniel Reimsnider.
6. John Conley, b. 25 Apr. 1874; d. 1910; descendants live in Baltimore.
7. Harry, b. 25 Mar. [? 1876]; d. at birth.
8. Clarence Robert, b. 1 Jan. 1879; had daughter Florence.
- v. Charles Gideon, b. 1833; d. 13 June 1881; sailor in 1850.
- vi. Henry C., b. June 1835; d. 21 May 1837.

Each of the families in this section represents an additional ancestral line for one or more branches of the Boston family; most are from the Eastern Shore of Maryland and Virginia, but several others have also been included. Although the exhaustive thoroughness that went into the research for the Boston family has not consistently been employed here, all reasonable efforts have been made to substantiate and validate the conclusions reached; nevertheless, errors may be found in some of the conclusions. Usually only enough evidence has been introduced to demonstrate a particular connection, but sometimes additional evidence has been included to indicate that an alternative conclusion is untenable or less likely. Connections that are doubtful or hypothetical are clearly marked. Further research is needed for most of these families.

Cross references direct the reader to the account of the Boston family in the first section of this volume and to Appendix I or to other families in this section, as follows:

Fully capitalized names, followed by reference numbers, represent members of the Boston family: for example, "ANNIE L. POWELL (644)" will be found in the main body of the text, and "WILLIAM ANDREW WARD (B4)" will be found in Appendix I.

ADAMS FAMILY

The Adams family of the Maryland Eastern Shore came into Somerset Co. in 1663, among the earliest settlers, evidently from Northampton Co., Va., where a Thomas Adams had settled as early as 1633. In the early records the name is spelled differently Adams or Addams. Most of the material in this account was collected by the late Miss Katherine Kellogg Adams of Chicago, who generously turned over to the compiler her voluminous notes, some of which have been rechecked.

ENGLISH ORIGINS. Since Thomas Adams came into Virginia as a headright for John Neale, there is some reason to believe that the Adams family of Somerset Co. may have originated in Northamptonshire, England, where the Adams and Neale families were related, but the exact connection has not been established. In The Visitation of Northamptonshire, 1618-19, under "Adams of Braunston and Welton," appears John ADAMS of Braunston, with wife Elizabeth, daughter of --- NEALE; children listed were Edward, b. c 1614; Thomas [b. c 1616]; and Elizabeth. Since the first son listed in the Visitations is invariably the eldest, it is unlikely that the Thomas Adams in Northampton Co., Va., records in 1633 was Thomas of Braunston, who would have been barely 17.

Two families of NEALE in Northamptonshire are also shown: Neale of Daventry, which includes two John's born apparently about 1540 and 1570; and also Neale of Wollaston and Hanging Houghton. The Visitations of 1564 and 1618-19 show John NEALE of Wollaston and Hanging Houghton in 1564; by his second wife, Grace, daughter of John Butler of Coedcanlass, Pembrokeshire, he was father of John Neale [b. c 1560] and of Raphael Neale of Drury Lane in London.

The younger John Neale of Wollaston [b. c 1560], by his wife, Elizabeth, daughter of Sir Richard Conquest of Houghton Conquest, Bedfordshire, Knight, was father of Edmond or Edward, b. 1601; John the younger; William; and (unnamed) daughters, one of them possibly Elizabeth, wife of John Adams.

The widow of the above John Adams, Elizabeth Adams, of the parish of Rotherhithe, County Surrey, identified as widow, late the wife of John Adams, late of Branston in the County of Northampton, yeoman, deceased, on 10 Dec. 1660 made her will (proved the last of Dec. 1660): "I give... unto my son Thomas Adams (who about twelve years ago went into Virginia) five pounds to be paid him... within six months after my decease. To my son George Adams (who about three years since went into France) twenty pounds..." (Henry F. Waters, Genealogical Gleanings in England, Boston, 1901, I:238). Unless her memory was faulty, the Thomas Adams in Northampton Co., Va., twenty-seven years earlier was not her son.

All other references, designated by capitalization of family name only, are to families in this section: for example, "Thomas COTTINGHAM (see DIXON)" refers to the Dixon family herein, and "Britain POWELL (q. v.)" refers to the Powell family. Numbered references within a family in this section are designated thus: "(see No. 6 above)" or "(see No. 10 below)."

Charts have been included to illustrate accounts of those families in which intermarriage with the Boston family has occurred in several branches or where duplication of similar names might otherwise prove bewildering. The larger and more complex charts usually indicate relationships with the Boston family or with other families herein not explained in the accompanying account; the reader's attention is therefore directed to those other families. A number in parentheses beside or beneath a name in a chart refers to the corresponding number in the accompanying account, or (in the case of capitalized names) to the first section of the book or to Appendix I (designated thus: "see No. 564). Slightly raised numbers to the right of names in some charts and accounts indicate the generation.

Unless otherwise indicated, an approximate date of death (i. e. "d. by 1 Jan. 1760") is the date of the probate of the will.

A John NEALE, "Gent.," in 1630 was granted 50 acres in Accomack Co., Va.; by patent of 18 June 1636 John Neale was granted 1500 acres in Accomack Co., land abutting southeast on Smith's Island, for transporting thirty persons into the colony, among them Pearce Neale and Thomas ADAMS; in 1639 John Neale was a member of the Virginia House of Burgesses (MacKenzie, Colonial Families in the U. S., IV:383; Nugent, I:43).

Thomas ADAMS, b. 1609/10, evidently the same Thomas who was headright for John Neale, on 21 Feb. 1632/33 witnessed a deed in Northampton Co., Va. from John Major to William Andrews. On 9 July 1634 Thomas Adams deposed that he was aged 24. On 23 Mar. 1640/41, on a complaint of Adams against Mr. Taylor for detaining Adams's servants, the court ordered Taylor to "make delivery of said servants to the said Adams," who was ordered to put in sufficient security to "bear the said Taylor harmless" from a debt of 4300 pounds of tobacco in casks, "which the said Taylor is engaged for the said Adams" (Northampton Co. [Va.] Orders, Wills, Deeds, &c. 1632-1640, No. 1, pp. 35, 19, 160). On 22 Jan. 1655/56, Thomas Adams, at the request of Anne Johnson, wife of John Robinson, Sr., acknowledged that "for the ballance of all accounts... I did passe a bill to Mr. Jno. Elsy for six hundred & odd pds of Tobacco (wch was due to him for sd ballance) beside what he pd to Jno Dennis for wages on my request &c." Jan. 13, 1653. Adams gave Anne Johnson full receipt, 8 July 1657 (North. Co. Deeds, Wills, &c. 1655-68, No. 7, p. 51).

CREWE FAMILY. John Crewe, b. c 1625; d. Northampton Co., Va., 29 Aug. 1660 (Hungar's Parish). In 1642 he was a headright for Edmund Scarburgh of Accomack Co. (Greer, p. 82). On 25 Apr. 1661 Elizabeth Crewe, "late of Northampton County," Va., widow of John, for love and affection to John's children devised his estate to son John Crewes, 150 acres, and to daughters Anne and Elizabeth. John Crewe's widow subsequently married Robert Hignett (Hignot), by whom she was mother of Robert, Thomas and Mary (twins), and John Hignett. On 22 Dec. 1666 Robert Hignett was entitled to 300 acres of land for bringing 6 persons into Somerset Co.; by 1682 Hignett was in Sussex Co., Delaware (Torrence, pp. 446, 478).

Children of John and Elizabeth Crewe (Hungar's Parish):

- i. Anne Crewe, b. 17 Aug. 1655; mar. Philip Adams; see No. 1 below.
- ii. Elizabeth Crewe, b. 1 Nov. 1657; mar. (Som. Co. 11 Feb. 1672/73) John King of Morumsco.
- iii. John Crewe, b. 1 Mar. 1660/61.

1 PHILIP ADDAMS, ¹ one of the pioneer settlers of Somerset Co., Md., was probably a son of Thomas Adams of Northampton Co., Va., where Philip was probably born about 1645; he died in 1696. He married 1st (Som. Co. 9 July 1670) Anne Crewe (see above), born 17 Aug. 1655; died 1688/91. He married 2nd (Som. Co. 4 Sept. 1691) Mary Barry. Philip Adams was a headright for Ambrose Dixon, 10 Mar. 1663; he settled in the Morumsco section.

Philip Addams acquired several tracts of land in Somerset Co.: in 1670 a patent for 100 acres, "Addams Garden," on the west side of Morumsco Creek; in 1678 by purchase from John King, 300 acres, "Kings Lott," on the south side of Morumsco Creek; in 1679 by purchase from William Stevens, 100 acres, "Addams Green."

Philip died presumably in 1696, for in that year Mary Adams declared that the crop of wheat on her land was planted by her late husband, Philip, and belongs to her, but Thomas Adams opposes her right to it (Som. Jud. Rec. 1696, p. 10). On 18 May 1697 the estate of Philip Adams was being administered by Thomas Adams, whose "mother-in-law" (i. e. step-mother) was granted her thirds (Ann. Inv. & Accts. 19 1/2:87). The births of the children of Philip Addams were recorded in Som. Deeds IKL; Anne Crewe was the mother of all but the two youngest, who were by Mary Barry.

Children (born Morumsco, Somerset Co., Md.):

- i. Thomas, b. 8 Nov. 1673; d. 1735; see No. 2 below.
- ii. Phillip, b. 9 Jan. 1675/76; d. 31 Jan. 1675/76.
- iii. Jacob, b. 16 Dec. 1677; d. c1745; see No. 3 below.
- iv. Phillip, b. 21 Apr. 1679; d. June 1772; see No. 4 below.
- v. William, b. 17 Apr. 1681; d. Dec. 1760; see No. 5 below.
- vi. Mary, b. 1 Mar. 1683/84.
- vii. George, b. 2 Apr. 1685; d. 1750.
- viii. David, b. 20 Jan. 1687/88; d. Feb. 1762; see No. 6 below.
- ix. Anne, b. 4 Dec. 1692.
- x. Abraham, b. 20 Aug. 1694; d. young.

2 THOMAS ADAMS² (Philip¹), b. Morumsco, 8 Nov. 1673; d. before 7 July 1735. He may have mar. 1st Rachel, daughter of Thomas Melton, Sr., of St. Mary's Co., Md., who d. by 1 May 1706, for in his will, signed 24 Sept. 1705, Melton named his daughter, Rachell Adams, and granted to grandson Thomas Adams the privilege of planting on the tract bequeathed to Thomas Melton (St. Mary's Wills, P.C. 1:133). Thomas Adams made his will 29 Mar. 1735, bequeathing "unto my well beloved wife Ann all my right of what she possessed before I married her." He made bequests of land to son Isaac, part of "Kings Lott" and 200 acres of "Snowes Hill"; to son David, named executor, 100 acres, "Adams Garden," and 150 acres, "Adams Purchase," plus part of "Turkey Trap"; to son Thomas, part of "Adams Garden," 50 acres of "Adams Purchase" and a negro and bay mare; he also named daughter Ann Adams (Som. Wills EB9:175). In the distribution of the estate (Som. Adm. Accts. EB12:157), 8 Feb. 1736/37, the children were Thomas, David, Isaac, Abraham, Ann Wood, and Sarah Long; Thomas was deceased, for Rachel Adams, administratrix of Thomas Adams, Jr., received a share "on behalf of her children." Likewise, daughter Sarah Long was apparently deceased, for Daniel Long received a share on behalf of his child. Two of Thomas Adams's children were:

- i. Thomas, Jr., b. c1703; d. Spring 1735; see No. 7 below.
- ii. Sarah, b. c1705; d. c1735; mar. Daniel LONG (q. v.); their daughter, Sarah Long (c1725-c1797) mar. 2nd William FLEMING (q. v.).

3 JACOB ADAMS² (Philip¹), b. Morumsco, 16 Dec. 1677; d. by 1745; evidently mar. 1st (c1700) Ruth, daughter of Teague Riffin (d. 1707), who in his will called Jacob "son-in-law"; she was b. 31 Jan. 1678/79; d. c1703; mar. 2nd (by 27 Nov. 1703) Anne COLLINS (q. v.), daughter of Samuel and Margaret, b. 29 May 1687; d. by 24 Sept. 1713; mar. 3rd (by 1722) Mrs. Katherine Dennis Porter. Jacob on 6 Dec. 1706 purchased "Hudsons Folly" (200 acres) and on 2 Aug. 1709 "Elgate," on the north side of Pocomoke River. On 19 Mar. 1739/40 Jacob Adams, planter, and wife, Catherine, deeded to his son, Samuel, part of "Hudsons Folly" near Pocomoke River and on the north side of Morumsco Creek, also part of "Elgate" and "Shoemakers Meadow" (Som. Deeds 10:15, 306; 20:131). On 22 Aug. 1722 the estate of Hugh Porter was administered by Jacob Adams and his wife, Catherine (Som. Jud. Rec. 1722/24, p. 93). The names of his children are largely inferred from property settlements.

- i. Jacob, Jr. (probably by first marriage), b. c1701.
- ii. Collins, b. c1707; d. by 24 Nov. 1755; see No. 8 below.

- iii. Samuel, b. 6 Mar. 1708/09; d. June 1763; see No. 9 below.
- iv. Catherine.
- v. Thomas.

4 PHILLIP ADAMS² (Philip¹), b. Morumsco, 21 Apr. 1679; d. June 1772; mar. (c1706) Ellis TAYLOR (see DENNIS family), daughter of Hope and Margaret (Dennis) Taylor, b. 15 Feb. 1686. On 21 Nov. 1709 Philip Adams purchased from Thomas Layfield "Minshalls Adventure" (400 acres), granted to Jeffrey Minshall in 1666; in 1747 Philip Adams, "for love, good will, and affection" deeded to his son, Hope Adams, planter, half of "Mitchells Adventure," on the eastern most side of Morumsco Dam; and on 26 Aug. 1742, with Teague Matthews (his son-in-law), Samuel Adams (his nephew) and brother William Adams, Philip purchased "Haphazard" from John Mitchell (Som. Deeds 10:394; 21:298,13). Philip Adams, planter, signed his will 6 Jan. 1769, devising to his wife, Ellis, negroes, and the north end of his land; to daughter Elizabeth Matthews, negro Patience when her mother dies, also negro Abraham; to grandson Philip, son of Thomas Adams (see No. 13 below), a share in Condoque Marsh (25 acres); to daughter Grace Marshall, 25 acres of this tract, with other bequests to sons Hope and Thomas, daughters Rhoda Beauchamp, Sarah Addams, and Tabitha Adams, and sons-in-law, William and Thomas Adams, as well as grandsons David and Hope (of son Hope), Philip Adams, Jesse Adams, Philip (of son William), and Philip Beauchamp (Som. Wills EB5:13). On 5 Mar. 1773 Allas (Ellis) Adams, widow of Philip, "for love and good will" and 5 shillings conveyed to Philip Adams, son of Thomas, negro Spencer (Som. Deeds 27:10).

Four of the children of Philip and Ellis Adams:

- i. Hope, b. 1708; d. c Dec. 1768; see No. 10 below.
- ii. Elizabeth, b. c1710; d. c1765?; mar. Teague MATTHEWS (see LONDON family).
- iii. Rachel, b. c1718; d. Som. Co. 14 June 1742; mar. her first cousin, Thomas ADAMS; see No. 11 below.

5 WILLIAM ADAMS² (Philip¹), b. Morumsco, 17 Apr. 1681; d. by 8 Dec. 1760; mar. (c1707) Margaret TAYLOR, daughter of Hope and Margaret (Dennis) Taylor (see DENNIS family), b. 2 Nov. 1691. On 26 Aug. 1742, with his brother Philip and others, he purchased "Haphazard." By his will, signed 21 Apr. 1756, William made bequests to sons William ("Whitty" or "Whiteley" and "Adams Conclusion" and "Haphazard") and Dennis, to wife Margaret, and to daughters Margaret, Elizabeth, and Leah (wife of Henry Schoolfield) (Som. Wills EB4:72). One of his children:

- i. William, Jr., b. c1711; d. by 10 Nov. 1784; mar. Sarah (possibly Sarah Moore, for William Moore was guardian of William Adams's grandson, Benjamin Lankford, 1784; Som. Orphan Bonds, 1778, p. 190). It was probably this William Adams who in a deposition 20 May 1775 declared that he was 64 (Som. Jud. Rec. 1775/84, p. 135). In his will, signed 2 Feb. 1780, he named, among others, wife Sarah Adams and grandsons Benjamin and William Lankford (Som. Wills EB1:215). Coventry Parish Register lists a daughter: 1. Martha, b. 27 Mar. 1743; mar. (Coventry, 2 Jan. 1763) David LANKFORD (q. v.).

6 DAVID ADAMS² (Philip¹), b. Morumsco, 20 Jan. 1687/88; d. by 20 Feb. 1762; mar. 1st Mary Rugg, daughter of Furbury and Mary (Cottingham) Rugg (see DIXON family); 2nd Mary Cohoon (Som. Wills EB40:301). On 1 Nov. 1723 David Adams secured full right from Charles Cottingham and Mary Rugg to "Partners Agreement" (200 acres), originally patented in 1701 to Furbury Rugg and Charles Cottingham (Som. Deeds 15:67). According to Somerset Co. Debt Bks. (Md. Land Office) David Adams in 1735 had "Planners Adventure" (100 acres) and in 1745 and 1761 "Littleworth." David Adams signed his will 7 Dec. 1761, leaving to son David "Partners Agreement," to son William clothes, and making other bequests to wife Mary and children Mary Owens, Martha Lankford, and Sarah, Nancy, Anne, Betty, Isaac, Rhoda, and Levi Adams (Som. Wills EB4:92). Though he makes no mention of another son, David evidently had an older son Thomas, who would automatically have inherited any land not designated in the will. The eldest son of David and Mary (Rugg) Adams:

- i. Thomas, b. c1714; d. c May 1782; see No. 11 below.

7 THOMAS ADAMS, JR.³ (Thomas² Philip¹), b. c 1705; d. evidently in the spring, 1735, probably before his father. On 15 July 1735 Moses Owens and wife Rachel were administrators of the estate of Thomas Adams, Jr.; children were William and Ann (Som. Jud. Rec. 1734/36, p. 295). An inventory of the estate of Thomas Adams was made 20 Apr. 1736 (possibly Thomas, Sr.) with Rachel Adams, administratrix, William Adams and Daniel Long appraisers, and Anne Wood and Isaac Adams nearest of kin (Ann. Inv. 21:378). In the settlement of the estate of Thomas Adams (Sr.) in 1737 Rachel, widow of Thomas, Jr., and her children received their share (see No. 2 above). In Aug. 1753 Moses Owens, who had married Rachel, widow of Thomas and mother of William and Ann, requested that the bounds of "Addams Garden" and "Kings Lott" be settled in his behalf (Som. Jud. Rec. 1752/54, p. 127). The son of Thomas and Rachel Adams:

i. William, b. c1730; d. by 13 May 1777; see No. 12 below.

8 COLLINS ADAMS³ (Jacob² Philip¹), b. c 1707; d. by 24 Nov. 1755; mar. (Coventry, 21 Oct. 1734) Tabitha Quinton, who d. 28 Apr. 1758 (Coventry). On 9 June 1740 Collins Adams purchased 160 acres of "Houstons Choice" on the Pocumoke River from Thomas Hayward; on 2 July 1750 he bought "Late Discovery" on the Pocumoke River from Samuel Collins; on 19 Oct. 1750 he bought another part of "Houstons Choice" from Philip Quinton (Som. Deeds 20:158; 22:140, 137). Collins signed his will 24 Mar. 1755, bequeathing to eldest son Jacob and second son Philip "Houstons Choice," one half to each, Philip also to receive that part of "Snow Hill" that "I now live on"; Collins also named daughters (in order) Sarah, Abigail, Tabitha, third son Samuel Collins Adams, fourth son Isaac, fourth daughter Anne Mary (Som. Wills EB4:37). On 17 Feb. 1755 Moses Mills of Worcester Co. deeded to Philip and Jacob Adams, sons of Collins Adams, "late of Somerset Co., planter," part of "Cowley" (Brittingham's Purchase), "Adventure" and "Desire," south side of Brown's Creek (Worc. Deeds C:282). Children (baptised Coventry):

- i. Jacob (twin), b. 18 Aug. 1736; d. c Dec. 1795.
- ii. Sarah (twin), b. 18 Aug. 1736; d. 11 June 1776; mar. Solomon Milbourne.
- iii. Phillip, b. c 1739; d. by 20 Dec. 1776; see No. 13 below.
- iv. Tabitha, b. c 1741.
- v. Abigail, b. 1743; d. 1796; mar. (Coventry, 2 Mar. 1759) John Collins.
- vi. Samuel Collins, b. 15 Nov. 1745; d. Worc. Co. 1777; his brother Jacob was his heir.
- vii. Isaac, b. 18 Nov. 1748; d. Worc. Co. 1777; his brother Jacob was his heir.
- viii. Anne Mary, b. 3 Mar. 1751.

9 SAMUEL ADAMS³ (Jacob² Philip¹), b. 6 Mar. 1708/09; d. by 5 July 1763; mar. (Coventry, 8 Mar. 1735/36) Sarah Quinton, daughter of Philip (who d. 1752), b. 20 Jan. 1716/17; d. 1767. On 26 Aug. 1742, with his uncles Philip and William Adams and with Teague Matthews, he purchased "Haphazard," Som. Co. Debt Books show that in 1745 Samuel held "Shoemakers Meadow" (109 acres), "Hudsons Folly" (now "Adams Folly," 345 acres), "El-gate" (100 acres), and "Haphazard" (25 acres); in 1759 he also had "Norfolk" (250 acres), "Colemans Adventure" (19 acres), and "Beckles" (7 acres). In 1752 Samuel and his wife Sarah sold "Shoemakers Meadow" (Som. Deeds 22:229). By his will, signed 1 June 1763, he appointed son Samuel Addams executor and guardian of his minor son, Philip Collins Addams, under 21, both to receive "Haphazard" and "Norfolk"; other bequests were made to wife Sarah and daughters Sarah, Mary, and Betty (Som. Wills EB4:103). Samuel's widow Sarah died in 1767 (Ann. Wills 35:355); Samuel Adams was executor (Som. Accts. EB10:59). The younger son of Samuel and Sarah (Quinton) Adams:

- i. Philip Collins Adams, b. 16 Jan. 1754; d. c 1823; mar. PRISCILLA BOSTON (39).

10 HOPE ADAMS³ (Philip² Philip¹), b. 1708; d. by 13 Dec. 1768. In a deposition in November Court 1768 Hope Adams declared his age to be 60 years (Som. Jud. Rec. 1767/69, p. 243). By his will, signed 5 Sept. 1768, he bequeathed to son Hope Adams "Mitchells Adventure" and made bequests to other children Philip, Sarah, Samuel, Nathan, and David Adams, and Edelia Dakes (Som. Wills EB4:142); in the accounts, 10 June 1772, Edelia and her husband, James Dakes, received an eighth of the estate (Som. Accts. EB11:2). One of their daughters is separately noticed:

- i. Edelia, b. c1730; mar. James Dakes; see No. 14 below.

11 THOMAS ADAMS³ (David² Philip¹), b. c1714; d. by 21 May 1782; mar. 1st (Coventry, 22 Dec. 1735) Rachel Adams, daughter of his uncle Philip Adams, b. c1718; d. 14 June 1742 (see No. 4 above) mar. 2nd (c 1745/46) Adria GUNBY (q. v.), daughter of John Gunby. In 1762 Thomas Adams secured a resurvey of 39 acres of "Planners Adventure" and 50 acres of "Littleworth," to be combined into a tract to be called "Adams Chance," on the north side of Pocumoke River, east side of Planner's Creek (Md. Land Office, BC & GS 23:428, 24:387). On 16 Apr. 1774 Adams conveyed to George Hayward and Josiah Pott these two tracts, which had been in the possession of Furby Rugg, who by his will had devised these tracts to his daughter Mary, after her mother's death; upon Mary Rugg's death, her eldest son and heir, Thomas Adams, had inherited the tracts (Som. Deeds 26:219). On 6 Oct. 1767 Thomas Adams, Sr., cordwainer, made deeds of gift to his son, David Adams, Sr., planter, of two tracts: 212 acres now called "Privilege" (formerly "Industry" and other tracts), and (2) "Partners Agreement" in Annemessex, in a neck called Condoekway Neck, 200 acres bought of Sampson Wheatley (Som. Deeds 25:127, 128). On 31 Mar. 1769 Thomas and his wife Adria sold to Col. Sampson Wheatley "Adams Chance" for 5 shillings, land near Abraham Outten's tract "Littleworth," which Outten at the same time conveyed to Wheatley, 10 acres between land called "Condoekoway" and "Adams Chance," west of Morumscow Creek (Som. Deeds 26:9). By his will, signed 18 Jan. 1781, Thomas devised to his wife Adria all his lands and houses during her life; his son David being deceased, all lands, marsh, houses, etc. were to go to David's son Thomas upon Adria's death; Thomas also made bequests to daughters Tabitha and Rachel Adams (Som. Wills EB 1:162). Though Thomas did not name a son Philip in his will, presumably because he had been provided for by his maternal grandfather (see No. 4 above), according to the inventory of Thomas's estate, 13 June 1782, the nearest of kin were Philip Addams and William Addams (Som. Inv. EB 8:74).

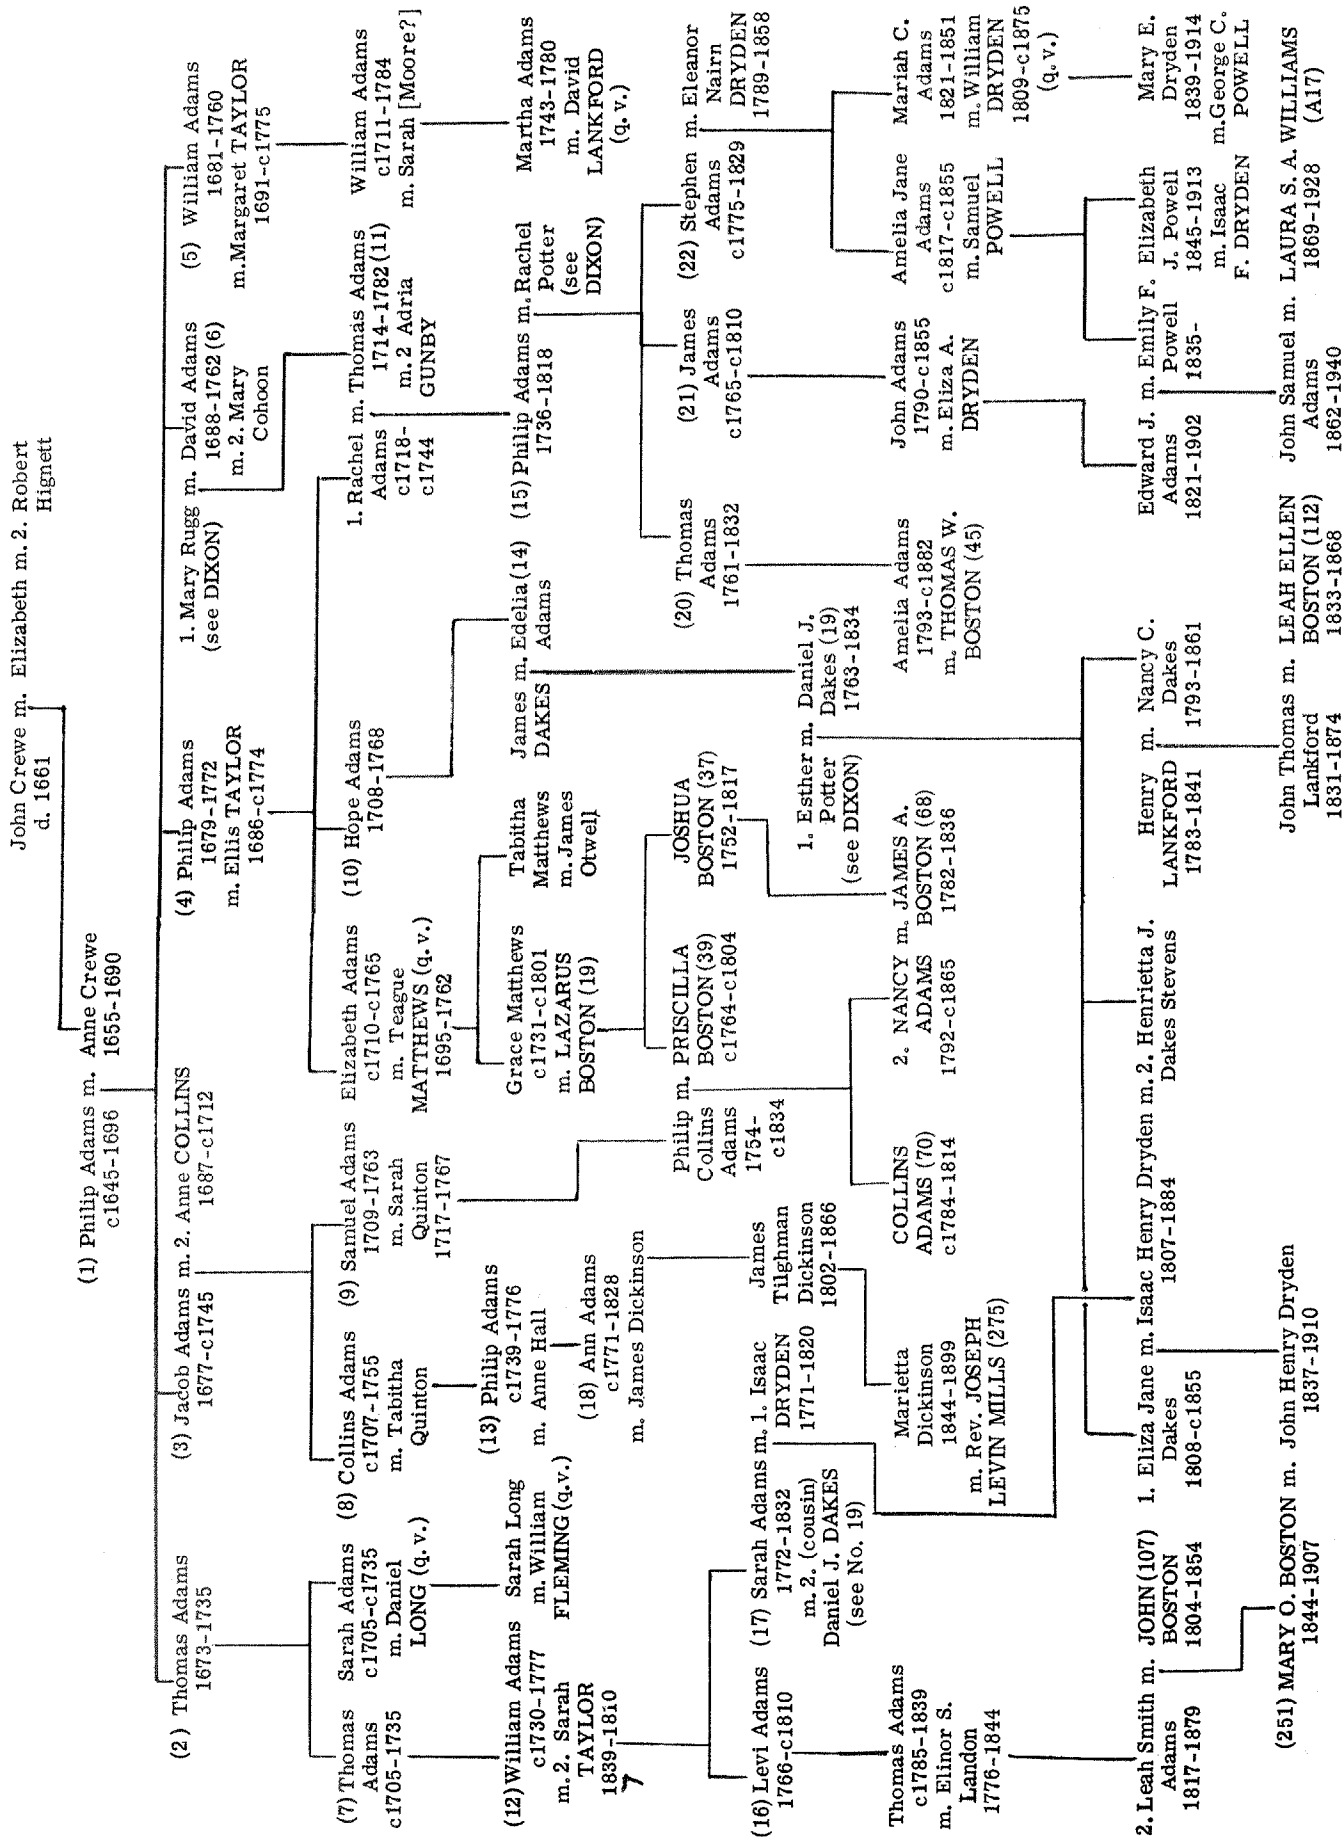

Children (dates from Coventry Parish Register):

- i. Philip, b. 18 Sept. [1736]; d. Dec. 1817; see No. 15 below.
- ii. Mary, b. 20 Apr. [1738?]; d. young?
- iii. David, b. Apr. ?; apparently d. young.
- iv. Tabitha.
- v. Rachel, mar. Henry Potter.
- vi. David (by Adria Gunby), b. 27 Jan. 1746/47; d. by 8 Oct. 1778 (bond); mar. (1766) Margaret Tilghman (Stephen F. Tilghman, Tilghman - Tillman Family, 1946); according to a 15 Sept. 1789 acct. distribution of David's estate was made to widow & three children: Thomas (1769-1805), David (1770-1803), William Howe Adams (Som. Accts. EB 14:306).

12 WILLIAM ADAMS⁴ (Thomas³ Thomas² Philip¹), b. c1730; d. by 13 May 1777; mar. 1st (Coventry, 23 July 1754) Leah Heath (d. 9 Sept. 1760); mar. 2nd (Coventry, 23 Mar. 1761) Sarah TAYLOR, daughter of Elias TAYLOR (q. v.) and his wife, Susannah GUNBY (q. v.), b. 6 Nov. 1739; d. by Dec. 1810. According to Som. Co. Debt Books William Adams in 1761 and 1764 paid on tracts "Addams Purchase," "Turkey Trap," "Chance," and "Adams Garden." By his will, signed 22 Feb. 1775, William bequeathed to son Levi the land whereon William was then living, except the upper part, to go to son Thomas, who was also to receive marsh and orchard; Levi was also bequeathed two tracts near James Wilson and Stephen Coulbourn; William's wife, Sarah, was named executor (Som. Wills EB5:101). In accounts (9 June 1789) the heirs are listed as Martha, Mary, Leah, Delilah, Sarah, Esther Adams, and Levi and Thomas Adams (Som. Accts. EB 16:275). In 1783 Sarah Adams (in Morumscow) held "Kings Lott" and "Haphazard." Distribution of the estate of Sarah Adams, William's widow, 11 Dec. 1810, was made to her children: Leah Howard, Delilah Adams, Esther Ford, Sarah Dreaden, Thomas Adams, and the children of Levi Adams, deceased (Som. Accts. EB27:134). Births of children by first wife are recorded in Coventry Parish Register: Martha, b. 1755; Mary, b. 1757.

Children of William and Sarah (Coventry Parish Register):

- i. Leah, b. 20 Mar. 1762; mar. Severn Howard.
- ii. Delilah, b. 1 Mar. 1764.

- iii. Levi, b. 17 July 1766; d. by 1810; see No. 16 below.
- iv. Thomas, b. 16 Feb. 1769.
- v. Dennis, b. 10 Jan. 1772; d. young.
- vi. Sarah, b. 23 Aug. 1772; d. 12 Jan. 1832; mar. 1st Isaac Dryden; 2nd (her cousin) Daniel J. Dakes; see No. 19 below.
- vii. Grace, b. 7 Nov. 1774.
- viii. Esther, b. c1776; mar. (1796) Gilbert F. Ford; to Meigs Co., Ohio

13 PHILIP ADAMS⁴ (Collins³ Jacob² Philip¹), b. c1739; d. by 10 Dec. 1776 in Worc. Co.; mar. (27 May 1767) Anne Hall, possibly daughter of John Hall. In an inventory of Philip Adams's estate, 20 Dec. 1776, debts were due from Samuel Collins Addams and Ely Addams; nearest of kin was Abigail Collins; Ann Addams was administrator (Worc. Inv. JW9:231). On 31 Aug. 1778 Ann Addams, for £150, deeded to Eliza Hall "Middletown" and "Hall's Addition," 41 acres (Worc. Deeds K:104). In Oct. Court 1779 Ann Adams, with William Stephens, gave bond as guardian of Elizabeth Adams (aged 10) and Nancy Adams (aged 8), orphans of Philip Addams, deceased, son of Collins Addams (Inv. JW 15:82-83, n back). Children of Philip and Anne (Hall) Adams:

- i. Elizabeth, b. 1769.
- ii. Nancy (Ann), b. 1771; d. by 6 May 1828; mar. James Dickinson; see No. 18 below.

14 EDELIA ADAMS⁴ (Hope³ Philip² Philip¹), b. c1730; mar. Coventry, 14 Apr. 1748) James DAKES (DIKES), son of Daniel and Sarah Dakes. According to an inventory of the estate of Daniel Dakes of Worc. Co., 30 Jan. 1761, James Daks and Daniel Dicks were nearest of kin; Sarah Dicks was executor (Ann. Inv. 3:229); he reportedly left tracts "Hignetts Choice" and "White-ey Rectified" or "Beckfield" (called "Fair Meadow") and "Gold-n Lyon." Births of their children are recorded in Coventry:

- i. Jesse, b. 20 Jan. 1748/49.
- ii. Sophia, b. 13 Feb. 1753.
- iii. Mary, b. 7 Mar. 1756.
- iv. Elizabeth, b. 8 Oct. 1758.
- v. Sabra, b. 22 Nov. 1760.
- vi. Daniel [Josiah], b. 1 May 1763; d. by 18 Feb. 1834; see No. 19 below.
- vii. James, b. 2 Oct. 1765.
- viii. Easter, b. 14 Aug. 1768.
- ix. Stephen, b. 6 Feb. 1772.

15 PHILIP ADAMS⁴ (Thomas³ David² Philip¹), b. 18 Sept. 1736; d. by 6 Jan. 1818; mar. (Coventry, 5 June 1759) Rachael Potter, daughter of Henry POTTER (see DIXON). On 7 Feb. 1785 Philip Adams, Sr., for £85, purchased from Isaac Bosman Schoolfield and wife Rachel "Oak Hall"; on 30 Oct. 1792 he bought from Risdon Beauchamp of Kent Co., Del. "Ledburn" (12 acres) for £13, and "Three Brothers," land between Stephen Garland and Elijah Beauchamp, now property of "Philip Adams and his son James Adams" (Som. Deeds 29:42, 30:705). According to Som. Co. Debt Books in 1774 Philip Adams, son of Thomas, had New Wood Hall" (94 acres), "Wood Hall" (6 acres), "Hogg Quar-r" (13 acres), "Haphazard" (5 acres); in 1775 and 1789 he also had "Adams Privilege" (20 acres). By his will, signed 18 Apr. 1812, Philip bequeathed to son Henry land bought from John Beauchamp; to son John, 20 acres and land adjacent James Anderson, Adams Privilege," also land bought from Risdon Beauchamp; to grandson John Adams, son of James, "Oak Hall," bought of Isaac ozman Schoolfield, and 20 acres bought from John Beauchamp; to son Stephen land bought from Alexander Maddux and from David Potter, he to provide for daughter Ruth Adams while single; he also named daughters Mary Potter and Minty Beauchamp and wife Rachel Adams (Som. Wills EB23:260). Four of their children (two baptized at Coventry):

- i. Ruth, b. 5 Jan. 1760; d. Som. Co., Md. by 24 Mar. 1829; single; in her will, signed 8 Sept. 1828, she named brother Stephen Adams and his daughter, Mary Ann Adams (Som. Wills JP4:151).
- ii. Thomas, b. 8 Nov. 1761; d. by 8 May 1832; see No. 20 below.
- iii. James, b. c1765; d. before 1812; see No. 21 below.
- iv. Stephen, b. c1775; d. 1829; see No. 22 below.

16 LEVI ADAMS⁵ (William⁴ Thomas³ Thomas² Philip¹), b. 17 July 1766; d. Som. Co. by 1810; his wife was probably Amelia.

The identification of this Levi as son of William (of Thomas) raises difficulties, but all available evidence seems to support it. This Levi should not be confused with Levi Adams (c1743-1801), son of William and grandson of David (see No. 6 above), whose family can be fully accounted for. The present Levi (b. 1766) appears in no census and left no estate, but in the 1798 Som. Co. Assessment Lists appears Levi Adams "of William," owner and occupant of 50 acres of "Kings Lott," adjacent Thomas Adams and James Dakes in Pocomoke Hundred. In the distribution of his mother's estate in 1810 the children of Levi Adams received a share. On 8 Dec. 1812 William Adams, orphan of Levi, was under the guardianship of John Howard; securities on the bond were Severn Howard and Daniel Dakes, the former a brother-in-law of Levi Adams (Som. Bonds EB28:194; Orphans Court, 1811-23, p. 25). It was probably Levi's widow, Amelia Adams (b. 1765/84), listed in the 1810 Census in Pocomoke Hundred near Thomas Adams, with a female b. 1784/94 and 3 females and 1 male b. 1794/1800. Levi must have married no later than 18 (c1784), for his son married when Levi was only 35. Of Levi's children, only one son appears to be certainly identifiable:

- i. Thomas, b. c1785; d. by 19 Feb. 1839; mar. (lic. Som. Co. 27 Oct. 1801) Nelly Landon, b. 1776; d. 11 Jan. 1844 (aged 67). On 26 Aug. 1835 Thomas Adams and his wife, Eleanor S. Adams, sold 25 acres of "Kings Lot" for $400 to William H. Moore; on 30 Nov. 1844 the heirs of "Thomas Adams of Levi" sold all the land Thomas had owned (Som. Deeds 58:434, 62:356). Thomas signed his will 10 Sept. 1836, making bequests to his five children, below (Som. Wills JP5:39).
- 1. Levi, b. c1802; d. c1849.
- 2. Levin Taylor, b. c1804; d. before 1844.
- 3. Sally Anne, b. c1807; mar. John Johnson.
- 4. Littleton, b. 1810; d. 9 Apr. 1870.

- v. Henrietta J., b. 1812/13; mar. 1st (Som. 29 Dec. 1828) Edward Stevens; 2nd Isaac H. DRYDEN (see No. 17 above).

20 THOMAS ADAMS⁵ (Philip⁴ Thomas³ David² Philip¹), b. 8 Nov. 1761 (bapt. Coventry); d. probably at Morumsco, Som. Co., Md., by 8 May 1832; mar. 1st (c1791) ?; 2nd (c1796) Mary Rounds, daughter of John and Priscilla (Gillis) Rounds (see GILLIS), b. c1773; d. by 16 Oct. 1849. On 17 May 1811 "Thomas Adams (of Philip)" bought from John Conner all land possessed by Conner heretofore conveyed to William Lankford, William Coulbourn, and Henry James Carroll for securing of debts, and on 29 Jan. 1820, for $2040, "Thomas Adams (of Philip)" bought from Elijah Boston (44), who was brother of Adams's son-in-law, most of the land that Elijah Boston had inherited from his father and uncle (Som. Deeds 41:73, 55:402). Thomas Adams signed his will 2 Sept. 1831, naming wife Mary, daughter Amelia Boston (to receive land purchased from Littleton Dennis), son Samuel (half of land on Condoekway "purchased from John Conner"), son Morris Henry, and daughters Elenor Gillis Adams, Mary Pitt Adams, Leah Jane and Emeline Rounds Adams, the latter two to have all land purchased "of Elijah Boston" (Som. Wills JP4:200). His widow, Mary Adams, signed her will 25 Jan. 1849, making bequests to daughter Eliza G. Smith (Mary's dower right in the farm in Quindocky, left to Eliza by "my husband," Thomas Adams); to son Morris H. Adams (executor); to daughters Leah Jane Anderson and Emaline R. Adams; executor to be John D. Anderson if son Morris should die (Som. Wills JP5:163). Children (born Som. Co., Md., first two by first marriage):

- i. Samuel Thomas, b. 6 Apr. 1792; d. 27 July 1848.
- ii. Amelia, b. 1794; d. c1882; mar. THOMAS WILLIAMSON BOSTON (45).
- iii. Elenor Gillis, b. 1800; mar. (lic. Som. 4 Nov. 1817) James Smith.
- iv. Morris Henry, b. 1804; d. 1874.
- v. Mary Pitt, b. c1811; d. 1831/49.
- vi. Leah Jane, b. 1813; mar. (Som. 1831) John D. Anderson.
- vii. Emeline Rounds, b. 1815; mar. (Som. 30 Apr. 1832) John M. Hall; 2nd (Som. 26 Mar. 1850) William H. Ross.

21 JAMES ADAMS⁵ (Philip⁴ Thomas³ David² Philip¹), b. c1765; d. Som. Co. before 18 Apr. 1812. On 25 Apr. 1823 John Adams, "son of James," sold to Samuel Smith land (probably "Oak Hall") devised to Philip Adams, "grandfather of John" (Som. Deeds 51:196). James's son, John, is evidently to be identified with:

- i. John, b. 1789/90; d. Som. Co. c1855; mar. (lic. Som. 11 Mar. 1820) Eliza Ann DRYDEN, daughter of Milby and Mary (Patrick) DRYDEN (see No. 11, p. 384), b. 1802. The family was #745 in Brinkley's District, Som. Co., 1850 (census); the household included John (b. 1829/30), Mary (b. 1831/32), George (b. 1837/38), Rebecca (b. 1844/45). Of these, George in 1860 was in the household of Edward Adams, evidently the eldest son. Two children (born Som. Co., Md.):

1. (Capt.) Edward J., b. 1821; d. Rehobeth, Som. Co., 14 Jan. 1902; mar. 1st (lic. Som. 1 Feb. 1842) Ann Cox; 2nd (lic. Som. 25 July 1856) his 2nd cousin, Emily F. Powell, daughter of Samuel POWELL (see No. 7, p. 427) and his wife, Amelia J. Adams, b. 1835 (see No. 22 below); 3rd (Som. 30 June 1880) Miranda Taylor, but wife's name was Clara on death certificate. He was a farmer and sailor, listed in the 1850 census in Brinkley's District (#769). Children, by second marriage (born Rehobeth, Som. Co.): Charles E. (b. 1857/58), Naomi (b. 1859/60), Nellie W. (b. 1865/66), Sarah A. (b. 1867/68) and
i. John Samuel, b. 27 Apr. 1862; d. 9 June 1940; mar. LAURA S. A. WILLIAMS (A17).
2. Martha Anne, b. 1824; mar. (lic. Som. 2 June 1847) William Watson (d. 1848/50); she and daughter Emily (b. 1847/48) were with parents in 1850.

22 STEPHEN ADAMS⁵ (Philip⁴ Thomas³ David² Philip¹), b. c1775; d. Som. Co. by 3 Mar. 1828, when John Dryden was appointed executor after Stephen's widow Eleanor had refused administration (Som. Admin. Bonds 1826/34:35). Stephen mar. (lic. Som. 29 Nov. 1808) Eleanor Nairn DRYDEN, daughter of Littleton and Catherine (McNider) DRYDEN (see No. 9, p. 382), b. 21 Mar. 1789; d. 16 Oct. 1858, buried Rehoboth Presby. Church cemetery at Rehobeth, Som. Co., Md. On 11 Feb. 1805 Stephen Adams, "son of Philip," sold to William Powell "Oak Hall" and "Hogg Quarter," near James Smith and Philip Adams (Som. Deeds 37:136). Stephen's widow in 1850 was in their daughter Maria's household. Children (born at Rehobeth, Somerset Co., Md.):

- i. Harriet J., b. c1809; mar. 1st (lic. Som. 14 Dec. 1829) William Dryden; 2nd (lic. Som. 14 Oct. 1839) John Catlin.
- ii. Levin H., b. c1813; d. unmarried 1829/34.
- iii. Amelia Jane, b. c1813 (1816/17 in 1850 census); mar. (lic. Som. 21 Nov. 1833) Samuel G. POWELL (see No. 7, p. 427), son of Samuel POWELL and his wife, Matilda LONG (q. v.), b. 1806/7; d. c1860. One of the children:
1. Emily F., b. 1834/35; mar. her 2nd cousin, Edward J. ADAMS (see No. 21 above).
- iv. Mary Anne, b. c1813 (1816/17 in census); mar. (lic. Som. 28 Mar. 1837) James Tilghman.
- v. Elizabeth, b. c1816/17; mar. (lic. Som. 10 Dec. 1839) William Beauchamp.
- vi. Maria C., b. 20 May 1821; d. 20 Sept. 1851; mar. (lic. Som. 8 Feb. 1837) her 1st cousin, William DRYDEN (1809-1871) (see No. 20, p. 385), who mar. 2nd her younger sister.
- vii. Sarah Ellen, b. 29 Nov. 1826; d. 1 June 1887; mar. 1st (lic. Som. 27 Jan. 1855) her late sister's husband, William DRYDEN, her 1st cousin; mar. 2nd (Som. 28 Nov. 1879) John S. DRYDEN (1821-1883), her late husband's brother.

ATKINSON FAMILY

The Atkinson family of Worcester Co., Md., settled in Somerset Co. (in what later became Worcester Co.) in 1677. James Atkinson evidently came from Accomack Co., Va., where a James Atkinson (probably father of the Md. settler) was among the tithables 1663-1676, in the same area as Minshall, Chase, Denwood, Byrd, Houston, therefore evidently in the northwest part of the county, near Messongo or Pitts Creek.

1 JAMES ATKINSON, b. c1660; d. by 21 Nov. 1721; mar. Patience. He was a cooper. He was transported into Md. in Oct. 1677 (Early Settlers 15:454). He secured patents to two tracts of land between the Pocomoke River and Dividing Creek, in what came to be called Atkinson's District: "Poore Hall" (350 acres) and "Keoughtons Choice" (150 acres), both in 1694. He signed his will 20 Apr. 1717, bequeathing to wife Patience (Patience) his dwelling plantation, which at her death should go to son Samuel (now under 10), together with 100 acres of "Coopers Punkin." To sons Joshua and Anglow (under age) and heirs he left 250 acres of "Poor Hall," near the plantation of Edward Jones; to son Isaac (under 21) he left 70 acres; he also named son John, daughters Rachel Jackson, and Tamar and Backster (under 10). If his wife should remarry, sons should be of age at 18, otherwise at 21. Witnesses were Jeremiah and Eleanor Morris and Donnoch Dennis. On 22 Nov. 1721 appeared Patience Atkinson and claimed her thirds (Ann. Wills 17:88). Children (partial list):

- i. John, b. c1697; d. by 6 Mar. 1750 (Worc. bond).
- ii. Joshua, b. c1699; d. by 4 Aug. 1756 (Worc. bond).
- iii. Angelo, b. c1701; d. by 30 May 1766; see No. 2 below.
- iv. Isaac, b. c1703; d. by 13 Jan. 1744/45 (Worc. bond).
- v. Samuel, b. c1709; d. by 4 June 1767 (Worc. bond).

2 ANGELO ATKINSON² (James¹), b. Som. Co., Md. c1701; d. Worc. Co. by 30 May 1766; mar. (c1732) Rachel Laws, daughter of William and Sarah (BEVANS) LAWS (see Note, p. 446). Angelo Atkinson signed his will 3 Feb. 1766, bequeathing to son John a house and lot in Snow Hill, also "all my share" in "Bald Cypress Swamp" jointly taken up with William Allen, on the east side of Pocomoke River opposite Allen's plantation, also a swamp, "Johns Choice," 50 acres. To son Joshua he left a plantation bought from Solomon Gray in Nassawadox Neck, also land on the road from John Fleming's to Dividing Creek Bridge, "Little Addition," bought from Joseph Allen and Benjamin Scott, and "Resurvey" thereon; also "Smiths Folly." To sons Joshua and Angelo he left land and houses at Capt. John Scott's Landing, Angelo to receive dwelling plantation and lands in Nassawadox Neck. He also named daughters Sarah and Patience Atkinson, Rachel Fleming, Betty Tilney (wife of Hezekiah), and grandchildren Sarah Selby (under 18) and William Atkinson Selby (children of John Selby) (Worc. Wills JW 3:109-111). Six of the eight children (all born Worc. Co., but those before 1745 in then Som. Co. before creation of Worc. Co.; baptised Coventry):

- i. Rachel, b. c1733; d. by 3 June 1808; mar. 1st (Coventry, 29 Jan. 1753) Joshua FLEMING (No. 5, p. 390); 2nd Isaac Bozman Schoolfield.
- ii. John, b. c1735; d. by 12 May 1779; in his will, signed 21 Mar. 1779, he bequeathed to wife Mary the plantation whereon "my father Angelo lived," after he death or marriage the land to go to John and Angelo, sons of "my brother" Joshua; he also left cash to Joshua's daughter Rachel and to Isaac Bozman Schoolfield's daughter-in-law [i. e. step-daughter], Rachel Fleming (Worc. Wills JW 4:494).
- iii. Joshua, b. c1737; d. by 23 Apr. 1773; see No. 3 below.
- iv. Sarah, b. 6 Sept. 1745.
- v. Angelo, b. 20 Feb. 1747/48; d. Worc. Co. by 11 Mar. 1789; in his will, signed 31 Aug. 1787 he left to his children Sarah, Joshua, and Isaac all the estate which came to him "by my wife" Sarah Jarman and all bond, notes, books, etc. for the education of "my children," all under age: Sarah, Joshua, Isaac, Angelo, George, Betsey, Benjamin, and Anne (Worc. Wills JW 13:206).
- vi. Patience, b. Feb. 1750.

3 JOSHUA ATKINSON³ (Angelo² James¹), b. c1737; d. by 23 Apr. 1773; mar. (c1766) Sarah CORD, daughter of William and Rachel CORD (see Note, p. 446). In his will, signed 22 Jan. 1773, Joshua bequeathed to his son Angelo "all land I now live on," also land "my father" bought of John Scott and Joseph Allen, also "Great Addition," Angelo to be in the care of "trusty friend" Solomon Townsend, Sr., until the age of 21. To son John was left house and lot "my father" bought of John Scott and "Bald Cypress swamp" which "my father took up the river." Daughter Rachel Atkinson was to receive Negroes; wife Sarah was named executor. Witnesses were Jonathan Hutson, John and Neomy Taylor (Worc. Wills JW 4:142). One of his sons:

- i. Angelo, b. 9 Jan. 1769; d. by 1 Mar. 1853; see No. 4 below.

4 ANGELO ATKINSON⁴ (Joshua³ Angelo² James¹), b. Worc. Co. 1767/68, d. Worc. Co. by 1 Mar. 1853; mar. (lic. Worc. Co. 30 Nov. 1795) Sarah Hudson. Angloe Atkinson, aged 82, is listed in the 1850 Worc. Co. census (7th Election Dist.) in the household (#50) of David G. Odell and (wife) Mary (b. 1797/98). Angelo made his will 3 June 1850, with the following bequests: to grandson, Angelo A. Harris (executor), all land and the plantation "wherein I now reside, on the eastern side of the main county road leading from the ferry called 'Cottingham's' or 'Scott's' Landing to Atkinson's Mill, also all the river swamp lands on the south side of the Pocomoke River; to great-granddaughter Mary A. Harris, daughter of Angelo A. Harris, a Negro, Isaac; to great-grandchildren James W. Bishop (of James W., decd.) and Sally Williams (of Dr. John F. Williams), land on the western side of the county road (and he mentioned land where the widow of "my deceased grandson" James W. Bishop resides; to granddaughter Esther Ann Williams, residue of land if either dies; to daughter Mary Odell, a large Bible; with other bequests to six great-grandchildren: Mary A., Angelo A., and James Boyer Harris (of grandson Angelo A. Harris); David G. O. and George T. Truitt (of William R.) and Virginia Harris (of William S.). Witnesses were John R. Franklin, John Williams, William A. Waples (Worc. Wills TT 8:60). In a codicil to the will, 9 July 1851, grandson Angelo A. Harris having died, his widow Harriet was to enjoy the right in the land left to her husband. A daughter was:

- i. Mary, b. 4 Nov. 1796; d. Worc. Co. 22 Nov. 1867; mar. 1st (lic. Worc. 27 Feb. 1815) Tubman HARRIS (see p. 399, No. 6), b. 30 July 1793; d. Worc. Co. by 9 Oct. 1822; 2nd (lic. Worc. 3 Jan. 1826) David Gaylord Odell, b. 15 June 1794; d. Worc. Co. 26 Sept. 1850.

BENSTON AND ALLIED FAMILIES

The Benston family came into Somerset Co., Md., in 1673, but returned to Accomack Co., Va., evidently residing just below Pitts Creek (on the border between Md. and Va.); descendants returned to Md. in the 1750's, settling just north of the borderline near Pitts Creek, in Worcester Co. Although Eleanor (Nelly) Benston who married JACOB BOSTON (17) is undoubtedly of this same family, no definite connection has been found; see the DRYDEN family for other Benstons who may also be related but for whom no connection has been established.

The Houston family entered Somerset Co., also from Accomack Co., Va., in 1668, settling at Pitts Creek. The Youngs were in the same vicinity at least as early as 1721.

Much of the following information has been compiled by Mrs. Anne G. Greene of Philadelphia.

ROBERT HOUSTON, b. c1635; d. Pocomoke, Som. Co., Md., by 20 Jan. 1693/94. Robert Houston was listed as a tithable in Accomack Co., Va. in 1667. In 1671 he secured a patent for a 500 acre tract, "Assurance," in Som. Co. (now Worc. Co.). On 12 Mar. 1671/72 "Robert Houlstone" was on the "grand Jury of Enquest" (Torrence, p. 118). By his will, signed 25 Apr. 1693, Robert Houston of Pocomoke, Som. Co., bequeathed to eldest son John "Scotts Lott" (100 acres) "which he already has"; to son Robert, the home plantation; to son James, 150 acres, the same three sons to share equally part of "Houston's Choice" (75 acres); to son Thomas "Second Choice"; to sons Joseph and Benjamin, the land mentioned, in the event of the death of other sons; and he named daughter Grace Benson and wife Grace. Children James, Comfort, Thomas, Joseph, and Benjamin were under 16 (Som. Wills EB9:30); witnesses were John Taylor, Henry Schoolfield, and (son-in-law) William Benson. Three of the children, whose births are recorded in Som. Deeds L K L.):

- i. John, b. 2 Feb. 1668/69.
- ii. Robert, b. 5 Jan. 1670/71.
- iii. Grace, "daughter of Robert Houston & Grace his wife [born] at Pocomoke 5 Dec. 1672"; mar. William BENSTON; see No. 2 below.

1 FRANCIS BENSTON, b. c1630; d. Accomack Co., Va. by 7 Feb. 1709/10. William and Francis Benstone were listed together as tithables in Acco. Co. in 1663, and Francis continued to be listed 1664-71, but on 29 June 1673 he was in Som. Co., Md.; listed as headrights for him were his wife Mary and children William, Francis, John, James, and Mary. In 1674 he patented a tract, "Benstons Lott." In 1675 James, John, and Mary, children of Francis Benston, were listed as Md. immigrants. By his will, signed 7 Dec. 1708, Francis Benston, planter, of Accomack Co., bequeathed to son Francis 100 acres adjacent "where I now dwell at the Virginia Maryland line," and land in Md., "Benstons Lott," adjacent where son Francis now lives; to son William Benston (executor) he left the balance of the land, 300 acres adjacent land of Francis. Witnesses were Joseph Fittiman, Starlin Newton, Alexander Benston (Nottingham, p. 35). (See Note, p. 446.) Children, born presumably in Accomack Co., Va.):

- i. William, b. c1655; d. July 1718; see No. 2 below.
- ii. Francis, Jr., b. c1657.
- iii. John, b. c1659.
- iv. Mary, b. c1661; mar. (Som. Co. 13 Nov. 1679) James Sangster; they had daughter Frances, b. 4 Sept. 1680.
- v. James, b. c1663.

2 WILLIAM BENSTON² (Francis¹), b. c1655; d. Accomack Co. by 5 Aug. 1718; mar. (c1690) Grace Houston, daughter of Robert and Grace Houston (see above), b. Pocomoke, 5 Dec. 1672. By his will, signed 24 Nov. 1717, William named brother Francis Benston, wife Grace (executor), and children Robert, John, William, Holston [Houston], James, Benjamin, and Ellener (Nottingham, p. 45). One son, John, is noticed below (No. 3).

3 JOHN BENSTON³ (William² Francis¹), b. Accomack Co., Va. c1693; d. Accomack Co. by 26 Feb. 1754; mar. evidently as 2nd wife Hannah Pitts, daughter of John and Hannah (Henderson) Pitts (see HENDERSON family), b. c1720; d. Worc. Co., Md. by 27 Sept. 1791. In his undated will John Benston bequeathed to wife Hannah his "manor plantation" for 5 years, then to son Micajah Benston. He also named grandchildren John and Elizabeth Gray and John Bensten, and children Ezekiel, Isaiah, Zepheniah, Levineah, Leah, and Hannah Benston (Nottingham, p. 139). Hannah Benston signed her will 24 Aug. 1790, naming daughter Levinah Davis, son-in-law Benjamin Davis, grandchildren Major, Zepheniah, Benjamin, and Hannah Davis, and son Zepheniah Benston (Worc. Wills JW 18:44). Children by second marriage:

- i. Levinah, b. c1744; mar. Benjamin Davis.
- ii. Hannah, b. c1746; d. young.
- iii. Zepheniah, b. c1748; d. by 9 Oct. 1810; see No. 4 below.

4 ZEPHENIAH BENSTON (BENSTON)⁴ (John³ William² Francis¹), b. Accomack Co., Va. c1748; d. Worc. Co., Md. by 9 Oct. 1810. He served in the Worc. Co. Militia during the American Revolution (Md. Militia Lists, Part 5, p. 27). By his will, signed 18 Sept. 1810, he made bequests to grandson William Benston, son Levin Benston, sons-in-law James Redden and Joseph Young ($80), the latter named executor, and he mentioned "each of my daughters' children excepting Polley Brittingham's children"

(Worc. Wills MH 4:228). Three weeks after Benson's will was admitted to probate, on 30 Oct. 1810 an inventory was made, with mention of Joseph Young, "late executor of the last will... of Zepheniah Benston" (Worc. Accts. MH12:303). A bond was posted 10 Aug. 1813 for Michael Murray, executor of Joseph Young; on 12 Nov. 1813 Stephen Townsend became executor for Benston, and on 12 Apr. 1815 John Stevenson became executor, with Michael Murray as a security on both bonds. On 25 Oct. 1816 "came John Stevenson, administrator de bonis non with will annexed of Zepheniah Benston;... sworn vouchers and credits in the foregoing account were delivered to [Stevenson] by Michael Murray, executor of Joseph Young, ... late executor of Zepheniah Benston" (Worc. Accts. MH12:305). On 31 July 1818 John Stevenson, trustee, sold to Samuel Brittingham the real estate of Zepheniah Benston, 72 acres, "Last of All" and "Partnership" in Pitts Creek Hundred (Worc. Deeds AS:24).

Children (born Pitts Creek, Worcester Co., Md.):

- i. ?Esther, b. c1773; mar. (lic. Worc. Co. 20 June 1796) Stephen Townsend, who d. by 27 Jan. 1815 (Worc. bond).
- ii. William, b. c1775; d. ? before 18 Sept. 1810.
- iii. Sarah, b. c1777; mar. (lic. Worc. Co. 21 May 1798) James Redden.
- iv. Polly, b. c1779; mar. ?Samuel Brittingham, b. 1778/79.
- v. Nancy, b. c1781; mar. Joseph YOUNG; see No. 3 below.
- vi. ?Hannah, b. c1783; mar. (lic. Worc. 2 Dec. 1808) Josiah Henderson.
- vii. Levin M., b. c1785; mar. (lic. Worc. 29 Dec. 1810) Margaret C. Long.

BENSTON - YOUNG FAMILY

1 DANIEL YOUNG, b. c1710; d. Worc. Co., Md. 6 Sept. 1771. Though there were Youngs in Somerset Co. earlier, nothing is known of Daniel's parentage. In the will of William Henderson of Manokin Parish, Som. Co., signed 21 Feb. 1720/21 (prob. 29 Apr. 1721) Daniel Young, an orphan lad, was left in the care of "my father-in-law," but he was to be "free" at 17, and Daniel was bequeathed 1000 pounds of tobacco for his education (Ann. Wills 16:424). Worc. Co. debt books show that Daniel Young was in possession of 100 acres "Mt. Pleasant" 1745-1774. According to the 1783 Worc. Co. tax list, Ezekiel Young, Daniel's heir-at-law, owned this tract. Daniel's will was made "at his own house in his last sickness the day before his death" in the presence of Daniel Townsend and Abraham Newton, who appeared 7 Sept. 1771 and "deposed... that on Wednesday Evening the 5th Instant they were present at the house of Daniel Young now deceased." He left all to his wife Elizabeth, to raise his three youngest children; his children and heir at law being present, "the said Daniel advised him to oversee the plantation and his mother... and at her death to take care of the said three children during their minority." The widow elected to take her thirds of the estate and renounced administration on 4 Oct. 1771 (Worc. Wills JW 4:76). (For additional details see Note, p. 446.) Two sons:

- i. Ezekiel, b. c1733; d. by 14 Mar. 1799; see No. 2 below.
- ii. Daniel, Jr., b. c1735; d. by 11 Oct. 1811.

2 EZEKIEL YOUNG² (Daniel¹), b. Som. (later Worc.) Co., Md. c1733; d. Worc. Co. by 14 Mar. 1799 (bond). According to an inventory of his goods and chattels made 16 May 1799, nearest of kin were Joseph Young and Mary Bousee (Worc. Inv. & Accts. JBR 2:288). In a deed of 7 Sept. 1801 Joshua Duer, Anderson Patterson, and Levi Henderson, commissioners appointed to sell the tract "Mt. Pleasant," conveyed it to Levin Powell. Ezekiel Young having died intestate owning the land, his children were Ephraim Young, Joseph Bousee and Mary his wife, Nancy Young, Sally Young, and Joseph Young; the land was sold at auction to Powell, the highest bidder (Worc. Deeds U:375). (For additional details, see Note, p. 446.) One son:

- i. Joseph, b. c1776; d. by 10 Aug. 1813; see No. 3 below.

3 JOSEPH YOUNG³ (Ezekiel² Daniel¹), b. Worc. Co. c1776; d. Worc. Co. by 10 Aug. 1813; mar. (lic. Worc. Co. 8 Oct. 1806) Nancy BENSON (BENSTON), daughter of Zepheniah Benston (see No. 4 above). On 11 Apr. 1801 Joseph bought from Bayly and Susey Young land on the Pocomoke River whereon Joseph Young was living, part called "Young's Addition to New Town," a small distance below where Ephraim Young formerly lived, near Davis's Branch, just above the old bridge to Roach's. On 29 July 1809 Joseph bought from Levi and George Houston "Wooden Underage" near New Town, on the edge of the county road that leads from New Town to Virginia; from Joseph Richards he bought parts of "Cowley" 29 July 1809 and 29 Apr. 1811; and on 19 Oct. 1811, from Thomas Brittingham, he bought part of "Piney Point" in Pitts Creek Hundred (Worc. Deeds U:154; AA:356, 357; AB:31, 422). During 1811 Joseph was constable of Pitts Creek Hundred. He signed his will 30 June 1813, making bequests to son Edward S. ("my house and lot that I bought of Joseph Richards, including all my real estate on the Eastermost side of the county road"), to daughter Hetty M. Young, and to son James H. Young; he provided for the disposal of "the cypress timber and stuff belonging to my cooper shop," and made a bequest to the trustees of the Methodist meeting house in New Town. Executors were James Tilghman and Michael Murray (Worc. Wills MH 10:11). Children of Joseph and Nancy (Benston) Young (born Pitts Creek, Md.):

- i. Edward S., b. 29 Oct. 1807; d. Pocomoke, Md. 29 June 1885; buried Meth. Prot. Cemetery.
- ii. Hetty M.
- iii. James Henry, b. 7 Nov. 1812; d. 24 Dec. 1894; see No. 4 below.

4 JAMES HENRY YOUNG⁴ (Joseph³ Ezekiel² Daniel¹), b. Pitts Creek, Worc. Co. 7 Nov. 1812; d. Pocomoke City, Md. 24 Dec. 1894; mar. 1st Sarah E. M. Stevenson, daughter of Joseph and Sally (JONES) STEVENSON (see JONES family), b. 2 July 1816; d. ?New Town (Pocomoke), 19 Feb. 1854; both buried Meth. Prot. Cemetery, Pocomoke. He mar. 2nd (c1855) his wife's sister, Emmeline J. Stevenson, b. 31 Mar. 1824; d. Pocomoke, 2 Apr. 1883; buried M. P. Cemetery. In the 1850 census James was listed as a sailor, in 1860 in the steam milling business. He was reportedly captain of a schooner in the Bay trade and co-partner in a steam mill. Children (born Newtown, Worc. Co., Md.; first seven by first marriage; dates from graves in M. P. Cemetery):

- i. Olevia J., b. 18 Nov. 1842; d. 13 Apr. 1862.
- ii. Margaret Ann Grace, b. 29 Sept. 1844; d. 9 Feb. 1926; mar. JACOB EDWARD STEVENSON (256).
- iii. James T., b. 1846.
- iv. Norris, b. 28 Nov. 1848; d. 22 Dec. 1849.
- v. Sallie T., b. 1 Mar. 1850; d. Oct. 1852.
- vi. Lewis W., b. 30 May 1851; d. 29 June 1886.
- vii. Emma R., b. 1853; mar. (Worc. 28 Jan. 1874) Chas. H. Coulbourne.
- viii. Sally E., b. 7 Mar. 1856; d. 27 Oct. 1857.
- ix. James Henry, b. 1857
- x. Francis O. B., b. 3 Dec. 1861; d. 3 Sept. 1879.
- xi. Daughter, b. c1863; mar. --- Mills.
- xii. William Justin, b. 1 May 1866; d. 13 Apr. 1945.
- xiii. Ernest Cortland, b. 13 Sept. 1870; d. 2 June 1937.

BYRD FAMILY OF ACCOMACK COUNTY, VIRGINIA

The account of that portion of the Byrd family descended from Nathaniel (see No. 5 below) is derived to a considerable extent from The History and Genealogy of the Byrd Family (Pocomoke City, Md., 1908), by Colwell P. Byrd, supplemented by further research. Colwell P. Byrd writes (p. 13): "The author of this book, having very recently made diligent search among the old records of wills and deeds in the clerk's office at Accomack Court House, found the old books so mutilated and worn from age that it was a matter of impossibility to find any accurate date of their settlement in [Accomack County]; consequently, the writer is under the necessity of following the tradition which he has received from his ancestors relative to some facts about this worthy family which was [sic] transmitted to his father, who was born in 1777." The care with which the records of Accomack Co. are now preserved and arranged, however, and the valuable work done by Stratton Nottingham, in Wills and Administrations, Accomack County, Virginia, 1663-1800, have made research much easier.

According to a tradition cited by Colwell P. Byrd (p. 15), his Byrd family is descended from William Byrd, who came from England and settled in Virginia on the James River at Westover in 1670, inheriting the estate of his uncle, Thomas Stegg of London, a goldsmith, who, for a while, resided in Virginia. Also according to this same tradition Nathaniel Byrd, who died 1780 (see No. 3 below), came to the Eastern Shore from the Western Shore of Virginia in the early eighteenth century, settling on the north side of Muddy Creek.

An examination of the records, however, reveals that Nathaniel Byrd (No. 3) belonged to at least the third generation of the family on the Eastern Shore and that the family had settled there as early as 1664. Moreover, estimated ages indicate that Edward Byrd (c1645-1697), the earliest known progenitor of the Eastern Shore Byrd family, could not have been a son of William Byrd of Westover (1652-1704); they could possibly have been brothers, though no evidence has been found to connect the two Byrd families. Some of the Byrds in Accomack County, perhaps on the basis of Colwell P. Byrd's book, maintain that they are not related to the other Byrds in the county, but evidence appears to demonstrate that all the Byrds in the county are descended from the same immigrant ancestor. Corrections for several errors have been provided by Lucy Ames Edward's excellent book, Ames, Mears, and Allied Families (1967) and by Mrs. Russell Ratigan of White Bear Lake, Minn.

In the early records the name is usually spelled Bird, sometimes Burd or Byrd; within the last century and a half the name has come to be consistently spelled Byrd.

1 EDWARD BIRD,¹ b. c1645; d. Accomack Co., Va. by 3 Aug. 1697. Edward bird was a headright 10 May 1664 for Richard Kellum, who was granted 900 acres in Accomack Co. at the head of Matchepungo Creek (Nugent I:454). Edward Bird (Burd) first appeared among the tithables of Accomack Co. in 1676 in the same neighborhood as William Chase, John Kellam, and Arthur Robins; Bird's name continues to appear through 1695. For the year 1692-95 the name of Joseph Bird also appears. In 1693 a William Byrd granted power of attorney to John Custis (Acco. Deeds, Part I, 1692-1715, p. 27). On 20 Dec. 1692, for 3000 lbs. of tobacco, Edward Bird purchased from Robert Taylor a 100 acre tract at "Matomkin" (Acco. Deeds 1682-97:263). Edward Bird signed his will 12 Apr. 1697, bequeathing to "son-in-law" (step-son) William Rodgers (executor) his entire estate, Rodgers to maintain "me and my now wife Jane Bird during our natural lives." Son John Bird was bequeathed cattle (Nottingham, p. 22).

2 JOHN BIRD² (Edward¹), b. c1675; d. probably at Muddy Creek, Accomack Co. by 5 Mar. 1727/28. His wife's or mother's maiden name may have been Eburn, for he named a son Eburn, and the name recurs in the family for generations. In 1715 he purchased from William Nock 650 acres of land and marsh, bounded on the north by Cattail Creek, land which he bequeathed to two of his sons (Whitelaw, p. 1207). In his will, signed 26 Jan. 1727/28, John Bird bequeathed to his son Nathaniel (named executor) "the land where Nathaniel now lives"; to son Solomon all remaining land and marsh, and he named as residuary legatees sons Eborn, Daniel, Major, and Solomon Bird (Nottingham, pp. 62-63). Children (born presumably Muddy Creek, Accomack Co., Va.):

- i. Nathaniel, b. c1702; d. by 29 Feb. 1780; see No. 3 below.
- ii. Eburn, b. c1704; d. Acco. Co. by 31 May 1768; he signed his will 18 Nov. 1766, bequeathing to son Jacob (executor) 90 acres adjacent Thomas Hargress and to grandson Levi Byrd 105 acres; he made other bequests to daughter Mary Hornsby and grandson Eburn Hornsby, and to grandsons Jacob and Major Byrd. In the order of probate Littleton Dennis was appointed guardian of Levi Byrd, heir at law (Nottingham, p. 186). Levi was son of an unnamed elder son of Eburn. It was Eburn's son Jacob who d. Acco. Co. by 28 Oct. 1783; and his (Jacob's) son Jacob d. intestate 1813 (Edwards, p. 51).
- iii. Daniel, b. c1706; d. by 26 June 1751; see No. 4 below.
- iv. Major, b. c1708; d. Acco. Co. by 30 July 1751, estate administered by Sarah Bird (Nottingham, p. 106). Apparently Major's only children to survive were two daughters (see Note, p. 447).
- v. Solomon, b. c1710; d. Acco. Co. 28 Sept./30 Nov. 1784; he was survived apparently by only three daughters (see Note, p. 447).

3 NATHANIEL BIRD, SR.³ (John² Edward¹), b. c1702; d. Acco. Co. by 29 Feb. 1780; in his will, signed 30 Dec. 1778, he named son Jacob, brother Solomon Bird, daughters Sarah Bird, Charity Bird, Rachell Johnson, and granddaughter Elizabeth Bird, daughter of Nathaniel (Nottingham, p. 245). Nathaniel, Jr., though not named as a legatee, as the elder son would have automatically inherited any land. Sons of Nathaniel (born probably at Muddy Creek, Accomack Co., Va.):

- i. Nathaniel, Jr., b. c.1725; d. Nov./Dec. 1803; see No. 5 below.
- ii. Jacob, b. c.1727; d. by 29 Apr. 1794; see No. 6 below.

4 DANIEL BIRD³ (John² Edward¹), b. c.1706; d. Acco. Co. by 26 June 1751 (bond); mar. 2nd Margaret --. The son John assigned to Daniel is hypothetical, but John seems most logically to belong here, for the families of all Daniel's brothers appear to be fully accounted for, and the fact that the distinctive name Eburn occurs several times among John's descendants strongly suggests that he is a member of this Bird family. (See Note, p. 447). Possibly posthumous son, by second marriage:

- i. John W., b. ?1751; d. by 1 Dec. 1829; see No. 7 below.

5 NATHANIEL BIRD (BYRD), JR.⁴ (Nathl.³ John² Edward¹), b. c.1725; d. Muddy Creek by 26 Dec. 1803; mar. Naomi Watson (according to family tradition). In his will, signed 2 Nov. 1803, he bequeathed to wife Naomi Bird use of his whole estate during her life; to son Parker, land adjacent John Bird's and Selby Bird's land; to son Daniel, land adjacent Nathaniel Bird, Jr.; to grandson Colly Bird, land adjacent Nathaniel Bird, Jr.; to grandson Custis Bird, land adjacent tract, "Gales." He also made bequests to daughters Rachel and Naomi Bird, Elizabeth Trader, Rebecca Bloxom, and son Johannes, who with Parker Bird was to be executor. Witnesses were Arthur Watson, Thomas Kilby, Levin Bloxom, Ezekiel Harman (Acco. Wills 1800/4, p. 709). Children (born Muddy Creek, Accomack Co., Va.):

- i. Major, b. c.1763; d. 1810/20; see No. 8 below.
- ii. Selby, b. c.1765; d. c.1800; see No. 9 below.
- iii. Rebecca, mar. John Bloxom.
- iv. Parker, b. 18 May 1769; d. 18 Oct. 1820; see No. 10 below.
- v. Elizabeth, b. c.1772; mar. Littleton Trader; see No. 11 below.
- vi. Nathaniel, b. c.1775; d. young.
- vii. Johannes, b. 2 Dec. 1777; d. 8 Sept. 1853; see No. 12 below.
- viii. Naomi, b. c.1779; mar. Southey Northam; see No. 13 below.
- ix. Rachel, b. c.1781; mar. Jacob Kelly.
- x. Daniel T., b. 30 Oct. 1785; d. 30 Mar. 1846; see No. 14 below.

6 JACOB BIRD⁴ (Nathaniel³ John² Edward¹), b. c.1727; d. probably at Muddy Creek, Mar./Apr. 1794. In his will, signed 4 Mar. 1794 (prob. 29 Apr.) he made bequests to "eldest son" Nathaniel Bird "all the tract I live on," 60 acres; to second son Ebon; to youngest son, Jacob, 25 acres of "Gales Land" (Solomon Boston sold part of "Gales land" in 1797, a tract adjacent to Selby Bird). Jacob also named eldest daughter Sarah Bird, youngest daughter Catharine Bird, the latter four residuary legatees. A witness was Solomon Boston (13) (Acco. Wills 1794/96, p. 35). (Jacob's parentage has been identified by Mrs. Russell Ratigan.) Sons (born probably at Muddy Creek, Accomack Co., Va.):

- i. Nathaniel, b. c.1758; d. c.1800; see No. 15 below.
- ii. Ebon (Eburn, Ebron), b. c.1760; d. Acco. Co. by 29 Jan. 1816; in his will, signed 11 Dec. 1815, he named wife Sally, daughter Sukey, youngest daughters Margaret and Eliza Bird, [son] William Burd (executor) to receive the plantation (Acco. Wills 1814/16, p. 389). It was probably this Eburn Bird listed in St. George Parish, 1810 census for Acco. Co.; his son William was listed there in 1820. Of his children, Susan (Sukey) mar. --Chandler; William, b. c.1792, mar. (Acco. 1816) Hesty Mears (ancestors of Mrs. Ratigan); Margaret mar. --Kellam; Elizabeth, b. c.1800, mar. (Acco. bond 1 Oct. 1821) Levin James.
- iii. Jacob, b. c.1762.

7 JOHN W[ILLIAM?] BIRD (BYRD), SR.⁴ (Daniel³ John² Edward¹), b. c.1751; d. Acco. Co. by 1 Dec. 1829; mar. probably three times; 2nd, possibly (Northampton Co., Va. bond 26 Nov. 1792) Margaret Meholloms; 3rd (Acco. bond 7 June 1799) Esther Ross. Nathaniel Bird (No. 5) in his will (1803) mentioned land next to John Bird's. John Bird, Sr., is listed in Accomack Parish in the 1800 Federal census for Acco. Co., aged over 45, with 1 female over 45 (possibly his mother) and 1 female 26/45 (probably his wife); he is also listed in 1810 and 1820; in 1800 eight other dependents were in his household, in 1810 only four, but in 1820 nine; some may have been hired hands or servants, but John Bird would appear to have had as many as four sons and seven daughters, most of whom were excluded from his will. In his will, signed 6 July 1810, John Bird bequeathed to son Eburn Bird all lands, to daughter Cathren Bird a Negro; no other bequests were made. Thorowgood Taylor was named executor. Witnesses were Crippen Taylor, John Kilmond, Comfort Young, S. G. Taylor, and Samuel A. Holland. At a court held 1 Dec. 1829 John W. Bird opposed probate of the will, but it was proved by the witnesses (Acco. Wills 1800/4, p. 49). In the family Bible record of John W. and Nancy (Bloxom) Byrd appear the births of Eburn and John W. Bird, separated only by the birth of Nancy Bloxom (these the only three early births in the Bible record): Eburn identified as son of John, John W. as son of William. An attempted reconstruction of the family of John W. Bird, Sr. follows. Children (born probably at Muddy Creek):

- i. Nancy, b. 1774/75; at home 1800, 1820; probably the Nancy Bird in the household of John W. Bird, Jr. in 1850.
- ii. Son, b. 1774/84; at home 1800, 1820.
- iii. Daughter, b. 1774/84; at home 1800, 1820.
- iv. Daughter, b. 1774/84; at home 1800, 1820.
- v. Mary, b. c.1787 (at home 1800); mar. (Acco. 30 Jan. 1806) John Harmon; John Bird surety on bond.
- vi. Daughter, b. 1794/1800; at home 1800, 1810, 1820.
- vii. Eburn (Ebron, Eburn), b. 6 Oct. 1802; d. Apr. 1863; see No. 16 below.
- viii. Daughter, b. 1804/10; at home 1810, 1820.
- ix. John W[illiam], [Jr.], b. 11 Oct. 1806 (at home 1810, 1820); d. 1850/60; see No. 17 below.
- x. George P., b. ?1808; d. 10 Apr. 1863 of consumption, Accomack Parish (aged 54), "son of J. and Esther Byrd"; in 1850 census George was b. 1810/11, wife Mary b. 1823; children: Decatur F., b. 1841, Susan P., b. 1844, and Osborn J., b. 1847.
- xi. Catherine, b. 1804/10; at home 1820.

8 MAJOR BIRD⁵ (Nathaniel⁴ Nathaniel³ John² Edward¹), b. c.1763; d. 1810/20; mar. Nancy Watson. Children:

- i. Margaret, b. 1788; d. 1855; mar. Thomas Kelly.
- ii. Tabitha, b. c.1790; mar. Israel Trader; see No. 18 below.
- iii. Major, b. 1793/94; d. 1860/70.

9 SELBY (BIRD) (BYRD)⁵ (Nathaniel⁴ Nathaniel³ John² Edward¹), b. c.1765; d. c.1800; mar. Hester Wessels, daughter of William WESSELS (p. 436). Children (born Muddy Creek, Acco. Co., Va.):

- i. Custis Walter, b. 3 Aug. 1794; d. 1840/50; mar. 1st (Acco. bond, 28 Oct. 1816) Keziah Taylor, daughter of Shadrack Taylor of Sandy Branch; 2nd (c.1823) Mary Fisher. Children by first marriage (born Muddy Creek):
 1. Colmore E. ("Colly"), b. 18 Oct. 1817 [sic]; d. Baltimore, Md. 5 Sept. 1890.
 2. Hester Ann, b. 2 Feb. 1817 [sic] [?1819]; d. 8 June 1885; mar. (Acco. 8 Nov. 1834) Elijah KELLY, b. 5 Dec. 1807; d. 15 June 1892. Children:
 - a. Elijah, Jr., b. c.1835; mar. (1854) Evaline Bird (No. 17).
 - b. Parker, b. 1836 (1850 census)
 - c. Thomas C., b. 22 Aug. 1840; d. 13 Jan. 1929; mar. (Acco. 22 Nov. 1866) Sallie C. Nock; lived at Hallwood; Commissioner of Revenue, Accomack Co.
 - d. Riley L., b. 1 Nov. 1844; d. 27 Jan. 1885; mar. MARY E. GLADDING (227); though Colwell P. Byrd neglected to include Riley, census and marriage records testify to his parentage.
- ii. Colmore S., b. 3 Apr. 1796; d. Muddy Creek, Jan. 1845; among his children was Solomon C. (1827-28), evidently named for Colmore's nephew Solomon C. Boston (55).
- iii. Enatia, b. 4 Apr. 1799; d. 11 June 1864; mar. DANIEL BOSTON, JR. (28).

10 PARKER BIRD⁵ (Nathaniel⁴ Nathaniel³ John² Edward¹), b. 18 May 1769; d. Muddy Creek, 18 Oct. 1920; mar. (Acco. bond, 4 Feb. 1800) Keziah Gillaspie (Gillespie). Three of their children (born Muddy Creek, Accomack Co., Va.):

- i. Selby, b. 23 Dec. 1807; d. Muddy Creek, 3 Apr. 1880.
- ii. Sally, b. 1810; d. 1850/59; mar. SOLOMON J. SMALL (50).
- iii. Richard P., b. 4 Mar. 1813; mar. (1 Mar. 1843) Nancy Parker; he reported the deaths of George (see No. 7x above) and Eburn Byrd (see No. 16 below) in 1863.

11 ELIZABETH BIRD⁵ (Nathaniel⁴ Nathaniel³ John² Edward¹), b. c1772; mar. Littleton TRADER. Their children were: Tabitha, Ann, and:

i. Samuel, b. c1800; d. c1842; see No. 19 below.

12 JOHANNES BYRD⁵ (Nathl.⁴ Nathl.³ John² Edward¹), b. 2 Dec. 1774; d. Muddy Creek, 8 Sept. 1853; mar. 1st (Acco. bond, 10 Sept. 1802) Margaret Kelley, who d. Nov. 1813; 2nd (1816) Elana Cocke of Acco. Co. He was a Whig and a Baptist; served in War of 1812. His children by first marriage were: Jacob K., 29 Apr. 1809; Hetty, 1 Sept. 1811, mar. Caldwell Family of Virginia

The following information is derived from a history of the Finley family compiled in 1940 by Albert Finley France, Annapolis, Md., for Mrs. Georgia Boston Thorpe of Owensboro, Ky.

The name is said to have been spelled variously Colville, Colwell, Cauldwell, and Caldwell; it means "cold wells," in reference to wells of cold water on the family estate in Scotland. According to tradition three brothers, John, Alexander, and Oliver, late of "Mount Arid" in France, [in the 1530's] were allowed to purchase near Solway Firth the estate of a Bishop Douglas with the consent of King James V, on condition that their estate be known as Cauldwell and that when the king should require they should each send a son with 20 men to aid in the wars of the king. There is a cup preserved in Castle Caldwell in Co. Fermanagh, Ireland, which represents a chieftain and 20 armed and mounted men; one man is drawing water from a well, over the inscription "Alexander of Caldwell"; a fire is burning on a hill over the words "Mount Arid," and a ship surrounded by high waves accompanies the motto, "Facire Experere," "To strive to do." William Caldwell, son of the above Alexander, had sons William, Joseph, David, and John, who appeared [in the late seventeenth century] in the Parish of Enniskillen, Co. Fermanagh, in what is now Northern Ireland. Reliable history begins with Joseph Caldwell.

1 JOSEPH CALDWELL, bapt. 9 Jan. 1657; d. Lifford, Parish of Ballycogan, Co. Donegal, Ireland, 3 Sept. 1730; mar. (1682) Jane McGhie, daughter of Alexander; a son was John.

2 JOHN CALDWELL, b. Lifford, 1683; d. Cubs Creek, Lunenburg (now Charlotte) Co., Va. 6 Oct. 1750; mar. (Co. Donegal, 4 Jan. 1703) Margaret Phillips, daughter of James; she d. in Va. before 1748. John Caldwell, with his wife and five children, his brothers-in-law, James Moore, William Ritchie, and John Dudgeon, and their families, emigrated to America on the Eagle Wing, landing at New Castle, Del. 10 Dec. 1727. John first settled in Lancaster Co., Pa., then, before 1734, moved to Virginia, where he was a founder and member of Cubs Creek Presby. Church (now in Charlotte Co., about 20 miles from Hampden Sydney College); he was a justice of the peace in 1746 and on 10 Feb. 1748 received a grant of 1085 acres of land. Children:

- i. William, b. Ireland, 1703/04; d. Cubs Creek, Lunenburg Co., Va. 1761; mar. Rebecca Parks; their daughter:
 1. Martha, b. c1734; d. Abbeville, S.C.; mar. as his 2nd wife Patrick CALHOUN (1727-1796); their son was JOHN CALDWELL CALHOUN, celebrated American statesman, b. 18 Mar. 1782; d. Wash., D.C. 30 Mar. 1850.
- ii. Thomas, b. Ireland, 1705; d. Cubs Creek, 1770, aged 65; planter, large land owner; mar. Mary Jane Parks; children:
 1. Mary, b. Ireland, 1725; d. Augusta Co., Va. 1789, aged 64; mar. John FINLEY (p. 388, No. 14).
 2. John, b. 1727; d. Abbeville district, S.C. ?
 3. James, b. 1729; d. Va. 1787.
 4. William, b. 1731; believed to have moved to Ky., then Ind.
- iii. David, b. Ireland, 1708; d. Cubs Creek 1765/69.
- iv. Margaret, b. 1712; d. Va. 1791; mar. 1st William Rogers; 2nd James Mitchell.
- v. John, b. Ireland, 20 Mar. 1715; d. Maury Co., Tenn. 30 Oct. 1795.
- vi. Henry, b. 1720; d. 1752; single.
- vii. Robert, b. Lancaster Co., Pa. 1728; d. Boyle Co., Ky. 30 July 1808
- viii. James, b. Va. 18 Apr. 1734; d. Elizabethtown, N.J. 24 Nov. 1781; clergyman.

Chase Family of Accomack County, Virginia

The Chase family was in Virginia by 1652, in Accomack Co. by 1663. Although the name Chase rarely occurs in 18th century records in Accomack Co. and although evidence has not been found definitely to connect the original immigrant, William Chase, with Robert Chase (1765-1853), there would seem to be little doubt of the connection, for both lived in the same community.

WILLIAM CHASE (b. c1630; d. Acco. Co. c1683) was a head-right in 1653 for Mr. Thomas Purifoy and Mrs. Temperance Peppitt, who were granted 760 acres on North River in Mockjay Bay (Nugent, I:261). In Hungar's Parish, Northampton Co., Va. 16 Oct. 1660 William Chase was married to Sarah Hewitt. On 28 Oct. 1663, as security for a debt William Chase assigned to George Parker two servants, Frances Branson and Elliner Parker. On 5 Apr. 1666 Chase was granted by patent 650 acres on the south side of Pocomoke River, adjacent Charles Ratcliffe, land which William Chase, planter, and his wife Sarah sold 16 Mar. 1669 to John Evans of Northampton Co. for 6700 pounds of tobacco (Acco. Wills & Deeds, 1663/66, p. 39; 1664/71, pp. 155-56). William Chase appears in the list of tithables in Acco. Co. continuously from 1663 through 1683, the number of taxable persons varying between 6 (1663) and 2, usually 3 or 4. In 1684 the name of William Chase is replaced by John Chase (probably son of William), who continued as a single tithable through 1695.

Another WILLIAM CHASE (b. c1696; d. Acco. Co. 1737) was probably the son of John Chase and grandson of the first William Chase. The estate of William Chase was administered by Richard Dickinson 7 Dec. 1737, with Nehemiah Walker security (Nottingham, p. 85). The Robert Chase below would appear to be a grandson or great-grandson of this William Chase.

1 ROBERT CHASE, SR., b. Acco. Co. 1764/65; d. Acco. Co. 19 Nov. 1853; his wife was Sarah (Sally), b. 1767/68; d. 1850/56. He served in the Revolutionary War, as evidenced by a record of 30 May 1859 at Accomac: "Sally Chase, who was a pensioner of the United States and to whom Bounty Land Warrant No. 27, 629, dated 24th day of May 1856 for [160 acres] was granted as the widow of Robert Chase, a Private in the Revolutionary War, departed this life in this County intestate previous to the date of the said Warrant: that she left surviving... children and heirs at law... Jinny Trader, wife of Valentine Trader; Natia Marshall (formerly Chase), widow of Isaac [error for Henry?] Marshall; Polly (Chase) Killmon, widow of James Killman; Robert Chase and Susan (Chase) Ross, widow of Ezekiel Ross, all deceased since Sally Chase; Susan's only child, Levin T. Ross; and Robert Chase's children: Teackle, Alsivada, Sally, Mary (wife of James Stant), Elizabeth, wife of Raymond Trader, Comfort, Kendal, Brunetta, and Nancy Chase" (Nottingham, Soldiers... from Accomack Co., pp. 87-89). On 22 Feb. 1794 Robert and Sarah Chase sold to Henry Davis, for £55, 30 acres formerly belonging to Elijah Lucas, and on 9 Dec. 1794 they sold to Spencer Drummond land on Messongo Creek, "Timms Island and Marsh" (Acco. Deeds 1795/97:124, 275). Robert and Sally Chase were heads of a household (#966) in the 1850 census for Acco. Co.; with them were their son ROBERT and his family (see No. 3 below).

2 NATIA (NASHA) CHASE was evidently a sister of Robert Chase, who named a daughter Natia, Nasha Chase mar. (Acco. bond 30 July 1795) Henry MARSHALL, b. 1769/72; d. Acco. Co. 1860/70. He was a farmer, head of household #547 in Acco. Co. in 1850, aged 78; in 1860 his age was given as 91. In the same household in 1850 were Stephen MARSHALL and family (see No. 4 below).

COLLINS FAMILY OF SOMERSET CO., MARYLAND

The Collins family came into Somerset Co. as early as 1679, settling on the Pocomoke River, on the west bank, near the river mouth. The origins of the family are unknown.

1 SAMUEL COLLINS¹, b. c1655; d. Som. Co. by 19 Mar. 1707/

08; mar. (Som. Co. 3 Sept. 1680) Margaret Hodson. Samuel may or may not be a son (or brother) of the George Collins who signed his rather obscure will 11 Dec. 1703 (prob. 10 Feb. 1703/04), making bequests to daughter Elizabeth and son George, with remainder to daughters Mary, Rachel, Ann, and son John "Juror" [Jr.?], "the rest to have no part," and bequeathing "my land" to three sons, unnamed; witnesses were John Laramore and Thomas Relphe (Ann. Wills 11:290). It was probably George's son John Collins whose estate was administered by Thom. Relphe and John Collins, 8 July 1725 (Ann. Accts. 7:34).

Samuel Collins in 1679 patented the tract "Ham" on the Pocomoke River. On 31 Jan. 1687/88 he bought from Hugh Marnix 370 acres, "The Late Discovery," on the north side of Pocomoke River, near Guidar's Island, adjacent land formerly surveyed for Samuel Collins (Som. Deeds 18:154). In 1701 he further enlarged his holdings through a patent to "Collins Addition." Samuel Collins was a member of the Som. Co. Grand Jury 8 Mar. 1697/98 and a member of the Lower House of the Md. Assembly 1697/98-1699 (Torrence, pp. 378, 394).

Samuel Collins, bricklayer, of Pocomoke, signed his will 12 Jan. 1707/08, bequeathing to son Samuel Collings "born of my wife Margaret Collins") 300 acres, "Owen Glanders"; 300 acres, "Kings Neck," lying by "The Further Close" laid out by William Whittington, also 200 acres "Flander Hall" and part of "The Late Discovery"; to daughter Mary, "Snow's Hill," laid out by Col. Jenkins, part of "The Late Discovery"; to wife Eliza, executor. the dwelling plantation "Collings Addition" during her life; to son John, plantation aforesaid at death of wife Eliza, also residue of "The Late Discovery"; to two sons aforesaid and wife during her life, jointly, "Cold Hands," "Meddow" and a piece of marsh adjacent, called "Tilman's Adventure," and to son John and to wife land between "Tilghman's Adventure" and the Pocomoke River; other bequests were made to daughters Mary Collings, Sarah Clifton, and Anne Adams. Witnesses were Ralph Milbourne, John Clark, John Clunvan (Ann. Wills 12:262). Children of Samuel and Margaret Collins (born Pocomoke, Somerset Co., Md.):

- i. Sarah, b. c1681; mar. Michael Clifton.
- ii. Samuel, b. 6 Jan. 1683/84; d. by 21 Nov. 1719; see No. 2 below.
- iii. Anne, b. 29 May 1687; d. by 24 Sept. 1713; mar. Jacob ADAMS (q. v.).
- iv. John, b. 15 Sept. 1689; d. Som. Co. by 4 Apr. 1709; in his will, signed 24 Mar. 1708, John Collins, planter, made bequests to his sister Anne Adams and her son, to cousin (i. e. nephew) John Clifton, "my cousin my sister Ann Adams' son," to cousin Rachel Clifton (under 16), and to brother Samuel Collings; to his sister Mary Collings he left all his land; if she should die without issue it should pass to his sister Ann Adams' son. Witnesses were Ralph Milbourn. Michael Clifton, John Clark, John White (Som. Wills EB5:122).
- v. Mary, b. 8 Aug. 1692; d. Som. Co. by 27 Nov. 1713; in her will, signed 24 Sept. 1713, she bequeathed to sister Sarah Clifton (executor) negroes, and made other bequests to brother Samuel Collins, kinsman Collins Adams, son of her sister Anne, mother-in-law (i. e. step-mother) Elizabeth Cox, and the children of Samuel Collins, Sarah Clifton, Ann Adams, and Daniell Donohoe, Jr.; witnesses were William Powell, Ralph Milbourne, Matthew Tate (Som. Wills EB 9:48).

2 SAMUEL COLLINS² (Samuel¹), b. Pocomoke, 6 Jan. 1683/84; d. Som. Co. by 21 Nov. 1719, when his estate was being administered by Thomas and Katherine Bollin (Ann. Accts. 2:389). That he had at least one child by 1713 is indicated by his sister Mary's will. Son: Samuel, b. c1705; d. 30 Oct. 1757; see No. 3 below.

3 SAMUEL COLLINS³ (Samuel² Samuel¹), b. c1705; d. 30 Oct. 1757 (Coventry); mar. 1st (c1736) Rebecca, who d. in Feb. 1747/48 (Coventry); evidently mar. 2nd (c1751) Anne ?, who mar. (Coventry, 4 Mar. 1760) Caleb Milbourne. On 20 Mar. 1733/34 Samuel Collins and wife Rebecca, with John Milbourn, planter, sold 50 acres of "The Late Discovery," part of a tract which "Samuel Collins by will devised to his son Samuel Collins." On 2 July 1750 Samuel sold another part of the tract (on the Pocomoke River) to (his cousin) Collins Adams (Som. Deeds 18:154; 22:169). In his will, signed 5 June 1744 (prob. 24 Dec. 1757) Samuel Collins of Pocomoke, planter, bequeathed to wife Rebecah a third of his lands during her life, to sons Samuel and John (under 21) all the land; and he named children Mary and Margaret Collins (Som. Wills EB4:55). In the distribution (19 July 1760) of the estate of Samuel Collins, Margaret Collins, "one of ye dec^d daughters," received her third, as did the accountant (John Collins, executor), and the widow her third. The remaining balance was due to Samuel Collins, "who died since his father," his balance dividable "between the accountant John Collins and his sister Margaret, whole brother and sister to Samuel Collins deceased, as also between the children of the second marriage, viz. Catherine, Will. and Sarah Collins" (Ann. Accts. 46:37).

Caleb Milbourne, who mar. Samuel's widow, Anne Collins, in his will, signed 21 June 1792 (prob. 9 Feb. 1796), made bequests to granddaughter Anne Collins and to the children of his two daughters-in-law (i. e. step-daughters), Keteron Carsey and Sally Boston (Som. Wills EB17:475). Daniel Boston owed money to Milbourne's estate. Children of Samuel Collins (five eldest by first marriage, other three by second marriage; born Pocomoke):

- i. Samuel, b. c1737; d. 1757/60.
- ii. John, b. c1739; d. by 23 Jan. 1769; mar. (Coventry, 2 May 1759) Abigail Addams; in his will, signed 8 Nov. 1768, he named wife Abigail and children Rebecca, Samuel, Stephen, and unborn child, and also Jacob Adams (identifiable as his wife's brother) and Caleb Milbourne (his step-mother's husband) (Ann. Wills 37:43). John's son Samuel (b. 23 Jan. 1762; d. by 16 Mar. 1790) evidently mar. Sussie Milbourne (b. 31 Dec. 1760; d. c1789), daughter of Caleb Milbourne by his wife Anne, formerly the second wife of Samuel's grandfather, Samuel Collins, for Milbourne in his will named granddaughter Anne Collins. Samuel Collins in his will, signed 2 Feb. 1790, named mother Abigail Collins, son Samuel Collins, daughter Ann Collins (Som. Wills EB17:99).
- iii. Mary, b. c1741; d. 1744/60.
- iv. Margaret, b. 9 Feb. 1742/43.
- v. Stephen, b. 16 July 1747; d. young.
- vi. Catherine, b. c1752; mar. (Coventry, 1772) Peter Carsley.
- vii. William, b. c1754.
- viii. Sarah (Sally), b. c1756; d. c1796; mar. DANIEL BOSTON (15).

COULBOURN FAMILY OF SOMERSET CO., MARYLAND

The Coulbourn family was among the most prominent of the early settlers of Somerset County, Maryland. William Coulbourne was in Northampton County, Virginia, as early as 1652, and he came into Somerset County before January 1663/64. In the early records the name was spelled Coulbourne, but after the early eighteenth century it came to be spelled normally without the final -e, but sometimes spelled Coleburn.

It has not been feasible to demonstrate a connection between the early Coulbourns and several of that name who were later connected with the Boston family because there were other families of the name in Somerset County. There was a John Colebourn, who was among those who signed the address of loyalty to William and Mary and the Protestant religion in November 1689 (Torrence, p. 350). And there was a William Coulbourn, currier, who in June 1683 married Eliza Ellis, the daughter of John Ellis, Jr. Their children were (1) William, b. 31 Jan. 1683/84; (2) John, b. 14 Oct. 1687 at 2 a. m., d. in Worcester County, Maryland, in 1767; (3) Sarah, b. 1 Feb. 1689/90; and (4) Thomas, b. 2 Feb. 1691/92.

1 WILLIAM COULBOURNE¹, b. c1630; "Coll: William Coulbourne departed this life the two and twentieth day of January at Annessex" 1689/90. He was mar. twice, 1st to Anne, 2nd to Margaret Cooper. Probably of an old Somersetshire, England, family (Torrence, p. 549), he was in Northampton Co., Va. by 25 Mar. 1652, when he signed the "Engagement tendered to ye Inhabitants of Northampton County," promising "to be true and faithful to the Commonwealth of England as it is now Established without King or House of Lorde." Coulbourne had two patents for land in Northampton Co., each for 350 acres, 4 Mar. 1652/53 and 28 Feb. 1662/63. Though Coulbourne was apparently not himself a Quaker, his active sympathy with Quakers against the intolerant laws of Virginia led to his being arrested and ordered sent to James City for a hearing before Governor and Council, charged with aiding Quakers in defiance of the Act of Assembly. In 1672, after Coulbourne had become a prominent citizen of Somerset Co., George Fox, the celebrated founder of the Society of Friends in his travels through the colonies visiting Quaker centers, called at the home of Coulbourne and held a service there. Between Oct. 1663 and Jan. 1663/64 Coulbourne and his family settled at Annessex, on a 1,400 acre tract, "Pomfret," patented to him in June 1679; descendants still occupy portions of this land near Marion Station, Md. William Coulbourne almost continuously held public office in Som. Co.: he was commissioned under Capt. Thorne lieutenant of a company of foot, 26 Mar. 1664; captain of a company of foot, Feb. 1669/70; captain of a company of horse, Oct. 1673; in 1681 and Dec. 1688 he was commander of troops in Som. Co. He was a justice of the peace 1670-73, 1676-89 and high sheriff of Som. Co. Oct. 1673 and Nov. 1675. In July 1687 Col. William Coulbourne, by order of the Lord Proprietor of the province, headed a commission to draw up a treaty with the Nanticoke Indians; negotiations were successful, for the treaty was jointly signed 11 Aug. 1687 (Torrence, pp. 96, 322-325). Children (recorded in Som. Deeds L. K. L.):

- i. William, b. Nassawadox, Va. 8 Sept. 1658; d. by 9 June 1701; see No. 2 below.
- ii. Mary, b. Nassawadox, Va. 8 Nov. 1661; d. by 1689.
- iii. Solomon, b. at Annessex, 27 Jan. 1663/64; d. by 1689.
- iv. Anne, b. at Annessex, 9 Oct. 1665; mar. (c1680) John TAYLOR; their children (recorded Som. Co.):
 1. Anne, b. "Naswadux," 13 Feb. 1680/81; mar. (c1700) John LONG (q.v.).
 2. Jane, b. Som. Co. 4 Feb. 1683/84.
 3. Mary, b. 8 May 1688.
 4. John, b. 4 June 1690.
- v. Robert, b. c1667; d. Accomack Co., Va. 1698.
- vi. Penelope (by 2nd mar.), mar. Michael Holland.

2 WILLIAM COULBOURNE² (William¹), b. "at Nasswadox, in Virginia 8 Sept. 1658"; d. Som. Co. by 9 June 1701; mar. (Accomack 15 June 1678; recorded Som. Co. 31 Oct. 1692) Anne Revelle, daughter of Randall REVELL (see HALL family). In his will, signed 14 Oct. 1700, Coulbourne bequeathed to sons William and Solomon land on "Anamasix River," to daughter Mary land on Manokin River, and he named wife Ann; witnesses were Thomas Ward, Daniel Long, Joseph Hales, Isaac Horsey (Ann. Wills 11:110). Children (recorded Som. Co.):

- i. Anne, b. 9 Apr. 1679; mar. Thomas MITCHELL; see p. 420, No. 2.
- ii. William, b. 19 Jan. 1682/83; d. 1764; see Note, p. 447.
- iii. Solomon, b. at Manokin, 19 Apr. 1684; d. 7 Mar. 1749; see No. 3 below.
- iv. Mary, b. at Manokin, 25 Sept. 1689.
- v. Katherine, b. at Annessex, 20 Jan. 1691/92; d. young.
- vi. Abigail, b. c1694; mar. William Eskridge.

3 SOLOMON COULBOURN³ (William² William¹), b. 19 Apr. 1684; d. Som. Co. 7 Mar. 1749 (Coventry); mar. (c1713) Rachell Handy, daughter of Samuel and Mary (Sewell) Handy, b. Som. Co. 15 Apr. 1693; d. Som. Co. 10 Feb. 1771 (Coventry). (For further details, see Note, p. 447.) One son:

- i. Benjamin, b. c1720; d. Som. Co. by 8 Nov. 1796; mar. (Coventry, 16 Dec. 1750) Elizabeth TILGHMAN (see p. 431). One child:
 1. Ann (Nancy), b. c1770; mar. (lic. Som. Co. 9 July 1798) Joseph LANKFORD (see p. 407, No. 9).

COVINGTON - GRAHAM - POLLITT FAMILIES

The Covingtons, Pollitts, and Grahams all settled in Somerset Co., Md., in the area of Great Monie Creek and the Wicomico River, west and northwest of Princess Anne. The Covingtons came into Somerset Co. from Northampton Co., Va., in 1662. Thomas Pollitt was in Somerset Co. before 1687. Late-comer Robert Graham, from Glasgow, Scotland, arrived before 1745; although he does not appear in tax lists (Wicomico Hundred) until 1745, he purchased land in Somerset Co. in 1741. Earlier, Robert Graham of Glasgow, merchant, had appointed William Caldwell of Som. Co., attorney, to collect money due him (Som. Deeds 19:120).

1 NEHEMIAH COVINGTON (COVENTON), b. c1628; d. Som. Co., at Great Monie, by 9 June 1681; mar. 1st Mary, who "died and was buried at Monny the greater in April 1667"; 2nd (Som. Co. July 1667) Anne Ingram, widow of Robert. Nehemiah Covington appeared first in Northampton Co., Va. in 1647 (Greer, p. 80), where in Mar. 1651/52 he was before the court, and fined, for "incontinence before marriage," and in Apr. 1653 he was again before the court, in trouble with the man to whom he was apparently an indentured servant. By 24 Sept. 1662 Nehemiah Covington had moved north into Maryland, bringing with him his wife Mary, sons John and Nehemiah, and daughters Jeane, Margaret, Katherine, and Sarah. He acquired by patent, 3 Mar. 1663/64, a 300 acre tract, "Covington's Vineyard," on the north side of Great Monie Creek (west of the future site of Princess Anne). On 27 Nov. 1666 he was sworn a constable of the newly formed Somerset Co. In Nov. 1674 he stated his age to be about 46. On 20 Jan. 1679/80 Nehemiah Covington, planter, and Anne, his wife, deeded "Covington's Vineyard" to his sons, John, planter, and Nehemiah, Jr., carpenter (Torrence, pp. 439, 468, 474). Nehemiah Covington, Sr., signed his will 17 Jan. 1679, naming wife Anne executrix and sole legatee, son Thomas to receive land at Anne's death. Witnesses were William Stevens and Benjamin Walker (Som. Wills EB5:125). Nehemiah's six eldest children, by his first marriage, were born in Northampton Co., Va., two baptised in Hunger's Parish; the other four were born at Great Monie:

- i. Jeane (Jane), b. c1652; mar. (Som. Co. 26 Nov. 1667) David Williams; the entire family, on their plantation on the Wicomico River, was brutally murdered by some Nanticoke Indians in Feb. 1677/78.
- ii. John, b. c1654; d. by 12 Mar. 1693; see No. 2 below.
- iii. Margaret, b. c1655; mar. (Som. Co. 22 Oct. 1672) Richard Allingsworth.
- iv. Nehemiah, Jr., b. c1657; d. Great Monie by 5 Aug. 1713; mar. (Som. Co. 15 Nov. 1679) Rebena (Rebecca) Denwood. A wealthy landowner, he was a leading Quaker in the community, with his brother-in-law Levin Denwood, and he was interpreter for the colonial government on any treaty with Eastern Shore Indians. In his will, signed 14 Feb. 1710/11 (codicil 4 July 1712) he made bequests of land amounting to 2112 acres. Children (born Great Monie):
 1. Nehemiah, b. 10 p. m. 8 Feb. 1680/81.
 2. Sarah, b. c1683; d. in London, c1750; mar. 1st (1703) Edward Lloyd; 2nd (1721) James Hollyday.
 3. Levin, b. 18 Apr. 1685; d. 1724; to Prince George Co., Md.
 4. Elizabeth, named as "cousin" with Levin and Sarah in will of her uncle John Covington; mar. Benjamin Wailes.
 5. Priscilla, mar. Col. Robert King II of "Kingsland."
- v. Sarah, b. c1658 (bapt. 10 June 1661); mar. (Som. Co. 29 Apr. 1674) Julian Messick.
- vi. Katherine, b. c1660 (bapt. 10 June 1661); d. Aug. 1681; mar. Edward Wright.
- vii. Elizabeth, b. 10 Sept. 1668.
- viii. Thomas, b. 10 June 1670.
- ix. Anne, b. 7 Oct. 1672.
- x. Jeremiah, b. 16 Dec. 1675; d. 31 Jan. 1675/76.

2 JOHN COVINGTON² (Nehemiah¹), b. c1645; d. Great Monie by 12 Mar. 1693/94. In 1679 he patented 200 acres, "Long Acre," on the Wicomico River, which he and wife Mary on 20 Aug. 1680 conveyed to Thomas Walker (Som. Deeds 6:41); in 1681 he patented 150 acres, "Sassafras Neck." By his will, signed 17 Oct. 1693, John Coventon of "Great Mune" bequeathed to wife Mary 200 acres, "Second Choice," to pass at her death to son Nehemiah, then (if Nehemiah should have no heirs) to son Philip. Son John was to have 150 acres, "Sassafras Neck," which was to pass to son Philip if John should die without heirs. Bequests were also made to "cousins" Leavin, Sarah, and Elizabeth Coventon and daughter Mary. Executors were to be "Brother Nehemiah Coventon" and Levin Denwood, Jr.; Rebecca Coventon was a witness (Ann. Wills 2:317). Children (born probably at Great Monie):

- i. Nehemiah, b. c1675.
- ii. John, b. 13 June 1677.
- iii. Philip, b. c1679; d. by 17 Mar. 1732/33; see No. 3 below.
- iv. Abraham, b. 19 Apr. 1683; d. by 1693.
- v. Mary, b. 6 Dec. 1684 "about 2 houres in ye night."

3 PHILIP COVINGTON³ (John² Nehemiah¹), b. c1679; d. probably at Great Monie by 17 Mar. 1732/33. On 1 Oct. 1706 Philip Covington patented "Covington's Comfort" and on 10 Dec. 1714 "Covington's Adventure," 190 acres on the north side of "Monny River" at Sassifrig Gut, adjacent "Covington's Meadow" (Md. Land Office, Bk. Y & S #7:327-28), a resurvey of which was made 20 Sept. 1729. He signed his will 22 Jan. 1732/33, bequeathing to wife (executrix), during her widowhood, his dwelling plantation, consisting of four tracts, "Lower Wood," "Second Choice," "Henry's Enjoyment," and "Amity," the first two and "Amity" to go to son John (joint executor) after widow's death. Three youngest sons Nehemiah, Philip, and Levin were to have "Henry's Enjoyment," said four sons to receive the swamp called "Timber Grove." Daughter Mary Jones was to have privilege of "land I sold to William and Daniel Jones." He also bequeathed £20 each to "my twelve children" (though only eleven are named): Margaret, Mary, Ann, John, Eleanor, Elizabeth, Priscilla, Rebecca, Nehemiah, Phillip, and Levin. Col. Levin Gale and Matthias, George, and John Gale were to have guardianship over three youngest sons until the age of 21. At the time of probate "came Mrs. Elenor Covington," executrix (Som. Wills EB9:146). An inventory (14 Dec. 1733) of the estate of Capt. Philip Covington shows next of kin as Ann Covington and Elenor Covington (Ann. Inv. 17:698).

On 3 June 1748 Nehemiah and Eleanor Covington for £37.5 conveyed to Henry Waggaman (possibly the husband of Philip's daughter Margaret) "Timber Grove"; on 4 Sept. 1750 Waggaman was deeded "Carey's Adventure" and "Second Choice" by Eleanor Covington, widow of Philip and his sons Nehemiah and Phillip. On 4 Aug. 1754 Nehemiah and Phillip Covington for £150 conveyed to Daniel Jones 100 acres "Sweetwood" (Som. Deeds 21:315, 22:136, 23:39). On 18 Feb. 1756 Daniel Jones and Nehemiah Covington, "Gent.," conveyed to John Dorman 42 acres of "Covington's Meadow" and "Comfort's Adventure" willed to Nehemiah by his father Phillip; on 21 Feb. Daniel Jones with Nehemiah and Phillip Covington conveyed 205 acres of the same tracts to William Rencher; and on 18 June 1756 they conveyed to Waggaman part of "Timber Grove" on Great Monie Creek; on 6 July 1757 Phillip Covington, Daniel Jones, and Nehemiah Covington of Dorchester Co. conveyed to Thomas Jones part of "Covington's Meadow" and "Sassafras Neck" willed to Phillip Covington; on 20 June 1759 Nehemiah Covington and wife Betty, and Daniel Jones and wife Elizabeth conveyed land to Phillip Covington (Som. Deeds 23:116, 122, 216, 191; 24:7).

In her will, signed 25 Sept. 1766 (prob. 8 Feb. 1774) Elenor Covington requested her executor within six months after probate to pay "unto such of the children as are entitled" to the estate of their father, "my husband Phillip Covington," i. e. Ann Graham, Nehemiah Covington, also their parts of the estates of her two sons, John and Levin Covington, and she mentioned her grandson Daniel Jones, son Nehemiah, daughter Rebecca, son-in-law Revill Horsey, executor (Som. Wills EB 5:43). Children (born Great Monie, Somerset Co., Md.):

- i. Margaret, b. c1709; mar. ?Henry Waggaman.
- ii. Mary, b. c1710; mar. ?William Jones.
- iii. Ann, b. c1711; mar. Robert GRAHAM; see No. 4 below.
- iv. Nehemiah, b. c1712.
- v. Eleanor, b. c1714.
- vi. Elizabeth, b. c1715; mar. Daniel Jones, who made his will 25 Apr. 1758 (prob. 27 July 1764), naming wife Elizabeth, sons Daniel and Phillip and James Jones, Eleanor Covington, daughters Prissalah and Elizabeth Jones; Phillip Covington and Charles Dashiell were witnesses (Som. Wills EB4:108).
- vii. Philip, b. c1717; witnessed will of Daniel Jones (1758).
- viii. Priscilla, b. c1718; mar. ?Revell Horsey.
- ix. John, b. c1720; d. 1733/48.
- x. Rebecca, b. c1722.
- xi. Levin, b. c1724; d. 1733/66.

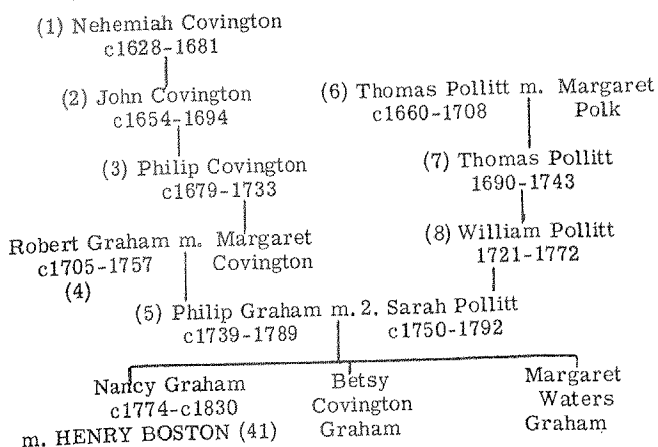

4 ROBERT GRAHAM, b. Scotland c1700; d. at Wicomico, Som. Co., Md. by 28 Dec. 1757; mar. (c1740) Anne Covington, daughter of Philip (see No. 3 above). On 1 July 1741 Robert Graham, merchant, purchased from Abraham Cordry "Long Acre" on the west side of Wicomico River, for £225; on 28 Mar. 1747 Graham bought from Jacob Cadrew [Cordry?] 100 acres, "Cadrew" ["Caudreys"] for £18 (Som. Deeds 20:267, 21:255). By his will, signed 13 Nov. 1756, Robert Graham bequeathed to son John (executor) six negroes; if son John should be of age at testator's death, John's

John's aunt, Griffey Graham, should live with him; daughter Mary was to be under the care of Mrs. Elizabeth Jones until the age of 16; son Philip, to receive residue of estate, was to be in the care of Capt. Waggamon, who should bind Philip to some trade. Witnesses were Daniel Wailes and George Dashiell (Som. Wills EB4:55). An account of his estate 5 Oct. 1762 shows son Philip under age and daughter Mary the wife of Lain Robison (Ann. Accts. 48:321). Children (born Wicomico, Som. Co., Md.):

- i. John, b. c1741; d. Som. Co. by 11 June 1767; single; in 1767 he patented "Hard Fortune" (30 acres); in his will, signed 6 Feb. 1767, he desired that his aunt, "Griffey Grames should have a living during her lifetime as she enjoyed in my time without being molested"; to brother Philip Grames he bequeathed all land inherited from their father (Som. Wills EB4:130).
- ii. Mary, b. c1743; mar. Lain Robison.
- iii. Philip, b. c1745; d. by 2 Oct. 1789; see No. 5 below.

5 PHILIP GRAHAM⁵ (Anne⁴ Philip³ John² Nehemiah¹), b. c1745; d. Wicomico, Som. Co. by 26 Oct. 1789; mar. evidently 1st (c1766) Nancy Nicholson, daughter of John; 2nd (c1771) Sarah POLLITT, daughter of William (see No. 8 below), b. c1750; d. by 6 Feb. 1792. On 18 May 1772 Philip Graham bought from Phillip and Mary Jones 50 acres "Betts Priviledge" for £10 (Som. Deeds 24:45). On 17 Aug. 1774 Phillip Graham conveyed to David Williams his interest in "Caudreys" on Wicomico River, Williams giving a quit claim to Graham of "Last Choice" on the south side of Wicomico River. On 10 Aug. 1775 Graham purchased from William Bounds 46 acres "Addition to Chance" for 5 shillings (Som. Deeds 27:206, 28:12). In 1783 Graham patented 61 acres, "Come By Chance." Philip Graham witnessed the will of John Waters 19 Feb. 1784, together with Henry and Tubman Lowes and George Gale (Som. Wills EB1:172). By his will, signed 14 Aug. 1787, Phillip Grahame provided that "the lands I took up called Come by Chance adjoining the place whereon I now live, as also the lands I bought of Phillip Jones in the Swamp called Betts his Priviledge be sold to pay my debts"; he named children Robert, Nancy, Molly, Sarah, Betsy Covington Graham, and Margaret Waters Graham; sons John and William (both under 21) were to receive "all my lands at Wicomico which James Beard now rents"; wife Sarah (executrix) was to have all lands during her life (Som. Wills EB17:86); witnesses were Henry and Tubman Lowes, Samuel King, Matthias Jones. According to an inventory of 21 Mar. 1791 Sarah Graham was executor; in an account of 6 Feb. 1792 James and William Pollitt were administrators of the estate of Philip Graham, deceased, by Sarah Graham, deceased; on 14 Mar. 1797 distribution of Philip Graham's estate provided for widow's one-third and named all the children in the will, except John and William (Som. Accts. EB16:518, 740; EB21:18-19).

Philip's son Robert was by his first marriage to Nancy Nicholson. On 1 Nov. 1790 Robert Graham and wife Elizabeth, with Phillip Covington and wife Priscilla, entered a quit claim to Daniel Walters for land of Robert Walters, father of Daniel, land bought in 1755 from John Nicholson, father of said Priscilla Covington and grandfather of said Robert Graham, "Betts Gift," 21 acres on the south side of Nanticoke River (Som. Deeds 30:170).

John Nicholson, who d. by 14 Nov. 1759, when an inventory was filed (Ann. Inv. 69:246), was a son of Mary Benson, who after the death of her first husband had married Thomas Benson of Stepney Parish, Som. Co. (d. by 17 Jan. 1735/36). Mary Benson in her will, signed 7 Dec. 1761 (prob. 4 Oct. 1764) named, among many others, granddaughters Nancy Nicholson (to have land "where my son John Nicholson formerly lived"), Mary Nicholson, under 14 (to have "Weslow Neck"), Priscilla Nicholson, Peggy Nicholson, Mary Bounds, and Betts Collier (Som. Wills EB9:188, EB4:110). Children of Philip Graham, all but first evidently by second marriage to Sarah Pollitt:

- i. Robert, b. c1762; mar. Elizabeth.
- ii. John, b. c1772; on 14 Mar. 1796 witnessed will of (his uncle?) James Pollitt.
- iii. Nancy, b. c1774; d. c1830; mar. HENRY BOSTON (41); she would appear to have named sons after her brother William and her uncle Thomas Pollitt.
- iv. William.
- v. Mary (Molly).
- vi. Sarah.
- vii. Betsy Covington.
- viii. Margaret Waters.

POLLITT - GRAHAM FAMILY

6 THOMAS POLLETT¹ b. c1660; d. Som. Co., Md. 1708; mar. (Som. Co. 27 Dec. 1687) Margaret [Polk], by tradition daughter of Robert and Magdalene (Tasker) Polk (see p. 441), b. c1669; she mar. 2nd Richard Tull. Thomas Pollett signed the "Address of the Inhabitants of the County of Somerset" on 28 Nov. 1689, pledging loyalty to King William and Queen Mary and to the Protestant religion (Torrence, p. 350). On 2 May 1711 an account was submitted by Margaret Tull, "relict of Richard Tull, Sr." and administrator of Thomas Pollett (Ann. Inv. & Accts. 32B:256). Children:

- i. John, b. 18 Jan. 1688; to Dorchester Co., Md.
- ii. Thomas, b. 28 Sept. 1690; d. by 26 Jan. 1743/44; see No. 7 below.
- iii. Richard, b. 17 June 1694.
- iv. William.
- v. Margaret, b. 31 Mar. 1700 (Somerset Parish).
- vi. Isabell, b. 15 Apr. 1702 (Somerset Parish).

7 THOMAS POLLETT (POLLITT)² (Thomas¹), b. Som. Co. 28 Sept. 1690; d. Som. Co. by 26 Jan. 1743/44; mar. Sarah, who mar. 2nd Christopher Dowdell. By his will, signed 23 Nov. 1743, Pollett bequeathed to son Thomas land and plantation "where he now liveth being part of two tracts," called "Trouble" and "Dentory" (175 acres); to son George, "my now dwelling plantation, being part of three tracts called Smithfield, Somaroons Ridge, and Come by Chance," testator's wife Sarah (executor) to have the use of said plantation. He also named sons William, Jonathan, and John, daughters Mary Disharoon, Margaret Stevens, Elizabeth, Sarah, Nelly, and Priscilla Pollitt (Ann. Wills 23:350). Three of the eleven children (for others, see Note, p. 447):

- i. Thomas, b. 30 Dec. 1717; d. Som. Co. 24 Sept. 1788; mar. Betty Gillis, daughter of Thomas (1696/7-1780) and Priscilla (Denwood) Gillis (see p. 392, No. 4); among other bequests Thomas Pollitt left "Dentory" to son Thomas, and land in Worc. Co. to son William (Som. Wills EB17:5).
- ii. William, b. c1722; d. by 23 Apr. 1772; see No. 8 below.
- iii. John, ?b. 14 Sept. 1724; d. 14 Feb. 1808.

8 WILLIAM POLLITT³ (Thomas² Thomas¹), b. Som. Co. c1722; d. Som. Co. by 23 Apr. 1772; in an inventory of his estate (23 Apr. 1772) the nearest of kin were Philip Graham and Nancy Pollot (possibly his wife); thirteen negroes were listed; greatest creditors were Philip Graham and Peter Waters (Ann. Inv. 113:339). In an account of his estate, filed 13 July 1773 by Thomas Pollitt, William's eldest son, after widow's thirds payments were made to the accountant (Thomas), to Matthias Miles in right of his wife, to Philip Graham in right of his wife, the balance secured to be paid to William, James, and Littleton Pollitt, all under age (Ann. Accts. 69:365). William Pollitt's wife must have been a member of the Waters family to account for the name Littleton among his sons and the middle name of his granddaughter, Margaret Waters

Graham; however, careful examination of Waters wills and administration accounts has failed to disclose any connection.

Children (born Somerset Co., Md.):

- i. Thomas, b. c1746; d. by 7 July 1795 (Som. Wills EB17:395).
- ii. Nancy, b. c1749; mar. Matthias Miles.
- iii. Sarah, b. c1750; d. by 6 Feb. 1792; mar. Philip GRAHAM; see No. 5 above.
- iv. William, b. c1754; in 1792, with brother James, he was an administrator of the estate of Philip Graham.
- v. James, b. c1756; d. Som. Co. by 21 Feb. 1797 (Som. Wills EB17:594); in his will he is identified as son of "William"; in 1792 he was administrator with his brother William of the estate of Philip Graham.
- vi. Littleton, b. c1758; d. Som. Co. by 25 Jan. 1795; in his will, signed 29 Sept. 1794, he named Littleton, son of James Pollitt, and brother William Pollitt and William's son Samuel (Som. Wills EB17:130).

DAVIS - COX FAMILY OF SOMERSET COUNTY

The origin of this Davis family is at present unknown. Several families of this name were early settlers in Somerset Co., Md., and it was concluded on the basis of misleading evidence that Thomas Davis of Annessex was a member of the family that had settled originally in Nansemond Co., Va., and came into Somerset Co. in 1666, that is, that he was the same as Thomas, son of James Davis, whose birth is recorded in Somerset Co. Deed Book IKL: Thomas, "the son of James Davis & borne of Margaret his wife at Manokin ye 28th day of Jan." 1668/9. But Thomas Davis of Annessex was already an established planter by early 1686, when Thomas son of James Davis was barely 17 years of age, and there is nothing else to link Thomas of Annessex with any other of the early Davis families. Much of the information for the Davis and Cox families has been supplied by Mrs. Anne G. Greene of Philadelphia.

1 THOMAS DAVIS¹ of Annessex, b. c1655; d. Annessex, Som. Co., Md. by 23 Mar. 1715/16. It is recorded that Thomas Davis of Annessex and Sarah Guy were by Mr. William Trail, Minister of the Gospel, married the 7 March in 1687/88; Sarah Davis was still living in Aug. 1736. Under date of 2 Apr. 1686 Sarah Cooper indentured her son, Thomas Butterfield, aged 3, to Thomas Davis of Annessex, planter, until age 21 (Som. Deeds 6:910). Thomas Davis secured patents to several tracts in Somerset Co.: "Inlargement" (100 acres), 1687; "Davis's Inlet" (50 acres) and "Troublesome" (260 acres) in 1689; "Kirk Minster" (225 acres), 1694; and "Anglesey" (100 acres), 1702. On 8 Feb. 1686/7 Thomas Davis of Annessex purchased from Stephen Horsey 300 acres "Unduce" on Pocomoke Bay, and on 5 Dec. 1691 Thomas Davis, planter, purchased from John Markett 450 acres "Waterford," on the north shore of Pocomoke Bay, adjacent land of Edward Dickinson. On 29 Jan. 1701/2 Davis purchased from Stephen Horsey for 4000 lbs. of tobacco a 300 acre tract on Pocomoke Bay near Watkins Point (Som. Deeds 6:827, 7:36, 661). In his will, signed 23 Oct. 1715, Thomas Davis bequeathed to son Thomas and heirs "Unduce" on Davis Inlet and "Long Town" (150 acres); to son John "Unduce" and 100 acres bought from John Carter; to wife Sarah (executor) "Waterford" in Morumsco, on Pocomoke Bay (Ann. Wills 14:137). His land was located along Johnson's (or Ape's Hole) Creek, east of the present location of Crisfield. Children (born Annessex):

- i. Thomas, b. 5 Jan. 1688/89; living in Som. Co. in 1720.
- ii. Elizabeth, b. 27 July 1691; d. Som. Co. 1751; mar. William Handy (1686-1734).
- iii. John, b. c1695; d. by 10 Aug. 1762; on 12 Mar. 1762 John Davis of Coventry Parish in Som. Co. signed his will, making bequests to nephew Samuel Cox and heirs ("Davies Inlet" on Pocomoke Bay); to the eldest son and heir at law of John Cox late deceased, "whose name I know not" (land called "Anglesey" adjacent land where William Cox, father of the said John, formerly lived, and where "my niece Mary Cox now lives"); he also named nieces Sarah Fleming, wife of John Fleming, and Elizabeth Colborne, wife of William Colbourn (Som. Wills EB4:95).

iv. Mary, b. c1700; d. c1780; mar. William COX; see No. 2 below.

2 MARY DAVIS² (Thomas¹), b. c1700; d. probably in Worc. Co., Md. c1780; mar. (c1719) William COX, b. c1695; d. Som. Co. by 17 Mar. 1747/48. In the will of Thomas Tull, Sr. (p. 431, No. 1), signed 14 Feb. 1717/18 (prob. 23 June 1720) "Winter Range" was bequeathed to "William Cox son of Anne Cox" (Som. Wills EB9:34). On 6 Nov. 1726 Sarah [Guy] Davis of Som. Co. deeded to "my loving son-in-law William Cox and my daughter Mary Cox, wife of William Cox" part of "Waterford," and in another deed of 9 Aug. 1736 she conveyed "Waterford" to William Cox (Som. Deeds 16:53, 19:96). William Cox on 19 Jan. 1745/46 signed his will, bequeathing "Waterford" to his wife Mary (executor), and at her death to son John Cox; he listed his five children as John and Samuel Cox, Sarah Flemen, Elizabeth and Mary Cox. Witnesses were William Taylor, Charles Dickeson, Robert Bourser, and Samuel Addams (Som. Wills EB9:278). On 4 Mar. 1775 Mary [Davis] Cox, for 6 shillings, conveyed all her possessions to her daughter Sarah Fleming, with whom she was living in Worcester Co. (Worc. Deeds I:559). Children (born probably at Annessex, Som. Co., Md.):

- i. John, b. c1720; d. intestate ?Worc. Co. before 12 Mar. 1762; mar. Hannah Whittington, who d. in Worc. Co. in 1799.
- ii. Samuel, b. c1723; d. Som. Co. 1 June/19 Aug. 1772; mar. Mrs. Martha Otley, widow of James.
- iii. Sarah, b. c1726; mar. John FLEMING (see p. 390, No. 4).
- iv. Elizabeth, b. c1730; mar. 1st William COULBOURN (b. c1715; d. by 21 Mar. 1765; see p. 449, No. 3); 2nd (Coventry, 30 Oct. 1769) William Henderson, and had a daughter, Cox Henderson, b. 20 Aug. 1770.
- v. Mary, b. c1734; living 1762; mar. 1st ---Randel, of Kent Co., Md.; 2nd ---Gould.

DENNIS - TAYLOR FAMILIES

Donnock DENNIS, an Irish immigrant who, as a lad, about 1657, had come into Northampton Co., Va., brought his family in 1668 into Somerset Co., Md., where he prospered. Unsubstantiated traditions have grown up around the family, but all evidence is against any connection between Donnock Dennis and wealthy seventeenth-century Accomack Co. landowner, John Dennis, and evidence fails to support the tradition that Donnock's son John wed 1st Sarah Littleton of the wealthy Northampton Co. Littleton family, and 2nd Elizabeth Day. William TAYLOR may have come into Virginia as early as 1633; he was in Accomack Co. by 1664; his presumed grandson, Hope Taylor, was in Somerset Co., Md. by 1683. There is no direct proof that the Taylor family of Somerset Co. is descended from the Accomack Co. Taylor family except for recurrence of the name Elias in both.

1 DONNOCK DENNIS, b. possibly in co. Galway, Ireland, c1645; d. Som. Co., Md. 16 Feb./23 Mar. 1716/17; mar. (Hungar's Parish, Northampton Co., Va. 31 July 1668) Elise (Ellis) Nehulian (Nebulian), who d. c1695; he mar. 2nd (c1696) Elizabeth (Bodkin?). An illegitimate child of Elise Nebulian by Morice Matthews, named William Matthews, was born 9 June 1661 (Hungar's Parish). The name Donnock also appears in the records as Donnoch, Donnack, Donach, Donagh, Donald, etc. He is probably to be identified with Tonath Dennis, who appears as a headright 27 Nov. 1657 in a patent granted to William Roberts for land in Northampton Co., Va. Dennis's age is given as 12 (North. Co. Record Bk. PB No. 4, p. 121, entry 180). The names and associations of the Dennises would indicate that they originated in Ireland. The Dennis family was in Somerset Co. in 1668, when it is recorded that Donnock had brought in his children William (i. e. Matthews) and Margaret. They settled first at Morumsco; later Dennis bought "Dennis's Purchase" on the Pocomoke River, evidently near Dividing Creek; in 1669 Dennis secured a patent to "Thrumcaps Field," and on 1 June 1670 Dornic Dennis, "planter," and wife Ellis sold to German Gillett of Northampton Co., Va. land granted to Donnock Dennis, called "Thrums," on the south side of the Pocomoke River. In 1672 Thomas Blake of Galloway, Ireland, granted power of attorney to his friend, "Donagh Dinis, of Morumsco Creek," Somerset Co., to collect debts due Blake. In 1680 cattle marks were registered for William Matthews, son-in-law (i. e. step-son) of Donnock Dennis (Som. Deeds 3:247, 18:114, 1:32, in back of book). On 13 Nov. 1683 "Donald" Dennis was appointed constable of Annemessex Hundred. Roger O'Cane of Somerset Co. in his will, signed 15 Feb. 1687/88 (prob. 6 June 1688) made bequests to Donagh and Alice Dennis, Sr., to Alice Dennis, Jr., at her majority; to Katherine, John, and Ellinor Dennis; executor was to be Donagh Dennis; witnesses included Hope and Margaret Taylor (Ann. Wills 6:22). Donnock Dennis was one of the signers of the "Address of the Inhabitants of the County of Somerset Nov. the 28th 1689," pledging loyalty to King William and Queen Mary and to the Protestant religion (Torrence, p. 350).

Donnack Dennis of Somerset Co., planter, in his will, signed 16 Feb. 1716/17, made bequests to wife, 300 acres "where I now live," i. e. "Denniss's Purchase," which at her death was to pass to son Donnack, Jr.; to grandsons William and Theophilus, sons of Donnack, Jr., 100 acres, part of "Denniss's Purchase"; to grandson Donnack Dennis, son of John, 100 acres on Littleton's Creek, on the south side of Potomack[sic] River [Pocomoke River?]. He also named daughter Elenor, wife of Jeremiah Morris, son-in-law Hugh Porter, daughter Margaret, "son" Henry Hudson. Son John was to be executor. Witnesses were John Dennis, Jr., Robert Weer, William Lane (Ann. Wills 14:278). Children (all but first born Morumsco, Somerset Co., Md.):

- i. Elizabeth, b. Northampton Co., Va. 16 Nov. 1665; mar. George Lyd.
- ii. Margaret, b. 8 Feb. 1667/68; mar. Hope TAYLOR; see No. 4 below.
- iii. Donnock, Jr., b. 16 Feb. 1668/69; d. Som. Co. c1741. On 1 Feb. 1721/22 Donnock Dennis, Jr., sold to John Scott land that his father had willed to his mother and which was to pass to him on her death (Som. Deeds 14:213). He is shown in Som. Co. taxlists until 1740. Though Ellis Boston (8) has been tentatively assigned as a daughter of John Dennis, she could well be a child of Donnock, Jr., since he left no will, and there was no probate of his estate. Two of his sons:
 1. Theophilus, b. c1708; d. c1732; in 1724-25 living in Pocomoke Hundred with David Gogin; in 1727 with William Lane; in 1730 with his cousin, John Dennis, Jr.; in 1731 with James Shirley.
 2. William, (known as) Jr., b. c1710/15. He is shown in the 1745 Worc. Co. debt book with 100 acres "Smiths Folly." On 4 Mar. 1746/47 William Dennis of Worc. Co., planter, son and heir of Donnack Dennis, Sr., deeded to Joseph Allen 100 acres "Smiths Folly," now called "Dennises Purchase," given to him by his grandfather in his will (Worc. Deeds A:483).
- iv. Elinor, b. c1670/71; mar. Jeremiah Morris; by 1732 they had moved to Kent Co., Del.
- v. Ellis (Alice), Jr., b. 29 July 1673; mar. Henry Hudson; in his will, signed 24 Dec. 1720 (prob. 7 Mar. 1720/21), Hudson named wife Ellis, sons Henry, John, Robert, Dennis, William, David, Major, and daughters Rhoda and Christian Hudson, Elizabeth Brittingham, Mary Bishop (Ann. Wills 16:279).

- vi. Katherine, b. c1675; mar. Hugh PORTER (see Note, p. 454).
- vii. John, b. 12 Feb. 1676/77; d. Worc. Co. by 24 Oct. 1744 (inventory); mar. Elizabeth (?Day). The tradition that his first wife was Sarah Littleton is only a tradition, unsupported by evidence. In his will, signed 4 May 1739 (prob. 4 Mar. 1744/45) he named wife Elizabeth, sons Valentine, Weatherly, Lazarus, John, Solomon, and Daniel (Ann. Wills 24:434); records show that he also had sons William and Donnock. Though he named no daughters in his will, it is not unlikely that he was father of Ellis Boston for the following reasons: the name Ellis is distinctively characteristic of the Dennis family; Ellis and Esau Boston named a son Lazarus (after her brother?), and another of their sons named a daughter Ellis Boston; it was not uncommon for fathers not to name in their wills married daughters; moreover, since the husbands of two of John Dennis's sisters named both sons and daughters in their wills and since the children of John's sister Margaret are accounted for, it seems highly likely that Ellis was daughter of John, not named in his will (though her father could also possibly be Donnock, Jr.). Possible daughter of John:
 1. Ellis, b. c1701; mar. (c1719) ESAU BOSTON (8).

2 WILLIAM TAYLOR, b. c1612; d. Acco. Co., Va. by 21 June 1687. He is very likely the William Taylor who was among the 40 colonists who arrived at Jamestown in Oct. 1633 with Edward Kingwell and his partner, Roger Wingate, and their families, on their way to make a settlement in North Carolina, the first attempt since the ill-fated Raleigh venture, but the vessel that was to transport them from Jamestown was abandoned, and most of them probably remained in Virginia. Kingwell devised his rights to Wingate, whose widow Dorothy devised them to Lewis Burwell. On 18 Apr. 1648 a patent was granted to Lewis Burwell and Thomas Vause for 2300 acres for transporting colonists. As several persons who were headrights under his patent are known to have been with the Kingwell colony, it is believed that this list represents the entire group of colonists. Among the names are included William Taylor, Elias Taylor, and Thomas Adams (Va. Mag. of Hist. & Biog. XV:299).

William Taylor, by his will, signed 21 Sept. 1686, bequeathed to son Elias land on Assawoman Creek, 850 acres, 600 acres of it granted by patent in 1664, the other 250 acres bought of Col. John Stringer, with remainder to heirs of Elias, and after them to "my son" William Taylor, with remainder to "my daughter" Winefred, formerly wife of Peter Parker, deceased; son Elias was also to have 45 acres south end of said 1050 acres, between Geangoteage [Chincoteague] and Assawoman Branches. Son William was to have land on the seaboard side between Geangoteage and Assawoman Branches, 800 acres, the north part of 1050 acres, also 450 acres to the woods. He also named four granddaughters Elizabeth, Mary, Rachel, Sarah Parker, of Winifrede; daughter Elizabeth Ratcliffe (wife of Charles); granddaughter

Elizabeth Ratcliffe; grandson William Taylor, Jr. Witnesses were William Whittington, William Paine, John Elliott (Nottingham, p. 11). Children (born possibly near Jamestown, Va.):

- i. Elias, b. c1636; d. Acco. Co. by 4 June 1717; mar. Comfort Anderson, daughter of William Anderson (p. 429, No. 5), and niece of Temperance, whom George Hope. Elias Taylor, in his will, signed 19 Apr. 1717, bequeathed to son Joshua (under 18) all land on Assawoman devised by "my father," also 450 acres called "Queenhive" at Assawoman; to daughters Hannah and Esther Taylor, 500 acres bought of Col. John Custis; and he named daughters Mary Taylor, Elizabeth Whittington, Naomi Davis, Comfort Ewell, wife Comfort, son-in-law William Whittington; witnesses were Thomas Perry, William and Mary Taylor (Nottingham, 43).
- ii. William, b. c1638; d. by 15 Sept. 1696; see No. 3 below.
- iii. Winefred, b. c1640; mar. Peter Parker.

3 WILLIAM TAYLOR² (William¹), b. Va. c1638; d. Acco. Co. by 15 Sept. 1697; apparently mar. 1st --- Hope; 2nd Bridget---, who as widow was administratrix of William's estate, 15 Sept. 1696, securities William Parker, Elias Taylor (Nottingham, p. 11). There is no direct evidence that William had a son Hope, but Hope had a grandson Elias, and since William's sister-in-law Comfort had an aunt who wed George Hope, it is not unlikely that William also wed a Hope and gave a son her family name. (For additional evidence, with names of his other children, some possibly by second marriage, see Note, p. 447.) Three sons (born Virginia):

- i. William, b. c1660; named in grandfather's will; witnessed will of his uncle Elias Taylor in 1717.
- ii. Elias, b. c1662; d. Som. Co. by 18 Apr. 1726; mar. Mary [Pope, evidently daughter of John Pope]; in his will, signed 29 Dec. 1725, he named wife Mary (executor), sons Jobe, Elias, Rowland Beavans Taylor, daughter Temperance; he devised to Col. Solomon Newell a plantation in Accomack Co., Newell to pay wife Mary money due; brother William Taylor was to have care of son Jobe (sons to be of age at 18); Aunt Finney was to be in the care of son Elias (Ann. Wills 18:506).
- iii. Hope, b. c1664; d. by 10 June 1696; see No. 4 below.

4 HOPE TAYLOR³ (William² William¹), b. Acco. Co. c1664; d. Som. Co. by 10 June 1696. He came into Somerset Co. by 1683, for on 5 Feb. 1683/84 "ye banns of matrimony were published... between Hope Taylor & Margaret Doniess [DENNIS, see No. 1 above], both of this county." On 16 Dec. 1691 Hope Taylor bought from Joseph Bowle 100 acres, "Dublin," originally patented (26 Sept. 1666) to John Mackett, who sold it (26 Mar. 1686) to his son-in-law, Robert Hall, who in turn sold it to Jacob Bowle (Som. Deeds 7:54); in 1742 Hope's son Robert and grandson Elias agreed to a division of "Dublin." Hope Taylor signed his will 5 Apr. 1696, bequeathing to "youngest son" Robert one half of his land (unnamed) and also mentioning wife and children (unnamed); witnesses were Esau Costin, Edward Dakes, George Willson (Ann. Wills 7:217). An inventory was taken 18 July 1696, and in a subsequent account the balance was due Taylor's six orphans (unnamed); Dunnock Dennis was administrator (Ann. Inv. & Accts. 15:285, 19 1/2A:105). Children (born Somerset Co., Md.):

- i. Elizabeth, b. 11 Dec. 1684; mar. Daniel LONG (p. 412, No. 4).
- ii. Ellis, b. 15 Feb. 1686/87; mar. Phillip ADDAMS (p. 359, No. 4).
- iii. Dennis, b. 13 Apr. 1689; d. by 21 Nov. 1734; see No. 5 below.
- iv. Margaret, b. 2 Nov. 1691; mar. William ADDAMS (p. 359, No. 5).
- v. Robert, b. ? 1693; in a deposition of Feb. 1748/49 he gave his age as 55.
- vi. Hope, b. c June 1696; d. by 19 Mar. 1734/35 (inventory); evidently single; an account shows a payment to Dennis Adams, who, with Teague Dickeson, was named one of the "greatest creditors" in the inventory, which was approved by "two of the nearest of Kin," Daniell Long and Phillip Addams; there was no balance to distribute since the estate was overpaid Ann. Accts. 14:352).

5 DENNIS TAYLOR⁴ (Hope³ William² William¹), b. Som. Co. 13 Apr. 1689; d. Som. Co. by 21 Nov. 1734; mar. Anne Hey, who subsequently mar. Thomas Prior. Dennis Taylor's son and heir:

- i. Elias, b. c1712; d. Som. Co. by 10 Mar. 1772; mar. 1st Susannah GUNBY (q. v.), who d. 2 Feb. 1762 (Coventry); he

mar. 2nd Sarah. On 21 Nov. 1734 Elias Taylor conveyed to Clintock Porter, for £20, 100 acres of "Weavers Choyce," on the south side of Pocomoke River, back in the woods, part of 300 acres granted 4 Feb. 1688 to Hope Taylor, who died intestate and the land descended to Dennis Taylor, son and heir of Hope; Dennis by will never bequeathed the land, which became the right of Elias Taylor (Som. Deeds 18:186). On 19 Apr. 1742 Elias made an agreement with Robert Taylor concerning "Dublin"; Elias entered an escheat warrant upon "Dublin," 100 acres, in which Robert claimed an interest. Robert, to pay a fourth of the charges, recognized Elias's right to 75 acres, Robert to have 25 acres. In Aug. 1748 Robert Taylor and wife Elizabeth sold these 25 acres to William Wood; Elias Taylor, with wife Susanna, and John Hall of Kent Co., Del., son and heir of Robert Hall and wife Elizabeth, sole daughter and heir of John Mackitt, all joined in the deed to clear the title; John Hall confirmed 75 acres to Elias Taylor (Som. Deeds 21:508, 22:306). In his will, signed 9 Jan. 1770, Elias Taylor made bequests to wife Sarah (executor), to mother Ann Prior, to daughter Mary Taylor, and to granddaughter Leah Addams; he mentioned that he lived on tract "Dublin" (Som. Wills EB5:5). Three of his children (baptized Coventry):

1. Gunby, b. 7 Jan. 1737/38.
2. Sarah, b. 6 Nov. 1739; d. by Dec. 1810; mar. (Coventry, 23 Mar. 1761) William ADAMS (q. v. No. 12).
3. Leven, b. 1 Aug. 1749.

DE WITT FAMILY OF VIRGINIA AND KENTUCKY

The following information is derived from a pamphlet, "Introduction: A Record of the Kentucky Branch of the DeWitt - Gardner Families," compiled by Emily Gardner DeWitt Burks, Sept. 3, 1931, a copy of which is in the possession of Miss Marion Boston of Dayton, Ohio. The record of the Alanson C. DeWitt family is taken from an old record owned by Miss Boston.

According to a letter of Mr. W. D. DeWitt of Bedford, Va. (1930), the oldest record of the family is that of James H. DeWitt, who came to America in 1777, presumably with General Lafayette on the ship La Victoire, which sailed from Bordeaux, in France, 25 Mar. 1777, and landed fifty-four days later at Georgetown, South Carolina.

1 JAMES H. DeWITT, the immigrant ancestor, is thought to have been the son of Louis Nording DeWitt and his wife, Pierette de Brissac, daughter of the Comte de Brissac, of a very old family, who held the Chateau de Sauney near Bordeaux. Pierette de Brissac DeWitt is buried in the Brissac family chapel in the Rue Père Lachaise, Paris. Louis Nording DeWitt lived in Bordeaux and held a high position. His titles of nobility were recognized by the French Crown, and he was received by Louis XVI. His son:

2 JAMES H. DeWITT, JR.² (James¹), b. Bedford Co., Va. 19 May 1780; d. 9 June 1859; mar. (24 Feb. 1806) Dorcas Whorley (Worley), b. Bedford Co. 25 Nov. 1789; d. 12 May 1860; both buried Bedford Co. Children (born Bedford Co., Va.):

- i. Nelson Crawford, b. 26 Feb. 1807; d. 7 Oct. 1868; see No. 3 below.
- ii. Alanson D., b. 23 Feb. 1809; d. 10 Dec. 1892; see No. 4 below.
- iii. Elisha N., b. 25 Mar. 1811.
- iv. William H., b. 28 Feb. 1813.
- v. Bennett M., b. 17 May 1815.
- vi. Zachariah W., b. 30 June 1817.
- vii. Catherine M., b. 18 Apr. 1820.
- viii. Mary F., b. 22 Sept. 1823.
- ix. Permelia A., b. 12 Mar. 1825.

3 NELSON CRAWFORD DeWITT³ (James² James¹), b. Bedford Co., Va. 26 Feb. 1807; d. near Canmer, Hart Co., Ky. 7 Oct. 1868; mar. (Bedford Co. 27 Aug. 1828) Henry Anne Markham, b. Bedford Co. 22 Mar. 1809; d. 5 May 1885. In Oct. 1832 Nelson DeWitt with his family migrated from Bedford Co. to Barren Co., Ky. settling near Mammoth Cave. They travelled overland in covered wagons, taking with them their household goods, horses, cattle, following a route from Lynchburg by way of Salem, Pocahontas, and Cumberland Gap. In 1841 he moved to Hart Co., two miles south of Canmer, on the south side of Green River.

Nelson C. DeWitt was an ordained Methodist minister. He taught subscription schools in Barren Co. for 9 yrs., and in Hart Co. he was county clerk 8 yrs., county assessor 8 yrs. Children:

- i. Charles P., b. Bedford Co., Va. 5 Oct. 1829.
- ii. John Wesley, b. Bedford Co. 4 Jan. 1832.
- iii. Catherine D., b. Barren Co., Ky. 23 Mar. 1834.
- iv. Louisa Elizabeth, b. Barren Co. 27 Aug. 1836.
- v. Permellia Frances, b. Barren Co. 9 Mar. 1838; d. Lexington, Ky. 17 Apr. 1908; mar. JOHN WESLEY BOSTON (78).
- vi. Martha B., b. Barren Co. 27 June 1840.
- vii. Julia Anne R., b. Hart Co., Ky. 18 Feb. 1843.
- viii. Mary W., b. Hart Co., 30 Apr. 1845.
- ix. Sarah M., b. Hart Co. 22 Jan. 1848.
- x. Emily W., b. Hart Co. 20 Apr. 1850.

4 ALANSON C. DeWITT³ (James² James¹), b. Bedford Co., Va. 23 Feb. 1809; d. Logan Co., Ky. 10 Dec. 1892; mar. (Bedford Co. 21 July 1828, by Rev. C. Leach) Julia Ann --, b. Bedford Co. 22 Sept. 1811; d. Logan Co. 17 Mar. 1889. Children:

- i. [name illegible], b. Bedford Co., Va. 22 June 1829; d. in Tex. 6 July 1862.
- ii. [Mary?] Clayton, b. Bedford Co. 25 Oct. 1830; d. Bedford Co. 3 Oct. 1831.

DIXON FAMILY OF SOMERSET COUNTY

Among the earliest settlers in Somerset County, Maryland, were Ambrose Dixon and his family, who were transported in 1661 into Maryland from Northampton County, Virginia, where Ambrose had originally settled before 7 September 1640. The Dixons established themselves at Annemessex well before the county was organized. A pedigree which shows Ambrose Dixon to be a son of William Dixon of London and his wife, Katherine Barkley, a prominent Quaker descended from the distinguished noble English family of Berkeley, and which was too readily accepted and printed in the first edition of this compilation, has been discovered to be erroneous and has therefore been removed. See Note, p. 447.

1 AMBROSE DIXON,¹ b. c1620; "died and was buried at the meeting house in Annemessex the 12 day of April A. D. 1687." He mar. (?Northampton Co., Va. c1649) Mary Pedenden (Pedington), widow of Henry Pedenden, who on 10 June 1646 had been granted 500 acres at Nassawattocks Creek for transporting himself and wife Mary and nine others into the Virginia colony (Nugent, I:171), but on 11 Oct. 1646 Mary Pedenden was a headright for Michael Williams, who was granted 250 acres on Naswattock Creek in Northampton Co., Va. (Nugent, I:164).

Ambrose Dixon appeared in Virginia in 1649 as having been transported to the colony by Richard Bayly of Northampton Co. In Mar. 1651/52 he signed "The Engagement tendered to ye inhabitants of Northampton," promising "to bee true and faithfull to the Commonwealth of England as now Established without Kings or House of Lords." In 1652 a Mary Dixon was transported into the colony of Virginia by Ambrose Dixon and Stephen Horsey. Records show that Dixon was a "caulker" by trade (Torrence, pp. 302-3).

Like Henry Boston, Ambrose Dixon in Northampton Co. expressed sympathy for the Quakers; in fact, he was one of the chief leaders of the Quakers in Northampton Co. and later in Somerset Co. In Nov. 1658 Dixon, with Levin Denwood and Stephen Horsey, was commanded by the Court, by order of the vestry in Northampton Co., to pay to the Rev. Mr. Teackle, minister of the parish, the usual dues. On the complaint, the Court granted judgment against Dixon and the others. In Nov. 1660 Dixon, with Henry White and Levin Denwood, was brought before the Court again, for breach of the law concerning Quakers, and Dixon was charged with having met with and spoken among the people called Quakers. He boldly and courageously "acknowledged the same." The Court "remitted executing ye rigor of ye law," and discharged Dixon and the others, leaving them "to ye Mercy of ye Honorable Governor and Council for ye present." After Dixon had left Northampton (Accomack) Co., Col. Scarborough, in his report of his proceedings at Annemessex and Manokin in Oct. 1663, wrote sarcastically: "Ambrose Dixon... often in question for his quaking profession, removed to Annemessex, there to Act what hee could not be here permitted, Is a prater of nonsense, and much led by ye spirit of Ignorance, for which he is followed, A receiver of many quakers, in his house ye place of their Resort, and a Conveyor of our Ingaged persons out of the County, averse to Govmt., for which hee stands arrested, and ye broad arrow on his doore, but bids defiance until severer course reforme him." The first Quaker "Meeting House" in Somerset Co. was built in Annemessex, on Dixon's land. Torrence characterized Dixon as "truly the guide and guard of his brother 'Friends' seeking refuge in Annemessex. He was rugged of soul, absolutely loyal to his faith" (Torrence, pp. 303-5, 391).

Dixon moved into Maryland, settling at Annemessex by Jan. 1661/62; he was entitled to 350 acres of land for transporting 7 persons into Maryland: himself, Ambrose Dixon, Jr., Elizabeth, Grace, Mary, Sarah, and Thomas Dixon (Md. Land Records, Bk. 5:73). On 19 Apr. 1663 he secured from Lord Baltimore a patent for 550 acres, "Dixon's Choice," and on 2 June 1664 300 acres more, "Dixon's Lott," in Annemessex. On 28 May 1667 Ambrose Dixon, planter, and wife Mary "for a valuable consideration" sold 300 acres, "Dixon's Lott," on Morumsco Creek, to George Wilson (Som. Deeds 2:4).

In Nov. 1666 Dixon was appointed one of the first "surveyors of ye highways," and the same month with Ambrose London and others he was elected a delegate to represent Somerset Co. in the Lower House of the General Assembly to be convened Mar./Apr. 1671, but for some reason neither he nor London was present (Torrence, pp. 305-6).

Ambrose Dixon signed his will 7 Apr. 1686 (prob. 10 Apr. 1688) wherein he made bequests to daughter Elizabeth, wife of Robert Dukes; to grandson Thomas Potter, son of Henry Potter, at his majority; to wife Mary (executrix); to son-in-law Edmond Beauchamp; to Elizabeth Willson, wife of George Willson, of Somerset Co., planter, and also to "friend" George Willson, Sr.; to his wife's son, Henry Pedington; to James Browne of Somerset Co., planter; and to son Thomas Dixon. He named as overseers John Atkins and Stephen and Samuel Horsey; in a codicil he also named son-in-law Thomas Cottingham (Som. Wills EB5:165). Children (first six born Northampton Co., Va.; others at Annemessex):

- i. Mary, b. c1650; d. 1681/86; mar. (1666) Thomas Cottingham; see No. 5 below.
- ii. Thomas, b. c1651; d. Som. Co. 1720; mar. (12 Aug. 1672) Christianna Potter; justice of the peace; member of first vestry of Coventry Parish; member of the Lower House, Md. Assembly, 1694/97 (Torrence, p. 442).
- iii. Sarah, b. c1653; mar. (at Annemessex, 11 June 1668, by Mr. Stephen Horsey) Edmund Beauchamp

- iv. Ambrose, Jr., b. c1655; d. young.
- v. Elizabeth, b. c1657; d. 28 Feb. 1687/88; mar. (1674) Robert Dukes; see No. 8 below.
- vi. Grace, b. c1659; mar. (1676) John Richards.
- vii. Alice, b. 14 Feb. 1663/64; mar. 1st (1679) Henry Potter; 2nd (1685) Randall Minshull (q.v.); see No. 2 below.
- viii. Hannah, b. 9 Sept. 1666; d. & buried Annemessex, Oct. 1667.

DIXON - POTTER FAMILY

2 ALICE DIXON² (Ambrose¹), b. Annemessex, 14 Feb. 1663/64; d. c1686; mar. 1st (?1679) HENRY POTTER, b. c1645; d. Som. Co. c1684; she mar. 2nd (22 Oct. 1685) Randall MINSHULL (q.v.). In Jan. 1682/83 Potter and Thomas Dixon were requested in the will of Mrs. Elizabeth Green of St. Mary's Co., Md. (evidently Potter's mother) to take care of her grandson, Adrian Marshall (see MARSHALL family). Son of Henry and Alice (Dixon) Potter was Thomas (see below No. 3).

3 THOMAS POTTER³ (Alice² Ambrose¹), b. Som. Co. 4 Dec. 1679; d. Som. Co. by 11 July 1727. In his will, signed 3 Mar. 1726/27, Thomas Potter of Coventry Parish, Som. Co., Md., made bequests to sons Thomas and Henry, daughters Alice and Catherine Potter, and "my now wife" Ann (Som. Wills EB9:113). For his younger son, Henry, see No. 4 below.

4 HENRY POTTER⁴ (Thomas³ Alice² Ambrose¹), b. c1705; d. Som. Co. by 2 May 1769; mar. 1st (c1729) Sarah [Wood?], who d. 17 Apr. 1748 (Coventry); he mar. 2nd (Coventry, 26 Sept. 1750) Mary Wood, daughter of Thomas and Anne (Long) Wood, b. 1716 (Som. Jud. Rec. 1775/84, p. 112; Mary Potter, sister of William Wood, 60 as of 20 Oct. 1776). In his will, signed 8 Apr. 1769, Henry Potter made bequests to daughters Betty Potter, Sarah Mathews, Rachel Addams, to son Henry, and to Mary, "my now wife," to serve as executor with son Thomas Wood Potter (Som. Wills EB4 145). Two of his children, by first marriage:

- i. Thomas Wood Potter, b. c1730; d. Som. Co. by 6 Dec. 1808; mar. 1st (Coventry, 20 Jan. 1757) Sabra GUNBY (q.v.), b. c1737; d. c1785; mar. 2nd (Coventry, 27 July 1786) Isabelle Lankford Conner, widow of Elijah Conner, daughter of Benjamin LANKFORD (q.v.); in Nov. 1789 Potter received a share of the estate of Lankford from executor Benjamin Conner (Som. Accts. EB 11:324-5). On 3 Oct. 1777 Potter was among Tory prisoners at Cambridge, Md., who had petitioned

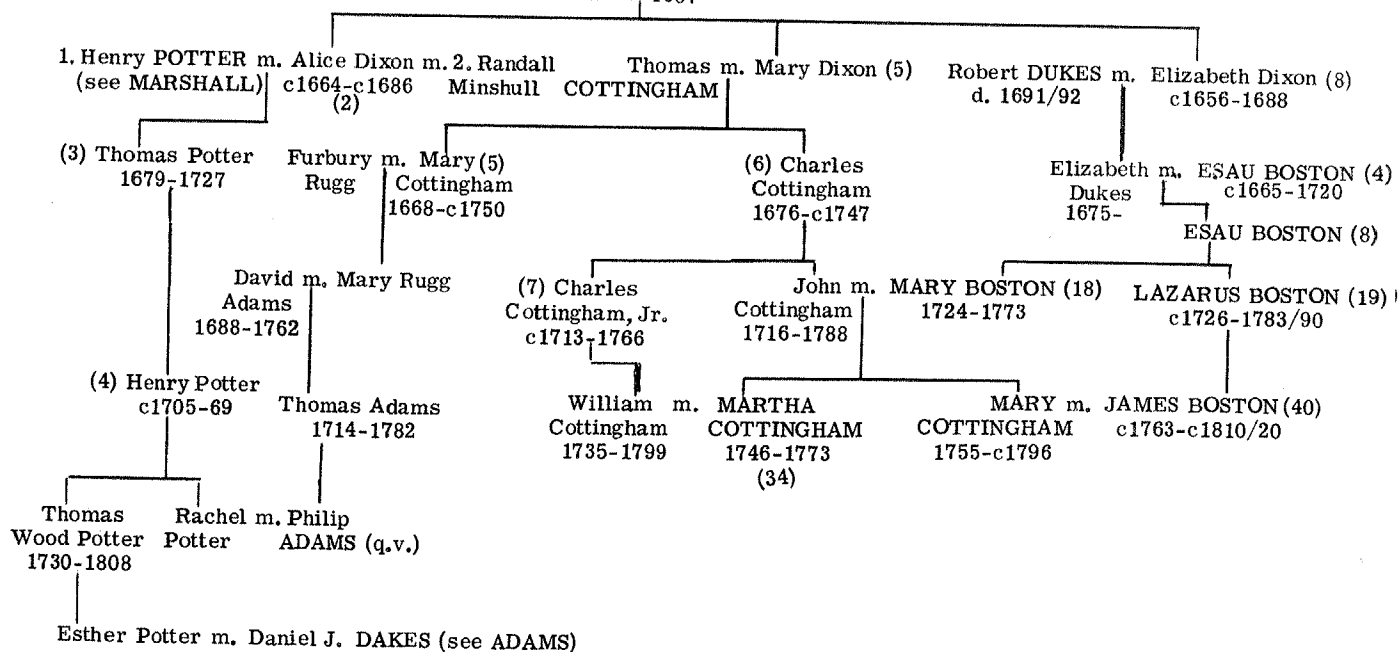

Gov. Johnson for speedy trial (Calendar of Md. State Papers No. 5, p. 112). In his will, signed 21 Oct. 1805, Potter named, among others, daughter Esther Dakes (1762-c1820), wife of Daniel DAKES (Som. Wills EB23:133) (see ADAMS).

- ii. Rachel Potter, b. c1738; d. c1815; mar. (Coventry, 5 June 1759) Philip ADAMS (q.v. No. 15).

DIXON - COTTINGHAM FAMILY

5 MARY DIXON² (Ambrose¹), b. Northampton Co., Va. c1650; living 15 Feb. 1693; mar. (by "Mr. Henry Boston... justice of the peace" in Somerset Co., Md. 8 July 1666) Thomas COTTINGHAM, b. c1640; d. Som. Co. by 28 Aug. 1688 (inventory). In 1666 he patented 300 acres, "Vulcan's Vineyard," on which he paid tax 7 Apr. 1666. In July 1666 he purchased from William and Rebecca Planner 100 acres, "Planner's Adventure," on the north side of the Annemessex River. In 1676 he patented 50 acres "Littleworth," and in 1678 300 acres "Boston," as well as 200 acres more of "Vulcan's Vineyard." On 15 Feb. 1692/3 his widow requested the Provincial Court for more time to give an accounting of his estate. Since Thomas died intestate, all his lands descended to his eldest son, Charles. Children (born Annemessex, Somerset Co., Md.):

- i. Mary, b. 30 Aug. 1668; d. c1750; mar. (c1688) Furbury RUGG. By his will, signed 8 Apr. 1702 (prob. 3 Mar. 1703/4), Rugg bequeathed to daughter Mary all land "when her mother dies" (tracts "Littleworth," "Planner's Adventure"); if Mary should have no heirs, the land was to go to Jonathan Cottingham [his wife Mary's youngest brother] and to Ann Hey (daughter of George Hey); his wife Mary was named executrix; witnesses were George Hey, Charles Cottingham (Ann. Wills 5: 173). According to Som. Co. Debt Bks., in 1733 and 1748 Mary, widow of Furby Rugg, paid on "Planner's Adventure" (100 acres) and "Littleworth" (50 acres). In 1723, with Charles Cottingham, she deeded to David Adams her right in "Partner's Agreement." Only daughter:
 - 1. Mary, mar. David ADAMS (p. 359, No. 6).
- ii. Thomas, b. 13 July 1670; d. young.
- iii. Sarah, b. 31 Aug. 1673; d. 1745/48; mar. 1st George Hey; 2nd Randall Long (p. 412, No. 6).
- iv. Charles, b. 1 Aug. 1676; d. by 22 Aug. 1753; see No. 6 below.
- v. John, b. 15 Sept. 1678; d. by 5 Feb. 1723/24; mar. Mary Connor. (For further details, see Note, p. 448.)
- vi. Esther; b. 25 Apr. 1681, about 12 noon; mar. ? Job Shary.
- vii. Jonathan, b. 1683; d. by 4 June 1762; mar. Margaret Cox. (For further details, see Note, p. 448.)

(1) Ambrose Dixon
c1623-1687

6 CHARLES COTTINGHAM, SR.³ (Mary² Ambrose¹), b. Annesmessex, Som. Co., Md. 1 Aug. 1676; d. Som. Co. 5 Feb./22 Aug. 1753; mar. 1st (10 June 1701/15 Mar. 1702) Sarah?, who apparently died soon thereafter; mar. 2nd (shortly before 16 Sept. 1708) Anne Broughton, daughter of John and Elizabeth (Bradshaw) Broughton, b. Som. Co. 5 Nov. 1686; living 24 Jan. 1761. John Broughton in his will (signed 24 Sept. 1720, prob. 24 Mar. 1720/21) named his daughter Anne Cottingham (Ann. Wills 16:303).

By primogeniture Charles inherited all his father's land. On 10 June 1701 he deeded to Furby Rugg [his brother-in-law] 50 acres "Littleworth" and 100 acres "Planner's Adventure" (Som. Deeds 7:593). On 15 Mar. 1702 Charles and wife Sarah deeded to John Cottingham and Mary his wife "their loving brother and sister" for 1 shilling 30 acres of "Boston," "now called Charles Gift" (Som. Deeds L#2:712). In 1703, with Furby Rugg, Charles patented "Partner's Agreement"; on 22 Aug. 1723, with wife Anne, Charles sold the tract (200 acres) for 500 pounds of tobacco to David Addams, Rugg's son-in-law (Som. Deeds 15:67). On 16 Sept. 1708 Charles and Anne for 5 shilling deeded to Jonathan Cottingham 72 acres on the north side of Pocomoke Bay, at a Beaver Dam Branch, granted by Lord Baltimore to Thomas, Charles his son and heir apparent. On 19 Mar. 1718/19 Charles and Anne conveyed 20 acres to Jonathan, part of "Vulcan's Vineyard," which had belonged to Thomas Cottingham, granted by Lord Baltimore, land on the north side of Pocomoke Bay at a beaver Dam branch, at the head of Planner's Creek. On 4 Sept. 1742 Charles Cottingham, planter, for "love, goodwill" etc., conveyed to his "loving and dutiful son Thomas" part of "Boston," originally patented to Thomas Cottingham (Som. Deeds CD:225,13:337, 21:269). On 27 July 1745 Charles Cottingham, referring to his father Thomas Cottingham, made a deposition concerning bounds of "Vulcan's Vineyard," formerly Cottingham land, now owned by Joseph Lankford (Som. Jud. 1744/47:123).

In his will, signed 5 Feb. 1753, Charles Cottingham, "planter," of Som. Co., made bequests to his wife Anne, son John ("Boston," "Goshen"), and to "my four children," Charles, Thomas, John, and Rachel he bequeathed a tract "my father Thomas Cottingham formerly bought of Stephen Horsey" called "Horsey Down," and to "my three sons" he left "my marsh which lyeth in Condoekway Marshes." Son John was appointed executor. Witnesses were Thomas Adams, William Adams, S. Wheatley (Ann. Wills 28:509).

In a deed of 24 Jan. 1761 Ann Cottingham deeded all her property to son John Cottingham, provided he keep her for life (Som. Deeds 24:76). Children, presumably by second marriage (born probably at Condoekway, i.e. Rumbling Point, Somerset Co., Md.):

- i. Rachel, b. c1709; mar. [William?] Benson; in administration of her brother Charles' estate Rachel Benson was next of kin.
- ii. Thomas, b. Sept. 1710/10 Sept. 1711; d. Som. Co. by 12 Apr. 1791 (Som. Wills EB17:146). In 1746 Thomas Cottingham, Jr., deeded to Joseph Lankford, Jr., "Vulcan's Vineyard," granted to Thomas Cottingham, which descended to Charles Cottingham, Sr., as the proper heir at law of his father, Thomas Cottingham (Som. Deeds 21:186).
- iii. Charles, Jr., b. 10 Aug. 1712/10 Aug. 1713; d. by 26 Sept. 1768; see No. 7 below.
- iv. John, b. c1715; d. by 18 Mar. 1788; mar. MARY BOSTON (18), his second cousin.

7 CHARLES COTTINGHAM, JR.⁴ (Charles³ Mary² Ambrose¹), b. Condoekway (Quindocqua), i.e. Rumbling Point, Som. Co., Md. 10 Aug. 1712/10 Aug. 1713; d. Worc. Co., Md. by 26 Sept. 1766; mar. 1st [c1734] Sarah Curtis; 2nd (c1747) Margaret Revell, widow of Charles Revell (who d. by 6 Dec. 1746), b. c1717; d. 1750/62; 3rd (Coventry, 7 Nov. 1762) Mrs. Eleanor Toadvine. On 10 Aug. 1745 Charles Cottingham, Jr., in a deposition concerning the bounds of "Vulcan's Vineyard," gave his age as 32 or thereabouts, mentioning his father Charles Cottingham, Sr. (Som. Jud. 1744/7:123). On 21 Jan. 1750 Cottingham and his wife Margaret deeded to John Dennis land between Back Creek and the Manokin River, bequeathed to her by the will of Charles Revell (Som. Deeds 22:151). Charles moved to Worc. Co. between 1760 and 1763, where he died intestate by 26 Sept. 1768 (inventory), leaving widow and four children, not named (Ann. Inv. 100:124). Son and heir (born Condoekway, Somerset Co., Md.):

- i. William, b. c1735; d. July 1799; mar. his first cousin,

MARTHA COTTINGHAM (34).

DIXON - DUKES FAMILY

8 ELIZABETH DIXON² (Ambrose¹), b. Northampton Co., Va. c1657; d. and was buried at the [Quaker] meeting house in Annesmessex the last day of Feb. 1687/88; mar. (Som. Co. Apr. 1674) Robert DUKES, who d. 1691/92. On 14 July 1685 Robert Dukes, carpenter and wife Elizabeth sold to George Wilson, planter, 150 acres, called "Dukes Place," deeded to Dukes by Ambrose Dixon, out of 300 acres of "Dixon's Lott" in Morumsco Creek (Som. Deeds MA1 [06]:742). Children:

- i. Elizabeth, b. Morumsco, 7 Feb. 1674/75; mar. ESAU BOSTON (4).
- ii. Mary, b. at Annesmessex, 17 July 1677.
- iii. Robert, b. 12 Nov. 1679.
- iv. John, b. 13 June 1684.
- v. Sarah, b. 5 Aug. 1687 about 2 in ye morning.

DRYDEN FAMILY OF SOMERSET COUNTY

The family name of Dryden probably derived from the Scottish locality known as Dryden (pronounced as if spelled Drayden). The name is Gaelic in origin, apparently derived from "Draighdion," meaning the glen of the hawthorn bushes. Apparently the earliest recorded person to bear the name was Philip de Dryden (1296). Some of the variant spellings of the name in Scotland as well as in early colonial records were: Dreaden, Dreadden, Dreden, Dredde, but the name is now almost universally spelled Dryden. (These introductory comments, as well as much of the material following for the Drydens in Somerset County, has been generously contributed by Mr. Leslie P. Dryden of Hyattsville, Md., who is himself planning in time to publish a full history of the Dryden family. Some of these conclusions, at least for the early generations, must remain conjectural, as indicated below, for the early Drydens left only a few scattered records.)

The earliest recorded Drydens in Somerset County, Md., were William and Agnes Dredde, who witnessed the will of Randall Revell, Sr., 27 May 1685 (Ann. Wills 4:241). These may be the same William and Agnes Dryden who were imprisoned in the Old Tolbooth Prison, Edinburgh, Scotland, 29 Sept. 1682. William was a tailor in the town of Edmonston, about a mile from Edinburgh. It may be inferred that they were imprisoned for their religious convictions, for during the period, known as the "Killing Time," the British Crown was rigorously enforcing the penal laws against Non-conformists, and the Drydens were associated with the Presbyterian Church from its earliest days in the colonies. A Mary Dreaden in 1745 was a member of the congregation of the Presbyterian meeting house at Snow Hill who contributed money for building a new meeting house (Session Books, Snow Hill, in Presby. Hist. Room, Witherspoon Bldg., Philadelphia); John Dreaden contributed. Pew owners 6 May 1760 included Samuel Dryden. The Drydens were also probably from earliest times members of the congregation of the Rehobeth Presbyterian Church, whose graveyard is filled with Dryden descendants.

The Drydens settled near Randall Revell in the Manokin River section, probably in Somerset Town, established in 1668 as a port of entry for the county.

1 DAVID DRYDEN,¹ presumably a son of William and Agnes Dryden, b. probably in Scotland c1665; d. Rehobeth, Som. Co., Md. 1736/44; his wife was Jane. He was among the signers of the "Address of the Inhabitants of the County of Somerset Nov. 28th 1689," pledging loyalty to King William and Queen Mary and to the Protestant religion. In Jan. 1689/90 he sued the estate of Randall Revell for 1217 pounds of tobacco due him for a year's service (Som. Jud. Rec. 1689/90, p. 40). He subsequently removed from the Manokin section to Rehobeth, where he purchased a tract known as "David's Destiny" (it came to be known as "Dryden's Destiny"). On 8 Dec. 1719, with Thomas Benston, David Dredde witnessed the will of David Richie, who bequeathed his entire estate to Robert Nairne, Jr., and his brother, James Nairne (see No. 9 below) (Ann. Wills 15:311); on 21 Sept. 1723 David witnessed the will of Moses Fenton. David was a shoemaker and tanner by trade, but he undoubtedly also engaged in farming. Two sons of David can be identified:

- i. William, b. 1698/99; d. after 1775; see No. 2 below.
- ii. David, Jr., b. c1700/05; d. by 9 Apr. 1761; see No. 3 below.

2 WILLIAM² (David¹), b. Som. Co. 1698/99; d. after 1775; as eldest son he inherited from his father "David's (Dryden's) Destiny," on which land he spent his entire life. His known children (born Rehobeth, Somerset Co., Md.):

- i. David, b. c1726; d. by 29 May 1775; see No. 4 below.
- ii. Sarah, b. 1729; d. by 1802; mar. Thomas Benston; see No. 5 below.
- iii. Samuel, b. 1732.
- iv. John.
- v. Joshua, b. c1736; d. by 26 Aug. 1785; see No. 6 below.

3 DAVID DRYDEN, JR.² (David¹), b. Som. Co. c1701/05; d. Som. Co. by 9 Apr. 1761; mar. (Coventry, 4 Sept. 1729) Hannah Noble, daughter of Jonathan, b. c1709; d. by 18 Aug. 1786. Jonathan Noble of Som. Co., by his will, signed 2 Jan. 1721 (prob. 29 Apr. 1721) made bequests to daughters Rebecca, Hanna, and Elizabeth; between his two sons William and Jonathan Noble were to be divided two tracts of land, "Cherry Garden" ("whereon I live") and "Hackla" (Ann. Wills 16:414). These sons dying during their minority, the land descended to their sisters Rebecca (wife of John Lewis), Hannah (wife of David Dryden, Jr.), and Elizabeth Noble. On 22 Nov. 1734 John and Rebecca Lewis and Elizabeth Noble, having removed to Sussex Co., Del., conveyed to John Pedden their one-third share in two tracts, "Cherry Garden" and "Hackley" (286 acres), also a third part of "Timber Grove" on the north side of Pocomoke River, and on 28 May 1736 they deeded to David and Hannah Dryden 120 acres of "Hackela," 23 acres of "Cherry Garden," and 37 acres of "Timber Grove" (Som. Deeds 18:185, 19:75). On 13 Dec. 1735 David Dredan, Jr., of Coventry Parish, witnessed the will of Lazarus Maddux. On 5 May 1757 David Dredan the Younger, planter, bought "Powells Chance" from Britain Powell, 156 acres (Som. Deeds 23:157).

In the inventory of David's estate 9 Apr. 1761 Hannah Dredan was administrator; Jonathan and Noble Dredan were nearest of kin (Som. Inv. 76:146). Hannah Dryden signed her will 3 Feb. 1786, devising her maiden dower right in her father's land to her son Ephraim and grandson James, equally; she also made bequests to daughter-in-law Rachel Dredan (Som. Wills EB1:249). David evidently became an Anglican through his wife's influence, for all their children were baptized at Coventry. Their children (besides the two separately noticed) were: Catherine, b. 2 July 1733, mar. (Coventry, 1760) Fenton Catlin; William, b. 23 June 1740; Mary, b. 19 Sept. 1741; Ephraim, b. 27 May 1746; and Hamilton, b. 16 Mar. 1750.

- i. Jonathan, b. 11 Sept. 1730; d. by 23 Mar. 1769; see No. 7 below.
- ii. Noble, b. 26 July 1737; d. 1813/20; see No. 8 below.

4 DAVID DRYDEN³ (William² David¹), b. c1726; d. Som. Co. by 29 May 1775. In 1764 David secured a patent to 30 acres, "Hog Range," in Som. Co. He signed his will 4 Mar. 1775, devising to son Littleton (executor) his dwelling plantation, 109 acres, "Dreadden Destiny," and 30 acres, "Hogg Range." To son William he left "Powells Chance," 115 1/2 acres, and he also made bequests to sons Isaac and Milby. Witnesses were William Taylor, Thomas Benston, and Joshua Dredan (Som. Wills EB5:70). On 25 Aug. 1789 an inventory was made of the estate of David Dredan, Littleton Dredan, executor (Som. Accts. EB16:296). Children (born Rehobeth, Somerset Co., Md.):

- i. Littleton, b. c1760; d. by 15 Oct. 1803; see No. 9 below.
- ii. William.
- iii. Isaac, b. 23 Dec. 1771; d. 4 Apr. 1820; see No. 10 below.
- iv. Milby, b. 1772/74; d. Jan. 1812; see No. 11 below.

5 SARAH DRYDEN³ (William² David¹), b. 1729; d. by 1802; mar. (Coventry, 14 July 1753) THOMAS BENSTON, son of Thomas (living 1762), b. c1729; d. Som. Co. 23 Oct. 1802 (no definite connection has been established between Thomas and any other Benstons of the Eastern Shore). Thomas or his father secured patents to land in Somerset Co.: "Hogg Yard" (18 acres), 1758; "Dreadons History" (258 1/2 acres), 1759; and "Dreadens Conclusion" (353 acres), 1788. Thomas witnessed the will of his brother-in-law, David Dryden, in 1775, and the will of John Beauchamp of Somerset Co., formerly of Accomack Co., in 1791 (see Esau Boston, 58). By his will, signed 30 Mar. 1802, Thomas Benston made bequests to daughter Susanna, to sister Margaret Taylor, to grandsons Thomas and Isaac, sons of Elias Benston, to grandson JESSE BOSTON (46) "all my lands lying between Littleton Dennis's lands and the lands of Levi Powel," and to grandchildren by his daughters Gatty, Mary Ann, Sarah, Amelia, Augusta, and Susanna. Son-in-law Michael Cluff was named executor; witnesses were John Bruff, Isaac Dryden, Samuel Cluff (Som. Wills EB23:55). Four of his children (dates from Coventry):

- i. Thomas Williamson, b. 21 Mar. 1757; d. by 15 June 1790 (Som. Accts. EB16:419); his sister Gatty named a son after him.
- ii. Elias, b. 21 July 1759; d. Som. Co. by 25 May 1790; mar. Elizabeth Layfield of Worc. Co. (see LAYFIELD).
- iii. Gertrude ("Gatty"), b. c1761; d. c1791; mar. (Coventry, 21 Jan. 1781) LEVIN BOSTON (22).
- iv. Susanna, b. c1773; mar. (Som. Co. 25 Aug. 1801) John PEDEN (see HENDERSON family).

6 JOSHUA DRYDEN³ (William² David¹), b. Som. Co. c1736; d. Worc. Co., Md. by 26 Aug. 1785; mar. (Coventry, 3 Nov. 1771) Sarah Bowlin (Bowland); she subsequently mar. 2nd William McDaniel; 3rd Philip Riggan. In his will, signed 9 Aug. 1785, Joshua Dredan bequeathed to wife Sarah all his lands until "my two sons come of age," that is Isaac and William, who were to have the land; to son Joshua he bequeathed personal effects. A witness was William Cottingham (Worc. Wills JW13:49). His children (dates from Coventry):

- i. Isaac, b. 14 May 1774; d. 1831/35; see No. 12 below.
- ii. Nancy, b. 21 Dec. 1776; d. 15 Dec. 1779.
- iii. William, b. 14 Aug. 1780.
- iv. Joshua, b. 2 Dec. 1783.

7 JONATHAN DRYDEN³ (David² David¹), b. 11 Sept. 1730; d. Som. Co. by 23 Mar. 1769; mar. (Coventry, 8 Nov. 1753) Rachel Weatherly. Jonathan fell heir to his parents' land, for which he secured a resurvey in 1767, taking up additional land, the new patent of 123 3/4 acres, "Addition to Hacklehay" (certificate in the name of David Dredan). His children (Som. Jud. Rec. 1769/72, p. 225) were James, Thomas, Jonathan, Mary, Ann. All three sons were privates in Pocomoke Company, Princess Anne Battalion, Som. Co. Militia, in 1780. Eldest son (baptized Coventry):

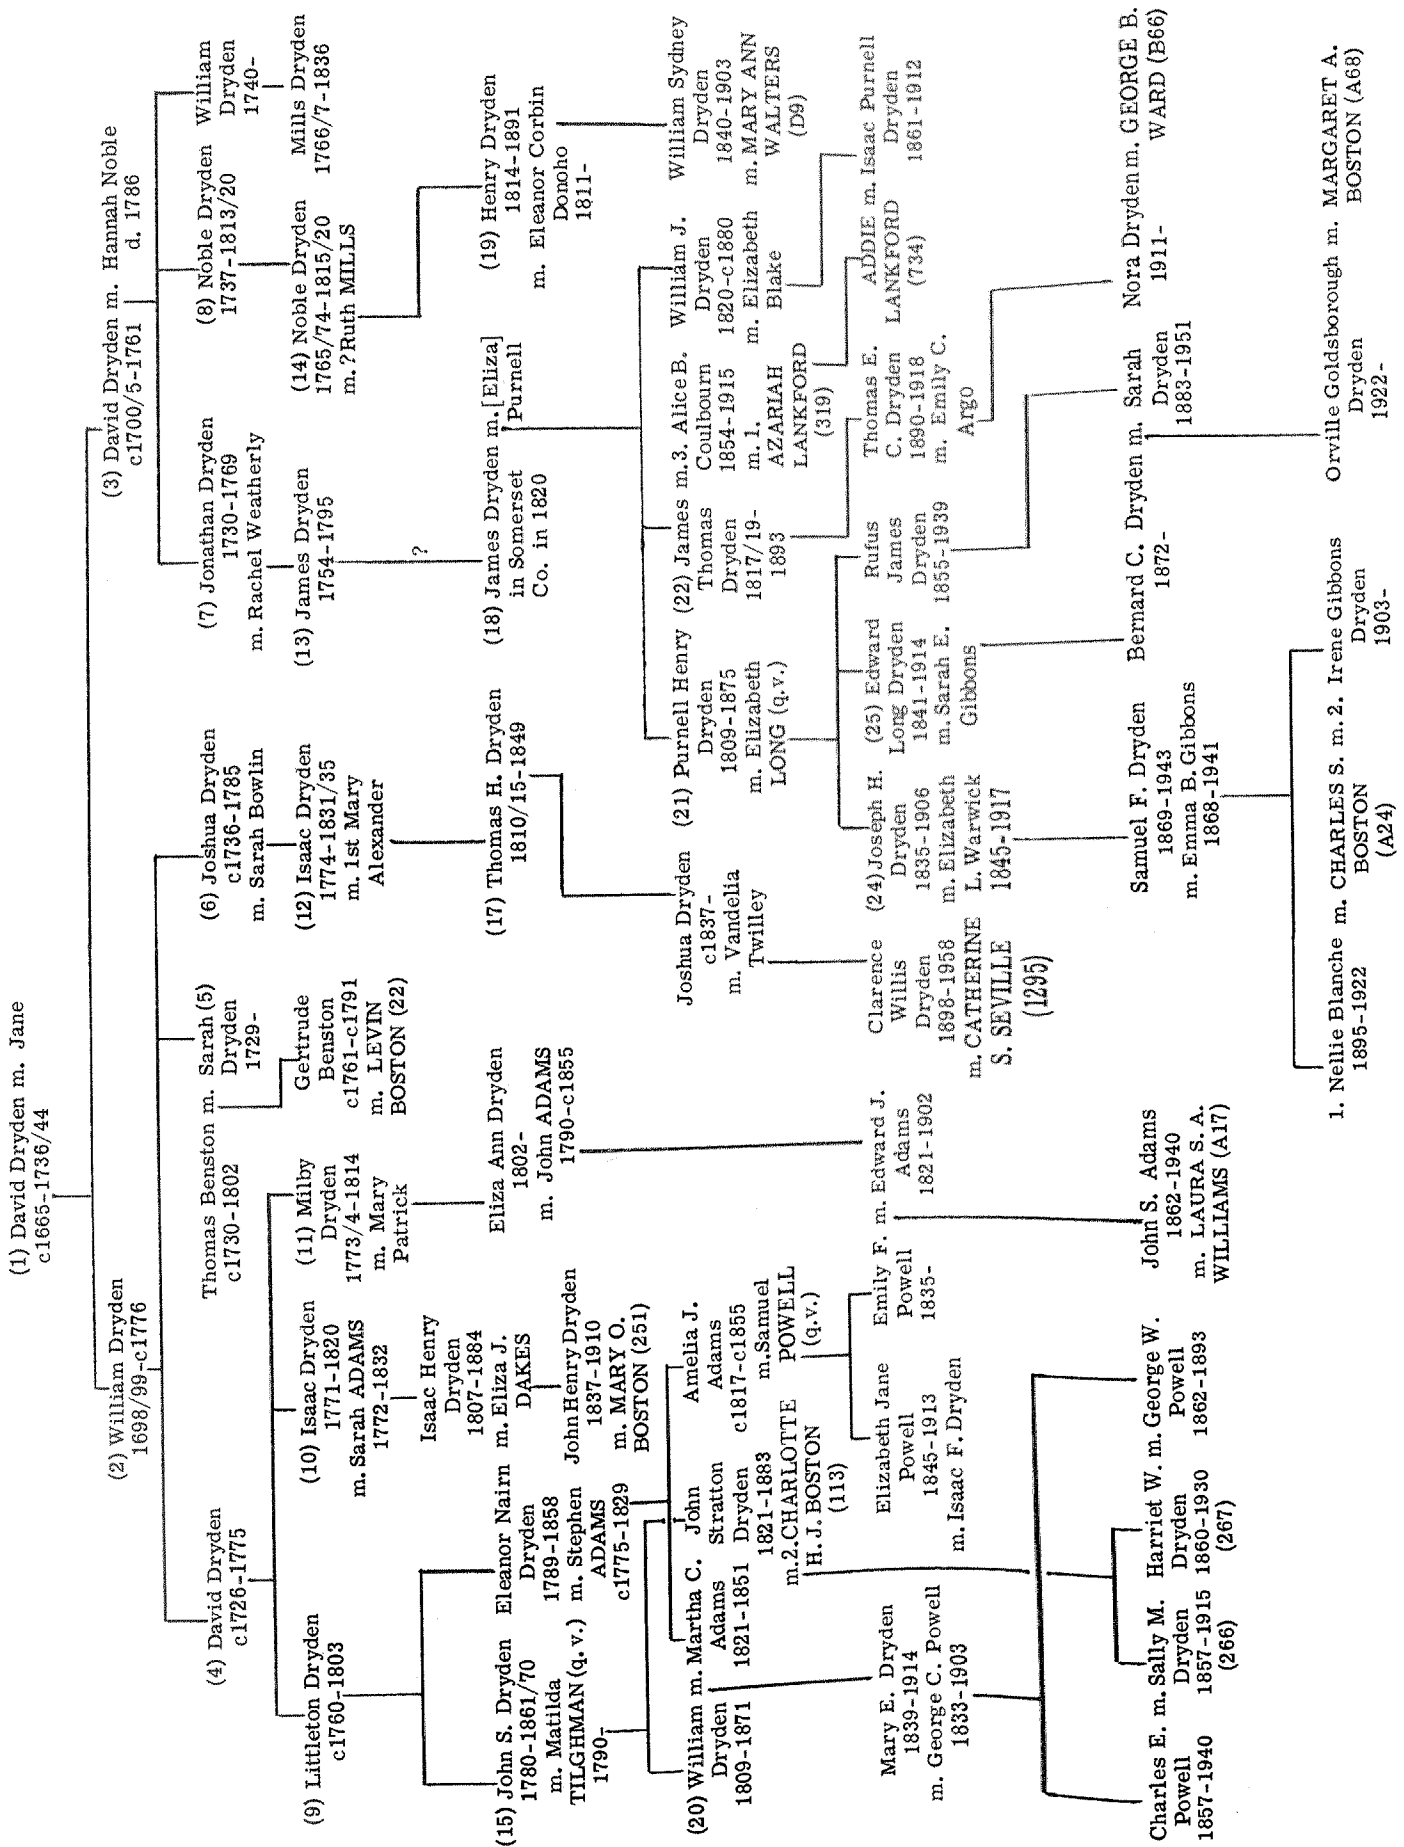

- i. James, b. 30 Dec. 1754; d. by 19 Aug. 1795; see No. 13 below.

8 NOBLE DRYDEN³ (David² David¹), b. 26 July 1737; d. 1813/20. On 12 Feb. 1813 Noble Dryden, Sr., of Worc. Co., for $10, deeded to Noble Dryden, Jr., 65 acres, "Winter Quarter" and "Truebridge," in Pitts Creek Hundred. It was evidently this land conveyed in a deed of 8 May 1841: Mitchell Watson and Sally his wife of Som. Co. and Mary Dryden of Worc. Co. deeded to Noble Dryden of Worc. Co., for $100, part of "Truebridge," that is their rights to it, that formerly belonged to their grandfather, Noble Dryden, which land he devised to his son, Noble Dryden, 70 acres along the county road leading from New Town to Snow Hill. On 8 Mar. 1852 Noble Dryden and Henry Dryden of Worc. Co. deeded to Elisha Jones, for $39, 7 acres and 13 poles of "Truebridge" (Worc. Deeds AD:280; GMH4:271; EDM2:432). Noble Dryden, Sr. evidently d. before 1820, for he does not appear in the 1820 census. His son and heir:

- i. Noble, Jr., b. 1765/74; d. 1815/20; see No. 14 below.

9 LITTLETON DRYDEN⁴ (David³ William² David¹), b. c1760; d. Som. Co. by 15 Oct. 1803; mar. 1st (c1779) Catherine McNieder, daughter of Matthew and Isabel (Nairne) McNieder; 2nd (lic. Som. 15 May 1797) Peggy Livingstone, who d. by 29 Aug. 1820. Livingstone, who d. by 29 Aug. 1820.

In the estate of William McNider, 1815, were named Littleton Dryden (executor), nephew of the deceased, and nieces Eleanor Adams and Mary Adams (Som. Accts. EB27:213). James Nairne, Sr., in his will, signed 3 Oct. 1767 (prob. 11 June 1771) bequeathed to son James his plantation in the Indian Town; to daughter Eli- oner (Eleanor) Nairne, his plantation until she marry; and he also named daughter Isabell Macknedder (Macnedder) (Som. Wills EB4: 160). James Nairne, Sr., was evidently son of Robert Nairne

"gentleman," who in his will, signed 2 Sept. 1732, made a bequest to son James Nairne, executor (Ann. Wills 20:508).

Littleton Dryden signed his will 12 July 1803, bequeathing to son John (executor) 100 acres adjacent Capt. William Waters; he also made bequests to sons Littleton and James and to daughters Eleanor Nearn Dreden and Polly and Nancy Dreden, and he mentioned the child his wife Peggy was carrying (Som. Wills EB23:78). Peggy Dryden signed her will 1 May 1820, making bequests, among others, to daughter Nancy Holland, son Stephen Dryden, to William Dryden of Worc. Co., and to Caroline James Holland, daughter of James and Nancy Holland (Som. Wills JP4:2); Stephen Dryden was to be under the control of the executor, "friend" Samuel Taylor. In 1820 JAMES BOSTON (68) became administrator de bonis non for Peggy Dryden, replacing Samuel Taylor.

Three of Littleton's children by his first marriage were: Mary (Polly), who mar. Samuel Adams; Littleton (c1791-1814/15; James (1792-1814), executor for his uncle, Milby Dryden. Children by second marriage were: Nancy (c1800-1833), who mar. James Holland, and Stephen (1803-1826). Two children, by first marriage, separately noticed (born Rehobeth, Som. Co., Md.):

- i. John S., b. 2 Nov. 1780; d. 1861/70; see No. 15 below.
- ii. Eleanor Nairn, b. 21 Mar. 1789; d. 16 Oct. 1858; mar. Stephen ADAMS (q. v. No. 22).

10 ISAAC DRYDEN⁴ (David³ William² David¹), b. 23 Dec. 1771; d. Som. Co. 4 Apr. 1820; mar. (2 Jan. 1794) Sarah ADAMS (q. v. No. 12), b. 22 Aug. 1772; d. 12 Jan. 1832. He was a farmer in Dividing Creek Hundred, Som. Co. He witnessed the will of his uncle Thomas Benston in 1802. In his will, signed 25 Mar. 1820 (prob. 2 May 1820) he named children Sally Richards, Eliza Dryden, Thomas, Isaac Henry, and Milby Dryden (Som. Wills JP5:189). His widow mar. 2nd (her cousin) Daniel J. Dakes. Of his children, Sarah Taylor Dryden (b. 13 Dec. 1794; d. 20 Feb. 1849) mar. (3 Mar. 1816) Joseph Richards; Thomas Adams Dryden (b. 25 Mar. 1802; d. 15 July 1872) was a farmer in Brinkley's District; Elizabeth Ann Dryden (b. 29 July 1803), who mar. Henry Willis and moved to Mo. Two other sons:

- i. Isaac Henry, b. 14 Nov. 1807; d. 12 Oct. 1884; see No. 16 below.
- ii. Milby John Slemens, b. 27 May 1815; d. 4 May 1884; see Notes, p. 457, No. 26.

11 MILBY DRYDEN⁴ (David³ William² David¹), b. 1772/74; d. Baltimore, Md. Jan. 1812; mar. (1st M. E. Church, Baltimore, 11 Feb. 1800) Mary Patrick. He was a merchant tailor. He wrote his will 13 Jan. 1812 (prob. 25 Jan. 1812), mentioning "all my children" and "my young children," unnamed; wife Mary and nephew James Dryden were to be executors. They filed an account 19 Feb. 1814, but on 4 May 1814 James was "sole surviving executor." He died before 3 Sept. 1814, when his brother John was appointed executor; on 24 Dec. Elizabeth Patric was appointed "administrator de bonis non with will annexed" of Milby Dryden. On 22 May 1822 John Adams was appointed administrator, a fact which leads to the conclusion that it was Milby's daughter, Eliza Ann, who became wife of John Adams in 1821. A son of Milby, Littleton B. Dryden, was apprenticed in Baltimore in Dec. 1816 to learn the trade of tailor, and again apprenticed in Worc. Co., the same birthdate appearing in both records.

- i. Eliza Ann, b. 1802; mar. (11 Mar. 1820) John ADAMS (q. v. No. 21).
- ii. Littleton B., b. 6 Aug. 1803.

12 ISAAC DRYDEN⁴ (Joshua³ William² David¹), b. 14 May 1774; d. probably Worc. Co. 1831/35; mar. 1st (lic. Worc. 15 Sept. 1797) Mary Alexander; 2nd (Worc. 27 Aug. 1823) Sarah Barnes. Children:

- i. William B., b. c1800; d. by 1842; mar. (lic. Worc. 8 June 1829) Nancy Donoho.
- ii. Thomas H., b. 1810/15; d. 1849; see No. 17 below.

13 JAMES DRYDEN⁴ (Jonathan³ David² David¹), b. 30 Dec. 1754; d. Som. Co. by 19 Aug. 1795 (inventory); mar. possibly Rachel Houston, daughter of Robert Houston (who d. in Sussex Co., Del. in 1789). Inventory of his estate was made by John Peden, "now declared," and Elzey Maddux; executor was Zadock Dorman de bonis non, unadministered by Purnell Outten, former administrator (Som. Accts. EB21:74, 165, 318). The 1798 tax list for Som. Co. shows that the final division of the Noble land left by Hannah Noble Dryden was 102 acres 40 perches to James Dryden, 82 acres to Ephraim Dryden; both being dead by that time, the land was listed in possession of their "heirs" (unnamed). The division of James's personal estate names three children: Robert, Betsey, and James (Som. Accts. EB24:104).

- i. Robert Houston, b. c1780; mar. (Worc. Co. 29 Apr. 1803) Priscilla Handy; on 19 Mar. 1805 Robert deeded to Michael Cluff the 102 1/4 acres of his father's land, "Hackley," and part of "Cherry Garden" where "Robert now lives" (Som. Deeds 37:48).
- ii. Betsy, b. c1782.
- iii. James, b. c1784; d. 1825/40; see No. 18 below.

14 NOBLE DRYDEN, JR.⁴ (Noble³ David² David¹), b. 1765/74; d. Worc. Co. 1815/20; mar. apparently Ruth, daughter of Stephen and Sarah (Porter) MILLS (q. v.). Noble Dryden, Jr., appeared in the Worc. Co. 1810 census in the 1st Election Dist. with 2 sons and 2 daughters; he does not appear in 1820, but in the same district appears Ruth Dryden with 2 sons and 2 daughters; Ruth also appears in 1830, but not 1840. Children:

- i. Noble, b. c1813; d. 1860.
- ii. Henry, b. June 1814; d. 25 May 1891; see No. 19 below.

15 JOHN S. DRYDEN⁵ (Littleton⁴ David³ William² David¹), b. 2 Nov. 1780; d. probably at Rehobeth, Md. 1861/70; mar. (c1807) Matilda TILGHMAN (q. v.), b. 4 Jan. 1790; d. 1850/60? Their children (born at Rehobeth, Som. Co., Md.) were: James (1806-81), David (1814-51), Jane (1817) who mar. John Mills, Mary (1820-1886/87), who mar. William Duer, and:

- i. William, b. 1 Dec. 1809; d. by 21 Feb. 1871; see No. 20 below.
- ii. John Stratton, b. 1 Dec. 1821; d. 19 Mar. 1883; mar. 2nd CHARLOTTE H. J. BOSTON (113); 3rd Mrs. ANNE BOSTON STEVENSON (109), his sister-in-law.
- iii. Margaret Elizabeth, b. 13 Oct. 1825; d. 3 Jan. 1883; mar. William J. SCOTT (q. v.), whose first wife, ELIZABETH C. BOSTON (111), was sister of John S. Dryden's wives.

16 ISAAC HENRY DRYDEN⁵ (Isaac⁴ David³ William² David¹), b. Som. Co. 14 Nov. 1807; d. ?near Rehobeth, Md. 12 Oct. 1884; mar. 1st (lic. Som. 18 Dec. 1827) Eliza Jane DAKES, his step-sister and distant cousin (see ADAMS FAMILY, No. 20), b. 1808/09; d. c1855; 2nd his wife's sister, Henrietta Dakes Stevens. He was a farmer in Dublin District (#871), Som. Co., 1850. Children, all by first marriage (born Rehobeth, Somerset Co., Md.):

- i. John Henry, b. 23 Mar. 1837; d. 5 June 1910; mar. his cousin MARY O. BOSTON (251).
- ii. Matilda J., b. Dec. 1839; mar. her step-brother and first cousin, Rufus H. Stevens.
- iii. Amanda Elizabeth, b. 21 June 1842; d. by 1850.
- iv. Isaac Francis, b. 1849; d. 1860/70.

17 THOMAS H. DRYDEN⁵ (Isaac⁴ Joshua³ William² David¹), b. ?Worc. Co. 1810/15; d. Worc. Co. 1849; mar. (lic. Worc. 23 Apr. 1834) Elizabeth T. Donoho, daughter of Teague Donoho, who in his will, signed 17 May 1827 (prob. 5 May 1827) named son Joshua (to have tract "Coventry"), daughters Nancy, Elisa, Mary (Worc. Wills MH 27:275). Joshua Donoho mar. (15 July 1829) Eleanor Corbin, who subsequently mar. (30 Aug. 1837) Henry Dryden (see No. 19 below). A son of Thomas H. and Eliza T. (Donoho) Dryden:

- i. Joshua Donoho, b. 1836/38; mar. Vandelia Twilley (also known as Vandelia Andrews), who grew up in Princess Anne; their son:

1. Clarence Willis Dryden, b. Pocomoke City, Md. 19 Sept. 1898; d. 18 June 1958; mar. CATHERINE S. SEVILLE (1295).

18 JAMES [HENRY?] DRYDEN⁵ (James⁴ Jonathan³ David² David¹), b. c1784; d. probably Som. 1825/40; mar. (probably Som. Co. between May 1805 and May 1807, a period for which the marriage licenses are missing) a daughter of John F. Purnell. This James is probably to be identified as son of James (No. 13 above), though there are complications; grandsons of James's son, Purnell H. Dryden, have provided conflicting evidence: Burton H. Dryden (1868-1942), son of George W. Dryden (1839-1918), son of Purnell, recalled Purnell Dryden's father as named Henry; Burton's oldest first cousin recalled their earliest ancestors as Robert Henry Dryden and James William Dryden. They both did recall that Purnell Dryden's mother was a Purnell, a fact supported by the presence in Purnell Dryden's household in 1840 of John F. Purnell, aged 85.

It was probably this James living in Worc. Co. in 1810 with a son under 10, and the same James living in Som. Co. in 1820, with a son under 16 and 2 sons under 10. Near him in 1820 was Mills Dryden (b. 1766/67; d. by 19 July 1836), probably son of William Dryden (son of David, No. 3 above) and therefore a first cousin of this James Dryden's presumed father (No. 13 above). Through testimony of descendants of grandsons of Purnell Dryden and of his brothers, the following have been identified as his children:

- i. Purnell Henry, b. 1809; d. by 2 Nov. 1876; see No. 21 below.
- ii. John.
- iii. James Thomas, b. 1817/18; d. by 1 Mar. 1893; see No. 22 below.
- iv. Lemuel B., b. 1819/20; d. 1865/70.
- v. William J., b. 1820; d. after 1880; see No. 23 below.
- vi. Levin K., b. 1824.
- vii. Eliza, b. 1825; d. 1881?; ?mar. (12 Oct. 1856) John G. Gibbs (who d. 26 Oct. 1857); she mar. ?2nd --- Adams.

19 HENRY DRYDEN⁵ (Noble⁴ Noble³ David² David¹), b. Worc. Co. June 1814; d. Pocomoke City, Md. 25 May 1891, aged 76 yrs., 11 mos., buried Pocomoke M. E. Cemetery; mar. (lic. Worc. 29 Aug. 1837; 30 Aug. in Bible) Eleanor Corbin Donoho, widow of Joshua Donoho (see No. 17 above), b. June 1811; d. 22 Dec. 1886, aged 75 yrs., 6 mos. For a time they lived in Somerset Co. Two of their descendants, Thomas Elliott Dryden and Francis Henry Dryden of Salisbury, identified Henry's father as Noble Dryden. Henry sold tinware, then became a merchant in Newtown (selling groceries, confectionery, etc.). Children (born near Newtown, in Som. Co., Md.): Robert James (1838-1911), Sarah Virginia (1842-1917), Francis Henry (1844-1908), Emily Catherine (1847-after 1880), John Edward (1849-1880/84), Clarence (1853-before 1924), and:

- i. William Sydney, b. 19 June 1840 (baptized Coventry); d. 12 July 1903; mar. MARY ANN WALTERS (D9).

20 WILLIAM DRYDEN⁶ (John⁵ Littleton⁴ David³ William² David¹), b. Rehobeth, 1 Dec. 1809; d. Som. Co. by 21 Feb. 1871 (bond); mar. 1st (8 Feb. 1837) his first cousin, Maria C. ADAMS (p. 363, No. 22), daughter of his aunt, Eleanor Nairn Dryden (see No. 9 above) and her husband, Stephen Adams, b. 20 May 1821; d. 20 Sept. 1851; he mar. 2nd (lic. Som. 27 Jan. 1855) his late wife's sister, Sarah Ellen Adams, b. 29 Nov. 1826; d. 1 June 1887; after William's death she mar. 2nd her cousin, her husband's brother John Dryden. On the bond for William's estate James Dryden and William J. Scott were securities; executors were Albert F. Dryden and George C. Powell. A daughter (born Rehobeth, Md.):

- i. Mary Elizabeth, b. 17 Aug. 1839; d. Powell's Wharf, 21 Aug. 1914; mar. (lic. Som. Co. 18 Mar. 1855) George C. POWELL, son of George and Nancy T. (HARRIS) Powell (p. 399, No. 6), b. 5 Dec. 1833; d. Som. Co. 22 Oct. 1903. Their sons (below) mar. sisters, daughters of their great-uncle John Stratton Dryden (see No. 15 above).
 1. Charles Edgar, b. 28 Apr. 1857; d. 16 July 1940; mar. SALLY MATILDA DRYDEN (266).
 2. George William, b. 5 Mar. 1862; d. 13 Oct. 1893; mar. HARRIET WISE DRYDEN (267).

21 PURNELL HENRY DRYDEN⁶ (James⁵ James⁴ Jonathan³ David² David¹), b. 1809; d. Som. Co. by 2 Nov. 1876 (bond); mar. 1st (lic. Som. 25 Nov. 1834) Elizabeth Long, daughter of Sewell and Sarah (Powell) LONG (p. 415, No. 17), b. c.1815; d. c.1860; mar. 2nd (Som. 15 Feb. 1866) Matilda Layfield Dryden, daughter of James Layfield and widow of Uriah Dryden. Children of second marriage: Frank Addison (1868-1933), Charles S. (1869-1936), Daniel (1872), and Alfred F. (1873/4-c.1920). Children by first marriage:

- i. Joseph Henry, b. 2 Sept. 1835; d. 12 Sept. 1906; see No. 24 below.
- ii. Matilda A., b. 1837; mar. 1st Levin Harris; 2nd James Townsend.
- iii. George Washington, b. 1839; d. 1918.
- iv. Edward Long, b. 5 Mar. 1841; d. 26 May 1914; see No.

- v. Margaret, b. 1842; mar. Levin T. Parker.
- vi. Adaline F., b. 1844; d. 1903; mar. Elijah Gibbons.
- vii. Eliza, b. 1847.
- viii. Purnell Sidney, b. 1850; d. 1899.
- ix. Louis L., b. 1852; d. 1924.
- x. Rufus James, b. 22 Mar. 1855; d. Princess Anne, 7 July 1939; mar. (19 Oct. 1881) Ida P. Long, daughter of Santa Anna and Mary (King) LONG (q.v.), his cousin, b. 1864; d. 1928. Their daughter:
 1. Sarah Dryden, b. 5 Sept. 1883; d. 19 Jan. 1951; mar. her first cousin, Bernard C. Dryden, son of Edward L. Dryden (see No. 25 below).

22 JAMES THOMAS (THOMAS JAMES) DRYDEN⁶ (James⁵ James⁴ Jonathan³ David² David¹), b. 1817/18; d. Som. Co. by 1 Mar. 1893; mar. 1st (Som. 22 Dec. 1840) Sarah Dorsey; 2nd (Som. 21 Feb. 1860) Mary Ann Harris; 3rd (Som. 30 Aug. 1882) Amelia Alice B. Coulbourn, widow of AZARIAH PERRY LANKFORD (317) and daughter of Samuel Coulbourn and his wife, Leah Walston, who was daughter of George and Leah (Adams) Walston; Alice was b. 22 July 1854; d. Marion Station, Md. 21 Nov. 1915. Thomas J. Dryden (the name appears also as James T. in the records) signed his will 25 Apr. 1891, making bequests to sons Alfred Adolphus Dryden (executor), Romey Edward Bowers Dryden, daughter Minnie Frances Brittingham, and to three youngest children, Ira Harris Dryden, Nancy Harris Adelia Dryden, and Thomas Edward Coke Dryden; witnesses were E. D. Long and William S. Long (Som. Wills HHD6:99). The family Bible, owned by Mrs. Nora Dryden Ward of Marion Station, Md., lists sixteen children. One son, Thomas W. Dryden (23 June 1850 - 3 Apr. 1881), was father, by his first wife, Alice Beauchamp, of Walter W. Dryden (d. Washington, D. C. Dec. 1903), who in 1899 was elected a member of the Md. House of Delegates. The youngest son of James T. (Thomas J.) Dryden, by his third marriage:

- i. Thomas Edward Coke Dryden, b. Costen Station, near Pocomoke City, 6 Aug. 1890; d. Marion Station, Md. 14 Nov. 1918; mar. (Baltimore, Md. 22 Feb. 1911) Emily Crosby Argo, daughter of Ira Clarence and Ella Nora (Davis) Argo, b. Wilmington, Del. 9 Nov. 1892; she mar. 2nd Curwin A. Greenawalt, from New Oxford, Pa. Eldest daughter:
 1. Nora, b. Baltimore, Md. 11 Dec. 1911; mar. GEORGE BELL WARD (B66).

23 WILLIAM J. DRYDEN⁶ (James⁵ James⁴ Jonathan³ David² David¹), b. 1820; d. after 1880; mar. (lic. Som. 3 Apr. 1847) Elizabeth Blake, widow of -- Hudson. About 1871 William Dryden settled in Upper Fairmount district of Som. Co., at "Dryden-town," where he and later his sons kept a general store. A son, Isaac, married the step-daughter of his uncle, Thomas J. Dryden.

- i. Isaac Purnell, b. 24 Oct. 1861; d. Westover, Md. 2 Jan. 1912; mar. ADDIE FLORENCE LANKFORD (733)

24 JOSEPH HENRY DRYDEN⁷ (Purnell⁶ James⁵ James⁴ Jonathan³ David² David¹), b. 2 Sept. 1835; d. near Princess Anne, Md. 12 Sept. 1906; mar. (Som. 25 Mar. 1865) Elizabeth Laura Warwick, daughter possibly of William and Mary Warwick, b. 25 Dec. 1845; d. 30 Jan. 1917; both buried Emmanuel Meth. Cem., East Princess Anne. Records are from Bible owned by Mrs. Irene Dryden Boston, Princess Anne. One son:

- i. Samuel Fenwick, b. 29 Sept. 1869; d. 18 Jan. 1943; mar. (Pocomoke, Md. 30 Sept. 1891) Emma Blanche Gibbons, daughter of George Burton and Letitia J. (Pruitt) Gibbons, b. 3 Feb. 1868; d. 31 Dec. 1941; bur. Emmanuel Meth. Cem. Two of their daughters successively mar. Charles Boston:
 1. Nellie Blanche, b. 17 Oct. 1895; d. 1 Feb. 1922; mar. CHARLES STEPHEN BOSTON (A24).
 2. Irene Gibbons, b. 16 Sept. 1903; mar. CHARLES STEPHEN BOSTON (A24).

25 EDWARD LONG DRYDEN⁷ (Purnell⁶ James⁵ James⁴ Jonathan³ David² David¹), b. 5 Mar. 1841; d. near Princess Anne, 26 May 1914; mar. 1st (Som. 25 Feb. 1868) Mary M. Gibbons; 2nd (Som. 12 Oct. 1871) Sarah Elizabeth Gibbons, daughter of Burton C. and Elizabeth (Parsons) Gibbons, b. 8 Oct. 1854; d. 15 June 1948. Their son:

- i. Bernard C., b. 1 Dec. 1872; mar. 1st (6 Oct. 1897) Jeanette B. Marriner; 2nd (Som. Co. 19 Jan. 1909) his first cousin, Sarah Dryden, daughter of Rufus J. Dryden (see No. 21 above) and widow of Charles A. Holland (whom she had mar. 30 Dec. 1904), b. 5 Sept. 1883; d. 19 Jan. 1951. Son of Bernard and Sarah (Dryden) Dryden:
1. Orville Goldsborough, b. Princess Anne, Md. 15 Jan. 1922; mar. MARGARET ANNA BOSTON (A68).

FINLEY FAMILY

The following material is based largely on a manuscript prepared in 1940 by Mr. Albert Finley France of Annapolis, Md., a copy of which is in the possession of Mr. F. O. Townes of Danville, Ky., who kindly made his copy available for use here. Among his source references, Mr. France cited The Chart of Descent of the House of Finley from a manuscript at the Society of Genealogists in London, as well as various Scottish church registers, and he expressed appreciation for the assistance of Professor John Finley of the University of Glasgow, Scotland, for his examination of archives and manuscripts in Scotland, England, and Ireland.

The Finley family is traced to kings of ancient Ireland and Scotland, through Macbeth, King of Scotland, though the exact connection is not apparent from the material here. The lineage goes back through tradition to Feareadach or Feredoch, called the Just, 102nd Ardreg, or High Monarch, of Ireland, who is said to have reigned A. D. 14-36, and it has been traced even farther back into legend; Feredoch is traditionally said to be descended from Heremon, a son of Milesius, who, when the world was 2934 years old, set out with four of his bravest sons from Spain and conquered Ireland. (Milesius was thirty-sixth in descent from Adam!)

Feredoch was succeeded in A. D. 36 by his son, Ficcha Fionn (or Fiacha or Feacha) of the White Oxen, who lost his throne to the king of Ulster. By his wife, Eithne, daughter of Imgehal, king of the Picts (in Scotland), Feredoch had a son, Tuathal (the Legitimate), who was reared at the court of his grandfather, Imgehal. In A. D. 76 with a small band Tuathal invaded Ireland, and with the aid of Irish adherents regained his father's throne and reigned until his death, A. D. 106. By Bain, daughter of Scal Balbh, king of Finland, he was father of Feidhlim (known as the Legislator), who after overcoming two other kings, reigned 110-119. Feidhlim's son by his wife, Ugea of Denmark, Con of the Hundred Battles (Conn Citchathoch), after a long reign (138-173) fell at the hands of assassins.

By his second wife, Landabana, daughter of Crimthan, king of Leinster, Conn had a daughter, Scadia, whose husband, Conary II, succeeded Conn (Conary II was a descendant of Carbri Fionn, or Conary the Great, king of Munster). Carbri Riada, son of Conary and Scadia, flourished in the third century; his son, Colla Uaish, king of Tara, became the first ruler in the territory known as the kingdom of Dalriada (the ancient Gaelic kingdom in what is now the northern part of county Antrim). His son, Eochaiah, called the Valiant, ruled as king, as did his son, Erc, about 430. In 470 Erc's three sons, Lorne, Angus, and Fergus, according to tradition, with a strong army crossed over to Scotland and established in Argyllshire the Scottish kingdom of Dalriada (history places the settlement at about 500 A. D.).

Fergus, founder of the line of Scottish kings, said to have reigned 501-506, outlived his brothers, consolidated their former territories, and established himself at the stronghold of Dunstaffnage on the west coast of the Sound of Mull, a place which continued as the residence of Scottish kings for centuries. On a visit to Ireland in 506 Fergus was drowned when his ship wrecked. He was succeeded by his son, Domangart, who died in 508, to be succeeded as king of Scottish Dalriada by his son, Congallus I (508-537), who in turn was succeeded by his brother, Gabhran (537-560), slain in a battle with the Picts. His successor was his nephew (son of Congallus I), Conall Gabhrain or Conall, who reigned until 574, when the armies of his son, King Duncan, were destroyed by the Picts at the battle of Delgin in Kintyre, and their king is also said to have perished.

In 574 Aidan (b. 531; d. 606), son of Gabhran and his wife, Lleian (daughter of King Brycan of South Wales), became king of Dalriada, traditionally the first Christian king in Scotland, consecrated at Iona by St. Columba on the historic Stone of Destiny. Until this time the Scottish Dalriada appears to have remained dependent upon the Irish kingdom of Dalriada, but King Aidan established his independence. After a long reign, marked by much warfare, Aidan was succeeded in 606 by his son, Eochaiah Buide (Buiahe?), who reigned until 630. By his wife, daughter of Congus, a British king, he had a son, Donald Bric, who succeeded him as king of Dalriada and reigned until 643, to be succeeded by his son, Donart Domangart (656-672).

During the seventh and eighth centuries the kingdom of Dalriada was torn by a feud between the Clan Fergus (the descendants of Gabhran) and the Clan Lorne, who by a revolution in 677 secured the throne. The Fergus line was restored in the person of King Donart's son, Eochaiah Kennmail, who reigned 695-697. His son, Aadh Fionn (748-769) married Ethelbanna, daughter of Cuthrea, king of the West Saxons; their son, Eochaiah, or Eacho IV (769-819), married Urquaia, daughter of Urquis, king of the Picts. Conflict developed over the rights of succession to the Pictish crown; Alpin (son of Eacho IV), called king of the Scots, reigned over Scots and Picts 833-836, dying at the battle of Dundee, 20 July 836. His son, Kenneth McAlpin, brought to an end the long conflicts between the Picts and the Dalriadic kingdom by defeating the last of the Pictish monarchs in 842.

Kenneth I (McAlpin) became first king of Scotland. He was succeeded in 860 by his brother, Donald, who was succeeded in 863 by Kenneth's son, Constantine II, who died in battle with the Danes in 881. By his wife, Nesta, a Welsh princess, Constantine was father of Donald IV (889-900), killed in battle with the Danes. He was succeeded by his cousin, Constantine III, son of Aiah, who was a son of Kenneth I. When in 942 King Constantine resigned the crown to become a monk, Malcolm I, son of Donald IV, succeeded. At Malcolm's death in 954, Indulf, son of the monk King Constantine, reigned jointly with Malcolm's son, Dubh, until 971. Kenneth II, son of Malcolm and brother of Dubh, succeeded in 971, but was murdered by Fenella, wife of a mormaer (high steward) of Angus in 994. Kenneth's successor, Constantine IV, was dethroned and slain by Kenneth IV, son of King Dubh, who in turn was dethroned and slain in 1005 by Malcolm II (b. c.954; d. 25 Nov. 1034), son of Kenneth II. Malcolm II by his wife Aelifu had three daughters, but no sons. The eldest, Bethoc (Beatrice), married (c.1000) Crinan, lay abbot of Dunkeld (d. 1045) and became the mother of Duncan I (c.1001-1040), who succeeded his grandfather as king of Scotland, but was murdered 14 Aug. 1040, according to tradition by Macbeth, his cousin. The second daughter of Malcolm II, Alice, married (c.1007) Sigurd Hlodver-son (Sequara), Earl of Orkney (d. 1014), and became mother of Thorfinn (b. c.1009), who was created Earl of Sutherland. Malcolm's third and youngest daughter, Donada, married Finlay McRuaidhr, mormaer (high steward or hereditary ruler) of Moreb (Moray and Ross), by whom she became mother of Macbeth.

The earliest recorded representative of the Clan Finlay, who was also mormaer of Moray, is Ruaidhre (Rory). His son and successor, Malbridi (Maelbrigdi) was succeeded by another son, Finlay, who in 996 was defeated by Sigurd, earl of Orkney, but Finlay later defeated Sigurd and regained Moray. Finlay was murdered in 1020 by his nephews (sons of Maelbrigdi), i. e. Malcolm (mormaer, d. 1029) and Gilcomgain, who succeeded his brother as mormaer and was murdered in 1032, to be succeeded by his son, Luloch, slain 1057.

Finlay McRuaidhr by his wife Donada, youngest daughter of King Malcolm II, was father of Macbida McFinlay, better known as Macbeth (b. c.1005; d. 1056). About 1032 he married Guoch, widow of his cousin, Gilcomgain, who had been burned to death in his castle with his retainers by order of King Malcolm II. Guoch was daughter of Bodhe (who with his son had been put to death by order of Malcolm), who was son of King Kenneth IV (d. 1005), who had been dethroned and slain by Malcolm II. According to the chronicles Macbeth did not murder King Duncan. He was helping the Picts of the North resist an invasion of the district of Moray by Duncan, who was wounded in the engagement and was carried to Elgin (in the lands of his cousin, Thorfinn), where he died of his wounds. Macbeth established his authority over the entire kingdom and ruled wisely and well. He was defeated and slain in Aberdeenshire 5 Dec. 1056 by the heirs of Duncan I. Since his 8 JAMES FINLEY, son of Andrew and Janet (Hay) Finley, baptized Cupar Angus, 15 Sept. 1530; d. Newburn, Parish of St. Andrews, Balchrystie, Fife, 26 Mar. 1597; mar. (before 1576) Elizabeth Warrender, daughter of William and Christina Warrender. His name appears in various rentals up to 1596; he was dean of the Guild of St. Andrews.

9 JOHN FINLEY, son of James and Elizabeth (Warrender) Finley, baptized St. Andrews Church, Inchervie, Fife, 8 June 1579; d. Inchervie, 6 Oct. 1670; mar. 2nd (3 Oct. 1630) Sarah Craigie (d. 4 Apr. 1669), daughter of John Craigie and his wife, Christina Smyth, daughter of Patrick Smyth and his wife, Katherine, who was daughter of William Cochrane and his wife, Lady Grezel Graham (Burke's History of Commoners, p. 229). Known as John of Fife, he was a portioner of Balchrystie, 1629, inherited land from his brother James.

10 JAMES FINLEY, son of John and Sarah (Craigie) Finley, bapt. St. Andrews, Inchervie, 9 Sept. 1631; d. Inchervie, Fife, 16 Feb. 1681; mar. 1st Barbara Henderson, who d. without issue, 1660; mar. 2nd (10 Sept. 1666) Margaret Mackie, daughter of Alexander and Margaret (Forbes) Mackie. The will of Margaret Mackie Finley was dated June 1672, proved 10 Nov. 1672. On 14 July 1670 James Finley was served as heir to his father John.

11 ALEXANDER FINLEY, son of James and Margaret (Mackie) Finley, bapt. St. Andrew's, Inchervie, Fife, 30 July 1667; d. Dublin, Ireland, 28 Jan. 1736; mar. (10 Jan. 1687) Margaret Jennings, daughter of William and Margaret (Murdock) Jennings and granddaughter of Francis and Margaret (Miller) Jennings, b. County Derry, Ireland, 1668; d. Dublin, 1742. Alexander Finley settled in Dublin by 1687, was listed as a "free man by birth," 1688; he fought in King William's War, 1690; merchant in Dublin, 1691-1706. Letters of administration granted to Margaret Jennings, relict of Alexander Finley, merchant, late of Little Green Street, on 18 Jan. 1720 [1740?] named heirs James, Samuel, John, now in America, and William and Alexander Finley, and Margaret Parnham (Dublin Deed Book 221); James, Samuel, and John Finley gave letters of attorney to their brother Alexander Finley. Children (baptized St. Peter's Church, Dublin):

- i. James, bapt. 4 Dec. 1687; d. Cumberland Co., Pa. 10 Feb. 1753; mar. Elizabeth Patterson; see No. 12 below.

- v. Alexander, bapt. 10 Mar. 1697; d. Dublin, 25 Feb. 1774; mar. Elizabeth Patterson, cousin to wife of his brother James.
- vi. Margaret, bapt. 20 May 1697; d. ?Ireland; mar. (28 Jan. 1716) Thomas Parnham.

12 JAMES FINLEY, son of Alexander and Margaret (Jennings) Finley, bapt. St. Peter's, Dublin, 4 Dec. 1687; d. Cumberland Co., Pa. 10 Feb. 1753; mar. (St. Peter's, Dublin, by the Rev. Dr. King, 10 Jan. 1706) Elizabeth Patterson, daughter of Robert Patterson and his wife, Margaret Fullerton (daughter of William Fullerton of Co. Tyrone, Ireland), bapt. 16 Mar. 1690; d. Franklin Co., Pa. before 1755. James Finley with his brothers Samuel and John and all their families migrated to America on the ship Eagle Wing, landing at New Castle, Del. 22 May 1720. They settled first in the township of Nottingham, Cecil Co., Md. (then Chester Co., Pa.), where they became members of the Rock Presbyterian Church, founded 1720; James was an elder in 1733. The names of James and John Finley appear among the 47 signers of a petition by the inhabitants, 5 Nov. 1722, setting forth that the said township of Nottingham had frequently been taxed by the magis-

The defeat of Macbeth was calamitous to his clan, which went "underground" and remained in seclusion for a century and a half. [As a consequence, the direct connections between Macbeth and the later members of the clan are not clear, though Macbeth is reputed to be progenitor of all the descendants of the later clan.] Macbeth's son, Macbeatha McFinley (c1040-1093), Thane of Cromarty, married Bethoca, daughter of Andrew McBrad; their son Rorror Ruari, thane in 1152, was father of Fergus, or Farquhar of Rothumurchus. By his wife, heiress of Invercauld, Aberdeenshire, he was father of Farquhar Shaw or Shaw Dubh (d. 1223), whose fourth son was Fearchar, a chief of the powerful clan known in the Highlands as Clan Fionnloah, or Finlay, a sept of the great confederation Clan Chattan. He was progenitor of the Finleys of Balchrystie, Fife (following):

1 ARCHIBALD, reportedly second son of Fearchar and his wife, the daughter of Patrick MacDonochoah of Lude. He took the name of Finlay and mar. Margaret Robertson, daughter of William Robertson of Lude. He distinguished himself in the battle of Largs, in Ayrshire, 21 Oct. 1263, between King Alexander III of Scotland and King Haco of Norway; he died before 12 Nov. 1337.

2 WILLIAM FINLAY the Forester, son of Archibald; mar. Isobel, daughter of Thomas Dempster, Lord of Mursek, and his wife, niece and coheir of Viscount Forbes. William is mentioned in the Aberdeen charter of the Prior of Rousnot Abbey as a tenant of King Robert I in 1307.

3 ANDREW FINLAY, son of William the Forester; mar. Marjorie McDonald, niece and coheir of John McDonald of Perthshire. A royal charter of 3 Aug. 1366 confirmed a charter of the Prior of Rousnot Abbey, to the effect that Andrew and John, sons of William Finlay the Forester, and Andrew Dempster, uncle of said Andrew and John, portioner of Menmur, Perthshire, have the gift of eight pounds annually as tithes of Menmur to the Prior of Rousnot Abbey. Later King Robert II, in return for Andrew's exercising the office of Sheriff of Perth, granted to Andrew and his heirs certain fees and amercements to be held as their fee hereditary forever. Andrew's children were William, John, Andrew, and Majorie, who mar. John Balberney.

4 JOHN FINLAY, son of Andrew, d. 1456; mar. Eleanora, daughter of John Stewart of Fothergill. In 1406 he became Bishop of Dunblane (23 miles from Perth), in 1425 tutor of James, son of Murdoch, Duke of St. Albans. For his service he became thane of Glentilf, Perthshire. His children were John, Andrew, William, Alexander, Robert, Margaret (mar. John Stewart III).

5 JOHN FINLAY, son of Bishop John Finlay, d. 1461; mar. Mary MacRae. A record at Logyrate, in the court of John, Earl of Atholl, shows that on 29 July 1457 the earl granted to his son John Stewart the thanage of Glentilt, which had been voluntarily resigned by John Finlay, son of John, Bishop of Dunblane. On 9 July 1457 John Finlay, thane of Glentilt, was served as heir to his father John of the lands of Penacriefe in Strathquay, but he evidently sold or transferred this land to his brother Andrew, for John is represented in the rental books of the Cistercian Abbey of Cupar Angus as living in the township of Kethyk, Cupar Grange, Forfar, 1457-1461, having obtained on 10 Oct. 1457 one twelfth portion of the Grange for five years. Mary Finlay, widow, was relict of John Finlay 20 Jan. 1462.

6 JOHN FINLAY, son of John, d. before 1507; mar. Joneta Rogers, daughter of William Rogers, a renter of Cupar Angus, who in 1454 had leased one-twelfth portion of the Grange (d. 1467). John Finlay had in 1463 a sixth portion of Combyryland in Pentacost and figures in various leases up to 1497. His widow in 1507 (9 Mar.) obtained a lease of a portion of lands of Downey, barony of Glenesta.

7 ANDREW FINLEY, son of John and Joneta Finlay, d. Aughenlyth, Forfashire (Forfar?) before 1547; mar. Janet Hay, trates of Cecil Co., Md., but that they had always from the beginning of the settlement sued and been sued as inhabitants of the County of Chester, Pa. (Minutes of Provincial Council of Pa., III: 213, 231). In 1742 James Finley moved to Lurgan township, Cumberland Co., Pa. He died in Greens township, now Franklin Co. (Orphan's Court Bk. A:417); among the heirs were John and William Finley of Virginia. Children (baptized St. Peter's, Dublin):

- i. John, bapt. 18 Dec. 1706; d. 1773; see 13 below.
- ii. Samuel, bapt. 9 July 1708; d. Cumberland Co., Pa. by 4 Mar. 1772; mar. Margaret Rowland.
- iii. Robert, bapt. 6 Aug. 1710; d. Washington Co., Pa. 1809.
- iv. William, bapt. 6 May 1712; d. Augusta Co., Va. 1789.
- v. Thomas, bapt. 20 Nov. 1714; no record.
- vi. Alexander, bapt. 8 Apr. 1717; no record.
- vii. George, bapt. 28 Nov. 1719; no record.

13 JOHN FINLEY, son of James and Elizabeth (Patterson) Finley, bapt. St. Peters, Dublin, 18 Dec. 1706; d. South River, Augusta Co., Va. 6 Jan. 1773, buried Tinkling Springs Presby. Church graveyard; mar. (Rock Presby. Church, Chester Co., Pa. 10 Mar. 1724) Thankful Doak, daughter of James Doak, b. on the ship bringing her parents and brothers from Northern Ireland to America, named "Thankful" in gratitude for a safe landing after a stormy voyage. With his brother William, John Finley in 1737 moved from Chester Co., Pa. to Augusta Co., Va. They received a grant of land of 3143 acres from Benjamin Burden of N. J. In Dec. 1740 Gov. Blair of Va. patented to John Finley, Sr., 183 acres of land, which Finley in Aug. 1749 conveyed to Alexander Gardner, and took up 297 acres on South River, Beverly Manor, which he sold on 18 Mar. 1765 to his brother William.

In 1742 John Finley was listed a member of Capt. John Smith's company of Augusta Co. militia, served in Capt. William Preston's company in the Sandy Creek expedition, 1756, and French and Indian War, 1757 (Henning's Statutes of Virginia, III:179). He was added to tithables 18 Aug. 1762. He was a leading Elder of Tinkling Springs Presby. Church, whose pastor was Rev. John Craig, a native of Ireland. When Augusta Co., carved out of Orange Co. in 1738, was finally organized, John Finley was one of the justices of the peace who assembled at Staunton 9 Dec. 1745. Children (from family record):

- i. John, b. Chester Co., Pa. 28 Dec. 1724; d. 1791; see No. 14 below.
- ii. Robert, b. Chester Co., 10 May 1726; d. Staunton, Va. 1798; mar. Martha Henderson.
- iii. Margaret, b. 18 June 1728; no record.
- iv. Andrew, b. 6 Oct. 1730; d. 1734.
- v. Thomas, b. 18 Nov. 1734; no record.
- vi. Rose, b. 12 Apr. 1736; d. ?Va.; mar. John Henderson.
- vii. Samuel, b. Va., Mar. 1739; d. (W.)Va. 1797.
- viii. William, bapt. by Rev. John Craig, 18 June 1741.
- ix. Elizabeth, bapt. by Rev. John Craig, 30 Jan. 1743.
- x. James, bapt. by Rev. Craig 8 May 1745; d. Whitley Co., Ky. 1830; mar. Keziah Martin.
- xi. George, bapt. by Rev. John Thompson 4 Jan. 1747; d. Logan Co., Ky. 1812; mar. Jean Lyle.

14 JOHN FINLEY, JR., eldest son of John and Thankful (Doak) Finley, b. Nottingham township, Chester Co., Pa. 28 Dec. 1724; d. Middle River, Augusta Co., Va. between 17 Apr. 1791 (date of will) and 20 Sept. 1791 (date of probate); mar. (24 Apr. 1741, by the Rev. John Craig) Mary Caldwell, daughter of Thomas and Mary (Parks) CALDWELL (q.v.), b. 1725; d. before 1791. On 13 May 1748 John Finley, Jr., bought from George Robinson for £100 892 acres, part of Beverly Manor. In 1755 he was a member of Capt. Thomas Armstrong's company of Augusta Co. militia; in 1757 he served under Capt. William Preston in the French and Indian War. He was commissary of the Washington Co. militia, Sept. 1776 (Va. Papers, I:181), county surveyor in 1759 and again in 1769. He was appointed commissioner to build a meeting house 18 May 1768, was added to tithables 18 Aug. 1762, was appointed executor of will of John Henderson (will 1766), husband of his sister Rose. The fee book of Augusta Co. locates John Finley, Jr., on Middle River near Staunton, 1774. Children (Maxwell's Genealogy of Baptisms in Virginia; baptisms by the Rev. John Craig):

- i. John, b. 1742, bapt. 24 Jan. 1743; d. Lincoln Co., N. C. 1818.
- ii. George, b. 1743, bapt. 30 Jan.; d. 1809; see No. 15 below.

- iii. Jean, bapt. Nov. 1744; mar. John Trimble.
- iv. Robert, bapt. 21 Aug. 1745.
- v. Margaret, b. 2 Nov. 1746, bapt. 21 Dec.; mar. John Shields.
- vi. David, b. 10 Jan. 1748, bapt. 21 Jan.; d. Orange Co., Ind. 1843; mar. (in Va.) Elizabeth Mounts; on fly leaf of old Bible of Jane (Finley) Smith appears the following: Your grandfather was David Finley, born 10 Jan. 1748, who married Elizabeth Mounts. His father was John Finley and he married Mary Caldwell, daughter of Thomas Caldwell and a cousin to Martha Caldwell, who was the Mother of the famous statesman, John C. Calhoun.
- vii. Thomas, b. 1749, bapt. 21 Apr. 1750; d. S. C. 1821.
- viii. Thankful, bapt. 26 Dec. 1752; mar. John McKarter.

15 GEORGE FINLEY, second child of John and Mary (Caldwell) Finley, b. Augusta Co., Va., bapt. 30 Jan. 1743; d. ?Wayne Co., Ky. 21828; mar. 1st (Va. 18 Dec. 1761) Ann Newland, daughter of Isaac Newland; she d. Washington Co., Va. 1782, aged 36, buried Sinking Springs Church graveyard; mar. 2nd (Ky. 29 Jan. 1786) Mary Gaines, daughter of William and Sarah (Strothers) Gaines, b. Va. 1765; d. Lebanon, Tenn. 18 Oct. 1830. He may be the George Finley who was surveyor for Washington Co., Va. in 1764, but on 17 Nov. 1767 for 5 shillings he purchased from (his parents?) John Finley, Jr. and his wife Mary 176 acres in Augusta Co. He served under Capt. Andrew Lewis in the expedition against the Shawnee Chief Cornstalk (Mrs. Foffenbargar's History of Point Pleasant). In 1768 he moved to Washington Co., Va. and patented 350 acres on the North Fork of the Holston (Deed Bk. 1:305). In 1777 he was commissary to Washington Co. militia. He may be the George Finley who on 20 May 1779 was commissioned by the governor as Lt. and served in that capacity in the Battle of King's Mountain, 7 Oct. 1780 (Summers' South West Virginia, pp. 302, 859). In 1782 he was an elder in the Sinking Springs Presby. Church. He may be the George Finley who served (28 Oct. 1782 - 25 Nov. 1782) in Capt. James Davis' Company under General George Rogers Clark in an expedition against the Shawnees (Illinois Papers in Va. State Library). He evidently moved to Kentucky in 1785, but there is some doubt that he is the George Finley who was granted (1785) 1000 acres in Fayette Co., (1787) 400 acres in Jefferson Co., and (1786) 200 acres in Nelson Co. and 323 acres on Glen's Creek in Woodford Co. On 4 Mar. 1809 he was in Wayne Co., when he conveyed to William Gaines of Mercer Co. for the love and affection "I have for my wife, Mary Finley," in trust for use of said Mary Finley and her heirs, land, stock, furniture, etc. (Deed Book 7:229). Children (first three by first marriage, others by second marriage):

- i. Isaac, b. Bobston, Washington Co., Va. 22 Sept. 1762; d. 1826; see No. 16 below.
- ii. John, b. 14 Apr. 1764; d. Cannon Co., Tenn. 1846.
- iii. George, b. 13 May 1765; d. Cynthiana, Ky. 1819.
- iv. Obadiah Gaines, b. 24 May 1787; d. 22 Mar. 1870.
- v. Sarah, b. 12 Jan. 1799; d. 7 Feb. 1877.
- vi. Ann, b. 24 May 1801; d. 13 Aug. 1857.
- vii. Kittie Bruce, b. 20 May 1803; d. 14 Jan. 1882.
- viii. Mary, b. 26 Aug. 1804; d. young.
- ix. Lucinda, b. Apr. 1806.

16 ISAAC FINLEY, eldest son of George and Ann (Newland) Finley, b. Bobston, Washington Co., Va. 22 Sept. 1762; d. Jefferson Co., Ky. 1826; mar. (Va. 10 June 1780) Sarah Henry, b. 1764; d. 1820. He received a grant of 400 acres in Jefferson Co., surveyed 20 May 1786 (Ky. Land Grants, Bk. A:78). (Marriage records below are from History of Jefferson Co., Vols. I-II, marriages 15 Feb. 1784 - 28 June 1826). Children:

- i. Sarah, b. Va. c1781; mar. (Jefferson Co., Ky. 2 June 1798) Daniel David Ferry.
- ii. Nelly, b. Va. 22 July 1783; mar. (Jeff. Co. 10 Dec. 1808) Delaney Washburn.
- iii. George, b. Va. 18 Nov. 1784.
- iv. Ann, b. Ky. 14 June 1786; d. Rosebud, Mo. 9 Apr. 1861; mar. (Jeff. Co. 5 Oct. 1805) JAMES BOSTON (69).
- v. John, b. Ky. 18 May 1787; d. 1884, according to Boston family tradition.

17 THOMAS FINLEY, son of John (14 above) and Mary (Caldwell) Finley, b. Augusta Co., Va. 1749, bapt. 21 Apr. 1750; d.

Abbeville, S. C. 1821; mar. (N. C. 1769) Elizabeth Austin, daughter of William and Mary (Glenn) Austin, d. before 1821. Early in life Thomas Finley settled in Mecklenburg Co., N. C., enlisted 7 June 1766 in Capt. Adam Alexander's company of N. C. militia (N. C. State Records, XII:396). Later in life he moved to Abbeville, and purchased (16 Feb. 1800) from William Caldwell 200 acres on Caldwell Creek. Children:

- i. John, b. 1769; d. Hardin Co., Ky. 1837.
- ii. Howard, b. N. C. 1767; d. Hopkins Co., Ky. 1840.
- iii. Austin, b. 1772; no record.
- iv. William, b. 1774; remained in S. C.

18 HOWARD FINLEY, son of Thomas and Elizabeth (Austin) Finley, b. N. C. 1767; d. Hopkins Co., Ky. 1840; mar. (N. C. Betsey Helm, daughter of Thomas and Jean (Pope) Helm. On 5 Aug. 1821 Howard Finley, in Hopkins Co., Ky., appointed loving brother William Finley of Abbeville, S. C., as attorney to settle estate of Thomas Finley, deceased. Children were William, James, and Thomas Helm (see No. 19 below).

19 THOMAS HELM FINLEY, son of Howard and Betsey (Helm) Finley, b. [c1810]; d. Hopkins Co., Ky. 1890; mar. (1837) Maria Malin, daughter of John Malin. Children:

- i. Richard Newport, b. 1838; killed in Civil War.
- ii. James William, b. 1840; d. 1934; see No. 20 below.
- iii. Betty, b. 1842; d. 1939; mar. James Laffoon.
- iv. John Howard, b. 1844; d. 1935.
- v. George Allen, b. 1848; d. 1937.
- vi. Dr. Thomas Randolph, b. 2 Aug. 1850.

20 JAMES WILLIAM FINLEY, son of Thomas H. and Maria (Malin) Finley, b. 1840; d. 1934; mar. (1870) Cassandra Leech. Their son:

- i. Thomas E., b. 10 Sept. 1872; mar. (20 Dec. 1899) Ella Campbell, of Morganfield, Ky. Children:
 1. Thomas E., Jr., b. 16 Oct. 1904.
 2. James Campbell, b. 26 July 1906.
 3. Gordon Bennett, b. 26 July 1908; mar. (17 June 1939) PAULINE EARL TOWNES (1864).

FLEMING FAMILY OF SOMERSET COUNTY

The Fleming family came into Somerset Co., Md., by 1688, and it may be descended from the Patrick Fleming who was transported into Northampton Co., Va., in 1652 by Anthony Hopkins (Greer, p. 115). It was probably the same Patrick Fleming who in 1665 was transported into Somerset Co. by James Barnabee, whose will he witnessed 26 Jan. 1665/66. Patrick Flemman (Fleming) was an early attorney in the colony (Torrence, p. 290). It may have been the same Patrick Fleming or his son who, with Ellis Fleming, in 1714 witnessed the will of George Day. Lodowick Fleming may have been a son of Patrick, although no evidence has been found. Descendants of Lodowick Fleming have claimed descent from Pocahontas, but all evidence indicates that the claim is totally unwarranted. A great-great-granddaughter of Pocahontas, Mary Bolling (b. 1711), married (c1730) Col. John Fleming (d. 1766), and had sons John and William Fleming, but these cannot be identified with any of the Flemings in Somerset Co. The compiler is indebted to Mrs. Anne G. Greene of Philadelphia for assistance in preparing this account.

HENRY HALL, b. c1640; d. Som. Co. by 7 June 1709. In 1675 Henry Hall patented "Middleton," in 1678 "Headly Hill," both in what is now Worc. Co. At a meeting of the Som. Co. Court 8 Nov. 1692, Henry Hall from Mattapony (in the extreme southeast section of Som. Co., now Worc. Co.) was among those appointed by the Court to assist the justices in laying out and dividing the county into parishes (Torrence, p. 153). In his will, signed 27 Oct. 1708, Henry Hall named sons Henry and John, "beloved daughter" Mary MILBOURNE, grandchildren Hannah (of son John Hall), Thomas and Grace MILBOURNE, and he bequeathed to "beloved son-in-law" Ralph MILBOURNE (see below) "Hedly Hill," 300 acres on the east side of Pocomoke River in Mattapony Hundred. Witnesses included John Collings (who failed to appear at probate) and Mary Collings (Som. Wills EB5:160).

RALPH MILBOURNE, SR., b. c1660; d. Som. Co. by 21 Dec. 1721; mar. (c1685) Mary Hall, daughter of Henry HALL (above). Milbourne was among the signers of the "Address of the Inhabitants of the County of Somerset Nov. 28, 1689" pledging loyalty to King and Queen and Protestant faith (Torrence, p. 349). In 1701 he patented "Price's Grove" in Som. Co. In his will, signed 5 July 1721, he bequeathed to eldest son Ralph "land he now lives on"; to son Joshua, the shallop and "Pryces Grove"; to son Thomas, 300 acres; to sons John and Caleb, 300 acres called "Hedly-hill," Caleb to receive the dwelling plantation after decease of wife Mary; to two youngest sons, the remaining part of "Pryces Grove," both to remain with their mother until 21; to daughter Grace FLEMING (see No. 2 below) one silver cup marked RM. Witnesses were Thomas Nairne, Jr., Thomas Davis, and William Cox (Som. Wills EB9:82).

1 LODOWICK FLEMING,¹ possibly son of Patrick Fleming, b. c1655; d. Som. Co. 1706/11; mar. Elizabeth. On 9 Oct. 1688 Lodowick Flemene, planter, purchased from Henry and Lydia Hudson 100 acres, "Hudson's Purchase," adjacent Richard Webb, which Lodowick Flemene and wife Elizabeth on 9 June 1701 sold to Robert Wroth, schoolmaster (Som. Deeds 7:61, 656). On 1 Aug. 1706 Lodowick secured a grant of 300 acres, "Killglass," originally surveyed for John Wright as "Buckingham." By a deed of 8 Aug. 1711 John Flemene (Fleming), son and heir to Lodowick (lately deceased), was possessed of "Killglass," which he and his wife Grace conveyed to Lodowick Fleming (Jr.); in return, Elizabeth Fleming, widow of Lodowick, relinquished to John the "plantation on which the said John now lives" and also the land whereon the said plantation is, being a parcel of land containing 300 acres called "Venture," which Lodowick had bought from Col. William Whittington (Som. Deeds 10:666). Sons:

- i. John, b. c1685; d. Worc. Co. 7 Mar. 1752; see No. 2 below.
- ii. Lodowick, b. c1687; d. Som. Co. by 5 July 1728; in 1720/21 he witnessed the will of Thomas Collins, and on 8 Mar. 1720/21 he stood security for Tom Collins. He made his will 20 Jan. 1727/28, leaving to daughter Leviner 300 acres, plantation "Killglass," 250 acres "Sand Down" on Pocomoke River; if she should die without heirs, wife Massey should receive entire estate, of which "Killglass" should then pass to kinsman Lodowick Walles [Wallace?] and "Sand Down" to kinsman Lodowick Waring; overseer to be Thomas Wallace. The Rev. Mr. Stevenson was bequeathed a horse (Ann. Wills 19:462).

2 JOHN FLEMING² (Lodowick¹), b. c1685; d. Worc. Co. 7 Mar. 1752 (Coventry); mar. (by 8 Aug. 1711) Grace Milbourne, daughter of Ralph and Mary (Hall) MILBOURNE (see above), b. 1708; d. Worc. Co. 7 Apr. 1753 (Coventry). In his will, signed 25 Apr. 1751 (prob. 10 Apr. 1752) John Fleming, planter, bequeathed to son William "all my lands in Somerset Co.," also a negro and all wearing apparel; to son John, tracts "Addition to Venture" (250 acres) and the plantation "on which he now lives," also negro Simon; to son Joshua, part of "Addition to Venture," including "my now dwelling plantation," also "Neighbors Goodwill" and negro Tobey. He also named daughters Mary, wife of John McCuddy, Sarah wife of David Hopkins, Grace, wife of Stephen Handy, and wife Grace Fleming. Among the witnesses were Angelo and Rachel Atkinson (Worc. Wills JW2:102). His widow Grace Fleming made her will 5 Feb. 1753 (prob. 20 Apr. 1753), naming two granddaughters Sarah and Grace McCuddy and sons Joshua and John Fleming (Worc. Wills JW2:122). Children (born Somerset Co., Md.):

- i. Mary, b. c1711; mar. John McCuddy; to Woodford Co., Ky.
- ii. William, b. c1713; d. by 8 Feb. 1803; see No. 3 below.
- iii. Sarah, b. c1715; mar. David Hopkins.
- iv. Elizabeth, b. c1717; mar. (1735) Patrick Allison.
- v. Grace, b. c1719; mar. 1st James Dashiell; 2nd Stephen Handy; 3rd John Selby.
- vi. John, b. c1722; d. by 7 June 1806; see No. 4 below.
- vii. Joshua, b. c1725; d. by 17 June 1763; see No. 5 below.

3 WILLIAM FLEMING³ (John² Lodowick¹), b. c1713; d. Som. Co. by 8 Feb. 1803; mar. 1st (Coventry, 26 Oct. 1752) Jean (Jane) Handy, widow of William Handy (d. 1751). b. c1725; d. c1761; 2nd (c1763) Sarah Long, daughter of Daniel and Sarah (ADAMS) LONG (p. 412, No. 3), widow of Jeffrey Long, b. c1725; d. c1797. On 24 June 1766 William Fleming and wife Sarah (executrix of Jeffrey Long), were asked why they had given no account of Jeffrey Long's estate (Som. Accts. 54:83). In a 6 Jan. 1792 deposition William gave his age as 78 (Som. Jud. 1791/4:92). In his will, signed 14 Dec. 1798, he made bequests to sons William ("all my lands"), John; to grandson William, son of John; to daughter Mary. In a codicil 9 Sept. 1800, grandson William now dead, he transferred his bequest to granddaughter Sarah Long Fleming, of John. In addition to two daughters who d. young (Betty, b. 10 Feb. 1756; Sarah, b. 20 Nov. 1759) he had children, youngest son by second marriage (bapt. Coventry):

- i. John, b. 11 Aug. 1753; d. 1841; mar. Asenath Long.
- ii. Mary, b. c1762; d. by 21 Feb. 1815 (Som. Wills EB23:223).
- iii. William, b. c1765; d. by 2 Sept. 1828; see No. 6 below.

4 JOHN FLEMING³ (John² Lodowick¹), b. 1722; d. Worc. Co. by 7 June 1806; mar. (c1744) Sarah Cox, daughter of William and Mary (DAVIS) COX (see DAVIS, p. 376), b. c1726. In a deposition of 10 Aug. 1789 John Fleming gave his age as 67 years (Worc. Deeds N:5). In his will, signed 23 July 1796, he bequeathed to son William "my manor plantation where I now dwell"; to son Joshua, the remaining land, also negro George, a horse Dragon, part of the pewter and pot iron; to daughter Grace Williams, negro Phillis; he also named the other daughters below and provided that three negroes be freed (Worc. Wills MH4:1). Children (born Worc. Co., bapt. Coventry):

- i. Grace, b. 10 Sept. 1745; d. c1807?; mar. James WILLIAMS (q. v.).
- ii. William, b. 4 Jan. 1748.
- iii. Mary, b. 27 Apr. 1750; mar. Solomon Townsend.
- iv. Elizabeth, b. 9 Oct. 1752; d. by 1796.
- v. Sarah, b. 16 July 1755; mar. John Selby.
- vi. Leah, b. 24 Sept. 1747; mar. Teague Riffin.
- vii. Priscilla, b. 29 July 1760; mar. (1787) John Cottingham.
- viii. Anna, b. 21 May 1763; single in 1796.
- ix. Joshua, b. c1766; d. by 12 Nov. 1822; see No. 7 below.

5 JOSHUA FLEMING³ (John² Lodowick¹), b. c1725; d. Worc. Co. by 17 June 1763 (bond); mar. (Coventry, 29 Jan. 1753) Rachel Atkinson, daughter of Angelo and Rachel (LAWS) ATKINSON (p. 364, No. 2), b. c1733; d. Worc. Co. by 3 June 1808; she mar. 2nd (by 25 May 1764) Isaac Bozman Schoolfield, who d. by 1 July 1788. By an inventory of Joshua's estate 25 Aug. 1763 money was due from Lazarus Boston; among greatest creditors was Angelo Atkinson, Sr.; nearest of kin were John and William Flemming; on 25 May 1764 executors were Isaac Bozman Schoolfield and his wife Rachel (late Flemming) (Worc. Inv. 85:136). On 8 Aug. 1767

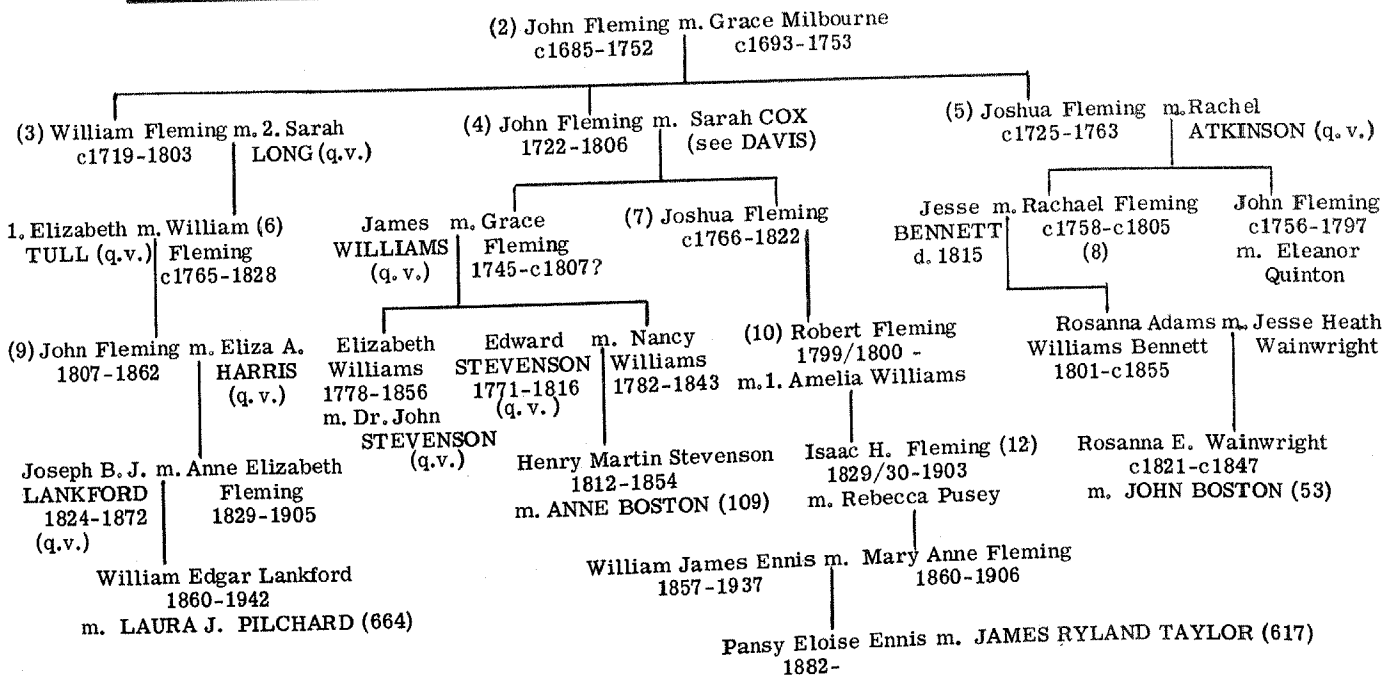

"this accountant Rachel [Schoolfield] being the widow of the deceased: submitted an account; balance was due Joshua's children: Grace, John, Rachel (Worc. Accts. 58:73-75). Isaac B. Schoolfield, in his will, signed 13 Jan. 1780, made bequests to his wife Rachel (Som. Wills EB1:307), who in her will, signed 23 Jan. 1808, named daughter Grace, granddaughters Nancy Dennis (wife of Wheatley Dennis), and Priscilla, Polly, and Rosey Bennett, and Molly Handy; James Dennis, son of granddaughter Nancy Dennis; grandsons James Fleming, Henry and William Bennett, and William Selby. GILLIS - MANLOVE - DENWOOD FAMILIES

The first Levin Denwood was in Northampton Co., Va., as early as 1637; his son Levin was in Somerset Co., Md. in 1665, returned to Accomack Co., Va., then permanently settled on Great Monie Creek in Somerset Co. in 1670. Mark Manlove was in Northampton Co. as early as 1659 and settled in the Pocomoke section (later Somerset Co.) in 1664. Thomas Gillis, Manlove's son-in-law, settled in the Manokin section of Somerset Co., Sept. 1665. The compiler is indebted to Mrs. Frank O. Bowman of Carmel, Calif., for her original research on this line, but evidence has not been found for some of the dates.

1 MARK MANLOVE, b. c1610; d. Som. Co. by Nov. 1666; mar. 1st Hannah; 2nd Elizabeth, who mar. 2nd (26 Nov. 1666/67) William Greene. Manlove was in Northampton Co., Va., in Apr. 1659 and Feb. 1661/62. As of 20 Feb. 1665 he was entitled to 300 acres for transporting into Md. George, Christopher, Hannah, Perce, and Thomas Manlove and Ann Williams, and more land (24 Sept. 1665) for transporting Thomas and Mary Gille [Gillis] and others (Torrence, p. 476). He patented "Manlove's Lot" on the north side of Pocomoke River, and on 20 Jan. 1665/66 "Pimmore," 300 acres. In his will, signed 14 Sept. 1660 (prob. 31 Jan. 1666/67) he mentioned, among others, son-in-law Richard Hackworth (Ackworth) and grandson Richard Hackworth, and daughters Mary Manlove and Hannah Gilley [sic], naming wife Elizabeth executor, and he left to the "children that I have lawfully begotten of her" 500 acres lying on the north side of Pocomoke River (Som. Wills EB5:105). A tentative reconstruction of his family would indicate these children: by first marriage: (1) John, b. c1639, mar. 1st Ann (d. 1670/71), 2nd (1672) Elizabeth Lee; (2) Abia, b. c1641, mar. John Parramore; (3) Ann, b. c1645, mar. (c1663) Richard Ackworth; (4) Thomas, b. c1647, mar. (30 July 1667) Jane Delemas; (5) Hannah, b. c1649, mar. (25 June 1667) John Marrett; (6) Mark, b. c1651, mar. (4 Apr. 1672) Elizabeth Greene; (7) Christopher; (8) William, b. c1655, mar. (1 Nov. 1676) Alice Robins; by second marriage: (9) George, b. 1660; (10) Peercy, b. 1663, mar. (25 May 1681) John Waltham; and (11) Luke, b. 1666 (Torrence, pp. 451-52, 476). Another daughter:

- i. Mary, b. c1643; mar. Thomas Gillis; see No. 2 below.

2 MARY MANLOVE, daughter of Mark, b. c1643; mar. (Hun-gar's Parish, Northampton Co., Va. 23 Nov. 1661) Thomas Gilley [GILLIS], b. c1640; d. Som. Co. c1685. He settled in Manokin section, Sept. 1665. In 1670 he patented 200 acres, "Do Better." His children were: (1) Hannah, b. 30 Nov. 1665; d. 1667; (2) Thomas, b. 12 June 1668, mar. (17 Oct. 1685) Jane Blades; (3) Mary, b. c1670; d. 1728; mar. Graves Jarrett, and eldest son:

- i. John, b. c1662; d. by 15 Aug. 1720; see No. 3 below.

3 JOHN GILLIS, son of Thomas and Mary (Manlove) Gillis, b. Northampton Co., Va. c1662; d. Som. Co. by 15 Aug. 1720. In his will, signed 20 Apr. 1720, he bequeathed to son John 300 acres on Barren Creek called "Maidens Lott" where he now lives; to sons Thomas and Ezekiel each 200 acres, "Rich Ridges" at head of Quantico [Creek] and also 100 acres called "Gillises Addition," to be divided by them as they wish; to son Joseph, a minor, 550 acres in three tracts. He also made bequests to daughters Rebecca, Sarah, Betty, Bridget; son Joseph was to be in the care of son Ezekiel for two years, and daughter Bridget in the care of daughter Sarah until 16. Executors were to be wife Mary and son Thomas. Witnesses were Isaac Knott, William Roberts, Robert King (Som. Wills EB9:70). In the distribution of the estate 29 June 1723, the heirs were Thomas (executor), Ezekiel, Joseph, and John Gillis (sons of deceased), widow Mary Gillis, and sons-in-law Thomas Humphreys, William Hitch, Abraham Taylor, and Solomon Wright; the widow received shares for her three youngest children, Joseph, Betty, and Bridgett Gillis (Ann. Accts. 4:324). One of the sons:

- i. Thomas, b. 1696/97; d. Jan. 1780; see No. 4 below.

4 THOMAS GILLIS, son of John, b. Som. Co. 1696/97; d. Som. Co. by 12 Jan. 1780; mar. 1st (Stepney Church, Som. Co., 22 Sept. 1720) Priscilla Denwood, daughter of Arthur and Esther (Robins) DENWOOD (No. 8 below). In a deposition of 16 Sept. 1773 Thomas gave his age as 77; in another of 8 Jan. 1778 his age was 81 (Som. Jud. 1775/84:130, 163). In 1725 Thomas Gillis and Levin Gale were executors of the last will of Esther Denwood (Ann. Accts. 9:148). On 2 Mar. 1725/26 Thomas Gillis, joyner, purchased from William and Mary Hayman for £65 100 acres, "White Chappel" (Som. Deeds 16:7), and Thomas secured patents to other tracts: "Gillis's Meadow," 100 acres, 1720 (in what is now Wicomico Co.); "The End of Strife," 510 acres, 1735 (in what is now Som. Co.); "Addition," 52 acres, 1738, and "Dorman's Improvement Secured," 40 acres, 1746 (both in present Wico. Co.); "Gillis's Rich Island," 100 acres, 1745 (in Worc. Co.); "White Chapple," 502 acres, 1755 (Som. Co.); and other tracts in present Wico. Co., 1746-70. On 11 June 1771 Thomas Gillis, for love and affection and 5 shillings deeded "Harmon" to Joseph Gillis (Som. Deeds 26:136). In his will, signed 29 Dec. 1779 (prob. 12 Jan. 1780) Thomas made bequests to son Joseph, land bought of Peter Surman, on which "my daughter-in-law" Sarah Gillis ("widow of my son Levin Gillis") now lives; to grandson Thomas Gillis, son of Levin; to grandson Levin Gillis. In a codicil Thomas requested that land bought of Robert Ridgely be sold and the money distributed among "my ten children" unnamed (Som. Wills EB1:133). Son:

- i. Levin, b. 22 Aug. 1721; d. by 3 Aug. 1772; see No. 5 below.

5 LEVIN GILLIS, son of Thomas and Priscilla (Denwood) Gillis, b. Som. Co. 22 Aug. 1721 (Stepney); d. Som. Co. by 3 Aug. 1772; mar. Sarah, who d. Som. Co. by 5 Feb. 1782. In his will, signed 17 June 1772, Levin bequeathed to wife Sarah a third of all lands and personal estate and to sons Thomas and Levin the rest of his lands on Wicomico Creek, known as "Gillisses Run," the residue to be divided among his four children, Mary, Thomas, Sarah, and Levin Gillis, and a fifth part to his brother Joseph in trust for grandchildren Levin and Leah Piper (Som. Wills EB4:187). Though he made no mention of daughter Priscilla, other evidence identifies her as another of his children. Sarah Gillis, widow of Levin (Sr.), in her will, signed 24 Dec. 1781, made a bequest to daughter Prissy Round (Som. Wills EB1:155). Children of Levin and Sarah Gillis (born Wicomico, Somerset Co., Md.):

besides Thomas, b. c1751, and Sarah, b. c1753:

- i. Priscilla, b. 28 Jan. 1747 (Boston family Bible); d. July 1808; mar. 1st (c1765) ---PIPER, by whom she was mother of Levin and Leah Piper; mar. 2nd (c1772) John ROUNDS, b. c1745; d. Som. Co. by 28 Feb. 1786; in 1780 he was enrolled as a private in Capt. James Elsey's Co., Princess Anne Battalion, Som. Co. Militia. An inventory of 28 Feb. 1786 for the estate of Sarah Gillis shows Prissy Rounds, administrator de bonis non of Sarah Gillis, unadministered by John Rounds, also deceased, executor of her last will (Som. Accts. EB16:412). On 20 Jan. 1789 Prissy Rounds, widow, conveyed negroes to Levin Gillis for £45 (Som. Deeds 29: 427). (See Note, p. 448.) Of the children, Anne Rounds is identified as daughter of John Rounds and Priscilla his wife in the Bible of Elijah Boston, a notarized manuscript copy of which is in the D. A. R. Library.
 1. Mary Rounds, b. c1773; d. by 16 Oct. 1849; mar. as his 2nd wife Thomas ADAMS (p. 363, No. 20).
 2. Anne, b. 28 Nov. 1785; d. 18 Apr. 1840; mar. ELIJAH BOSTON (44).
- ii. Mary, b. c1749; d. by 9 Feb. 1796; mar. Thomas Pollitt, Sr.; in her will, signed 15 Nov. 1795, she bequeathed to Prissy Rounds, "my dear and beloved sister," all the property which may "fall to me from the estate of Thomas Pollitt, Sr., deceased" (Som. Wills EB17:467).
- iii. Levin (Jr.), b. c1755; d. Som. Co. by 15 Jan. 1795; in his will (19 Oct. 1794) he named niece Mary Rounds (Som. Wills EB17:352).

DENWOOD - GILLIS

6 LEVIN DENWOOD, b. c1602; d. ?Northampton Co., Va. by 1663; mar. Mary. He was in Northampton-Accomack Co., Va. before 1637, where he was a man of substance and social position, at one time a magistrate of Northampton Court. He was one of a committee to draw up the "Northampton Protest," 30 Mar. 1652, to the Virginia authorities, in effect against "taxation without representation." Sympathetic toward Quakers, he probably joined the "Society of Friends," for he reportedly built (c1657) the first Quaker Meeting House on the Virginia "Eastern Shore," a simple log structure on Nassawadox Creek. In 1658 he was brought into court by the Rev. Thomas Teackle for non-payment of church dues. And he was a "receiver of Quakers" imported into North. Co. by Henry Vaux, who would land them at Nassawadox under the pretense of transporting them to Patuxent in Calvert Co., Md. (Torrence, pp. 99, 298-99, 443). His children (born Northampton Co., Va.) were: (1) Susanna, b. c1640, mar. Thomas Brown (leading Quakers in Acco. Co., Va.); (2) Mary, b. c1642, mar. (North. Co. Mar. 1660/61) Roger Woolford, who settled at Manokin; justic of the peace (1676-97), member Lower House of Md. Assembly (1671, 1674, 1682), d. 1702; (3) Thomas, b. c1644; (4) Luke, b. c1646; (5) Elizabeth, b. c1650, mar. (4 July 1669) Henry Hooper of Dorchester Co., Md.; (6) Sarah, mar. Thomas Hicks of Dorchester Co.; Rebecca, mar. (15 Nov. 1679) Nehemiah COVINGTON (q. v.). Probably the youngest son was:

- i. Levin (Jr.), b. c1648; d. by 9 May 1726; see No. 7 below.

7 LEVIN DENWOOD (JR.), son of Levin, b. Northampton Co., Va. c1648; d. Som. Co., Md. by 9 May 1726; mar. Priscilla. He and sister Sarah were transported into Som. Co. before 11 July 1665 by their brother-in-law Roger Woolford, but Levin evidently returned to Accomack Co., later coming back to settle in Som. Co. In Nov. 1670 he secured land rights for transporting his wife Priscilla into Md., and he secured a patent to a large tract, "Hackland," on the south side of Great Monie, at the head of the creek, adding to it "Denwood's Lott," 1669; "Denwood's Den," 1681; "Denwood's Inclusion," 1687; "Unexpected," 1708; "Stonidge," 1709; "Hogyard," 1714, and "Arthur and Betty," 1715 (the latter two in Dorchester Co.); and "Elsey's Care," 1726. Levin was a prosperous planter who also engaged extensively in merchandising. With his brother-in-law and neighbor, Nehemiah Covington, he was a leading Quaker; probably they met the founder of the Society of Friends, George Fox, when he was in the colony, 1672. Denwood and Covington were probably organizers of the Monie Meeting, in existence by 1679; in 1688 Denwood was a signer of the address of thanks from Friends' Quarterly Meeting at Herring Creek to Lord Baltimore, who by proclamation had granted Quakers a dispensation from taking oaths in testamentary cases. In subsequent years celebrated Quaker visitors reported being at Levin Denwood's. By petition in 1704 the "house of Levin Denwood" at Monie became a meeting house for the Quakers. Denwood was a member of the Som. Co. Grand Jury, Mar. 1671/72; overseer of highways in Nov. 1675; later "pressmaster" (for securing provisions for the militia); in 1683 he was named one of the commissioners for laying out five towns in Som. Co. (Torrence, pp. 90, 98-104, 118, 292, 414, 443). In his will, signed 21 Apr. 1725, Denwood bequeathed to daughter Betty Gale dwelling plantation "Hack Land," 1100 acres on Monie Creek, and to her and to his grandsons Thomas and George Denwood, land and marshes on or near the Upper Straights in Dorchester Co.; to daughters Betty Gale and Elizabeth Waters £15 to be disposed of "among Friends comonly called Quakers," also one acre of land between "Wiccomico and Monny thereon there now is a Quaker Meeting house with the Meeting House to be kept for that purpose." He named Martha and Mary Woolford (daughters of "my cousin" Levin Woolford), sisters Sarah Hicks, Rebecca Covington. He provided that £100 be divided among his grandchildren Thomas, George, Betty, Mary Denwood, Esther King, Priscilla Gillis, and Levin Denwood (if he shall be 18 years of age. Grandsons Thomas and George Denwood were to have plantation on Manokin (Manokin) Creek, "whereon my son Arthur lived." He also named daughter Mary Hill, great-grandchild Levin Denwood (under 10). Daughter Betty Gale and grandson Levin Gale were to be executors. Witnesses were Richard and Abigail Waters, John Bacon, Mark Noble (Ann. Wills 18:507). According to the inventory, 13 June 1726, Denwood's estate was valued at £1740. 3. 8; Henry and Mary Hill were nearest of kin (Ann. Inv. 11:595). Children (born Somerset Co.):

- i. Levin, b. 6 Nov. 1670; d. 1703; single.
- ii. Arthur, b. 25 Feb. 1671/72; d. by 11 Aug. 1720; see No. 8 below.
- iii. Betty, b. "at Mony," 7 May 1674; d. 1736; mar. George Gale.
- iv. Mary, b. "at Mony," 10 May 1677; d. 1735; mar. Henry Hill.

8 ARTHUR DENWOOD, son of Levin (Jr.), b. Som. Co. 25 Feb. 1671/72; d. Som. Co. by 11 Aug. 1720 (inventory); mar. Esther Robins, daughter of Major John and Esther (Littleton) Robins (see Note, p. 448), b. c1675; d. Som. Co. by 21 Sept. 1724. According to the inventory of Arthur Denwood, his estate was valued at £1222; nearest of kin were Esther King, John and Betty Denwood (Ann. Inv. 7:129). Esther Denwood signed her will in Aug. 1724, naming daughters Esther King, Betty and Mary Denwood, Priscilla Gillis (£20) and Priscilla's children Levin and Betty Gillis; sons John, Thomas, and George Denwood, Thomas and George to be kept at school until the age of 15, then "cousin" Richard Hill to have tuition and guardianship of them until 21; son Thomas Gillis to have son George from 15 to 21; "my sister" Betty Gale to have daughter Mary until 21. Executors were to be "sons" John Denwood and Thomas Gillis, cousin Levin Gale (Ann. Wills 18:334). One daughter (born Som. Co., Md.):

- i. Priscilla, b. c1700; d. c1735; mar. Thomas GILLIS; see no. 4 above.

GRIFFIN AND RELATED FAMILIES

The progenitors of this family settled originally in Northampton Co., Va., but by 1678 had migrated to Somerset Co., Md. This account is based largely on the research of the late Col. John D. Long of Baltimore, who kindly made his material available.

1 RICHARD HILL,¹ b. c1630; d. Somerset Co., Md. by 7 Dec. 1694; mar. (c1657) Willmott ---, b. c1640; d. c1700. In 1664-65 he secured a patent in Accomack Co., Va., to 650 acres, which he sold 1678-79 after removal to Som. Co. (See Note, p. 448.) Daughter Anne, b. c1658; d. c1708; mar. William WOULDHAVE; see No. 2 below.

2 ANNE HILL² (Richard¹), b. North. Co. c1655; d. Som. Co. c1703; mar. (Acco. Co., Va. before 30 Mar. 1679) William WOULDHAVE, b. Yorkshire, England, c1648; d. Som. Co. by 5 Mar. 1703/04. He settled in what is now Worc. Co., Md., just above the Va. line, in 1686 securing a grant of 230 acres, "Newberry."

3 JANE WOULDHAVE³ (Anne² Richard¹), b. Som. Co. 1679/83;

- i. Naomi, b. c1722; d. by 1770; mar. William Long.
- ii. Abigail, b. c1723; d. by 26 Mar. 1784; mar. David LONG (q. v.).

John Kirk settled at Annesmessex, Somerset Co., Md., by 1671. Francis Gunby came into Somerset Co. as an indentured servant by 1668. According to A. A. Gunby, Colonel John Gunby of the Maryland Line (Cincinnati, Ohio, 1902), the first Gunbys in America came from Lincolnshire, England, and secured a grant from Lord Baltimore in Queen Anne Co., Md. Whether the Somerset Co. family is the same has not been established. Mr. Gunby, however, makes other claims that are apparently at variance with available evidence: he asserts that John Gunby (No. 3 below) came to Som. Co. from Queen Anne Co. about 1710 and left a will dated 24 Oct. 1774 (but elsewhere he states that a copy of this will was recorded 1744), leaving tracts "Gunby's Venture" and "Meadow." Mr. Gunby further claims that John Gunby had a son John (confused with John son of Kirk, No. 4 below), who had a plantation at Buckingham and whose will "passed" 6 Oct. 1788; he left to son Kirk Gunby "Chance," etc.; to son John, all lands in Worc. Co. ("Security"); and also named sons Elisha, wife Sarah, daughter Betty Gunby, mentioning land "Middle Ridge"; witnesses were John Kellam, Jesse Lankford, William Moore. Mr. Gunby moreover identifies the latter John as father of another John, the American Revolutionary soldier, born 10 May 1745 on Gunby's Creek, an inlet from Pocomoke Bay six miles from Crisfield; by his will, signed 11 Feb. 1807, he made a bequest to son George Stevenson Gunby. The soldier John Gunby is evidently to be correctly identified as John, son of James Gunby (No. 5 below).

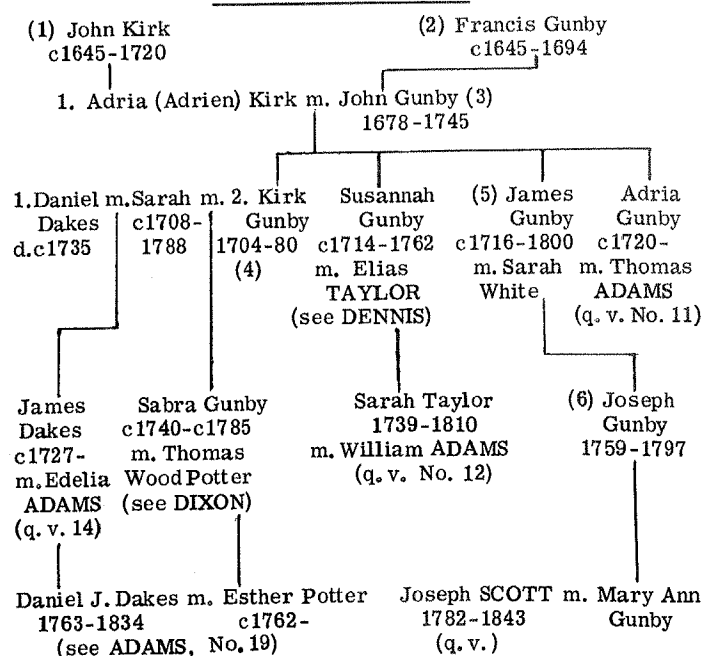

- i. [Daughter], b. c1678; mar. (c1696) John KELLAM, Sr. (see WILSON family).
- ii. Adria, b. c1680; mar. (c1697) John GUNBY; see No. 3 below.

2 FRANCIS GUNBY,¹ b. c.1645; d. Som. Co. by 23 Nov. 1694; mar. (Som. Co. 14 Nov. 1676) Sarah Kirke. In his will, signed 29 Oct. 1694, he bequeathed to son John Gunby only one shilling; all the remainder he left to "friend" Richard Warnton, i. e. 100 acres on Porttobacco Creek in Charles Co., Md. in the hands of Thomas

i. John, b. 19 Apr. 1678; d. by 29 Aug. 1745; see No. 3 below.

- iii. Kirk, b. 24 Feb. 1703/04; d. by 12 June 1780; see No. 4 below.
- ii. Susannah, b. c1714; d. 2 Feb. 1762; mar. Elias TAYLOR (see DENNIS family).
- iii. James, b. c1716; d. by 2 Dec. 1800; see No. 5 below.
- iv. Adria (Audrey), b. c1720; mar. Thomas ADAMS (q. v. No. 11).

4 KIRK GUNBY³ (John² Francis¹), b. Som. Co. 24 Feb. 1703/4 (according to Coventry Parish, son of John and Adrien Gunby); d. Som. Co. by 12 June 1780; mar. probably as 2nd wife Sarah, widow of Daniel Dakes; she d. by 28 Oct. 1788. Kirk Gunby secured patents to land in Som. Co.: "Chance," 1741; "Middle Ridge," 1743; "Kirks Chance" and "Discovery," 1748. In his will, signed 19 Jan. 1775, he bequeathed to son John "Middle Ridge," "Kirks Chance," "Chance," and 100 acres of a "parcel I bought of Ambrose Dixon on jeans island Marshes," i. e. "Dixons Lott" and land bought of James Gunby, "Kirks Purchase," also two tracts bought of Capt. John Williams at Jones Creek, "Flatt Capp" and "Mistake." To son Levin he left 50 acres of marsh bought of Ambrose Dixon; to daughter-in-law Elizabeth Gunby, widow of David, and grandsons Stephen and Kirk Gunby (of David), "Crooked Lane" in now Sussex Co., Del., whereon they now dwell. He also made bequests to daughters Sabra Potter, Mary Cottingham, Sarah

Goodman, Rhoda Conner, son James Gunby; daughter-in-law Elizabeth Gunby, widow of Kirk; granddaughter Sarah Kirk Gunby; and wife Sarah. Witnesses were Purnell Outten, Lazarus Lankford, John Kellam (Som. Wills EB1:134). Kirk's widow signed her will 14 June 1788, making bequests to sons James Dakes (executor) and Levin Gunby, to Daniel Dakes, evidently her grandson (a negro), to Esther Dakes, to daughter Mary Cottingham, to Thomas Wood Potter (evidently son-in-law; a negro), to granddaughters Sarah Connaway, Mary Cottingham, Sabroah and Sarah Gunby, and to Sabroah Sturgis (Som. Wills EB17:13). Children of Kirk Gunby, five youngest evidently by second marriage:

- i. John, b. c1727; d. Som. Co. by 20 Dec. 1791; mar. (Coventry, 27 Jan. 1756) Sarah Melton, who d. Som. Co. by 13 Sept. 1798. In his will, signed 6 Oct. 1788, he left to son Kirk "Middle Ridge," "Chance," "Flat Cap," "Kirks Chance," and to son John "all my lands in Worc. Co." i. e. "Security." Children: (1) Kirk, b. 18 Nov. 1756; d. Som. Co. by 11 Oct. 1796; (2) John, b. 1 Jan. 1760; (3) Mary, mar. ---Bedsworth; (4) Nancy; (5) Elisha; (6) David; (7) Sarah; (8) Elizabeth (Som. Wills EB17:183, 549, 690; Som. Accts. EB24:92; Som. Inv. EB21:318, 387).
- ii. Sarah, b. c1729; mar. --- Goodman.
- iii. James, b. c1731.
- iv. Rhoda, b. c1733; mar. --- Conner.
- v. David, b. c1735; d. before Jan. 1775; children: Stephen and Kirk Gunby (to Delaware).
- vi. Sabra, b. c1740; d. c1785; mar. (Coventry, 20 Jan. 1757) Thomas Wood POTTER (see DIXON family); their daughter Esther wed the son of Sabra's step-brother (see chart).
- vii. Levin, b. c1742; d. Som. Co. by 21 May 1793; mar. (Coventry, 15 May 1763) Sarah Roach.
- viii. Kirk, b. c1744; d. Som. Co. by Jan. 1775; mar. (Coventry, 25 Dec. 1766) Elizabeth Crockett; daughter Sarah Kirk Gunby, b. 8 Apr. 1767.
- ix. Mary, b. 24 Apr. 1746 (Coventry); mar. (Coventry, 12 Nov. 1767) David COTTINGHAM (see DIXON family).
- x. Francis, b. 9 Nov. 1748; d. young.

5 JAMES GUNBY³ (John² Francis¹), b. Som. Co. c1716; d. Som. Co. by 2 Dec. 1800; mar. (Coventry, 26 Nov. 1744) Sarah White, daughter of John White (c1690-1749), who in his will, signed 10 Apr. 1749 (prob. 27 May 1749), named wife Mary, daughters Rachell White (to receive land called "Poor Swamp"), Alice White (to receive land); Sarah Gunby; Betty Outten; Mary White; sons-in-law, James Gunby and Abraham Outten (Som. Wills EB4:23); it was probably this Mary White, daughter of John, who mar. Kellam LANKFORD (q. v.). James Gunby signed his will 24 May 1800, making bequests to son James (wearing apparel), to daughter Sally Adams, daughter Mary Marshall's children, son Joseph Gunby's children, son Benjamin, daughter Betty Schoolfield, and son Stephen; he also bequeathed a slave to grandson George Stevenson Gunby; son-in-law William Adams was to be executor. Witnesses were Samuel Smity, Lazarus and Dennis Addams (Som. Wills EB23:26; Som. Accts. EB24:168). Children (baptized Coventry, born probably in Somerset Co., Md.):

- i. John, b. 30 Sept. 1745; d. Worc. Co. 8 June 1807; in his will, signed 11 Feb. 1807, he named son George Stevenson Gunby (minor), mentioned his plantation "in Buckingham"; other children, Nancy, Sally, John (Worc. Wills MH4:75). He was the Col. John Gunby who served in the American Revolution.
- ii. James, b. 13 Mar. 1747.
- iii. Sarah, b. 9 Feb. 1750; mar. William Adams.
- iv. Mary, b. 29 Dec. 1753; d. by 1800; mar. (Coventry, 12 Apr. 1770) Stephen Marshall.
- v. Isaac, b. 1 Dec. 1756; d. young.
- vi. Joseph, b. 18 Jan. 1759; d. by 16 Aug. 1797; see No. 6 below.
- vii. Benjamin, b. 15 Feb. 1762.
- viii. Elizabeth, b. 18 May 1763; mar. --- Schoolfield.
- ix. Stephen, b. 31 Aug. 1766.
- x. William, who settled in Baltimore.

6 JOSEPH GUNBY⁴ (James³ John² Francis¹), b. ?Gunby's Creek, an inlet from Pocomoke Bay six miles from Crisfield, 18 Jan. 1759; d. Worc. Co. by 16 Aug. 1797 (bond), probably Jan. 1797; mar. Esther, daughter of Elijah COULBOURN (see Note, p. 447), b. 13 Nov. 1762; d. 16 Aug. 1838; she mar. 2nd (lic. Worc. 28 Feb. 1797) Joseph Schoolfield. On the bond for Joseph Gunby's estate Joseph and Esther Schoolfield were administrators; securities were William Schoolfield, Samuel Nicholson. The farm, which "belongs to James Gunby and Mary Gunby, orphans of Joseph Gunby" was a "plantation" including a dwelling house (20x18) of sawed logs, weather boarded with plank with brick chimney covered with cypress shingles, in good repair; milk house, chicken house, smoke house, hen house, log barn (20x20), 2 small stables, log shop (Worc. Guardian Accts. LH8:49). Daughter:

- i. Mary Ann, b. 5 July 1789; d. 1 Feb. 1846; mar. (lic. Worc. 5 Dec. 1807) Joseph SCOTT (p. 428, No. 5).

HALL - CURTIS - REVELL FAMILIES

Of these families, the Revells were evidently the first to arrive in America, the first in Somerset Co., Md. Randall Revell was on the Eastern Shore of Virginia by Jan. 1633/34 and settled at Manokin, in Somerset Co., in 1661. The Halls and Curtises settled at Annessex in 1664 and 1666, respectively.

1 CHARLES HALL, b. c1635; d. Som. Co., Md. by 13 Aug. 1695; mar. Alice (Ellis), b. c1646; d. Som. Co. by 23 Apr. 1724. On 20 Jan. 1664/65 Charles Hall was credited with having transported into the colony of Md. Ellis (Alice) Hall, Mary Freake, John Walker. On 6 June 1665 he patented "Hall's Choice," 300 acres. In 1685 Charles Hall and William Planner were among commissioners named to lay out towns in Somerset Co. On 8 Nov. 1692 Charles Hall and (his son-in-law) William Planner were among those listed from Annessex empowered to divide the county into parishes. The Halls were among the Church of England families in the colony (Torrence, pp. 153, 414, 468, 478). In his will, signed 9 June 1695, he bequeathed to wife Alice 50 acres, "Hopkins Destiny," on the north side of Annessex River, and he named five children, Sarah Curtis, Alice Roach, Rachel Revell, and Mary and Charles Hall, also son-in-law William Planner. Witnesses were Stephen Horsey and Nich and Mary Fountaine (Som. Wills EB5:129). His widow, Alice Hall, signed her will the "7th month" 1717; she named grandsons Richard and Charles [Hall] (rights in the land bequeathed them by their father); granddaughters Alice (under 14, to be under the care of testator's son, Richard), Sarah Roach and Alice Revell; son-in-law John Roach and daughter Alice Roach (to have 50 acres, "Hopkins Destiny," on the north side of the Great Annessex; and daughter Mary Banister (Ann. Wills 18:253). Children (born Annessex):

- i. Charles, b. 22 Feb. 1665/66; d. by 20 July 1709; see No. 2 below.
- ii. Sarah, b. 26 May 1668; mar. James Curtis; see No. 10 below.
- iii. Katherine, b. 20 June 1670; mar. William Planner (d. 1734).
- iv. Alice, b. 2 June 1673; mar. John Roach (see WILLIAMS).
- v. Mary, b. 16 Aug. 1675; mar. William Bannister.
- vi. Rachel, b. 3 July 1677; mar. Randall Revell, Jr.

2 CHARLES HALL (JR.), b. Som. Co. 22 Feb. 1665/66; d. Som. Co. by 20 July 1709; mar. (Som. Co. 31 Oct. 1693) Martha Davis, daughter of ?Richard Davis. In his will, signed 8 Dec. 1708, Charles Hall, planter, bequeathed to wife Martha a third of all land and personal estate during her widowhood; to sons Richard and Charles (both under 21) "all my lands," marked by a "line drawn from the cow hole that is betwixt my mother's and the plantation I now live on adjacent land of John Rahall [?]," on the north side of Great Annessex. He also mentioned sons William and John (both under 15), naming five children: Richard, Charles, William, John, and Alyce. He appointed as overseers James Curtis, John Roch, Richard Waters, and wife Martha (Som. Wills EB5:147). Children (born probably at Annessex, Somerset Co., Md.):

- i. Richard, b. 25 Oct. 1694; d. by 16 Dec. 1777; see No. 3 below.
- ii. Charles, b. c1696; d. Som. Co. by 17 Mar. 1739/40, leaving wife Esther and children Ezekiel, Sinah, Sarah, Leah, and Charles (Ann. Wills 22:153); witnesses to his will were Joshua Tull, William and Richard Hall. His daughter:
 1. Sarah, b. 15 May 1725 (Coventry); d. Som. Co. by 12 Jan. 1812; mar. (Coventry, 1749) Stephen TULL (p. 434, No. 6).
- iii. William, b. c1698.

- iv. John.
- v. Alyce.

3 RICHARD HALL³ (Charles² Charles¹), b. Som. Co. 25 Oct. 1694; d. Som. Co. by 16 Dec. 1777. He signed his will 4 July 1774, bequeathing to son Joshua, "Hall's Adventure," to sons Charles and Joshua the marsh, "Hall's Hamacks"; to "cozzen" [i. e. probably nephew] Ezekiel Hall, Sr., marsh, "Hall's Pasture"; and he named grandson Levin, son of John Hall. Sons Joshua and John Hall were to be executors. Witnesses were Henry Miles, Thomas Tull, Joseph Dawcey (Som. Wills EB1:53). The Charles Hall (below) is probably to be identified as one of Richard's sons, and the Robert Hall who became executor of Charles Hall must certainly be a nephew of Charles and grandson of Richard Hall.

- i. Charles, b. c1720; d. Som. Co. by 20 June 1780. In his will, signed 10 Aug. 1779, Charles Hall, Sr. left his entire estate to his wife Mary for life and named daughters Frances, Sarah, Amelia Hall, son Elijah (executor); witnesses were Samuel Tull, Stoughten Maddux, John Waters (Som. Wills EB1:138). Of course, it is possible that this Charles was the son of Charles (d. 1739), who was brother of Richard. According to an inventory of 23 Aug. 1787 Robert Hall had become administrator of the estate of Charles Hall; distribution was made to Frances, Sarah, and Amelia Hall, and others, not named (Som. Accts. EB 16:507).
- ii. John, b. c1722; see No. 4 below.
- iii. Joshua, b. c1724; mar. Sarah; had: John (1759-1822); Elizabeth; Sarah (b. 1770), mar. Lazarus Maddox; and ? others.

4 JOHN HALL⁴ (Richard³ Charles² Charles¹), b. c1722; probably to be identified as father of the Robert Hall below, since children of John's brothers seem to be accounted for. Two children:

- i. Levin, b. c1745; named in will of grandfather Richard Hall.
- ii. Robert, b. c1747; d. by 4 Jan. 1803; see No. 5 below.

5 ROBERT HALL⁵ (John⁴ Richard³ Charles² Charles¹), b. Som. Co., probably at Annesmessex, c1747; d. Som. Co., probably also at Annesmessex, by 4 Jan. 1803; mar. (c1773) Elizabeth Lankford, daughter of Kellam and Mary (White) LANKFORD (pp. 406-407), b. 22 Feb. 1754; d. by 1802. In his will, signed 9 Dec. 1802, Robert Hall bequeathed all lands to son Richard Hall and made other bequests to sons Noah Lankford Hall and Kellam Lankford Hall (Som. Wills EB23:60). Eldest son (born Annesmessex, Som. Co.):

- i. Richard, b. c1774; d. by Mar. 1838; see No. 6 below.

6 RICHARD HALL⁶ (Robert⁵ John⁴ Richard³ Charles² Charles¹), b. probably at Annesmessex, Som. Co. c1774; d. by 27 Mar. 1838 (inventory), at sea, according to family tradition; mar. 1st (lic. Som. Co. 20 Mar. 1804) Sally Moore; 2nd (lic. Som. Co. 4 Jan. 1815) his second cousin, Martha (Patty) Lankford, daughter of Benjamin LANKFORD (p. 407, No. 10), b. c1795; d. 1830/38. In his will, signed 24 Feb. 1838, he bequeathed to son Henry W. Hall the tracts "Adams Garden" and "Intention"; to son Robert H. Hall, the said land in the event of Henry's death without issue. He also named son William R. Hall and daughters Sally J. Hall and Betsey P. Ward. Witnesses were Aaron C. Lankford and Nathan J. Lankford (Richard's brother-in-law) (Som. Wills JP5:22). In the distribution of the estate 8 Apr. 1839, Henry W. and Sally J. Hall each received $50; the residue was divided among these two and Betsey J. Ward; son William had evidently died within the year (Som. Accts. JP15:137). Two of the children, daughter by first marriage, son by second (born Annesmessex, Som. Co., Md.):

- i. Elizabeth J., b. c1812; d. Apr./June 1839; mar. (lic. Som. 13 Feb. 1831) ELIJAH SMITH WARD (B3).
- ii. Robert H., b. 1822/23; d. May/June 1857; see No. 7 below.

7 ROBERT H. HALL⁷ (Richard⁶ Robert⁵ John⁴ Richard³ Charles² Charles¹), b. Annesmessex, 1822/23; d. near Marion Station, 7 May/8 June 1857, reportedly of an illness contracted while away; mar. (lic. Som. 14 Jan. 1845) Harriet Holland, daughter of Thomas and Polly (Benson) Holland and sister of Elizabeth M. Holland, fourth wife of ELIJAH SMITH WARD (B3), b. 1822/23; d. 1861. (Thomas Holland was in the Hall household in 1850.) In his will, signed 7 May 1857, he named wife Harriet, executrix, children John Wesley, Robert Henry, Harriett Emily, William Fletcher Hall. Witnesses were Salathiel P. Potter, Elijah S. Ward [1st cousin], John T. B. Ward [wife's first cousin] (Som. Wills JP5:287). Children (born Annesmessex, i. e. near Marion Station, Som. Co.): Sarah, b. 1849; d. young; Robert Henry, 1851-1923; Emma Harriet, 1857-1922; Dr. Fletcher William Hall, 1857-1921, reared by 1st cousin, JOHN T. B. WARD (B11), and:

- i. John Wesley, b. 8 Apr. 1847; d. 9 Mar. 1922; see No. 8 below.

8 JOHN WESLEY HALL, b. Annesmessex, 8 Apr. 1847; d. Marion Station, Md. 9 Mar. 1922; mar. (at Annesmessex, 21 Apr. 1875) Mary Elizabeth A. Coulbourn, daughter of William J. and Sarah E. (?Wilson) Coulbourn, b. 17 Dec. 1853; d. 4 Apr. 1912; both buried St. Paul's Churchyard, Marion. Their children: William (1875), Robert L. (1877), John Fletcher (1879; d. young), Sarah Burnice (1880-84), Ralph W., Keeford, and

- i. Edwin Roy, b. Marion Station, 23 Feb. 1888; mar. ELSIE MADOLIN BOSTON (1276).

HALL - CURTIS FAMILY

9 DANIEL CURTIS, b. c1635; d. Som. Co. by 9 Mar. 1681/82; mar. 1st Mary; 2nd (Som. Co. 1 July 1666) Mary Greene. Daniel Curtis was in Accomack Co., Va. by 1661; by 1665 he had settled on the north side of the Great Annesmessex, east of the present village of Upper Fairmount. On 22 Dec. 1666 Curtis was credited with bringing into the colony his wife Mary and daughter Elizabeth. On 29 Jan. 1666/67 Daniel Curtis was among those added to the Jury of Inquest. In Mar. 1671/72 "the house of Daniell Curtis in Annemesicks" was designated by the grand jury as one of four "preaching stations" in the county, where "sermon should be taught." In 1678 Curtis was "captain-lieutenant" of the militia (Torrence, pp. 72, 121-22, 440, 478). In his will, signed 20 Dec. 1680, he made bequests to wife Mary, to son James (plantation), to Alice Hall, daughter of Charles and Alice Hall, said plantation in event of death of son James without issue. Witnesses were Alice Hall, John Heath (Ann. Wills 2:154). Children:

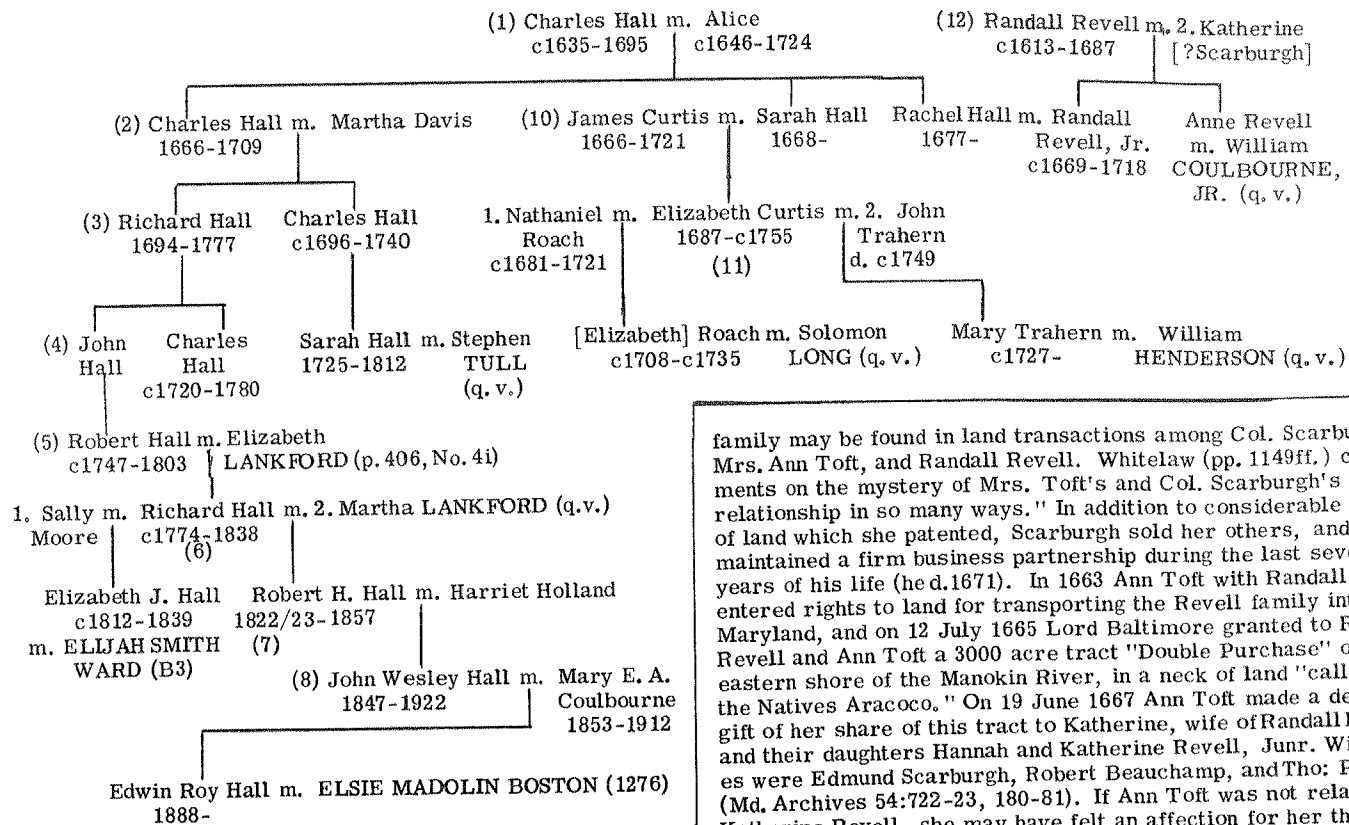

- i. Elizabeth, b. Acco. Co., Va. 1661; d. & bur. at Annesmessex 14 Dec. 1677; mar. (15 Feb. 1676/77) Robert CATLIN, Jr. (see WILLIAMS family).
- ii. James, b. 7 Nov. 1666; d. by 20 Mar. 1720/21; see No. 10 below.

10 JAMES CURTIS, son of Daniel, b. Annesmessex, Som. Co. 7 Nov. 1666; d. Annesmessex, by 20 Mar. 1720/21; mar. (Som. Co. 2 Feb. 1685/86) Sarah HALL, daughter of Charles HALL (see No. 1 above), b. 26 May 1668. In his will, signed 18 Apr. 1720, James Curtis made bequests to son Charles (d. 1742), daughters Sarah, Catherine Wallstone (to share with Rachel Curtis "Curtis Adventure"), Rachel (to have "Curtis Lott"), Esther (to have "Cow Quarter," "Sinpin," and "Horse Hammock"), Elizabeth Roach, and Mary Beauchamp; son-in-law Boaz Wallstone was to have care of son Charles until 18, daughter Rachel until 16. Overseers were to be Jeoffrey Long, Thomas Williams, Jr.; witnesses were William and Ebenezer Handy, John Benson (Som. Wills EB9:72). Four of the children (born Annesmessex, recorded Deeds I. K. L.):

- i. Elizabeth, b. 7 July 1687; d. c1755; mar. 1st Nathaniel Roach; 2nd John Trahern; see No. 11 below.
- ii. Mary Curtis, b. 22 Dec. 1689; mar. --- Beauchamp.
- iii. James, b. 17 July 1694.
- iv. Sarah; mar. her first cousin, Charles Revell.

11 ELIZABETH CURTIS, daughter of James and Sarah (Hall) Curtis, b. Annesmessex, 7 July 1687; d. Som. Co. c1755; mar. 1st (c1707) Nathaniel ROACH, son of John and Sarah (Williams) Roach of Annesmessex (see WILLIAMS family), b. c1681; d. Som. Co. by 24 Feb. 1720/21; she mar. 2nd (c1721/22) John TRAHERN, who d. Som. Co. by 12 Sept. 1749. This double marriage for Elizabeth Curtis and the two sets of children (below) would seem to be the most reasonable explanation for the following rather contradictory records. Nathaniel Roach signed his will 20 Jan. 1720, bequeathing to son James the dwelling plantation, to son Nathaniel as much land from the said tract as will plant an orchard, being part toward the dwelling house of Sarah Tull. Executor was to be wife Elizabeth Roach. Witnesses were Nicholas Fountain, Francis Martin, William Roach (Som. Wills EB9:72).

In an inventory of the estate of John Trahairn, 12 Sept. 1749, the nearest of kin were Ann Trahern and William Henderson; the family may be found in land transactions among Col. Scarburgh, Mrs. Ann Toft, and Randall Revell. Whitelaw (pp. 1149ff.) comments on the mystery of Mrs. Toft's and Col. Scarburgh's "close relationship in so many ways." In addition to considerable tracts of land which she patented, Scarburgh sold her others, and they maintained a firm business partnership during the last several years of his life (he d. 1671). In 1663 Ann Toft with Randall Revell entered rights to land for transporting the Revell family into Maryland, and on 12 July 1665 Lord Baltimore granted to Randall Revell and Ann Toft a 3000 acre tract "Double Purchase" on the eastern shore of the Manokin River, in a neck of land "called by the Natives Aracoco." On 19 June 1667 Ann Toft made a deed of gift of her share of this tract to Katherine, wife of Randall Revell, and their daughters Hannah and Katherine Revell, Junr. Witnesses were Edmund Scarburgh, Robert Beauchamp, and Tho: Poole (Md. Archives 54:722-23, 180-81). If Ann Toft was not related to Katherine Revell, she may have felt an affection for her through her associations with Katherine's presumed brother, Edmund Scarburgh. Nevertheless, all this does not amount to proof.

Randall Revell appeared in Accomack Co., Va. in Jan. 1633/34 and Sept. 1636. In 1636 he moved to St. Mary's Co., in the province of Maryland, where he was granted land for transporting himself into Md., a 100 acre freehold, "Green's Point, alias Randall's Point," in St. George's Hundred, surveyed for him 17 Oct. 1640; as of 14 Dec. 1640 he was due 300 acres for transporting wife Rebecca and sons John and Richard into Md. In Mar. 1641/42 he was referred to as "cooper." He remained in St. Mary's Co. until at least 1644, but was in Northampton Co., Va. by 1650, where in Apr. 1656 he was designed as "wine cooper" and in Aug. 1657 as "cooper." In 1656 he deeded cattle to "my son-in-law John Nichols" [step-son?], in 1657 cattle and horses to "my only son Edward Revell." In 1652 he was among the colonists who signed the engagement of loyalty to the Commonwealth. In 1657/58 he was a member of the Virginia House of Burgesses from Northampton Co.; in 1661 he was a justice of the peace for Accomack Co. Randall Revell settled in the province of Maryland again, probably late in 1661, having been named (6 Nov. 1661) one of three commissioners to effect a settlement of Virginia Eastern Shore residents who had petitioned Lord Baltimore to be allowed to settle in Md., the future Somerset Co. (Torrence, pp. 306ff.)

Revell became one of the most prominent and wealthy figures in Somerset Co. He was certainly well established by May 1662 when he submitted a report on the progress of settlement. In 1662 when he patented "Double Purchase" between the Manokin River and Back Creek. On 1 Oct. 1665 he patented "Revell's Grove," 1500 acres; in 1680, "Double Purchase and Arrococo Neck," in 1682, "Partners Choice"; in 1684, "Smithfield," and in 1685, "Hoggsdown" (both of the latter in present Wicomico Co.).

On 16 Dec. 1663 Randall Revell and Ann Toft entered rights for Revell himself, wife Katherine, children Randall, Jr., Hannah, Katherine, Jr., John Nicholls, and many others including William and Olive Furnish (Furniss; see p. 391).

Revell was the first resident executive officer of the community, a responsibility of which he was relieved in Feb. 1662/63, possibly because of his sympathies toward Col. Scarburgh's scheme to annex the Manokin-Annemessex area to Accomack Co. But in Aug. 1670 Revell was high sheriff of Somerset Co. (Torrence, pp. 306-310, 455-457). In his will, signed 27 May 1685, Revell bequeathed to wife Katherine (named executor) 500 acres, greatest creditors, Nathaniel Roach, Solomon Long (Ann. Inv. 41:435). In an account of 21 Dec. 1750 payment was made to Solomon Long, Nathaniel Roach, Thomas Quinn, Ann Trahern, William Henderson, and John Trahern, £ 8.11.7 each for "their proportionable parts of James, Daniel, and Katherine Roches estates, their deceased brothers and sisters, who it is supposed died under age," the estate in the hands of the late John Trahern [evidently their step-father]; but payments were somewhat differently itemized elsewhere in the account: to Elizabeth Roach, her third of the clear estate; John's 1/6 share, other 5/6 to Thomas Quinn, Ann Trahern, William Henderson, John Trahern, George Summers (Ann. Accts. 29:123). Elizabeth Roach must be the mother of these children (below), widow of Nathaniel Roach, and also widow of John Trahern, but designated "Roach" to simplify recording. It may be inferred that the heirs in the first list are in order of age. Children of Elizabeth Curtis.

- i. [Elizabeth] Roach, b. c1708; d. c1735; mar. Solomon LONG (q.v. No. 8)
- ii. James Roach, b. c1710; d. young.
- iii. Nathaniel Roach, b. c1713.
- iv. Katherine Roach, b. c1716; d. young.
- v. Daniel Roach, b. c1720; d. young.
- vi. [Daughter] Trahern, b. c1723; mar. Thomas Quinn.
- vii. Ann Trahern, b. c1725.
- viii. Mary, b. c1727; mar. (1748) William HENDERSON (q.v.).
- ix. John, b. c1729.

HALL - REVELL FAMILY

12 RANDALL REVELL, b. c1613; d. Som. Co. by 8 Mar. 1686/87; mar. 1st Rebecca--; 2nd (probably late in 1661) Katherine [Scarburgh (Scarborough)], presumed daughter of Edmund and Hannah (Butler) SCARBURGH (see pp. 428-29, No. 4), b. c1635. Torrence (p. 456, note) observed that "invariable 'tradition'" has it that Randall Revell's wife Katherine was a sister of Col. Edmund Scarburgh (Scarborough); though the late Stratton Nottingham, authority on Eastern Shore, Virginia, families, was inclined to accept this tradition, he never found substantiating evidence.

Katherine was single in Feb. 1660/61 when Mrs. [i.e. Mistress] Katherine Scarburgh made a deed of gift to Katherine Bosman (Torrence, p. 437). A clue to Katherine [?Scarburgh] Revell's land due her by conveyance from Mrs. Ann Toft, also 405 acres, part of "Double Purchase"; to son Randall (Randolph), 500 acres of the same tract; to daughters Ann, Hannah, Catherine, Sarah, 500 acres each, parts of aforesaid tract; and he also mentioned son Edward Revell, living in Accomack Co. Witnesses were William Warwick, William and Agnes Dredde, John West. (Som. Wills EB5:141). Children (first three by first marriage, born probably St. Mary's Co., Md.; next two, Accomack Co., Va.; others Somerset Co., Md.):

- i. John, b. c1634?; d. by 1657.
- ii. Richard, b. c1636?; d. by 1657.
- iii. Edward, b. c1638; d. Acco. Co. by 21 Jan. 1687/88; mar. Frances, had: Rebecca (mar. Robert Coulbourne); Rachel (mar. Henry Custis); and John, of Acco. Co. (d. ?1711).
- iv. Hannah, b. c1658; mar. Stephen Horsey, Jr.
- v. Katherine, Jr., b. c1660; d. c1663/64.
- vi. Anne, b. c1663; mar. (Accomack 15 June 1678; recorded Som. Co. 31 Oct. 1692) William COULBOURNE, JR. (see p. 373, No. 2).
- vii. Katherine, b. 14 Nov. 1664; d. 1723; mar. (Som. Co. 22 Apr. 1688) John West of Som. Co.
- viii. Sarah, b. Oct. 1667; mar. Nathaniel Horsey.
- ix. Randall, Jr., b. c1669; d. Som. Co. by 18 June 1718; mar. Rachel Hall (see No. 1 above).

HARRIS FAMILY

The Harris family came into Somerset Co., Md., about 1670, settling at Perrihawken, west of Dividing Creek, east-southeast of the present location of Princess Anne.

1 JOHN HARRISON (HARRIS),¹ b. c1640; d. Som. Co. by 5 Mar 1712/13; mar. (Som. Co. 18 Feb. 1670/71) Judith Godfrey. On 11 Dec. 1671 William Wheatley of London, mariner, proved his right to 200 acres of land for transporting into Maryland, among others, John Harrison, but on 13 June 1671 Harrison had proved his right to 50 acres in Som. Co. for transporting his wife Judith out of Virginia into the Province of Maryland. John Harrison was due 100 acres more by assignment from John Sterling for his wife's services.

John Harris (Harrison) on 29 July 1675 was granted a patent for 600 acres, "Friend's Choice," on the north side of the Pocomoke River and the west side of Dividing Creek, and on 1 Oct. 1680, by a special warrant (because of an error in the original grant) he was granted 600 acres, "Harrison's Adventure," a re-survey of the patent to "Friend's Choice," the two names subsequently used interchangeably in wills and deeds. On 20 Apr. 1682 he also patented 200 acres, "Harrison's Venture," and in 1683, 175 acres, "Middleton." On 25 June 1699 John Harris, planter, signed what is in the form of a will, but, recorded among the deeds 28 Oct. 1701, it was never admitted to probate (Som. Deeds 7:630). He provided that his wife Judith should occupy and possess "Middleton, my seated plantation" and 50 acres of "Harrison's Venture," both to go at her death to youngest son Caleb. Son John Harris was to receive 200 acres of "Harris Adventure"; son Jeremiah, 150 acres of same; son Robert, 200 acres of "Adventure"; and he named daughter Judith, son Caleb to be executors. He appointed friend Teague Riffin, Jr., and Ambrose Riffin his brother as guardians of Caleb during his minority. This "will" evidently had the force of a deed, for in 1709 Jeremiah and Robert Harris sold land granted 1 Oct. 1780 to "John Harrison alias Harris, ... who by deed" conveyed 150 acres to Jeremiah Harris, etc. (Som. Deeds 6:893). (See Note, p. 449, for fuller details.)

John Harris of Parahawkin signed his actual will 17 Mar. 1710/11, bequeathing to son John 200 acres out of "Friend's Choice" (containing 600 acres); to son-in-law Richard Knight, 50 acres of this tract; to son James, remaining 50 acres of tract, plus adjacent 150 acres of "Harrison's Venture"; to son Caleb, 175 acres "Middle Town" and remaining 50 acres of "Harrison's Venture" adjacent; if Caleb should die without issue, the land to be sold and the money divided among his four sisters, Priscilla, Esther, Sarah, Patience. To Jeremiah Harris, Ambrose Riffin, Randall Smullin, Robert Harris, Hugh Culligan, and Thomas Pritchett he bequeathed "one silver shilling" each. His wife

Judith was named executor (Som. Wills EB9:27). Probate of the will was delayed three years, for, whereas the will was admitted to probate on 24 Mar. 1715/16, son James on 5 Mar. 1712/13 had sold land willed to him by his father. Third son:

- i. Robert, b. 8 Jan. 1678/79; d. 28 Feb. 1759; see No. 2 below.

2 ROBERT HARRIS² (John¹), b. Som. Co. 8 Jan. 1678/79; d. Som. Co. 28 Feb. 1759 (Coventry); mar. (c1725) Abigail Parsons, widow of John (Ann. Accts. 6:339); she d. 11 Apr. 1756 (Coventry). They were married before 6 Feb. 1724/25. Robert Harris, planter, signed his will 28 Sept. 1755 (prob. 13 Mar. 1759), bequeathing to son John the plantation "whereon I now live" containing 316 acres, "Chance," and one other tract, "Pasturage," 50 acres, also pistols, a small sword, one brown desk, etc.; to wife Abigail during her widowhood the use of five negroes; to son Zachariah, "Heath's Quarter," 100 acres, and "Littleworth," 50 acres, also "Liberty," 50 acres, plus three negroes; to son-in-law Samuel Ackworth, 1 shilling, for "my daughter" Sarah's part; to daughter Betty Lister, three negroes; to daughter Abigail Harris, three negroes. Witnesses were William and Jane Fleming, John Sheldon, Sarah Smulling (Som. Wills EB4:64). Children (born Perrihawken):

- i. Sarah, b. c1726; mar. Samuel Ackworth.
- ii. Hannah, b. c1728; mar. — Gray.
- iii. John, b. c1730; d. by 13 Nov. 1793; see No. 3 below.
- iv. Zachariah, b. c1732; d. in Delaware, 1798.
- v. Betty, b. c1734; mar. (Coventry, 8 Dec. 1754) Jesse Lister.
- vi. Abigail, b. c1738; mar. (Coventry, 9 Oct. 1759) Coulbourne Long.

3 JOHN HARRIS³ (Robert² John¹), b. c1730; d. Som. Co. by 13 Nov. 1793; mar. (Coventry, 26 May 1757) Mary Marshall, daughter of Thomas MARSHALL (see p. 417, No. 4). In his will, signed 13 Feb. 1788, John Harris bequeathed to his son John, Jr. the plantation "whereon I now live," i. e. "Chance," 316 acres, and 50 acres more, also "Hogg Quarter" (14 acres), "Cuppels" (14 acres), "Venture" (7 acres), "Turkey Trap" (5 acres), and slaves; to son Thomas, land bought from Benjamin Stevenson in Worc. Co. on the Pocomoke River, and a slave; to son George (under 21), negroes; to son Isaac, negroes; and he also named daughter Mary and son Stevens. Witnesses were James and Ephraim Collins, and Stephen Marshall (Som. Wills EB17:276). Children (born Som. Co., Md., dates from Coventry Parish register):

- i. John, b. 29 May 1760.
- ii. Thomas, b. 27 Aug. 1762; d. 1793.
- iii. Levi, b. 12 Dec. 1765; d. young.
- iv. Isaac, b. 1766; d. 23 June 1824; see No. 4 below.
- v. Stevens, b. c1768/69.
- vi. Mary, b. 10 Oct. 1771; d. 1813/18; mar. (1791) Josiah W. Heath.
- vii. George, b. c1773; d. c1800; single.

4 ISAAC HARRIS⁴ (John³ Robert² John¹), b. Som. Co. 1766; d. Som. Co. by 23 June 1824; mar. 1st (21 Dec. 1786) Sarah (Sally) Tull, daughter of Stephen and Sarah (HALL) TULL (p. 433), b. 25 Mar. 1769; d. 14 Dec. 1818; evidently mar. 2nd (11c. Som. 14 Apr. 1819) Mary Adams. In his will, signed 21 Mar. 1816 (prob. 27 July 1824) Isaac Harris "of John" named wife Sally, entrusted with the education of "my six children now with us unmarried and unprovided for"; son George Stevens Harris, after his mother's death, or marriage, was to have 35 acres bought from William Warwick and 4 1/2 acres bought from JAMES BOSTON (68); and he named "five daughters now living with us": Lyda L., Eliser, Matilda, Nancy Thomas Harris, Leah Hall Harris, to receive $100. each (Som. Wills JP4:85). At a marshal's sale, 2 o'clock, at the court house door in Princess Anne, 27 Aug. 1839, according to a notice in the Princess Anne Herald, land of the late Isaac Harris "of John" was offered for sale, "Warwick's Discovery," "Harrison's Adventure," "Whittington's Neglect," "Venture," "Adventure," over 702 acres; the land had been seized in a suit of the U. S. vs. Eliza Ann Harris, Matilda C. Harris, Leah H. Harris, George S. Harris, William Costen, Sr. and wife Mary, and Marshall McDaniel, heirs at law of Isaac Harris. (Dates are from Harris Bible, of which copies are in the D. A. R. Library and the Md. Historical Society in Baltimore.) Children (born Perrihawken, Som. Co., Md.):

- i. Mary Marshall, b. 9 Apr. 1791; mar. William Costen.
- ii. Tubman, b. 30 July 1793; d. by 9 Oct. 1822; see No. 5 below.
- iii. Lydia Statia, b. 10 Dec. 1798; d. 24 Dec. 1818.

- iv. Eliza Ann, b. 13 Aug. 1803; mar. John S. FLEMING (q.v.).
- v. Matilda Curtis, b. 9 Feb. 1806; mar. (lic. Som. Co. 4 Jan. 1827) Burton Cannon.
- vi. Nancy Thomas, b. 4 Nov. 1809; d. c1836; mar. George Powell; see No. 6 below.
- vii. George Stephen, b. 11 Oct. 1812.
- viii. Leah Hall, b. 15 May 1815; d. 24 Feb. 1853.

5 TUBMAN HARRIS⁵ (Isaac⁴ John³ Robert² John¹), b. 30 July 1793; d. Worc. Co. by 9 Oct. 1822 (bond); mar. (lic. Worc. 27 Feb. 1815) Mary Atkinson, daughter of Angelo and Sarah (Hudson) ATKINSON (p. 364, No. 4), b. 4 Nov. 1796; d. 22 Nov. 1867; she mar. 2nd (lic. Worc. 3 Jan. 1826) David G. Odell, b. 15 June 1794; d. 26 Sept. 1850. Three children by first marriage (born Worc. Co., Md.):

- i. Sarah C., b. 6 Dec. 1815; d. 17 Aug. 1887; mar. Wm. R. Truitt.
- ii. William, b. 15 Sept. 1817; d. 22 Feb. 1867; to Virginia.
- iii. Angelo Atkinson, b. 8 Dec. 1819; d. 1850/51; see No. 7 below.

6 NANCY THOMAS HARRIS⁵ (Isaac⁴ John³ Robert² John¹), b. Som. Co. 4 Nov. 1809; d. c1836; mar. (lic. Som. 19 Jan. 1830) George W. POWELL, b. c1803; d. by 2 Oct. 1838 (inventory). James and Harriet Dryden were administrators of the estate of George W. Powell, with distribution to the three children listed below (Som. Accts. JP15:180-1); the children, according to the 1850 Som. Co. census, were living with James Dryden and his wife, Harriet (Miles), aunt of James W. Long. The parentage of George and Mary (below) is proved by their death certificates. Children (born near Rehobeth, Som. Co., Md.):

- i. Hannah C., b. c1831; d. c1839; her estate was distributed to her brother and sister (Som. Accts. SWJ2:107-8).
- ii. George C., b. 5 Dec. 1833; d. near Rehobeth, 22 Oct. 1904; mar. (Som. Co. 18 Mar. 1855) Mary Elizabeth Dryden, daughter of William and Martha C. (ADAMS) DRYDEN (see p. 385, No. 20), b. 17 Aug. 1839; d. 21 Aug. 1914. Their sons married sisters, who were their cousins:
 - 1. Charles Edgar, b. 28 Apr. 1857; d. 16 July 1940; mar. SALLY MATILDA DRYDEN (266).
 - 2. George William, b. 5 Mar. 1862; d. 13 Oct. 1893; mar. HARRIET WISE DRYDEN (267).
- iii. Mary C., b. 27 Aug. 1835; d. Green Hill, Som. Co. 30 July 1920; mar. James W. Long, son of Josiah and Elizabeth (Miles) LONG (No. 18, pp. 415-16), b. 22 Dec. 1827; d. 9 Aug. 1917; both buried Pocomoke; Stevenson Bros. were undertakers for Mrs. Long. Their son:
 - 1. Harry Columbus, b. 11 Mar. 1878; d. 17 Jan. 1920; mar. ANNIE L. POWELL (644).

7 ANGELO ATKINSON HARRIS⁶ (Tubman⁵ Isaac⁴ John³ Robert² John¹), b. 8 Dec. 1819; d. Worc. Co. 2 June 1850/9 July 1851; mar. (lic. Worc. 1 Dec. 1841) Harriet Eliza Boyer, daughter of Francis A. and Mary (Duer) Boyer, who d. 31 Aug. 1857; she mar. 2nd William A. Waples. (Dates from Bible of Edward P. Harris, Snow Hill, Md.) Children (born Worc. Co., Md.):

- i. Mary A., b. 5 May 1843; mar. 1st ---McNamara; 2nd James Allison Lankford.
- ii. Angelo Atkinson, b. 13 Nov. 1845; d. 26 Dec. 1937; see No. 8 below.
- iii. James Boyer, b. 20 Oct. 1849.

8 ANGELO ATKINSON HARRIS, JR.⁷ (Angelo⁶ Tubman⁵ Isaac⁴ John³ Robert² John¹), b. Worc. Co. 13 Nov. 1845; d. near Snow Hill, Md. 26 Dec. 1937; mar. (Worc. Co. 5 June 1867) Mary A. Wilson, daughter of Lemuel P. and [Mary] (Carsley) Wilson, b. 1849; d. 13 Feb. 1889. Dates from Harris Bible. Children (born Snow Hill, Worc. Co., Md.):

- i. Lemuel J., b. 9 Aug. 1868; d. 9 Dec. 1930.
- ii. Eva Lee, b. 30 Apr. 1870; d. Snow Hill, 30 Aug. 1964; mar. (Snow Hill, 2 Feb. 1890) George Collier Purnell MOORE, son of G. C. P. and Sara (Bishop) Moore, b. Bishopville, Md. 20 Jan. 1867; d. Snow Hill, 4 June 1938. Their daughter:
 - 1. Anna Virginia, b. Snow Hill, 11 Feb. 1898; mar. GEORGE WILLIAM PAYNE (E19).
- iii. Virginia Wilson, b. 19 Apr. 1872.
- iv. William Angelo, b. 10 Sept. 1874; d. Salisbury, Md. 14 Mar. 1948; mar. Pearl Edna Bailey, b. 20 Nov. 1879. Their son:
 - 1. William Angelo, Jr., b. 23 Apr. 1904; mar. HELEN

E. TRADER (937c).

- v. Joseph Edward, b. 11 Feb. 1876; d. 14 Oct. 1913; mar. SARAH E. PENNEWILL (935c).
- vi. Mary Adaline, b. 12 Feb. 1884; d. 14 Aug. 1898.

HENDERSON AND RELATED FAMILIES

The Henderson family, along with the families of Benson, Brittingham, Merrill, Patterson, Pitts, and others, settled in the area of the Eastern Shore which was subsequently (1668) crossed by the boundary line between the provinces of Maryland and Virginia, that is, at Pitts Creek, near the mouth of the Pocomoke River. During the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries, therefore, although some members of these families might live in Maryland, others in Virginia, they were all near neighbors, many owning lands on both sides of the boundary line. The Barnaby family, which had arrived in Virginia before 1631, and was in Northampton Co., Va. by 1638, settled farther north in Somerset Co., at Manokin, about 1663. (Much of the information for early generations was compiled by Mrs. Anne G. Greene of Philadelphia.) (See Note, p. 449.)

1 JAMES BARNABY migrated to Virginia by 1631, and he was in Northampton Co. in Feb. 1637/38. (See Note, p. 449.) James and Sarah Barnaby were headrights for John Holloway in Accomack Co., 1640, and in 1651 James and Sarah Barnaby were headrights for Roger Johns of Northampton Co. (Greer, p. 72). James and Sarah Barnaby are probably parents of James Barnaby (Jr.), below.

2 JAMES BARNABY (JR.), probably son of James and Sarah, b. c1635; "died and was buried at Manokin" 17 Feb. 1666/67. He had entered Som. Co., Md., from Northampton Co., Va. by 1664, for on 12 Mar. 1663/64 he patented "Barnaby's Lott," 200 acres, at Manokin. In his will, signed 26 Jan. 1665/66 (prob. 28 May 1667) he made bequests to wife Mary (executrix), her dower rights; to son James, 200 acres (according to patent); and to daughters Rebecca and Elizabeth Barnaby, the latter to have personal property bequeathed her by her god-father, Col. William Kendall. In the event of the deaths of his wife and children without issue, his estate was to pass to John Whitehead, Jr., of Northampton Co., Va.; Patrick Flemmen (Fleming) was a witness (Ann. Wills Box 1, folder 3). Banns for the marriage of Mary Barnabe, widow, to Henry Miles, were published 28 Jan. 1667/68, but in 1669 she mar. Edward Jones. She died 1669. At a Som. Co. court 18 Aug. 1671 John Avery entered a complaint against Edward Jones to recover Mrs. Avery's fee for having instructed the children of Mrs. Barnabe. "That your petitioners wife made a bargain with Mary Barnabe to school her children one summer and for consideration your petitioner was to have one two-year heifer. . . [left] at the house of the said Barnabe until she had a calf." The court ordered Jones to deliver the heifer, "appointed him by the widowe Barnaby deceased, with her increase" (Torrence, p. 287). Children of James and Mary Barnaby:

- i. Elizabeth, b. North. Co., Va. 18 Feb. 1660/61 (Hungar's Parish); mar. John Henderson; see No. 4 below.
- ii. Rebecca, b. c1663; mar. (Som. Co. 13 Mar. 1679/80) James Willis.
- iii. James, b. Manokin, in Feb. 1664/65; d. 1681.

3 JAMES HENDERSON, SR.¹, b. c1630; d. Som. Co. by 22 Oct. 1692. He settled at Pitts Creek, in Som. Co., in what is now the southernmost part of Worc. Co., Md. On 17 Nov. 1665 before the boundary was determined (1668) between Md. and Va., he secured from the Va. govt. a grant of 400 acres in (then) Accomack Co., on the south side of the Pocomoke River, bounded on the east by land surveyed for Thomas Davis, in return for transporting into the colony eight persons (Nugent I:552; Nottingham, Certifications and Rights, Accomack Co., 1663-1709 p. 14). In the early 1660's Henderson was also listed as a tithable in Acco. Co. In 1677 he patented "The Endeavour," 200 acres; in 1685, "Moreclock," 500 acres; in 1685, "Double Purchase," 1100 acres, all in present Worc. Co. He signed his will 18 Nov. 1690, bequeathing to eldest son John a tract in Cypress Swamp, on the Pocomoke River, "Moreclock"; to son William, land where his dwelling house is (and he mentioned a bridge between the house "I now dwell in" and the house of "my son William"); to son James, land adjacent his brother John; and he spoke of four children, including Jane, wife of John Williams,

Jr. (Som. Wills EB9:5). Children:

- i. John, b. North. Co., Va. 12 May 1661 (Hungar's Parish); d. by 9 Jan. 1743/44; see No. 4 below.
- ii. William, b. c1663; mar. (Som. Co. Aug. 1684) Sarah Bishop; member Som. Co. Grand Jury 8 Mar. 1697/98.
- iii. Jane, b. c1665; mar. John Williams, Jr.
- iv. James, b. Pocomoke, 10 June 1669; in 1694 he patented "Barren Lott" (110 acres) and "Haphazard" (70 acres) in present Worc. Co., Md.

4 JOHN HENDERSON² (James¹), b. North. Co., Va. 12 May 1661; d. Worc. Co., Md. by 9 Jan. 1743/44; mar. (Som. Co. 1 July 1680) Elizabeth Barnabe, daughter of James (No. 2 above), b. North. Co., Va. 18 Feb. 1660/61. He secured patents to "Henderson's Chance," 70 acres (1688), "Chesnut Ridge," 100 acres (1696), "Henderson's Conveniency," 120 acres (1700). In 1711 John and Elizabeth Henderson deeded her share of her father's land to her son "Commonly called William otherwise William Henderson." This son, William Henderson of Manokin, planter, by his will, signed 21 Feb. 1720/21 (prob. 29 Apr. 1721) bequeathed to his brother, Joseph Henderson, dwelling plantation, Barnaby's Lott, 96 acres, and he mentioned brothers Charles, James, and Benjamin Henderson, sisters Comfort and Elizabeth; he left "my orphan lad Daniel Young" under the guardianship of "my father-in-law" [step-father] until 17 (Ann. Wills 16:424).

John Henderson, Sr., planter, signed his will 1 Aug. 1723, bequeathing to son Benjamin, "Haphazard" where he now dwells; to son Charles, "The Ropemakers" on Pocomoke River lying next to land formerly given to his brother John; to son James, part of "Mortlack" bordered by land where testator's brother James lived; to daughter-in-law Sarah Henderson, use of part of "Mortlack" at the mouth of Buckland Branch, land to pass at her marriage or death to testator's grandson John; to wife Elizabeth, entire personal estate and dwelling plantation for life; to son James, plantation at his mother's death; he also named daughters Comfort Newbold (and her children William, Eliza, John) and Hannah Pitts; daughter-in-law Parthenia Henderson; granddaughters Mary Small, and Jemima and Comfort, grandson Barnaby son of Charles Henderson. Witnesses were John Benson, Joshua and Mary Merrill (Worc. Wills JW2:9). On 23 Dec. 1747 Elizabeth Henderson, for love and affection, conveyed negroes to grand-daughter Betty Barnaby Henderson (of Benjamin), to grandson William Henderson (of Charles), to "loving daughter" Alice Henderson, wife of "my son" James Henderson, and after Alice's death, to grandson James (of James and Alice) (Worc. Deeds W: 38, 40, 41). Children (born Pitts Creek, Som. [now Worc.] Co.):

- i. Hannah, b. 1683; d. by 30 June 1752; mar. John PITTS; see No. 13 below.
- ii. James, b. c1685; d. by 21 Aug. 1776; see No. 5 below.
- iii. John, b. c1687; d. Worc. Co. by 20 Jan. 1742/43; mar. Sarah Houston; in his will he named wife Sarah, children John, Sarah, Samuel, Elizabeth, Andrews, and Rebecca Brittingham (Worc. Wills JW2:1-2).
- iv. Ann Mary, b. c1689; mar. ? John Small.
- v. Charles, b. c1691; d. by 29 Jan. 1762; see No. 6 below.
- vi. Comfort, b. c1693; mar. Francis Newbold.
- vii. Joseph, b. c1695; d. by 20 Nov. 1723; named in will of his step-brother William "Henderson."
- viii. Benjamin, b. c1697; d. Worc. Co. by 22 May 1772. In his will, signed 18 Nov. 1769, Benjamin Henderson, Sr., bequeathed to wife Mary land "Haphazard," after her death to go to son Benjamin; named son Lemuel (executor); grandsons James and Lemuel Henderson, James Collins; daughters Mary Horsey, and Leah, Roday, and Betty Henderson. (Worc. Wills JW4:107). One son:
 1. Lemuel, b. c1735; d. Acco. Co., Va. by 26 Nov. 1797; mar. Scarborough. In his will, signed 5 Feb. 1797, he named son James (plantation where I now live), daughter Rhoda Tunnel, granddaughter Scarborough Henderson, wife Scarborough, grandson Lemuel Henderson (Nottingham, pp. 345-46). He may very well be the father of John Henderson, b. c1770; d. Acco. Co. by 25 Oct. 1841, who wed MARTHA BOSTON (S-J1). (See Note, p. 449)

5 JAMES HENDERSON³ (John² James¹), b. Pitts Creek, Som. Co., Md. c1685; d. Worc. Co., Md. by 21 Aug. 1776. On 28 Oct. 1762 James Henderson sold to Elijah Brittingham 120 acres "Hendersons Conveniency," swamp land formerly owned by John Henderson, father of James, who died without disposing of it; it descended to James as eldest son and heir-at-law (Worc. Deeds E: 386). Tax lists for Som. Co. show that James's eldest son was John, b. c1716/17. In depositions in 1763 James Henderson, aged 78, James Henderson, aged 36, John Henderson, aged 41, and Comfort Henderson, aged 32, all testified concerning Purnell Newbold's land: Comfort mentioned her father Thomas Newbold (Som. Jud. 1763/65:90). It would appear that the John aged 41 and James aged 36 are sons of James aged 78 and that Comfort is wife of John. In his will, signed 30 Apr. 1771, James Henderson (Sr.) bequeathed to son Joseph, and his son James, all the tract "Mortlock"; to son James (executor) and his son Joseph, land on the Pocomoke River; and he named daughter Elizabeth Henderson. Witnesses were Thomas Lambden, Ephraim Henderson, Tabitha Henderson (Worc. Wills JW4:311). Eldest son:

- i. John, b. c1716/17; see No. 7 below.

6 CHARLES HENDERSON³ (John² James¹), b. Pitts Creek, c1691; d. Worc. Co. by 29 Jan. 1762 (inventory); mar. Parthenia Merrill, daughter of William MERRILL (p. 417, No. 1). In his will, signed 30 Oct. 1761, Charles Henderson named son William (executor), bequeathed to him land, marsh, and cypress swamp; he also made bequests to son Jesse, daughter Levinah Bladds, grandson Curtes Henderson, wife Purtheney Henderson. Witnesses were Joshua Merrill (his wife's brother), Mary Bladds, Jr., Rachel Young (Worc. Wills JW3:53). Two children (born Pitts Creek, Md.):

- i. Levin, b. c1711; d. by 29 Mar. 1789; in his will he named wife Mary, children Jesse, Barnabas, Curtis, Nancy, Samuel, and Mary (Worc. Wills JW13:214).
- ii. William, b. c1715; d. by 7 May 1802; see No. 8 below.

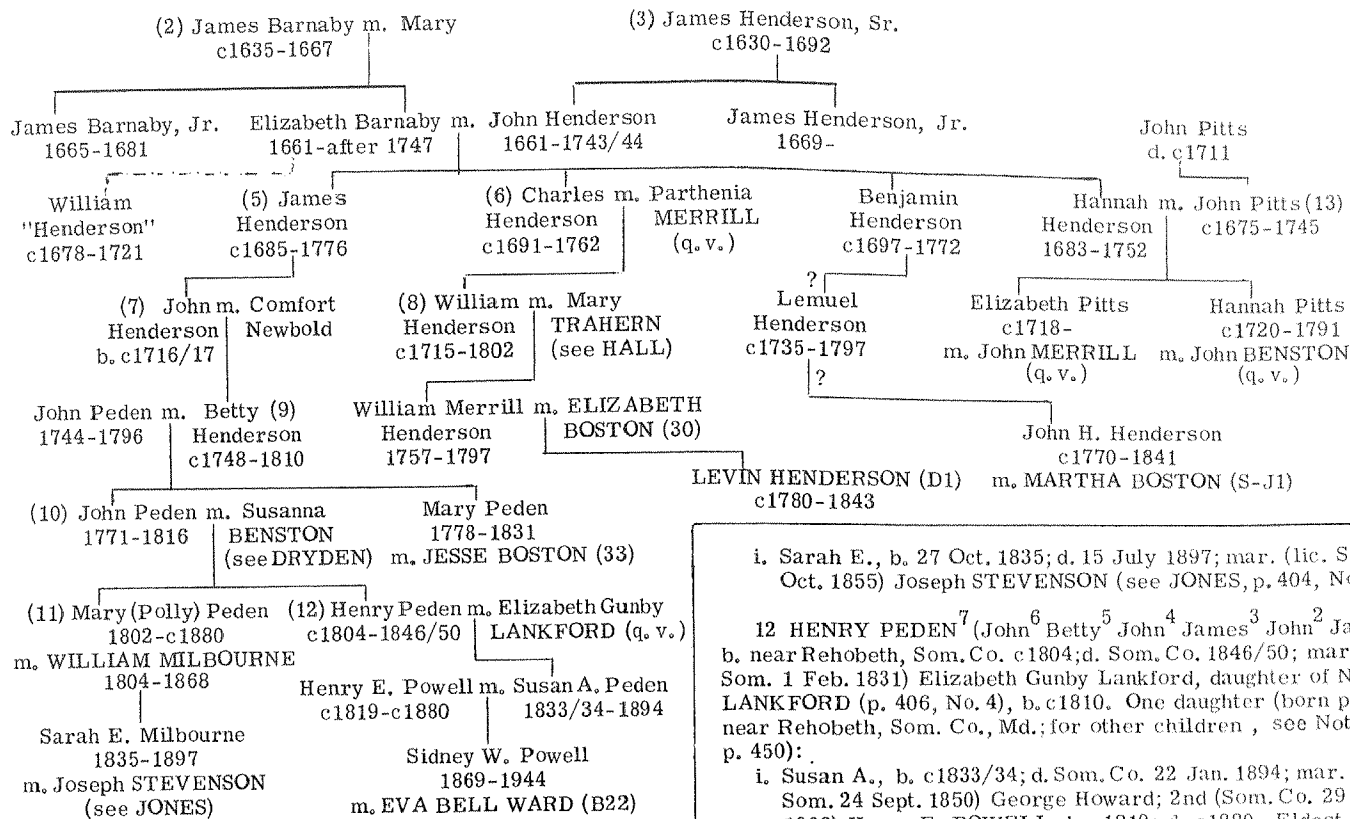

7 JOHN HENDERSON⁴ (James³ John² James¹), b. Pitts Creek, c1716/17 (tax list) or c1722 (deposition of 1763); evidently mar. Comfort Newbold, daughter of Thomas and Joyce (Purnell) NEWBOLD (see Note, p. 449). The family left no records, but it appears that they were parents of the following children:

- i. Purnell, b. c1746; d. Worc. Co. by 12 Feb. 1801.
- ii. Elizabeth (Betty), b. c1748; d. by 4 Dec. 1810; mar. John PEDEN; see No. 9 below.
- iii. Thomas, b. c1750; d. by 1 Sept. 1797 (see Note, p. 449).

8 WILLIAM HENDERSON⁴ (Charles³ John² James¹), b. Pitts Creek, c1715; d. Worc. Co. by 7 May 1802; mar. (Coventry, 1748) Mary Trahern, daughter of John and Elizabeth (CURTIS) TRAHERN (pp. 396-97, No. 11). In his will, signed 2 Apr. 1800, he bequeathed to grandson William Henderson part of "Double Purchase" where Sally Henderson now lives, adjacent William Fordry Addams, remainder of "Double Purchase" to daughter Sarah Slocomb during her life, then to grandson Noah Henderson; to grandson Levin Henderson he left "my cypress swamp" and negro man Stephen, to be free after 10 years. Witnesses were Joseph Houston, Levi Henderson, William F. Adams (Worc. Wills JBR 1:305). Four of the children (bapt. Coventry): Leah (28 Apr. 1749), Sinah (2 Apr. 1751), and:

- i. John Trahern, b. 28 Apr. 1755; d. Worc. Co. by 12 Apr. 1796; Sgt. in Capt. Layfield's Co. of Worc. Co. Militia in American Revolution.
- ii. William Merrill, b. 10 Feb. 1757; d. by 28 Mar. 1797; mar. ELIZABETH BOSTON (30).

9 BETTY HENDERSON⁵ (John⁴ James³ John² James¹), b. Pitts Creek, Worc. Co. c1748; d. Som. Co. by 4 Dec. 1810; mar. (Coventry, 2 Sept. 1765) John PEDEN (PAIDEN), son of John and Elizabeth Peden, b. 20 Oct. 1744 (Coventry); d. Som. Co. by 9 Feb. 1796. The elder John Peden in 1734 bought part of "Cherry Garden" and "Hackla," 286 acres, from the Noble heirs (p. 382, No. 3; Som. Deeds 18:185). In 1746 he secured a patent to "Chance" in Som. Co. His wife Elizabeth d. 11 Dec. 1748 (Coventry). John Peden, Sr., signed his will 26 Nov. 1769, bequeathing to son John "my now dwelling plantation with all my lands" in Som. Co.; daughters Rebecca Newton and Frankey Tillman were to have negroes. "Eldest son" John Peden on 27 Apr. 1770 contested the will; on 12 Sept. 1770 witnesses William Taylor, Michael Cluff, James Smith testified that they did not believe John Peden was of sound mind; he was very "pressing and expressed a great desire to have a will made," and one of them to gratify his humour wrote the will (Ann. Wills Box P, folder 1).

John Peden, husband of Betty Henderson, signed his will 3 Sept. 1795, bequeathing to son John "all my lands, also close press, watch," etc.; and he made bequests to children William, Polly, and James, declaring "it is also my will and desire that my daughter Polly should have a home and resident in my house during her single life." Witnesses were William Stevens, Michael and Henry Cluff (Som. Wills EB17:477). His widow, Betsy Paiden, inher will, signed 10 Oct. 1810, named son John, granddaughter Polly Paiden (of John), sons William and James, and daughter Polly Boston. Son-in-law Jesse Boston was appointed executor. Witnesses were Leah Boston (sister-in-law of Jesse Boston), Esther and John Benson, all residents of Worc. Co. (Som. Wills EB23:155). Three of the children (born probably near Rehobeth, Som. Co., bapt. Coventry):

- i. Mills, b. 2 Aug. 1766; d. young; the name is carried down in the Boston family in Indiana.
- ii. John, b. 1 Feb. 1771; d. by 21 Nov. 1816; see No. 10 below.
- iii. Mary (Polly), b. 1778; d. 1831; mar. JESSE BOSTON (33).

10 JOHN PEDEN⁶ Betty⁵ John⁴ James³ John² James¹, b. Som. Co. 1 Feb. 1771; d. near Rehobeth, Som. Co. by 21 Nov. 1816; mar. (lic. Som. Co. 25 Aug. 1801) Suessey [Susanna] Benston, who would appear to be the youngest daughter of Thomas and Sarah (DRYDEN) BENSTON (p. 382, No. 5); this relationship would explain why on 21 Nov. 1816 ELIJAH BOSTON (44) was guardian of the Peden children: his mother's sister was John Peden's wife. The children were John F., Sarah Ann, Isaac B., Henry, and Polly Peden; securities on the bond were Samuel Taylor, Josiah Broughton (Som. Bonds GH1:95). Two of the children (born near Rehobeth):

- i. Mary (Polly), b. 1802; d. c1880; mar. William Milbourne; see No. 11 below.
- ii. Henry, b. c1804; d. 1846/50; see No. 12 below.

11 MARY (POLLY) PEDEN⁷ (John⁶ Betty⁵ John⁴ James³ John² James¹), b. near Rehobeth, Som. Co., Md. 1802; d. near Marion Station, Som. Co. c1880; mar. (lic. Som. 16 Oct. 1827) William MILBOURNE, son of Nathaniel and Polly (Bell) Milbourne, b. Som. Co. 1804; d. Som. Co. 1868. Children: Elizabeth A., b. 1828/9, mar. (1848) James Henderson; Robert Henry, 6 Apr. 1831 - 13 June 1900; Samuel J., 1834/35; Nathaniel, 1 Jan. 1838 - 18 May 1903; Mary Jane, 1842/43, mar. (1867) Lycurgus H. Stevenson; Sydney Francis, 22 Jan. 1846 - 30 Mar. 1902; Margaret, c1848, mar. (1867) John C. Mills; and:

i. Sarah E., b. 27 Oct. 1835; d. 15 July 1897; mar. (lic. Som. 3 Oct. 1855) Joseph STEVENSON (see JONES, p. 404, No. 3 vi).

12 HENRY PEDEN⁷ (John⁶ Betty⁵ John⁴ James³ John² James¹), b. near Rehobeth, Som. Co. c1804; d. Som. Co. 1846/50; mar. (lic. Som. 1 Feb. 1831) Elizabeth Gunby Lankford, daughter of Noah LANKFORD (p. 406, No. 4), b. c1810. One daughter (born probably near Rehobeth, Som. Co., Md.; for other children, see Note, p. 450):

- i. Susan A., b. c1833/34; d. Som. Co. 22 Jan. 1894; mar. 1st (lic. Som. 24 Sept. 1850) George Howard; 2nd (Som. Co. 29 May 1866) Henry E. POWELL, b. c1819; d. c1880. Eldest son: 1. Sidney W., b. 16 Sept. 1869; d. Baltimore, 13 Mar. 1944; mar. EVA BELL WARD (B22).

13 JOHN PITTS, JR., son of John Pitts, Sr., b. probably in Acco. Co., Va. c1675; d. Acco. Co. by 24 Sept. 1745; mar. (c1701) Hannah Henderson, daughter of John and Elizabeth (Barnaby) Henderson (no. 4 above), b. 1683; d. Acco. Co. by 30 June 1753. On 14 Mar. 1705 John Pitts, Sr., carpenter, of Som. Co. bought from James and Patience Atkinson 200 acres "The Adventure" on Davis's Branch, south side of Pocomoke River, 100 acres of which, on 5 Feb. 1711/12, John Pitts, carpenter (being heir apparent of John Pitts, late of Som. Co.) and his wife Hannah deeded to Robert Pitts (Som. Deeds 7:11, in back of vol.; 10:566). On 2 Feb. 1725 Levin Gale of Som. Co. and wife Leah conveyed to John Pitts of the same place a tract in Accomack Co. near Pocomoke [River?] adjoining plantation of Alexander, William and Ambrose Benston (Acco. Deeds 1715-29, Part II:53). On 3 Mar. 1744/45 John Pitts of Acco. Co., Va., signed his will, bequeathing to wife Hannah (sole executor) during her life the dwelling plantation "I purchased" of Levin Gale; to son John Pitts land adjacent "Benstones land" and "Henry Smith's patent"; and he made other bequests to sons Isaac, Samuel, and William; "son" [son-in-law] Robert Blades (land in Md.); daughters Jemima Pitts, Mary Blades, Elizabeth Merril, Hannah Benston; granddaughters Ann and Hannah Blades, Levinah Benston; and he mentioned cooper's and carpenter's tools left to sons Isaac and Samuel. In the distribution of the estate John Benston received the negro girl Amy bequeathed to daughter Hannah Benston. Witnesses were George Douglas, Robert Pitt, Joseph Feddeman, Arthur Emmerson (Acco. Wills 1743-49: 245, 297, 298). In her will, signed 29 Mar. 1751, John's widow, Hannah Pitts, named grandsons John and William Pitts, sons Samuel and William Pitts, daughters Elizabeth Merril, Hannah Benston, Jemima Morse, granddaughters Sophia Blades, Levina Pitts, Hannah Pitts (of John, deceased). Witnesses were Robert Pitts and Robert Pitts (Acco. Wills 1752-57:58). Children (born Pitts Creek, probably in Accomack Co., Va.):

- i. John, b. c1702; d. Som. Co., Md. by 1 Dec. 1749; his will, signed 1 May 1749, named wife Katherine (third part of "my signed 1 May 1749, named wife Katherine (third part of "my real estate lying in Va."); daughter Hannah Pitts (all lands from "my father John Pitts, in Accomack Co., purchased from Col. Levin Gale"); daughter Leah Pitts, brother William. A witness was Randall Revell (Som. Wills EB14:32).

- ii. Isaac, b. c1703; d. Acco. Co. by 25 Aug. 1747; in his will, signed 9 June 1747, he mentioned land from "my father John Pitts," also mentioned mother Hannah Pitts, brothers William (to have silver shoe buckles and knee buckles), Robert, Samuel, John, sister Jemima Pitts, cousin Ann Blades. Witnesses were Robert Pitts, Samuel and Joseph Feddeman, Christopher Banks (Acco. Wills 1743-49:374).
- iii. William, b. c1709; d. Acco. Co. by 26 Nov. 1751; in his will, signed 5 Apr. 1751, he named brother Samuel Pitts (land "that was my brother Isaac's"), Hannah Benston and her daughter Hannah Benston, John Benstone (son of Ezekiel Benston, under 3 years), Zepheniah Benston, son of John (to have silver shoe buckles and silver knee buckles), John Merrill's son William, Levin Merrill, son of John, brother Robert Pitts, sister Jemima Moss, and others. Witnesses were Anderson Patterson, Samuel Feddeman, Massey Benson (Acco. Wills 1749-52:326).
- iv. Elizabeth, b. c1718; mar. William MERRILL (q. v.).
- v. Hannah, b. c1720; d. Worc. Co. by 27 Sept. 1791; mar. John BENSTON (q. v.).

JONES FAMILIES - STEVENSON FAMILY

Since there are evidently several Jones families on the Eastern Shore, and since the names within and among the families are so similar that it is difficult to distinguish the members of one family from those of another, it has not been feasible to connect the following families (all of Worcester Co., Md.) with the Joneses who originally settled in Somerset County. The Jones family that settled in the area of what is now Newark arrived by 1723; the Joneses of "Aberdeen," by 1660; and the Jones who intermarried with the Hargis family were settled near New Town by the 1780's.

As for the Stevenson family descended from the Joneses of "Aberdeen," no satisfactory evidence has been found to link it with that of Samuel Stevenson (see STEVENSON family); the two families settled near each other, they intermarried with the same families, and they liked to give their children similar names. (Mrs. Anne G. Greene of Philadelphia has generously contributed the material on the Joneses of "Aberdeen" and the Stevensons.)

JONES FAMILY (OF NEWARK)

1 JOSEPH JONES, JR.,² son of Joseph Jones, Sr. (see Note, p. 450), b. c1726; d. Worc. Co., Md. by 22 Apr. 1783. (Since he was not listed in the debt books by 1740, he was born after 1724.) Debt books show Joseph Jones, Jr., with "Swains Venture," 40 acres, 1755-60, then 60 acres, 1768-74. The 1783 tax list shows Joseph Jones in Buckingham and Worcester Hundreds, with 10 people in his family, owning 6 acres "Oak Hall." In 1764 Joseph Jones [Sr.] and Joseph Jones [Jr.] witnessed the will of William Smith, who named sons John and Levi and bequeathed to son William land next to Joseph Jones (Worc. Wills JW3:130). On 21 Aug. 1780 Joseph Jones signed his will, making bequests to William Jones (executor) and to "my four children that now live with me, William, Catren, Mathew, Sarah." Witnesses were Jethro Bowen, John and Levi Smith (Worc. Wills JW4:524). Two of his children:

- i. Joseph, b. c1752; d. 1808; he would appear to be a son of Joseph, Jr.; on the bond posted 15 Oct. 1808 for the estate of Joseph Jones, "Sr.," Elsea Smith and Matthew Jones stood security for Annanias and Joseph Jones, executors.
- ii. William, b. c1758; d. by 2 Apr. 1824; see No. 2 below.

2 WILLIAM JONES³ (Joseph, Jr.² Joseph, Sr.¹), b. Worc. Co. c1758; d. Worc. Co. by 2 Apr. 1824; mar. 2nd (lic. Worc. 9 Jan. 1798) Catharine Hadder. In 1785, when he sold 6 acres of "Oak Hall," reference was made to Joseph Jones, father of William. In his will, signed 17 Mar. 1824, William Jones ("of Joseph") made a bequest to daughter Amelia Boston. (See Note, p. 449). One daughter:

- i. Amelia, b. 1802/3; d. 1851/55; mar. ISAAC BOSTON (72).

HARGIS - JONES FAMILY

THOMAS HARGIS, b. probably Acco. Co., Va. 24 May 1746; d. Worc.

Co., Md. 28 Feb. 1817; mar. 2nd (Acco. Co., Va. 16 Nov. 1786) Wise Marshall. In his will, signed 25 Nov. 1816, Hargis named sons John (executor), Thomas M., Stephen W., George; daughters Hesse Townsend, Margaret Mills, Elizabeth and Euphemia Hargis, Mary Bowhannon, Nancy Jones; also John and William Townsend, sons of daughter Hessie. Witnesses were James Patterson, Samuel McMaster, Levin B. Houston, Littleton Trader (Worc. Wills MH10:246). Children (excluding Mary and Elizabeth), four youngest evidently by second marriage:

- i. John, b. 1776/77; #1323 in 1850 Worc. Co. census.
- ii. Hessie, b. c1779; mar. (Acco. Co. 10 Dec. 1798) Levin Townsend.
- iii. Thomas Mills, b. 10 Feb. 1781; d. 26 Oct. 1857; mar. (lic. Worc. 23 Oct. 1810) Elizabeth Mills; 2nd Nancy Ann Dixon.
- iv. Margaret, b. c1783; d. c? 1818; mar. (Worc. Co. 19 Mar. 1804) Handy Mills.
- v. Euphemia, b. 16 Aug. 1787; d. 4 July 1860; mar. (as his 2nd wife) her brother-in-law, Handy Mills (1789-1853); they had a daughter, Sarah Wise Mills, b. 3 Sept. 1819; d. 17 Sept. 1842; all buried Pocomoke City, Md.
- vi. Nancy, b. 24 Dec. 1789; d. near Newtown, Worc. Co., Md. 2 Sept. 1868; mar. (lic. Worc. Co. 7 Dec. 1810; 3 Jan. 1811, according to Bible) John JONES, b. 16 Feb. 1783; d. near Newtown, 20 Sept. 1846. (Dates from Bible of Littleton Irvin Jones.) Children (born near Newtown, Worc. Co., Md.):
 - 1. Elizabeth, b. 25 Nov. 1811; d. 17 July 1813.
 - 2. Samuel, b. 9 June 1814; d. 14 Mar. 1857.
 - 3. Mary Ann, b. 19 Oct. 1817; d. Sept. 1900.
 - 4. William Henry, b. 9 Apr. 1820; d. 1800; mar. (1844) MARY PRYOR BOSTON (110).
 - 5. George Thomas, b. 23 Jan. 1823.
 - 6. Margaret M., b. 19 Sept. 1826.
 - 7. Charlotte Katherine, b. 18 June 1829.
 - 8. Littleton Irvin, b. 4 Nov. 1833; d. 14 Oct. 1914.
- vii. Stephen W[ise?], b. c1793.
- viii. George, b. 10 Jan. 1796; d. 18 Aug. 1868; bur. Pocomoke.

JONES FAMILY OF "ABERDEEN"

1 ELISHA JONES,¹ b. c1718; d. Worc. Co., Md. by 22 July 1796. (See Note, p. 450.) In 1744 Elisha Jones bought from John Tamplin of Sussex Co., Del., 50 acres of a tract, "Aberdeen," land near the ferry road, adjacent Nathaniel Mills, near Holly Swamp (Worc. Deeds A:251), that is, south of the present site of Pocomoke City. Jones subsequently enlarged this tract by additions from adjacent unclaimed land, granted by patents of survey. On 22 Mar. 1770 Elisha Jones and wife Comfort sold three parts of it: to John Redden, 16 acres of "Aberdeen," granted to said Elisha by virtue of a special warrant of survey 21 Oct. 1766; to Nehemiah Redden, 74 acres of "Aberdeen"; and to William Mills, spinning wheel maker, another 53 acres, adjacent "Killglass" and William Mills and Nehemiah Redden (Worc. Deeds H:254, 255). In his will, signed 29 May 1786, Elisha Jones bequeathed to son Daniel Jones, dwelling plantation, being "the westernmost side of . . . Aberdeen, divided from my son James"; to son James Jones, plantation where "he now dwells, eastward of said lands called Aberdeen divided from my son Daniel"; he also named wife Comfort, grandson Elisha Jones (one heifer), son Major Jones, daughter Leah Phillis (Phillips?). KESTER AND POUND FAMILIES

This account of the Kester and Pound families, who ultimately settled in Vigo Co., Indiana, is derived from the book by John E. Hunt, The Pound and Kester Families (Chicago, 1904).

Paul Küster, with his wife Gertrude and three sons, Arnold, Johannes, and Hermanus, immigrated to America about 1685 from Crefeld, Germany, on the lower Rhine near Holland. They were among the first settlers of Germantown, Pa. All were Mennonites except Johannes, who became a Quaker. Paul Küster's great-grandson, William Kester, settled in N. J., then Va., then Md. (in the early 1780's), near Cumberland; finally in 1786 he emigrated to Ky. His daughters, Elizabeth Liston and Sarah Pound, with their husbands, settled finally in Vigo Co., Ind. in 1814 and 1816, respectively.

John Pound settled at Piscataway, Middlesex Co., N. J., before 1682. His great-grandson, John Pound, migrated in the early 1770's to Md., probably Cumberland Co. In 1786 his son Thomas migrated to Ky., thence (1801) to Ohio, and finally (1816) to Vigo Co., Ind.

1 PAUL KUSTER, b. probably at Crefeld, Germany, [c1640]; d. Germantown, Pa. by 23 Feb. 1707/8; mar. Gertrude Strepper, a native of Kaldenkirchen, Germany, sister of Wilhelm and Jan Strepper. Paul purchased 50 acres in Germantown, 1704, was chosen a committeeman of the corporation 2 Dec. 1700. He was a mason. His nuncupative will was dated 28 Jan. 1707/8. His son:

2 JOHANNES KUSTER (KOSTER, CUSTER), b. Germany, [c1670]; d. Germantown, by 23 Oct. 1708; mar. (31 Aug. 1692) Elizabeth Cassell, daughter of Johannes Cassell (Kassell), weaver, who immigrated from Kresheim, Germany, to Germantown, 1686. Johannes Kuster was naturalized in 1691, became a Quaker. According to Quaker tradition he was a surveyor. Children:

- i. John, b. Bristol, 9 June 1693.

LANKFORD FAMILY OF SOMERSET COUNTY

Joseph Lankford was in Somerset Co., Md., at Annesmessex, by 1698/99. It has usually been assumed that he was a son of John Lankford, who had settled by 1677 on the south side of the Nanticoke River, but the available evidence does not support the connection. Much of this material, especially for earlier generations, is based on researches of Mr. Leslie P. Dryden; the line of Joseph Lankford (7) is based on a compilation by the late Mrs. Mary Turpin Layton for Miss Margaret Myrtle Lankford.

1 JOSEPH LANKFORD, ¹ b. c.Oct. 1780; d. ?c1756; mar. 1st (c1705) Alice Pusey, daughter of William Pusey; 2nd ?Mary Conner, daughter of John Conner. On 9 Apr. 1721 in the inventory of William Pusey's estate Joseph Lankford was next of kin (Ann.Inv. 6:93); Lankford, with Alex Pusey and Capt. William Bolithier, was security for Alice Pusey, widow of William, when she was appointed administratrix of William's estate (Ann. Test. Proc. 24:328). It would appear to be Joseph Lankford who married a daughter of John Conner (d. 1743/45), who named in his will "daughter Mary Langford" (Ann. Wills 24:102).

In several depositions relative to boundaries of various tracts Joseph Lankford gave his age: 59 on 12 Nov. 1739; 64 on 26 Apr. 1745, in connection with "Boston Town" ["Boston"] owned by Benjamin Lankford; still 64 on 24 Sept. 1745 (Som. Jud. 1738/40:201; 1744/47: 35, 87); in the 26 Apr. deposition he indicated that he was in the Annemessex area as early as 1698/99. (For his acquisition of land, see Note, p. 450.)

Joseph was evidently a close friend of Major William Planner, Jr., a bachelor, who in his will distributed his property among his friends and neighbors. In his will, dated 12 Apr. 1733, Major Planner left personal property to Joseph and part of "Boston" to Joseph's eldest surviving son Benjamin (Ann. Wills 21:226).

Late in life, on 21 Apr. 1755, Joseph Lankford, Sr., conveyed to son, Joseph, Jr., land in Annemessex, 89 acres of "Lankfords Content," and for 5 shillings, to Pewsey Lankford, 69 acres of the same tract and 36 acres of "Dames Quarter" (Som. Deeds 21: 78, 79). Since the tract "Vulcans Vineyard" was not listed separately, it was probably included in the patent of "Lankfords Content." Joseph was listed in Som. Co. tax lists in Annemessex Hundred 1723-53; he may have been excused from taxation because of old age in 1755, for he was still alive, but he probably died soon thereafter. Of his children, the first eight are certainly by Alice Pusey, and all may be, but the last two may be by his second marriage. (For complete list of children, see Note, p. 450.)

Two sons (born Annemessex, Som. Co., Md.):

- i. Benjamin, b. c1708; d. by 11 Mar. 1786; see No. 2 below.
- ii. Pusey, b. c1721; d. by 21 Feb. 1786; see No. 3 below.

2 BENJAMIN LANKFORD² (Joseph¹), b. Annemessex, Som. Co. c1708; d. Annemessex by 11 Mar. 1788; mar. 1st (c1731) Charity, daughter of John KELLAM (p. 443); 2nd (? 1779) Mrs. Ann Walston, widow of William Walston (d. 1778), who d. by 11 Nov. 1795. As a prelude, Lankford gave Ann, on 27 May 1779 (should she survive him) 2 negroes, cattle, and the use of "my father's house" and liberty of firewood (Som. Deeds 28:179). In her will, dated 4 Sept. 1788, she left her property to her Walston children (Som. Wills EB17:438). In numerous depositions Benjamin gave his age: as 37 on 28 Oct. 1745; 49 on 2 July 1756; 52 on 2 June 1759; 53 on 25 Apr. 1761; 60 on 21 Sept. 1762; 66 in Mar. 1775; 69 in Apr. 1777 (Som. Jud. 1744/7:119; 1754/7:237; 1760/3:26, 218; 1765/6:96; 1775/84:11, 134). He was in his father Joseph's household until he established his own home about 1731 (tax lists), and four of his brothers lived with him at various times: Joseph (1733), Solomon (1738), Pusey (1744), John (1745).

In 1734 Benjamin received a bequest of 185 acres of the tract "Boston" from Major William Planner, Jr. (For other acquisitions of land, see Note, p. 450.) He was named constable for Annemessex Hundred in 1753 (Som. Jud. 1752/4:19). He served in the colonial militia in Capt. Williams's Company (Md. Hist. Mag., vol. 6). On 27 Nov. 1757 Benjamin gave 18 acres "Longs Chance" to son-in-law George Howard ("Hayward"). On 17 Aug. 1763 he conveyed 150 acres "Galloway" and 50 acres "New Britain" to son Lazarus. On 29 Dec. 1768 he sold son David 241 1/2 acres "Longs Chance" and 36 acres "Newport." And on 14 Feb. 1783 he gave to daughter Priscilla Howard several negroes (Som. Deeds 25:139, 24:184, 26: 28, 28:367). The 1783 tax list showed Benjamin living in Great Annemessex Hundred, with 167 acres of land.

In his will, signed 24 July 1784, he made bequests to wife Ann ("the house that was my father's during her life"); to daughters Isabella Conner, Priscilla Howard (part of "Snow Water"); to grandsons Benjamin Conner, Nathan Lankford (son of David), William and Edward Coulbourn (of Stephen); to son Kellam, executor ("manor plantation" "Snow Water"), Kellam to pay £10 each to Lazarus Lankford's children: Benjamin, Jesse Maddux Lankford, Robert, Kellam, William Planner Lankford, Betty, David, Isaac. "Snow Water" after death of son Kellam was to go to Kellam's son Benjamin. He also named "son" Benjamin Conner. Witnesses were Thomas Williams, Leavin Walston, Purnell Outten (Som. Wills EB1: 286). Children (born Annemessex, Som. Co., Md.):

- i. Kellam, b. c1733; d. by 10 Oct. 1796; see No. 4 below.
- ii. Lazarus, b. c1735; d. 1 Jan. 1778; see No. 5 below.
- iii. Isabella, b. c1737; mar. 1st (Coventry, 12 Feb. 1756) Elijah Conner; 2nd (Coventry, 27 July 1786) Thomas Wood Potter
- iv. Priscilla, b. c1740; mar. (Coventry, 18 Feb. 1762) George Howard.
- v. David, b. c1742; d. 2 May 1774; see No. 6.
- vi. Betty, b. c1744; mar. Stephen Coulbourn.

3 PUSEY LANKFORD² (Joseph¹), b. Annemessex, c. 1721; d. Som. Co. by 21 Feb. 1786; mar. (Stepney Parish 21 Nov. 1746; also recorded Coventry) Sarah Smith, daughter of Henry SMITH (q. v.). In his will, signed 5 Mar. 1781, Pusey Lankford named son Joseph (executor), to have all land; and he made bequests to son Littleton (£30 at age 26) and daughters Rebecca, Alice, Ann, and Elizabeth (Som. Wills EB 1:240). Children (baptised Coventry): Rebecca, b. 7 Mar. 1747; Sarah, b. 4 Dec. 1748; Mary, b. 20 Dec. 1750; Eales (Alice, Alice), b. 12 July 1753; Sabrough, b. 12 Dec. 1756; Littleton, b. 9 Mar. 1768; and c1733; d. Som. Co. by 18 Oct. 1796; mar. (Coventry, 13 Feb. 1753) Mary White, daughter of John WHITE (p. 421, No. 7). In his will, signed 28 Sept. 1796, Kellam bequeathed to son Noah "Bostons Purchase," "Pound Pasture," "Adams Garden," also 16 acres bought of Thomas Prior, 15 acres bought of Isaac Outten, part of "Cohoons Folly," negroes. To grandson Benjamin, son of Noah Lankford, he left "all land my father gave unto me by his will," also "Chance," the land to be in the care of son Noah until Benjamin should reach 21. He also made bequests to daughter Charity's children, daughters Mary Broughton, Elizabeth Hall's four children, Sally Conner's five children (unnamed), and brother-in-law John Crockett (Som. Wills EB17:557). (For additional details, and full list of children, see Note, p. 450.) Two of his children (bapt. Coventry):

- i. Joseph, b. c1760; d. by 31 Dec. 1816; see No. 7 below.

4 KELLAM LANKFORD³ (Benjamin² Joseph¹), b. Som. Co.

- i. Elizabeth, b. 22 Feb. 1754; mar. Robert HALL (p. 396, No. 5).
- ii. Noah, b. 13 Apr. 1769; d. 1810/20; mar. 2nd (lic. Som. 28 Oct. 1800) Mary Ann Bozman, b. c1780; d. July 1849. (See Note, p. 450, for further details.) Two daughters:
 1. Mary Ann, b. c1806; d. c1848; mar. (lic. Som. 24 Feb. 1824) George L. HOLLAND, b. c1805. Daughter:
 - (a) Amelia Holland, b. Sept. 1836; mar. (lic. Som. 17 July 1855) ISAAC WALSTON (S-G7).
 2. Elizabeth Gunby, b. c1811; mar. 1st (lic. Som. 1 Feb. 1831) Henry PADEN (PEDEN) (p. 401, No. 12).

5 LAZARUS LANKFORD³ (Benjamin² Joseph¹), b. Som. Co. c1735; d. Som. Co. 1 Jan. 1778 (Coventry); mar. (Coventry 2 Feb. 1757) Rachael Powell, daughter of John and Betty (Brittingham) POWELL (q.v.). On 9 May 1778 "came Rachel Lankford" to exhibit the last will of Lazarus Lankford, who requested to be buried in his own orchard and named all the children below, with wife Rachel executor; the will was signed 9 Nov. 1777 (Som. Wills EB 1:73). Children (baptised Coventry): Jesse Maddox Lankford, b. 5 Oct. 1760; Robert, b. 14 Jan. 1764; Kellam, b. 30 Aug. 1766; William Planner Lankford, b. 20 Dec. 1768; Betty, b. 19 Mar. 1772; David, b. 28 May 1775; Isaac, b. c1777; d. 26 May 1790, and eldest son:

- i. Benjamin, b. 12 Sept. 1758; d. by 14 Nov. 1820; see No. 8 below.

6 DAVID LANKFORD³ (Benjamin² Joseph¹), b. Som. Co. c1742; d. Som. Co. 2 May 1774 (Coventry); mar. (Coventry, 2 Jan. 1763) Martha Adams, daughter of William ADAMS, Jr. (p. 359, No. 5). (For additional details, see Note, p. 451.) Three sons (bapt. Coventry):

- i. William, b. 13 Jan. 1764; d. by 24 Feb. 1818; see No. 9 below.
- ii. Benjamin, b. 8 Aug. 1765; d. by 10 Aug. 1813; see No. 10 below.
- iii. Nathan, b. 10 Dec. 1767; d. by 26 Feb. 1800; see No. 11 below.

7 JOSEPH LANKFORD³ (Pusey² Joseph¹), b. Som. Co. c1760; d. Som. Co. by 31 Dec. 1816; mar. 1st (c1786) a daughter of John Johnson, who in his will written 12 June 1800 (prob. 10 Dec. 1809) left a negro to his granddaughter, Sallie Smith, daughter of Joseph Lankford (Som. Wills EB23:145); mar. 2nd (lic. Som. 9 July 1798) Nancy Coulbourn, daughter of Benjamin and Elizabeth (Tilghman) COULBOURN (p. 373, No. 3); he mar. twice more. In his will, dated 3 July 1816, he left his land to sons Revell, John Pusey (also bed and furniture and negro Nelly), Aaron Lankford, named daughter Elizabeth Tilghman Lankford, mentioning her aunt Betty Coulbourn (Som. Wills EB23:249). Two sons, John by first marriage, Aaron by second:

- i. John Pusey, b. c1792; d. by 24 Sept. 1839; see No. 12 below.
- ii. Aaron Coulbourn, b. c1804; d. 12 Jan. 1850; in 1845 he was guardian for children of ELIJAH S. WARD (B3).

8 BENJAMIN LANKFORD⁴ (Lazarus³ Benjamin² Joseph¹), b. Som. Co. 12 Sept. 1758; d. Som. Co. by 14 Nov. 1820; mar. (Coventry, 3 Nov. 1782) Sarah Archabel Smith, daughter of Archibald SMITH (p. 430, No. 2). She married in defiance of her grandfather, William Smith, who bequeathed her all his land provided she not marry Benjamin Lankford, son of Lazarus, only 1/3 if she did marry him. On 2 Oct. 1784 Benjamin and Sarah sold to Samuel Bedsworth all their title in the tracts left by William Smith "who left 1/3 part to Sarah Smith now wife of Benjamin Lankford," "33 1/3 acres, which Bedsworth conveyed to Benjamin Lankford (No. 10) 14 Nov. 1793 (Som. Deeds 30:603).

In his will, signed 30 Oct. 1820, Benjamin made bequests to daughter Sally, to grandsons William L., Anthony B., Benjamin K. Green, to the children of George Dykes and of Henrietta Wilkin-son, and to sons Lazarus, Henry (executor), and Benjamin, the latter to have lands on Duff Creek, i.e. "Kirks Purchase," "Addition to Gunby's Venture," "Rescue," etc. (Som. Wills JP4:6). (For further details on him and family, see Note, p. 451.) Two sons:

- i. Henry, b. 31 Aug. 1783 (in both Coventry and family Bible); d. Som. Co. 17 Mar. 1841; mar. (lic. Som. Co. 5 Sept.; 6 Sept. 1810 in Bible) Nancy S. Dakes, daughter of Daniel J. and Esther (Potter) DAKES (p. 363, No. 19), b. 25 Dec. 1793; d. 13 Sept. 1861. Their youngest son (of eleven children):
 1. John Thomas, b. 2 June 1831; d. 31 Dec. 1874; mar. LEAH ELLEN BOSTON (112).
- ii. Lazarus, b. 1793/94; d. by 31 July 1855; mar. MARY ANN COTTINGHAM (136); his second cousin, Robert Henry Lankford (No. 9 below) mar. her sister Sally.

9 WILLIAM H. LANKFORD⁴ (David³ Benjamin² Joseph¹), b. Som. Co. 13 Jan. 1764; d. Som. Co. by 24 Feb. 1818; mar. (lic. Som. 15 Feb. 1803) Betsy Barrett, daughter of Joseph and Polly (OUTTEN) BARRETT (p. 409, No. 11), b. 25 Dec. 1779; she mar. 2nd (lic. Som. 4 Dec. 1821) Thomas Holland. In the will of his uncle, William Planner Lankford, signed 2 Aug. 1808, a bequest was made to William H. Lankford, son of David (Som. Wills EB23:129). In his own will, signed 2 Feb. 1818, William H. Lankford made bequests to wife Betsy (executrix) and to children Polly Purnell Lankford, William, Robert Henry, Permelia, and John Adams Lankford; nephew Stephen Lankford was to assist in administration of the estate (Som. Wills EB23:264). In a 20 Aug. 1826 account, Thomas Holland was executor (Som. Accts. JP5:215). One son (born Som. Co., Md.):

- i. Robert Henry, b. 9 Nov. 1807; d. 25 Feb. 1863; mar. SALLY L. COTTINGHAM (137); her sister mar. his cousin (No. 8 ii).

10 BENJAMIN LANKFORD⁴ (David³ Benjamin² Joseph¹), b. Som. Co. 8 Aug. 1765; d. Som. Co. by 10 Aug. 1813 (bond); mar. (c1795) Nancy Hitch, b. c1775; d. by 17 Oct. 1822. His widow Nancy was appointed administrator of his estate, with William and Joseph Lankford her securities (Som. Bonds 1805/15:215); distribution was to widow and four children: Martha Hall, Nancy Hitch Lankford, Nathan and Benjamin Lankford (Som. Accts. EB27:204, 233, 241). (For further details, see Note, p. 451) Two children:

- i. Martha (Patty), b. c1796; d. 1830/38; mar. (lic. Som. 4 Jan. 1815) her second cousin, Richard HALL (see No. 4 above).
- ii. Nancy Hitch, b. c1800; mar. cousin J. P. LANKFORD (No. 12).

11 NATHAN LANKFORD⁴ (David³ Benjamin² Joseph¹), b. Som. Co. 10 Dec. 1767; d. Som. Co. by 26 Feb. 1800 (inventory); mar. (c1789) Mary, daughter of Stephen and Mary (GUNBY) MARSHALL (p. 417, No. 4), b. 19 Feb. 1772 (Coventry). (See Note, p. 451.) Two children (born Great Annessex, Som. Co., Md.):

- i. Mary, b. c1790; mar. (c1806) Thomas M. TULL (p. 434, No. 9).
- ii. Stephen M., b. c1792; d. Som. Co. by 13 Feb. 1821; identified as nephew by Nathan's brother William H. Lankford (No. 9); in his will, signed 6 Nov. 1820, Stephen named his sister Mary Tull (Som. Wills JP 11:9).

12 JOHN PUSEY LANKFORD⁴ (Joseph³ Pusey² Joseph¹), b. Som. Co. c1792; d. Som. Co. by 24 Sept. 1839; mar. (lic. Som. 30 Sept. 1817) Nancy Hitch Lankford, daughter of his second cousin, Benjamin (No. 10), b. c1800. (See Note, p. 451.) One son:

- i. Joseph Benjamin James, b. 22 Oct. 1824; d. Pocomoke City, Md. 24 Dec. 1872; mar. (Baltimore, Md. 11 May 1848) Anne Elizabeth Fleming, daughter of John S. and Eliza Ann (HARRIS) FLEMING (p. 391, No. 9), b. 27 Mar. 1829; d. 24 Nov. 1905, both bur. St. Mary's P. E. Cemetery, Pocomoke City. She mar. 2nd William J. Barnes. Joseph was a farmer in Brinkley's District, Som. Co. In 1871 Joe B. J. Lankford and wife Elizabeth for $7800 conveyed to Ben Lankford, in Dublin District, all that land of which John Fleming died seized, which was sold by Edward Long, trustee to Isaac Gibbons (Chancery docket 362): "Waterford," "Wolfs Den," "Something Worth," "Miles Good Luck," "Sandy," "Arabia," "Amity," "Middle Pasture" (Som. Deeds 80:483). Much of it had been Tilghman land, bought by JAMES BOSTON (68) but sold at sheriff's sales in 1838.

One son of Joseph B.J. and Anne E. (Fleming) Lankford:
1. William Edgar, b. 11 Aug. 1860; d. 13 Feb. 1942; mar.
LAURA JANE PILCHARD (664).

LAYFIELD - BOZMAN - OUTTEN FAMILIES

Of these families, the Bozmans would appear to have been the earliest to settle on the Eastern Shore, for William Bosman was in Northampton Co., Va. by 1649, and he settled with his family at Manokin, in Somerset Co., Md. by Feb. 1663/64. George Layfield was in Somerset Co. by 1681, evidently in the Pitts Creek section in what later became Worcester Co., but his brother, Samuel, progenitor of the family, did not arrive until about 1707. John Outten was in Somerset Co. by 1685, but the Barretts were late-comers, Joseph Barrett arriving evidently about 1770.

1 WILLIAM BOSMAN (BOZMAN, BOSSMAN), b. c1625; d. in Som. Co. by 11 Dec. 1665; mar. 1st Bridget, who d. Northampton Co., Va. 19 July 1660 (Hungar's Parish); mar. 2nd (Hungar's Parish, 5 Feb. 1661/62) Eleanor Maddux, widow of Alexander Maddux (d. 1659/60) and mother of Lazarus Maddux (c1656-1717); she d. Som. Co. 17 Nov. 1694. In Feb. 1660/61 Miss Katherine Scarburgh made a deed of gift in North. Co., Va. to Katherine, daughter of William and Bridget Bosman. Bosman had appeared in Northampton Co. by 1649, when he was a headright to a patent for land granted to Ralph Barlowe. In Dec. 1663 or Jan. 1663/64 he settled with his family at Manokin, Som. Co. In Nov. 1663 he was among those named by the Accomack Co. Court to "call together & command" qualified individuals in the area between the Pocomoke and Manokin Rivers (claimed as part of Acco. Co.) to provide defense against an uprising rumored to be threatened by Quakers, yet in May 1664 Bosman, along with Stephen Horsey and William Thorne, was named by the Md. governor one of the justices of the peace and a commissioner for granting land warrants. As of Feb. 1663/64 William Bosman was entitled to 950 acres of land for transporting nineteen persons into the colony, including himself, wife Ellen, children Catherine, John, William, Jr., Bridget, Ann, George, and Mary Bosman, as well as [step-son] Lazarus Maddux (Torrence, pp. 44, 58, 325-26, 437, 476).

Bosman patented 1200 acres, "More and Case It," 11 Nov. 1662, on north side of Manokin River just east of Goose Creek; 300 acres, "Bosman's Choice," 2 Mar. 1663/4; and 300 acres, "Tinson," 9 June 1665. In his will, signed 5 Aug. 1664, he made bequests to wife Elioner (executor), to daughters Katherine, Bridget (under 15), Ann, Mary, to Lazarus Maddux, and to sons John, William, and George (all under 17); the "land I live on," 1200 acres, was to be divided between John and George. He also mentioned "legacys" his daughter Katherine had from her godmother Scarburgh and a legacy son George had from his godfather Parker. Son George was to stay with Henry Edwards and wife, and Bosman appointed Capt. William Thorne and Mr. Thomas Bloys as guardians and trustees for the children's estate. Witnesses included Roger Woolford (Som. Wills EB5:133). In her will, signed 29 May 1692 (prob. 3 July 1695) Ellinor Caine named cousin [i. e. niece] Blandina Bosman, son Lazarus Maddux; witnesses were Charles Hall, Sr. & Jr., Marsy Fontaine, John Turpin (Ann. Wills 7:111).

In Som. Deeds IKL Eleanor is indicated as mother of William Bosman's children, but their mother was evidently Bridget; Mary may have been Eleanor's daughter. Of William Bosman's two grandsons named George, which one died in 1739, which in 1760, is problematic, but it would seem more likely to have been George son of John who lived until 1760. Children (born "at Accomack," in Va., births recorded upon arrival in Somerset Co., Md.):

- i. Katherine, b. c1648; mar. 1st John Nellson (d. by 11 Jan. 1670/71; 2nd John LAWS (see p. 364, No. 2, and Note, p. 446).
- ii. John, b. Aug. 1650; d. by 26 Sept. 1716; see No. 2 below.
- iii. Bridget, b. 5 July 1653; mar. George Betts.
- iv. William, b. 26 Mar. 1655.
- v. Anne, b. 4 July 1657; mar. ?George Downes.
- vi. George, b. 1 Apr. 1659; d. 1706/7; mar. Jane, widow of William Jones of Monie (d. 1690); it was probably George's son George who d. 1739, for the latter could have named son Daniel after step-brother Daniel Jones. Children (born Manokin, Som. Co., Md.):
 1. William, b. Nov. 1690.

2. George, b. 24 June 1694; d. Som. Co. by 2 Oct. 1739, leaving wife Mary, sons Levin, Daniel, Philloman (last two under 16, as of 15 Aug. 1733, when will was signed); witnesses included William and Sarah Jones (Som. Wills EB9:213).

vii. Mary.

2 JOHN BOZMAN, son of William, b. Acco. Co., Va. Aug. 1650; d. Som. Co., Md. by 26 Sept. 1716; mar. (c1670) Blandina Risdon, niece of his step-mother. He was a justice of the peace and a presiding justice in Som. Co.; high sheriff; member of Lower House, Md. Assembly, 1694, 1707-10 (Torrence, p. 437). In his will, signed 26 Apr. 1716, he named, besides children (below), Risdon, Thomas, Ann, but he did not name Mary or Naomi; he also mentioned wife Blandina, brother George, "couzens" [i. e. nephews] William and George Bosman (Som. Wills EB9:57). Children (born at Manokin, Somerset Co., Md.):

- i. Mary, b. 15 Mar. 1670/71; mar. (1686) Marcy (Mercy) Fontaine (1667-1727).
- ii. Naomi, b. 6 Feb. 1672/73.
- iii. William, b. 10 Mar. 1674/75; ?d. Worc. Co. by 21 July 1749 (Ann. Inv. 41:438).
- iv. Bridgett, b. 19 Dec. 1677.
- v. John, b. 30 June 1679.
- vi. George, b. [1681?]; d. by 30 Aug. 1760; see No. 3 below.

3 GEORGE BOZMAN, son of John, b. Manokin, 24 June 1694; d. Som. Co. by 30 Aug. 1760; mar. Sarah. In his will, signed 5 Mar. 1753, he made bequests to daughters Sarah Ains, Ann Scofield, Betty Layfield, Mary Laws, wife Sarah, and son George, the two latter being executors. Witnesses were Thomas and Ambrose Dixon, William Fordred (Som. Wills EB4:71). A daughter:

- i. Betty, b. c1721; mar. George Layfield; see No. 6 below.

4 SAMUEL LAYFIELD, b. c1650; d. Som. Co. by 30 Aug. 1709; mar. Mary. His brother Co. GEORGE LAYFIELD (c1648-1703), was granted "Convenience" in Som. Co., 15 Mar. 1681/82. George was commissioned 19 Mar. 1684/85 "comptroller and surveyor of his Majesties duties [i. e. customs] in the province of Maryland," and he was collector of the revenue for the Pocomoke district in Som. Co. in 1690, 1697; he was also a justice of the peace and a notary; in 1692 he was elected a member of the first vestry of Coventry Parish when the Established Church was organized in Md. After the decease of his first wife, Mrs. Elizabeth (Keyser) Stevens, widow of William Stevens, of "Rehobeth," George Layfield caused a scandal in the colony by marrying (1697) in a Quaker ceremony, Priscilla White, the twenty-one year old niece of his late wife; since the union was within the canonically forbidden relationships for marriage, the case was even considered by the governor and council, but the two were ultimately acquitted (Torrence, pp. 375-78). In his will, signed 27 Mar. 1703 (prob. 26 May 1703) George bequeathed to daughter Elizabeth "Convenience" (being part of the Cypress Swamp), "Hogg Quarter," and "Millers Lot"; to wife Priscilla, "Newport," a parcel of land given her by her father John White, deceased; also "Creedwell," and 500 acres "Poplar's Point" (Som. Wills EB5:157).

Samuel Layfield, "of ye city of London, Goldsmith," was still living in London 1705 and 1706 but came to Som. Co. shortly thereafter. In his will, signed 25 May 1709, Samuel bequeathed to wife Mary, during her life, 400 acres, "Hogg Quarter"; 200 acres, "Cypress Swamp"; part of "Convenience," adjacent "Hogg Quarter"; also a "gold watch and all her gold locketts & rings & Juells she used to ware." Son Thomas Layfield was to have 500 acres, "Cow Pasture"; 500 acres, "Creedwell"; and "my Silver Tobacco Box with my Cote of Armes on ye lid." Daughter Mary Layfield was to have 300 acres "Miller's Lot," 50 acres "Little Convenience," 50 acres "Great Convenience." He also mentioned "my honored Mother Margaret Nottle" (Som. Wills EB5:157-8). Son:

- i. Thomas, b. c1680; d. by 15 May 1733; see No. 5 below.

5 THOMAS LAYFIELD, son of Samuel, b. probably London, England, c1680; d. Som. Co., Md. by 15 May 1733; mar. Katherine. He came to Md. with his father c1707. In a deed of 10 June 1711 it is recorded that on 9 Mar. 1709/10 Thomas Layfield and wife Catherine, together with Mary, widow of Samuel Layfield, sold "Convenience," on the south side of the Pocomoke River. George

Layfield, Esq., who had mar. Elizabeth, widow of William Stevens, by will had conveyed the land to her. Samuel Layfield, brother of George, succeeded to the land; then it descended to Thomas, George's eldest and only son and heir (Som. Deeds 10: 618). In his will, signed 18 Mar. 1733, Thomas Layfield, "gentleman," of Pocomoke, Som. Co., bequeathed to daughter Lavina money due him in England, and mentioned other children Mary and Thomas, and wife Katherine. To "my now eldest son" George he left dwelling plantation "Hogg Quarter," great cypress swamp "Convenience"; 500 acres "Creedwell" on the seaside near Capt. Fassitt's mill; 500 acres "Cow Pasture" at head of sound near Capt. John Smith, according to the will of "my grandfather" Samuel Layfield; and personal effects, including tobacco box of silver with coat of arms. He also desired to be buried near the body of his deceased son Samuel and appointed as overseers his brothers-in-law Thomas Newbold, James Houston. Among the witnesses was Robert Nairne (Ann. Wills 20:679). Son:

- i. George, b. c1710; d. by 23 Apr. 1767; see No. 6 below.

6 GEORGE LAYFIELD, son of Thomas, b. c1710; d. Worc. Co., Md. by 23 Apr. 1767; mar. 1st (Coventry, 5 Nov. 1738) Betty Bozman, daughter of George (see No. 3 above), b. c1721; d. c1758; 2nd (c1760) Mrs. Abigail Lister Long, widow of David LONG (q. v. No. 8); she d. Worc. Co. by 21 Dec. 1773. Layfield in 1740 secured a resurvey of "Creedwell," and he patented "Merrill Hall" in 1746 and "Woods Beaver Dam Enlarged" in 1761. In his will, signed 21 Nov. 1760, he named only sons Thomas, George, and Samuel, who received respectively 200 acres "Merrills Hall," 200 acres "Town" and "Woods Beaver Dams," and 200 acres of the latter (Worc. Wills JW3:154); though not named in the will, son Isaac evidently inherited by primogeniture all his father's other lands. Children (baptised Coventry): Catherine, b. 19 July 1741; Mary, b. 17 June 1743; Sarah, b. 24 Jan. 1744/45; Thomas, b. 22 May 1747; George, b. 27 Oct. 1749 (possibly the George Layfield who in 1790 was Baptist minister at Pungoteague); Elizabeth, b. 1751; Samuel, b. 27 May 1753; and eldest child:

- i. Isaac, b. 1 Feb. 1739/40; d. by 11 Oct. 1800; see No. 7 below.

7 ISAAC LAYFIELD, eldest son of George, b. probably near Pitts Creek, Som. (now Worc.) Co. 1 Feb. 1739/40; d. Worc. Co. by 11 Oct. 1800; mar. Esther. In his will, signed 7 Sept. 1800, he bequeathed to son Thomas, a minor, "Hog Quarter" and 300 acres Cypress Swamp, adjacent "Hog Quarter"; and he made bequests, among others, to daughters Catty Barrett and Nancy Layfield, and grandchildren Isaac and Nancy Layfield. Among the witnesses was ESAU BOSTON (31) (Worc. Wills JBR 1:143). (See Note, p. 451.) Four of the children (born Pitts Creek, Worc. Co., Md.):

- i. George, b. c1765; d. 1791/26 Nov. 1794; mar. (1779/82) Sarah Houston, daughter of Joseph Houston, widow of Joseph Scott, Jr. (d. 1779). George, living in Acco. Co., Va. in 1791, was dead by 26 Nov. 1794, when Isaac Layfield was appointed guardian of George's son, Isaac (aged about 9 years), Joseph Houston guardian of daughter Nancy (aged about 7) (Worc. Orphans Court Proceedings 1792/97:133, 134). Children:
 1. Isaac, b. c1785/86; mar. (1ic. Worc. 10 June 1807) Rachel Benston.
 2. Nancy, b. 1 Jan. 1788; d. 2 Feb. 1805; mar. (16 Feb. 1804) JACOB BOSTON (57); no children.
- ii. Catherine, b. c1780; mar. (1800) James BARRETT; see No. 12 below.
- iii. Nancy, b. c1782; d. c1835; mar. (1801) LEVIN HENDERSON (D1).
- iv. Thomas, b. c1784; a minor in 1800; d. before 1820.

8 JOHN OUTTEN (OWTTEN), b. 1660; d. Som. Co., probably at Morumsco, by 7 May 1709; mar. (reportedly) Mary Hopkins of Va., whod. 1726. In 1685 he patented "Outon's Addition" in Som. Co. In his will, signed 29 Jan. 1708/9, he bequeathed to son Thomas 211 acres "Tornsio," adjacent William Selby and John Bishop; to son Samuel, 180 acres adjacent Pigg Point; to son Abraham, 100 acres adjacent Thomas Selby, and 50 acres of "Tornsio," formerly belonging to John Bishop; to son John, land on Morumsco Creek in a neck called Condoua; Samuel and Abraham were the youngest sons. He also mentioned wife Mary (executrix), "now going with child." Witnesses were Matthew Scarborough, Nathaniel Hopkins, Samll. Webb, Thomas Clarke (Som.

Wills EB9:184). (See Note, p. 451.) One of the children:

- i. John, b. 23 May 1687; d. by 2 Mar. 1735/36; see No. 9 below.

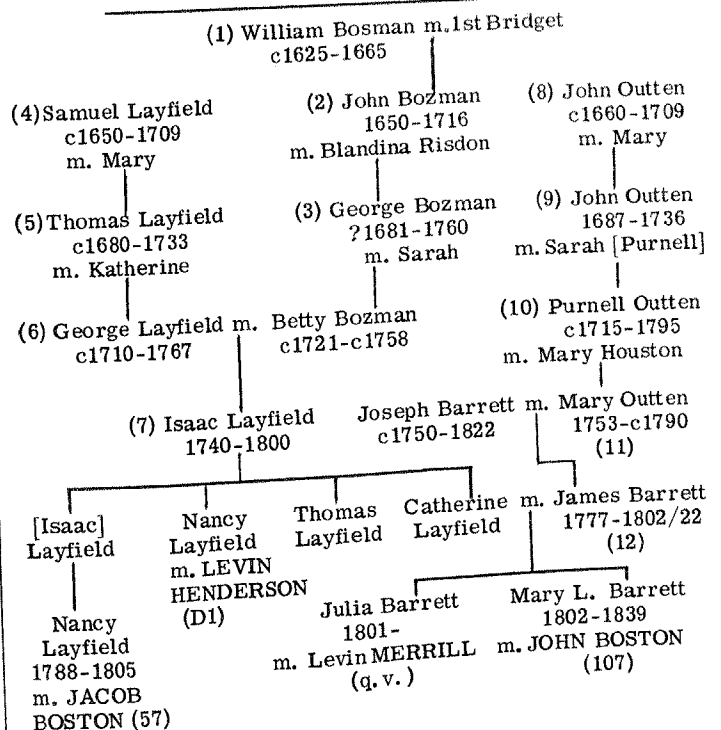

9 JOHN OUTTEN (JR.), son of John, b. Som. Co., probably at Morumsco, 23 May 1687; d. Som. Co. by 2 Mar. 1735/36; mar. Sarah Purnell. In his will, signed 29 Aug. 1733, John Outten planter, bequeathed to wife Sarah (executrix) a third of the dwelling plantation during widowhood; he made bequests to son John, dwelling plantation, and mentioned "Marchet's Treasure" bought from Philip Conner; to son Purnell, 50 acres which his father had alienated from "old Philip Conner," land and marsh on the north side of the field known as Indian Field; and he made bequests to sons Abraham and Obed, daughters Mary Sturgess, and Director, Tabitha, and Edith Outten. Witnesses were William Conner, John Cottingham, Thomas Maddux (Ann. Wills 21:527). One son (born probably at Morumsco, Somerset Co., Md.):

- i. Purnell, b. c1715; d. by 8 Dec. 1795; see No. 10 below.

10 PURNELL OUTTEN, son of John, b. c1710; d. Som. Co., probably at Morumsco, by 8 Dec. 1795; mar. (Coventry, 13 Sept. 1741) Mary Houston. In 1739, with his brothers John and Abraham, Purnell secured a patent to "Ware Point Enlarged." Hewitessed the wills of the cousins, ISAAC BOSTON (6) in 1751 and ESAU BOSTON (8) in 1768. In his will, signed 28 Sept. 1795, Purnell Outten bequeathed to wife Mary all lands, marshes, houses, orchards, during widowhood, all to pass after her death to son Purnell; he also made bequests to son Joseph, daughter Sarah Killiam, wife of John Killiam, Polly Barrett, Tabitha Twiford, Betty Smith, Lovey Lankford, and Delitta Taylor (Som. Wills EB17:442). Children (born Morumsco, baptised Coventry):

- i. Sarah, b. 7 May 1743; mar. John Killiam (Kellam).
- ii. John, b. 6 Aug. 1745; d. young.
- iii. Shadrack, b. 8 Nov. 1748; d. young.
- iv. Tabitha, b. 30 Jan. 1751; mar. [Robert?] Twiford.
- v. Mary, b. 10 Nov. 1753; mar. Joseph BARRETT; see No. 11 below.
- vi. Betty, b. 24 Mar. 1756; mar. Solomon Smith.
- vii. Marsilva, b. 1 Nov. 1758; d. young.
- viii. Purnell, b. 2 Jan. 1761; d. Acco. Co., Va. by 25 June 1798.
- ix. Lovey, b. 3 Sept. 1763; d. 1827; mar. Jesse Maddux Lankford (d. 1815).
- x. Delitta, b. 22 Nov. 1765; d. 1817; mar. Jesse Taylor (d. 1810).
- xi. Joseph, b. 1770; appointed by brother Purnell to settle "all my business" in Som. Co.

11 MARY (POLLY) OUTTEN, daughter of Purnell and Mary

(Houston) Outten, b. Morumsco, 10 Nov. 1753; d. Som. Co. c1790; mar. (Coventry, 24 Oct. 1773) JOSEPH BARRETT, b. c1750; d. Som. Co. bh 5 Mar. 1822; he mar. 2nd (lic. Som. 25 July 1820) Leah Schoolfield. In his will, signed 16 Feb. 1822, he made bequests to wife Leah, to daughter Betsy Holland, wife of Thomas Holland, and to granddaughter Molly Barrett (Som. Wills JP 4:30). Children (baptised Coventry):

- i. Robert, b. 5 July 1775; d. by 24 Aug. 1804; in inventory of his estate Joseph Barrett was executor (Som. Accts EB27:15).
- ii. James, b. 11 Feb. 1777; see No. 12 below.
- iii. Betsy, b. 25 Dec. 1779; mar. 1st (lic. Som. 15 Feb. 1803) William H. LANKFORD (p. 407, No. 9); 2nd (lic. Som. 4 Dec. 1821) Thomas Holland.

12 JAMES BARRETT, son of Joseph and Mary (Outten) Barrett, b. Morumsco, 11 Feb. 1777; living 1802, but d. presumably before 1822; mar. (lic. Worc. 4 Mar. 1800) Catherine Layfield, daughter of Isaac (No. 7 above), b. c1780; d. by 1820. On 13 May 1802 James and Cattron Barrett of Som. Co., for £36, conveyed to William Schoolfield 24 acres lying in the cypress swamp, part of "Great Conveincy" and "Hog Quarter," devised by Isaac Layfield (deceased) to said James Barrett and wife, and for £60 they conveyed 40 acres of the same tracts to Levin Powell (Worc. Deeds V:102, 188). It must have been Barrett's daughter, Betsy Barrett, of Worc. Co., who on 1 Feb. 1835 conveyed JOHN BOSTON (107) for $145 "Hog Quarter" and 15 acres more or less of Cypress Swamp known as "Great Conveincy," which came to her by the death of Thomas Layfield (Worc. Deeds GMH2:367). Apparently James and Catherine Barrett were parents of Julia, though Molly's grandfather in his will named her but not Julia. Two of the children (born probably Morumsco, Som. Co., Md.):

- i. Julia Ann, b. 14 Feb. 1801; d. 10 or 16 July 1871(?); mar. Levin MERRILL (p. 418, No. 5).
- ii. Mary L[ayfield?], b. 5 Sept. 1802; d. 15 Mar. 1839; mar. JOHN BOSTON (107).

LONDON AND RELATED FAMILIES

Ambrose London is unusual among these Eastern Shore settlers, for he came first to the Dutch colony of New Amsterdam, by 1641, then removed to Northampton Co., Va., by 1659, and again in 1665 to Somerset Co., Md. Much of the material for the London, Riggan, and Matthews families was contributed by the late Miss Katherine K. Adams of Chicago.

1 AMBROSE LONNEN (LONDON), b. c1618; d. Som. Co., Md. c1700; mar. Mary [Cornish?]. Supposedly of English origin, Ambrose London or Lonnen, before 1641, emigrated to America where he was among the first settlers at Gravesend, on Long Island, in the colony of New Amsterdam. In 1641 he bought a plantation on the Bay of the North River on Long Island for 200 guilders. On 18 Nov. 1646 he bought a "plantation lot" at Gravesend. On 5 Mar. 1648/49 he gave a contract to M. Juer for building a home at Gravesend. On 14 Mar. 1649/50 Ambrose London, of Gravesend, sold land to William Golder. In 1651 Samuel, son of Ambrose London, was bequeathed property by John Cornish of Flatlands, who also bequeathed land to E. Audley. In 1653 London bought a lot at Gravesend (Teunis G. Bergen, Early Settlers of King County, Long Island, N. Y., N. Y., 1881, pp. 392, 208, 171, 123, 74, 212). On 4 Dec. 1653 "Ambrose Lonnen having petitioned the Burgomasters... for a pass to go to Virginia... the Burgomasters... declare that they have nothing to say to the petitioner; he must apply to the... Director General" (Berthold Bernow, ed., Records of New Amsterdam, 1653-1679, N. Y., 1897, I:135). He would appear to have left and returned, for in 1661 he gave a note for 200 guilders for a house and plantation on North River (O'Callaghan's Dutch Mss., Vol. I), but in June 1659 Ambrose London and his wife Mary were in Northampton Co., Va. If he returned to New Amsterdam, he was back in Va. five years later, for in Feb. 1663/64 London was presented by the North. Co. Grand Jury "for not coming to church and being brought before the court demeaned himself insolently and appeared under the notion of a Quaker"; he was fined 1000 pounds of tobacco "for Sabbath breaking and his said Insolent behavior." Though evidently a Non-conformist, he was not necessarily a Quaker.

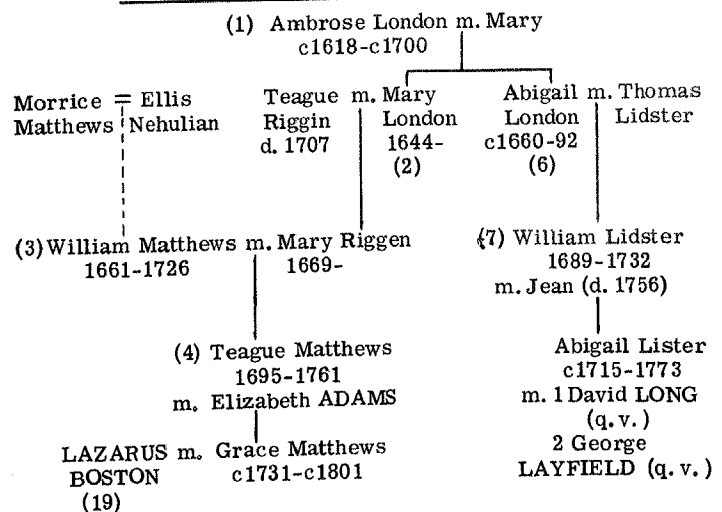

Ambrose London came into Som. Co. in 1665, for on 22 Jan. 1665/66 he was entitled to land for transporting himself, wife Mary, and "his children" Mary, Ruth, and Abigail. He settled at Annessex and became a substantial citizen and planter. A "major" and a justice of the peace, 1683, he was elected to the Lower House of the Md. Assembly 1670/71, though apparently he never took his seat (Torrence, pp. 449-450). Children:

- i. Samuel, b. c1642; d. young?
- ii. Mary, b. 1644; living 1730; mar. Teague Riggan; see No. 2 below.
- iii. Thomas, b. c1646; d. young?
- iv. Ruth, b. c1657; mar. (Apr. 1677) Thomas Walston.
- v. Abigail, b. c1660; d. Oct. 1692; mar. Thomas Lidster; see No. 6 below.

2 MARY LONDON, daughter of Ambrose, b. Gravesend, King's Co., Long Island, 1644; living Som. Co. 1730; mar. (marriage banns published Som. Co. 30 July 1667) Teague RIGGEN, who d. Som. Co. by 12 Nov. 1707. He was brother of Ambrose Riggan (1643-c1700), the two evidently from Ireland. In 1692 Teague Riggan and wife Mary deeded to son Ambrose a tract "Ambrosia," which, as "Golden Lyon," Ambrose Riggan and wife Mary, on 26 Aug. 1719, conveyed to son Teague, the tract originally patented 1664 to Thomas Hayward, on Pocomoke River on east side of Morumsco Creek (Som. Deeds 14:9). Teague Riggan signed his will 3 May 1707, bequeathing to wife Mary (executrix), during her life, all real estate, which should then go to son Samuel; and he named sons Darby, Ambrose, and Teague, daughter Rachel Andrews, sons-in-law William Matthews and Jacob Adams, and also Peter Dickeson. Witnesses were London Wallston, Thomas Ellis, Margaret Doherty (Dougherty) (Som. Wills EB5:176). In Aug. Court 1730, in a deposition concerning the tract "Golden Lyon," Mary Riggan declared her age to be 86. Two daughters:

- i. Mary, b. 4 Jan. 1668/69; d. after 1726; mar. William Matthews; see No. 3 below.
- ii. Ruth, b. 31 Jan. 1678/79; d. by 1703; mar. Jacob ADAMS (q. v.).

3 MARY RIGGEN, daughter of Teague and Mary (London) Riggan, b. Som. Co. 4 Jan. 1668/69; living 1726; mar. (c1692) William MATTHEWS, son of Morice Matthews and Ellice Nehulian (see p. 376, No. 1), b. Northampton Co., Va. 1661 (bapt. Hungar's Parish, 9 June 1661); d. Som. Co. by 12 Dec. 1726. In 1680 cattle marks were registered for William Matthews, son-in-law (i. e. step-son) of Donnock Dennis (Som. Deeds 1:32, in back of book). In 1696 William Matthews patented 135 acres, "Matthews Adventure" in Som. Co. On 3 May 1718 William Matthews devised to his son, Teague Matthews, for 10 shillings and love and affection, that part (350 acres) of "Edenes" ("Edwin's") adjacent William Riggan; Teague could sell or convey this tract to his brothers William, John, or Samuel, but to no others (Som. Deeds 13:125). In a dispute over "Mathews Adventure," three of his sons appeared 16 Feb. 1753/54 and made depositions: John Mathewes,

55 years; Teague, about 58; Samuel, about 50 (Som. Jud. 1752/54, p. 69). In his will, signed 4 Oct. 1726, William Matthews, of Som. Co., bequeathed to son William "Edwin" and "Ellis Lott," part of which Jacob Adams bought; to son Teague, part of "Edwin"; to son John, part of "Edwin" and 50 acres of marsh called "Meadow"; to Jacob Adams, part of marsh; to son David, 110 acres of "Worthless"; and he named wife Mary, daughter Sarah, four youngest children: David, Elizabeth, Rachel, Martha Matthews (Som. Wills EB9:106). Sons:

- i. William, b. c1693.
- ii. Teague, b. 1695; d. by 31 Jan. 1761; see No. 4 below.
- iii. John, b. 1699.
- iv. Samuel, b. 1703; d. by 27 Apr. 1784.
- v. David.

4 TEAGUE MATTHEWS, son of William and Mary (Riggen) Matthews, b. Som. Co. 1695; d. Som. Co. by 31 Jan. 1761; mar. (c1726) Elizabeth Adams, daughter of Phillip and Ellis (Taylor) ADAMS (q. v. No. 4), b. c1710; d. c1765. In a deposition of 26 Aug. 1740 Teague gave his age as 45; in a deposition of 25 July 1758 his age was 63 (Som. Jud. 1742/44, p. 43; 1757/60, p. 235). By his will, signed 23 Nov. 1760, he bequeathed "Worthless," 100 acres, to grandson Benjamin Holland Matthews, under 21, son of deceased son Philip Matthews; if grandson should die without heirs, land to go to son David; Benjamin was also to have 1/2 marsh west and south of the mouth of Morumsco Creek, "Hap Hazard." He also named son David (executor), wife Elizabeth, daughters Sarah, Rebecca, Tabitha, Betty. Witnesses were John Mathews, Teague and John Riggen (Som. Wills EB4:78). There is no direct evidence that Elizabeth Adams was mother of all his children, but Philip Matthews, evidently eldest son, would appear to have been named for her father. Though daughter Grace is not mentioned in the will, her relationship is proved by deed from her sister, Tabitha Otwell, 7 Apr. 1789. Six of the children (born Morumsco, Somerset Co., Md., baptised Coventry):

- i. Philip, b. c1727; d. before 1760; mar. (Coventry, 26 Nov. 1747) Sophia Holland; their son, Benjamin Holland Matthews, b. 16 Oct. 1749 (Coventry).
- ii. Grace, b. c1731; living 1800; mar. (Coventry, 14 Oct. 1751) LAZARUS BOSTON (19).
- iii. Tabitha, b. c1739; living 1789; mar. (Coventry, Feb. 1776) James Otwell.
- iv. David, b. 1741.
- v. Betty, b. 7 Dec. 1743.
- vi. Joshua, b. 1753; d. young.

5 ABIGAIL LONDON, daughter of Ambrose London (No. 1 above), b. probably Northampton Co., Va. c1660; d. Som. Co. in Oct. 1692; mar. (Som. Co. Sept. 1682) Thomas LIDSTER (Leister, Lister). Children (born Som. Co., Md., probably at Morumsco):

- i. Thomas, b. 15 May 1682.
- ii. Elizabeth, b. 30 Mar. 1684.
- iii. William, b. 15 Feb. 1688/89; d. by 19 Aug. 1732; see No. 6 below.

6 WILLIAM LIDSTER (LISTER), b. probably at Morumsco, Som. Co. 15 Feb. 1688/89; d. Som. Co. by 19 Aug. 1732. In his will, signed 20 July 1732, William Lidster, planter, bequeathed dwelling plantation to wife Jane, then to son Thomas Lidster; he named four children: Abigail, Leah, Thomas, Jesse, the latter and daughter to have 1 1/2 years schooling. Witnesses were Edw. Stockdell, Jeffery Long, John Benston (Ann. Wills 20:518). His widow, Jean Lister, signed her will 29 Mar. 1756 (prob. 27 Apr. 1756) naming daughter Abigail Long, wife of David Long, Abigail's sons Levin, Littleton, Josiah, and David Long; daughter Leah Furnace and William Furnace, and their daughter Priscilla Furnace; son Jesse Lister (executor) (Som. Wills EB4:45). Children (born probably at Morumsco, Somerset Co., Md.):

- i. Abigail, b. c1715; d. by 21 Dec. 1773; mar. 1st (c1737) David LONG (p. 414, No. 9); 2nd (c1760) George LAYFIELD (p. 409, No. 6).
- ii. Leah, mar. 1st William Furniss; 2nd --- Thompson.
- iii. Thomas, d. by 1756; no children.
- iv. Jesse, b. c1721; d. Som. Co. by 16 June 1778 (Som. Wills EB1:77); mar. 1st (Coventry, 1754) Betty Harris; 2nd Sarah; had sons William, Thomas, Jesse.

LONG FAMILY OF SOMERSET COUNTY

The Long family may have come to America as early as 1623. A William Longe in 1623 arrived on the ship Providence with Henry Carsley (see p. 420, No. 1), and he was in Daniel Gookins' Muster with Carsley when the census of 1624-25 was taken. It was probably his son or grandson, Samuel Long, who moved to Maryland about 1666. An older brother of Samuel was probably Daniel Long of Northampton Co., Va. An Ann Long, daughter of Daniel and Elizabeth Long, was born 16 Sept. 1660 (baptised Hungar's Parish). The compiler is indebted to Mr. Charles D. Long of St. Louis, the late Col. John D. Long of Baltimore, and Mr. Leslie P. Dryden of Hyattsville, Md., for assistance.

1 SAMUEL LONG,¹ b. ?Northampton Co., Va. c1645; d. probably at Morumsco, Somerset Co., Md., by 10 Dec. 1695; mar. 1st (Som. Co. 15 Feb. 1667/68) Jane Michell (Minshall), daughter of Jeffrey and Frances (Carsley) MINSHALL (p. 420), b. Va. c1653; d. Som. Co. 5 Dec. 1692; her mar. 2nd (Som. Co. 22 Feb. 1693/94) Elizabeth King. He secured patents in Som. Co. to "The Seamans Choice" (150 acres), 1667; "Coventry" (300 acres), 1667; "Longs Lott" (200 and 100 acres), 1668, 1682; "Longs Prevention" (96 acres) and "Longs Purchase" (123 acres), 1695. On 7 June 1671 he purchased from HENRY BOSTON "Boston's Adventure" (400 acres) at Morumsco. In his will, signed 26 Nov. 1695, Samuel Long made bequests to "my now wife Elizabeth, daughters Ann, Jane, and Elizabeth, wife of Isaac Boston; sons Jeffrey, William, Daniel, John, and David were to receive his plantation, equally; son Randall was to have "Long's Lott"; son John was executor. Witnesses were John Moore, Jeffrey Mitchell, John Heath (Som. Wills EB5:178). Children, by first marriage (born Morumsco):

- i. Samuel, b. 3 Oct. 1669; d. 16 May 1673.
- ii. Elizabeth, b. 19 Feb. 1671/72; d. by 21 Mar. 1716/17; mar. 1st ISAAC BOSTON (2); 2nd Adrian Marshall; see No. 2 below.
- iii. Daniel, b. 8 Jan. 1673/74; d. before 1677.
- iv. John, b. 1 Jan. 1674/75; d. by 16 June 1718; see No. 3 below.
- v. Daniel, b. 18 Oct. 1677; d. by 4 Nov. 1741; see No. 4 below.
- vi. Jeffrey, b. 1679; d. by 6 Oct. 1732; see No. 5 below.
- vii. Randolph (Randall), b. 4 Oct. 1683; d. by 23 Feb. 1739/40; see No. 6 below.
- viii. Anne, b. 25 Mar. 1685; mar. ?Thomas? Wood, Jr.
- ix. David, b. 25 May 1687; d. Som. Co. by 18 Mar. 1716/17; single; in his will, signed 26 Nov. 1716, he made bequests to brothers John, Daniel, Randall Long, and sister Ann Wood, and "to my brother Jeffrey Long, whom I make my executor, all land, and if he have another son, I desire that he may be named David, and after my brother's death, the land may be his" (Som. Wills EB9:18).
- x. William, b. 16 Dec. 1689; d. before 13 Sept. 1716.
- xi. Jane, mentioned in her father's will.

2 ELIZABETH LONG² (Samuel¹), b. Morumsco, 19 Feb. 1671/72, between 11 and 12 o'clock at night; d. Som. Co. by 21 Mar. 1716/17; mar. 1st (before Nov. 1695) ISAAC BOSTON (2), whod. by 9 Apr. 1701; mar. 2nd (1701) Adrian MARSHALL (p. 416, No. 3). Children (born Somerset Co., Md.):

- i. ISAAC BOSTON, b. Aug. 1694; d. by 20 Sept. 1751 (6).
- ii. ANNE BOSTON, b. c1696; d. 1711/17.
- iii. ELIZABETH BOSTON, b. c1698.
- iv. George Marshall, b. c1702/3; d. by 2 Oct. 1760.
- v. Samuel Marshall, b. c1704.
- vi. Adria Marshall, b. c1707.
- vii. Thomas Marshall, b. c1711/12; d. by 20 June 1786; see p. 417, No. 4.
- viii. Adrian Marshall, b. c1715; d. young.

3 JOHN LONG (LONGUE)² (Samuel¹), b. Morumsco, 1 Jan. 1674/75; d. Som. Co. by 16 June 1718; mar. (c1700) Anne Taylor, daughter of John and Anne (COULBOURNE) Taylor (p. 373, No. 1), b. Nassawadox, Va. 13 Feb. 1680/81. On 13 Sept. 1716 John, Daniel, Jeoffrey, and David Long entered into a bond to divide the land bequeathed to them by their father, 442 acres, "Long's Purchase," "Boston's Adventure," and "Long's Prevention"; witnesses were Adrian Marshall, Isaac Boston, and John Benson. A final confirmation of the division was made among the heirs 4 Sept. 1750: John Long, heir to his brother Samuel, Jeffery Long,

David Long, all planters, David Long the younger, shipwright, and Coulbourn Long, tailor, 110 acres to each; the land was on "Morumsco Creek" (Som. Deeds 18:262, 22:124, 125, 127, 128). John Longue, planter, signed his will 6 Nov. 1712 (but dated at end 5 Jan. 1716/17), bequeathing to son Samuel the land "where I now live, adjacent my brother"; he named children Ann, Samuel, John, William, David, the sons to be of age at 15; his wife Anne was to be executor; guardians for the children were to be Thomas Adams, Jeffrey Longue, Esau Boston, Daniel Longue, John Taylor (Ann. Wills 14:624). Children (born Morumsco, Somerset Co., Md.):

- i. Ann, b. c1704; mar. James Trahern (d. 1771).
- ii. Samuel, b. c1706; d. 1741; single.
- iii. John, b. c1707.
- iv. William, b. c1708. d. Worc. Co. 27 May/11 June 1768.
- v. David, b. c1714; d. by 21 July 1783; see No. 7 below.
- vi. Coulbourn, b. c1717/18; d. c1780.

4 DANIEL LONG² (Samuel¹), b. Morumsco, 18 Oct. 1677; d. Som. Co. by 4 Nov. 1741; mar. 1st (c1701) Elizabeth Taylor, daughter of Hope and Margaret (Dennis) TAYLOR (p. 378), b. 11 Dec. 1684; d. c1720; mar. 2nd (c1723) Sarah Adams, daughter of Thomas ADAMS (p. 359), b. c1705; d. c1735. Daniel Long signed his will 10 Feb. 1737/38, bequeathing to son David (executor) all his land (unnamed) and to daughter Sarah Long a negro. Witnesses were William Long, David Long, William Trahern, James Trahern (Som. Wills EB9:219). The names of his children are derived from an account of 8 Jan. 1743/44, in which a legacy was paid to Sarah Long, i. e. negro boy left her by her husband Jeffery Long, deceased (Ann Accts. 19:332). Children, all but seventh by first marriage (born Morumsco):

- i. Solomon, b. 1704; d. by 18 Feb. 1772; see No. 8 below.
- ii. Christian, b. c1706; mar. 1st Edward Stockdale, Jr.; 2nd John Howard.
- iii. Daniel, b. c1708; d. 1755/56; mar. Sarah Conner.
- iv. David, b. c1711; d. 15 Sept. 1756; see No. 9.
- v. Rachel, b. c1713; mar. Dennis Addams (1710-1777).
- vi. Elizabeth, b. c1715; mar. Thomas Bell.
- vii. Sarah, b. c1725; d. c1797; mar. 1st (her first cousin) Jeffery Long (No. 5 below); 2nd William FLEMING (p. 389).

5 JEFFREY LONG² (Samuel¹), b. Morumsco, 1679; d. Som. Co. by 17 June 1732; mar. Mary Sewell. His will, signed 1 July 1731, named all the children listed below (Ann. Wills 31:723).

- i. Jane (Jean), b. c1704; d. by 9 Sept. 1783; mar. 1st Thomas Handy (d. 1737); 2nd Thomas Seon (d. 1781).
- ii. William, b. c1705; d. 1728/29.
- iii. Samuel, b. c1707; d. by 11 Sept. 1756; mar. (c1733) his first cousin, Sarah, daughter of Randall Long (see No. 6 below). In a deposition of 3 July 1742 Samuel Long was aged 35 (Som. Jud. 1742/44, p. 152). A daughter:
 1. Sarah, b. 15 Apr. 1748 (Coventry); mar. almost certainly her second cousin, David Long (No. 11 below) and became mother of Sewell Long, thus naming a son for her uncle, the only way the name Sewell could have come into this branch of the family.
- iv. Jeffery, b. c1711; d. 1762; mar. Sarah Long, of Daniel.
- v. Mary, b. c1713.
- vi. Sewell, b. c1715; d. Queen Anne's Co., Md. 25 Feb./31 Mar. 1774; mar. 1st (St. Anne's Church, Anne Arundel Co., Md. 28 May 1745) Mary Brooksby; 2nd Mrs. Ann Emory Sudler, widow of Joseph Sudler; no children.
- vii. David, Jr. (or the Younger), b. c1717; d. Anne Arundel Co., Md. Apr. 1761; mar. (St. Margaret's Parish, 22 Oct. 1759) Mary Boone; no children. He was a shipwright. His brother Sewell was administrator of his estate; [nephew] Sowell Handy was one of the next of kin. All evidence is against the claim that Col. Armwell Long (1754-1834) is a son of this David or of any other David Long of this family (see Clark, The Eastern Shore, III:194).

6 RANDOLPH (RANDALL) LONG² (Samuel¹), b. 4 Oct. 1683; d. Som. Co. by 23 Feb. 1739/40; mar. Sarah, daughter of Thomas and Mary (DIXON) COTTINGHAM (see p. 380), b. 31 Aug. 1673. In his will, signed 23 Dec. 1739, he made bequests to grandson Randall Long, son of Samuel and Sarah, to grandson Randall Prior, a minor (land where Thomas Prior now lives), to wife

Sarah, to daughters Mary Cottingham and Sarah, and to son-in-law Samuel Long (Som. Wills EB9:211). One daughter:

- i. Sarah, b. c1717; mar. her first cousin Samuel LONG; see No. 5iii above.

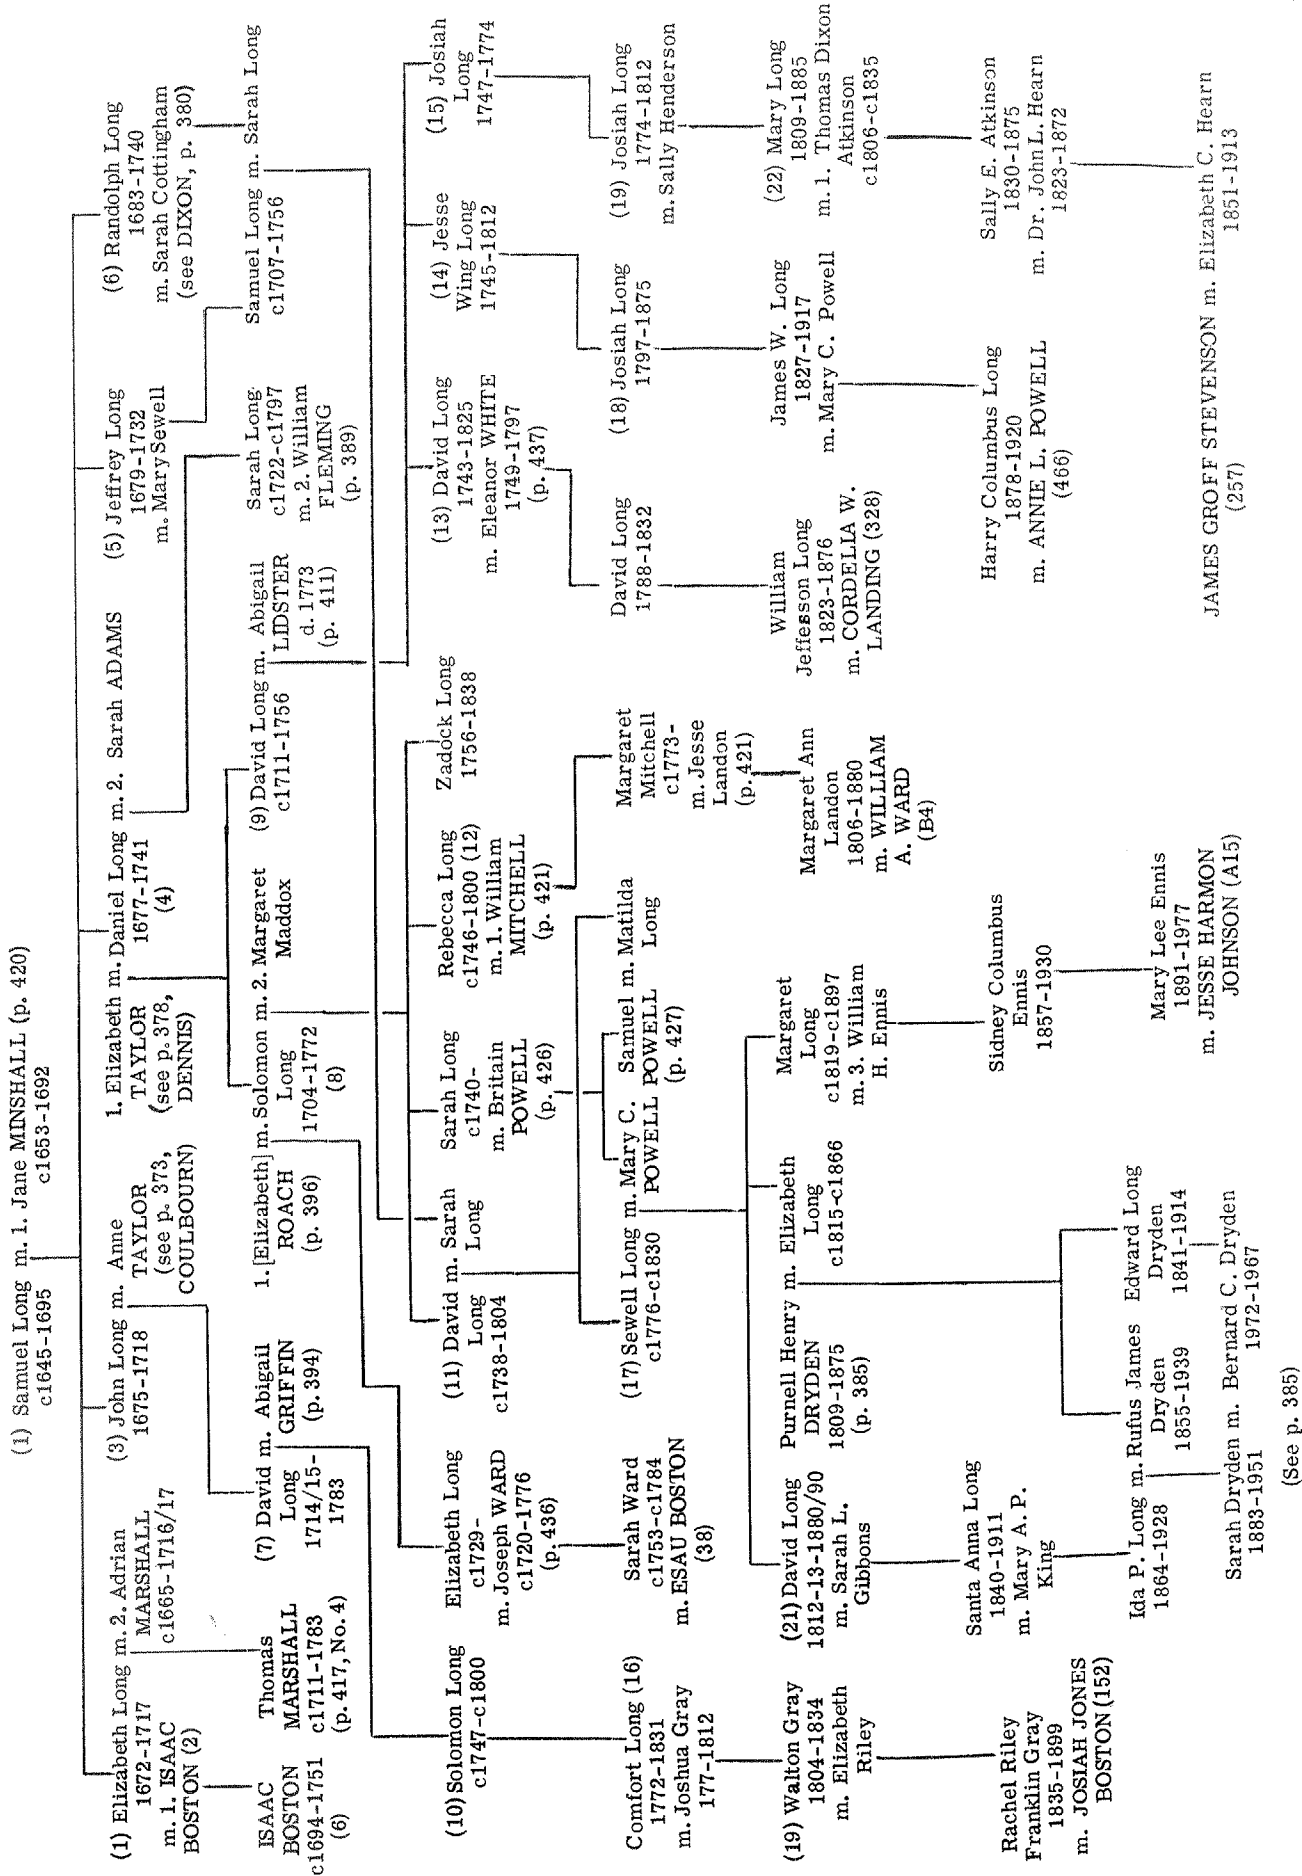

7 DAVID LONG³ (John² Samuel¹), b. 1714/15; d. Worc. Co., Md. by 21 July 1783; mar. (before 13 Apr. 1747) Abigail Griffin, daughter of William and Margaret (Tomlinson) GRIFFIN (see pp. 394, 423, No. 5), b. c1723; d. Worc. Co. by 26 Mar. 1784. In 1748 David with his brother William patented "Brothers Security" (484 acres) in Worc. Co. On 13 Nov. 1750 David Long and wife Abigail and William Long and wife Naomie sold 453 acres, "Husband's Torrent," which came to them through William Griffin, father of Abigail and Naomie. On 26 May 1770 John Long and David Long and his wife Abigail sold 230 acres, "Newberry," on the seaboard side which descended to them from William Wouldhave; the land was part of a tract in Cropper's Neck on the north side of Tuxberry or Beaver Dam Branch (Worc. Deeds B:387, H:348).

David Long signed his will 24 Oct. 1782, naming wife Abigail, devising to her all estate during her natural life or widowhood, except "Security," to be sold to pay debts of "my late son David." He named sons Samuel, Elihu, Hampton, Solomon, and Coulbourn; Samuel Long, son of brother William; daughters Margaret and Charlotte Long and Ann Gray. He also mentioned "Security Enlarged" (116 acres) bought of son Solomon. Witnesses included Henry White (Worc. Wills JW4:527). Abigail Long signed her will 2 Feb. 1784, bequeathing to son Samuel 50 acres, part of "Cumberland," running from the Seavanna Road, adjacent to William Richards; she also named daughters Charlotte, Sally Truit, and Peggy Long. Witnesses were James Quinton, John Rownd, and Isaac Purnell (Worc. Wills JW 13:22). Children (at least the younger ones born probably Queponco Hundred, Worc. Co., Md.):

- i. Ann, b. c1741; mar. Benjamin Gray (d. 1790).
- ii. Samuel, b. c1743; in 1783 Worc. Co. Tax List he held tracts "Brothers Security," "Newberry," and part of "Dukeberry" in Queponco Hundred.
- iii. Solomon, b. c1745; d. 1791/1800; see No. 10 below.
- iv. David, b. c1747; d. by 17 June 1778; see Notes, p. 451, No. 7.
- v. Margaret, b. c1751.
- vi. Elihu, b. c1755; d. Worc. Co. by 1 Feb. 1791; signed will 2 Jan. 1791, bequeathing all estate (personal) to brother Hampton Long; witnesses were Daniel, Samuel, and Solomon Long (Worc. Wills JW 13:253).
- vii. Coulbourn, b. c1757; d. Worc. Co. 9/14 Feb. 1809.
- viii. Charlotte, b. c1759.
- ix. Hampton, b. c1769; d. 22 Feb. 1840; see Notes, p. 451, No. 7.

8 SOLOMON LONG³ (Daniel² Samuel¹), b. 1704; d. Som. Co. by 18 Feb. 1772; evidently mar. 1st [Elizabeth] Roach, daughter of Nathaniel and Elizabeth (Curtis) ROACH (see p. 396, No. 11), b. c1708; d. c1734; mar. 2nd (c1735/36) Margaret Maddux, daughter of Thomas and Mary Maddux. With her sister Sarah, Margaret Maddux was bequeathed "Linzey's Green" in the will of her father, signed 3 Mar. 1735/36 (prob. 10 Apr. 1736); in an acct. of Bell Maddux for his father's estate, 11 July 1737, Solomon Long received a legacy in behalf of his wife (Som. Wills EB9:192, Ann. Accts. 14:334). In a deposition of 19 May 1744 Solomon Long (of Daniel) was aged 40 (Som. Jud. Rec. 1742/44, p. 263). In 1768 Solomon patented "Tick Ridge" (25 acres). On 26 Apr. 1765 he deeded to (his son) David Long, for 5 shillings, "Adventure," 50 acres near the mouth of Manokin River (Som. Deeds 25:196). In his will, signed 1 Oct. 1765, he named wife Margaret; bequeathed to son David 100 acres "Adventure" and 130 acres "Sampire"; to son Solomon, the dwelling plantation and land called "Amity" (260 acres); he also named son-in-law Joseph Ward (with Solomon Long to have the liberty of cattle on the marshes), sons William and Zadock Long, daughter Matilda Long, and wife's sister, Sarah Maddux (Som. Wills EB4:185). (See Notes, p. 452, No. 8.) Children, two eldest, and possibly third, presumably by first marriage (born Manokin, Somerset Co., Md.):

- i. Elizabeth, b. c1729; mar. Joseph WARD (p. 434, No. 5).
- ii. Daniel, b. c1731; d. c1750.
- iii. Mary, b. c1733/34; mar. William Morgan.
- iv. Jane, b. c1736; mar. John Howard.
- v. David, b. c1738; d. by 23 Oct. 1804; see No. 11 below.
- vi. Sarah, b. c1740; mar. (1762) Britain POWELL (p. 426, No. 4).

- vii. Matilda, b. c1742; mar. Henry Corker.
- viii. Solomon, b. c1744; d. Som. Co. by 2 Nov. 1798; in the inventory of his estate (dated 9 Nov. 1799, which must be an error), recorded 23 July 1799 (amid others of like date), next of kin were Zadock Long, Rebecca Mitchell (Som. Inv. 21:333).
- ix. Rebecca, b. c1746; d. 2 Feb./12 Mar. 1800; mar. 1st William Mitchell; ?2nd (? James) Hammond; see No. 12 below.
- x. William, b. c1752; d. by 27 May 1777; see Notes, p. 451.
- xi. Zadock, b. 7 Mar. 1756; d. 3 Feb. 1838; see Notes, p. 451.

9 DAVID LONG (I)³ (Daniel² Samuel¹), b. c1711; d. ? Som. Co. 15 Sept. 1756 (Coventry); mar. (c1737) Abigail Lister, daughter of William and Jean LIDSTER (see p. 411, No. 6), b. c1715; d. Worc. Co. by 21 Dec. 1773; she mar. 2nd (c1760) George LAYFIELD (p. 409, No. 6), and moved to Worc. Co. David Long, a planter, left no will or estate, but on 15 Oct. 1767 Littleton Long sold to Nehemiah Turpin his right in the land he "doth claim as Heir at Law to his father David Long," part of three tracts, "Boston's Adventure," "Long's Purchase," and "Long's Prevention," 102 acres (Som. Deeds 25:131). When Abigail Long mar. George Layfield, who lived near Pitts Creek, she evidently took her younger sons with her, for they resided henceforth in Worc. Co. In her will, signed 20 Oct. 1773, Abigail Layfield made bequests to sons Littleton, Levi, David, Jesse, Josiah, Levin Long (Ann. Wills 39:568). By 9 June 1775 Catey Long, widow of Josiah, was administratrix. Children (born Morumsco, Somerset Co., Md., bapt. Coventry):

- i. Littleton, b. 7 Apr. 1738; d. by 26 Oct. 1803.
- ii. Levi, b. 24 June 1739; d. Worc. Co. by 13 Nov. 1823.
- iii. David (II), b. 2 Feb. 1742/43; d. 29 Apr. 1825; see No. 13.
- iv. Jesse Wing, b. 18 Oct. 1745; d. by 1 Jan. 1812; see No. 14.
- v. Josiah, b. 7 Oct. 1747; d. by 12 Apr. 1774; see No. 15.
- vi. Levin, b. 10 June 1752; d. Oct. 1815.

10 SOLOMON LONG⁴ (David³ John² Samuel¹), b. c1745; d. ? Worc. Co. c1800?; mar. (between 13 July 1770 and 7 Nov. 1772) Comfort, widow of Stevens White of Worc. Co. On 13 July 1770 Comfort White was executrix of Stevens White; nearest of kin were John and Henry White (Worc. Inv. 105:11). In the distribution of the estate 7 Nov. 1772 Solomon Long and wife Comfort were executors of the will of Stevens White (Ann. Balance Bk. 6:291). In 1768 Solomon secured patents to "Whaley's Neglect" and "Long's Venture" (165 acres). On 3 Feb. 1767 he bought from Hugh Bratten for £40 part of "Lack in Time"; on 7 Oct. 1768 he bought from Isaiah Breddell for £85 "Security Enlarged" (405 acres), originally granted to Jesse Gray; on 5 Nov. 1772 he bought from Chalton Smith for £45 "Partnership"; on 24 Dec. 1779 from Jonathan Johnson he bought "Vernum Deane"; on 27 Mar. 1781 he bought from Colbourn Long for £200 two tracts, "Cumberland" and "Silver Street" (107 acres). On 2 Oct. 1790 Solomon, with George Bell, for £160 deeded to Joshua Gray "Cumberland," adjacent land of Col. John Gunby and Dr. Thomas Fassitt, 300 acres; witnesses, Josiah and John P. Mitchell. On 28 July 1798 for £200 Solomon deeded to Jesse Gray "Silver Street," adjacent John Turpin, a 100 acre tract granted to William Wouldhave (great-grandfather of Solomon's mother) 3 May 1680. And on 8 Feb. 1799 for £194.10 Solomon deeded to Joshua Gray "Tuxberry," 60 acres, and also "Littleworth" (13 acres); witnesses again were John P. and Josiah Mitchell (Worc. Deeds G:57, 479; I:169; K:238; S:69, 463; T:77). In the 1783 Worc. Co. tax list Solomon was in Queponco Hundred, with 125 acres (unnamed). He left no estate. Though there is no direct evidence that Solomon had children, there is every reason to conclude that Comfort Long was his daughter: Solomon Long sold more of his land to her husband than to anyone else; and Joshua Gray in 1800 and 1810 was near neighbor of the Longs. Daughter (born Queponco Hundred):

- i. Comfort, b. 14 Feb. 1772; d. 24 May 1831; mar. Joshua GRAY; see No. 16 below.

11 DAVID LONG⁴ (Solomon³ Daniel² Samuel¹), b. Manokin, Som. Co. c1738; d. Som. Co. by 23 Oct. 1804; mar. 1st (c1770) apparently Sarah Long, his second cousin, daughter of Samuel and Sarah (Long) Long (see No. 5iii above), b. 15 Apr. 1748; d. c1780/90; 2nd (c1790) Anne Gibbons, daughter of Thomas (d. 1801) and Polly Gibbons, b. c1770; she mar. 2nd (c1805) Edward Beauchamp. In 1766 David Long bought from William Holland, for £80, "Hogg Quarter" (10 acres) and "New Wood Hall" (100 acres), and on the north side of Pocomoke River and the north side of Rehobeth Creek

(Som. Deeds 25:60). According to 1774 Som. Co. Debts Books, David was holding "New Wood Hall" (100 acres), "Hog Quarter" (42 acres), "Adventure" (100 acres), "Wood Hall" (13 acres), "Sam-pire" (80 acres), "Cow Quarter" (50 acres), and "Tick Ridge" (2 acres). According to an inventory of David's estate (23 Oct. 1804) the executor was Ann Long; in the distribution the widow Ann received a third; the remainder was divided among sons Solomon, Sewell, Henry, Samuel, and daughters Matty Powell, Sarah Powell, Betsy Marshall, and Rosey and Hetty Long (Som. Accts. EB27:38). David Long died seized of 142 acres of upland and 80 acres of marsh, leaving children: Solomon and Sewell Long, Sarah Powell (wife of William Powell), Matilda Powell (wife of Samuel Powell), Elizabeth, Rose, Harry, Solomon [Samuel?], Esther Long. Solomon Long elected to take the lands (Som. Jud. 1804/5, p. 177). (For children by second marriage, see Notes, p. 452, No. 11.) Children, by first marriage (born Somerset Co., Md., probably near Rehobeth):

- i. Elizabeth, b. c1771; mar. ---Marshall.
- ii. Solomon, b. c1773; mar. 1st (lic. Som. 25 June 1803) Nelly Matthews; 2nd (lic. Som. 3 June 1815) Mary Carver; he apparently left the area.
- iii. Sewell, b. c1775; d. c1830; see No. 17 below.
- iv. Sarah, b. c1777; mar. (c1795) William Powell.
- v. Matilda, b. c1779; mar. (lic. Som. 15 June 1802) Samuel POWELL, her first cousin (see p. 425, No. 5).

12 REBECCA LONG⁴ (Solomon³ Daniel² Samuel¹), b. Manokin, Som. Co., Md. c1746; d. Som. Co. 2 Feb./12 Mar. 1800; mar. 1st (c1762) William MITCHELL, son of Isaac and Bridget (Waller) Mitchell (see p. 421, No. 4), b. c1735; d. Som. Co. 12 Feb./16 Mar. 1774; she contracted 2nd (c1777) apparently a common-law marriage with a man named HAMMOND, whose first name is not in the records, but he may be James Hammond, to whom as "friend" her younger brother William made a bequest in 1777.

On 17 July 1799 Mrs. Rebeckah Hammond (alias Mitchell), aged 50, deposed that she knew Molly King, sister to Jesse King (Som. Jud. 1798/99:390-412). In her will, signed 2 Feb. 1800, (prob. 12 Mar. 1800), Rebecca Mitchell ("otherwise called Rebecca Hammond"), bequeathed to her sons Solomon, Benjamin, John, and Samuel Hammond, all under 21, a lot in Princess Anne Towne. Levin King (of Zorababel) was named their guardian (Som. Wills EB23:4). (For other instances wherein a testator did not name some children in a will, see p. 15, note.) Children (born Som. Co., Mitchells at Manokin, Hammonds probably at Princess Anne; for additional details, see Notes, p. 452, No. 12):

- i. William Mitchell, b. c1763; d. by 8 Oct. 1805.
- ii. Isaac Mitchell, b. c1765.
- iii. Nancy Mitchell, b. c1767.
- iv. Eleanor Mitchell, b. c1769.
- v. Zadock Mitchell, b. 1771; d. by 12 Mar. 1800.
- vi. Margaret (Peggy), b. c1773; mar. Jesse LANDON; one of their four children:
 - 1. Margaret Ann Landon, b. 26 July 1806; d. Washington, D. C. 17 June 1880; mar. WILLIAM ANDREW WARD (B5).
- vii. Priscilla Hammond, b. c1778; d. by 4 Dec. 1798; single.
- viii. Solomon Hammond, b. c1780.
- ix. Benjamin Hammond, b. c1782.
- x. John Hammond, b. c1784.
- xi. Samuel Hammond, b. c1786.

13 DAVID LONG (II)⁴ (David³ Daniel² Samuel¹), b. Morumsco, Som. Co. 2 Feb. 1742/43; d. Worc. Co. 29 Apr. 1825; mar. 1st Eleanor White, daughter of John and Rebecca (Porter) WHITE (pp. 437-8, No. 2), b. 17 May 1749; d. 1 Feb. 1797; mar. 2nd (lic. Worc. 17 Jan. 1801) Sally Burnett. David was a tailor. Children (born near New Town, Worc. Co., Md.):

- i. Polly (Molly) White, b. 8 Mar. 1778; d. 13 Jan. 1853; mar. (lic. Worc. 22 Dec. 1800) Capt. Jesse Henderson.
- ii. (Capt.) Henry, b. 17 Apr. 1780; d. New Town, 3 Jan. 1855; single; merchant and banker.
- iii. (Capt.) Jesse, b. 20 Sept. 1784; d. c1815 in a storm on the Chesapeake Bay.
- iv. (Capt.) John White, b. 22 Oct. 1786; d. New Town, 20 May 1834; mar. Sally Laws Henderson, who d. 18 June 1828.
- v. David, b. 23 Nov. 1788; d. 1832; mar. (lic. Worc. 12 Jan. 1819) Mrs. Nancy Williams Stevenson (1782-1843), widow of Edward Stevenson (p. 440, No. 5); David was a wealthy merchant in New Town. Children (born New Town):

1. Edward White, d. soon after he left Georgetown College.
2. William Jefferson, b. 23 July 1823; d. 4 Feb. 1876; mar. CORDELIA W. LANDING (328).
3. Rufus Franklin.

vi. Levi, b. 17 Sept. 1792; d. Baltimore, Md. 1851.
vii. Samuel, b. 10 June 1801; d. Worc. Co. by 12 Oct. 1830.
viii. Elijah, b. c1803; d. by 8 Sept. 1835.

14 JESSE WING LONG⁴ (David³ Daniel² Samuel¹), b. Morum-sco, 18 Oct. 1745; d. Worc. Co. by 1 Jan. 1812. In his will, signed 7 Dec. 1807, he made bequests to sons Josiah, Jesse, Levin, and John, and to daughters Nancy and Harriet James; he mentioned land adjacent James Burnitt and Edward Stevenson; witnesses were John Stevenson, Mary and William Mills (Worc. Wills MH4:306). His widow, Rebecca, signed her will 13 Mar. 1815 (prob. 1 Oct. 1816), naming the same children; witnesses were John Stevenson, David Smith, Elijah Burnett (Worc. Wills MH10:219). In Worc. Guardian Bonds on 11 Feb. 1812 Rebecca Long was guardian of Jesse, Josiah, John, Rebecca, and Harriet James Long (of Jesse); on 14 Nov. 1816 Levin Long was guardian of Josiah, John, and Harriet J. Long (of Jesse). Children (born near New Town, Worc. Co., Md.):

- i. Levin, b. c1790; d. Worc. Co. by 11 Oct. 1826; no children.
- ii. Jesse, b. c1792; d. Worc. Co. by 12 Aug. 1845.
- iii. Nancy, b. 20 Nov. 1794; d. 29 Dec. 1877; mar. Joshua Merrill TULL (see p. 434, No. 7vi).
- iv. Josiah, b. 1 Aug. 1797; d. Jan. 1875; see No. 18 below.
- v. Rebecca, b. c1799; d. Feb./Nov. 1816.
- vi. John, b. c1803.
- vii. Harriet James, b. c1 Mar. 1809; d. 1 Feb. 1855; mar. 1st (lic. Worc. 10 Aug. 1825) Henry Wheeler; 2nd (lic. Som. 12 Oct. 1831) Capt. Edward Lambden.

15 JOSIAH LONG⁴ (David³ Daniel² Samuel¹), b. Morum-sco, 7 Oct. 1747; d. Som. Co. by 12 Apr. 1774; mar. Catherine (Katy) Houston, daughter of James and Mary Houston, b. c1754; she mar. 2nd Zadock Long. On 4 Aug. 1772 Josiah Long bought from William Furniss, Sr., for £2.15, "Amitte" (2 3/4 acres), south of Trading Branch (Som. Deeds 26:190). In his will, signed 28 Mar. 1774, he named wife Caty Long, executrix, and "the child she is now bearing"; he also mentioned his brothers Levin, David, Jesse, and Leaven Long. Witnesses included William Furniss, Thomas Lester (Som. Wills EB5:46). Only child:

- i. Josiah, b. 1774; d. by 12 Jan. 1813; see No. 19 below.

16 COMFORT LONG⁵ (Solomon⁴ David³ John² Samuel¹), b. 14 Feb. 1772; d. Worc. Co. 24 May 1831; mar. (22 Nov. 1791) Joshua GRAY, b. 21 Aug. 1770; d. Worc. Co. 23 Feb. 1812. His mother was probably Anne Mitchell Gray, whose father, Joshua Mitchell, in his will, signed 8 Feb. 1792 (prob. 28 Nov. 1794) left to his daughter Ann Gray "the first folio volume of Bishop Tilotson's Sermons"; and he named son John Pope Mitchell, who witnessed deeds of Joshua Gray in 1790 and 1798; Levin Mitchell witnessed the will (Worc. Wills JW18:13). John P. Mitchell in his will (prob. 2 Apr. 1810) named a son Rufus (Worc. Wills MH4:202).

In the 1800 census for Worc. Co. Joshua Gray is listed near Hampton, Isaac, and Peter Long, and in 1810 near Hampton, Samuel, and Isaac Long. Though the family Bible supplies no parents for Comfort Long, her husband's close associations with Solomon Long and the fact that Solomon's wife was Comfort strongly suggest that they were her parents. On 18 Jan. 1806 Joshua and Comfort Gray sold to Thomas S. Fassitt for £243 "Cumberland" on Holly Branch adjacent Tewesberry (Worc. Deeds Y:1).

Joshua Gray signed his will 1 Feb. 1812 (prob. 10 Mar. 1812), bequeathing to wife Comfort all profits of his land; to daughters Molly and Ann Gray, part of the plantation where the dwelling house is, "along a line between Elizabeth Long and myself along Dukeberry Branch," then to the line of Silver Street; to three sons Levin, Henry B., and Walton Gray, all other lands, a tract "Joshua" when Walton becomes 21; and he mentioned son Jesse Gray. Mitchell Gray was executor. The widow Comfort renounced all right in the property (Worc. Wills MH4:318). Comfort Gray signed her will 31 July 1830 (prob. 21 Apr. 1831), naming sons Levin and Walton Gray (Worc. Wills MH27:474). Dates are from family Bible owned by Mrs. Ralph L. Brittingham. Children (born Worc. Co., Md., probably in Queponco Hundred): (1) Mary (Molly), b. 4 Nov. 1792, mar. (23 Dec. 1813) Joseph Ennis; (2) Horton, b. 18 Oct. 1794, d. young; (3) Henry M. (or B.), b. 5 Mar.

1797; (4) Joshua, b. 10 Dec. 1798, d. 12 Sept. 1800 (or 1809); (5) Jesse, b. 5 Jan. 1801, d. Dec. 1821; (6) Rufus, b. 24 Aug. 1803, d. 29 Aug. 1803; (8) Ann Elizabeth, b. 21 Aug. 1807; (9) Levin Mitchell, b. 9 Feb. 1810, d. 1 July 1812, and
vii. Walton, b. 25 Oct. 1804; d. 6 July 1834; see No. 20 below.

17 SEWELL LONG⁵ (David⁴ Solomon³ Daniel² Samuel¹), b. Som. Co., Md. c1775; d. Som. Co., presumably in the Perryhawken area (east of Princess Anne) c1830; mar. ?2nd (lic. Som. 22 Sept. 1801) Mary C. Powell, his first cousin, daughter of Britain and Sarah (Long) POWELL (see pp. 426-27, No. 4), b. c1779; d. Perryhawken area c1830; descendants of their daughter Margaret report that Margaret, left an orphan at an early age, was reared by a Layfield family. Sewell was listed in the 1810 Som. Co. census in Pocomoke Hundred (the area of Rehobeth and Morum-sco), and in 1820 in the Perryhawken area. Since he left no estate, there is no direct evidence that he was the father of the children listed below; however, in the 1820 Eastern Shore census records he is the only Long not otherwise accounted for with a family of children whose ages correspond to those of the children listed. Moreover, descendants of these children all report that these their ancestors were brothers and sisters, though no one knows the name of the common ancestor. Children (born Som. Co., Md.):

- i. John Handy, b. 1800; d. by 8 Aug. 1865; descendants report his middle name as Handy, suggesting that his mother may have been a previous wife of Sewell named Handy.
- ii. Josiah, b. c1804; d. 1850/60; single.
- iii. Sarah H., b. c1809/10; d. probably spring of 1848; mar. 1st Zadock Gibbons; 2nd James Brittingham.
- iv. David, b. c1812/13; d. 1880/90; see No. 21 below.
- v. Elizabeth, b. c1815; d. 1860/66; mar. Purnell H. DRYDEN (p. 385, No. 21).
- vi. Margaret, b. 1819/20; d. Som. Co. c1897; mar. 1st (lic. Som. 30 Nov. 1847) William T. Elliott (c1824-1848/49); 2nd (lic. Som. 3 Jan. 1850) Samuel T. Parsons (1824/25-1851); 3rd (lic. Som. 1 Dec. 1852) William H. ENNIS, b. c1821/22. Youngest son, by second marriage (born ?Perryhawken):
1. Sidney Columbus ENNIS, b. 14 Feb. 1857; d. Pocomoke City, Md. 8 Oct. 1930; mar. (Antioch Meth. Church, Princess Anne, Md. 16 Dec. 1879) Rose Matthews, b. 14 Feb. 1860; d. Pocomoke, 22 Feb. 1937; both buried Rehobeth Baptist Cemetery. Sixth child (born Rehobeth, Som. Co.):
vi. Mary Lee ENNIS, b. 8 June 1891; d. 13 Jan. 1977; mar. (Baptist parsonage, Marion Station, Md. 19 June 1908) JESSE HARMON JOHNSON (A15).
- vii. Mary Jane, b. c1821/22; mar. (lic. Baltimore, Md. 8 Dec. 1846) Peter Byrnes.

18 JOSIAH LONG⁵ (Jesse Wing⁴ David³ Daniel² Samuel¹), b. Worc. Co., 1 Aug. 1797; d. Som. Co. Jan. 1875; mar. (lic. Som. 23 Aug. 1825) Elizabeth Miles, daughter of John Miles (of William), b. 1808/9. On 17 Apr. 1819, for $345, Josiah Long sold to (his elder brother?) Levin Long part of two tracts, "Piney Point" (adjacent land from David Long to Jesse Long) and "Haphazard." On 16 Dec. 1820 Josiah Long of Worc. Co. purchased from Jesse Long for $600 house and lot in New Town formerly the property of Josiah Long deceased, and he sold to (his brother?) Jesse Long, for $464, 58 acres of "Piney Point" and "Timber Grove." On 5 Apr. 1824 Josiah and John Long of Worc. Co. stood security on a bond for (their brother?) Jesse Long, appointed constable of Pitts Creek Hundred. On 11 Oct. 1826 Josiah Long of Worc. Co. conveyed to (his brother?) Jesse Long, for $140, part of land formerly the property of Levin Long deceased, "Piney Point," "Pittsborough," "Haphazard," "Long's Union," and "James Security," being 1/5 of the land owned by Levin; at the time Elizabeth Long was wife of Josiah. Finally, in 8 Sept. 1827, Josiah Long of Worc. Co. conveyed to Capt. Ebenezer Hearn for $165 houses and lot whereon Hearn was living (Worc. Deeds AJ:350; AL:157, 161; AP:562; AS:207; AT:181). Probably soon after 1827 Josiah moved to Som. Co., settling near Rehobeth. On 27 May 1845 James Dryden was appointed by the Court trustee for creditors of Josiah Long, who deeded all estate in trust to Dryden (Som. Deeds 64:271). On 3 Aug. 1850 Josiah and wife Elizabeth, William Porter and wife Sally, James Dryden and wife Harriet, and Leah C. Miles, for $388.65, sold their interest in land of John Miles, of William (Som. Deeds 68:404). There can be no doubt that this Josiah Long is the son of Jesse Wing Long rather than the posthumous son of Josiah (d. 1774). Rev. James Murray, son-in-law of the other

Josiah, wrote that Josiah Long of Jesse was a boot and shoe-maker. Children: Joseph H., b. 1829; John s., b. 1831; and George, b. 1837; and eldest son:

- i. James W. P., b. 22 Dec. 1827; d. Som. Co. near Rehobeth, 9 Aug. 1917; mar. Mary C. Powell, daughter of George and Nancy T. (HARRIS) POWELL (see p. 399, No. 6iii), b. 27 Aug. 1835; d. 30 July 1920; both buried Pocomoke City. Mary, whose parents died early, was brought up by James and Harriet (Miles) Dryden, the latter an aunt of James Long. Son of James and Mary (Powell) Long:
1. Harry Columbus, b. 11 Mar. 1878; d. 17 Jan. 1920; mar. ANNIE L. POWELL (644).

19 JOSIAH LONG⁵ (Josiah⁴ David³ Daniel² Samuel¹), b. 1774; d. New Town, Md. by 12 Jan. 1813 (bond); mar. (lic. Worc. 26 June 1801) Sally Henderson, widow of John Laws Henderson (c1770-1800) and mother of Sally Laws Henderson (1799-1828), who mar. Capt. John White Long (No. 13iv). Josiah's son-in-law, the Rev. James Murray, in his History of Pocomoke, 1888, wrote (p. 91) that his wife's father, Josiah, served his apprenticeship with his uncle, David Long, Sr. [as a tailor] (No. 13) and that Josiah was one of the earliest hotel keepers in New Town; his widow, with Mrs. Bennet Clarvoe, carried on the business for a time.

It was evidently this Josiah Long, "of Northampton Co., Va.," who on 14 Apr. 1801, for £18.15, sold to William King of Som. Co. "Amittie," bought 4 Aug. 1772, as well as all his right and interest in adjacent lands originally obtained by Josiah Long, father of said Josiah (Som. Deeds 34:134). On 3 Mar. 1812 Josiah Long of Worc. Co. bought from (his cousin and wife's son-in-law) John W. Long, for $38, 4 3/4 acres of "Piney Point," on the county road from New Town to Cedar Hall Landing (Worc. Deeds AC:177). Children (born New Town, Worc. Co., Md.):

- i. Elizabeth, b. c1802/3; d. 1820/21.
- ii. Catherine, b. c1804/5; d. 1850/55; single.
- iii. Mary (Polly), b. 10 Mar. 1809; d. 24 Mar. 1885; mar. 1st Thomas D. ATKINSON; 2nd Rev. James Murray; see No. 22.

20 WALTON GRAY⁶ (Comfort⁵ Solomon⁴ David³ John² Samuel¹), b. Worc. Co. 25 Oct. 1804; d. Worc. Co. 6 July 1834; mar. (lic. Worc. 2 Sept. 1829) Elizabeth Riley, daughter of Stephen and Mary Franklin (Purnell) Riley, b. 1812/13; she mar. 2nd (lic. Worc. 19 Nov. 1839) James Henry Holston; the family is listed in the 1850 Worc. Co. census, #763, 9th election district, with children Mary E. (1840), Delia (1842), Adaliza (1845), Charles E. (1847), and Thomas W. (1848). Children of Walton and Elizabeth (Riley) Gray (born Worcester Co., Md., probably near Newark):

- i. Stephen Riley, b. 11 Nov. 1831; d. 22 Aug. 1905; mar. (lic. Worc. 13 Apr. 1858) Sarah E. Holston, b. 31 Jan. 1839; d. 8 Sept. 1918; both buried Newark (Md.) Cemetery.
- ii. Anne Elizabeth, b. 4 Jan. 1833; d. 24 Feb. 1883; mar. (lic. Worc. 26 Dec. 1855) William James Dryden.
- iii. Rachel Riley Franklin, b. 24 Jan. 1835; d. 5 June 1899; mar. JOSIAH JONES BOSTON (152).

21 DAVID LONG⁶ (Sewell⁵ David⁴ Solomon³ Daniel² Samuel¹), b. Som. Co. 1812/13; d. presumably Som. Co. 1880/1900; mar. (lic. Som. 15 Oct. 1834) Sarah L. Gibbons (1814-1905); she is buried in St. Andrew's Churchyard, Princess Anne. He is listed in the 1850 census for Som. Co. (#1010) in Dublin District [Perryhawken], east of Princess Anne, in the vicinity of Purnell H. Dryden (#933), his brother-in-law, and John Long (#1032), his brother. David was a farmer. His second son and fifth child (b. Perryhawken):

- i. Santa Ann, b. 18 Mar. 1840; d. Som. Co. 25 Apr. 1911; mar. (lic. Som. Co. 10 Mar. 1863) Mary A. P. King, daughter of Robert and Juliana (Gibbons) King, b. 6 Feb. 1845; d. 14 Sept. 1918; both buried Emmanuel Meth. Cemetery, East Princess Anne, Md. Their eldest child:
1. Ida Priscilla, b. 4 May 1864; d. 28 Sept. 1928; mar. her father's first cousin, Rufus James DRYDEN (see p. 385, No. 21x).

22 MARY (POLLY) LONG⁶ (Josiah⁵ Josiah⁴ David³ Daniel² Samuel¹), b. New Town, Worc. Co. 10 Mar. 1809; d. Pocomoke City, 24 Mar. 1885; mar. 1st (lic. Som. 17 Feb. 1829) Thomas Dixon ATKINSON, son of Capt. John Fountain and Sarah Lane

(Dixon) Atkinson, b. c1806; d. c1835; 2nd (New Town, 11 Jan. 1838) Rev. James MURRAY, b. New Town, 11 Aug. 1814; d. Pocomoke City, 26 Apr. 1886, buried with wife in Pitts Creek Presby. Cem., Pocomoke. Of the four children by the second marriage, Harriet Ann (10 July 1846 - 30 June 1930) and her husband, the Rev. Albert Jump (1838-1901), were grandparents of movie comedian Jack Oakie (born Lewis Delaney Offield, 12 Nov. 1903; d. 23 Jan. 1978). Only child by first marriage:

- i. Sallie E. Atkinson, b. New Town 6 Jan. 1830; d. Pocomoke 9 Mar. 1875; mar. (lic. Worc. 15 Mar. 1847) Dr. John Lowder HEARNE, son of Gen. Ebenezer and Margaret (Stevenson) Hearne (see p. 432, No. 4), b. New Town, 19 Mar. 1823; d. Pocomoke, 24 Jan. 1872. Their children (born New Town):
1. Mary Margaret, b. 16 July 1848; d. 24 Aug. 1875; single.
2. Elizabeth Chew, b. 1 Aug. 1851; d. 15 Oct. 1913; mar. JAMES GROFF STEVENSON (257).
3. Ebenezer ("Eben"), b. 26 Nov. 1854; d. 10 June 1944; single.
4. Lavinia Grace ("Venie"), b. 8 Mar. 1860; d. 10 July 1944; single.

MARSHALL FAMILY OF SOMERSET COUNTY

There are evidently several different Marshall families on the Eastern Shore. The earliest known progenitor of this particular Marshall family, Henry Potter, settled possibly as early as the 1640's in St. Mary's Co., Md., where his future son-in-law, George Marshall, settled by 1663. Potter's grandson, Adrian Marshall, removed to Somerset Co., Md., by 1701.

1 HENRY POTTER, b. c1619; d. St. Mary's Co., Md. by 1 Mar. 1659/60; mar. (c1648) Elizabeth---, b. 1619/20; d. St. Mary's Co. by 25 Mar. 1682/83; she mar. 2nd (by 16 Jan. 1660/61) William Green. In a deposition of 2 Oct. 1648 Potter gave his age as 29 (Md. Archives 4:411). On 8 May 1654 Henry Potter, of St. Michael's Hundred, St. Mary's Co., planter, for 600 lbs. tobacco deeded to Martin Kerke one half the plantation on which Potter had resided the past five years, containing 37 1/2 acres (ibid. 41:93). Declaring his age to be 40, Potter signed his will 22 Dec. 1659, naming daughter Audry sole legatee (Ann. Wills 1:145). In her will, signed 7/9 Jan. 1682/83, Elizabeth Green, of St. Mary's Co., aged 63 years "or thereabouts," made bequests, among others, to grandchildren Adrian Marshall (under 21) and Thomas Potter, also Adry Dixon, and desired that all cattle be divided between the children of Thomas Dixon and Henry Potter (Ann. Wills 4:11). For additional details, see Notes, p. 452). Children (born presumably St. Mary's Co., Md.):

- i. Audrey (Adria), b. c1649; d. c1680; mar. George MARSHALL; see No. 2 below.
- ii. Thomas, b. c1651; murdered by "supposed Indians unknown" at or near Pt. Lookout, St. Mary's Co. 7 May 1681 (ibid. 5:331).
- iii. Henry, b. c1653; d. c1684; mar. Alice DIXON (p. 379, No. 1).
- iv. Christianna, b. c1655; mar. Thomas DIXON (p. 379, No. 1).

2 GEORGE MARSHALL, b. c1640; d. probably St. Mary's Co. by 1 Dec. 1675; mar. (c1664) Adria Potter, daughter of Henry and Elizabeth (above). Marshall had emigrated to Md. by 1663, for on 4 Dec. 1663 he demanded land for transporting himself, Anthony Welch, Lewis Ellis, Thomas Vaughn, Richard Jones, and Hugh Carmean; he assigned his rights to 300 acres of land to William Moor (Md. Land Office, Early Settlers, Bk. 6:37). George Marshall, of St. Mary's Co., "being commanded out with the Indian March" (i. e. to march against the Indians), made his will 2 Sept. 1675, bequeathing all his estate to son Adryan Marshall, Thomas Potter to be executor (St. Mary's Wills, P. C. No. 1:24). Their son:

3 ADRIAN MARSHALL, son of George and Adria (Potter) Marshall, b. St. Mary's Co. c1665; d. Som. Co., Md. by 12 Mar. 1716/17; mar. (1701) Elizabeth Long Boston, widow of ISAAC BOSTON (2), daughter of Samuel and Jane (Minshull) LONG (q.v.), b. 19 Feb. 1671/72; d. Som. Co. by 21 Mar. 1716/17; she was a widow when she signed her will 12 Mar. 1716/17. On 2 June 1713 Adrian Marshall bought "Long Lott" from Randall and Sarah Long, land granted to Samuel Long 24 Oct. 1679 (Som. Deeds IKL:139). For further details, see Notes, p. 452. Children (born Morumsco, Som. Co.):

- i. George, b. c1702/3; d. by 2 Oct. 1760; mar. Mary Adams; he inherited "Long Lott."
- ii. Samuel, b. c1704; d. c1755.
- iii. Adria, b. c1707.
- iv. Thomas, b. c1712/13; d. by 20 June 1786; see No. 4 below.
- v. Adrian, b. c1714/16; d. probably before 1730.

4 THOMAS MARSHALL, son of Adrian and Elizabeth (Long) Marshall, b. Morumsco, Som. Co. c1712/13; d. Som. Co. by 20 June 1786; mar. (by 5 Mar. 1736/37) Jane Heath, widow of Abraham Heath (Ann. Accts. 14:332). In four depositions in which Thomas Marshall reported his age, his birth falls between 1707 and 1715; tax lists suggest 1712/14. (For additional information, see Notes on p. 452.) On 30 Nov. 1742 Thomas Marshall, planter, secured a grant, "Marshall Inheritance," 438 acres on Morumsco Creek, part of which he sold in 1746 to Jeffrey Long (Som. Deeds 21:217). In 1751 Marshall was appointed a guardian to the children of his half-brother, ISAAC BOSTON (6). And to his nephew ISAAC BOSTON (10) Marshall loaned money in 1756, taking a mortgage on his land, part of which Boston deeded to his uncle in 1757. On 20 Apr. 1774 Thomas Marshall, for love and affection and 5 shillings, conveyed to Stephen Marshall of Accomack Co., Va., 581 acres: "Marshall's Inheritance" (309 acres), "Turkey Trap" (44 acres), part of "Mitchells Lott" called "Chance" (75 acres) and "Privilege" (53 acres) (Som. Deeds 27:160). On 21 Apr. 1774 he deeded to son Isaac 523 acres: "Boston's Green" (240 acres), "Chance" (25 acres), "Shoemakers Meadow" (39 acres), "Saywards Purchase" (19 acres) and "Boston's Purchase" (200 acres) (Som. Deeds 27:158).

In his will, signed 24 Apr. 1786, Marshall made bequests of money to grandsons John Harris (of John), named executor, George Harris (of John), and Thomas Marshall (who was to have all movable estate); to granddaughters Martha Marshall (of Isaac), Mary Marshall (of Thomas) and Mary Harris (of John). Witnesses were Purnell Outten, George Howard, Sarah Coulbourn (Som. Wills EB1:245). Children (born Morumsco):

- i. Mary, b. c1737; mar. (Coventry, 28 May 1757) John HARRIS (p. 398, No. 3).
- ii. Thomas, b. c1739; d. Som. Co. by 1786; mar. (Coventry, 25 Mar. 1766) Esther Marshall.
- iii. Isaac, b. c1741; d. Som. Co. by 4 Nov. 1788 (Som. Accts. EB 16:240); mar. (Coventry, 17 Feb. 1768) Sarah Tilghman.
- iv. Stephen, b. c1743; d. Som. Co. by 16 Dec. 1794 (Som. Wills EB17:343); mar. (Coventry, 1770) Mary Gunby.

MARSHALL FAMILY OF VIRGINIA

(see Note, p. 453)

WILLIAM ALLEN MARSHALL, b. ?Worc. Co. 28 Mar. 1759; d. Worc. Co. 23 Oct. 1816; mar. (Worc. Co. 2 Aug. 1803) Dolly Bishop, daughter of Charles Bishop, b. 12 Apr. 1781; d. Worc. Co. 4 Oct. 1842; she mar. 2nd (lic. Worc. Co. 10 Jan. - Bible 12 Jan. 1817) Capt. John Bishop, son of William, b. 29 Apr. 1763; d. 5 Oct. 1829. By her second marriage Dolly was the mother of: William (11 Nov. 1817), James Byard (31 Jan. 1822 - 24 Mar. 1849); and George Wilson (9 June 1826 - 6 Mar. 1905). On 10 Nov. 1812 for $68 William A. Marshall conveyed to Betsy Marshall a negro girl Mary, aged 7, Betsy's mother Dolly Marshall to have possession during her life (Worc. Deeds AC:489). All dates from family Bible of Esau Boston (108), now owned by Miss Pansy E. Boston of Wilmington. Children of William and Dolly Marshall:

- i. Elizabeth, b. c1804; mar. (lic. Worc. 6 Oct. 1824) John Anderson.
- ii. Mary, b. c1806; d. 1840/47; mar. (lic. Worc. 22 Jan. 1833) Jacob Payne.
- iii. John D., b. 1807; d. 1861.
- iv. Zipporah P., b. 23 Dec. 1809; d. 31 May 1838; mar. (lic. Worc. & Acco. Co. 8 Oct. 1829) John D. Welbourn.
- v. Sarah Ann, b. 1 Jan. 1812; d. 1897; mar. ESAU BOSTON (108).

MERRILL FAMILY OF WORCESTER COUNTY

The Merrills, like the Hendersons, Benstons, Houstons, and others, settled in the Pitts Creek area, at the boundary between Virginia and Maryland, taking up land in both Accomack Co., Va., and in Somerset Co., Md. (in that part now in Worcester Co.). The Merrills had settled there by 1683. The names are so similar and the records so scanty that it is difficult with certainty to reconstruct the various lines of the family. Particularly no satisfactory connection has been found for the William Merrill (d. 1783) whose daughter Leah mar. (evidently) her cousin, Samuel Merrill Boston (56). This account is based on the researches of Mrs. Anne G. Greene of Philadelphia.

1 WILLIAM MERRILL, SR., b. c1645; d. Som. Co. by 7 Oct. 1710. On 5 June 1683 Merrill purchased from William and Elizabeth Brittingham of Accomack Co. 100 acres, "The Adventure," at the "divisionall line run between Maryland and Virginia" (Som. Deeds 6:626). On 18 May 1694 William Merrill, Sr., for 1200 pounds of tobacco, bought from William Price, Sr., 250 acres, "Arrococo," on the east side of the Pocomoke River (Som. Deeds 7:184, 15:5). In 1700 Merrill secured a patent to "Gilley's Adventure," 400 acres on the Nanticoke River in what is now Wicomico Co. On 19 Oct. 1709 he purchased from Ralph and Mary Lisney of Accomack Co. 300 acres, "Little Town," on the south side of Pocomoke River. In his will, signed 23 Jan. 1709/10, Merrill made careful disposition of most of his land: to daughter Mary Baker, 50 acres where she now lives, the land to go after her death to William Baker; to son William Merrill, 200 acres where he now lives (land to pass to Thomas if William dies without issue); to son Thomas, 100 acres on the other side of Monatocks Branch (to John, if no issue); to son John, 200 acres on the south side of Nanticoke River, adjacent Lewis Jones' plantation; to son Francis, 200 acres, part of tract given to John; to son Argalus, 45 acres (to son Joshua if no issue); to son Esau, dwelling plantation (to son Joshua if no issue); to wife Elizabeth, one half of dwelling plantation for life, then to son Esau. He also named sons Esau, Jacob, Joshua, and Joseph (in that order) and daughters Elizabeth, Perthnie, and Comfort. Executors were to be wife Elizabeth and Robert Mills. Witnesses included Robert Pitt (Ann. Wills 13:137). According to deeds, William Merrill, Jr. was living in Accomack Co. between 1718 and 1728, as was Jacob in 1722. Three of the children:

- i. John, b. c1679; d. 13 Aug. 1760; see No. 2 below.
- ii. Parthenia (Perthnie), b. c1691; mar. Charles HENDERSON (p. 400, No. 6).
- iii. Joshua, b. c1695; d. 14 Apr. 1767; see No. 6 below.

2 JOHN MERRILL, son of William, Sr., b. c1679; d. Worc. Co. 13 Aug. 1760 (Coventry). By his will, signed 21 Jan. 1759 (prob. 23 Jan. 1761) he bequeathed to son John (executor) two-thirds of "my houses, orchards," and other property; to son Jacob, the other third; to son Levin (under age), negro Jack; to son William, a negro girl; and he also named daughters. Witnesses were Joshua, Thomas, and Scarbrough Merrill (Worc. Wills JW 3:33). One son (born Pitts Creek, Somerset Co., Md.):

- i. John, b. c1715; see No. 3 below.

3 JOHN MERRILL, son of John, b. c1715; d. Worc. Co. ?; mar. (by Mar. 1744/45) Elizabeth Pitts, daughter of John and Hannah (HENDERSON) Pitts (see pp. 401-2). She was named Elizabeth Merrill in the wills of her father, 3 Mar. 1744/45, of her mother, 29 Mar. 1751, and of her brother William 5 Apr. 1751, who also made bequests to William and Levin Merrill, sons of John Merrill. Sons (born Pitts Creek, Worc. Co., Md.):

- i. William, b. 25 Mar. 1747 (Coventry).
- ii. Levin, b. c1749; d. by 11 Mar. 1828; see No. 4 below.

4 LEVIN MERRILL, son of John, b. Pitts Creek, c1749; d. Pitts Creek by 11 Mar. 1828; mar. (c1790) Sally Brittingham, daughter of Purnell Brittingham (d. 1815), b. c1770; d. by 11 Mar. 1828. In his will, signed 10 Dec. 1827, Levin bequeathed to wife Sally a third of his estate and the plantation adjacent Samuel Boston and James Merrill; to son Levin, executor, the plantation "where I live," half a tract of swamp adjacent David Roach, also half a tract of swamp bought of Elizabeth Taylor; to eldest son John, the other half of the swamp left to Levin. He also named son Isaac, daughters Nancy White, Mary Merrill, Katherine James, Sally Copes, Harriett Merrill, and Maria Merrill, and grandchildren Levin and Elizabeth Lambden. Witnesses were

Levin B. Houston, Samuel Boston, Levi Merrill (Worc. Wills MH27: 307-10). His wife Sally signed her will 15 Dec. 1827, naming daughters Sally Copes, Katharine James, Nancy White, and sons John and Levin (executor); granddaughter Elizabeth Lambden. Witnesses were Levin B. Houston, Samuel Boston (Worc. Wills MH27:310-11). Two sons (born Pitts Creek, Worc. Co., Md.):

- i. John, b. 5 Jan. 1791 (Coventry); d. by 15 Nov. 1844.
- ii. Levin, b. 26 Jan. 1800; d. 15 Mar. 1853; see No. 5 below.

5 LEVIN MERRILL, son of Levin and Sally (Brittingham) Merrill, b. 26 Jan. 1800; d. Worc. Co. 15 Mar. 1853; mar. (lic. Worc. 11 Dec. 1822) Julia Ann Barrett, daughter of James and Catherine (Layfield) Barrett (see p. 410, No. 12), b. 14 Feb. 1801; d. 10 July 1871 (?1891). Levin Merrill is listed in the 1850 Worc. Co. census, #1425 in 1st Election District, farmer. Two youngest children (born Pitts Creek, Worc. Co., Md.):

- viii. John S., b. 1838; d. 1887; mar. Harriet E. Taylor. Son: 1. Edward Clifton, b. 3 Oct. 1862; d. 24 Sept. 1888; mar. ALMIRA VIRGINIA PILCHARD (663).

ix. Isaac Harrison, b. 7 Oct. 1840; d. Pocomoke City, Md. 21 Oct. 1906; mar. (lic. Worc. 3 Dec. 1861; family record 4 Dec.) Annie Burley Primrose, b. 18 Feb. 1845; d. Pocomoke, 5 Jan. 1916; he was a prominent merchant in Pocomoke, specializing in shoes and men's furnishings. Their daughter:

1. Ann Cannon, b. 22 Mar. 1867; d. 4 Nov. 1941; mar. WILLIAM HENRY WALTERS (D10).

6 JOSHUA MERRILL, son of William (No. 1 above), b. probably at Pitts Creek, (then) Som. Co., Md. c1695; d. probably at Pitts Creek, Worc. Co. 14 Apr. 1767 (Coventry); mar. 1st (c1720) Mary Pryer (Pryor, Prier), daughter of Thomas and Mary Pryer, b. Annemessex, Som. Co. 23 Nov. 1690; d. c1744/46; he mar. 2nd (c1747) Mary---, b. c1722; d. Worc. Co. by 2 July 1790. (For substantiating explanation and fuller details, see Note, p. 453.)

On 18 Nov. 1719 David Linzey and wife Esther for £25 conveyed to Mary Pryer, widow, and Mary her daughter part of "Beard Neck," between the Annemessex River and Morumsco Creek, 52 acres adjacent the land of Thomas Pryer. On 21 Aug. 1740 John White and "afsd widow Mary[Pryor] his wife as also ... Joshua Merrill & the afsd widow's daughter Mary his wife," all of Somerset Co., for £50 conveyed the same tract, part of "Beard Neck," to John Scott, the land described as on the west side of a Beaver Dam, beginning at a small branch that divides Robert Dukes' land and Thomas Pryor's (Som. Deeds 14:19, 21: 171). On 21 Nov. 1727 Joshua Merrill of Som. Co. sold to (his brother) Esau Merrill, of Acco. Co., Va. for £8, the 45 acres his father had left to Argulus Merrill, their brother, who died without issue, the land thus coming to Joshua.

In 1739 Joshua bought the interest of John Henderson, Sr., in a 175 acre tract, "Morel Clock" or "Mortlock" (Som. Deeds 16:125, 20: 91). In 1745 he secured a patent for 315 acres "Security," described as a resurvey to add vacant land to the 5 acres of "Double Purchase," part of the tract originally granted to James Henderson in 1685, but the 1745 debt book shows that "Security" included the 175 acres of "More Clack." On 29 Mar. 1749 James Henderson for 5 shillings released to Joshua Merrill his interest in "Security" (315 acres), granted to Merrill 13 June 1745 (Worc. Deeds B:152). Joshua continued to enlarge this holding. In 1748 he patented vacant land adjoining "Security," 142 acres which he called "Merrills Addition." In 1762 a resurvey of "Merrills Addition" showed a total of 201 acres, now called "Merrills Addition Enlarged."

In Som. Co. Court in Mar. 1749 Joshua Merrill was the informer when Mary Reddin was presented to the Grand Jury for bearing a bastard child about 1 July 1748 (Som. Jud. 1747/49, p. 193). On 30 Oct. 1761 Joshua witnessed the will of his brother-in-law, Charles Henderson.

In his will, signed 9 Apr. 1767, Joshua Merrill bequeathed to his wife Mary the "benefit of all my land whereon I now live, beginning at the first Bounder of Bostons Hardship." He also named children William, Sarah, Betty, and the four youngest: Lehea, Eleanor, Joshua, and Ann. Witnesses were Jacob Boston, Thomas Marshall, Elijah Jarman. The will was proved 25 Apr. 1767 (Worc. Wills 36:70). Mary Merrill, Joshua's widow, signed her will 25 Jan. 1790; besides numerous bequests to the family of her daughter, Leah Boston, she named daughters Sally Long, Betty Tull, Nancy Wood, Nelly Tull, Ann Adams, and Mary Layfield (probably born after her father's death), as well as son William (Worc. Wills JW13:258). Since she made no mention of son Joshua, he probably died young. Two of the daughters (born Pitts Creek, Worc. Co., Md.):

- i. Elizabeth, b. 15 June 1750 (Coventry); mar. (Coventry, 11 May 1769) Thomas TULL, Jr. (see p. 434, No. 7).
- ii. Leah, b. c1756; mar. (c1780) ESAU BOSTON (31).

MILLS FAMILY OF WORCESTER COUNTY

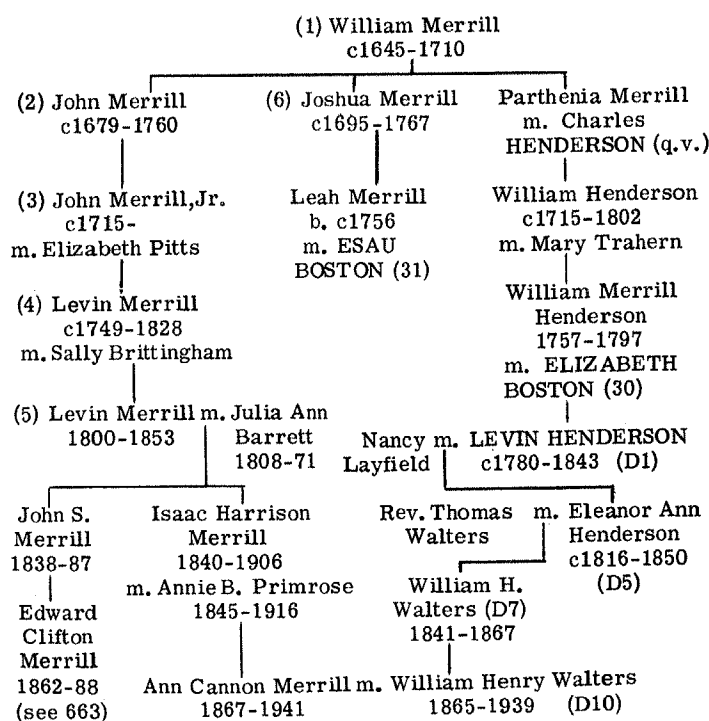

The Mills family, like the Benstons, Hendersons, Houstons, and Merrills, settled in the Pitts Creek area, at the dividing line between Accomack Co., Va., and Somerset (later Worcester) Co., Md. They evidently arrived late in the seventeenth century and acquired land which straddled the dividing line.

The English ancestry of this Mills family was traced by the late Mrs. Mary Turpin Layton in the form of a pedigree chart prepared for Mrs. Minette Turpin Dick. The family descends from a Thomas Mills, of Trewith, Devonshire, in the early fifteenth century, who mar. Juliana Ross, of Gloucestershire. Their grandson, Robert Mills (b. 1456), high sheriff of Surrey in the time of Richard III, was grandfather of Henry Mills (d. 21 Jan. 1573), sheriff of London, who mar. Elizabeth Law (d. 10 Aug. 1585, bur. Croyden). Their great-grandson, William Mills (bapt. 25 Aug. 1588) is, according to Mrs. Layton, the father of Thomas (d. 1709), Alexander, John, and James Mills, who migrated to Accomack Co., where the latter two each patented 1500 acres in 1673. In view of the lack of substantiating evidence, however, the connection between the Mills family of Worcester Co. and this Mills family of England would appear to be open to question. The record begins with the sons of Jannet Smith Mills.

1 [ALEXANDER] MILLS, b. c1635?; d. Acco. Co. ? Feb. 1680/81 (?); mar. Janet (Jennet, Jane) Smith, who, according to Mrs. Layton, was widow of Joshua Huit, and mar. Alexander Mills before 29 July 1658; she was sister of William Smith of Cherrystone, Northampton Co., Va.

William Smith, of Som. Co., Md., in his will, signed 13 Apr. 1713 (prob. 10 Oct. 1720) bequeathed to his four nephews John, William, Robert, and Samuel Mills, sons of his sister Jannet Mills, 400 acres of "Cherrystone" at the decease of their mother, and to nephew Smith Mills 100 acres of "Cherrystone"; he also mentioned nephew Moses Mills. Jannet Mills was named executor; witnesses were Isaac Pyper, William Mills (Ann. Wills 16:323).

Smith Mills, "nephew" of William Smith, was identified by Mrs.

Layton as son of a hypothetical sister of Jannet and William Smith, who had mar. a brother of Alexander Mills, but in the light of the evidence Smith Mills is a great-nephew of William Smith and a grandson of Jannet Mills. Children of Jannet Smith Mills and her husband:

- i. John, b. c1670; d. by 19 Nov. 1734; see No. 2 below.
- ii. William, b. c1675; d. by 21 Mar. 1750/51; see No. 3 below.
- iii. Robert, b. c1678; d. before 1750; see No. 5 below.
- iv. Samuel, b. c1680; d. by 29 Nov. 1751; see No. 8 below.

2 JOHN MILLS, son of Janet Smith Mills, b. c1670; d. Som. Co., Md. by 19 Nov. 1734. Described in a deed as "turner," on 24 Oct. 1713 he purchased from John Jones of Acco. Co. 250 acres, "Thrumcapps Field," south side of Pocomoke River (Som. Deeds 10:943). In his will, signed 20 Feb. 1729/30, he left to eldest daughter Rebecca "Thrumcapps Field"; younger daughters Hannah, Mary, Esther were granted liberty of the same as a home and were to have a fifth part of "Cherry Stones"; eldest son William (executor) was bequeathed the southeast end of "Thrumcapps Field"; middle son Robert got remaining part of land "lying in Virginia"; youngest son Alexander got 200 acres "Kingsland"; no land was left to son Nathan. Overseers were to be Robert King, John Caldwell, Thomas Layfield. Witnesses were William Mills, John Shanklin, Thomas Layfield (Ann. Wills 21:256). Second son:

- i. Robert, b. c1700; d. Acco. Co., Va. by 28 Dec. 1756; in his will, signed 25 Sept. 1751, he bequeathed to "cousin" Robert Mills, son of Smith Mills, 100 acres ("Chapman's Adventure") in Acco. Co. and 25 acres in Worc. Co., adjacent to it. He also named brothers Nathan and William Mills, and "my well beloved Elizabeth Shanklin." John and Hugh Mills were witnesses (Nottingham, p. 144).

3 WILLIAM MILLS, son of Janet Smith Mills, b. c1675; d. Som. Co. by 21 Mar. 1750/51; mar. (c1703) Hannah Noble, daughter of William and Jennett Noble, b. Som. Co. 10 Apr. 1686. In his will, signed 20 Aug. 1750, William Mills bequeathed to "beloved cozen" [i. e. nephew] Smith Mills, son of Robert Mills, deceased, "my part or parcel" of land which "my Mother Mills" lived on. Son Samuel Mills was to receive a shilling. Two grandsons Stephen and William Mills were to have the plantation "where I now live on after their father and Mothers decease," Stephen to have the end next to Samuel Handy, William the end next to Noble Tull. He also named daughters Isbell Mills, Jennet Beavens, Hannah Harvey, son Jonathan Mills (to have carpenter's and turner's tools), and grandsons William Beavans, William Smith, Mills Bailey. Witnesses were Samuel and Mary Handy, Noble Tull (Som. Wills EB4:6). William's son Samuel would appear to have been father of grandson, Stephen (see No. 4 below).

4 STEPHEN MILLS, son of Samuel and grandson of William Mills (No. 3 above), b. c1730; d. Som. Co. by 12 Feb. 1794; mar. (probably) Sarah Porter. In his will, signed 23 Jan. 1793, he named son Thomas (100 acres adjacent Grave ridge), wife Sarah, son William (remaining land, and carpenter's and cooper's tools), and six daughters: Isabella, Mary, Sarah, Elizabeth, Alice, and Ruth. Witnesses were George and Thomas Waters, Joshua Mitchell (Som. Wills EB17:297). Sarah Mills in her will, signed 19 Jan. 1811 (prob. 19 Mar. 1811) named daughter-in-law Sophia Mills, daughter Ebby Matthew's child Mariah, and daughters Molly Bell, Sally Maddux, Elizabeth Flowers, Alice Landon, and Ruth Dryden. Executors were to be "friends" Samuel Taylor, Isaac M. Adams. Witnesses were Jonathan Mills, Levin Boston (Som. Wills EB23:161). Evidently their youngest daughter (born Som. Co., Md.):

- i. Ruth, mar. Noble DRYDEN, Jr. (q. v.).

5 ROBERT MILLS, son of Janet Smith Mills, b. c1678; d. before 1750. On 7 Jan. 1711 Robert Mills, "wheel right," bought from John and Mary Henry 400 acres "Mary's Lott" (formerly part of "Rehobeth"), also 600 acres of "Buckland," on the seaboard side on southwest of St. Martin's River, also 100 acres "Highland" now called "Necessity," as well as lots at Rehobeth Town, a lot in Snow Hill Town, all for £1,001.10, all of which he sold back to the Henrys 19 May 1712. On 9 June 1713 from William Brittingham, for 17,250 pounds of tobacco, he bought 400 acres, "Adventure" (originally "Cowley"), adjacent "Winter Quarter" (Som. Deeds 10:618, 802, 892). Children:

- i. Moses, b. c1708; d. Acco. Co., Va. by 27 May 1760, when his estate was administered by Samuel Mills (Nottingham, p. 132); as heir to his father, Robert, he sold "Adventure" in 1755; he was a member of Pitts Creek Presby. Church.
- ii. Smith, b. c1710; d. by 12 Feb. 1757; see No. 6 below.
- iii. Robert, b. c1712; d. 1780.

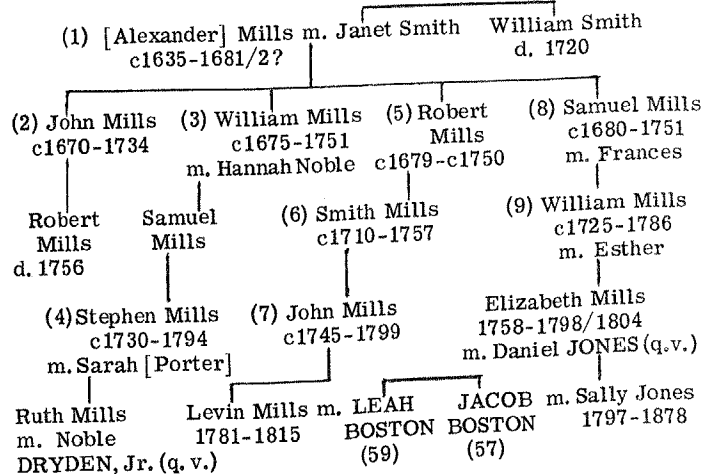

6 SMITH MILLS, b. Som. Co. c1710; d. Worc. Co. by 12 Feb. 1757. A member of the Pitts Creek congregation, Smith Mills was present at a meeting of the Session of the Presby. Church held in Snow Hill Town, 7 June 1753 (Torrence, p. 269). On 1 May 1754 he secured a resurvey of a portion of "Cherry Stones," 84 acres plus 96 acres of vacant land, north of Pitts Creek in Worc. Co.; the grant was recorded in the name of John Mills 26 Jan. 1762 (Md. Land Rec. BC & GS #21:126). In his will, signed 12 Oct. 1756, Smith Mills made bequests to eldest son Robert; to second son John, under 21, his dwelling plantation; to son Levi; and daughter Elizabeth and wife Mary. Brother Robert was to have "the use of the sawed log house as long as he shall see fit to live on the plantation. In a codicil sons Robert and John were to be bound out to trades (Worc. Wills JW4:177). Son:

- i. John, b. c1745; d. Dec. 1799; see No. 7 below.

7 JOHN MILLS, son of Smith Mills, b. Worc. Co. c1745; d. Worc. Co. by 24 Dec. 1799; mar. Mary (Molly) B. On 11 Jan. 1788 he stood security with Isaac Boston (43) for Sarah and Anderson Patterson, executors of James Patterson. In his will, signed 24 Nov. 1799, he bequeathed to son John "Mills Security" and part of "Cherrystone," to son Levin Mills the rest of "Cherrystone." He also mentioned daughter Elizabeth Mills and "all my children." And he bequeathed "unto the Session of Pitts Creek Congregation... one acre of land where the meeting House now stands which is called Pitts Creek meeting... so long as the same shall be occupied for a place of Presbyterian public worship." Son Robert was to be executor (Worc. Wills JBR1:34-35). On the acre bequeathed by Mills the Pitts Creek Meeting House still stands, just off Hwy. 13 near the Md.-Va. line. Son:

- i. Levin, b. 22 Sept. 1781; d. near Newtown, Worc. Co., Md. 23 Apr. 1815 (according to family Bible owned by Mrs. Thomas Steel of Flushing, N. Y.). The evidence seems to refute the family tradition that Levin Mills came from Conn. He mar. (14 June 1810) LEAH BOSTON (59).

8 SAMUEL MILLS, son of Janet Smith Mills, b. c1680; d. Worc. Co., Md. by 29 Nov. 1751. On 9 Mar. 1709 Samuel Mills purchased from James Sangster 400 acres, "Bottoms," on the south side of Pocomoke River in a forked neck near the dividing line between Md. and Va., in Som. (now Worc.) Co. (Som. Deeds 10:471). In his will, signed 19 Jan. 1750, Samuel bequeathed to "cuzen" [nephew] Smith Mills the land adjacent to "half mile branch." Samuel also made bequests to sons Hugh (land beginning at a new causeway Joseph Stevenson made across the beaver dam); John (the plantation "I now live on"); William (the land adjacent John's, also negroes Harry, Vina); Nathaniel. His wife Francis [sic] was to have her thirds of the "manner plantation." Executors were to be wife and son John. Witnesses were Elisha Jones, Moses

- Mills, George Greer (Worc. Wills JW2:94). Two of his children:
- i. John, b. c1721; d. Worc. Co. by 6 June 1766; in his will, signed 5 Sept. 1764, he appointed daughter Esther Mills and brother William Mills executors (Worc. Wills JW3:122).
 - ii. William, b. c1725; d. by 19 Dec. 1786; see No. 9 below

9 WILLIAM MILLS, son of Samuel, b. c1725; d. Worc. Co. by 19 Dec. 1786; mar. Easter (Esther). In a deed whereby he bought part of "Aberdeen" from Elisha JONES (q. v.) in 1770, Mills is described as a spinning wheel maker. In his will, signed 9 Oct. 1786, he bequeathed to son Samuel the "land I now live on" adjacent "Dennis" line, Nehemiah Redden, and the road from Stevens Ferry to Virginia, son William to have the remainder of the land. He also made bequests to wife Esther, son Handy Mills, and daughters Leah, Esther, Hannah Mills, Catherine Merrill, and Elizabeth Jones, who was to have negro girl Rachel "now in her possession" (Worc. Wills JW13:92). Of the children, two were baptised at Coventry: William, b. 3 Sept. 1755, and daughter: i. Elizabeth, b. 6 Feb. 1758; d. 1798/1804; mar. (Coventry, 29 Sept. 1774) Daniel JONES (q. v.).

MINSHALL (MITCHELL) FAMILY

Jeffrey Minshall migrated to the New World about 1640, first settling in Northampton Co., Virginia, then removing in 1666 with his family to Somerset Co., Maryland, settling on a tract at Morumsco next to Henry Boston. The name is variously spelled Minshall, Manchall, Mentiale, Michell, but after about 1700 in Somerset Co. it became Mitchell; there are, however, other Mitchell families in the area not related to the Minshall (Mitchell) family.

For several decades, on the basis of available evidence, an English origin of Jeffrey Minshall has been widely accepted. This origin was the result of efforts by the late Col. John D. Long of Baltimore, a descendant of John Long (No. 3, p. 411), who about 1933 engaged a British genealogist to research the Minshall family in England. The outcome was the discovery of a baptismal record of a Jeffrey Mynshull, 26 Mar. 1620, in Wistaston Parish, Cheshire: "Gefery, the sone of Richard Mynshall was baptized ye sixe and twentie daye of Marche, Anno domini one thousand sixe and twentie." Since this birth year corresponded to an age (34) given by Jeffrey Minshall in Virginia in 1655, Col. Long, and everyone else who has considered the matter, concluded that the immigrant Jeffrey Minshall and the Jeffrey Mynshall of the baptismal record were one and the same. The Wistaston Jeffrey was a son of Richard Mynshull and his wife, Ellen Goldsmith, and for the original edition of the present compilation an extensive lineage was subsequently worked out for the Mynshulls back to Anglo-Saxon times, and through allied families back to King Henry I of England.

Not long before his death in the mid-1960's Col. Long, evidently in some doubt about the validity of the baptismal record, wrote to the College of Arms in London, whose genealogists examined the Bishops' Transcripts of the Wistaston Parish record. The result was found in a recent examination of Col. Long's papers, which he had bequeathed to the Indiana Historical Society in Indianapolis: Jeffery, son of Richard Mynshull, was buried 16 June 1624, at the age of four. Since the pedigree that appeared in the first edition is therefore invalid, it has been removed, and the origin of the immigrant Jeffrey Minshall remains a mystery. He is probably a member of the Cheshire family, for Jeffrey and Randall were common names, and families of Minshall in other parts of England trace their origins to the Cheshire family.

1 JEFFREY MINSHALL, born probably in Cheshire, England, c1621; died and was buried at Morumsco, Somerset Co., Md., 8 Apr. 1675; mar. (Northampton Co., Va. 18 May 1650) Frances Carsley, daughter of Henry and Elizabeth Carsley, b. c1633; living in Som. Co. 21 Sept. 1679. Evidence for Jeffrey's age is provided by a deposition 9 Apr. 1655 in which he declared that his age was 34 years or thereabouts (North. Co., Va., Order Bk. 7 & 8, p. 3), yet in the 28 June 1655 court he declared his age to be 30 or thereabouts.

Jeffrey was in Northampton Co., Va., as early as 1645, when he first appears as a witness (North. Order Bk. 3:24). His marriage contract (18 May 1650) is recorded in North. Order Bk. 4:48. On 27 Oct. 1654 and 30 Apr. 1655 Capt. Stephen Charlton made a deed of gift of 200 acres of land at Matchepungo to Mary and Jane, daughters of Jeffrey Menshall (North. Order Bk. 7 & 8:16).

Jeffrey moved with his family into Som. Co., Md., 1665/66. On 17 Sept. 1666 he secured from Lord Baltimore a grant of 400 acres, "Adventure," at the head of Morumsco Creek, "beginning at a marked pine standing at the head of a branch dividing it from the land of Henry Boston," for transporting into the colony himself, Francis Mentiale, Mary, Jane, Elizabeth Mental his daughters, Jeffry and Randolph Mentiale his sons, and Collete, his servant. The land was surveyed by Stephen Horsey 15 Feb. 1665/66. On 30 July 1668 Jeffrey Minshall and Frances his wife deeded 200 acres to William Green, and on 21 Sept. 1679 Jeffrey Minshall, planter, and Frances Minshall, his mother, deeded part of "Adventure" to William Stevens (Som. Deeds 2:16, 6:289). (See Torrence, p. 452.)

Jeffrey Minshall's wife, Frances, was daughter of Henry and Elizabeth (Berriman) Carsley. Carsley (1601/2-c1635) came to Va. 1623 in the Providence; he was aged 23 when the muster of 1624/25 was taken, living at Newport News as one of Daniel Gookins' men. He migrated to the Eastern Shore where many began to settle after the 1622 massacre. In 1633 Carsley petitioned the court held at Accawmack for a lease of 50 acres "upon Old plantation Creek" on the south side of Fishing Creek. He had mar. (c1630) Elizabeth Berriman, step-daughter of Henry Wilson and daughter of Wilson's wife, Alice, whose will in 1640 named her granddaughter Frances Carsley. On 26 Nov. 1635 Elizabeth Causley of Accawmack, executrix of "my right deere and well beloved husband Henry Causley late decd" gave her plantation, servants, and all her estate to her children Agnes and Francis. Her "friend and father in law [i.e. step-father] Henry Wilson" was to be overseer of this deed (Annie L. Jester, Martha W. Hiden, Adventures of Purse and Person, 2nd ed., 1964, pp. 119-21, and Beverly Fleet, Va. Colonial Abstracts, XVIII:65). Children of Jeffrey and Frances Minshall (first five born Northampton Co., Va., others at Morumsco, Somerset Co., Md.):

- i. Mary, b. c1651; d. c1685; mar. (Som. Co. Oct. 1666) Thomas TULL (see p. 433).
- ii. Jane, b. c1653; d. 5 Dec. 1692; mar. Samuel LONG (p. 411).
- iii. Jeffrey, b. c1656; d. Som. Co. by 14 Jan. 1702/3; mar. Helena Conner.
- iv. Elizabeth, b. 24 Nov. 1660 (Hungar's Parish); d. and buried 30 Nov. 1660.
- v. Randall (Randolph), b. c1662; living 1730; mar. Alice, widow of Henry Potter, and daughter of Ambrose DIXON (p. 380).
- vi. Anne, b. c1666; mar. (Som. Co. 22 Oct. 1685) John Moore.
- vii. Alice (twin), b. 27 Dec. 1668; mar. John WHITE; see No. 6 below.
- viii. Elizabeth (twin), b. 28 Dec. 1668.
- ix. Thomas, b. 11 Aug. 1672; d. by 16 Feb. 1729/30; see No. 2 below.

2 THOMAS MITCHELL (MINSHALL), youngest child of Jeffrey, b. Morumsco, Som. Co., Md. 11 Aug. 1672; d. Som. Co. by 16 Feb. 1729/30 (acct. filed by widow); mar. (c1705) Anne Coulbourn, daughter of William and Anne (Revell) COULBOURN (see p. 373, No. 2), b. Annessex, 9 Apr. 1679. In the inventory of Thomas's estate, 26 May 1729, Alice White [his sister] signed as one of the next of kin (Ann Invent. 14:134). On 18 Nov. 1730 Ann Mitchell, with Solomon Coulbourn and John Davis securities, gave bond to Thomas, Mary, Isaac, Ann, Solomon, Randall and Stephen Mitchell to pay them the balance of Thomas Mitchell's estate when they should come of age (Som. Jud. 1730/33:64). Children (born Somerset Co., Md.) were: Thomas, b. c1706, living 1749; Mary, b. c1708; Ann, b. c1712; Solomon, b. c1714, and three other sons:

- i. Isaac, b. 1710/11; d. 1764/83; see No. 3 below.
- ii. Randall, b. c1716; d. Sussex Co., Del. 1780.
- iii. Stephen, b. c1718; to Sussex Co., Del.

3 ISAAC MITCHELL, son of Thomas, b. ? Morumsco, Som. Co. c1710/11; d. Som. Co. 1764/83; mar. (c1734) Bridget Waller, daughter of William and Bridget (Nelson) Waller, b. c1712 (see No. 13 below). In a deposition of 22 Jan. 1755 Isaac's age was given as about 45 (Som. Jud. 1754/7:60). The 1745 Som. Co. Debt Books show Isaac Mitchell owning 200 acres "Amity" in Manokin. (Longs, Kings, and Tilghmans also owned parts of "Amity"; in 1798 Henry Landon was a tenant on part of Jesse King's land.) In 1741 Isaac Mitchell gave bond to William Conner of Annessex, agreeing that William Mitchell, son of Isaac, would convey the tract "Success" in Nanticoke Forest when he reached 21; should he die before 21 or fail to convey, then Isaac and his wife would convey "Amity" on Kings Mill Branch where Isaac was living (Som. Deeds 21:84). On 19 June 1764 for 5 shillings Isaac Mitchell, planter, conveyed to William Mitchell, cordwainer, eldest son of the said Isaac, 200 acres "Amity" after the decease of Isaac (Som. Deeds 24:226). Isaac was dead by 1783, when his widow Bridget Mitchell was shown with 66 1/2 acres of "Amity," William Mitchell's heirs in possession of the remainder of the tract. Children (born Manokin, Som. Co., Md.):

- i. William, b. c1735; d. by 16 Mar. 1774; see No. 4 below.
- ii. George, b. c1742; in Manokin 1783; d. by 1800.
- iii. Anne, b. c1743; on 23 Sept. 1799 Anne Mitchell, mentioning her father Isaac Mitchell, gave her age as 56.
- iv. Thomas, b. c1745; in Manokin 1783; d. or departed by 1800.
- v. Margaret (Peggy), b. c1747.
- vi. Isaac, b. c1749; in Manokin 1783; d. or departed by 1800.

4 WILLIAM MITCHELL, son of Isaac, b. Manokin, Som. Co. c1735; d. Som. Co. 12 Feb./16 Mar. 1774; mar. (c1762) Rebecca LONG, daughter of Solomon and Margaret (Maddux) Long (see p. 414, No. 12), b. c1746; d. 12 Feb./12 Mar. 1800; she subsequently became the common-law wife of [?James] Hammond. In his will, signed 12 Feb. 1774, William Mitchell made bequests to children William, Isaac, Nancy, Eleanor, Zadock, and Peggy Mitchell, naming wife Rebecca executrix (Som. Wills EB5:45). Children (born Manokin, Somerset Co., Md.):

- i. William, b. c1763; d. Som. Co. by 8 Oct. 1805 (acct.). On 2 Sept. 1799 William Mitchell deposed that he was 36 (Som. Jud. 1798/99:390-412). On 15 May 1787 William Mitchell and his mother, Rebecca Mitchell, deeded to Solomon Long, for £100, 90 acres of "Amity"; Margaret Mitchell, wife of William gave consent (Som. Deeds 29:267). On 8 Oct. 1805 Margaret Mitchell, with Zadock Long and Jesse King securities, was appointed guardian to William Mitchell, Betsey Bond Mitchell, and Edward Mitchell, children of William Mitchell (Som. Bonds EB28:10). An account of 5 Dec. 1806 named these children, and also Hetty, apparently already of age in 1805 (i. e. b. c1786/7). In accounts money was due John Hammond, William Long, Zadock Long, Britain Powell.
- ii. Isaac, b. c1765.
- iii. Nancy, b. c1767.
- iv. Eleanor, b. c1769.
- v. Zadock, b. 1771; d. Som. Co. by 12 Mar. 1800 (inventory, filed the same day as his mother's). On 2 Sept. 1799 Zadock Mitchell, aged 28, deposed that "he went to school to Thomas Davis," i. e. was taught by Davis (Som. Jud. 1798/99: 290-412).
- v. Margaret (Peggy), b. c1773; mar. Jesse LANDON; see No. 5 below.

5 MARGARET (PEGGY) MITCHELL, daughter of William and Rebecca (Long) Mitchell, b. Manokin, Som. Co. c1773; mar. (lic. Som. 22 Jan. 1801) JESSE LANDON, who d. (according to family tradition) in 1815 at Pocomoke (i. e. in Somerset Co.). He was listed in the 1810 Som. Co. census in Pocomoke Hundred in the area where Elijah (44) and Levin Boston (22) resided. That the Longs and Landons were in contact is evidenced by entries in the tavern ledgers kept by Rebecca Long Mitchell's brother, Zadock Long (deposited in Teackle Mansion, Princess Anne): on 13 July 1813 cash was paid to Zorobable Landon for four months and 18 days of work. (According to Ward family tradition, Zorobable was brother of Jesse Landon.) In Oct. 1813 Zorobable had run up a bill for brandy at the tavern. In 1774 a Henry Landon was a security for the estate of William Mitchell and in 1798 a tenant on part of the land of Jesse King, a neighbor of the Mitchells. (The few other Mitchell families in Som. Co. having been accounted for, it is possible, in the absence of firm proof, that Margaret [Peggy] Mitchell could have been a daughter of George, Thomas, or Isaac, William Mitchell's brothers, but William's daughter is the only known Margaret of appropriate age to be Jesse Landon's wife, although at age 27 she would have been marrying unusually late for the time.) Children (born reportedly near Kingston, Somerset Co., Md.):

- i. Josiah (or Joseph) Washington Landon, b. c1802; d. in or near Baltimore, Md. 1875.
- ii. Thomas Landon, b. c1804; to Washington, D. C.
- iii. Matilda Landon (twin), b. 26 July 1806; d. Washington, D. C. Feb. 1888; buried Rock Creek Cemetery; single.
- iv. Margaret Anne Landon (twin), b. 26 July 1806; d. Washington, D. C. 17 June 1880; mar. WILLIAM A. WARD (B5)

MINSHALL - WHITE - TULL FAMILIES

6 ALICE MINSHALL, twin daughter of Jeffrey (No. 1 above), b. Morumsco, Som. Co., Md. 27 Dec. 1668; mar. (c1692) JOHN WHITE, b. [c1660]; d. Som. Co. by 25 Apr. 1737; he mar. 2nd (after 1729) Josina, probably daughter of John Colehoune, b. Morumsco, 29 Jan. 1683/4. In the settlement of his estate, 25 Apr. 1737, Thomas White, executor, distribution was made to widow Josina and to children and their representatives: Francis Carey on his wife's behalf, John White, Isaac White, William White, John Matthews on his wife's behalf, Rachel White, Thomas White, and John White (heir of Stephen), grandson of the deceased (Md. Accts. 14:331). Children (born ?Morumsco, Som. Co., Md.):

- i. Stephen White, b. 10 Sept. 1693; d. before 1723; had a son John, b. c1718.
- ii. Sarah White, b. c1695; mar. Francis Carey.
- iii. John White, b. 3 Jan. 1697; d. by 27 May 1749; see No. 7 below.
- iv. William White, b. before 1707; left county c1734.
- v. Thomas White, d. Som. Co. by 21 Nov. 1770, bequeathing "Adams Garden" to "cousin" Abram Outten.
- vi. Elizabeth White, mar. John Matthews.
- vii. Isaac White, b. c1711; left county c1731.
- viii. Rachel White.

7 JOHN WHITE, son of John and Alice (Minshall) White, b. Morumsco, 3 Jan. 1697; d. Som. Co. 10 Apr./27 May 1749; mar. Mary. John White signed his will 10 Apr. 1749, bequeathing to his wife Mary his dwelling plantation, which was to go after her death to daughter Rachel White, who was also to receive part of the tract "Poor Swamp." Daughter Alice White was also bequeathed part of "Poor Swamp." He named his other children, daughters Betty Outten, Mary White, Sarah Gunby; sons-in-law James Gunby and Abraham Outten were named executors. Witnesses were Sampson Wheatly, William Merrill, James Hearn (Som. Wills EB 14:23-25). Children (born Somerset Co., Md.):

- i. Sarah, b. c1725; mar. (Coventry, 26 Nov. 1744) James GUNBY (c1716-1800); see No. 5, p. 395.
- ii. Betty, b. c1727; mar. (Coventry, 3 Dec. 1747) Abraham Outten.
- iii. Rachel, b. c1729; mar. 1st (Coventry, 24 Dec. 1750) James TULL; 2nd Elijah COULBOURN; see No. 8 below.
- iv. Mary, b. c1751; mar. (Coventry, 13 Mar. 1753) Kellam LANKFORD (see p. 407, No. 6).
- v. Alice, mar. John Juett.

8 RACHEL WHITE, daughter of John, b. c1729; mar. 1st (Coventry, 24 Dec. 1750) JAMES TULL, son of George and --- (Noble) Tull (George a son of Richard, brother of Thomas, p. 431), b. c1722; d. c1761; mar. 2nd (Coventry, 2 May 1762) ELIJAH COULBOURN, son of William (see p. 373), b. [c1720]; d. Som. Co. by 10 Feb. 1795 (Som. Wills 17:361). Children (baptised Coventry, b. Som. Co.):

- i. John Tull, b. 12 Dec. 1752; d. 1819/20; see No. 9 below.
- ii. Sarah Tull, b. 15 Feb. 1755.
- iii. James Tull, b. 22 Sept. 1757.
- iv. Esther Coulbourn, b. 13 Nov. 1762; d. 16 Aug. 1838; mar. 1st her first cousin Joseph GUNBY; 2nd Joseph Schoolfield; see p. 395, No. 6.
- v. Mary Coulbourn, b. 10 Feb. 1765; d. before 1783.
- vi. Jane Coulbourn, b. 25 July 1767; mar. John Conner.
- vii. Betty Coulbourn, b. 30 Oct. 1771; mar. Benjamin Conner.

9 JOHN TULL, son of James and Rachel (White) Tull, b. 12 Dec. 1752 (Coventry); d. Worc. Co., Md. 1819/20; mar. (c1773) Martha Wood, daughter of William and Anne (Adams) Wood of Pocomoke Hundred, b. 3 Feb. 1757 (Coventry). Anne Adams was a daughter of Thomas Adams (No. 2, p. 359); William Wood was a son of [?Thomas] Wood and his wife, Anne Long, daughter of Samuel Long (No. 1 viii, p. 411). In 1783 (tax list) John Tull, in Pocomoke Hundred, owned no land but did own 7 slaves, 1 horse, 5 black cattle; his family consisted of 3 males, 2 females. On 11 Jan. 1790 Elijah Coulbourn and wife Rachel with John Tull, son of James, of Somerset Co., for £500, conveyed to Benjamin Conner "Buck Ridge" and "Scotland," lands devised by John White to his daughter, Rachel White, now wife of Elijah Coulbourn, also "Puzzle," granted to Elijah Coulbourn and wife Rachel, "Come by Chance" and "Scotland," deeded to Coulbourn by Sarah Kellam, and "Accident," granted to James Tull, father of John (Som. Deeds 30:51). John Tull, shipwright, moved to Worc. Co. 1790/96, settling near New Town (present-day Pocomoke City), where he purchased on 19 Nov. 1796, from John and Mary Slocum, for £200, 100 acres, Schoolfields Pleasure, "Timber Tract," "Pittsburgh," and "Slim Chance," which tracts on 7 Jan. 1804 he sold to James Tull, also of Worc. Co., for £300, to go to James after the death of said John Tull and his wife Martha (Worc. Deeds R:396, W:134). On 6 Sept. 1819 John Tull for $10 sold three negroes to Joseph Tull (Worc. Deeds AK:56); John is not listed in the 1820 census, but Joseph Tull is in 1st election district, Worc. Co.

(It is possible that the John Tull who wed Martha Wood was the other John in Som. Co. in 1783, residing in Dividing Creek Hundred, son of Richard Tull of Great Annessex Hundred, but the John who wed Martha is more likely to be son of James, since he named eldest son James.) In 1780 there were two John Tulls in the Som. Co. militia, one a private in Capt. James Elsey's Company, the other a sergeant in Capt. John Williams' Co., both of the Princess Anne Battalion. Since the John Tull of Pocomoke Hundred would be older than the other, he was possibly the sergeant. Children (b. probably Pocomoke Hundred, Som. Co., Md., except Joseph):

- i. ?Susan, b. c1774; head of the John Tull family 1820, still living (aged 76) with Levi, her brother John's son in 1850.
- ii. James, b. c1776/80; d. Accomack Co., Va. by 27 Feb. 1837; mar. (lic. Worc. Co. 26 Feb. 1807) Sallie Massie; in Acco. Co., Va. 1830 census his age is given as 50/60.
- iii. Isaac, b. c1786; apprenticed in 1803 in Worc. Co. to learn the blacksmith's trade.
- iv. John, b. c1788; d. Worc. Co. c1819/20; mar. (Baltimore, Md. 9 Mar. 1808) Sarah Ostren; in 1805 apprenticed to James Tilghman to learn the cordwainer's trade.
- v. Samuel, b. Oct. 1791; apprenticed in 1809 to James Tull (of James) to learn the trade of house carpentry.
- vi. Joseph, b. near New Town, Worc. Co., Md. 19 Jan. 1796; d. 17 Aug. 1862; see No. 10 below.

10 JOSEPH TULL, son of John and Martha (Wood) Tull, b. Worc. Co. 19 Jan. 1796; d. Boggs town, Shelby Co., Ind. 17 Aug. 1862; mar. 1st (lic. Worc. 5 June 1819 - mar. 9 June) Margaret P. Burnett, daughter of James and Mary Burnett, b. Worc. Co. 26 July 1791; d. Worc. Co. Oct. 1822; he mar. 2nd (lic. Worc. 5 Feb. 1823) Hester Pilchard, b. Queen Anne Co., Md. 2 Jan. 1800; d. Boggs town, Ind. 17 Feb. 1868. By his second marriage he was father of ten children. With Hester and their four eldest children Joseph migrated in 1830 by covered wagon drawn by two oxen first to Jefferson Co., Ky., then in 1833 to Shelby Co., Ind. His two eldest children remained in Md. with their mother's relatives. (Dates of birth and parentage of Joseph and Margaret are from the Robert Maddox Bible owned by Mrs. Carrie Tyler, Lawsonia, Crisfield, Md.) Children by first marriage (born near New Town, Worc. Co., Md.):

- i. Margaret Porter Tull, b. c1820; mar. 1st (lic. Som. Co. 26 Feb. 1840) William H. Hall; 2nd --- Killman.
- ii. Martha Woods Tull, b. 31 Mar. 1822; d. 11 Dec. 1889; mar. Robert H. MADDUX; see No. 11 below.

11 MARTHA WOODS TULL, daughter of Joseph, b. Worc. Co., Md. 31 Mar. 1822; d. Quindocqua, Som. Co., Md. 11 Dec. 1889; mar. (lic. Som. 21 Sept. 1845) ROBERT HENRY MADDUX, son of George and Rebecca H. (Somers) Maddox, b. Quindocqua, 3 Sept. 1820; d. Quindocqua, 27 Mar. 1894. (Dates and parentage from Maddox Bible.) Children, born Quindocqua, Som. Co., Md.):

- i. Margaret Rebecca Maddox, b. 9 Aug. 1846; d. 25 Mar. 1870; mar. Thomas E. Daugherty.
- ii. William W. Maddox, b. 24 Dec. 1848; d. 15 Jan. 1849.
- iii. Mary Elizabeth Maddox, b. 1 Apr. 1854; d. Tull's Corner, Som. Co., 23 Sept. 1923; mar. Joseph William LANKFORD, son of Aaron Coulbourn and Alice Ann (Moore) Lankford, b. 1842; d. 1884 (see p. 407, No. 7ii).

Child: Margaret Lankford, b. 23 Jan. 1883; d. 1961; mar. WILLIAM J. WILLIAMS (A20).

- iv. Samuel Maddox, b. 24 July 1857; d. 4 Mar. 1936; mar. Laura A. Conner.
- v. Robert Henry Maddox, b. 20 Feb. 1864; d. 26 June 1930; mar. MARY ELIZABETH JOHNSON (A10).

MITCHELL - WALLER CONNECTION

Some of the following information is derived from Charles S. Waller, Waller's in America, 1654-1979, Baltimore: Gateway Press, 1979, pp. 4-6, used by permission of the author. For additional details, see Notes, p. 453.

12 JOHN WALLER, b. c1617, probably in England; d. Som. Co., Md. July 1667; mar. (Accomack Co., Va. c1660) Alce (Alice) Major. Waller moved to Som. Co., Md. in 1665 where he patented "Waller's Adventure" on Little Monie Creek; in 1666 he was appointed a surveyor of highways. Children (first two born Acco. Co., Va.):

- i. William, b. 26 Dec. 1661; d. c1714; see No. 13 below.
- ii. Major (girl), b. 8 June 1664.
- iii. Alec (Alice), b. Little Monie, Som. Co. 27 Apr. 1666.

13 WILLIAM WALLER, son of John, b. Acco. Co., Va., 26 Dec. 1661; d. Little Monie, Som. Co., Md. by 11 Mar. 1713/14 (Ann. Inv. & Accts. 36A:29); mar. (cJan. 1688/89) Bridget Nelson, daughter of John and Katherine (Bozman) Nelson (see p. 408, No. 1). On 1 June 1700 he patented 45 acres "Friends Advice," bordering on the south bank of the Little Monie, one boundary adjoining "Waller's Adventure." Two of the children (born on the plantation "Waller's Adventure," Little Monie, Som. Co., Md.):

- i. William, Jr., b. 6 Mar. 1700/1; d. Som. Co. by 31 Jan. 1741/2; in his will, signed 29 Feb. 1739/40, he bequeathed to "cuzen" [nephew] William Mitchell, son of Isaac, 100 acres "Waller's Success" at the head of Nanticoke [River] and also made a bequest to sister Bridget Mitchell (Som. Wills EB9:221).
- ii. Bridget, b. c1712; mar. (c1734) Isaac MITCHELL; see No. 3 above.

PARKER - SEWARD - TOMLINSON FAMILIES

The Parkers came to the Eastern Shore of Virginia about 1654, and descendants moved into Somerset Co. in the late 1670's. This account of the Parker family is based on original research of Col. John D. Long, "Robert, George and John Parker of Accomac and Northampton Counties, Virginia, and their English Connections," Va. Mag. of Hist. and Biog., LXI (Jan. 1953):68-79.

1 JOHN PARKER, of the Town and County of Southampton, England, d. Sept. 1612. He signed his will 31 Aug. 1612 (prob. 14 Sept. 1612), making bequests to the Cathedral and mother church of Winchester; to wife Marie; to sisters Margery Pike and Margaret Pierce; and to son George, all land and other property in Southampton and elsewhere. John's brother, WILLIAM PARKER, of Plymouth, Co. Devon, Gentleman, in his will, signed 16 Jan. 1617 (prob. 4 Dec. 1619) left to son Nicholas "my tenement cottage in Plymouth," in St. Andrew's St., also house on Fynewell St.; to son John property in St. Katherine's lane; and he named daughters Wilmott and Prudence Parker, Margery Barlowe; "my now wife" Wilmot; and Judith Piers, wife of Thomas Piers. Son of John:

2 GEORGE PARKER, son of John, b. [c1580]; d. Southampton, Eng. by 9 May 1639. He signed his will 24 Oct. 1638, making a bequest to the parish of St. Michael, Southampton, and requesting to be buried in the chancel of St. Lawrence Church. To son Robert he bequeathed land in Southampton. He also named children George, Anne, Elizabeth, Abigail, John, and Margery, all under twenty-one; aunt Margery Pike; two nieces in Cornwall, Wilmot and Mary; "my now wife" Abigail; and cousin Margery Barlow of the City of Chichester, daughter of "my uncle," Capt. William Parker of Plymouth. George's eldest son, ROBERT PARKER, of Bosham, Sussex, b. c1610; d. by 4 Apr. 1673, in his will, signed 13 Nov. 1671, left to wife and "fellow traveller," Jane Parker, land in Southampton (and all other land), "also a third part of the profits de claro from land in Virginia... If any of my daughters are willing to renounce legacies in England, and go to Virginia, that daughter shall have for her portion rights due to me, with plantation, housing and stocks, to her and her heirs forever with patent in the hands of Mr. John Wise at Oenacot [Onancock] in Northampton County in Accomake plantation in Andven River." Besides bequests, he also mentioned "My grandfather John Parker" and "St. Laurence in Southampton... where he and my father lye buried." JOHN PARKER, son of George and brother of Robert, d. in Mattapony, Accomack Co., Va., by 19 Sept. 1695.

3 GEORGE PARKER (JR.), son of George, [b. Southampton, Eng. c1626]; d. Accomack Co., Va., by 7 Oct. 1674; mar. (c1655) Florence Cade, who on 8 Mar. 1654/55 was a headright for George Parker. He had settled in Northampton (later Accomack) Co. by 1655. In his will, signed 6 Jan. 1673/74, George Parker, of Accomack Co. in the Colony of Virginia, made bequests to "four" sons: George ("all my land on the north side of Onancock when he shall come of age, and all my land in England"), John, Philip, Charles, and daughter Abigail, but he mentioned six children (Nottingham, p. 5). His widow Florence d. after 13 Jan. 1674/75. Children (born probably at Onancock, Northampton Co., i. e. Accomack Co., Va.):

- i. (Major) George, b. c1656; d. Onancock by 7 Mar. 1738/39.
- ii. John, b. c1658; d. Acco. Co. by 7 Feb. 1720/21.
- iii. Philip, b. c1660; d. Acco. Co. by 4 Apr. 1721.
- iv. Abigail, b. c1662.
- v. Margaret, b. c. 1663; mar. Josias Seaward; see No. 4 below.
- vi. Charles, b. c1665; d. Acco. Co. by 2 Feb. 1708/9.

4 MARGARET PARKER, daughter of George, b. North. Co., Va. c1663; mar. (before 29 Mar. 1680) Josias SEAWARD, b. c1648; d. Som. Co., Md. by 11 June 1690. In 1678 he secured a patent to "Seawards Purchase," which was sold to Cornelius Morris, who in 1688 sold it to Isaac and Esau BOSTON. On 10 Feb. 1680 Josias bought from Cornelius Morris 300 acres, "Manloves Lot," which (grown to 433 acres) in his will, signed 27 Sept. 1689, he bequeathed to eldest daughter Abigail, with most of his other land (will in Som. Jud. 1690/92:23, the page bound as the last page in the volume). (For further details see Note, p. 453.) Daughter:

- i. Abigail, b. c1681; d. by 17 Aug. 1751; mar. Samuel Tomlinson; see No. 5 below.

5 ABIGAIL SEWARD, daughter of Josias and Margaret (Parker) Seaward, b. Accomack Co., Va. c1681; d. Som. Co., Md. by 17 Aug. 1751; mar. (c12 June 1700) Samuel TOMLINSON, Jr., b. c1675; d. Som. Co., by 3 Apr. 1734. He was the son of Samuel Tomlinson, Sr. (c1630-1695) and his wife, Margaret, widow of John Haggaman of North. Co., Va.; she was b. 1631; d. 1684/96; Samuel and Margaret were mar. before 30 Dec. 1674. An inventory of the estate of Samuel Tomlinson (Sr.) was taken 25 Oct. 1695 by William Boseman and J. B. Polk; among the items were listed three books (Ann. Inv. & Accts. 13B:72). Samuel Tomlinson (Jr.) signed his will 18 Feb. 1733/34, appointing wife Abigail and son Solomon executors; he named sons Soward (1st son), Hampton (2nd son), Solomon (3rd son), daughters Sarah Tomlinson, Rachel Boston, Margaret Cropper (Som. Wills EB9:158). Abigail Tomlinson in her will, signed 7 Oct. 1745, bequeathed to son Hampton Tomlinson "all my interest" in "Manloves Lott," whereon "I now live which lies to the Westward of the Cypress Swamp or Branch between me and Archibald White's," and she named sons Sayward and daughter Sarah Hearn, wife of George (Som. Wills EB14:28). Children (born Somerset Co., Md.):

- i. Sayward, b. 1701; planter; on 25 Aug. 1748 he sold to John Williams of Pocomoke, in Som. Co., "Manloves Lot," which descended from Josias Sayward, to daughter Abigail (mother of said Tomlinson) in fee tail; she mar. Samuel Tomlinson; "in order to Dock the said Estate Tail [Abigail Tomlinson] did in May Term 1748 suffer a common Recovery with Double Voucher and vested the fee simple of the aforesaid tract... in the above named John Williams" (Som. Deeds 22:14).
- ii. Rachel, b. c1703; d. after 23 Nov. 1769; mar. ISAAC BOSTON (6).
- iii. Margaret, b. c1705; d. after 27 Aug. 1744; mar. 1st William GRIFFIN (q. v.); 2nd --- Cropper.
- iv. Hampton, b. c1707.
- v. Solomon, b. c1710.
- vi. Sarah, b. c1713; mar. George Hearn.

PATTERSON FAMILY OF ACCOMACK COUNTY

The Pattersons were settled by 1700 in northern Accomack Co., Va., near Pitts Creek, at the Maryland line.

1 WILLIAM PATTERSON, b. c1670; d. Acco. Co., Va., by 26 Aug. 1740. On 2 Nov. 1701 he witnessed the will of Samuel Fittiman of Acco. Co. In his own will, signed 20 Nov. 1732, he left his whole estate to son Anderson, also appointed executor; in the event that Anderson should die without children, the estate should be equally divided among "all my grandchildren by my three daughters Mary, Elizabeth, and Eupheme." According to codicils (12 Oct. 1734, 1 May 1736) Eupheme was wife of Samuel Gillet, with children Margaret, William, and Samuel; daughter Mary had married Mr. Ramsey and had daughters Isabel and Mary (Nottingham, p. 94).

2 ANDERSON PATTERSON, son of William, b. 1698; d. Acco. Co. by 25 Mar. 1760. A deposition by Anderson Patterson of Acco. Co., in Feb. 1642/43, indicated that he was "aged 44" and that he lived in the home of William Houston from the age of 3 to 10 years (Worc. Deeds A:27). In his will, signed 24 July 1758, Patterson left his eldest son William the plantation "where I now live" in Accomack Co.; son James was to receive the plantation in Worc. Co., Md. (300 acres) purchased of William and Samuel Ramsey (Nottingham, p. 153). Children (born Accomack Co., Va.):

- i. William, b. c1735; d. by 1 Feb. 1792; see No. 3 below.
- ii. James, b. c1740; d. Worc. Co. by 11 Jan. 1788; mar. (Coven-try, 11 June 1761) Sarah Revel (d. 1802); in probate of his will, John Mills and ISAAC BOSTON (43) were securities for Sarah and Anderson Patterson, executors.

3 WILLIAM PATTERSON, eldest son of Anderson, b. c1735; d. Acco. Co. by 1 Feb. 1792. On that date administration of William Patterson's estate was granted to William Patterson [Jr.]; John McLean, Ephraim Milman, William R. Taylor, and Walter Bayne, or any three were ordered to appraise the slaves (if any) of William Patterson. On 29 Jan. 1793 Bayne, McLean and Samuel Henderson were ordered to audit and settle the estate (Acco. Orders 1790-93, pp. 308, 502). Though no other names appear in the accounts, it must be this William Patterson who wed Rachel and had daughter Mary, since there are no other Pattersons:

- i. Mary, b. 1 Feb. 1772; d. probably Acco. Co. 26 Apr. 1809; mar. JACOB BOSTON (32).

PAYNE FAMILY OF WORCESTER COUNTY

The Payne (Paine) family came into Somerset Co., Md., in the early eighteenth century, settling near the Virginia line in what later became Worcester Co. They came from Northampton Co., where a William Payne (b. 1606/7) appears in the records as early as 13 Jan. 1633/34. Mrs. Anne G. Greene of Pocomoke City and Mr. Leslie P. Dryden of Hyattsville, Md., have provided valuable assistance in the reconstruction of this family.

1 DANIEL PAINE,¹ b. probably Northampton Co., Va. c1660; d. Northampton Co. by 28 July 1709; mar. (c1694) Hannah Scarborough, daughter of Matthew and Hannah (Wise) SCARBOROUGH (q. v.). In Oct. 1702 Matthew Scarborough of Som. Co., in consideration of the "fatherly affection I have" conveyed "unto my Daughter Hannah the now wife of Mr. Daniel Payne of Northampton Co." land called "Islington," 109 acres, between the lands of Henry Byshop (decd.) and the donor, which he bought of Col. William Stevens, formerly known as "Marshes Land" (Som. Deeds L:699).

In his will, signed 9 May 1709, Daniel Paine bequeathed his plantation (150 acres) to his two sons John and Daniel, his wife Hannah to enjoy it for life; he also made a bequest to daughter Esther and requested his wife to give "to each of our children two years schooling" (Northampton Co. Wills 19:79). Son:

- i. John, b. c1695; d. by 5 May 1744; see No. 2 below.

2 JOHN PAINE² (Daniel¹), b. Northampton Co., Va. c1695; d. Worc. Co. before 5 May 1744, when his son sold his father's land. After John's death there was evidently a long delay before the estate was admitted to probate; the date of the bond is 29 Dec. 1755, with Isaac Payne and William Watson securities; an inventory was taken 5 Mar. 1756. Executor was John Paine; next of kin were Isaac and Jacob Paine (Ann. Inv. 60:603). John Paine's widow, Elizabeth Paine, signed her will 3 Dec. 1762 (prob. 28 Sept. 1770), leaving her wearing apparel to her daughters Jemima Dubberly, Elizabeth Conner, and Sarah Roley, and naming sons John, Jacob, and Moses Pain; witnesses were William Aydelott, William and Southey Vezey (Worc. Wills JW 4:25). Their eldest son Moses Paine, as heir-at-law of his father's land, on 5 May 1744, for £ 80, sold to John Paine land "that was his father's John Paine's," lying on the east and north side of a branch out of Swansgutt Creek (Worc. Deeds A:192). According to the 1734 Som. Co. tax list John Pain paid on "Poor Hall," land originally granted to James Atkinson (seep. 363, No.1). In the 1783 Worc. Co. tax list John's widow Elizabeth owned 72 1/2 acres of "Smithfield" in Mattapony Hundred. Five of the children (born Pitts Creek, Worc. Co., Md., then Som. Co.; for other children see Note, p. 453):

- i. Moses, b. c1719; d. Worc. Co. by 23 May 1794; in his will, dated 10 Oct. 1792, he made bequests to "friend" Major Jones, to nephew Moses Payne (of Jacob) and to Jacob Payne (of Jacob); he also provided that Moses Payne should receive two negroes (Major and Susanna), Major to be hired out and the money applied to the schooling of Moses Upshad Jones (of Major) and Moses Payne (of Wrixham); witnesses were William Kellum, John Watson, Leah Dubberly (Worc. Wills JW 18:160).
- ii. Isaac, b. c1721; d. by 22 May 1766; see Note, p. 453.
- iii. Jemima, b. c1723; living 1772; mar. Ezekiel Dubberly.
- iv. John, b. c1725; d. 18 Mar. /2 May 1777; see No. 3 below.
- v. Jacob, b. c1727; d. by 13 Aug. 1773; see No. 4 below.

3 JOHN PAYNE³ (John² Daniel¹), b. c1721; d. Worc. Co. by 2 May 1777; mar. Elizabeth. In 1771 John Payne secured a patent for 83 acres, "Townsend's Mistake" in Worc. Co. In his will, dated 18 Mar. 1777, he bequeathed to son Levin all land on the south side of a little branch "between me and him," also land adjacent Pilsher and Jesse Ellis, "over the mill road" (50 acres), also 5 acres between Levin's Ditch and Brashar's Ditch; to son John, all the rest of the land lying "over the road... down to Babel Hills and virgin land"; to wife, during her life, rest of land on northeast side of branches and ditches aforesaid; to son Wrixham, land "lent" to testator's wife Elizabeth after her death; and he mentioned "my five children," Rebecca, Sophia, Esther, Samuel (under age), Elizabeth. Witnesses were William Aydelott, William Lane, and Esau Pilchard (Worc. Wills JW4:331). Three sons:

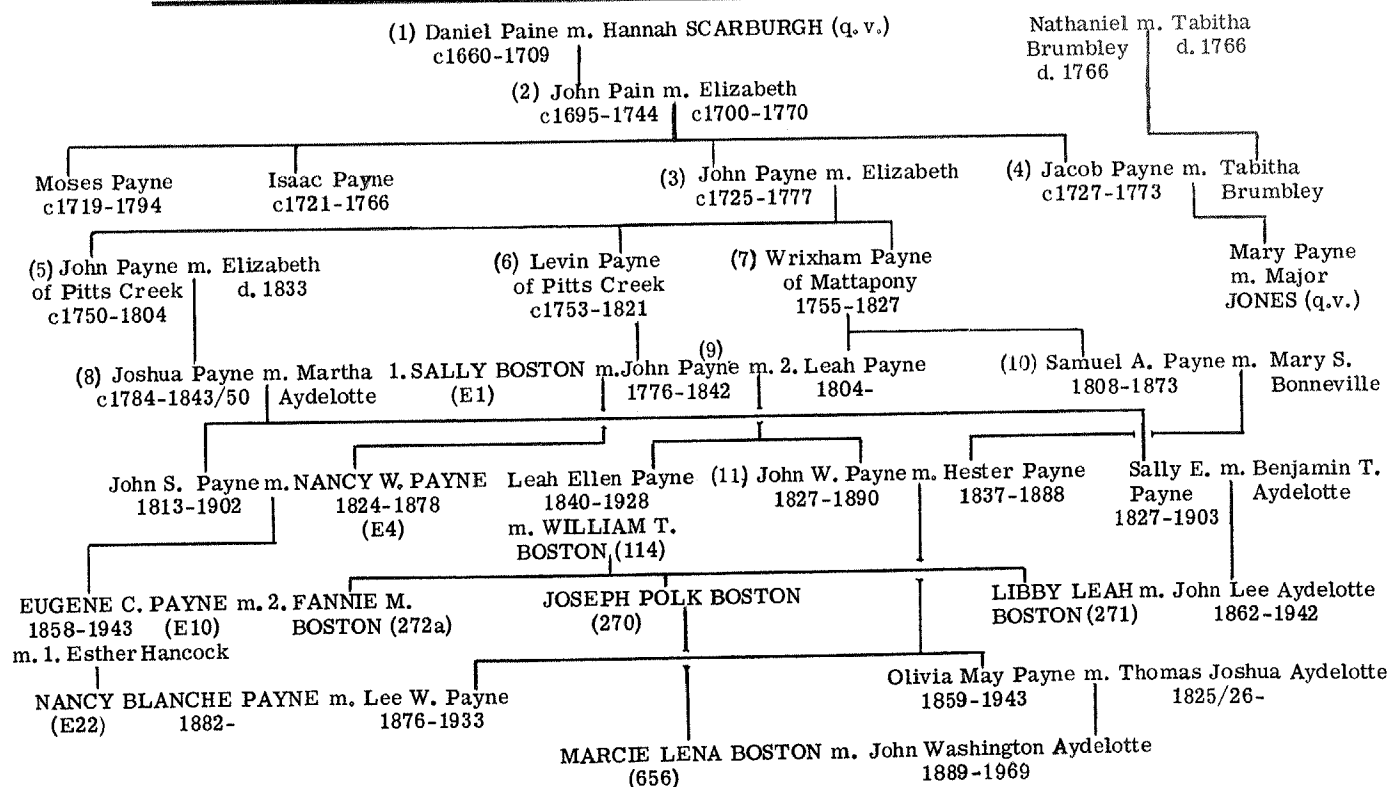

- i. John, b. c1750; d. 28 May/26 June 1804; see No. 5 below.

- ii. Levin, b. c1753; d. by 13 Nov. 1821; see No. 6 below.
- iii. Wrixham, b. 1755/56; d. 4 Oct./9 Nov. 1827; see No. 7 below.

4 JACOB PAYNE³ (John² Daniel¹), b. c1727; d. Worc. Co. by 13 Aug. 1773. mar. (c1755) Tabitha Brumbley, daughter of Nathaniel and Tabitha. On 12 Feb. 1766 Tabitha Brownly signed her will (prob. 6 June 1766) bequeathing to daughter Taby Pain one pewter dish and one shilling, naming "son-in-law" Jacob Pain an executor (Worc. Wills JW3:111). An inventory of the estate of Nathaniel Brumbley, 6 June 1766, mentioned next of kin Ann Jones and Ezekiel Brumbley, and Jacob Pain, acting executor of the last will of Tabitha Brumbley (Ann. Inv. 90:122). Jacob Pain signed his will 7 Feb. 1772, bequeathing to wife Tabitha half of plantation "whereon I now dwell" and "my plantation whereon Samuel Hutson now lives" until Jacob comes of age; to son Moses other half of plantation when he comes of age, Moses to be under the care of his uncle Moses until 21; son Moses also to have his uncle Moses' half of the plantation "whereon he now dwells" at uncle's decease. Jacob also named brother John Pain, children Tabitha, Mary, Jephtha, and (in codicil) youngest son John, to be bound out at 14 years (Worc. Wills JW4:196). Five children (for further details, see Note, p. 453).

- i. Jacob (of Mattapony), b. c1760; d. Worc. Co. by 21 Feb. 1803 (bond); mar. (lic. Worc. Co. 7 Jan. 1799) Elizabeth Payne, his cousin (see No. 5 below), who was executor for his estate, with John and Wrixham Payne securities (Worc. Accts. JBR6:35).
- ii. Mary, b. c1762; mar. Major JONES; see p. 403.
- iii. Moses Upshur, b. c1766; d. c1818.
- iv. Jephtha, b. 20 Jan. 1769; d. by 7 Aug. 1795.
- v. John, b. 20 Oct. 1772.

5 JOHN PAYNE⁴ of Pitts Creek (John³ John² Daniel¹), b. c1750; d. Pitts Creek, Worc. Co. by 26 June 1804; mar. Elizabeth, whod. Worc. Co. by 1 Feb. 1833. John was listed in the 1800 census in Pitts Creek Hundred. In his will, signed 28 May 1804, he left to son Joshua "my plantation"; to wife Eliza all land during her single life, and personal property; to son James, $550 (appointed executor with William Aydelott); to son Jacob, plantation bought from Handy Blades; and to daughters Betsy, Polly, and Nelly Payne (Worc. Wills JBR6:153). His widow Elizabeth Payne, in her will, signed 27 Dec. 1832, made bequests to granddaughters Easter, Martha, and Mahaly Payne, to grandsons Littleton and John Payne, and to son Joshua Payne (executor with William Aydelott). Witnesses were John Gootee and John Payne (Worc. Wills MH27:543). The 1783 Worc. Co. tax list shows John Payne in Pitts Creek Hundred owning 100 acres "Townsend's Mistake" and "Smithfield," the latter originally owned by John Payne (2), inherited by his son Moses, who sold it (1744) to John Payne, Jr. (3), to whom this John Payne (5) was heir-at-law. Four of the children (born Pitts Creek):

- i. Elizabeth, b. c1780; mar. Jacob Payne (No. 4 i above).
- ii. James, b. c1782; d. Worc. Co. by 9 June 1818 (bond).
- iii. Joshua, b. c1784; d. 11/20 May 1845; see No. 8 below.
- iv. Jacob, b. c1786; d. by 3 May 1836 (Worc. Wills LPS 1:59); mar. (lic. Worc. 1 Apr. 1807) Nancy Wagonon.

6 LEVIN PAYNE⁴ (John³ John² Daniel¹), b. c1753; d. Pitts Creek, Worc. Co. by 13 Nov. 1821; mar. Leah Kellam, daughter of Isaac (d. 1780; Worc. Wills JW4:443). In 1796 Levin secured a patent to "Payne's Discovery," 2 acres in Worc. Co. In his will, dated 23 Aug. 1813, he left to son John "my land and plantation" and named him executor; he also mentioned daughter Nancy Merrill and her children, Polly, William, Levin Payne Merrill, and Joshua Merrill (Worc. Wills MH 10:493). Children:

- i. Nancy, b. c1775; mar. (lic. Worc. Co. 1 Apr. 1801) Samuel Merrill.
- ii. John, b. 13 Dec. 1776; d. 6 Oct. 1842; see No. 9 below.

7 WRIXHAM PAYNE⁴ (John³ John² Daniel¹), b. 1755/56; d. in Worc. Co. 4 Oct./9 Nov. 1827; mar. 1st Susanna, probably daughter of William Aydelott (c1720-1778; Worc. Wills JW4:364-66), b. c1770; d. by 1817; mar. 2nd (lic. Worc. 28 Jan. 1817) Sally Watson. On 19 Mar. 1790 Wrixham and Levin Payne sold to John Watson 64 acres, "Bacon Quarter"; 29 acres, "Thin Soil," on the south side of Pocomoke River, on the river; all of "Smithfield" and "Farloworth," devised to them by their father's last will; and "Partnership," bought by Wrixham from Bowdoin Robins, 31 Jan. 1780 (Worc. Deeds N:191). Wrixham was listed in Mattaponi Hundred in the 1800 Worc. Co. census (b.1755/74). On 28 May 1804 Wrixham and Susanna witnessed the will of his brother John (No. 5). In his will, dated 4 Oct. 1827, he made bequests to sons Samuel A., Moses, and William Payne, to wife Sally, to five daughters: Mary Payne, Esther, Ellis, Rebecca Hill, Leah Payne, Betsy Benson, and grandson Moses James Payne. Witnesses were Ben Aydelotte, Joshua Payne (Worc. Wills MH27:289). On 14 Mar. 1828 Wrixham's heirs, Sally and Moses Payne, Josiah Ellis and wife Esther, John Payne and wife Leah, all of Worc. Co., Levin Hill and wife Rebecca of Accomack Co., Va., and Mary Payne of Sussex Co., Del., gave bond to William Payne to abide by his decision in settling their father's estate (Worc. Deeds AT:415). Two of the children:

- i. Leah, b. 3 Mar. 1804; mar. cousin John PAYNE; see No. 9.
- ii. Samuel Aydelotte, b. 23 July 1808; d. 2 May 1873; see No. 10 below.

8 JOSHUA PAYNE⁵ (John⁴ John³ John² Daniel¹), b. c1784; d. Worc. Co. 11/20 May 1845; mar. (lic. Worc. 21 Jan. 1812) Martha ("Patty") Aydelotte. On 9 Jan. 1843, for $100, Joshua and Martha Payne sold to John S. Payne 23 acres, part of "Smithfield," to the east of the farm where Joshua Payne and wife resided, adjacent land of Stephen Hill, lands formerly of Levi Ellis, and land of Kellam's heirs, and near the county road from Swans Gut to New Town (Worc. Deeds GHM 6:137). In his will, signed 2 May 1845, Joshua Payne left to wife Martha (executrix) 20 acres, and made bequests to son Benjamin O., daughters Esther A. Wilkerson, Nancy Benson, Druscilla G. Payne, Sally E. Payne, and Adaline Payne (the last under 16); in a codicil of 11 May 1845 he left to son John lands bought of the late John Payne (Worc. Wills LPS 1:286). Their son (according to Bible records) and daughter (according to her death record):

- i. John Sturgis, b. Remsen District, Worc. Co. 27 Jan. 1813; d. 20 Aug. 1902; mar. (1853) his second cousin, NANCY W. PAYNE (E4); see No. 9 iii below.
- ii. Sally E., b. 1827; d. near Stockton, Md. 11 Dec. 1903; mar. (lic. Worc. 30 Apr. 1850) Benjamin T. AYDELOTTE. Son:
 1. John Lee, b. 1862; d. 1942; mar. his second cousin, LIBBY LEAH BOSTON (271).

9 JOHN PAYNE⁵ (Levin⁴ John³ John² Daniel¹), b. 13 Dec. 1776; d. Worc. Co. 6 Oct. 1842; mar. apparently 1st (lic. Worc. 23 July 1801) Sally Pruitt (no children); 2nd (c1817, common-law marriage) SALLY BOSTON, presumably daughter of ESAU and Sarah (Ward) BOSTON (38), b. c1780; d. c Apr. 1824; 3rd (12 Oct. 1826 - Bible) his first cousin Leah Payne, daughter of Wrixham (No. 7 i above), b. 3 Mar. 1804. On 28 Nov. 1840 John and Leah Payne, for $20, sold to Joshua Payne 8 acres, the deed mentioning a dividing line between John and Joshua Payne and the outlet to the county road from Swans Gut to New Town (Worc. Deeds GMH 4:17). Dates are from family Bible formerly owned by Mervin Jones, Stockton, Md. Children (first three by second marriage):

- i. WILLIAM W., b. 4 Apr. 1818; d. 22 Aug. 1884; see E2.
- ii. JAMES W., b. 28 Apr. 1820; d. Jan. 1878; see E3.
- iii. NANCY W., b. 16 Apr. 1824; d. 17 Sept. 1878; mar. her second cousin, John S. Payne (No. 8 i above); see E3.
- iv. John W., b. 29 Sept. 1827; d. 6 Feb. 1890; see No. 11 below.
- v. Oliver A., b. 10 Apr. 1829.
- vi. Moses, b. 9 Apr. 1838; d. 6 Dec. 1912; mar. (lic. Worc. 16 Dec. 1856) Ellen A. Mason; on 8 Feb. 1853 he sold to John W. Payne part of "Smithfield" (Worc. Deeds EDM 5:174).
- vii. Levin D., b. 28 Sept. 1833.
- viii. Mary L., b. 23 Dec. 1835.
- ix. Leah Ellen, b. 10 Nov. 1840; d. 9 June 1928; mar. WILLIAM THOMAS BOSTON (114).

10 SAMUEL AYDELOTTE PAYNE⁵ (Wrixham⁴ John³ John² Daniel¹), b. 23 July 1808; d. 2 May 1873; mar. (lic. Worc. 7 Dec. 1830) Mary Scarborough ("Polly") Bonneville, b. 22 Mar. 1812; d. 9 July 1863; he was head of household 1609 in the 1st Election District, Worc. Co., 1850. Of his children, one daughter:

POWELL FAMILIES OF THE EASTERN SHORE

At least two different Powell families located in Somerset Co., Md., in the late seventeenth or early eighteenth century. Walter Powell may have come to Virginia as early as 1643; he settled in Somerset Co. by 1670. Gabriel Powell arrived in Northampton Co., Va., about 1655; his descendants moved into Somerset Co. about 1706, when a Thomas Powell patented a tract, "Slaughter's Ridge," in present Worcester Co. No connection has been found between the two families. In reconstructing these families, the compiler is indebted to Mr. Leslie Powell Dryden, of Hyattsville, Md., for invaluable assistance.

1 WALTER POWELL, b. c1626; d. Som. Co. by 4 Feb. 1695/96; mar. (c1666) Margaret Berry, who d. Som. Co. 26 Nov. 1679; she was a Quaker from Virginia. Walter himself evidently did not become a Quaker until after 1674; both he and his son, William, were in the Bogerternorton Meeting (Torrence, p. 107). It was apparently this Walter Powell brought into Virginia by Capt. Samuel Mathews, who in 1643 was granted 4000 acres on the Rappahannock River (Nugent, I:144). In July 1670 Powell bought from Thomas Walker "Greenfield," "Middle," and "Exchange" (Som. Deeds 7:41-43). In 1681 he patented "Friends Gift" (150 acres), "Hilliards Discovery" (150 acres), "Winter Quarter" (200 acres), "Olivers Portion" (150 acres); in 1686, "Powells Inclusion" (256 acres); in 1687, "Powells Addition" (50 acres); and in 1695, "Powells Lott" (443 acres) and "Powells Recovery" (112 acres), all in Worc. Co. now. In his will, signed 20 Nov. 1695, he devised to son William "Greenfield" and 50 acres of "Poll's [Powell's] Addition"; to son John, 100 acres of "Winter Quarter" on the seaside; to daughters Elizabeth Powell and Mary Evans, 390 acres, consisting of "Powells Mill Pond" (250) and "Hilliard's Discovery"; to daughter Margaret Schoolfield, 150 acres, "Oliver's Portion on the Sea"; to daughter Catherine, 150 acres, "Friend's Gift" at the seaside; and he also named daughter Sarah. He expressed the wish to be "buried in the Quaker Burying Ground," and appointed as executors sons William and John, and Henry Schoolfield. Witnesses were John Cornish, Henry Ayres, Peter Dent, Alex. Maddux, and Archibald Holmes (Ann. Wills 7: 151). Children (all born probably in Somerset Co., Md.):

- i. Elizabeth, b. c1667; mar. (21 Dec. 1683) Hugh Tingle; mar. ceremony performed by William Traile, Presby. minister.
- ii. Mary, b. 30 Jan. 1669/70 at Pocomoke; mar. Walter Evans.
- iii. Sarah, b. 1671.
- iv. William, b. 12 June 1673 at Pocomoke; d. by 22 June 1715; see No. 2 below.
- v. John, b. 27 Sept. 1674, "baptized ye 25 day of October"; mar. Rachel, daughter of Richard and Martha (Rhodes) Tull; removed to Northampton Co., Va.
- vi. Margaret, b. 22 Feb. 1675/76; mar. Henry Schoolfield.
- vii. Katherine, b. 26 May 1678; mar. William White (1673-1708).

2 WILLIAM POWELL, son of Walter, b. Pocomoke, 12 June 1673; d. Som. Co. by 22 June 1715; mar. Elizabeth Lane, who mar. 2nd Samuel Brittingham, whose daughter mar. her son. William Powell, of "Greenfield," was a Quaker like his father. In his will dated 15 Apr. 1715 he bequeathed to son John 200 acres of "Greenfield," the plantation "I now live on," also 50 acres by the river, "Powell's Addition"; to son William, "my" plantation, "The Exchange" and the rest of "Greenfield"; to son Levin, "The Middle" and 112 acres of marsh, i. e. "Powell's Recovery"; to sons John and William, "my plantation at the seaside," part of "Powell's Lott"; he also named daughter Margaret and wife Elizabeth (executor) and requested "to be buried according to the direction of the Quakers" (Ann. Wills 14:254). Children:

- i. John, b. c1700; d. 1753/57; see No. 3 below.
- ii. William, removed to Prince William Co., Va.
- iii. Levin, b. c1714; d. 1764.
- iv. Margaret, mar. William Holland.

3 JOHN POWELL, son of William, b. c1700; d. Som. Co. 1753/57; mar. Betty Brittingham, daughter of Samuel Brittingham (d. Acco. Co. 1726). Samuel was a son of William Brittingham, Sr., of Acco. Co., who in his will, signed 18 Mar. 1708/9 (prob. 5 Apr. 1709) made bequests to sons Samuel (plantation "where he now lives," on the gut leading out of Pitts Creek), Nathaniel, John, William (400 acres in Som. Co., Md., part of a "divident" containing 700 acres called "Winter Quarter"), Joseph, Isaac; son-in-law Francis Thorowgood, executor (half of marsh land adjacent "plantation where I now live" in Som. Co.); daughters Rebecca Brittingham, Sarah Horsey, Ann Thorowgood; wife Mary; witnesses were Robert and Elizabeth Pitt, Ralph Milbourn, Thomas Baker (Nottingham, p. 34). John Powell moved to near Rehobeth, west of the Pocomoke River, in 1753 patenting "Powell's Chance" in Som. Co. Children (born Somerset Co., Md.):

- i. Mary, b. c1725; mar. (Coventry, 1747) Michael Holland.
- ii. Martha, b. c1729; mar. William Benston.
- iii. Betty, b. c1731; mar. (Coventry, 1754) Alexander Maddux.
- iv. Rachel, b. c1733; mar. (Coventry, 2 Feb. 1757) Lazarus LANKFORD (q.v.).
- v. Britain, b. 1737; d. by 15 Mar. 1796; see No. 4 below.
- vi. Jesse, b. c1740.

4 BRITAIN POWELL, son of John and Betty (Brittingham) Powell, b. 1737; d. Som. Co. by 15 Mar. 1796; mar. (Coventry, 14 Jan. 1762) Sarah LONG, daughter of Solomon and Margaret (Maddux) LONG (p. 412, No. 8). According to a deposition of 1763 Britain was aged 26. He secured a patent to "Wood Hall Regained,"

136 acres, in 1793. He signed his will 1 Mar. 1796, bequeathing to sons Britain and Jesse land; to son Samuel, 80 acres; to son William "all the remainder of my Lands including my Dwelling house and the house where he now lives." He also made bequests to daughters Sarah, Betty, Mary C., and Orpah Powell, and Peggy Landon ("one desk"). Witnesses were Samuel Smith, George Schoolfield, Solomon Long (Som. Wills EB17:496). In settlement of the estate, Molly Powell, administrator, made a payment to Peggy Leach for keeping a bastard child of the deceased (Som. Accts. EB27:86). Children (born Somerset Co., Md., probably near Rehobeth):

- i. William, b. 25 Oct. 1762 (Coventry); d. Som. Co. by 26 Mar. 1816; mar. (before 1796) Sarah Long; according to an inventory of his estate 10 Apr. 1816 money was due to Thomas Landing (Som. Accts. JP5:30).
- ii. Peggy, b. c1764; mar. [? Thomas] Landon [? Landing].
- iii. Samuel, b. c1768; d. 1816/22; see No. 5 below.
- iv. Jesse, b. c1770.
- v. Betty, b. c1773; mar. (lic. Som. 5 June 1798) Levi Powell.
- vi. Britain, Jr., b. c1775; d. Som. Co. by 27 Nov. 1804; mar. (lic. Som. 27 Dec. 1803) Polly Gibbons.
- vii. Sarah, b. c1777; mar. (lic. 26 Sept. 1807) George Robertson.
- viii. Mary C., b. c1780; d. c1830; mar. (lic. Som. 22 Sept. 1801) Sewell LONG (see p. 415, No. 17), her first cousin.
- ix. Orpha, b. c1782; mar. (lic. Som. Co. 28 Feb. 1804) Peter Gibbons.

5 SAMUEL POWELL, son of Britain and Sarah (Long) Powell, b. c1768; d. Som. Co. 10 Apr. 1816/7 June 1822; mar. (lic. Som. 15 Jan. 1802) his first cousin, Matilda Long, daughter of David and Sarah (Long) LONG (p. 414, No. 11), b. c1779; d. Som. Co. 1840/50. She was listed, aged 60/70, in the 1840 Som. Co. census, Middle District. Samuel G. Powell could be a son of Samuel's brother, William Powell, but similarity of names suggests that he was Samuel's son. Child:

- i. Samuel G., b. 1807/8; d. 1860/70; see No. 6 below.

6 SAMUEL G. POWELL, son of Samuel and Matilda (Long) Powell, b. Som. Co., probably near Rehobeth, 1807/8; d. probably in the same area between 1860 and 1870; mar. (lic. Som. 21 Nov. 1833) Amelia Jane Adams, daughter of Stephen and Eleanor N. (DRYDEN) ADAMS (p. 363, No. 22), b. c1815/16; d. presumably in the Rehobeth area c1855. Children:

- i. Emily F., b. 1834; mar. Edward J. ADAMS, her first cousin (p. 363, No. 22).
- ii. Mary, b. c1836.
- iii. Stephen, b. c1838; moved to Baltimore.
- iv. Virginia A., b. c1841; mar. Samuel S. Handy.
- v. Adeline, b. c1842.
- vi. Elizabeth Jane, b. 12 Mar. 1845; d. 5 Nov. 1913; mar. Isaac F. DRYDEN; see No. 7 below.
- vii. Bayard J., b. c1849.
- viii. Joseph W., b. c1852.

7 ELIZABETH JANE POWELL, daughter of Samuel G. (6), b. near Rehobeth, Som. Co., 12 Mar. 1845; d. near Rehobeth, 12 Nov. 1913; mar. (Som. Co. 12 Nov. 1870) Isaac Francis DRYDEN, b. 5 Nov. 1848; d. Som. Co. 11 Jan. 1907; both buried Quinton M. P. Cemetery, Som. Co., near Pocomoke City (no gravestones). Two children (born Som. Co., Brinkley's District, ? near Rehobeth):

- ii. Samuel Isaac, b. 8 Aug. 1874; d. 3 July 1926; see No. 8 below.
- iii. William Jefferson, b. 20 Nov. 1876; d. 9 Nov. 1951; see No. 9 below.

8 SAMUEL ISAAC DRYDEN, son of Isaac F. (7), b. Som. Co., Md., in Brinkley's District, 8 Aug. 1874; d. on a visit to Pocomoke City, Md. 29 July 1926; mar. (Emmanuel Church, Perry-hawken, Som. Co. 8 Dec. 1897) Zenobia Hill Culver, daughter of George Albert and Lydeline Adeline (Miller) Culver, b. Dublin District, Som. Co. 16 Jan. 1879; d. Leland Memorial Hospital, Riverdale, Md. 7 Aug. 1965; both buried Quinton Cemetery. Samuel was at first a teacher, for a time principal of Pocomoke City H.S., then operated a general store at West Post Office; he then moved to Baltimore, June 1907, where he became a street car conductor. Children (all but first born West P. O., Som. Co.):

- i. Hugh Latimer, b. Pocomoke City, Md. 2 July 1898; d. Bethesda, Md. 2 Dec. 1965; Ph. D., Johns Hopkins; a distinguished and world famous aero-space scientist, he rose to the position of principal physicist at the Bureau of Standards, Washington, D. C., was successively appointed chief of the aerodynamics section, chief of the mechanics and sound division, and associate director. Then after serving as director of the National Advisory Committee for Aerodynamics, he was in 1958 appointed deputy administrator of newly formed National Aeronautics and Space Administration (NASA), a position he held until his death.
- ii. Raymond Culver, b. 5 Feb. 1902; d. Baltimore, 4 Nov. 1959.
- iii. Samuel Isaac, Jr., b. 5 July 1904; d. West P. O. 5 Nov. 1905.
- iv. Edith Elizabeth, b. 25 May 1906; d. Baltimore, 9 Sept. 1907.
- v. Leslie Powell, b. Baltimore, 25 Dec. 1914; B.S. (1947), Geo. Wash. Univ., M.S. (1961), American Univ.; research biochemist with the Biochemistry Laboratory, Animal Physiology and Genetics Institute, Beltsville Agricultural Research Center, U. S. Dept. of Agriculture (ret. Dec. 1973). A distinguished and highly respected amateur genealogist of professional experience and skill, he is a tireless and meticulous researcher; he has contributed generous quantities of information for the first, and especially the second, edition of this compilation.

9 WILLIAM JEFFERSON DRYDEN, son of Isaac F. (7), b. near Rehobeth, Som. Co., Md. 20 Nov. 1876; d. near Rehobeth, 9 Nov. 1951; mar. (Som. Co. 18 July 1899) Etta May Cluff (1880-1951), both buried Rehobeth Baptist Cemetery. One son:

- i. Allen Bryce, b. Rehobeth, 1 Oct. 1924; mar. MARIAN LEIGH CHASE (1911).

* * * * *

The other Powell family, located in Somerset (now Worcester) Co., Md., evidently not related to the family of Walter Powell, appears to be descended from Gabriel Powell, who was brought into Northampton Co., Va., by Southey Littleton in 1655 and died there in 1661. Many of the family settled in Atkinson's District of Worcester Co. The link has not yet been established between the immigrant and Zadock Powell.

1 ZADOCK POWELL, b. c1740; d. Worc. Co. by 1 Apr. 1811. He patented "Poor Choice or Chance" in 1762, "Zadock's Secularity" in 1775. In his will, signed 25 June 1810, he made bequests to children Zadok (part of a tract "whereon I now live" adjacent Erasmus Harrison, "Middle Ditch," "Poor Choice"), Ebenezer, Elijah (negroes), Eli, Jacob, Leah Knox, Nancy Collier, and grandchildren (of "my daughter Polly"), i. e. Elizabeth and Jephthay. Witnesses were Thomas N. Williams, and Jesse and John Powell (Worc. Wills MH4:262). Two of his sons:

- i. Zadock, Jr., b. 1781; d. 20 Mar. 1856; see No. 2 below.
- ii. Ebenezer, b. 11 Apr. 1788 (Bible); d. 13 Mar. 1859; buried Methodist Cemetery, Snow Hill, Md.

2 ZADOCK POWELL, JR., son of Zadock (1), b. 1781 (Bible) and tombstone; d. near Newark, Worc. Co., Md., 20 Mar. 1856; mar. 1st (lic. Worc. 16 Dec. 1805; 11 Oct. 1805 in Bible) Sarah Massey, b. 1783 (Bible); d. 31 Dec. 1828 (Bible); mar. 2nd (lic. Worc. 25 June 1830) Nancy Starling, b. 1799; d. 28 Jan. 1855 (Bible, tombstone); buried with Zadock in Methodist Cemetery, (Bible, tombstone) is identified as "Jr." in his application for a marriage license in 1805.) In the 1850 census Zadock, aged 69, was head of household 791, in the 9th Election District. In his will, dated 25 Mar. 1856, he left to sons William, James, and John one feather bed and necessary covering, the remainder of the estate to daughter Rachel; executor was to be Peter C. Powell (Worc. Wills TT8:160). Dates are from Bible owned (in 1976) by Miss Mamie C. Coffin, Berlin, Md.) One son, by second marriage (born Worc. Co., Md., near Newark; for other children, see Note, p. 454):

- i. William Zadock, b. 16 Oct. 1836; d. 2 Mar. 1922; mar. MARGARET ELIZABETH JACKSON (386d).

ROGERS FAMILY

This Rogers family came to Chester Co., Pennsylvania, about 1712 and migrated to Pendleton, Indiana, 1834/35. The following account is based on notes collected by the late Charles Elliott Boston, which were kindly made available by Mrs. C. D. Kinnard of Pendleton; the material compiled by C. E. Boston contains considerably more information on collateral lines of the Rogers family than it was possible to include here.

1 JOSEPH ROGERS, one of the pioneers of Vincent township, Chester Co., Pa., settled there with his wife Mary about 1712. An entry in the records of a Quarterly (Quaker) Meeting held in Mansfield, Derbyshire, England, lists among removals to Pa.: "Mary Rogers, Minister, wife of Joseph Rogers, of the town of East Markleton, in the County of Nottingham, England; she asked for the Certificate 7th Month, 27th"; though there is no date given, it is entirely possible that these are the same Joseph and Mary Rogers who settled in Chester Co., Pa. Other early accounts relative to the family, however, report that the family came from Ireland, still others that it came from Wales. In Pa. the family is said to have lived in a cave on the site where the barn was afterwards built. Joseph died about 1754, leaving children Mary, Hannah, and Joseph, Jr.

2 JOSEPH ROGERS, JR., son of Joseph, b. probably in England, c1710; d. Chester Co., Pa. 13 June 1778; mar. (1741) Hannah Watson, daughter of William and Hannah Watson of New Providence, b. 23 June 1717; d. 6 Dec. 1778. Children:

- i. Rebecca, b. 23 Dec. 1742; d. 21 Nov. 1807; mar. 1st Reuben Thomas; 2nd John Merideth.
- ii. James, b. 27 Feb. 1744; mar. Priscilla Griffith.
- iii. John, b. 4 Aug. 1746.
- iv. Mary, b. 26 Dec. 1747; d. young.
- v. William, b. 11 Sept. 1749.
- vi. Jonathan, b. 25 Feb. 1755; d. 4 Feb. 1822; see No. 3 below.
- vii. Hannah, b. 12 Jan. 1757.

3 JONATHAN ROGERS, son of Joseph, Jr., b. Chester Co., Pa. 15 Feb. 1755; d. Chester Co. 4 Feb. 1822; mar. (11 May 1780) Ann Jones, daughter of William and Rebecca Jones of White-marsh, Chester Co., said to have come from Wales. On 17 Jan. 1793 Jonathan Rogers bought 223 acres of land from the West Jersey Society, the agent of William Penn, for £727. 16. 5; it was known as the Cave Farm. Children:

- i. Charles, b. 22 Jan. 1781; no family.
- ii. William, b. 3 Aug. 1783; mar. Mary Evans; at one time sheriff of Chester Co.
- iii. Hannah, b. 27 Jan. 1785; no family.
- iv. Rebecca, b. 16 Oct. 1786; mar. --- Gordon.
- v. Joseph, b. 20 Aug. 1788; d. 1838; mar. Elizabeth Reese; migrated to Indiana.
- vi. Benjamin, b. 3 Jan. 1791; d. 1872; see No. 4 below.
- vii. Jonathan, b. 7 Feb. 1793; migrated to Indiana.
- viii. David, b. 5 Mar. 1795.
- ix. James, b. 2 Oct. 1797.
- x. Samuel, b. 9 Mar. 1800; no family.
- xi. Ann, b. 30 Apr. 1802; mar. --- Williams; Charles E. Boston visited her in Pa. in 1876.

4 BENJAMIN ROGERS, son of Jonathan, b. Vincent township, Chester Co., Pa. 3 Jan. 1791; d. Pendleton, Ind. 1872; mar. (17 Dec. 1816) Elizabeth Wells, b. 24 Mar. 1799. His brothers Jonathan and Joseph moved to Indiana in wagons in 1834 (they left Chester Co. 9 May, reached their destination in Indiana 9 June); in 1835 Benjamin followed, settling first in a cabin; later he bought a house across from where the Spring Valley school was later built. In 1867 he moved his family to Pendleton. A letter from Joseph Rogers (brother of Benjamin) describes a return trip to Pa. He wrote that he had walked through the winter mud from Indianapolis to Richmond, about 70 miles; then he rode the stage without any fire, day and night, by way of Wheeling and Baltimore to Philadelphia, with great discomfort; as a consequence the trip had given him a severe cold. Children of Benjamin and Elizabeth (Wells) Rogers:

- i. Jonathan Jones, b. 17 Dec. 1817; mar. 1st Hannah Weeks;

2nd Louisa Copeland.

- ii. Margaret Ann, b. Chester Co., Pa. 13 Oct. 1828; d. 26 Nov. 1866; mar. JOHN RICHARD BOSTON (86).

SCARBOROUGH (SCARBURGH FAMILY)

The Scarburgh (Scarborough) family, among the earliest settlers on the Eastern Shore of Virginia, is descended from a family of landed gentry of county Norfolk, England, residing at North Walsham in the early sixteenth century, in the time of Henry VIII. Edmund Scarburgh, Esq., settled in London for a time, before 1615, but before 1628 he migrated to Accomack Co., Virginia. Descendants moved into Somerset Co., Md., in the late seventeenth and early eighteenth centuries. Information for the first three generations of Scarburghs is from a Visitation of Norfolk, in Harleian Society Publication, Vol. 86, London, 1934, pp. 193-94; for the third and later generations of Scarburghs, from Jennings Cropper Wise, Col. John Wise of England and Virginia... His Ancestors and Descendants [1918], pp. 35-36.

The HUMBERSTONE family, which intermarried with the Scarburghs, is descended from John Humberstone of Bradenham, co. Norfolk, in the late fifteenth century. By his wife, daughter and heir of --- Turpin, he was father of John, who married Ellen, daughter of --- Browne of Norwich. Their son, another John Humberstone, of Norwich, married Ceciley, daughter of Alban Hewse of Knapton, co. Norfolk. Their son, John, of the city of Norwich, married 1st Elizabeth, daughter of John Clarke of Lodden; their daughter Mary married Henry Scarburgh (No. 3 below). Information from Visitations of Norfolk, 1563 and 1613, Harl. Soc. Pub., Vol. 32, London, 1891, pp. 166-67.

1 JOHN SCARBURGH, [b. c1495]; d. N. Walsham, co. Norfolk, 1540 (will prob. 8 Oct.); mar. Maude. Son:

2 HENRY SCARBURGH, b. 1521; d. N. Walsham, Jan. 1605/6, aged 84; mar. Elizabeth. His will was proved 11 Jan. 1605/6. Son:

3 HENRY SCARBURGH (SKARBOROUGH), b. 1561 (bapt. 21 Sept. 1565); d. 17 Aug. 1617, buried N. Walsham, where a monument to him stands in the church; mar. (c1583) Mary Humberstone of Lodden. He was admitted to Caius College, Cambridge, 3 Nov. 1581; with brothers John and Edmund in 1614 he had confirmation of arms; his will was proved 9 Sept. 1617. Children (born N. Walsham, co. Norfolk, England):

- i. Edmund, bapt. 25 Dec. 1584; d. by 9 Jan. 1635/36; see No. 4 below.
- ii. Henry, bapt. 21 July 1590; d. Caius College 11 Apr. 1609; admitted to Caius, 9 Oct. 1606; attorney at law.
- iii. Samuel, bapt. 4 Nov. 1593; d. N. Walsham 20 Apr. 1655; admitted to Caius, 3 Nov. 1610, B. A. 1614; admitted to Lincoln's Inn, 1614.
- iv. John, bapt. 7 May 1598; admitted to Caius, 1614, B. A. 1617; admitted to Gray's Inn, 1616.

4 EDMUND SCARBURGH (SCARBOROUGH), bapt. N. Walsham 25 Dec. 1584; d. intestate, Accomack Co., Va. between 18 Apr. 1635 and 9 Jan. 1635/36; mar. Hannah, daughter of Robert Butler (?Boteler); admitted to Caius College, 15 Apr. 1602; lived for a time in the Parish of St. Martin's in the Fields, London; migrated to Virginia by 1628; Burgess, 1629-30 and later; Justice of the Peace, 1631; Commander of the Plantation of Accomack, 1631-32 or earlier. Children (first two born St. Martin's in the Fields, London, possibly also first daughter):

- i. Sir Charles, bapt. 29 Dec. 1615; d. 1694; attended St. Paul's School; admitted to Caius College, 4 Mar. 1633, B. A. 1637, M. A. 1640; M. D., Merton College, Oxford, 1646; Fellow of Caius, 1642-49, expelled by Puritan Parliament; physician in ordinary to Charles II, James II, William III; Fellow of the Royal Society; knighted 14 Aug. 1669.
- ii. Edmund, bapt. 2 Oct. 1617; d. between 22 Mar. and 25 May 1671 of smallpox at his home on Occahannock Creek, known as "Hedera Cottage." Known as "Conjurer" Scarburgh among the Indians for success in fighting them, he was one of the most active, influential, and powerful figures in early Eastern Shore history. Owner of vessels trading with New England, New Amsterdam, the West Indies, he at one time waged private war against the Dutch on the Delaware River, yet he was reputedly a friend of Gov. Peter Stuyvesant. He held the salt monopoly in Va. He was "Surveyor-General and Treasurer for his Majesty" in Va., and a Burgess in 1642, 1644, 1645, 1657, 1659-71. J. C. Wise characterizes him as an "ardent and intolerant Anglican," who was one of the chief persecutors of Quakers and other non-conformists in Northampton Co., Va., and he wrote revolutionary tracts against the Puritan Parliament. Probably as a gesture of good will named by Lord Baltimore on 6 Nov. 1661 as one of three commissioners to effect settlement in what was to be Som. Co., he actually tried to interfere with the settlement. Claiming the whole area as part of Va., he "invaded" it with a troop of forty horsemen in Oct. 1663, trying to enforce submission. The Va. Assembly tried unsuccessfully to curb his high-handed actions (see Torrence, pp. 15, 21, 29-54, and esp. 388-92 for Col. Scarborough's report of his proceedings at Annesmessex).

iii. Henry (of London).

iv. Hannah, b. c1622; mar. Col. John Wise; see No. 5 below.

v. Catherine, b. c1635?; mar. Randall REVELL (q.v.).

5 JOHN WISE, of Clifton, Acco. Co., Va., b. England, 1617; d. Acco. Co., probably at Onancock, by 19 Nov. 1695; mar. (? 1637) Hannah Scarborough, daughter of Edmund and Hannah (Butler) Scarborough. According to J. C. Wise, John Wise was descended from a Devonshire family whose descent is traced back to one, Oliver Wise (Gewis, Gwiss) of Greston, of Saxon race, in England before the Conquest, but the exact connection of John Wise with this family has not been satisfactorily demonstrated. He came from Bristol, England, to Va. July 1635, aged 19. He was granted a patent to 200 acres on Nandua Creek, in North. Co., 24 Mar. 1655, for transporting into the colony four persons; this land he later sold. In 1663 and 1665 he bought from William and Dorothy Waters 1200 acres on the present Cedar Cove (then called "Ekeeks Creek"), on the north side of Onancock Creek and Chesconnessex Creek, a holding which he enlarged in 1673 with 500 acres more. In 1663 Wise was appointed one of the commissioners to attend the meeting of the first court for the newly created Accomack Co. and remained one of the county leaders. According to tradition he presented the first communion set to St. George's Church, Pungoteague (Whitelaw, pp. 44, 947). In his will, signed 21 Oct. 1693, he bequeathed to eldest son John the plantation "where I now live" on Chesconnessex Creek, adjacent land of Capt. George Parker; to son William, land on Onancock Creek; to John Wise, "my second son of that name and usually called Johannes," land adjacent brother John; to friend Thomas Teackle a small silver tankard, as "a token of my love"; and he also named daughters Barbara Robins, Hannah Scarborough; James Lee; granddaughters Neome Mikemie and Comfort Taylor. Witnesses were George Parker, John West, Jr., Nich: Hill, and John West, a minor (Nottingham, p. 19). Three children (born Northampton Co., Va.):

i. John, b. c1640; d. Acco. Co. by 7 May 1717.

ii. Mary, b. c1646; living 1698; mar. (1668) William Anderson, who d. Accomack Co., Va. 23 July / 4 Oct. 1698. In his will, dated 23 July 1698, he bequeathed to Francis Makemie and Naomi his wife, "my eldest daughter," 1000 acres (his home plantation) at Matchatank, and 950 acres at Pocomoke; another plantation to wife Mary; and at least 900 acres to other relatives, including land at the head of Pitts Creek in Somerset Co. Among others named were sister Temperance, wife of George Hope, and nephew William Hope (Nottingham, 23-24). Children:

1. Naomi, b. c1670; d. Acco. Co. after 1728; mar. 1st Rev. FRANCIS MAKEMIE, b. Ramelton, co. Donegal, Ireland, 1658; d. at his home near Sanford, Acco. Co. 27 Apr. / 4 Aug. 1708 (Nottingham, 29); she mar. 2nd James Kempe (d. 1722). Educated at the Univ. of Glasgow, Scotland, Makemie came to the colonies an ordained clergyman; he established the Presbyterian churches at Pitts Creek and Rehobeth; he was chief founder of organized Presbyterianism in America (1706), first moderator of the General Presbytery. He also operated a mill and owned large tracts of land, including 3804 acres on Smith Island (Whitelaw, 197, 190, 1282-85).

2. Comfort, b. 1672; d. Acco. Co. 21 Jan. / 31 May 1743; mar. 1st (c1692) Elias TAYLOR (pp. 377-8, No. 2 i), whose daughters Elizabeth, Naomi, and Comfort were residuary legatees of their grandfather Anderson; the widow Comfort mar. 2nd Mr. Finney (Nottingham, 98).

iii. Hannah, b. c1650; see No. 6 below.

6 HANNAH WISE, daughter of John and Hannah (Scarborough) Wise, b. c1650; living 1693; mar. (c1670) Matthew SCARBOROUGH, who d. in Som. Co. by 29 Jan. 1724. No relationship has been found between him and his mother-in-law's family. He settled in the southern part of what is now Worc. Co., Md. In his will, signed 11 Feb. 1718, Matthew Scarborough made bequests to "my Daughter Wise Selby, 400 acres of 'Mardike'; to Nathaniel Hopkins and Dennis his wife, 'my daughter,' 150 acres, 'Good Hope' where they now live; to Henry Ayres and Comfort, his wife, 'my daughter,' 200 acres, 'Pine Purchase' where they now live, also land on the road to Snow Hill intersecting with Bocotenorton Road; to son-in-law William Richardson 300 acres, part of 'Scarborough,' also 'Durham House' formerly belonging to Henry Bishop, Sr.; and to son John, named executor, 860 acres; he also named 'my now wife Hanna (Som. Wills EB9:89). He would appear to have married twice, both wives named Hannah. Though daughter Hannah was not mentioned in the will, her relationship is proved by deed of 1702 (see PAYNE). One daughter:

i. Hannah, b. c1675; mar. Daniel PAYNE (p. 423, No. 1).

SCOTT FAMILY

William Scott, the progenitor of this family, came into Somerset Co., Md. about 1665 as an indentured servant. On 12 Sept. 1672 William Scott, "taylor," proved his right to 50 acres for finishing his service. Since John Hilliard assigned to Scott his right to 50 acres for bringing George Martin into the province, a warrant for 100 acres was granted to Scott (Md. Land Patents, 17:35, 169). On 16 Aug. 1673 "Scott's Lot," 100 acres, was surveyed for William Scott, "taylor," by virtue of this warrant (Md. Land Patents, 17:318). Scott settled first at Morumsco, then, by 1685, at Annesmessex.

1 WILLIAM SCOTT, b. c1645; d. Annesmessex, Som. Co. by 4 June 1712; mar. (Som. Co. 11 Oct. 1670, by Mr. Robert Madox, "clarke" [i. e. clerk] Elizabeth Willson, daughter of George WILSON (p. 442). In 1683 Scott secured a patent to "Scotland," 300 acres on the north side of Pocomoke Bay about three miles from Watkins Point; and in 1685, "Scotts Folly." In his will, dated 20 Jan. 1708/9, William Scott of Annesmessex, "of the Church of England," bequeathed to son William the plantation after his mother dies; to son John, "Scotland"; to sons Abraham and Benjamin, "Jones Caution" lying in Apes Hole near Pocomoke Bay. He also made bequests to sons George, David, and Robert and to his daughters Mary, Elizabeth, and Sarah Scott, and to wife Elizabeth. Witnesses were Michael Holland, Robert Dukes, William Wilson, (Som. Wills EB9:45). Children (born Somerset Co., Md.):

i. William, b. Morumsco, 6 Oct. 1675; d. Som. Co. by 16 Aug. 1727; in his will, signed 7 Mar. 1724/25, he appointed as overseers "uncle" William Wilson and Thomas Adams, and named brother John Scott and two daughters, Deborah and Elizabeth Scott (Som. Wills EB9:113). On 7 May 1733 Edward Hearn, planter, and wife Deborah, and Joshua Atkinson and wife Elizabeth conveyed to John White, for £20, that part of "Scott Land" that William Scott, Sr., left to his son George, who had sold the land to White, 21 Apr. 1729, and Deborah and Elizabeth, coheirs and daughters of William Scott, and William Scott, Sr., conveyed their reversionary right to White (Som. Deeds 17:126, 18:75).

ii. George, b. 23 Feb. 1677/78; d. Som. Co. by 1753; mar. Betty Day, settled in Wicomico Hundred, was father of Day Scott (d. 1757).

iii. Robert, b. 10 Jan. 1679/80; d. Som. Co. by 22 Mar. 1755.

iv. John, b. 26 Feb. 1681/82; d. 8 July 1763; see No. 2 below.

v. David, b. 16 July 1684; d. without issue, 1712/27.

vi. Abraham, b. Annesmessex, 17 Oct. 1686.

vii. Benjamin, b. 16 Jan. 1688.

viii. Mary, b. 18 Sept. 1693.

ix. Elizabeth.

2 JOHN SCOTT, son of William, b. Morumsco, Som. Co., Md. 26 Feb. 1681/82; d. Worc. Co. by 8 July 1763; mar. (cApr. 1712) Jane Pittman Gray, daughter of Joseph and Elizabeth Gray, b. 4 Nov. 1689. The account of Joseph Gray, filed by his widow Elizabeth, 18 May 1727, shows payment to John Scott, who married a daughter of the deceased, for his part of the estate (Ann. Accts. 8:260). On 19 Mar. 1728 Capt. John Scott, of Som. Co., gent., and wife Jane deeded to William Merrill of Accomac Co. his part of "Scotland" (Som. Deeds 17:8). On 14 May 1729 John gave negroes to his children Elizabeth, John, Mary, Joseph, and Sarah Scott (Som. Deeds 17:151-55). About this time the family moved to that part of Pocomoke Hundred that in 1742 was taken into Worcester Co. In his will, signed 27 May 1763, John Scott bequeathed to wife Elizabeth "Smith's Folly" [purchased from Joseph Allen], and also named sons Benjamin and Joseph, daughters Sarah Purnell, Milly Scott, Elizabeth (Betty) Bruff, (Worc. Wills JW3:80). William Fleming stood surety for Elizabeth Scott, executor of Capt. John Scott's estate. Five of the children (dates from Somerset Parish records):

- i. Elizabeth, b. 25 Mar. 1714; mar. ---Bruff.
- ii. John, b. 9 Mar. 1717.
- iii. Mary, b. 20 June 1720.
- iv. Joseph, b. c1723; d. by 14 Nov. 1806; see No. 3 below.
- v. Benjamin, b. c1730; mar. 1st (Coventry, 9 Nov. 1763) Mary Stevenson; 2nd (Coventry, 28 Nov. 1765) Mary Long; children: James, b. 4 Mar. 1765; John, b. 17 Nov. 1766.

3 JOSEPH SCOTT, Sr., son of John, b. c1723; d. Worc. Co. by 14 Nov. 1806; mar. (c1752) [?Mary] Ennalls, from Dorchester Co. In the will of Joseph's first cousin, Day Scott (dated 14 June 1753) money was due Col. Ennalls (Som. Wills EB4:58). In his will, dated 2 Oct. 1806, Joseph Scott, Sr., made bequests to "sister Hooper" and to Joseph Scott and Sally Scott, relationship not indicated but presumably his grandchildren (Worc. Wills MH4:48). In an account of 14 Aug. 1818 of the estate of Joseph Scott (George Hayward, surviving executor) payments were made to Sarah and Joseph Scott, Jr., and to Charlotte Maddux for her 1/4 part of the rent of the real estate belonging to the heirs of Mary Maddux and other Madduxes (Worc. Accts. MH 19:29-34). Children (born Worcester Co., Md.):

- i. Joseph, (Jr.), b. c1753; d. Worc. Co. by 26 Mar. 1779 (bond); administrator was John Ennalls Scott; William Atkinson, Edward Vandome securities.
- ii. John Ennalls, b. c1755; d. by 8 Apr. 1803; see No. 5 below.

5 JOHN ENNALS SCOTT, son of Joseph, Sr., b. c1755; d. Worc. Co. by 8 Apr. 1803; mar. (Coventry, 15 Nov. 1780) Sarah Smith, daughter of Joseph and Sarah (Furniss) Smith (see FURNISS family). According to records of Mills descendants, he is known as "John Scott of Harper's Island." John Ennalls Scott stood security on a bond for Sarah Atkinson, executor of William Atkinson, 30 June 1784. On the bond for the estate of John E. Scott, 8 Apr. 1803, Sarah Scott and Joseph Scott, Jr., were administrators, with Angelo and John Atkinson as securities. In an account of the estate 1 May 1807 mention is made of Mary Ennalls' estate, and in another account for the estate (Sarah and Joseph Scott, administrators) payment was received from the executor of Mary Ennalls (Worc. Inv. MH2:163; Worc. Accts. MH19:29). On 15 Aug. 1804, with Joseph Scott, Jr., and James Maddux, securities, Sarah Scott posted bond as guardian to the orphans of John Scott: John Ennalls Scott, William, Polly, Levin, Henry, Susan, George (Worc. Court Proceedings JBR:39-44). Two eldest children (born probably Worc. Co., Md., baptised Coventry):

- i. Joseph, b. 18 Aug. 1782; d. by 12 Dec. 1843; see No. 6 below.
- ii. Sarah, b. 5 Jan. 1783.

5 JOSEPH SCOTT, son of John Ennalls and Sarah (Smith) Scott, b. 18 Aug. 1782; d. Worc. Co. 26 Nov. 1843; mar. (lic. Worc. 5 Dec. 1807) Mary Gunby, daughter of Joseph GUNBY (p. 395), b. 5 July 1789; d. 1 Feb. 1846. In the estate of James Stevenson (of James), who d. 1838, Joseph Scott, guardian of Joseph P. Stevenson, was ordered by the court in Apr. 1843 to collect debts (Worc. Court Proceedings SRS 1:101). On 12 Dec. 1843 John E. Scott and David G. Odell were administrators of Joseph Scott. Children, partial list (born Worc. Co.):

- i. Joseph G., b. 1813; d. 7 Sept. 1869; buried Methodist Protestant Cemetery, Pocomoke City, Md.

ii. William James, b. 14 Apr. 1815; d. 10 Aug. 1880, bur. Presby. Cemetery, Pocomoke, where his tombstone records his parentage; mar. 1st ELIZABETH CATHERINE BOSTON (111), who d. 5 Jan. 1853; mar. 2nd (8 Mar. 1854) Elizabeth Margaret Dryden, daughter of John S. DRYDEN (p. 453, No. 8) and wife, Matilda TILGHMAN (p. 384, No. 15), b. 13 Oct. 1825; d. 3 Jan. 1883, bur. with husband; for further details on this Scott family, see Note, p. 457A. One Son:

1. William James, Jr., b. 13 Feb. 1858; d. 2 Mar. 1934; mar. (30 Aug. 1898) Ida Elizabeth Hargis, daughter of William Thomas and Sara Elizabeth Naomi (Costen) Hargis, b. 26 Feb. 1869; d. 7 Sept. 1958. One daughter:
 - a. Mary H.; mar. Russell E. MATTHEWS; daughter:
 - (i) Winifred Scott Matthews, b. 20 Jan. 1928; mar. WILLIAM E. SMALL, JR. (1108).

iii. Henry, b. 21 June 1819; d. 12 Aug. 1858; bur. M. P. Cem.

iv. Mary Ann, b. 16 Aug. 1821; d. 16 Feb. 1840; mar. JOHN SMITH MILLS (119).

v. Ellen, b. 1826; in 1860 living with Elijah Scott.

vi. Levin, b. 1828; mar. 2nd (lic. Worc. 18 Feb. 1863) Sally Ann Brittingham, b. 1838/39; in 1850 Levin was in the household of Henry Scott; in 1860, in household of Elijah Scott; and John P. Scott, son of Levin and S. A., d. 24 Jan. 1871 (aged 2-6-3 yrs.) was buried in plot in M. P. Cemetery with Elijah Scott and his brothers. Son:

1. Joseph Lawson, b. 10 Mar. 1864; d. 21 Nov. 1937; mar. CARRIE EVELYN CRANMER (606).

vii. Elijah Coulbourne, b. Worc. Co. 7 Dec. 1830; d. Pocomoke, 6 Aug. 1913, bur. M. P. Cem, Pocomoke (parentage proved by death certificate); in 1860 census, head of household #2074 (Federal Census) in Costen's District (Newtown P.O.).

SMITH FAMILY OF SOMERSET COUNTY

The earliest record of this Smith family is found in Somerset Co., Md., in 1739. It might be thought that Henry Smith of Coventry Parish was a younger son of Capt. Henry Smith of Manokin, who owned "Ilchester" on the Manokin River, but in 1715 John Smith of Sussex Co., Pa., as the "sole and only surviving heir male and grandson of ye sd Henry Smith," sold his grandfather's land in Somerset Co. (Som. Deeds 12:302).

1 HENRY SMITH, of Coventry Parish, b. c1690; d. Som. Co. by 31 Oct. 1761. He signed his will 28 Jan. 1746/47, bequeathing to son William (executor) "Caldridge," which had been conveyed to William by deed 8 Dec. 1742; to son Henry, remainder of "Caldridge." He also made bequests to grandson Archibald Smith and son-in-law Puzey Lankford. He also mentioned a bond given by his son William to Henry's son Henry, 10 Dec. 1742, for making over of 12 acres, upper end of tract "Smith's Lott." Witnesses were Benjamin Lankford, Robert Carsley, William Fordred; Lankford was the only one to appear at time of probate in 1761 (Som. Wills EB9:83). Children:

- i. William, b. 1716; d. by 26 Nov. 1782; see No. 2 below.
- ii. Henry, b. c1719; mar. (Coventry, 1753) Mary Bell.
- iii. Sarah, b. c1722; mar. (Stephey Parish, 21 Nov. 1746) Pusey LANKFORD (q.v.).

2 WILLIAM SMITH, son of Henry, b. 1716; d. Som. Co. by 26 Nov. 1782. In 1742 he secured a patent to "Smith's Lot," 45 acres, with a resurvey in 1762 for 60 acres. According to a deposition of Mar. 1775 William Smith declared that his age was 58 (Som. Jud. 1775/84, p. 112). He signed his will 19 Aug. 1782, bequeathing to granddaughter Sarah Archabel Smith all his land provided she not marry with Benjamin Lankford, son of Lazarus Lankford; if she should do so, the lands should be sold at auction and the proceeds divided among Solomon Twiford, Beauchamp Harper, and Sarah Smith; witnesses were William Lankford and William Moore (Som. Wills EB 1:169). Though Sarah disobeyed her grandfather, it would appear that she nevertheless retained the land. In 1784 Ben Lankford, son of Lazarus, and Ben's wife, Sarah Archibald Smith, made over to Joe Lankford, son of Pusey Lankford, their share in the land that William Smith in a bond had agreed to make over to Pusey Lankford (Som. Deeds 28:504).

Since William Smith named no children in his will, there are difficulties in reconstructing this family; on the face of it, one might conclude that his younger children died early. So far as the inheritance of land was concerned, until a law was enacted in 1786 requiring that the land of a man who died intestate should be divided equally among the heirs, the land would naturally descend to the oldest son and his heirs; none of the other heirs of William Smith, then, would have good reason to question the descent of their father's land to their oldest brother's daughter. As for other estate, it may have been too small to make a contesting of the will worth while. In any case, the combination of names and circumstances goes far toward explaining names in the Ward family. Children (dates from Coventry):

- i. Archibald, b. 24 June 1739; d. 1765/80; evidently his only child (born Somerset Co., Md.):
 1. Sarah Archibald Smith, b. c1761; mar. (Coventry, 3 Nov. Benjamin LANKFORD (q. v.). These Lankfords lived near Marion Station, Md.
- ii. Elijah, b. 24 Apr. 1742; an Elijah Smith of Worc. Co. in 1783 sold a tract to James Ward of Sussex Co., Del.; this Elijah evidently had a son Benjamin.
- iii. Matilda, b. 26 Apr. 1745.
- iv. Thomas, b. 5 Jan. 1747/48.
- v. ?Sarah, b. c1750; ?mar. (c1768) John WARD (q. v.); there is no record of a Sarah, but John Ward's wife was named Sarah. Aaron C. Lankford, son of Sarah's first cousin, Joe Lankford (of Pusey), was guardian in 1845 for children of Elijah Smith Ward (B3), (supposed) grandson of Sarah. Children of John and Sarah Ward:
 1. Elijah, b. c1770; d. 1808.
 2. Levin Smith, b. c1772; d. c1822; mar. ELIZABETH BOSTON (B1); parents of Elijah Smith Ward.
- vi. Levin, b. c1752; d. Worc. Co. by 17 July 1811; in 1787 Levin witnessed the will of Mary Jones of Som. Co. On 14 June 1796 Purnell Smith was apprenticed to Levin Smith to learn the Bay trade (Som. Bonds EB20:460). Levin Smith of Worc. Co. signed his will 8 Dec. 1808, making a bequest to Elijah Smith's son, Benjamin (no relationship indicated), as well as to wife Mary and the chartered fund of the Methodist Church, i. e. $50 (Worc. Wills MH4:82).

STEVENSON FAMILY OF WORCESTER COUNTY

According to family tradition, this Stevenson family came from Scotland to Snow Hill, Maryland (in what is now Worcester Co., then Somerset Co.) about 1725. The following reconstruction is based largely upon the researches of Mrs. Anne G. Greene of Philadelphia. The problem of tracing the Stevenson family or families is complicated by the fact that apparently several Stevenson families migrated to the Eastern Shore from Scotland in the late seventeenth and early eighteenth centuries, and further confused by the Scottish custom of systematically naming sons after father, grandfather, and uncles, with endless duplication. And the evidence is obscured by the various sources: "Manuscript Collections" of the Rev. C. H. B. Turner, in the Penn. Historical Society (apparently the most reliable of the sources); a biographical sketch of John Slemmons Stevenson, by John B. McMaster; notes of Eben Hearn; and notes of the late H. C. Reed of New York, who incorporated McMaster material, though he questioned the validity of some of it, and said he believed he had secured his data from a genealogy made by Thomas Flavel Stevenson (1816-94), son of Hugh and Margaret (Bratten) Stevenson. In these sources fact is sometimes indiscriminately mixed with tradition, even legend, unsupported by official records. Turner and others may have had access to family Bible records no longer extant, but in any case these various sources, which sometimes reinforce each other, are at other times mutually contradictory.

The reputed original immigrant ancestor, SAMUEL STEVENSON, who settled in Snow Hill about 1716, is found in McMaster, Hearn, and Reed, but no records have been found to substantiate this tradition. According to McMaster, Samuel brought with him the traditional three sons: Samuel (b. 1701), James (who reportedly went to North Carolina), and Joseph.

1 SAMUEL STEVENSON, (JR.), reputedly son of Samuel, the immigrant, b. 1701 (McMaster); d. Worc. Co. 1 Sept. 1770 (Reed); mar. (1729, according to all sources) Mary Nelson, who d. 15 Sept. 1770 (Reed). Records do show that a Samuel Stevenson, Sr., of Worc. Co., 5 Mar. 1742 bought a tract, "Convenience," near William Bratten, from William and Mary Dukes. On 2 Aug. 1749 Samuel Stevenson and wife Mary sold to Robert Nelson 34 acres of "Convenience," the implication being that Samuel (Jr.) had inherited it from his father, who had d. intestate between 1742 and 1749. On the same date Nelson deeded the land back to Stevenson. In 1752 Robert Nelson sold 100 acres of "Convenience" to Samuel Stevenson, designated as "Senior," possibly to distinguish him from a younger Samuel, not his son. On 5 Nov. 1767 Samuel Stevenson, "merchant," and wife Mary sold to Moses Nilson part of "Convenience" (Worc. Deeds A:33; B:190, 191; G:260). In his will, dated 18 Apr. 1770 (prob. 20 Sept. 1770), Samuel Stevenson devised to wife Mary "land and plantation whereon I now live," to pass to son James at her death; to son James, land "where he now lives" bought of Robert Nilson; to grandson Samuel Stevenson (of John), store house in Snow Hill; he also named daughters Betty and Hannah Stevenson; wife Mary, executor, with son James. Witnesses were Hugh, Jonathan, and Jesse Nilson (Ann. Wills 38:61). In an inventory of the estate (29 Sept. 1770), nearest of kin were Hugh Stevenson and Moses Nilson (Ann. Inv. 108:245). Children (dates of birth from Hearn and Reed):

- i. Hugh, b. 1731; d. Worc. Co. by 27 Oct. 1797; mar. Margaret Bratten; he left "Convenience" to daughter Sarah (Worc. Wills JW18:20).
- ii. John, b. 1732; d. by 17 July 1812; see No. 2 below.
- iii. James, b. 1734; d. by 1 Feb. 1799; see No. 3 below.
- iv. Hannah, b. 1735; mar. 1st William Teague; 2nd Levi Hudson.
- v. Mary, b. 1735; mar. Moses Nelson.
- vi. Betty.

2 JOHN STEVENSON, son of Samuel, b. 1732; d. Worc. Co. by 17 July 1812; mar. (2 or 27 Mar. 1759) Rhoda Bratten, who d. by 24 Apr. 1819. John Stevenson, "son of Samuel," and his wife Rhoda, 6 Mar. 1771, sold to Thomas Martin part of "John's Industry," granted to John 7 July 1768; on 3 Mar. 1773 they sold to Nathaniel Bratten part of the same land identified as a resurvey of land formerly called "Bratten's Choice," bought in 1759 from John Bratten, and likewise on 3 Mar. 1773 Nathaniel Bratten sold to John Stevenson part of "Albany" (Worc. Deeds H:542; I:232; D:391; I:269). John Stevenson, Sr., in his will, signed 22 July 1810, made bequests to wife Rhoda; daughter Esther Pettitt and grandson John Pettitt; son Samuel, land, which should go at his death to grandson Will Rounds Stevenson; and he referred to "all my children." Witnesses were Moses and Joel Nelson, James Sturgis. On 22 July 1812 Rhoda renounced her dower right (Worc. Wills MH4:337). Rhoda Stevenson signed her will 4 Nov. 1812, making bequests to daughter Esther Pettitt and sons Samuel and John Stevenson (Worc. Wills MH 10:372). Children:

- i. Esther, b. 1760; mar. Absalom Pettitt (1759-1796).
- ii. Samuel, b. 1761; on 19 Jan. 1821 conveyed to Josiah Bratten part of "John's Industry" devised to grantor by "his father" John Stevenson, decd. (Worc. Deeds AL:192).
- iii. Quanton, b. 1766; d. 1770.
- iv. Rhoda, b. 1768; d. 1770.
- v. John, b. 1770; d. by 25 July 1826; see No. 4 below.

3 JAMES STEVENSON, son of Samuel, b. 1734; d. Worc. Co. by 1 Feb. 1799; mar. (c1765) Mary White, daughter of William and Elizabeth (Bratten) WHITE (q. v.), b. 15 Aug. 1745 (Coventry); d. Worc. Co. by 18 June 1818. On 7 Sept. 1773 James Stevenson, "merchant," identified as son of Samuel, with wife Mary sold part of "Convenience." On 10 Sept. 1779 James (son of Samuel) with wife Mary sold to Jonathan Hutcheson lot No. 24 in Snow Hill. On 14 Feb. 1792 James and Mary sold part of "Convenience" to Walter Smith. On 27 Sept. 1792 James bought from William Whittington 36 acres, "Sandy Wharf." And on 8 July 1796 James Stevenson and Moses Nelson exchanged land, James acquiring part of "Convenience" and conveying part of "Stevenson's Discovery," adjacent Hugh Nilson, Moses Nelson, and Walter Smith (Worc. Deeds I:307; K:240; O:358, 574; R:260, 258). James signed his will 3 Nov. 1797, naming wife Mary; daughters Catherine, Mary, Betty, Ede, Priscilla, and Gatty Stevenson, grandchildren Henry and Elizabeth Stevenson, of son William; and son Edward, executor

(Worc. Wills JW 18:415); in administration accounts James is called James (of Samuel). His widow, Mary, made her will 23 May 1818 by word of mouth, in her last sickness (prob. 14 July 1818), bequeathing "unto Joseph Stevenson a negro male called Sam." It was subscribed to 18 June 1818 by Ann and Rachel Stevenson, who swore that Mary had said this "at the house of Joseph Stevenson [presumably her son-in-law] the place of her usual residence." Henry Stevenson, representative of the deceased, did not object (Worc. Wills MH 10:322). Children:

- i. Catherine, b. c1766; mar. James Connor.
- ii. William, b. ?1768; d. ?1825.
- iii. Edward, b. 14 Feb. 1771; d. 22 Sept. 1816; see No. 5 below.
- iv. Mary, b. c1775; mar. (lic. Worc. 28 Mar. 1801) James Marshall.
- v. Betty (Betsy), b. c1777; mar. (lic. Worc. 30 Nov. 1797) Joseph Stevenson, brother of Robert below.
- vi. Edith (Ede), b. 18 Nov. 1785; d. 11 Oct. 1848; mar. (lic. Worc. 28 Dec. 1807) Robert T. Stevenson.
- vii. Priscilla, b. c1787; mar. (lic. Worc. 18 Dec. 1806) Isaac Ayres.
- viii. Gertrude (Gatty), b. c1789; mar. (lic. Worc. 30 Aug. 1815) Jacob Riggins.

4 JOHN STEVENSON, son of John (of Samuel), b. Worc. Co. 1770; d. Newtown, Md. by 25 July 1826; mar. (lic. Worc. Co. 7 Dec. 1801) Elizabeth (Betsy) Williams, daughter of James and Grace (Fleming) WILLIAMS (q.v.), b. 10 Aug. 1778; d. 5 July 1835. About 1800 John settled in Newtown, where he became a prominent physician. In his will, signed 3 June 1826, Dr. Stevenson made bequests to daughters Peggy, Molly, and Elizabeth (to have property her grandmother left her); he mentioned brother Samuel, appointed Ebenezer Hearn executor, and mentioned land he owned in Som. Co.; witnesses were Levin Henderson, George McCready, Handy Mills (Worc. Wills MH 27:233). His widow, Elizabeth, signed her will 1 Mar. 1855 (prob. 22 July 1856), leaving her whole estate to daughter Elizabeth K. Horsey. Witnesses were James Stevenson, James T. Dickinson, Thomas I. Blain (Worc. Wills TT 8:163). Children (born ?Newtown, Worc. Co.):

- i. Margaret (Peggy), b. 6 Oct. 1802; d. ?Newtown, 13 July 1855; mar. (lic. Worc. Co. 25 Feb. 1818) General Ebenezer HEARN, b. Sussex Co., Del. 7 Mar. 1792; d. Newtown, 13 Jan. 1854; both buried Pocomoke Presby. Cemetery. A tanner and currier, he bought the tract known as "Winter Quarter," adjacent Newtown; he was a captain of militia, later on the Governor's staff, frequently elected to the Md. Legislature. Children (born Newtown, Md.):
 1. John Lowder, b. 19 Mar. 1823; d. Newtown, 24 Jan. 1872; mar. (1847) Sallie E. Atkinson, daughter of Thomas and Mary (Long) ATKINSON (see LONG family).
 2. Elizabeth, b. 29 Mar. 1819; d. 1845; mar. Jesse Lee Long.
 3. William Thomas, b. 20 Jan. 1826; d. 1864.
 4. Alfred James, b. 2 Aug. 1829; d. 1865.
 5. George Webster, b. 1832; d. 1882.
- ii. Mary, b. 25 May 1806; mar. (lic. Worc. 7 July 1824) William Tilghman.
- iii. Elizabeth K., b. 29 July 1810; d. 29 Apr. 1882; mar. (lic. Worc. 2 Sept. 1828) Dr. James B. Horsey.
- iv. John Henry, b. 25 Nov. 1813.

5 EDWARD STEVENSON, son of James (of Samuel), b. Worc. Co. 14 Feb. 1771; d. Newtown, Md. 22 Sept. 1816; mar. (lic. Worc. Co. 10 Apr. 1799) Nancy Williams, daughter of James and Grace (Fleming) WILLIAMS (q.v.), b. 11 Nov. 1782; d. Newtown, 26 May 1843; both buried Presby. Cemetery, Newtown; she mar. 2nd (lic. Worc. Co. 12 Jan. 1819) David LONG (q.v.); her sister Betsy wed Edward's first cousin, Dr. John Stevenson (see above). Edward was a prominent and wealthy merchant, having settled in Newtown about 1803; his wife's second husband, David Long, took over his business. On 3 Feb. 1803 Edward Stevenson purchased from James Connor a schooner, "Polly," and 8 acres of a tract, "Hardship," adjacent the "river swamp at the place formerly called Shading Landing near Nilson's Saw Mill." On 11 Nov. 1803 Edward Stevenson, "son and devisee of a certain James Stevenson, deceased," in a deed with William Whittington corrected a mistake in deed to "Sandy Wharff" (Worc. Deeds V:18, 449). Edward's widow, Nancy Long, signed her will 25 Apr. 1843 (prob. 13 June 1843), naming sons James W., John S. (executor), and Henry M. Stevenson, and William J. Long; daughter Eliza Merrill; grandchildren Mary Ann, Eliza W., Lewiza E., Edward F., Thomas C., and John W. Mezick; and she made a bequest to the Pitts Creek Presbyterian Church. Witnesses included Ann B. Stevenson, Mary Marshall, and Leah Mills (Worc. Wills LPS 1:232). Children (born Newtown, Worcester Co., Md.):

- i. James William, b. 15 Feb. 1800; d. 4 Oct. 1860; mar. (1825) Elizabeth Patterson.
- ii. George, b. 16 Nov. 1802; d. 1 Oct. 1810.
- iii. Eliza, b. 10 Feb. 1805; d. 16 Jan. 1879; mar. William Henry Merrill (1798-1870).
- iv. John Slemmons, b. 16 Sept. 1807; d. Hannibal, Mo. 8 May 1867; mar. 1st Harriet Gore Handy Tingle; 2nd Elizabeth Eunice Slemmons-Garrard.
- v. Harriet, b. 17 Feb. 1810; d. 15 Jan. 1843; mar. (lic. Worc. Co. 27 July 1827) Francis Mezick (Messick).
- vi. Henry Martin, b. 12 June 1812; d. 17 June 1854; mar. ANNE BOSTON (109).
- vii. Ann Grace, b. 16 July 1816; d. 14 Mar. 1838; mar. (lic. Worc. Co. 12 Dec. 1835) Thomas Wise Hargis (see JONES).

TILGHMAN (TILLMAN) FAMILY

The Tilghman family of Maryland is descended from an English family in the county of Kent in England in the fifteenth century. (In early colonial records the name is spelled Tillman.) The Tillmans migrated before 1635 to James City Co., Virginia, to Accomack Co. probably about 1640, and to Somerset Co., Maryland, in 1665, settling in the Manokin section. The following account is based partly on Stephen F. Tillman, Tilghman-Tillman Family, 1225-1945, Washington, D. C., 1946, especially for the English ancestors, supplemented by researches of Francis Leeson, FSG, in Living Descendants of Blood Royal, compiled by Count d'Angerville, vol. 5, pp. 847-48; the American family is based very largely on the researches of Mr. Leslie P. Dryden. For most substantiating evidence, see Notes, pp. 454-455.

Richard Tilghman (Tillman) of Snodland Parish, son of John, was father of Thomas, father of Nicholas, father of Richard of Faversham, Kent, whose son Nicholas Tilghman de Faversham died before 13 Dec. 1591. His son was Thomas, who purportedly owned Beechworth Castle in Surrey, England, which he sold to John Cassock of Faversham, and later settled in Sussex. His son:

1 NICHOLAS TILGHMAN, son of Thomas, was born probably c1520/25; living 1606 in Selling, Faversham Hundred, Kent; yeoman; mar. Jane Benson.

2 CHRISTOPHER TILGHMAN [I], son of Nicholas, of the Parish of Selling, b. c1545/50; d. before 1619; mar. Anna Sanders, daughter of John Sanders of Chilton and his wife, Anna Whetenhall, reputedly sixth in descent from King Edward III (d'Angerville). John Sanders' mother, Anna Pandreth, was daughter of Miles Pandreth and his wife, Elizabeth Lowin, who was nurse of the future Queen Elizabeth I.

3 CHRISTOPHER TILGHMAN [II], son of Christopher [I] and Anna, b. 1573 (bapt. Selling, Kent). (Mr. Leeson found one more Christopher in the pedigree than did Mr. Tillman.)

4 CHRISTOPHER TILGHMAN [III], son of Christopher [II], b. 1612 (bapt. Selling); d. reportedly in Accomack Co., Va. [no record there]; mar. Ruth Devonshire. He arrived in James City Co., Va. by 9 May 1635 (Greer, Early Virginia Immigrants, 1622-1666, Richmond, Va., 1912). Two sons (born probably in James City Co., Va.):

- i. Roger Tillman, b. [c1642]; d. 1716; settled in Charles City Co., Va. by 1689.
- ii. Gideon Tillman (Tilghman), b. [c1644]; d. 7 May/19 Aug. 1720; see No. 5 below.

5 GIDEON TILLMAN (TILGHMAN), b. presumably James City Co., Va. c1644; d. Som. Co., Md. 7 May/19 Aug. 1720; mar. (Som. Co. 15 Feb. 1681/82) Margaret Maneux. He was in Som. Co. by 22

Nov. 1665. On 1 Apr. 1669 he purchased over 100 acres, "Golden Quarter," and between 1682 and 1720 over 1000 acres more, "Tilghman's Adventure," "Gideon's Luck," etc. In the early 1670's he evidently lived in Sussex Co., Del. (see Note, p. 454). In his will, dated 7 May 1720, he bequeathed to son John 70 acres of "Thomson's Adventure"; to younger son Joseph 70 acres of the same; named "my five sons" John, Solomon, Moses, "beloved son" Aaron, and Joseph; mentioned "my beloved wife" and requested that after her death her possessions be divided equally between his daughters Ellinor and Elizabeth Tillmon (Ann. Wills Box 3, folder 9). In the inventory wife Margaret was executor (Ann. Inv. 4:334). Children (born Manokin, Somerset Co., Md.):

- i. Gideon, [Jr.], b. 18 Oct. 1682; d. Som. Co. by 2 Sept. 1769; as heir-at-law he would inherit all his father's land not otherwise provided for by bequest.
- ii. Solomon, b. 13 Feb. 1684/85; d. Som. Co. 1729.
- iii. Elinor, b. 13 Feb. 1687/88.
- iv. John Stephen, b. 18 Sept. 1689; d. Som. Co. by 16 June 1733; in his will he alluded to brother Gideon Tillman, who might lay claim to the land "I now live on intended by my father for me and mine" (Ann. Wills 20:686).
- v. Moses, b. 6 June 1692.
- vi. Elizabeth, b. 5 Jan. 1694/95.
- vii. Aaron, b. c1697; d. by 25 Nov. 1763; see No. 6 below.
- viii. Joseph, b. 4 Mar. 1699/1700; d. by 27 Apr. 1767; see No. 7 below.

6 AARON TILGHMAN (TILGHMAN), son of Gideon [Sr.], b. Manokin, Som. Co. c1697; d. Som. Co. by 25 Nov. 1763; mar. 1st Mary Gibbons; 2nd Margaret Catherine Hull (according to Tillman). (For children, and additional details, see Note, p. 454.)

7 JOSEPH TILGHMAN, [SR.], youngest son of Gideon, [Sr.], b. Manokin, Som. Co. 4 Mar. 1699/1700; d. Som. Co. by 27 Apr. 1767. (For other details and other children, see Notes, p. 455.) One son:

- i. Joseph, Jr., b. c1746; d. by 25 Apr. 1816; see No. 8 below.

8 JOSEPH TILGHMAN, [JR.], son of Joseph, [Sr.], b. Manokin, c1746; d. Som. Co. 21 Mar./25 Apr. 1816; mar. (5 Jan. 1785) Nancy Harris Broughton. (For fuller details, see Note, p. 455.) Children (born probably at Manokin, Som. Co., Md.):

- i. Matilda, b. 4 Jan. 1790; d. 1850/60; mar. John S. DRYDEN (p. 384, No. 15).
- ii. Amelia, b. 15 July 1793.
- iii. Josiah Broughton, b. 22 Jan. 1796.
- iv. James, b. 4 May 1799; d. 3 Jan. 1859; mar. Mary J. Adams.
- v. Esther, b. 23 Feb. 1802.

TULL FAMILY OF SOMERSET COUNTY

Thomas and Richard Tull, evidently brothers, came into Somerset Co., Maryland, from Northampton Co., Virginia, by 1666 and settled on the north side of the Great Annesmessex River. Richard was transported into Virginia by Col. William Waters before June 1664, and Thomas into Northampton Co. by John Elsey before 3 Nov. 1666 (Nugent, Vol. 1, pp. 517, 405). The pedigree included in the original edition has been corrected principally through the generous assistance of Mr. Leslie P. Dryden, and with help from Lt. Col. Woodrow T. Wilson, who kindly granted permission to include here information from his Thirty-Four Families of Old Somerset County, Maryland, Baltimore, 1974, which treats the Tull family at some length on pp. 271-291. For fuller substantiating information, especially for proof of relationships from land records, and for fuller lists of children, see Notes (herein), on pp. 455-456.

1 THOMAS TULL, b. c1640, possibly in Midgham, Berkshire, England (from Willis Clayton Tull, Jr.); d. Som. Co., Md., probably at Annesmessex, by 27 June 1720 (inventory); mar. 1st (Som. Co., Oct. 1666) Mary Minshall, daughter of Jeffrey and Frances (Carsley) MINSHALL (p. 420), b. Northampton Co., Va. c1651; d. Annesmessex c1685; mar. 2nd (by 1692) Mrs. Ann Cox, who d. not long after Feb. 1717/18; mar. 3rd (c1718/19) Katherine---, who mar. 2nd (14 Jan./11 Feb. 1620/21) Francis Martin.

On 13 Feb. 1665/66 Thomas Tull registered his livestock mark in Som. Co., and Richard did so on 24 Apr. 1667. In Nov.

1670 Thomas Tull was appointed constable of Annesmessex Hundred (Som. Jud. 1670/71:47). The two brothers purchased from John Rhoades, 17 Feb. 1671, a 200 acre plantation, "Salisbury," on the north side of the Great Annesmessex River, just south of the Manokin River, on Tull's Creek, today called Holland's Creek (Wilson, p. 272), but on 5 Mar. 1686 Thomas sold his share to brother Richard (Som. Deeds 3:71, 6:797). After they had been several years in the province, the brothers together on 12 Nov. 1672 each claimed 50 acres for transporting themselves into Som. Co. (Md. Land Patents, 17:382). Thomas Tull was among those who signed the "address of loyalty" to the King and Queen, 28 Nov. 1689, and he was a member of the Som. Co. Grand Jury in Mar. 1697/98 (Torrence, pp. 350, 378, 457, 460).

In his will, dated 14 Feb. 1717/18, Thomas Tull named son Thomas (to receive "personalty"); bequeathed to son John 50 acres of marsh, part of 200 acres of "Winter Range" next to Moons Bay; to his wife's son, William Cox, 150 acres of "Winter Range"; to his wife Ann (executor) the residue of the estate during her life, then to her son William. Witnesses were Henry Miles, Richard Hall, Margaret Goldsmith, Robert Woods (Som. Wills EB9:34). Katherine Tull was administrator of the estate when the inventory (dated 27 June 1720) was filed 19 Aug. 1720 (Ann. Invent. 4:138). When the account was filed 11 Feb. 1720/21, Francis Martin and Katherine his wife were administrators (Ann. Accts. 4:110). Children, by first marriage (born Annesmessex, Somerset Co.):

- i. Thomas, b. 23 Oct. 1668; d. by 2 June 1720; see No. 2 below.
- ii. Richard, b. 6 Dec. 1670; d. Som. Co. by 29 Aug. 1710 (Ann. Wills 13:134; Ann. Inv. & Accts. 32B:98).
- iii. John, b. 8 June 1674; d. by 13 Dec. 1729; see No. 3 below.
- iv. Mary, b. 15 Jan. 1677/78; mar. [? George] Cullen. On 2 Apr. 1701 Thomas Tull recorded a gift of cattle for Mary Culling (Som. Deeds 11:35 rear).

2 THOMAS TULL [II], JR., eldest son of Thomas (1), b. Annesmessex, Som. Co. 23 Oct. 1668; d. Som. Co., presumably at Annesmessex, by 2 June 1720 (inventory); mar. (c1703) Sarah Handy, daughter of Samuel and Mary (Sewell) Handy, b. Som. Co. 30 Sept. 1681; d. Som. Co. by 1 Apr. 1728. In the inventory of Thomas's estate, Samuel and Thomas Handy signed as next of kin (Ann. Inv. 4:79). An account was filed 22 June 1721 by Sarah Tull, administrator (Ann. Accts. 4:84). Sarah Tull was listed in Annesmessex Hundred in 1723-27 (tax list). In her will, dated 26 Nov. 1727, she left in son Thomas's care his two youngest brothers, William and Isaac, to be of age at 18, and two youngest sisters Esther and Grace. She made numerous bequests to these five children, and to son Samuel and daughters Sarah, Rachel, and Mary. She named son Thomas executor, friend Jeffrey Long (her husband's first cousin) guardian of two youngest sons, William and Isaac. Witnesses were Jno. Turpin, Samuel Handy, Jno. Benson (Som. Wills EP9:119). William and Isaac were later apprenticed to Godfrey Sprogles whose will (1737) granted their freedom (Wilson 273). Two eldest children (born Annesmessex, Som. Co., Md., at the head of Tull's Creek):

- i. Thomas, b. c1704; d. by 28 Oct. 1758; see No. 4 below.
- ii. Samuel, b. 6 Apr. 1706; d. probably at Manokin by 5 Mar. 1793; in a deposition of 5 Apr. 1762 Samuel testified that he was within a day of being aged 56. On 8 Nov. 1762 he testified that he was born at or near the head of Tull's Creek (Wilson, 273). He left his mother's household 1725, moved to Manokin Hundred, where he is listed through 1759.

3 JOHN TULL, youngest son of Thomas (1), b. Annesmessex, 8 June 1674; d. Manokin, Som. Co. by 13 Dec. 1729; mar. (c1708) Esther Costen, daughter of Stephen and Comfort (Furniss) COSTEN (p. 391), b. 5 Oct. 1685; d. by 21 Mar. 1770. John Tull was in Manokin Hundred 1724, 1725, 1727; his widow Esther was there 1730-59. John witnessed the will of Alice Hall, 1717. In his will, dated 28 Jan. 1728/29, John Tull, planter, bequeathed to wife Esther use of a third of his land, all the rest of his lands to two eldest sons. He listed his children as John, Joshua, Mary, Richard, Stephen, Esther (Som. Wills EB9:133). Esther Tull in her will, dated 15 Feb. 1770, named sons John, Joshua, Stephen Tull, grandchildren Rodah Tull, Sophia Wharton, Edward Beauchamp, Esther Tull (of Joshua), and Levi, Esther, Sarah, Betty Tull (all of Stephen). Witnesses were Charles Hall, John Lawes, Thomas Tull (Som. Wills EB4:154). Two sons (born Som. Co., probably probably at Manokin):

- i. Joshua, b. c1712/13; d. by 16 Oct. 1798; see No. 5 below.
- ii. Stephen, b. 1717/18; d. by 31 Mar. 1795; see No. 6 below.

4 THOMAS TULL [III], son of Thomas, Jr. (2), b. Annessex, Som. Co., at Tull's Creek, c1704; d. Som. Co., probably at Annessex, by 28 Oct. 1758; mar. (c1734) Rachel - - - , b. c1715; d. Som. Co. by 1 Mar. 1760; she mar. 2nd (by 1 Mar. 1760) Solomon Tull. Thomas Tull was in Annessex Hundred, with his mother 1723-27, then head of his own household to 1757. In his will, dated 30 Oct. 1757, he bequeathed to his wife lands during widowhood, then to two sons William and Thomas, and also named sons Charles, Handy, Samuel, Levin, daughters Rode and Rachel. Witnesses were Samuel Tull, Joshua and Sarah Hall (Som. Wills EB4: 60). On 1 Mar. 1760 Solomon Tull and wife Rachel, executors, filed an account of Thomas's estate (Ann. Accts. 44:318). After the widow's thirds, William Tull and Rhoda Tull were paid their shares while the balance was secured to (minors) Thomas, Charles, Handy, Samuel, and Levin Tull, and Rachel Tull.

According to family tradition Thomas relocated from the Great Annessex to an area near Quindocqua, on the site of what is now known as Tull's Corner. Children (born Som. Co., elder ones probably at Annessex, younger ones at Tull's Corner; dates of birth from Coventry Parish records):

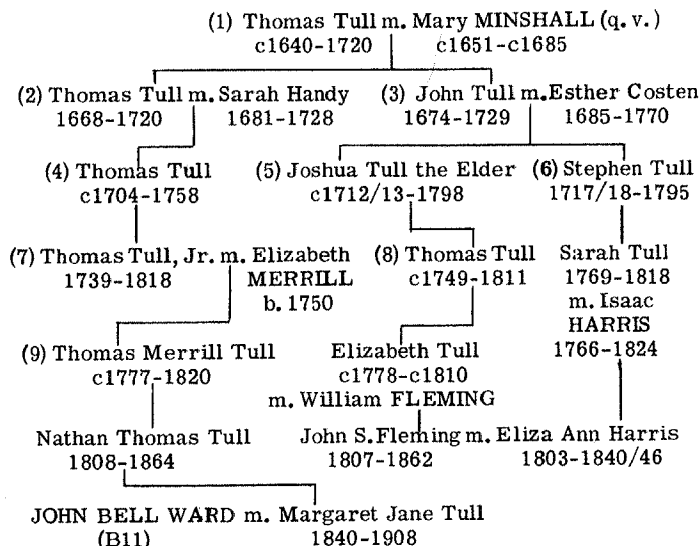

- i. William, b. c1735; mar. (Coventry, 10 Nov. 1756) Mary Newbold.
- ii. Rhoda, b. c1737.
- iii. Thomas, Jr., b. ?Mar. 1739; d. by 24 Feb. 1818; see No. 7 below.
- iv. Charles, b. c1741.
- v. Handy, b. c1743; d. Woodbridge Co., Ky. 1 Aug. 1796.
- vi. Rachel, b. 15 Feb. 1744/45.
- vii. Samuel, b. 13 Oct. 1746; d. by 27 Dec. 1826.
- viii. Levin, b. 20 July 1749.

5 JOSHUA TULL THE ELDER, son of John (3), b. probably at Manokin, c1712/13; d. Som. Co., probably at Manokin, by 16 Oct. 1798. He was with his mother in 1730, then head of his own household in Manokin Hundred 1731-59. In a 1754 deposition he declared that he was a cordwainer. In his will, dated 3 May 1795, he made bequests to daughter-in-law Leah Tull, to John Tull of Thomas, to William Tull of Thomas, the residue to testator's son Thomas Tull (executor); a witness was Isaiah Tilghman (Som. Wills EB7:682). (See Note, p. 455.) One son:

- i. Thomas, b. c1749; d. 9 Jan./5 Mar. 1811; see No. 8 below.

6 STEPHEN TULL, son of John (3), b. Som. Co. 1717/18; d. Som. Co. by 31 Mar. 1795; mar. (Coventry, 1749) Sarah Hall, daughter of Charles HALL (p. 395). He was listed in Manokin Hundred with his mother 1734-46, then head of his own household there in 1747, and in Pocomoke Hundred 1748-59. (For his will and other details, see Note, p. 455.) One child:

- i. Sarah, b. 25 Mar. 1769; d. 14 Dec. 1818; mar. Isaac

HARRIS (p. 398, No. 4).

7 THOMAS TULL [IV], JR., son of Thomas (4), b. probably at Annessex, Som. Co. ?Mar. 1739; d. probably at Tull's Corner by 24 Feb. 1818; mar. (Coventry, 11 May 1769) Elizabeth Merrill, daughter of Joshua MERRILL (p. 418, No. 6), b. 15 June 1750 (Coventry); d. before 1806. Since according to the account of his father's estate 1 Mar. 1760 he was still a minor yet sold land on 24 Mar. 1760, he must have reached legal age (21) in the interim. (See Note, p. 456.) One son (born probably at Tull's Corner, Som. Co.):

- i. Thomas Merrill, b. c1777; d. by 29 Nov. 1820; see No. 9 below.

8 THOMAS TULL, son of Joshua (5), b. Som. Co., probably at Manokin, c1749; d. Som. Co. 9 Jan./5 Mar. 1811; mar. (c1770) Leah---. In his will, dated 9 Jan. 1811, Thomas Tull ("of Joshua"), among other bequests, left to son William all "my land" lying between the Annessex and Manokin Rivers. (See Note, p. 456.) Children (born Som. Co., probably at Manokin):

- i. John, b. c1769.
- ii. William, b. 1771; d. 1826.
- iii. Elizabeth, b. c1778; d. before 1811; mar. (lic. Som. 3 Apr. 1803) William FLEMING (p. 390, No. 6).
- iv. Sarah, b. c1782; mar. (lic. Som. 7 Dec. 1813), as his second wife, her brother-in-law, William FLEMING (above).

9 THOMAS MERRILL TULL, son of Thomas, Jr. (7), b. Tull's Corner, c1777; d. probably Tull's Corner by 29 Nov. 1820 (inventory); mar. (c1806) Mary (Polly) Lankford, daughter of Nathan LANKFORD (p. 407, No. 11), b. 1789/90. (See Note, p. 456.) One child:

- i. Nathan Thomas, b. 1808; d. Tull's Corner, near Marion Station, Som. Co., 2/31 May 1864; mar. (lic. Som. 21 Mar. 1832) Emaline B. Parker, b. c1816. One daughter:
1. Margaret Jane, b. Tull's Corner, 30 Nov. 1840; d. 1 June 1908; mar. JOHN BELL WARD (B11).

WARD FAMILY OF SOMERSET COUNTY

Cornelius Ward, progenitor of the Wards of Somerset Co., Maryland, was in Somerset Co. as early as 1663/64, but his origins are unknown. The late Carl Ward of Crisfield, Md., who collected records of the Ward family, maintained that Cornelius Ward came first to Sudbury, Mass., with his uncle, William Ward (1603-1687), who migrated from Yorkshire, England, but such a relationship is unsupported by available evidence; according to Charles Martyn, in The William Ward Genealogy: The History of the Descendants of William Ward of Sudbury, Mass., 1638-1925, New York, 1925, the English home of William Ward is unknown.

The close ties of the Cornelius Ward family in Somerset Co. with the Dougherty and Riffin families and the fact that Cornelius Ward named one of his major tracts "Cork" suggest that the Wards may have originated in Ireland.

1 CORNELIUS WARD, ¹ b. c1640; d. Som. Co. by 24 Feb. 1722/23; mar. (Jan. 1666/67, ceremony performed by Henry Boston) Margaret Franklin. On 25 Feb. 1663/64 Cornelius secured a patent from Lord Baltimore to 200 acres, "Bear Point," in Som. Co. near Dividing Creek. On 4 July 1677 he was assigned by Col. William Stevens 100 acres, "Chestnut Ridge," a long corridor of land just west of what is now Hopewell, and on 16 June 1678 Cornelius likewise secured 500 acres nearby, "Corke," on the south side of the Annessex River near the mouth of the said river, more specifically located at the headwaters of the Little Annessex, just north of the present site of Crisfield. This area has remained the center of the Ward family ever since. In 1679 Cornelius secured a patent to "Long Acre," 100 acres between the Little and the Great Annessex, northwest of "Corke"; in 1682, "White Oak Swamp," 150 acres, and "Chestnut Ridge," 100 acres; and in 1702, a resurvey and enlargement of "Long Acre," 525 acres.

Cornelius Ward of Little Annessex signed his will 27 Dec. 1722. He bequeathed to John Rigging the plantation on which Rigging is living; to son Samuel, the plantation where testator "is now living"; to son Stephen, the plantation he is living on (with remainder to William Ward, son of Samuel, if Stephen should have no lawful issue); to son Cornelius, the plantation he is living on; to Stephen Ward, son of Thomas, land lying between that of Cornelius and Samuel. He also named daughters Catherine, Mary, Margett, and sons Jonathan (excepted from will), Joseph (to have one negro) and James, as well as wife Marget. Samuel Ward was to be executor (Som. Wills EB9:91). Children (born at Annemessex, Somerset Co., Md.; births recorded in Som. Deeds IKL):

- i. Alice, b. 14 Apr. 1667; d. by 1722; mar. (1679) Nathaniel Dougherty.
- ii. John, b. 14 Feb. 1668/69; d. at Annemessex, 20 Mar. 1687.
- iii. Cornelius, Jr., b. 1 Nov. 1670; d. by 1736.
- iv. Thomas, b. 5 June 1672; living in 1736.
- v. William, b. 5 Mar. 1673/74; d. by 1716.
- vi. Stephen, b. c1676; d. Som. Co. by 28 Aug. 1736; he signed his will 2 Aug. 1736, making bequests among others to Stephen Rikken (of John), Stephen Ward (of Thomas), Stephen Ward (of brother Cornelius), Stephen Dougherty; and brother Joseph Ward, and John Ward (of Samuel) (Som. Wills EB9:195).
- vii. Margaret, b. 2 Dec. 1678; mar. John Dougherty.
- viii. Jonathan, b. c1680; living in 1736.
- ix. James, b. c1682; living in 1722.
- x. Samuel, b. 20 Oct. 1684; d. by 6 June 1761; see No. 2 below.
- xi. Mary, b. 1686; living 1740; mar. John Riffin.
- xii. Catherine, b. 1687; living 1722.
- xiii. Joseph, b. 1688; d. by 28 Mar. 1765; see No. 3 below.

2 SAMUEL WARD² (Cornelius¹), b. Little Annemessex, 20 Oct. 1684; d. Som. Co. by 6 June 1761. He signed his will 7 Jan. 1761, bequeathing to son John land east of Cow-Dame Run; to son Joseph, land north of it, adjacent John Ward's orchard; to son Samuel and daughters Keziah Taws, Martha Dougherty, and Mary Paremore, land, all children to share in "White Oak Swamp"; he also named wife Mary. Executors were to be son John and Isaac Dougherty (Ann. Wills 31:387). Children (born Annemessex):

- i. Mary, b. c1718; mar. --- Paremore.
- ii. John, b. c1720; d. by 29 Oct. 1793; see No. 4 below.
- iii. William, b. c1722; d. 1743/61; named in will of his grandfather to receive land bequeathed to his uncle Stephen if Stephen should die without lawful heirs; this land, which William came into by the death of his uncle in 1736, he sold to his brother John in 1743.
- iv. Keziah, b. c1724; mar. --- Taws.
- v. Joseph, b. c1726.
- vi. Samuel, b. c1728.
- vii. Martha, b. c1732; mar. (Coventry, 1758) Isaac Dougherty.

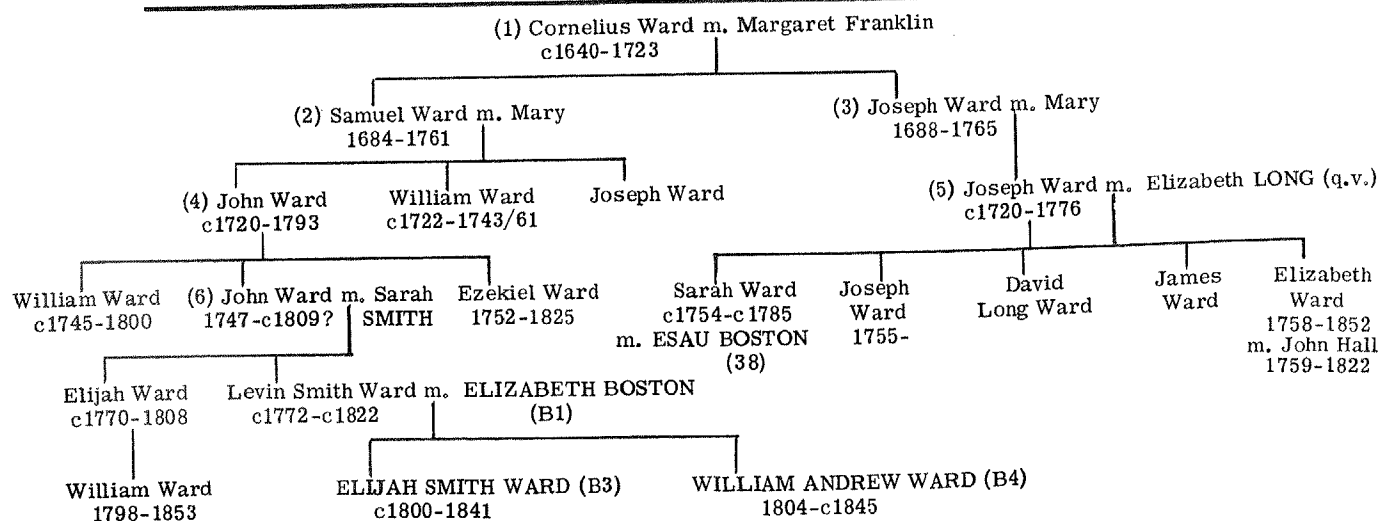

3 JOSEPH WARD² (Cornelius¹), b. Little Annemessex, 1688; d. Som. Co. by 28 Mar. 1765. He signed his will 9 Mar. 1765, making bequests to son Cornelius; to daughter Mary Conway (wife of Levin) and her son Joseph Conway; to sons Joseph (the "plantation I now live on"), Stephen, James; to daughters Aliss Shoars, Sarah Adkins; to granddaughter Mary Shoars (Som. Wills EB4:110). Children (born Little Annemessex, Somerset Co., Md.):

- i. Cornelius, b. c1716.
- ii. Mary, b. c1718; mar. Levin Conway.
- iii. Joseph, b. c1720; d. by 25 July 1776; see No. 5 below.
- iv. Alice, b. c1722; mar. William Shores.
- v. Sarah, b. c1724; mar. Thomas Adkins.
- vi. James, b. c1726.
- vii. Stephen, b. c1728; d. Som. Co. by 15 June 1789 (Som. Deeds 29:479); in an account of his estate, 11 May 1790 (John Ward executor), money was due Dr. William Strawbridge, Esau Boston, William and John Dreaden.

4 JOHN WARD³ (Samuel² Cornelius¹), b. c1720; d. Som. Co. by 1 Jan. 1793; mar. (c1744) Rachel. On 29 Oct. 1743 John Ward bought from (his brother) William Ward, for £100, 100 acres of "Cork," adjacent John Dougherty, land left to son Stephen by Cornelius Ward, who had willed that if Stephen should die without lawful issue, William Ward of Samuel should possess the same (Som. Deeds 21:86). On 14 Jan. 1767 John Ward was a party to articles of agreement (Som. Deeds 25:63) to divide the lands of his grandfather: the heirs of "our deceased grandfather Cornelius Ward," having right "by will of our grandfather" to marsh and land called "Long Acre" agreed on a division. Parties to the agreement were Cornelius Ward (of Cornelius), eldest heir of the testator (his share at the head of Little Annemessex); James Ward (of Thomas), next heir; Cornelius Ward (of Joseph), next to the youngest heir; and John Ward (of Samuel), youngest heir. On 17 Aug. 1769 John Ward bought from Dennis Mungummary for £45.7.6, 25 acres of "Dublin," on the south side of Annemessex River, between "Cork" and "Hard Fortune"; on 20 May 1772 he bought from Henry Lord 31 acres of "Cork" and "Chestnut Ridge" near Little Annemessex, also 44 acres more of "Chestnut Ridge" for £66 (Som. Deeds 26:45, 189; 27:141). On 18 Mar. 1746/47 John Ward secured a grant of 8 acres of "Littleworth" on the south side of Annemessex River in Little Annemessex Neck, enlarged to 64 acres in 1751 and to 72 acres 15 Nov. 1753.

John Ward, planter, signed his will 21 July 1791, bequeathing to son William the land bought of brother William Ward, and he also mentioned grandson John Ward, son of William. He also made bequests to son John, and to John's son, Elijah Ward; to son Stephen, and to Stephen's son, John Ward; to son Ezekiel, and to Ezekiel's son, Thomas Ward; to granddaughters Betty Miles (of Levin) and Rachel Ward Johnson (of Littleton); and to daughters Jemima Johnson, Pattey Johnson, Betty Miles, and Mary Miles, eight children (Som. Wills EB17:269). On 1 Jan. 1793 Stephen and Ezekiel Ward stood bond for William Ward, executor for John Ward (Som. Bonds EB20:207). Later, on 29 Oct. 1793, Isaac Ward, a witness to the will, swore his uncle was not in his senses when he made his will, for his hand shook. Children (born Annemessex, Som. Co., baptised Coventry):

- i. William, b. c1745; d. by 18 Mar. 1800 (Som. Wills EB23:6); mar. (Coventry, 1765) Martha Dougherty.
- ii. John, b. 2 Jan. 1746/47; d. 1809/10; see No. 6 below.

- iii. Stephen, b. 3 Feb. 1748/49; d. ? 1807; mar. (1773) Leah Owens.
- iv. Ezekiel, b. 4 Feb. 1750/51; d. Som. Co. by 8 Jan. 1825; mar. 1st Nancy---; 2nd Betty---. In a deed of 8 Jan. 1825 Henry Ward, John Ward, Whittington Johnson and Betsey his wife, and Aaron Sterling (attorney for Lovey Ford [Ward]), for $500 conveyed all their right to the land of Ezekiel Ward, deceased, also all their right to the land of Thomas Ward, deceased, son of said Ezekiel, in Little Annemessex (Som. Deeds 52:226). For the children of Ezekiel Ward, see Note, p. 456.
- v. Jemima, b. ? 1753; mar. (Coventry, 28 July 1771) Isaac Johnson (d. 1809).
- vi. Pattey, b. 10 June 1755; mar. Littleton Johnson (d. 1816).
- vii. Thomas, b. 10 Dec. 1757; d. young.
- viii. Betty, b. 9 May 1760; mar. John Miles.
- ix. Mary, b. c1762; mar. (1788) Levi Miles.

5 JOSEPH WARD³ (Joseph² Cornelius¹), b. Som. Co. c1720; d. Som. Co. by 25 July 1776; mar. (Coventry, 16 Jan. 1748/49) Elizabeth Long, daughter of Solomon and (probably) [Elizabeth] (Roach) LONG (q.v.). Joseph Ward, "Senior," signed his will 2 Feb. 1772, naming wife Elizabeth executrix together with son Saul Ward, to have care (with his mother) of the other children (all children under age). Joseph made bequests to son Joseph (the plantation and part of "Packson Hill" and "Ward's Venture"); to son David Long Ward; to son James Ward; to son Saul Ward (part of "Packson's Hill" and "Ward's Venture"); to son Jacob a bond due from David and Solomon Long and "no more of my estate than already mentioned," and he named his brother Stephen Ward; witnesses were John and William Fleming (Som. Wills EB4:110). In the settlement of the estate, of which Elizabeth and Saul Ward were executors, distribution was made on 2 May 1780 to five children: Elizabeth Ward, Esau Boston and Sarah his wife, Mary Ward, David Long Ward, James Ward, all to receive the copper still (Som. Balance & Final Distribution Bk. 7:28). Four of the children of Joseph and Elizabeth (dates from Coventry):

- i. Saul, b. 17 Apr. 1750.
- ii. Sarah, b. c1753; d. c1783; mar. ESAU BOSTON (38); their son James named children Sarah Ward Boston, Elizabeth Long Boston, David Long Ward Boston, Joseph Ward Boston.
- iii. Joseph, b. 15 Mar. 1755; d. young.
- iv. David Long; guardian in 1795 of his nephew James Boston; in 1796 sold his land in Som. Co. (Som. Deeds 31:329, 355, 368) and migrated to Jefferson Co., Ky., where in 1823 he sold land to (his nephew) James Boston.

6 JOHN WARD⁴ (John³ Samuel² Cornelius¹), b. Annemessex, 2 Jan. 1746/47; d. Som. Co. probably between 13 Sept. 1809 and summer of 1810; mar. (c1768) Sarah [Smith], daughter (presumably) of William SMITH (q.v.), b. c1750; for her brothers they named sons Elijah and Levin. On 17 Nov. 1796 John Ward, Senior, as security for £90 borrowed, gave a deed of trust to William Ward for "Corke," "Littleworth," "White Oak Swamp," "Chesnut Ridge"; Sarah Ward also signed. On 31 Dec. 1807 John Ward (of John) sold to John Taws (of William) "Corke," "Littleworth," "Chesnut Ridge," all the right of the land "of my father's manner plantation... in the Little Annemessex"; on 18 Apr. 1797 Elijah and John Ward had sold to John Davey 1 acre of "Littleworth"; no wives were named in the last two deeds (Som. Deeds 31:500, 39:124, 31:556). On 9 Jan. 1808 Benjamin Lankford, Sr., for $130, deeded to John Ward (of William), for the lifetime of John Ward (of John) all lands formerly belonging to John Ward (of John), reserving to John Ward (of John) the old dwelling house and garden (Som. Deeds 39:168). John Ward was executor for son Elijah 13 Sept. 1809 (inventory 9 Feb. 1808) and also for Elijah's wife Nancy (Som. Inv. EB27:109). John left no estate. Son Elijah is named in the will of John's father; despite lack of direct evidence for assigning Levin as son of John, he would appear to belong here, for he named a son Elijah (a very unusual name in the Ward family), presumably after his brother, and another son William (a name common only in this branch of the family); Levin is listed in the Federal Census of 1800, 1810, and 1820 in Som. Co. near Ezekiel Ward (brother of John). Children (born Little Annemessex):

- i. Elijah, b. c1769; d. Som. Co. by 2 Feb. 1808; he left two children: Lydia, who mar. (1825) John M. Parker; and Wil- liam (1798/99-1853), who mar. (1823) Mary Ward. On 30 Feb. 1832 "William Ward of Elijah" with wife Mary sold to Thomas J. Ward 8 acres of "Cork." William and Mary were parents of: (1) Adaline (1827-1853), mar. John Wilson; (2) Matilda: A. (1830), mar. (1857) John H. Bradford; (3) William A. (1832), mar. (1854) Milcah Ann Ford; (4) Thomas (1834); (5) Charles W. (1838); (6) Maria Ann (1840); (7) Martha Caroline (1844).

- ii. Levin Smith, b. c1771; d. 1820/22; mar. ELIZABETH BOSTON (B1)

WESSELLS (VESSELLS) FAMILY

The Wessells family (originally Vessells) of Accomack Co., Virginia, settled at Messongo by 1768; how much earlier the family had been in Virginia has not been determined. Two men of the family, William and John, saw military service in the Revolution. Descendants of both intermarried with members of the Boston family, but it has not proved feasible to trace the descendants of John Wessells, who served in the Virginia Continental line during the American Revolution.

The service and descendants (as of 29 July 1835) of John Wessells are attested by certificate in Acco. Co., listing the only heirs at law of John Wessells: John Wessells, Sr., William Wessells, Ephraim Wessells, James Wessells, Catherine Russell, Nancy Wessells, Ephraim Wessells (of N), Elizabeth Ewell, Sarah Johnson, Catherine Wessells (of N), Laura Wessells, Isaac Wessells, Nancy Hickman, George Russell (of George), Thomas and James and Lucretia and Elijah and William Russell, Thomas and Polly Moore, Isaac Starling, Anna Young, Ephraim Wessells, Jr., Sarah Ann Russell, Nancy Wessells, Catherine Young, Betsey Summers, Arthur F. Wessells, John Wessells, Jr., Richard Wessells, Ephraim Wessells (of B), Kessey and Susan Annis, Margaret Young, Nancy Dix, Susan and Arthur Wessells, Delight and Noah and Mary and Southy Russell, Ann Maria and Susan and Westly and Levena Onions, Raymond Melvin Parkes (Nottingham, Soldiers and Sailors... Accomack Co., p. 63).

The family of William Wessells follows.

1 WILLIAM VESSELLS (WESSELLS), b. ? Accomack Co., Va. c1745; d. Messongo, Accomack Co., by 31 July 1803. In 1768 William Vessells bought 100 acres at Messongo from John and Rhoda Potter. In 1772 he bought 125 acres more, north of this land, from Spencer and Comfort Drummond (Whitelaw, p. 1270). It was probably this William Vessells who on 26 Nov. 1777 took an oath as ensign in the Accomack Co. Militia (John G. Gwathmy, Historical Register of Virginians in the Revolution, Richmond, 1938). In his will, signed 2 Nov. 1802, William Vessells bequeathed to wife Egnatia "the small room in my dwelling house and the small chamber above and a Privilege of passing from the one to the other through the house," as well as a negro man and woman and numerous other personal effects; he also made bequests to son Walter, 225 acres; to granddaughters Elizabeth and Racheal Thornton; to grandson Custis Vessells (under 21); to son William Vessells, plantation "I purchased of ---Smith on payment of £130; to daughter Hessey Bird; to granddaughter Hessey Thornton. Executors were to be Elijah Shay, Walter Vessells. Witnesses were Elijah Shay, Valentine Smith, Richard Only (Acco. Wills 1800/4: 449). The land bequeathed to Walter has remained in his family to the present day, but the house built on the land (pictured in Whitelaw) was destroyed by fire in 1937. Children:

- i. [Elizabeth?], b. c1770; mar. ---Thornton.
- ii. Walter, Sr., bc1772; d. 30 Mar. 1837; mar. POLLY BOSTON (27).
- iii. William, b. c1774; d. by 25 Apr. 1842; see No. 2 below.
- iv. Hester, b. c1776; mar. Selby BYRD (p. 367, No. 9).

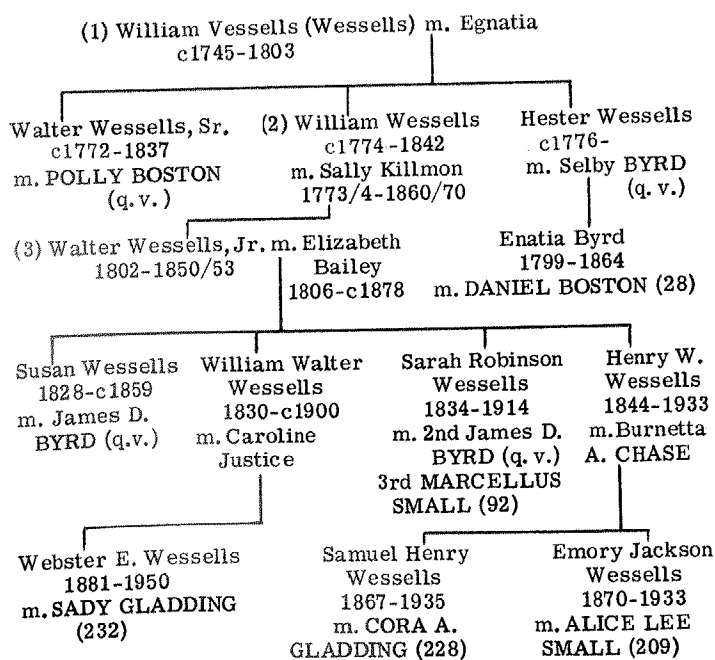

2 WILLIAM WESSELLS, SR., b. Messongo, c1774; d. Messongo, by 25 Apr. 1842; mar. (lic. Acco. Co. 30/31 Dec. 1799) Sally Killmon, b. 1773/74; d. 1860/70. It is possible that this William is a son of the Revolutionary soldier John Wessells; no one named William Wessells (Vessells) is listed in the 1830 or 1840 census for Acco. Co.; such evidence as there is, however, appears to indicate that William is rightly placed here as son of William. In his will, signed 12 Dec. 1841, William Wessells of Acco. Co., bequeathed a gun to William Taylor of Teackle, everything else to wife Sally Wessells, executor. Witnesses were Litt. A. Hinman, John Taylor of C. and Teackle Taylor (Acco. Wills 1800/4:440). It was evidently his widow Sally (her age erroneously given as 60) alone in household #1195 in 1850 Acco. Co. census. In 1860 Sally Wessells, aged 86, was listed in the household of (?her brother) Charles Killmon (b. 1781/82) and his wife, near Obed Byrd and the Gladdings. Children (born Messongo, Acco. Co.):

- i. Hetty, b. ?1800; d. Messongo, 15 Mar. 1860; single; aged 58 at death, reportedly daughter of William Wessells; her death was reported by Henry L. Wessells, "cousin"; in 1850 (aged 50) she was living in household of Alfred Northam (b. 1823/24), near Daniel Boston and Solomon Small.
- ii. Walter, Jr., b. 1801/2; d. 1850/53; see No. 3 below.
- iii. Bayley Henry, b. 1803/4; head of household #979 (in 1850) between (and adjacent to) Walter Wessells and Solomon J. Small.

3 WALTER WESSELLS, JR., son of William (Sr.), b. Messongo, Acco. Co., Md. 1801/2; d. Acco. Co. 1853/53; mar. (Acco. Co. bond 6 Mar. 1823) Elizabeth Bailey, daughter of Robert, b. 1805/6. He was listed next to Walter Wessells, Sr., in 1830 census, next to Bayley Henry Wessells in 1850. Information about his family was confirmed by the late Mrs. Mollie Byrd Young. Children (born near Mearsville, Accomack Co., Va.):

- i. Nancy, b. 1824; mar. (1846) Daniel Kelly.
- ii. Susan, b. 1827/28; d. c1859; mar. James D. BYRD (q.v.).
- iii. William Walter, b. 1829/30; d. 1896/1910?; mar. (Acco. Co. bond 25 Dec. 1854) Caroline Justice, daughter of Samuel, b. 1836/37. Children:
 1. William J., b. 25 May 1857; d. 26 Apr. 1901.
 2. Charles F., b. Oct. 1859.
 3. Walter W., b. 1861; mar. Mary E. Nelson.
 4. Mary J., b. 1863/64.
 5. Betsy Ann, b. 1866/67.
 6. John, b. 1870; drowned 31 Oct. 1894.
 7. Ida A., b. 1873/74.
 8. Thomas J., b. 1875/76.
 9. George W., b. 1877/78.
 10. Webster E., b. 12 Feb. 1881; d. 25 Dec. 1950; mar. SADY GLADDING (232).
- iv. Sarah ("Sally") Robinson, b. 7 Sept. 1834; d. 6 June 1914; mar. 1st (Acco. Co. 25 Oct. 1852) Riley F. BYRD (q.v.); 2nd (Worc. Co., Md. 23 Jan. 1860) James D. BYRD (q.v.); 3rd (Worc. Co. 21 Feb. 1865) MARCELLUS SMALL (92).
- v. Evaline, b. 1839/40.
- vi. Henry W., b. 13 July 1844; d. 15 June 1933; mar. Burnetta (Vernette) A. Chase, daughter of Robert J. and Nancy

(Lewis) CHASE (q.v.). Two of their children (born Mearsville, Accomack Co., Va.):

1. Samuel Henry, b. 12 Sept. 1867; d. 12 Nov. 1935; mar. CORA ALINE GLADDING (228).
2. Emory Jackson, b. 26 Feb. 1870; d. 4 May 1933; mar. ALICE LEE SMALL (209).

WHITE FAMILY OF SOMERSET COUNTY

Apparently two or more White families settled in Somerset Co., Maryland, in the late seventeenth century; no relationship has yet been established among them. The earliest representative of the family treated here, Archibald White, arrived by 1685, possibly from Accomack Co., Virginia, and established himself on the banks of the Pocomoke River just below what is now Rehobeth. Mrs. Anne G. Greene of Philadelphia has provided assistance in the reconstruction of this family.

1 ARCHIBALD WHITE, b. c1655; d. Som. Co., Md. by 24 Oct. 1692. On 22 Feb. 1688/89 Archibald White, weaver, for 3000 lbs. of tobacco, bought from Josias and Margaret Seaward 118 acres of "Manlove's Lott," this portion henceforth to be called "Tully Briske," on the north side of Pocomoke River adjacent a marsh in Pungoteague fields (Som. Deeds 2:938). On 5 Apr. 1691 White bought two more tracts, from Mrs. Eleanor Traile, acting under power of attorney from her husband, the Rev. William Traile, former Presbyterian minister at Rehobeth. The tracts were 90 acres of "Brother's Love" and 25 acres adjacent, "Killeleagh," about a mile below Rehobeth Town on the west side of the Pocomoke River (Som. Deeds 7:12; Torrence, p. 221). In his will, dated 13 July 1692, Archibald White bequeathed his entire estate to wife Mary and two sons John and William, to be divided equally, and he appointed as overseers John Sterret and the Rev. Francis Makemie, celebrated Presbyterian minister. Witnesses included Pierce Bray, James Noble (Ann. Wills 6:23, in back of book).

Mary White, widow, became the wife (c1693) of Pierce Bray, who on 3 Nov. 1701, with John and William White, sons of Archibald White, bought from John Walton 133 acres, "Addition" (Som. Deeds 7:640). Bray in 1703 made his house (where Rev. Mr. Traile had lived) the meeting place of the Rehobeth Presby. Congregation, of which he appears to have been a ruling elder (Torrence, pp. 241, 536). In his will, signed 14 Oct. 1713 (prob. 4 June 1714), Pierce Bray, of Pocomoke, Som. Co., bequeathed to John and Archibald White, orphans of Archibald White, 62 acres, part of "Corke," and he also made bequests to son Edward and daughters Mary and Martha, and wife (Som. Wills EB9:52).

Edward Bray (b. Som. Co. Jan. 1694; d. by 28 Feb. 1717/18), son of Pierce and Mary, in his will, dated 5 May 1716, desired that his sister Mary Bray make over 62 acres to his [step-] brothers John and Archibald White, according to their father's will, and he left personal effects to Archibald's son, "cousin" William White (Som. Wills EB9:63). In 1740 Mary (Bray) Vestry deeded "Cork" and "Clonmill" to John White. Children of Archibald and Mary White (born presumably at Pocomoke, Somerset Co., Md.):

- i. John, b. 22 Dec. 1685; d. by 25 Apr. 1737; see No. 2 below.
- ii. William, b. 13 Jan. 1689/90; d. by Oct. 1713.
- iii. Archibald, b. (posthumously) 5 Jan. 1692/93; d. c1770; see No. 4 below.

2 JOHN WHITE, son of Archibald, b. 22 Dec. 1685; d. Som. Co. 26 Oct. 1750 (Coventry); mar. 1st (before June 1716) Hannah, who d. apparently childless c1717/18; 2nd (c1720) Mrs. Sarah Beauchamp, b. c1695; d. 1733/37; 3rd (Coventry, 20 May 1774) Rebecca Porter. That John's second wife Sarah was the widow of Thomas Beauchamp is evidenced by probate records (see Notes, pp. 456-57); she died by 23 June 1737, when John White was guardian of his children, Mary, Sarah, Henry, Rachel, and Martha White.

On 19 June 1716 John White and wife Hannah for 3000 lbs. of tobacco conveyed to Archibald White, planter, 118 acres "Tully Briske" (formerly "Killeleagh"), land devised by will of Archibald White to son John (Som. Deeds 13:1). John White "of Pocomoke" appears in Som. Co. tax lists of the 1730's and 1740's in Pocomoke Hundred. On 17 Nov. 1740 John White of Pocomoke, planter, for £7, was deeded 200 acres, "Cork," and 40 acres, "Clonmill," by Michael Vestry and wife Mary [Bray] Vestry, who became entitled to her mother's part in said lands (Som. Deeds 20:213). On 18 Nov. 1742, together with [his uncle] Archibald White, John purchased from Cornelius Ward "Price's Conclusion," 25 acres between the mouth of Cedar Creek and the Annemessex River, and "Long Acre," 50 acres of marsh at the mouth of Flat Cap Creek (Som. Deeds 21:23). John's grandson, ISAAC WHITE (23), son of Henry, on 15 Mar. 1780 settled the bounds of these lands with Lodowick Milbourn. An inventory of the estate of John White was recorded 20 Mar. 1751, Rebecca White administrator; next of kin were Archibald White and Sarah Taylor; the inventory amounted to £529.17 (Ann. Inv. 45:27-34). In distribution (9 Apr. 1752) a third went to the widow, another third to Henry White, and to Thomas Mulligan and Robert Taylor, each in right of his wife; remaining third "equally divided among dec'd's three children," John, Molly, Nelly White (Ann. Balance Bk. 1:31). Children, last three by third marriage (all born Pocomoke, Som. Co., baptised Coventry):

- i. Mary, b. c1721; d. 1737/51; single.
- ii. Sarah, b. c1723; mar. Robert Taylor.
- iii. Henry, b. 20 July 1725; d. 16 Dec. 1756; mar. ABIGAIL BOSTON (11).
- iv. Rachel, b. c1727; mar. Thomas Mulligan.
- v. Martha, b. c1729; d. 1737/51; single.
- vi. John, b. 22 Sept. 1745; d. Som. Co. by 4 Mar. 1775; in his will, dated 17 Oct. 1774, he made bequests to sister Molly White (executor), brother-in-law [i. e. half-brother] Henry White's children; sisters-in-law Sarah Taylor's daughter and Rachel Mulligan's daughter; sister Nelly White; and the children of William White and John Porter. Witnesses were Elijah Matthews and William Hall (Som. Wills EB5:62).
- vii. Molly, b. 15 Feb. 1747/48; d. Worc. Co. by 16 Aug. 1777; single; in her will, declared by word of mouth 21 Apr. 1777 in the presence of William Handy, Mary King Handy, Mary Turner, Molly White of Worc. Co. bequeathed her whole estate to her sister Nelly Long (Worc. Wills JW4:361).
- viii. Eleanor (Nelly), b. 17 May 1749; d. 1 Feb. 1797; mar. (c1777) David LONG (p. 414, No. 13).

3 ARCHIBALD WHITE (JR.), posthumous son of Archibald, b. 5 Jan. 1692/93; d. Som. Co. c1770. In 1742, with (nephew) John White, Archibald White, of Pocomoke, planter, bought "Price's Conclusion" and "Long Acre" from Cornelius Ward. On 19 June 1764 Archibald conveyed to his "eldest son" William White 45 acres of "Tully Briske" formerly sold to Archibald's father Archibald, land on west side of Pocomoke River and east side of road from Rehobeth Town to "Murrumscoe," also all of "Addition to Tully Briske" (50 acres) and "White's Desire" (11 acres) (Som. Deeds 24:216). On 26 Oct. 1765 White sold more of this land to Robert Taylor, presumably husband of his great-niece. On 16 June 1769 Archibald conveyed to his children William, Samuel, Archable, Jr., and Martha White his entire personal estate after his death, William to sell 12 acres of "Long Acre" and 12 of "Jeanes Island" to pay debts (Som. Deeds 25:14, 26:30). Eldest son (born probably at Pocomoke, Somerset Co., Md.):

- i. William, b. c1715; d. by 12 May 1789; see No. 5 below.

4 WILLIAM WHITE, son of Archibald, b. Som. Co. c1715; d. Worc. Co. by 12 May 1789; mar. 1st (Coventry, 1 Nov. 1744) Elizabeth Bratten, who d. 6 Nov. 1758 (Coventry); 2nd (Coventry, 14 Jan. 1767) Molly Broughton; (evidently) 3rd Elizabeth? On 16 Dec. 1777 William sold part of "Addition to Manlove's Lott" and bought from Levin Boston 3 acres of "Support" at Rehobeth (Som. Deeds 27:322, 28:101). In his will, signed 17 Aug. 1786, William White, Sr., named daughter Mary Stinson (wife of James Stinson); wife Elizabeth; and sons Robert, Stephen, William Bell White, and Thomas White, executor (Worc. Wills EB17:58). Children (last by second marriage; baptised Coventry):

- i. Mary, b. 15 Aug. 1745; d. by 18 June 1818; mar. James STEVENSON (p. 431); according to tradition, their son Edward's widow, Nancy Williams Stevenson (1782-1843), mar. as her 2nd husband Edward's cousin, David Long (p. 414, No. 13v); through the Whites her husbands' mothers were second cousins.
- ii. Archibald, b. 8 Dec. 1747; d. young.
- iii. James, b. 19 Oct. 1749; d. young.
- iv. Robert, b. c1751; d. Worc. Co. by 7 Dec. 1798; in his will, dated 3 Sept. 1797, he named "the four daughters of William Wood," brothers William Bell White, Thomas and Stephen White, and "cousin [niece] Betsy Stevenson, daughter of James Stevenson" (Worc. Wills JW18:389); in accounts Anderson Patterson and William Stevenson were securities for William B. and Thomas White, executors.
- v. Stevens (Steven, Stephen), b. 28 Oct. 1754; d. Worc. Co. by 14 July 1825 (bond).
- vi. William Bell, b. c1756; d. Worc. Co. by 9 Mar. 1813; in his will, signed 2 Mar. 1813, he left all to brother Stephens White's children (Worc. Wills MH4:363).
- vii. Thomas, b. 27 Feb. 1768; d. Som. Co. by 13 Oct. 1822 (Som. Deeds 62:314; Som. Inv. & Accts. JP5:125).

WILLIAMS AND ALLIED FAMILIES

Several different Williams families came to the Eastern Shore in the seventeenth century, but relationships (if any) among them have not been established. In fact, because of similarity of names in the various families it is sometimes difficult with confidence to assign a particular individual to a particular family. Michael Williams, the progenitor of the family treated here, came to Virginia from England in 1635; his children about 1661 moved with their mother and step-father, Stephen Horsey, from Northampton Co., Virginia, into Maryland, settling on the Annemessex River in Somerset Co. Of the families that intermarried with members of the Williams family, the Catlins also came from Northampton Co. to Annemessex in 1663. The Pollocks came later, about 1672, directly from Ireland to Somerset Co., settling at Manokin. What is known of the religious affiliations of these people would indicate that they were staunch Presbyterians. Most of the research for this family has been provided by Mrs. Anne G. Greene of Philadelphia.

1 MICHAEL (MICHELL) WILLIAMS, b. probably in England in 1617; d. Northampton Co., Va. before Dec. 1650; mar. Sarah. A Michell Williams, aged 18, is listed as transported to Va. from Gravesend 21 Aug. 1635 in the George, John Severn, master (Hot-ten, p. 125). Michael Williams on 11 Oct. 1646 was granted a patent to 250 acres of land in Northampton Co., Va., at Naswattock (Nassawadox) Creek, adjacent James Bruse, for transporting Lewis White, Mary Pedenden, Sarah Williams, and others (Nugent, I:164). In 1675 Michael Williams, Jr., and his wife Ann, of Som. Co., sold this land in Acco. Co., Va.

Michael's widow Sarah mar. 2nd (before Dec. 1650) Stephen Horsey, b. c1620; d. "and was buried at his plantation in Annemessex 8 Aug. 1671." A cooper by trade, he was a leader in Northampton Co., a member of the Va. House of Burgesses. An independent thinker and a firm non-conformist, he was an outspoken critic of political activities. In the 1660's he at once became a leader among the settlers in Som. Co., where he was first High Sheriff, a deputy surveyor, a member of the court; with William Stevens he was one of two representatives first elected by the people of Som. Co. to the Md. General Assembly (Feb. 1668/69). In a survey (entered 27 Feb. 1660/61) of 1000 acres of land on the south side of Annemessex River, headrights named for Stephen Horsey included his wife Sarah, four children, and his step-children Thomas, Michael, and Sarah Williams, as well as John Roach (Torrence, pp. 297-302). Children of Michael and Sarah Williams (born Northampton Co., Va.):

- i. Michael, b. c1641; d. Som. Co. by 1 Dec. 1699; in his will,

- signed 18 June 1699, he bequeathed to wife Patience "Slack Ridge"; to sons Michael and Nathaniel, "Farthingan" on Barren Creek; to son Walter, "land near William Planner, Sr." (Ann. Wills 6:318).
- ii. Thomas, b. c1643; d. by 5 Mar. 1720/21; see No. 2 below.
 - iii. Sarah, b. c1645; mar. (1663/64) John Roach; see No. 6 below.

2 THOMAS WILLIAMS, son of Michael, b. c1643; d. Annemessex, Som. Co., by 5 Mar. 1720/21; mar. (Som. Co. 17 June 1684 by "Mr. William Traile," Presby. minister) Frances Robinson. Williams secured a patent 4 Sept. 1663 to 300 acres, "Williamson"; on 3 June 1712 Thomas Williams, Sr., planter, and wife Frances for 10 shillings conveyed to Thomas Williams, Jr., 150 acres of "Williamston," in Annemessex River, adjacent Thomas's brother, Mitchell Williams (Som. Deeds 10:804). In his will, dated 17 Apr. 1720, Thomas Williams of Annemessex Hundred, planter, bequeathed to son John 200 acres, "Harrisons Adventure," also parts of "Williamson" and "Williams Conquest"; to son Thomas, executor, he confirmed grant of part of "Williamston" already deeded to him; daughter Mary was to have care of the child Elisha Newman and was to receive a black horse which was her mother's; and he named daughters Hanna Turpin and Elisa Herne. Witnesses were James Curtis, Edward Beauchamp, John Benson (Ann. Wills 16:103). Although no evidence has been found in deeds or wills to indicate that the John Williams (No. 3 below) or any of his family held "Harrisons Adventure" or "Williamston" or "Williams Conquest," nevertheless all other indications are that John Williams (3) was the same as the John, son of Thomas (2), who was born 29 Oct. 1692. Children (born at Annemessex, Somerset Co., Md.):

- i. Thomas, b. 1 Feb. 1684/85; d. by 16 Nov. 1768; mar. Hannah Beauchamp. In 1749 with (brother) John Williams he conveyed land to William Fleming (Som. Deeds 22:79). In 1743 Thomas and John Williams witnessed the will of James Strawbridge. Among the children of Thomas's son, Thomas Williams, Jr. (c1710-c1743), Levin Williams (b. 13 Mar. 1741/42) witnessed the will of (? his great-uncle) John Williams in 1760.
- ii. Sarah, b. 8 Aug. 1686; d. before 1720.
- iii. Hannah, b. 20 Apr. 1688; mar. John Turpin (d. 1736).
- iv. John, b. 29 Oct. 1692; d. by 27 Dec. 1760; see No. 3 below.
- v. Isaac.
- vi. Elizabeth, mar. 1st William Hearne (1688-1756); 2nd Thomas Hearne (1691-1762).
- vii. Mary.

3 JOHN WILLIAMS, son of Thomas (2), b. Annemessex, 29 Oct. 1692; d. Som. Co. by 27 Dec. 1760; mar. 1st (Coventry, 16 Oct. 1717) Sarah Catlin, widow of Doggett Beauchamp and daughter of Robert CATLIN (see No. 9 below), b. 1 Oct. 1688; d. c1721/22; mar. 2nd (Coventry, 12 Nov. 1724) Mary Fountain, who d. c1728/32; mar. 3rd (Coventry, 10 Apr. 1733) Elizabeth Polk, daughter of William and Nancy (Knox) POLK (No. 11 below), b. c1710; d. by 25 Apr. 1775. According to a deposition of 3 July 1742 John Williams was aged 50 (Som. Jud. 1742/44:152). He secured patents to "Williams Lott (200 acres), 1726; "North Border" (100 acres), 1741; "Middle Strand," (85 acres), 1745; "Caips Mouth" (12 1/2 acres), 1747; and "Conclusion," (20 acres), 1759. Williams was a party to several deeds settling claims to Catlin land. On 30 Aug. 1731 on the basis of an award by commissioners appointed for arbitration, William Catlin confirmed John Williams in his holding, "Hartford Broad Oak" (150 acres) bequeathed by Robert Catlin the Younger to his daughter Sarah Catlin, "late the wife of John Williams." Williams had secured a writ of ejectment "on behalf of his son Jacob" against Catlin (Som. Deeds 17:352), Jacob being eldest (surviving) son and heir at law of his mother, Sarah Catlin. On 20 Aug. 1746 John Williams entered a quit claim to Isaac Beauchamp on "Contention," and Beauchamp entered a quit claim to Williams on "Hartford Broad Oak," both tracts on the north side of the Great Annemessex (Som. Deeds 21:201).

John Williams, planter, on 14 Oct. 1749 bought "Little Bolton," on the south side of Annemessex River, also "Flatt Capp" (50 acres) and "The Mistake" (400 acres) near the mouth of Annemessex River (Som. Deeds 22:77). On 6 Aug. 1750 Williams bought from Edmond Beauchamp 21 acres of former Catlin land, "First Choice," on Turkey Branch, out of Annemessex River (Som. Deeds 22:117). John Williams of Jones Creek, "gentleman," on 13 Nov. 1751 entered a quit claim to Samuel Ward and his son John for "Little Bolton"; on 11 Nov. 1768 John Williams of Som. Co., "shipwright," for £9 sold to Kirk Gunby half the tracts "Flatt Capp" and "The Mistake"; on 29 Dec. 1768 John Williams, "gentleman," sold a fourth of these tracts (both "on or near the Annemessex River") to Josephus Bell (Som. Deeds 22:222, 25:238, 256).

In his will, dated 29 Nov. 1760, John Williams, Sr., bequeathed to "eldest son" John Williams (certainly meaning eldest son by third marriage) all land on the east of Turkey branch, one tract of 200 acres, "Williams Lott"; 12 1/2 acres, "Capis Mouth"; 100 acres, "North Border"; 20 acres, "Conclusion"; and part of tract of 20 acres "which I bought of Edmond Beauchamp," i.e. "First Choice." Son Josiah was to receive land between the new road and Turkey Branch, "Middle Strand," 85 acres. Son Jacob was named executor, along with testator's wife, Elizabeth, who was bequeathed a third of the movables. John also named children Benjamin and Priscilla Williams, and specified that sons Jacob and Samuel and daughters Hannah Hermanson and Mary Polk shall have no more than what is given in the will. Witnesses were Stephen Garland, James Curtis, and Levin Williams (Som. Wills EB4:73). John's widow Elizabeth signed her will 26 Mar. 1775, naming daughters Mary Polk, Priscilla Curtis, grandson Josiah Polk, sons Josiah and Benjamin Williams; William Polk was to be executor (Som. Wills EB5:68). Children (born Som. Co.):

- By first marriage (baptised Coventry):
 - i. Jacob, b. 24 Oct. 1718; d. by 18 Aug. 1778; see No. 4 below.
- By second marriage (baptised Coventry):
 - ii. Samuel, b. 25 Nov. 1725.
- iii. Hannah, b. 5 Dec. 1727; mar. ---Hermanson (Harmanson).
- By third marriage (baptised Coventry):
 - iv. Priscilla, b. 17 Jan. 1733/34; mar. (Coventry, 16 June 1762) Samuel Curtis; their son John W. Curtis on 20 Nov. 1812, for £1074. 15, sold to William Williams (relationship, if any, unknown) land on Turkey Branch, "Williams Lott Enlarged" (223 1/4 acres), "North Border" (100 acres), "Conclusion" (20 acres), "Caips Mouth" (12 1/2 acres), and "Handy's Purchase" (2 1/2 acres) (Som. Deeds 42:116).
 - v. Mary, b. 25 Jan. 1736/37; mar. her first cousin, William Polk.
 - vi. John, b. 28 May 1739; d. Som. Co. by 21 Mar. 1797; mar. (Coventry, 27 Dec. 1767) Betsy Jones. In his will, dated 6 Mar. 1797, Williams bequeathed to wife Elizabeth a third of his personal estate, the remainder after her death to John Williams Curtis, Thomas Curtis, Betsy Curtis, wife of Richard Waters; and William Polk's children: Betsy, Nancy, William, Josiah; nephew John Williams Curtis to have all the real estate after wife's death (Som. Wills EB7:606).
 - vii. Josiah, b. 3 July 1742; said to have migrated to North Carolina.
 - viii. Benjamin, b. 12 May 1747; said to have migrated to North Carolina.

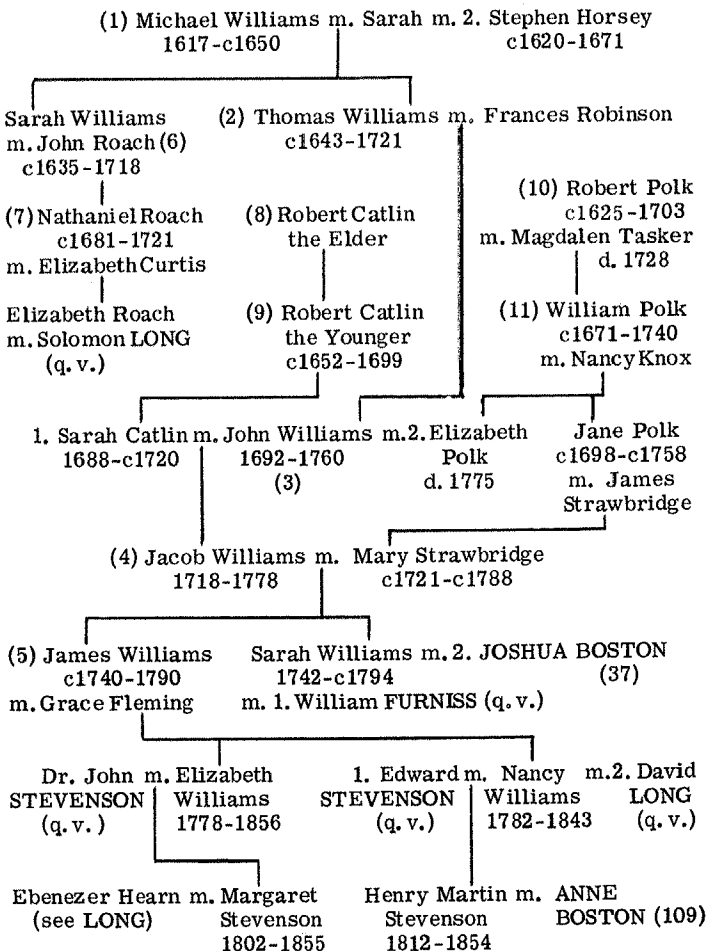

4 JACOB WILLIAMS, son of John, b. 24 Oct. 1718; d. Som. Co. by 18 Aug. 1778; mar. (c1739) Mary Strawbridge, daughter of James and Jane (Polk) STRAWBRIDGE (see No. 12 below), b. c1720; d. c1788. Jacob Williams secured patents to 207 acres, "Donohoes Choice," 1748, and 177 acres, "Dickersons Discovery," 15 May 1767, both in Worc. Co. On 11 Mar. 1767 Jacob Williams, planter, for £17.16.3 bought 14 1/2 acres from William Catlin, Jr. (Som. Deeds 25:76). In his will, dated 19 Apr. 1770, Jacob bequeathed to daughter Hannah Layfield 25 acres, "Donoho's Choice," the south end where she now lives, for life; to son James all the estate "he is now possessed of under me in Worc. Co."; to wife Mary, all lands in Som. Co. during her life or widowhood; and he made other bequests to daughters Sarah Furniss, Mary and Elizabeth Williams. Witnesses were Peter Taylor, John Williams, Jr., and Joshua Beauchamp (Som. Wills EB1:89).

Jacob's widow d. by 17 June 1789; at the time her estate was settled, distribution was made to James Williams, executor, John Kelly in right of his wife, and Joshua Boston in right of his wife, each receiving a third. In the distribution of Jacob Williams' estate in May 1792, Joshua Boston and John Kelly, executors, the "widow being dead," the estate was divided among daughters Sarah Furnis, Mary, Elizabeth, and Hannah Williams (Som. Accts. EB16: 278, 535). The entire family of Jacob and Mary Williams is set forth in a deed of 15 Apr. 1796 between John Williams of Worc. Co., grantor, and William Davis Allen of Som. Co. in the sale of Strawbridge land. Allusion is made to a partition of this land, the heirs of Jane Strawbridge being: John Williams, eldest heir male; James Williams, Sarah Porter (wife of William), Mary Willis (wife of Elijah), and Elizabeth, Nancy, and Amelia Williams, all children of James Williams, deceased; Levin, James, William Layfield, and Priscilla Dreaden (wife of William), children of Hannah Layfield, deceased; and Josiah Furnis, Mary Stevens (wife of Levi) Levin Boston, and James Boston, all children of Sarah Boston, deceased (Som. Deeds 31:370). Children (born Som. Co., Md., baptised Coventry):

- i. James, b. c1740; d. by 9 Apr. 1790; see No. 5 below.
- ii. Sarah, b. 19 Oct. 1742; d. by 9 Dec. 1794; mar. 1st William FURNISS (q. v.); 2nd JOSHUA BOSTON (37).
- iii. Mary, b. 3 Apr. 1745; mar. John Kelly.
- iv. Hannah, b. 3 Oct. 1747; d. by Apr. 1796; mar. -- Layfield.
- v. Elizabeth, b. 16 Feb. 1752; d. by 11 Jan. 1785 (inventory of her estate: Som. Accts. EB16:278).

5 JAMES WILLIAMS, son of Jacob, b. c1740; d. Worc. Co. by 9 Apr. 1790; mar. (Coventry, 7 Oct. 1764) Grace Fleming, daughter of John and Sarah (Cox) FLEMING (q. v.), b. 10 Sept. 1745; d. after ?1806. On 2 June 1789 James Williams conveyed to John Williams (both of Worc. Co.) for 5 shillings his share of "Dickersons Discovery". On 21 July 1789 James conveyed to Thomas Jones, merchant, "Hartford Broad Oak" at the mouth of Dividing Branch, east side of northeast fork of Annesmessex River, adjacent land formerly conveyed to Jacob Williams by William Catlin, and adjacent Isaac Beauchamp land, 150 acres; Grace was wife of Williams. On 12 Aug. 1790 Levin Layfield of Worc. Co., son and heir of Hannah Layfield, daughter of Jacob Williams, for 5 shillings released the same land to John Williams (Worc. Deeds M: 545; Som. Deeds 29:484; Worc. Deeds N:349; Som. Deeds 30:144).

In his will, signed 21 Mar. 1790, James Williams bequeathed to son John "Dickesons Discovery" and "Donohoes Choice"; to son James (under 21) "Purgatory"; and he named daughters Mary, Nancy, Amelia, Peggy (but referred to six); son John was to be executor (Worc. Wills JW13:273). Children (dates from McMaster; see STEVENSON):

- i. John, b. 31 Oct. 1765; d. c1855.
- ii. Sarah, b. 24 Feb. 1768; mar. William Porter.
- iii. Mary, b. 2 Mar. 1770; mar. Elijah Willis.
- iv. Jacob, b. 25 May 1772.
- v. James, b. 8 Nov. 1774.
- vi. Elizabeth (Betsy), b. 10 Aug. 1778; d. 5 July 1856; mar. Dr. John STEVENSON (q. v.).
- vii. Nancy, b. 11 June 1782; d. 26 May 1843; mar. 1st Edward STEVENSON (q. v.); 2nd David LONG (q. v.).
- viii. Amelia (Molly), b. 19 Mar. 1786; d. by 10 Apr. 1804.
- ix. Peggy, b. 2 Apr. 1789; d. before 1799.

6 JOHN ROACH (ROCH), SR., b. c1635; d. Annesmessex, Som. Co., Md., by 17 Mar. 1717/18; mar. (Som. Co. 4 Feb. 1663/64) Sarah WILLIAMS, daughter of Michael (see No. 1 above). In 1661 he was a headright for Stephen Horsey. On 9 Feb. 1663/64 he patented a tract, "Makepeace," 150 acres at head of Apes Hole Creek, several miles east of the present town of Crisfield; on the tract he shortly thereafter built a brick colonial dwelling house which still stands (Torrence, p. 457). In his will, dated 8 Feb. 1708/9, John Roach, Sr., of Annesmessex, bequeathed to eldest son John (at decease of wife) 150 acres, dwelling plantation, "Make Peace," with 50 acres adjoining out of tract "Exchange"; to son Nathaniel, 200 acres "Bald Ridge"; to son Michael, 150 acres, rest of "Exchange"; to son Samuel, 150 acres "Cabin Swamp"; marsh land to be divided among 4 sons; he also named wife Sarah and the seven daughters below (Ann. Wills 14:568). Children (born Annesmessex):

- i. John, b. 4 Dec. 1664; d. by 1 June 1727; mar. Alice Hall.
- ii. Sarah, b. 4 Mar. 1666/67; mar. (Nov. 1683) John Perkins.
- iii. Mary, b. 3 Feb. 1668/69; mar. Francis Martin.
- iv. Elizabeth, b. 12 Feb. 1670/71.
- v. Abigail, b. 3 Jan. 1672/73; mar. Anthony Bell.
- vi. William, b. 6 Mar. 1674/75; d. 1687.
- vii. Arabella, b. 25 July 1679; mar. --- Cullen.
- viii. Nathaniel, b. c1681; d. by 24 Feb. 1720/21; see No. 7 below.
- ix. Michael, b. c1683; d. 1729.
- x. Rebecca, b. 1 June 1685.
- xi. Hannah, b. May 1687.
- xii. Joseph, b. 12 June 1689.
- xiii. Samuel, b. 4 Sept. 1692; d. by 8 May 1736.

7 NATHANIEL ROACH, b. c1681; d. Som. Co. by 24 Feb. 1720/21; mar. (c1707) Elizabeth Curtis, daughter of James and Sarah (Hall) CURTIS (see HALL family), b. 7 July 1687; d. c1755; she mar. 2nd (c1721/22) John Trahern. In his will, signed 20 Jan. 1720/21, Nathaniel bequeathed to son James dwelling plantation; to son Nathaniel as much land from said tract as will plant an orchard, being on part toward dwelling house of Sarah Tull; executor was wife Elizabeth. Witnesses included Nicho. Fountain, William Roach (Som. Wills EB9:72). Though he did not name any daughters or son Daniel, evidence reveals that he also had Daniel, Katherine, and:

- i. [Elizabeth?], b. c1708; d. c1735; mar. Solomon LONG (q. v.).

CATLIN - WILLIAMS CONNECTION

8 ROBERT CATLIN THE ELDER (also Cattlyn, Cattlen, Catling), was in Northampton Co., Va., by 1651; his wife Ann was a former indentured servant to Edward Drew; he settled in Annesmessex, Som. Co., in 1663, bringing with him wife Ann, daughter Ann, sons Joseph and Robert, Jr. (Torrence, p. 438). On 9 Apr. 1664 he patented 300 acres, "Cattlyn's Lot." His daughter Ann mar. (1672) William Walston, and on 22 Aug. 1678 by deed of gift he conveyed to Ann Walston (wife of William Walston, Sr.) 150 acres. His son:

- i. Robert, Jr., b. c1652; d. by 15 June 1699; see No. 9 below.

9 ROBERT CATLIN THE YOUNGER, son of Robert, b. c1652; d. Annesmessex, Som. Co., by 15 June 1699; mar. 1st (Som. Co. 15 Feb. 1676/77, by Mr. George Johnson, Justice of the Peace) Elizabeth Curtis, daughter of Daniel CURTIS (see HALL family); she "died and was buried at Anamessex" 14 Dec. 1677; mar. 2nd (c1687) Hannah. It was probably this Robert to whom RICHARD BOSTON (5) was apprenticed 19 Aug. 1677 to become a shoemaker. It was also probably this Robert who patented tracts "First Choice" (250 acres) in 1679; "Branfield" (100 acres), 1685; and "Meadow" (50 acres), 1695. On 13 Nov. 1694 Robert Catlin, planter, for 1200 pounds of tobacco, bought from William Walston, Jr., the 150 acres deeded to Ann Walston by Robert's father (Som. Deeds 7:243). In his will, dated 2 Apr. 1698, he made bequests to son and heir William Cattlen, and to daughter Sarah Catling "land alienated to me by William Walston," naming Mr. Mills Gray his executor (Som. Wills EB5:118). His daughter:

- i. Sarah, b. 1 Oct. 1688; d. c1721/22; mar. 1st (c1708) Doggett Beauchamp (1681-1717); 2nd (Coventry, 16 Oct. 1717) John WILLIAMS (No. 3 above). Beauchamp's will was probated 18 Mar. 1716/17 (Ann. Wills 14:353). Williams was administrator of Doggett Beauchamp 30 May 1718 (Som. Deeds 13:325). By Beauchamp, Sarah was mother of Gray Beauchamp, who d. by 1731, when Jacob, her son by Williams, became heir to his mother's land. See Note, p. 457.

POLK - WILLIAMS CONNECTION

The Polk family has been the subject of study by Loula Allen Lentz, in Our Heritage: A Genealogical History of the Allen Family of Maryland, New York, 1960. Without benefit of supporting evidence, King Robert Bruce of Scotland is claimed as an ancestor through Lady Annabella Stuart who mar. (1646) Sir George Maxwell, and was the mother of another Annabella, who mar. Sir Robert Pollock and became mother of the immigrant Robert Pollock, who had fought under Cromwell in the 1640's, a clear violation of chronology. For additional details on the Polk family, see Notes, p. 457.

10 ROBERT BRUCE POLLOCK (or POLK, or POLKE), b. reportedly in Ireland, probably in co. Donegal, c1625; d. Som. Co., Md., by 5 June 1703; mar. Magdalen Tasker, widow of a Col. Porter and daughter of the Chancellor of Ireland (Lentz), who inherited half her father's estate, "Moneen," in the Parish of Lifford, co. Donegal, Ireland; she d. Som. Co. by 20 Mar. 1727/28. Pollock, characterized by Lentz as a "stern Covenanter and Presbyterian," reportedly fought under Oliver Cromwell in the regiment of Col. Porter, whose widow Pollock evidently wed. With his family he migrated to America about 1672, settling at Dame's Quarter, in Som. Co., Md., between the Manokin and Nanticoke Rivers; here in 1687 he secured a patent to "Polk's Folly." He signed his will 8 Aug. 1702, bequeathing to son Robert "Low Ridge" and part of "Forlorn Hope," conveyed to the testator by Augustine Standforth; to son David, the rest of "Forlorn Hope" and 400 acres, "Polk's Folly." He also named children Martha, Joseph, James, Ephraim, John, William, and wife Magdalen. Witnesses were Robert Polk, Richard Whitey, Richard Knight, Mary English (Ann. Wills 11:357). Robert's widow, Magdalen Polke (or Pollock), signed her will 7 Apr. 1726, naming only one son, Joseph Polke, bequeathing to him "Moning" in the kingdom of Ireland, County Donegal, parish of Leford. Witnesses were David Polk and William and Magdalen Pollett (Som. Wills EB9:117). Children (partial list, but all born probably in co. Donegal, Ireland):

- i. Robert, b. c1657; d. Dorchester Co., Md. by 10 May 1727; planter; among other bequests he left to brother Joseph Polk part of "Forlorn Hope" and "Ballehack" near the head of Pidgion House Creek (Ann. Wills 19:136).
- ii. Joseph, b. c1663; inherited Moneen Hall, which he later sold to his aunt, Barbara Tasker Keys (Lentz).
- iii. James, b. c1665; d. Som. Co. by 11 May 1727; ship carpenter.
- iv. Ephraim, b. c1667; d. 1739.
- v. William, b. c1671; d. Feb. 1739/40; see No. 11 below.

11 WILLIAM POLK, son of Robert (and ?Magdalen) Polk, b. probably co. Donegal, Ireland, c1671; d. Som. Co., Md., Feb. 1739/40; mar. 1st Nancy Knox, possibly daughter of John Knox (d. 1723) and widow of --- Owens, b. c1675; d. before 1739. William Polk signed his will 23 Jan. 1739/40, making bequests to children

David Polk, Elizabeth Williams, Jane Strawbridge, and James Polk (executor), as well as to grandson William Polk (of James) and to Allen Gray. Witnesses were Abraham and Matthew Heath. Charles King (Som. Wills EB9:211). Three children (born White Hall):

- i. Jean (Jane), b. c1698; d. after 1757; mar. James STRAWBRIDGE (see No. 12 below).
- ii. William, Jr., b. c1700; d. in North Carolina; great-grandfather of President James Knox Polk; see Note, pp. 457-58.
- iii. Elizabeth, b. c1710; d. by 25 Apr. 1775; mar. John WILLIAM WILLIAMS (No. 3 above), whose son Jacob married her niece, Mary Strawbridge.

12 JAMES STRAWBRIDGE, son of ?John, b. c1680; d. Som. Co. by 22 June 1743; mar. (c1719) Jean (Jane) Polk, daughter of William and Nancy (Knox) Polk (see No. 11 above). On 24 Oct. 1688 cattle marks were recorded for James and John Strawbridge.

John Strawbridge, evidently father of James, mar. Olive, the widow of William FURNISS (q.v.). The Strawbridges appear to have been Presbyterians. John Strawbridge in 1689 signed the pledge of loyalty to William and Mary. In 1692 he took the oath as an attorney. On 8 Nov. 1692 John Strawbridge, from Manokin, was appointed to assist the justices in dividing Som. Co. into parishes (Torrence, pp. 153, 213, 350, 362).

James Strawbridge on 11 June 1707 purchased 500 acres, part of "Ilchester," near a ridge called Court House Ridge, on the westermost side of the head of King's Branch, near John Knox, land henceforth to be called "Strabridge Purchase." On 25 Aug. 1732 Strawbridge bought for £50 150 acres of "Ilchester" from William Knoxe and wife Jemima of Kent Co., Del., and John Knox of Dorchester Co., sons of John Knox, deceased. In 1735 James and wife Jean sold to John Phillips "Rowley Hill," 150 acres on the south side of Dividing Creek Branch, and "Dudley," both originally granted to Abraham Heath. On 13 Feb. 1735 Jean Strawbridge purchased for £50 150 acres of "Ilchester," on the south side of the head of Manokin River, from Robert Knox, who had inherited it from his father William. On 29 Apr. 1738 James Strawbridge and David and James Polke for 401 lbs. of tobacco and 25 shillings bought Lot No. 2 in Princess Anne Town. and on 3 Oct. 1741 James Strawbridge, planter, for love and affection, deeded to "my son-in-law" Jacob Williams and Mary his wife 150 acres of "Il Chester" sold "to me by William Knox son of John"; witnesses were Thomas and John Williams (Som. Deeds 10:43; 18:43; 19:3, 18, 267; 20:253). James Strawbridge signed his will 4 Apr. 1743, leaving land to wife Jean, named executor; witnesses were William Owens, William Owens, Jr., David Owens (Som. Wills EB9:243). After her husband's death Jane for £50 on 16 Nov. 1748 sold to Thomas Dixon 150 acres of "Ilchester," on the east side of the main road from Princess Ann Town to Pocomoke Ferry, near the road that leads up to the Strawbridge house, and on 1 Mar. 1757 for £30 she conveyed to George Gullett "The Ridge," 60 acres in the Pocoseno, near Pluntek Branch, land granted to her husband James Strawbridge (Som. Deeds 22:27, 155).

Children (born probably at Anemessex, Somerset Co., Md.):

- i. Mary, b. c1721; d. c1788; mar. Jacob Williams; see No. 4 above.
- ii. William, b. c1723; living 29 Dec. 1766, when he witnessed the will of Nehemiah King of Som. Co. He was a physician who owned tracts "Widowes Change," "Conveniency," "Addition," and a third of Lot No. 2 in Princess Anne Town, all which descended to his daughter Jane, who d. intestate before 15 Apr. 1796, when the lands were sold by John Williams and other heirs (Som. Deeds 31:370).

WILSON AND ALLIED FAMILIES

The Wilson family, which may have originated in the county of Kent, England, settled first, apparently in St. Stephen's Parish, King and Queen Co., Va., then for a time in Nansemond Co., Va., finally about 1667 in Somerset Co., Md., at Anemessex. Because of his close ties with Ambrose Dixon and George Johnson, leading Quakers in Somerset Co., George Wilson must have been a Quaker himself, but no evidence can be found that he was related to John-son, or to Dixon. (This Wilson family is not to be confused with that of the Rev. Thomas Wilson, first pastor of Manokin Presbyterian Church; no connection has been found between the two.) For the Wilson family highly valuable assistance has been provided by Lt. Col. Woodrow T. Wilson of Crisfield, Md.

1 GEORGE JOHNSON, b. probably in Canterbury, Kent, England, c1627; d. Som. Co., Md. by 20 Sept. 1681; mar. (at the Cathedral in Canterbury by the Rev. John Player, "minister and pastor of a congregation called 'Independents'" - Torrence, p. 316) Katherine Butcher, who mar. 2nd Thomas Everndon. In a deposition of 2 Mar. 1662/63 George Johnson was aged about 35 years. A prosperous merchant from London, George Johnson was in Northampton Co., Va., in 1661 and 1662; he moved to Somerset Co., Md., settling on the south side of the Great Annesessex; here his wife joined him in 1663. Starting as an "Independent" (i. e. Congregationalist), he became a staunch Quaker, and when Col. Scarborough "invaded" Annesessex, Johnson defied Scarborough, who tried to discredit his character, calling him, among other things, "ye proteus of heresy, . . . notorious for shifting scismaticall pranks," and "a known Drunkard." In Som. Co. he was a justice of the peace, clerk of the court, and High Sheriff (Torrence, pp. 316-319, 389-90, 547).

In his will, signed 28 Nov. 1680, Johnson bequeathed to wife Katherine land "Straights," also "Johnson" (300 acres), "Discovery" (200), "Londons Gift" (50), "Londons Advisement" (50), "Poplar Ridge" (200), "Johns Adventure" (500), and one fourth interest in his sloop. He left "one myotie of house in City of Canterbury, in the County of Kent, England" to eldest child of "my brother" John Johnson living in Woburn, in New England. He made bequests to sister Susan Johnson's eldest child; to brother Edward Johnson in New England; and to the eldest child of brother William Johnson, in New England, a "house in Canterbury, in a parish called Alfrege, over against the Bishop's Pallace that was left to me by my father Edward Johnson after the decease of my grandfather William Johnson." He made other bequests to eldest child of daughter Katherine, wife of John Godding, to eldest child of son George Johnson, to second child of sister Susanna Prentice alias Johnson. To youngest child of George Wilson he bequeathed "London's Gift" (presumably after death of wife), and he made a bequest to youngest child of George Johnson of Muddy Creek in Accomack Co. He also named William Desborow, Stephen Caddy, "friends" Stephen Crisp and Henry Jackson. Witnesses were John Heath, Thomas Price. He also provided that money be distributed to "such Poor friends" [i. e. Quakers] as trustees should select (Ann. Wills 2:189). Though Johnson made a generous bequest to a child of George Wilson, all available evidence indicates that Johnson and Wilson were no more than personal friends. (See Note, p. 457.)

Johnson's widow mar. Thomas Evernden, who d. Dorchester, Co., Md. in 1710, in his will devising to trustees John Sims and Henry Wilcox of Canterbury, Kent, England, land in St. Dunstan's Parish [? Kent] "now used as a burying place for Quakers" and also making a bequest to George, eldest son of Abraham Johnson of Canterbury (Torrence, pp. 448-49). Johnson's son George became a watch maker in London; he left an only child, Ann, "of St. Paul's Parish, Covent Garden, Middlesex, England," who in 1723 sold her grandfather's lands, "Straights" and "Johnson's" in Som. Co. Two other sons named Gershom d. as infants; therefore George Johnson had no descendants in the male line.

2 GEORGE WILLSON, b. probably in or near Canterbury, Kent, England, c1630; d. Som. Co., Md., c1690; mar. Elizabeth ---- who was not a sister of George Johnson (No. 1 above). On 28 May 1667 George Willson of "Nansimum" in Va., "planter," purchased from Ambrose Dixon, "for a valuable consideration," 300 acres of "Dixon's Lott," later known as "Security," part of which has remained in the Wilson family to the present. On 14 July 1685 George Willson, planter, bought from Robert Dukes 150 acres, "Dukes Place" (Som. Deeds 6:742). In the will of Ambrose DIXON (q. v.), signed 7 Apr. 1686, bequests were made to Elizabeth Willson, wife of George Willson, and to "friend" George Willson, Sr. Children:

- i. Elizabeth, b. c1656; mar. (Som. Co. 11 Oct. 1674) William SCOTT (q. v.).
- ii. George, b. c1660; d. by 2 Aug. 1709; see No. 3 below.
- iii. William, b. c1662; d. Annesessex, Som. Co. by 16 Dec. 1731; mar. (Som. Co. 20 Oct. 1688) Mary Cottman. In his will, signed 15 Apr. 1731, he made bequests to wife Elizabeth ("Posimon Point"), sons George, John, under 21 ("Hogg Ridge"), William, Abraham, daughter Sarah (Som. Wills EB9:136). He also had a daughter Elizabeth, who mar. a Bishop; in her will (1720) she named her father William Willson.

3 GEORGE WILLSON, son of George, b. c1660; d. Annesessex, Som. Co. by 2 Aug. 1709. In his will, dated 1 May 1709, he devised to eldest son George "land whereon I now live," near William Willson; he also named son John, wife Elizabeth; witnesses were William Willson, William Scott, Jr. (Som. Wills EB5:155). Son:

- i. George, b. c1701; d. by 5 Apr. 1768; see No. 4 below.

4 GEORGE WILLSON, eldest son of George, b. Annesessex, c1701; d. Annesessex, by 5 Apr. 1768. He was evidently twice married; Coventry Parish lists births of children of George and Rhoda. In his will, dated 14 Mar. 1768, George Willson, planter, bequeathed to son William the upper part of tract "whereon I now live," i. e. "Security" adjacent "Dixons Lott," grandson George (of William) to inherit the land after George's death; he also named wife Rhoda, brother Samuel Willson, and all his children in the order listed below (Som. Wills EB4:137). His widow Rhoda Wilson signed her will (prob. 8 Dec. 1795) making bequests to daughters Nancy Wilson and Mary Abbet, son David Wilson (Som. Wills EB14:445). Children (born Annesessex, bapt. Coventry):

- i. William, b. c1737; d. by 31 Jan. 1797; see No. 5 below.
- ii. Jesse, b. c1739.
- iii. Sophia, b. c1741.
- iv. Levin, b. c1743.
- v. Sarah, b. 19 Mar. 1757.
- vi. Hannah, b. 11 Jan. 1760.
- vii. Ann (Nancy), b. 16 Feb. 1762.
- viii. Abraham, b. 11 Jan. 1764; d. 1801; mar. Edith (d. 1826).
- ix. Mary, b. 5 May 1765; mar. --- Abbet.
- x. David, b. c1767.

5 WILLIAM WILSON, son of George, b. c1737; d. Som. Co. by 31 Jan. 1797; mar. (Coventry, 5 Oct. 1757) Mary Kellam, daughter (presumably) of John and Ann (Cohoon) KELLAM (see No. 11)

below), b. c1740; d. before 1794. In his will, dated 15 Feb. 1794, William Wilson bequeathed land to his two daughters Charrity and Jomimah Wilson (both single), with the request that they take care of their brother Killiam Wilson. To son George he devised "Security" and "Wilsons Last Survey." He also made bequests to grandson William Wilson (evidently son of George), to son Jesse (executor with George), and mentioned "my five children" Easter, Cherrity, Edith, Jesse, Jomimah. Isaac Outten, and Noah and Benjamin Lankford were witnesses (Som. Wills EB17:586). Children (born Annemessex, Som. Co., Md.; bapt. Coventry):

- i. Kellam, b. 23 Sept. 1758; living 1794.
- ii. George, b. 6 Mar. 1760; d. by 8 Apr. 1816; see No. 6 below.
- iii. Esther, b. 7 Sept. 1765; d. c1804; mar. 1st Jacob Adams; 2nd LEVIN BOSTON (22); they named a daughter Esther Ann Wilson Boston (47).
- iv. Charity, b. c1767.
- v. Edith, b. c1771; mar. (Coventry, 1791) William Lankford (of Lazarus).
- vi. Jesse (twin), b. 19 May 1774.
- vii. Jemima (twin), b. 19 May 1774.

6 GEORGE WILSON, son of William (5), b. Quindocqua, Som. Co., 6 Mar. 1760; d. Quindocqua by 8 Apr. 1816; mar. (c1786) Hannah [Ward?], b. c1765; d. by 30 Sept. 1831. In 1792 he was executor for his sister Esther's husband, Jacob Adams. In his will, dated 26 Mar. 1816, he named as executors wife Hannah and son William, bequeathing all lands to William. He also made bequests to daughters Marian, Charity, Esther, and Eliza Ward Wilson (Som. Wills EB23:238). It was evidently his wife's sister, Betty Ward, who in her will, dated 6 Oct. 1806 (prob. 25 June 1816) made bequests to Hannah Wilson and to Mary, Charity, and Esther Wilson after the death of their mother (Som. Wills EB23:243). Hannah Wilson signed her will 28 July 1831, making bequests to grandson George Wilson Johnson and daughters Esther and Eliza Ward Wilson (Som. Wills JP4:187). Children (born Wilson homestead, Quindocqua, Som. Co.):

- i. George, b. c1788; d. 1810.
- ii. Henry, b. c1790; d. by 15 Mar. 1814.
- iii. William, b. c1794; d. 1836; see No. 7 below.
- iv. Ann Mary (Marian), b. c1798; d. cFeb. 1850; mar. (lic. Som. 30 June 1829) James JOHNSON, b. c1795; d. 1849/50; their children were in the household of their uncle, Nathan J. Lankford in 1850 (#652 Brinkley's District, Federal Census, Som. Co.). There were nine children, the seven youngest: Ann (b. 1835/6), Mary (1837/8), Sarah (1839/40), Samuel (1841/2), Nathaniel (1843/4), Eliza (1846/7), Zarella (Feb. 1850), and:
 1. George Wilson, b. 1830; d. young.
 2. Henry James, b. Nov. 1831; d. 8 Feb. 1892; mar. MARY ANN BOSTON (A4).
- v. Charity, b. c1800; d. Som. Co. 12 Oct./21 Nov. 1816; in her will, signed 12 Oct. 1816, she named mother Hannah Wilson and sisters Easter, Ann Mary, and Eliza Ward Wilson (Som. Wills EB23:248).
- vi. Esther, b. c1802.
- vii. Eliza Ward, b. 1809/10; mar. (lic. Som. 10 Mar. 1832) Nathan J. Lankford.

7 WILLIAM WILSON, son of George (6), b. Quindocqua, c1794; d. Quindocqua by 1836; mar. (lic. Som. 17 Jan. 1817) Elizabeth Whittington, daughter of Thomas and Sarah S. (Conner) Whittington, b. 1797; d. 15 Dec. 1855. Children (born Wilson homestead, Quindocqua, near the present Marion Station, Som. Co., Md.):

- i. George T., b. 16 Jan. 1819; d. 30 Aug. 1889.
- ii. Sarah E., b. 29 Nov. 1821; d. 21 Apr. 1908; mar. William Coulbourn (1822-1893).
- iii. Thomas G., b. 1822; d. young.
- iv. Elijah Conner, b. 26 Dec. 1832; d. Aug. 1863.
- v. William Henry Whittington, b. 12 Aug. 1827; d. Quindocqua, 19 Nov. 1889; mar. (lic. Som. 11 Jan. 1859) Esther A. Green, daughter of Isaac K. Green (1808-1860) and his wife, Dolly B. Lankford, daughter of Noah and Mary Ann (Bozman) LANKFORD (see pp. 406-7, No. 4 ii), b. Quindocqua, 30 Jan. 1838; d. Kingston, Som. Co., Md. 27 Apr. 1908. Two children (born Wilson homestead, Quindocqua):
 1. Mary Ann, b. 7 Sept. 1868; d. 1898; mar. WARREN

LEE LANKFORD (734a); no surviving children.

2. John Coulbourn, b. 29 Mar. 1872; d. 25 May 1854; mar.

HARRIET D. WILLIAMS (A21).

vi. Mary Ann, b. 13 Jan. 1834; mar. Oliver Burnett.

vii. Edward C., b. 28 Aug. 1837; d. 6 Aug. 1856.

KELLAM - WILSON CONNECTION

8 JOHN KELLAM, SR., b. possibly in Northampton Co., Va. c1650, perhaps the son of John Kellam listed among tithables of Accomack Co. in the 1660's; d. Som. Co., Md. by 15 Mar. 1719/20; mar. (evidently) a daughter of John KIRK (see GUNBY family), who in his will, dated 18 Oct. 1718, left John Kellam a shilling. John Kellam, Sr., in his will, signed 30 Sept. 1719, bequeathed to son John the 600 acre dwelling plantation bought of Joseph and James Gray; to grandson John (son of son William Kellam), 150 acres, part of "Kellam's Choice," the east part, providing said grandson or his heirs shall not possess any of the aforesaid tract of 600 acres. Son John was to have the remaining part of "Kellam's Choice," 300 acres. He also named daughters Mary Kellam, Sarah Nicholson, Charity Johnson, Anne Coard, Elizabeth Marron, Catherine Taylor, and grandson Joshua. Witnesses were John Gunby, John Benson, Alice Jones (Som. Wills EB9:28). Son:

- i. John, b. c1697; d. by 21 May 1744; see No. 9 below.

9 JOHN KELLAM, JR., son of John and (possibly) the daughter of John Kirk, b. c1680; d. Som. Co. by 21 May 1744; in his will, dated 2 Mar. 1739, he bequeathed to son Isaac a parcel of land called "Kellam's Choice"; to son William, "Addition," also 30 acres of land out of "Kellam's Choice," the westernmost sides; to son Joshua, remaining part of "Kellam's Choice" and part of "Addition"; to son John, 50 acres, "Improvement"; to daughter Sarah Kellam "the daughter of Sarah Kellam," one bed; and he named wife Sarah, daughters Sarah Poynter, Charity Lankford, Anne Hale, Mary Kellam, Jemima Kellam, especially leaving the "side saddle that was my wife's... to her daughter, Mary. Wife Sarah was to be executrix. Witnesses were Sampson Wheatley, Henry Porter, Bell Maddox (Ann. Wills 23:513). Two children:

- i. Charity, b. c1712; mar. Benjamin LANKFORD (q.v.).
- ii. John, b. c1717; d. by 7 Feb. 1797; see No. 10 below.

10 JOHN KELLAM, son of John, b. c1717; d. Som. Co. by 7 Feb. 1797; mar., presumably (c1737) Anne Cohoon (or Elizabeth), daughter of John COHOON (see No. 11 below). In his will, signed 19 Oct. 1793, John Kellam, Sr., planter, bequeathed to Jesse Maddux Lankford "dick: folly" and "Chance," Lankford to pay John Kellam 20 shillings per acre, and he mentioned wife Elizabeth, daughter-in-law [probably step-daughter] Leah Cottingham (Som. Wills EB17:589). Elizabeth Kellam, apparently a second wife and not the mother of John's children, in her will, signed 8 Mar. 1815 (prob. 26 Dec. 1815) made bequests to Stephen, Grace, and Betsy Coulbourn (children of William on Morumsco), to Isaac Kellum (of Henry), to Leah Howard, Sally Dredde, Thomas Adams (of William), Sally Stevenson, Leah Sterling, Sally Kellum; executor was William Coulbourn (Som. Wills EB23:233). Although John Kellam did not name in his will children Mary or William, they appear to be his:

- i. Mary, b. c1740; mar. William WILSON (see No. 6 above).
- ii. William, b. c1742; d. Som. Co. by 14 Dec. 1790; in his will, dated 2 Dec. 1790, he mentioned his father, John Killiam, named Nathan Cohoon executor, and made bequests to Leah Carsly, to George, Killiam, Easter, Charity, Edith, and Jemimah Wilson ("Wilson's six children"), and to Zebede, William, Henry, and Clinton Killiam. Witnesses were Isaac Outten, Jesse Lankford, and Elisha Gunby (Som. Wills EB17:122).

11 JOHN COHOON (properly COLHOUNE, see Note, p. 457), son of John and Jane (Carter) Colehoune, b. Morumsco, Som. Co. 21 Dec. 1679; d. Som. Co. by 18 Nov. 1749; in his will, dated 14 Apr. 1749, he bequeathed to "my now wife" Mary the plantation for life, to go after her death to his son Henry; and he named children Mary Addams, Elizabeth Kellam, Anne Kellam, Henry, Samuel, John, Sarah Cohoon; witnesses were George Willson, Joseph Willson, David Addams (Som. Wills EB14:30). Daughter:

- i. Anne (or Elizabeth), mar. John KELLAM (No. 10 above).

WISE FAMILY OF ST. MARY'S COUNTY AND WASHINGTON, D. C.

The Wise family settled in St. Mary's County, Maryland, before 1693, evidently at what is now Great Mills, at the head of St. Mary's River, below Leonardtown. Although the origins of the family have not been identified, it may be possible to connect it with the Wise family of Devonshire, England (see Jennings Crop- per Wise, Col. John Wise of England and Virginia, 1617-1695, 1918), particularly with the branch descended from Sir Richard Wise of Cudleston, who lived in the time of King Henry VIII (1509-1547), and whose son John Wise of Cudleston had sons William, founder of the Wises of Gilsdon, and John, who has been claimed as the John Wise of Accomack Co., Va. (1617-95), founder of the Virginia Wise family (see SCARBOROUGH family). William Wise of Gilsdon, whose descendants are settled in Warwickshire, could well be a father or grandfather of Richard Wise of St. Mary's Co., Md., for the names Richard, William, and particularly Matthew appear in both families. A grandson of William of Gilsdon, Henry Wise (b. 1653), had a son, Matthew Wise (c1701-1776), of "The Priory," Warwickshire.

Thomas Wise, evidently a grandson of the first Richard Wise in St. Mary's Co., moved with his family about 1772 from St. Mary's Co. to Prince George's Co., Maryland, settling near "Seat Pleasant" within the bounds of what was to become the District of Columbia. About 1790 Charles Wise, son of Thomas, moved west, settling north of Georgetown.

1 RICHARD WISE, b. possibly in England c1655; d. St. Mary's Co., Md., by 16 Jan. 1732/33. On 3 Mar. 1692/93 Richard Wise, with Robert Taylor, both of St. Mary's Co., stood security for Philip Cox, administrator of the estate of John Johnson, whose widow Cox had married. On 14 Dec. 1708 Richard Wise, with Thomas Smith, stood security on a bond for Grace Gouldthorp, executor of William Gouldthorp. On 31 Dec. 1711 Richard Wise, with John Lewis, stood surety for Thomisin Allein, executor of William Allein. And on 23 Sept. 1728 Richard stood surety again for John Rousby, executor of William Sewale (Ann. Testamentary Proceedings 14A:12; 21:127; 22:72; 28:249). On 18 Sept. 1716 Richard and Diannah Wise (perhaps his wife) witnessed the will of John Dansey, collector of Patuxent District (Ann. Wills 14:150).

Richard Wise signed his will 10 Mar. 1728/29, bequeathing personal effects to sons William, Adam, and Mathew, and providing that the residue of the estate be divided equally among his children. He requested that son William have the care of his brother Mathew until the latter should arrive at the age of 18, and he appointed as executors his son-in-law, John Newton, and son William. John Lewis and Sarah Goldsbery were witnesses (Ann. Wills 20:625). An inventory of the estate 13 June 1733 named as creditors Grace Wise and Joseph Wellman; next of kin, Adam and Mathew Wise; administrators, William Wise, John Newton (Ann. Inv. 17:160). In an account of 25 July 1734, payments were made to Grace Wise (600 pounds of tobacco) and Matthew Wise (Ann. Accts. 12:456). Children:

- i. William, b. c1685; d. c1745?; see No. 2 below.
- ii. Adam, b. c1695; d. probably before Dec. 1767; he was named an executor in the codicil (29 Nov. 1733) to the will of Joseph Wellman; Richard Wise was a witness (Ann. Wills 22:316). He was father of at least Adam Wise, Jr. (1717-1789) and Amy Wise Richardson.
- iii. Frances, b. c1700; d. by 6 June 1770; mar. John Newton; in her will, signed 9 Dec. 1765, she devised "to my brother Mathew Wise My Whole Estate and appoint him Executor" (Ann. Wills 37:674). A witness was John Hammett.
- iv. Matthew, b. c1712; d. by 31 Aug. 1779; in his will, dated 9 Apr. 1779, he made bequests to son Matthew (executor), daughters Elizabeth Simmons, Susannah Wise, and granddaughter Elizabeth Wise. Witnesses were John Hammett, Adam Wise, William Bryan (St. Mary's Wills JJ 1:106).

2 WILLIAM WISE, son of Richard, b. c1685; d. St. Mary's Co. probably c1745; his wife may have been Grace. Named in his father's will, given the care of his younger brother Matthew, he was administrator of the estate 25 July 1734. Nothing more is known of him. The following sons are assigned to him tentatively, for none is mentioned in the will of his brother Matthew, and the family of brother Adam seems fairly well defined; however, any or all of these sons could be sons of Adam. Children:

- i. Richard, b. c1708; d. St. Mary's Co. by 6 Oct. 1779; evidently mar. twice, 2nd to Mary [Milburn], probably daughter of Stephen Milburn of St. Mary's Co. (d. 1769). In his will, dated 21 June 1778, Richard bequeathed to son Adam the plantation bought from Charles Louise [Lewis]; to son Caleb, executor, plantation "on which I now live"; and he made bequests to daughter Joan, sons Thomas, Richard, John; to son Joseph's children; and to daughters Jane, Dorothy, Margaret. Witnesses were John and McKolvis Hammett, Tho. Sisol (St. Mary's Wills JJ 1:71). Children, first four probably by first marriage (younger children baptised St. Andrew's Prot. Episcopal Church, St. Mary's Co.):
 1. Richard, b. c1730.
 2. John, b. c1732; d. Culpeper Co., Va. 1798.
 3. Joseph, b. c1734; d. c1775.
 4. Thomas, b. c1736; mar. Mary; had children Jeremiah (15 Apr. 1764) and Ranseau (29 Jan. 1766).
 5. Adam, b. c1748; d. Hardin Co., Ky. 1831; mar. (2 Nov. 1779) Susannah Bryan.
 6. Joan, b. c1750.
 7. Caleb, b. 6 Nov. 1752; d. Nelson Co., Ky. 1837; mar. (13 Nov. 1783) his cousin, Catherine Wise.
 8. Jane, b. 6 Feb. 1755/56.
 9. Dorothy, b. 18 Sept. 1760.
 10. Margaret, b. 25 Nov. 1763; mar. (1782) George Jenkins.
- ii. William, b. c1715; probably the William Wise who with Christopher Fisher was surety for John Goodman, admin. of Henry Carey, late of St. Mary's Co., 1774.
- iii. Ignatius, b. c1720.
- iv. Thomas, b. 1726; d. c1805; see No. 3 below.

3 THOMAS WISE, presumably son of William, b. St. Mary's Co., Md. 1726; d. District of Columbia, after 1800; mar. (before 1754) Sarah Lewis, daughter of John LEWIS, b. 1727/30.

John Lewis, who had witnessed the will of the elder Richard Wise in 1728/29, in his own undated will (prob. 19 Dec. 1754) made bequests to son Charles Lewis (executor), "Patchelors Purchase" (50 acres) "whereon I now live"; to daughters Mary Adams, Sarah Wise, and Eleanor Lewis. Witnesses were John Hammett and Thomas Wise, who appeared at time of probate (Ann. Wills 29:294). According to the report of "The State of His Lordship's Manor of Woolsey in St. Mary's County, Dec. 1767" John Lewis on 26 Apr. 1743 had leased lot No. 23, 48 3/4 acres; tenant "now in possession" was Adam Wise, Jr.; and the lease was now in the names of Charles Lewis (aged 29), Sarah Lewis [?Wise] (40), Eleanor Lewis (26) (Gaius Marcus Brumbaugh, Maryland Records, Lancaster, Pa., 1928, II:77). According to the 1776 census in Prince George's Co. (Brumbaugh, II:27), listed in St. John's and Prince George's Parishes were Thomas Wise, 50, with males aged 13, 11, 7, 3, 1, and Sarah Wise, 46, with females aged 9, 6. About the same time Thomas Wise in Prince George's Co. took the Oath of Fidelity and Support to the Colonial government (Brumbaugh, II:259). The Wises were parishioners of St. John's Church, Piscataway (on the Potomac River below Washington, D.C.) in King George's Parish, but parish records show that they attended "the upper Chapel," i. e. the present St. Matthew's Church, Seat Pleasant, Md. Presumably all of the following children are theirs:

- i. Thomas, Jr., b. c1760; mar. 1st (by license, St. John's, 6 Dec. 1787) Mildred Robertson; 2nd (by publication, St. John's, 3 Dec. 1797) Mary Humpheries.
- ii. William, b. c1763; d. ?Montgomery Co., Md. c1810/20; mar. (by lic., St. John's, 20 Nov. 1788) Elizabeth Ross.
- iii. Charles, b. c1765; d. c1825; see No. 4 below.
- iv. Mary Ann, b. c1766; mar. (Montgomery Co., Md. 22 Feb. 1781) Solomon Hays.
- v. John, b. c1768; mar. (by lic., St. John's, 28 Aug. 1794) Usly Mitchell.
- vi. Hannah, b. c1770; mar. (by publication, St. John's, 12 Aug. 1787) James Magness.
- vii. George, b. 15 May 1773 (baptised at the Upper Chapel); mar. (Prince George's Co., Md. 7 Mar. 1799) Jane King.
- viii. Richard, b. 1 Sept. 1775 (baptised at the Upper Chapel).
- ix. Ann, b. c1778; mar. (Montgomery Co., Md. 4 Jan. 1800) John Seaton.

4 CHARLES WISE, SR., son of Thomas and Sarah (Lewis) Wise, b. probably St. Mary's Co., Md. c1765; d. District of Columbia, 1820/30; mar. (by publication, at St. John's Church, Piscataway, Md. 26 Nov. 1789) Elizabeth Collings (Collins), daughter apparently of James and Jemima Collins, b. c1772; d. 1830/40.

The COLLINGS (COLLINS) family was listed in the 1776 Md. census in Lower Potomac Hundred, Frederick Co., i. e. located within what was to become the District of Columbia, evidently in the vicinity of "Tenley Town." They were occasional parishioners of St. Paul's Church (Prince George's Parish), now in Rock Creek Cemetery, Washington. In 1776 the head of the family was John Collins (b. 1716; d. 1800/10) with (probably second) wife Elizabeth (b. 1726); children (though first two are uncertain): (1) James, b. 1742/43; (2) William, b. 1745/46; (3) Rachel, b. 1751/52; (4) Nathan, b. 1753/54; (5) Joshua, b. 1758/59; (6) Hezekiah, b. 23 Sept. 1761, of John and Mary (bapt. St. Paul's); (7) Thomas, b. 1762/63; (8) Cassandra, b. 27 Mar. 1765, of John and Mary (bapt. St. Paul's); (9) Zachariah, b. 1766; d. Washington, D.C., funeral at St. Paul's, 26 Feb. 1832. It was evidently eldest son James Collins, b. 1742/43, and his wife Jemima, b. 1750/51, who were parents of (1) John, b. 1768/69; (2) James, Jr., b. 1770/71; (3) Elizabeth, b. c1772, mar. Charles WISE; and (4) Mary, b. 1773/74.

Listed next to each other, with their families, in the 1820 Federal Census for D.C., in Ward 1 (which also included President James Monroe) were Charles Wise, Jr., Charles Wise, Sr., and John Wise, all farmers. In 1830, listed in "Washington County," the rural area of D.C., apparently north of Georgetown, were John Wise, Charles Wise, and Elizabeth Wise. Three sons of Charles and Elizabeth (Collins) Wise:

- i. John, b. 1791/92; d. 9/10 July 1854; see No. 5 below.
- ii. Charles, Jr., b. 1799/1800; d. c1848; children: (1) William Henry (1821); (2) Sophia (1824), mar. William B. Hull; (3) Anna Maria (1826), mar. John Pumphrey; (4) Margaret A. (1829), mar. Greenbury Ridgely; and (5) Samuel (1832-1906)
- iii. William, b. c1802; d. D.C. 9 June 1855 "of intemperance"; funeral 10 June, St. Alban's Church.

5 JOHN A[LLEN?] WISE, son of Charles and Elizabeth (Collins) Wise, b. Md. 1791/92; d. near "Tennallytown," D.C., 9/10 June 1854 (recorded St. Alban's Church); mar. 1st (Holy Trinity Catholic Church, Georgetown, D.C., 17 Sept. 1819) Ann Bradshaw, who d. probably about June 1832; mar. 2nd (c1840) Mary A., b. 1804/5; d. 3 Feb. 1859. (On the basis of baptismal records John Wise may have contracted a marriage with Ann Bradshaw before it was formalized.)

Probably in the 1840's John Wise bought a tract of land in what is now Spring Valley, near American University. He was listed in the 1850 D.C. census in "Washington Co.," aged 59, b. Washington Co., D.C. (as were the children), a carpenter with land valued at $1200; in his household were Mary (b. Md.), Elizabeth A. (21) and Joel (18). John Wise was evidently a parishioner of Holy Trinity, Georgetown, 1819-22, but his name is on the "List of Families composing the Congregation" of Christ Episcopal Church, Georgetown, on Whit-Monday, 1844; Miss Elizabeth Wise was added on Whitsunday, 23 May 1847. John Wise was reported dead 1 July 1854, but according to the parish register of St. Alban's Episcopal Church his burial occurred 11 July 1854, in the Episcopal Burying Ground, George Town, D.C.

In his will, dated 18 Oct. 1852 (prob. 18 July 1854), John Wise bequeathed to daughter Elizabeth and son Joel (joint executors) the property "on which I now reside," i. e. dwelling house and other buildings and a tract of 6 acres, except a one acre strip to son Uriah and 1/4 acre reserved for a burial plot, Elizabeth and Joel to pay to sons Charles and James $75 apiece. He requested that the property be kept intact and "in good condition and repair." Witnesses were Anthony and William Smith Hyde, and R. J. Bowen (D.C. Wills 3572 O.S.). His estate was appraised by Philip L. Brooke and Henry Payne; the property was described as above George Town and near Ham. Loughborough's.

John Wise's widow, Mary A. Wise, signed her will 28 Jan.

1859, making bequests to St. Alban's Church and to step-children Elizabeth and Joel Wise (D.C. Wills O.S. only). Children, by first marriage (born Washington Co., D.C.):

- i. John Thomas ("son of Allen Wise"), bapt. Holy Trinity, Georgetown, 8 Oct. 1818; d. young.
- ii. Margaret Ann, b. 9 Sept. 1819, bapt. Trinity 12 Sept.; d. in infancy.
- iii. James Alexander, b. 19 Aug. ?1820 (1818 according to date on gravestone); d. Washington, D.C., 5 July 1865; mar. Harriet Ann Armstrong; both buried Glenwood Cemetery.
- iv. Mary Catherine, b. 15 Jan. 1822, bapt. Trinity 17 Feb.; d. in infancy.
- v. Charles Jerrotha, b. 27 Feb. ?1824 (1822 according to family); d. c1900; mar. (Holy Trinity, 15 June 1844) Elizabeth Symington.
- vi. Uriah, b. 1826, about 25 June (when "two infants of William Wise and his brother" were bapt. at Christ Episcopal Church, Georgetown); d. Washington, D.C., 9 June 1856; mar. (27 Feb. 1850) Sarah Jane Bozell.
- vii. Elizabeth Ann, b. 1829; d. D.C., 18 Nov. 1865; buried Protestant Burying-ground, Georgetown, 19 Nov. (record in St. Alban's).
- viii. Joel, b. 8 May 1831; d. 23 May 1896; see No. 6.

6 JOEL WISE, son of John and Ann (Bradshaw) Wise, b. "Washington Co.," D.C., 8 May 1831, bapt. Christ Epis. Church, Georgetown, June 1832; d. Tenleytown, D.C., 23 May 1896; mar. (Holy Trinity Catholic Church, Georgetown, 21 Oct. 1858) Mary Jane Cummings, daughter of Andrew J. and Margaret (Leonard) Cummings, b. Richmond, Va. 7 Jan. 1836 (bapt. St. Peter's Catholic Church); d. Tenleytown, D.C. (at Wisconsin Ave. & Warren St.), 15 Nov. 1898; both buried Holy Rood Catholic Cemetery near Georgetown. Joel Wise was a dairy farmer and operator in stone quarries. He sold his farm and bought a house in "Tennallytown" in May 1893 and moved there.

The CUMMINGS family came from in or near Dublin, Ireland, to Georgetown, D.C., shortly after 1830; Mary Cummins with her family was listed in the 1840 census in Georgetown. By 1847 her sons removed to Chevy Chase, Md., and bought land; there the family has since remained. Mary Cummins, b. 1790, left Ireland with her children evidently after the death of her husband; the children (born in or near Dublin) were: (1) Andrew John, b. c1812; d. c1841; (2) Edward, b. c1814, single; (3) Patrick, b. 1816, single; (4) James William, b. 1817; d. c1885; mar. (1859) Mary Wall; (5) Elizabeth, entered a convent; and (6) Anne, b. 1824; single. Eldest son, Andrew John Cummings, mar. (1835) Margaret Leonard, probably niece of Jacob Leonard [Lenhardt?], b. in Pa. in 1776, living in Georgetown in 1850. Andrew Cummings, a laborer, was reportedly killed by a cave-in at Jamestown (or on the James River) in Va., c1841. Besides Mary Jane, b. Richmond, 7 Jan. 1836, there was also a (?posthumous) son, James, b. 12 Apr. 1841, bapt. Holy Trinity, Georgetown, 6 Feb. 1842; he d. 1850/60. Children of Joel and Mary J. (Cummings) Wise (born near Tenleytown, D.C.):

- i. Margaret Ellen, b. 18 Sept. 1859 (bapt. Holy Trinity); d. Washington, D.C., 21 June 1942; mar. Edward Mangum.
- ii. George Andrew, b. 13 Nov. 1861; d. Georgetown, D.C., 7 Aug. 1916; mar. MARY EDITH WARD (B37).
- iii. William Patrick, b. 29 Feb. 1864 (bapt. Holy Trinity); d. Washington, D.C., 17 Jan. 1912; mar. Emma Burroughs.
- iv. Ann Elizabeth, b. 25 Dec. 1867 (bapt. Trinity); d. ?1868.
- v. Joel (Joseph) Aloysius, b. 5 Mar. 1869; d. 1 Jan. 1947; mar. HATTIE JANE WARD (B38).
- vi. Mary Jane (twin), b. 2 Dec. 1873 (bapt. St. Anne's R.C. Church, Tenleytown); d. Washington, D.C., 15 July 1956; mar. (St. Anne's, 8 Apr. 1896) John E. Smith.
- vii. Emma Jane (twin), b. 2 Dec. 1873 (bapt. St. Anne's); d. 6 Dec. 1884; buried Holy Rood Cemetery.
- viii. Edward Marion, b. 27 July 1877; d. Washington, D.C., 10 Oct. 1955; mar. (St. Anne's, 5 Oct. 1898) Eleanor Mary Poore.

The information in these Notes generally provides supplemental material to that in Appendix III, often additional ancestors or ancestral families, more frequently evidence to substantiate relationships set forth in Appendix III. The numbers identifying each head of a family here correspond to numbers in the same family in Appendix III, but only to those family heads for whom supplemental information had to be added; the numbers here are therefore not necessarily continuous. If new families or heads of families that were not in Appendix III have been added in the Notes following, new numbers have been assigned to avoid possible confusion between items here and in Appendix III.

ATKINSON (pp. 363-64): Related families: LAWS, BEVANS, CORD.

2 ANGELO ATKINSON (c1701-1766); mar. Rachel LAWS (see No. 6 below), daughter of William and Sarah (BEVANS) Laws (see No. 7 below).

3 JOSHUA ATKINSON (c1737-1773); mar. Sarah Cord, daughter of William and Rachel CORD (see No. 8 below); she mar. 2nd (c1775) James Townsend, who d. by 1790; 3rd Outten Sturgis. In Worc. Co. Court in Feb. 1790 Angelo Atkinson acknowledged receipt of full satisfaction from Sarah Townsend, executor of James Townsend, who was appointed "my guardian." On 16 May 1792 John and Angelo Atkinson, sons of Joshua Atkinson, dec'd, were released from the guardianship of their mother, Sarah Townsend (Worc. Orphans Court Proceedings LH 3:5). Sarah Sturgis, in her will, signed 7 Oct. 1807 (prob. 31 May 1816) named sons William Cord Townsend, Angelo Atkinson (executor), John Atkinson, grandson Justice Morris Broughton, daughters Nancy Townsend Postly, Esther Quinton Townsend, Sarah Kirk Gunby (also called Sarah Kirk Hudson) (Worc. Wills MH 10:195).

5 JOHN LAWS, b. c1640; d. Som. Co., Md. by 30 June 1697; mar. (Som. Co. 4 July 1671) Katherine Bosman Nelson, daughter of William and Bridget BOSMAN (see p. 408, No. 1), b. Acco. Co., Va. c1648. John Laws settled at Manokin between 1662 and 1666. He was appointed (8 Nov. 1692) to a commission to lay out and divide Somerset Co. into parishes. In 1698 he was on the grand jury which tried Col. George Layfield (see p. 408, No. 4) and his wife, Priscilla White (Torrence 53, 280, 378). In his will, dated 28 Apr. 1696, John Laws named sons (all under 18) Robert and George (to share "Goodwill" on south side of Pocomoke River in Forked Neck) and Thomas (plantation "I now live on" - "North Foreland" and 50 acres "Greenwitch"); wife Katherine; daughters Ann and Mary Laws; he requested that "brother" George Betts, William and George Bosman "may be assistance to my wife's children" (Ann. Wills 7:301). Two sons (born Manokin, Som. Co., Md.):

- i. William, b. 12 Sept. 1673; d. by 20 Aug. 1729; see No. 6 below.
- ii. John, b. 5 Feb. 1675/76.

6 WILLIAM LAWS (LAWES), presumably son of John (above), b. Manokin, Som. Co. 12 Sept. 1673; d. Som. Co. by 20 Aug. 1729; mar. (c1702) Sarah Bevans, daughter of Rowland and Mary (Bewry) BEVANS (see No. 7 below). In his will, signed 21 May 1728, William Laws named wife Sarah and children William, John, Elijah, Belitha, Esther, Rachel Laws (Ann. Wills 19:814). His widow Sarah shortly mar. 2nd Joshua Sturgis; in the acct. of Joshua Sturgis and Sarah his wife, executors of William Laws, 11 Dec. 1730, cash was "paid Angelo Atkinson for his wife Rachel upon account of her father's estate" (Ann. Accts. 11:80). One daughter:

- i. Rachel, mar. Angelo ATKINSON, No. 2 above.

7 ROWLAND BEVANS (BEAVENS), d. Som. Co. 28 Apr./8 June 1709; mar. 1st (Som. Co. 1 Jan. 1670/71) Margaret Price, who d. 1671/72; 2nd (Som. Co. 4 Aug. 1672) Mary Bewry. In his will, dated 28 Apr. 1709, he named sons Roland Beavens, William, John, and Thomas (under 21), daughter Mary Turner, Hester Morris, Eliza Newton, and Sarah Lawes, and wife Mary executrix. Witnesses were Hugh Porter, John Townsend, John Benson (Ann. Wills 12:100, in back of book). One daughter:

- i. Sarah, mar. William LAWS, No. 6 above.

8 WILLIAM COARD (CORD), b. Som. Co., Md. c1708; d. Worc. Co. by 28 Dec. 1764; mar. Rachel, widow of John Osborne, who d. Accomack Co., Va. 1738 (Nottingham, 89); she was b. 13 Aug. 1711; d. Worc. Co. 11 June 1786. William Cord, in his will, dated 3 Nov. 1764, named wife Rachel, daughters Sarah and Ann Cord (Ann. Wills 33:124). Rachel Cord in her will, signed 18 Apr. 1780 (prob. 16 June 1786) made bequests to her daughter Sarah Townsend and her grandchildren Rachell and John Atkinson, son-in-law John Postly, executor (Worc. Wills JW 13:73). One daughter:

i. Sarah, b. c1745; d. by 31 May 1816; mar. 1st Joshua ATKINSON (No. 3 above); 2nd James Townsend; 3rd Outten Sturgis.

BENSTON FAMILY (pp. 364-366).

1 FRANCIS BENSTON (c1630-1709/10); mar. Mary (?) Fittiman, probably sister of Samuel Fittiman (Feddiman) of Accomack Co., Va., who signed his will 2 Nov. 1701 (prob. 2 Dec. 1701), naming three sons Meshack, Shadrack, and Joseph; daughters Elizabeth and Mary Fittiman, and making other bequests to William Benston, son of Francis Benston, Sr., and William Williamsson; wife Elizabeth was named executor; witnesses included Robert Pitt, William Pattison (Nottingham 247). Francis Benston and his wife Mary sold land in Accomack Co. 24 Oct. 1667, and her presumed nephew Joseph witnessed her husband's will.

BENSTON - YOUNG FAMILY (pp. 365-66).

1 DANIEL YOUNG (c1710-1771). In the inventory of his estate, Elisha Jones and Benjamin Hayward appraisers, the nearest of kin were Samuel Blades and William Melvin (Ann. Inv. 109:327). In all the estate records Ezekiel Young is administrator: in the index of Worc. Co. administrations 4 Oct. 1771, and in successive accounts (Ann. Testamentary Proceedings 44:343, 568; 45:357; 46:95), and he was still administrator 11 Nov. 1774 when the final account was submitted and final distribution made, a third to the widow, the "residue equally among the children" (Ann. Accts. 71:249, and Balance Books 6:320).

2 EZEKIEL YOUNG (c1733-1799). In the inventory of his estate, among the greatest creditors was Joseph Bousee, who on 22 Apr. 1800 became executor of Ezekiel's estate. Children (born near Newtown, Worc. Co., Md.):

- i. Ephraim, b. c1763; d. before 1835. On 25 Sept. 1835 James Young and wife Margaret of Nancemond Co., Va., William Trotter and wife Comfort of Norfolk Co., Va., and William Young of Nansemond Co. sold to William H. Merrill lot #2 in Newtown, which sd James Young and William Trotter in right of wife Comfort (who was Comfort Thomas, the only surviving heirs of Atta Young, who mar. Elisha Thomas) and the said William Young, surviving heirs, being the child and grandchildren of Ephraim Young, who or whose heirs claim under the will of Joseph Booze, who died in the said New Town (Worc. Deeds GMH 3:371).

- ii. Mary, b. c1765; d. near Newtown before 1806; mar. (c1784) Joseph BOUSEE (BOUSEY), b. c1750; d. Cedar Hall, near Newtown, Worc. Co., 11/25 Nov. 1806. Bousee left two wills, entered side by side in the will book. In the first, dated 19 Oct. 1805 (Worc. Wills MH4:51), he bequeathed £300 to Sally Young of Zekle, the balance of his estate to daughter Mary Gibbens; if she should die without issue, the whole estate to be divided equally among Sally Young, Nanny Young, and Joseph Young, being the daughters and son of Zekle Young. Executor was to be Edward Stevenson (of Jas.); witnesses were Edward and Joseph Stevenson, Henry Long.

On 11 Nov. 1806, in Washington City, Bousee signed another will, identifying himself as "Joseph Bousee of the Town of New Town, Worchester Co., Eastern Shore of the State of Maryland, United States of America." He declared that his property should be sold, the money banked, the interest to support "my well beloved daughter Mary Bousee, alias Gibbens" for life. If she should die without issue, his estate would go to Ephraim Young and heirs, equally; he specifically excluded William Gibbons, his son-in-law, from any inheritance. This will was admitted to probate before the first, on 25 Nov. 1806, recorded beside the earlier will, prob. 2 Dec. 1806, when William and Mary Gibbons of the District of Columbia appeared (Worc. Wills MH4:51-53). An account of 5 Dec. 1806 recorded payments (among others) to Joseph Young, Edward Stevenson, and John Whittington "for removing the body of the dec'd from Cedar Hall to New Town" (Worc. Accts. MH1:218). A list of debts owed to the estate included Milby Young, Levi Henderson, Baily Young, Nancy Young (Worc. Inv. MH2:87, 107, 165). One daughter:

- i. Mary, b. c1785; d. by 1835; mar. (lic. Worc. 21 June 1803) William Givans.

- iii. Nancy, b. 1772; d. Worc. Co. by 2 July 1824; single; on 1 Aug. 1801 Thomas and Ephraim Furniss posted bond to the State for an illegitimate child born to Nancy Young 10 Feb. last (Worc. Deeds U:393). In her will, signed 23 Oct. 1813, Nancy Young (of Ezekiel) bequeathed all to daughter "Sharlotty Furniss Young" on her giving my sister Sally Young a home during her single life," Jesse Long and James and Nancy Tilghman witnesses (Worc. Wills MH 27:97). Child:

1. Charlotte Furniss, b. 10 Feb. 1801; mar. (lic. Worc. 26 Sept. 1820) William Blades; they left the area.

iv. Sally.

v. Joseph, b. c1776; d. 30 June/10 Aug. 1813; see No. 5, p. 365.

BYRD FAMILY (pp. 366-370).

2 JOHN BIRD (c1675-1727/28). Two youngest sons (born in Accomack Co., Va.):

iv. Major, b. c1708; d. by 30 July 1751. In 1740 he purchased from Ansley and Tabitha Lingo 300 acres of land and marsh at Muddy Creek (Whitelaw, pp. 1206-7). "It is doubtful that he left any male heir, as the land later was found in the possession of... an Elizabeth Bird [apparently remained unmarried]... and a Lucretia who became the wife of Charles Broadwater" (ibid., p. 1207).

v. Solomon, b. c1710; d. 28 Sept./30 Nov. 1784. In his will, dated 28 Sept. 1784, he mentioned no land, but made bequests to three daughters, Esther, Rebecca, Scarbrough Bird. Witnesses included Major and Nathaniel Bird (Nottingham, 269).

4 DANIEL BIRD (c1706-1751); mar. 2nd Margaret---. In 1740 he purchased from George Philbee 125 acres on Messongo Creek (Whitelaw, p. 1274). When his widow Margaret was granted administration 26 June 1751, she made oath that she believed his will had been destroyed; Middleton Mason and Benjamin Parks stood securities (Nottingham, p. 106). But Susannah Bird brought suit against Margaret and the other heirs. The Court ordered that depositions filed by Henry Fletcher and William Melson be recorded "and that the substance thereof be established as the last will & testament of Daniel Bird, dec., and that the former administration granted on his estate be revoked, and that the defendant, widow of the said testator, be summoned to take upon her the administration of the said estate." Daniel's nuncupative will was admitted to probate 29 Mar. 1758; he bequeathed to daughter Susannah Bird "my land where I now live," 125 acres, "my now wife to have use of same during her widowhood." He named Solomon Bird (without designating him as son) and daughters Rachel Mason, Elizabeth Parks, Mary and Scarburgh Bird, and wife Margaret; the will was proved by Henry Fletcher and William Melson (ibid., p. 147). In claiming that Daniel's will had been destroyed, Margaret may have been trying to protect the interests of an unborn child. If Daniel is not the father of John, the only other possible father for him would be Daniel's presumed son Solomon. Children, all but the last probably by a first marriage:

- i. Rachel, b. c1727; mar. Middleton Mason.
- ii. Elizabeth, b. c1729; mar. Benjamin Parks.
- iii. Susannah, b. c1731; d. 1805; mar. ---Sparrow.
- iv. Solomon, b. c1733; no further record.
- v. Mary.
- vi. Scarburgh.
- vii. John W[illiam?], b. ?posthumously ?1751; d. by 1 Dec. 1829; see No. 7, p. 367.

COULBOURN FAMILY (p. 373).

2 WILLIAM COULBOURN (1658-1701); his son, WILLIAM COULBOURN, b. 19 Jan. 1682/83; d. Som. Co. by 23 Oct. 1764; mar. Jane (Jean) Handy, daughter of Samuel and Mary (Sewell) Handy, b. Som. Co. 8 Aug. 1690. In his will, dated 17 Nov. 1761, William Coulbourn, planter, named wife Jean co-executor with son Elijah, and also named sons William, Samuel, Solomon, Michael, Stephen, daughter Mary Ellegood, and granddaughter Elizabeth Eskridge. Witnesses were William Miles, Nehemiah Hearn, Charity Watts (Som. Wills EB4:106). One son:

- i. Elijah, b. c1725/28; d. Som. Co. by 10 Feb. 1795; mar. (Coventry, 2 May 1762) Rachel (White) Tull, daughter of John WHITE, widow of James Tull (see p. 421, No. 8). In his will, dated 27 Feb. 1793, he named daughters Jane Coulbourn, Betty Conner, Esther Gunby, wife Rachel to have lands, to go after her death to son-in-law Benjamin Conner. Witnesses were Robert Bell, James Whittington, Samuel Long (Som. Wills EB19:361). One daughter:

1. Esther, b. 13 Nov. 1762; d. 16 Aug. 1838; mar. 1st Joseph GUNBY (p. 394, No. 6); 2nd Joseph Schoolfield.

3 SOLOMON COULBOURN (1684-1749); mar. Rachel Handy (1693-1771). In his will, dated 3 Aug. 1744 (prob. 1 May 1749) he made bequests to sons Solomon Coleburn ("as much of my cultivated land as he can reasonably tend"), William ("my upper plantation"), Benjamin ("plantation I now live on"), the latter two also to have "Fair Bridge" (which was "taken up by or for my grandfather William Coleburn), and to son Isaac (land) and daughters Anne and Jean Coleburn, Grace wife of Mercy Beauchamp; son Isaac and wife Rachell to be executors. His widow Rachel claimed her thirds (Som. Wills EB14:18). Rachel Coleburn of Coventry Parish, in her will, signed 22 Dec. 1770, made bequests to sons Isaac (executor), Benjamin, Solomon Coleburn, to daughters Ann Coleburn, Grace Beauchamp wife of Marcy, Jane Dreaden wife of Samuel; to grandsons Sewell Dreadon, William Coleburn, son of William; and to granddaughter Rachel Handy Coleburn (Som. Wills EB4:155). Two of the children:

- i. William, b. c1715; d. Som. Co. by 21 Mar. 1765; mar. Elizabeth Davis (p. 376).
- ii. Benjamin, b. c1720; d. Som. Co. by 8 Nov. 1796; mar. (Coventry, 16 Dec. 1750) Elizabeth TILGHMAN, daughter of Aaron and Mary (Gibbons) TILGHMAN (see p. 433, No. 6), b. c1731; d. c1807. On 10 May 1783 Benjamin Coulbourn of Som. Co., for £1000, conveyed to Aaron Coulbourn 122 acres, "all right which the said Benjamin hath in lands devised to said Benjamin by will of Solomon Coulbourn dated 3 Aug. 1744" (Som. Deeds 28:388). In his will, dated 14 Apr. 1780, Benjamin Coulbourn, planter, made bequests to wife Betty (all lands, etc. during widowhood) and to "my seven children," Elizabeth, Easter, Elijah, Aaron (all lands after death of testator's wife), Solomon, Ann, and Sarah Coulbourn, his wife to bring up "my two youngest daughters." Witnesses were Purnell Outten, William Coulbourn, Sarah Cearsly (Som. Wills EB17:562). Two of the children:
 1. Elizabeth, b. c1751; d. Som. Co. by 19 Aug. 1806; single; in her will, dated 14 Apr. 1780, Betsy Coulbourn made bequests to John Coulbourn; to Joseph Lankford's children, Easter C., Betsey T., and Aaron C. Lankford; to Elijah (under 21) and Mary (under 16), children of Elijah Coulbourn; to "my mother" Betty Coulbourn; to "my sister" Nancy Lankford; Joseph Lankford to be executor (Som. Wills EB23:104).
 2. Ann (Nancy), b. c1770; mar. Joseph LANKFORD (see p. 407, No. 7).

COVINGTON - GRAHAM - POLLITT FAMILIES (pp. 373-76).

- 7 THOMAS POLLETT² (1690-1744); mar. Sarah, who mar. 2nd Christopher Dowdell. Children:
 - i. Mary, b. c1715; mar. (Stepney Parish, Som. Co. 22 Sept. 1736) William Disharoon.
 - ii. Thomas, b. 30 Dec. 1717; d. Som. Co. 24 Sept. 1788.
 - iii. Margaret, b. c1720; mar. William Stevens, who d. Som. Co. by 21 Mar. 1771 (Som. Wills EB4:154).
 - iv. William, b. c1722; d. by 23 Apr. 1772; see No. 8, p. 375.
 - v. John, ?b. 14 Sept. 1724; d. 14 Feb. 1808.
 - vi. George, b. c1724/28; d. 1783.
 - vii. Jonathan, b. c1728; d. Som. Co. by 1 July 1806 (Som. Wills EB23:103).
 - viii. Elizabeth, b. c1730; mar. ?John Finch, Jr.
 - ix. Priscilla, b. c1732; d. Som. Co. by 19 Feb. 1754; single; in her will, signed 12 Nov. 1753, she named mother Sarah Dowdle, Christopher Dowdle (bond to her sister Sarah), sisters Sarah and Nelly Pollett, brothers George and John Pollett (Ann. Wills 29:60).
 - x. Sarah, b. c1734.
 - xi. Nelly, b. c1736.

DENNIS - TAYLOR FAMILIES (pp. 376-79).

3 WILLIAM TAYLOR (c1638-1696). In the settlement of his estate, six children are named. In 1709 Elias Taylor discharged Elias Taylor as administrator of his brother's estate (Accomack Deeds, Wills, &c., 1693-1715, Part 3, p. 248); likewise Elizabeth in 1711, Rachel in 1706, William in 1703, Winnifrit Scarburgh, wife of Henry in 1703, and Tabitha in 1708 (ibid., pp. 248, 249, 247). Information contributed by Mrs. Mary Frances Carey of New Church, Va.) If another son, i.e. Hope Taylor, had removed to Somerset Co., Md., and had died early, his heirs might well never have gotten around to discharging the administrator, in fact may never have received any share of the estate.

DIXON FAMILY (pp. 379-381). After publication in 1967 of The Boston Family of Maryland the compiler had persistent doubts about the unsubstantiated pedigree he had found, and printed in the book, that identified Ambrose Dixon's mother as Katherine Barkley, claimed to be a daughter of Thomas Barkley of Ewdnes, Shropshire, England, descended from Maurice de Berkeley, 2nd Lord Berkeley (1281-1326), whose ancestors included King Henry I of England, Charlemagne, and Alfred the Great. A distinguished genealogist, Mr. Francis Leeson, FSG, was engaged to investigate the pedigree. He produced a record of the family of Thomas Barkley of Ewdnes, which showed no daughter named Katherine. And he was moreover unable to find any record of Ambrose Dixon's supposed parents, William Dixon and Katherine Barkley. The family of Thomas Barkley of Ewdnes, erroneously claimed as grandfather of Ambrose Dixon, is as follows:

THOMAS BARKLEY (BERKLEY) of Ewdnes, Shropshire, England, son of William and Katherine (Chambers) Berkley, b. [c1540]; buried Worfield Parish, Shropshire, 29 Sept. 1602; mar. 1st [c1567] Jane (Joan) Felton, daughter of William Felton of Ewdnes, b. [c1550]; buried 23 Oct. 1587. Children (baptisms and burials from Worfield Parish register, Shropshire):

By first marriage:

- i. George, b. [c1568]; d. s. p. before 1602.
- ii. Jane, b. [c1570]; buried 21 Aug. 1591.
- iii. Mary, b. [c1572]; mar. (26 Jan. 1593/94) John Yait, yeoman.
- iv. Bridget, bapt. 24 Oct. 1574; mar. Richard Harris.
- v. Francis, bapt. 11 Mar. 1575/76; d. before 1579.
- vi. Dorothy, bapt. 11 Aug. 1577; mar. --- Yardley.
- vii. Francis, bapt. 15 Feb. 1578/79; buried 25 Apr. 1635; mar. [c1615] Elizabeth Dutton; they had Thomas, Humfrey, Francis, Elinor, Mary, and Richard.

By second marriage:

- viii. Susan, bapt. 25 Aug. 1583; mar. John Griffin.
- ix. Margaret, bapt. 15 Nov. 1584; mar. John Baxter.
- x. Alice, bapt. 13 Feb. 1585/86.
- xi. Joan, bapt. 2 July 1587; buried 4 Aug. 1587.

5 MARY DIXON (c1650-after 1693); mar. Thomas COTTINGHAM (c1640-1688). Two sons:

- v. John, b. 15 Sept. 1678; d. Som. Co. by 5 Feb. 1723/24; mar. Mary Connor. He inherited none of his father's land; his only land was 100 acres, "Goshen," which he patented in 1701, and 30 acres of "Boston," renamed "Charles Gift," bought from his brother Charles in 1702. In his will he bequeathed to his "well beloved wife and her heirs" all his land and named sons Thomas, John, and William (Ann, Wills 18:207). On 18 Mar. 1724 John's widow, Mary, deeded "Boston" and "Goshen" to her brother-in-law, Charles Cottingham, for 4500 pounds of tobacco (Som. Deeds GH15:214); she therefore left her sons without any land to inherit.
- vii. Jonathan, b. 1683; d. Worc. Co., Md. by 4 June 1762; mar. Margaret Cox (1685-1769). His age and relationship to the family is established by a deposition of 10 Aug. 1745 concerning the bounds of "Vulcan's Vineyard": he gave his age as 62 and mentioned his brother John Cottingham. In his will he named widow Margaret, sons William, Charles (land in Kent Co., Del.), Daniel, Jonathan, Elisha, and Thomas, and daughters Sarah Laws, Mary Nicholson (Worc. Wills JW 3:49).

GILLIS AND RELATED FAMILIES (pp. 392-93).

5 LEVIN GILLIS (1721-1772); mar. Sarah (d. 1782); their daughter, Priscilla Gillis (1747-1808) mar. John ROUNDS (c1745-c1745-1786). The 1783 Som. Co. tax lists show John Rounds in Manokin Hundred in possession of "Gideons Luck" and "Tilghmans Adventure," 120 acres, also 6 slaves, 1 horse, 12 black cattle; the family consisted of 3 males, 5 females. The 1800 census shows Priscilla Rounds in Dividing Creek Hundred.

8 ARTHUR DENWOOD (1671/72-1720); mar. Esther Robins, daughter of Major John and Esther (Littleton) Robins, b. c1675; d. Northampton Co., Va. by 21 Sept. 1724. In his will, dated 5 Dec. 1707 (with two lengthy codicils dated 5 Feb. 1704/5 and 25 Mar., and prob. 10 and 28 May 1709) Major Robins wrote: "I give and bequeath unto my daughter Esther the wife of Arthur Denwood of Sum's: County in ye province of Maryland... twelve oxen in Lew of a negro... I likewise give unto my said Daughter Esther Denwood tenn head of Cattle... I likewise give unto my Six grand Children Esther, Levin, John, Pressila, Arthur & Betty Denwood, Sones and daughters to the above sd Arthur & Esther Denwood Six yearling Heifers... [&] each of them a silver spoon" (Northampton Co., Va., Wills, No. 19, 1708/17, pp. 23-33). One daughter (born Somerset Co., Md.):

- i. Priscilla, b. c1700; d. c1735; mar. Thomas GILLIS; see No. 4, p. 392.

GRIFFIN AND RELATED FAMILIES (pp. 393-94). The information here has been largely provided by Mr. L. P. Dryden.

1 RICHARD HILL (c1630-1686). In 1664 Richard Hill secured a patent to 200 acres in Accomack Co., Va., for a tract just north of the present location of Painter; in 1665 the patent was reissued for 650 acres. He and wife Wilmott sold 100 acres in 1672, the remainder in 1678 and 1679, after they had become residents of Somerset Co., Md. (Whitelaw, p. 747). On 12 July 1679 Hill proved his right to 350 acres for transporting into Md. himself, wife Wilmott, their children Richard, John, Rhoda, Ursilla, and servant Thomas Walley (Md. Land Patents WC#2:17). In his will, signed 28 Mar. 1686 (prob. 26 Aug. 1686) Richard Hill of Som. Co. named wife Willmot and son Richard, with the provision that, if son Richard should die without heirs, the estate should pass to William and Ann [i. e. Wouldhave, though not so designated] (Ann. Wills 4:222). Wilmott Hill d. by 7 Apr. 1698 (inventory; Ann. Inv. & Accts. 16:14). Two children:

- i. Ann, b. 1658; d. c1703; mar. (by 1678) William WOULDHAVE; see No. 2, p. 393.
- ii. Richard [II], b. c1660; d. Som. Co. by 7 Dec. 1694 (inventory by John Franklin and Henry Read - Ann. Inv. & Accts. 13A:247); he mar. Martha Smith, who apparently d. about the same time as he. It was probably the same Richard Hill for whose estate "an appraisalment" was made by Tho. Poynter and John Smocke 15 Mar. 1694/95 (ibid. 9:334). On 29 July 1695 Wilmot Hill, administratrix, filed an account of his estate (ibid. 13A:331). Son:

1. Richard [III], b. Mar. 1679/80 (Som. Deeds 11:117); d. 18 Mar./11 June 1716; mar. Elce---. In June Court 1704 Thomas Morris petitioned that Richard Hill, son of Richard Hill, dec'd, after his parents' deaths was reared by his grandmother, Wilmott Hill, widow, and after her death by William Wouldhave and wife, now also deceased, leaving none of his relatives alive. Thomas Morris and Cornelius Innis being his uncles, and Morris having had "put upon him the care of the boy, requested supervision of his estate. Richard, aged 14 last March, chose Morris his guardian, but in June Court 1707 Richard, complaining of his guardian, was granted his petition to live with Henry Rich, a tenant on his land (Som. Deeds 8:132 rear, 9:366 rear, 370 rear). In his will, dated 18 Mar. 1715/16 Richard [III] named wife Elce and bequeathed to son Richard tract "Husband's Torrent" (Ann. Wills 14:125). Only child:

- a. Richard [IV], b. ?Spring 1716; d. Som. Co. by 16 Mar. 1736/37; single. In his will, dated 17 Dec. 1736 (Ann. Wills 21:757) he bequeathed "Husband's Torrent" to Capt. Charles Rackliffe, but since Richard was under age when he made his will, the provisions of his great-grandfather's will took precedence, and the land reverted to the Wouldhave heirs (see p. 394 under No. 4, WILLIAM GRIFFIN).

GUNBY - KIRK FAMILIES (pp. 394-95).

2 FRANCIS GUNBY (c1645-1694). He came into Md. as an indentured servant, as evidenced by a suit for debt in the Md. Provincial Court, Feb. 1668/69 session. Francis Gunby, defendant, "sought to avoid payment on the ground that he was an indentured servant when he had given his bill obligatory to the plaintiff, Peterella Chivers, thus claiming the benefit of the Act of the Assembly forbidding servants under indenture from entering into business transactions. The court decided 'that the plea of the sd Francis in Barre is not sufficient in law,' because his attorney, [Thomas Carleton], did not join in demurrer in due time. Judgment was given for the plaintiff." Daniel Jenifer was attorney for Chivers (Md. Archives, 57:li).

HARRIS FAMILY (pp. 398-99).

1 JOHN HARRISON (HARRIS)(c1640-1712/13. In his "will," dated 25 June 1699, recorded as a deed 28 Oct. 1701, he included the provision that son Jeremiah was forbidden to sell or lease to any stranger, except his brothers; John appointed as trustees the brothers Teague Riffin, Jr., Ambrose Riffin. Witnesses were William Harper, William Duncan, John Heath (Som. Deeds 7:629). Witnesses to his will, dated 17 Mar. 1710/11 (prob. 24 Mar. 1715/16) were J. West, Randell West, Eliner Lee (Som. Wills EB9:27). That the John Harris who signed his "will" (deed) 25 June 1699 and the John Harris who signed his will 17 Mar. 1710/11 were the same man is made evident in the naming of the same five sons and the granting of the same tracts to three of those sons in both documents, and the wording of the deeds by which the sons conveyed the tracts. The will of 1711 in effect confirmed the grants in the 1699 will-deed to three of the sons. This interesting problem has been skillfully worked out by Mr. Leslie P. Dryden. Children of John and Judith Harris (born Perrihawken, Som. Co., Md., birth records in Som. Deeds I.K.L.):

- i. Jeremiah Harris, b. 20 Nov. 1671; d. Som. Co. by 20 Jan. 1749 (Som. Wills EB14:33). On 2 Aug. 1709, in their father's lifetime, Jeremiah Harris and wife Eleanor with his brother Robert Harris deeded to Richard Knight [their brother-in-law] their shares in the resurveyed tract called "Harrison's Adventure," part of a 600 acre tract granted 1 Oct. 1680 to John Harrison, alias Harris, who "by deed" conveyed 150 acres to Jeremiah Harris, 200 acres to Robert Harris, 200 acres to son John Harris, and "therefore by deed conveyed all except 50 acres of the original tract" (Som. Deeds 10:284), but those 50 acres were also actually conveyed, to son James. In his will, signed 4 Feb. 1745, Jeremiah bequeathed to son Spencer Harris the plantation "where I now live... 'Friend's Choice,'" after wife's decease.
- ii. John Harris, Jr., b. 7 June 1673; d. Som. Co. 1744/46; mar. Rebecca Porter. By his father's 1699 will-deed he received 200 acres "Harrison's Adventure," and by the 1711 will the same tract (200 acres) now called "Friend's Choice." On 21 Mar. 1721 John Harris, weaver, and wife Rebeckah of Som. Co., for 11,500 lbs. tobacco, sold to James Harris 150 acres "Harrison's Adventure," granted 29 July 1675 to John Harris, Sr., for 600 acres, who bequeathed 200 acres to his son John on 17 Mar. 1710 (Som. Deeds 14:221).
- iii. Elizabeth, b. 9 July 1675; d. by 1737; mar. (presumably) Richard Knight (d. 1740/44).
- iv. Judith, b. 25 Mar. 1677; mar. ? Ambrose Riffin.
- v. Robert Harris, b. 8 Jan. 1678/79; d. 28 Feb. 1759; see No. 2 on p. 398.
- vi. Priscilla, b. 22 Mar. 1681/82; mar. ? Hugh Culligan.
- vii. Hester (Esther), b. 20 Mar. 1682/83 at eleven at night.
- viii. Sarah, b. c1685; mar. Randall (Randolph) Smullen (d. 1743).
- ix. James Harris, b. 9 Mar. 1686/87; d. Som. Co. by 5 Apr. 1726 (Ann. Wills 18:504). On 5 Mar. 1712/13 James Harris, for 11,500 lbs. tobacco, deeded to William Hearn parts of "Harrison's Adventure" and "Harrison's Venture," granted 1 Oct. 1680 to John Harris, alias Harrison, for 200 acres, who by will left his son James Harris 50 acres "Harrison's Adventure" and 150 acres "Harrison's Venture" (Som. Deeds 10:854). The date of this sale shows that his father died three years before the date of probate of his will. In his will, dated 5 May 1725, James Harris bequeathed to son John, under 21, 150 acres out of the patent "Friend's Choice," containing 600 acres.
- x. Caleb Harris, b. c1689; d. Som. Co. 10 Sept. 1751 (Coventry); mar. Rosannah. He was named "executor" in his father's 1699 will-deed. On 21 Mar. 1723 Caleb and wife Rosannah conveyed to Edward Harper, for 25,000 lbs. tobacco, 50 acres "Middleton," originally granted to William Stevens (for 175 acres) and assigned by him to John Harris, Sr., who on 17 Mar. 1710 bequeathed the tract to Caleb (Som. Deeds 15:29). On 10 Nov. 1741 Jeremiah Harris of Som. Co., planter, son and heir of John Harris, "for love and affection" for his brother Caleb, conveyed all his right to the land bequeathed by the will of their father to Caleb (Som. Deeds 20:247). In his will Caleb left son James 1 shilling, son Abraham a tract "Flemings Loss," 60 acres (Ann. Wills 28:379).

Eldest son and heir-at-law inherited his father's land; on 17 June 1753 James and Abraham Harris divided the tracts "Middleton," "Harrison's Venture," and "Fleming's Loss" between them, 120 acres to James, 115 acres to Abraham (Som. Deeds 22:244, 245); see also 22:116, 28:63).

- xi. Patience, b. c1791; living 1757; mar. ? 1st Thomas Pritchett (d. c1717); 2nd William Mister (d. 1744).

HENDERSON AND RELATED FAMILIES (pp. 399-402). Corrections and other supplementary data have been kindly provided by Mr. L. P. Dryden and material on the later Pedens by Lt. Col. W. T. Wilson, from his Thirty-Four Families of Old Somerset County, Maryland (1974), used with his permission.

1 JAMES BARNABY appears to have migrated to Va. by 1631, for Richard Barnabe of London, merchant, in his will, dated 19 Jan. 1630/31 (prob. 11 July 1636) named his brothers John and James Barnabe, both resident in Virginia, each to receive £100 (Va. Historical Magazine, 13:303). According to a deposition, James was in Northampton Co., Va. on 12 Feb. 1637/8.

4 JOHN HENDERSON (1661-1743/44); mar. Elizabeth Barnabe. Youngest son:

viii. Benjamin (c1697-1772) may well be the father of the Lemuel Henderson who d. in Acco. Co., Va. by 26 Nov. 1797, though there are several different Lemuel Hendersons in the records of both Worc. Co. and Acco. Co. And although this Lemuel named several children, he did not name a son John, but John H. Henderson named a son Lemuel and a daughter Scarburgh (after his mother?). More research is needed. In the inventory of Benjamin's estate 10 June 1772, and distribution, nearest of kin were Jesse Henderson [son of his brother Charles], and James Henderson (Worc. Inv. 109:278).

7 JOHN HENDERSON (b. c1716/17 or c1722); mar. Comfort Newbold, daughter of Thomas NEWBOLD.

THOMAS NEWBOLD, b. c1690; d. Worc. by 23 Apr. 1746; mar. apparently Joyce, daughter of John PURNELL (see immediately below). In the inventory of Newbold's estate by Samuel Handy and James Trahern, 23 Apr. 1746, Purnell Newbold was administrator, nearest of kin Joyce and Thomas Newbold (Ann. Inv. 33:164). In an account filed by Purnell Newbold 12 May 1747, distributive payments were made to Joyce Newbold, the widow; to Elijah Brittingham for his and Micajah Brittingham's parts of their distributive estate, to Thomas Newbold and Comfort Newbold, and to children under age, not named (Ann. Accts. 23:226), but whose names do appear in a 23 June 1748 account as John, Smart, Francis, and Mary Newbold, orphans of Thomas (Som. Jud. 1744/49:87).

JOHN PURNELL, son of Thomas Purnell (c1613-1694) of Fairfield, Som. Co. (for many years a member of the Md. Assembly), b. Accomack Co., Va. c1654; d. Som. Co., Md. by 3 Mar. 1742/43; mar. 1st Director Smith, daughter of John Smith (d. 1677) and his wife Joyce (Nottingham, ix). In his will, dated 15 Apr. 1751, John Purnell of Mattapony bequeathed to youngest son John the dwelling plantation, 550 acres "Purnell's Lot," 350 acres "Brothers Love" and "Mattapony Marsh"; to son Hezekiah, "Purnell's Escheat," 600 acres "Pharsalia," 450 acres "Piney Island." He also named grandson Purnell Ratclife, daughters Bathsheba, Sophia, Mary and Martha Purnell, Sarah Kellam, Joyce Nubold, Tabitha Croper, Elizabeth Major, Sophia Jenkins. Wife Martha was to be executor (Som. Wills 23:177).

The following Hendersons, otherwise unaccounted for in the records, are certainly children of John and Comfort (Newbold) Henderson, sons Purnell and Thomas named for their mother's brothers (and father):

- i. Purnell Henderson, b. c1746; d. Worc. Co. by 12 Feb. 1801; he appears in the 1790 Worc. Co. census. In his will, dated 22 Jan. 1801, he made bequests to sons Isaac, John, Thomas (a minor in 1802), daughter Nancy Henderson. Witnesses were Isaac Richard, Nehemiah Truitt, Levin Derickson (Worc. Wills JBR 1:198).
- ii. Elizabeth (Betty) Henderson, b. c1748; d. by 4 Dec. 1810; mar. John PEDEN; she appears to belong here because of association of her husband with her presumed brother Thomas.
- iii. Thomas Henderson, b. c1750; d. Worc. Co. by 1 Sept. 1797 (bond). On 31 Mar. 1788 Thomas Henderson of Worc. Co. sold to John Peden of Som. Co., for £70, his half interest in a sloop Somerset that they had built in partnership, resting at anchor in the Pocomoke River (Som. Deeds 29:353). It appears likely that Thomas was brother-in-law of John Peden; this is the only known connection between Henderson and Peden except for the marriage of Betty to John Peden.

12 HENRY PEDEN (c1804-1845/50); mar. Elizabeth Gunby Lankford. Elizabeth G. Payton was listed as head of household 895 in Dublin Dist., Som. Co., 1850 census, with the following children (born probably near Rehobeth, Som. Co., Md.):

- i. Susan A., b. c1833/34; d. Som. Co. 22 Jan. 1894; mar. 1st (lic. Som. 24 Sept. 1850) George Howard; 2nd (Som. Co. 29 May 1866) Henry E. POWELL (c1819-c1880). By first mar. she was mother of John Howard, b. c1855, and Elizabeth. Children by 2nd mar. (born near Marion Station, Som. Co., Md.):
 1. Florence Adeline, b. 14 May 1867; d. 30 Jan. 1925; mar. 1st John L. Foxwell; 2nd J. W. P. Horseman.
 2. Sidney W., b. 16 Sept. 1869; d. Baltimore, 13 Mar. 1944; mar. EVA BELL WARD (B22).
 3. Isaac T., b. 1871/72; d. 15 Sept. 1939.
 4. Lorenzo (Low) Quell, b. 24 Jan. 1874; d. 28 Nov. 1946.
- ii. Isaac, b. c1839.
- iii. Sidney F. Payton, b. 14 Mar. 1843; d. 10 Mar. 1924.
- iv. Albert, b. c1845/46.

JONES FAMILY (OF NEWARK) (p. 402). This family is traceable back at least one more generation, to Joseph Jones, Sr. (No. 3).

2 WILLIAM JONES (c1758-1824), son of Joseph, Jr. (1, p. 402). mar. 1st Elizabeth. . . ; 2nd (9 Jan. 1798) Catharine Hadder. The 1783 debt book shows William Jones with 115 acres "Oak Hall," 5 people in the family. On 29 Oct. 1785 William Jones, with wife Elizabeth, sold to Thomas Smith 6 acres of "Oak Hall," a small part of a tract formerly conveyed by Joseph Jones, father of William, to William Smith, father of Thomas, dec'd (Worc. Deeds L:240). William Jones ("of Joseph") signed his will 17 Mar. 1824, making bequests to sons John C. Jones, Thomas Jones, and daughters Sarah Powell, Charlotte Welburn, Huldah Jones, and Amelia Boston. Witnesses were Thomas N. Williams, Annanias Jones, Martha Basset (Worc. Wills MH27:81). One child:

- i. Amelia, b. 1802/3; d. 1851/55; mar. ISAAC BOSTON (72).

3 JOSEPH JONES, SR.,¹ b. c1690; d. probably soon after 1774; mar. 1st Mary; 2nd Temperance. The only Joseph Jones in the Som. Co. tax lists lived in Bogerternorton Hundred, in what is now Worc. Co., listed from 1723 to 1740. On 20 Mar. 1726 Joseph Jones purchased 100 acres "Ninepin Branch Neck" from James Martin, and on 1 May 1733 Joseph and wife Mary exchanged this tract with William Swain, son of John Swain, dec'd, for a tract lying below Snow Hill, "which Joseph Jones has disposed of" (Som. Deeds 16:83, 18:78). There would appear to be a relationship between William Swain and Joseph Jones, whose wife Mary may have been Swain's widow, for William Swain was listed in the Jones household 1727-36, and William Swain bequeathed (1751) 40 acres to Joseph Jones, Jr. In 1739 Joseph Jones secured a patent to "Jones's Privilege" in Som. (now Worc.) Co. The Worc. Co. debt books show Joseph Jones owning "Oak Hall," 175 acres at first, then after 1759, 115 acres. He owned 12 1/2 acres "Sturbridge" 1755-62. In 1737 Joseph Jones and wife Mary sold 25 acres "Oak Hall" to William Smith, son of Andrew. In 1741 Joseph alone deeded another 5 acres (Som. Deeds 19:207, 20:263). In 1759 Joseph Jones, Sr. (with wife Temperance) deeded to son Joseph, Jr., for £25, 200 acres "Oak Hall" near the Pocomoke River, formerly owned by Edward Shipman (Worc. Deeds D:367). In 1761 Joseph and Temperance sold 12 1/2 acres "Sturbridge" to John Bowen, Sr. (Worc. Deeds E:144). Two of his children:

- i. John, b. c1722; probably the same John Jones who d. Worc. Co. in 1788; he bequeathed to son Kendall Jones 33 acres "Oak Hall" between Joseph and William Jones, and another 9 acres of "Oak Hall" adjoining Joseph Jones; he also mentioned daughter Comfort Jones, wife Mary (Worc. Wills JW 13:179). John Jones had appeared in the Som. Co. tax lists 1738-40 in the household of Joseph Jones, Bogerternorton.
- ii. Joseph (Jr.), b. c1726; d. by 22 Apr. 1783; see No. 1, p. 402.

JONES FAMILY OF "ABERDEEN" (pp. 402-403).

1 ELISHA JONES (c1717-1796) was son of Edward Jones (No. 5 below) of Pocomoke Hundred, who in turn was son of another Edward Jones (No. 4 below).

4 EDWARD JONES, b. c1630; mar. 1st (Manokin, Apr. 1660) Mary Barnaby, a widow, who d. 4 Oct. 1669, after giving birth to a daughter; he mar. 2nd Ann, and had several children, among them Edward, Jr., b. 9 Dec. 1676.

5 EDWARD JONES, JR., son of Edward, Sr. (No. 4 above), b. ? Pocomoke Hundred, 9 Dec. 1676. He appears in the Som. Co. tax lists in Pocomoke Hundred from the 1720's to 1740, after which his area was absorbed into Worc. Co. In his household from 1734 to 1740 was son Elisha Jones. Son:

- i. Elisha, b. Pocomoke Hundred c1718; d. by 22 July 1796; see No. 1, p. 402, column 2.

LANKFORD FAMILY (pp. 405-408).

1 JOSEPH LANKFORD (c1680-c1756). A cattle mark was recorded for him 7 Feb. 1706/7 (Som. Deeds 11:430 rear). On 17 Mar. 1719/20 he purchased from William Morris of Kent Co., Del., 180 acres "Middlesex," between the Pocomoke River and Dividing Creek, but with his wife Alice's consent he resold it on 18 Nov. 1725 to Robert Mitchell (Som. Deeds 14:52, 16:3). On 1 Nov. 1723 Lankford bought from Jonathan and Margaret Cottingham 86 acres "Vulcans Vineyard," on the north side of Pocomoke Bay at Beaver Dam. On 10 Jan. 1736 he purchased from Thomas Dixon 36 acres "Dames Quarter" (Som. Deeds 15:98, 19:140). In 1749 he added to his land holding by patenting 158 acres, which he called "Lankfords Content."

2 BENJAMIN LANKFORD (c1708-1786). To settle the boundary between his newly acquired (1734) tract "Boston" and land of his neighbor, on 28 Jan. 1735 he entered into an agreement with Thomas Dixon, also providing for a ditch to drain their properties (Som. Deeds 19:46, 295). He added to his holdings 13 Feb. 1737 by purchase of 150 acres "Galloway" from Littleton Townsend (Som. Deeds 19:237), and he further increased them by patenting several tracts: 50 acres "Discovery" in 1738, 50 acres "New Britain" in 1741, 36 acres "Newport" in 1743, resurveying "Discovery" to include a total of 64 acres, which he called "Discovery Enlarged" in 1749, 18 1/2 acres "Snow Water" in 1770, and 10 3/4 acres "Neighbors Content" in 1771. In 1747 he joined with Thomas Dixon in deeding to Thomas Dixon, Jr. 61 acres of "Boston" and "Dixon's Choice" and 31 acres of "Dixons Adventure" (Som. Deeds 21:265). From Josephus Bell on 22 Aug. 1751 Benjamin purchased 33 acres "Bells" and "Horseys Conclusion," and on 9 June 1756, 260 acres "Longs Chance" from Jeffrey Long (Som. Deeds 22:192; 23:131). In 1775 he reached a boundary settlement of "Boston" with Thomas Williams (Som. Deeds 22:192, 23:131), and on 22 Nov. 1783 Benjamin sold 6 1/4 acres of "Neighbors Content" to Thomas and Isaac Dixon (Som. Deeds 22:192; 23:131; 25:4, 264; 27:113).

4 KELLAM LANKFORD (c1733-1796). Among his acquisitions of several small tracts of land, on 15 Apr. 1765 Kellam purchased from ISAAC BOSTON (11) 355 acres "Boston's Purchase," and another 78 acres from NABOTH BOSTON (14) on 4 Jan. 1768 (Som. Deeds 24:251, 25:161). Children (born Great Annessex, Som. Co., Md., baptised Coventry):

- i. Elizabeth, b. 22 Feb. 1754; mar. Robert HALL (p. 396, No. 5).
- ii. Mary, b. 9 May 1756; mar. --- Broughton.
- iii. Charity, b. 17 Feb. 1759; mar. (1775) John Riggen.
- iv. Sarah (Sally), b. 17 Mar. 1762; mar. (1783) John Conner.
- v. Milla, b. 4 Feb. 1764; d. 22 Jan. 1765.
- vi. Zipporah, b. 1766; d. 14 June 1770.
- vii. Noah, b. 13 Apr. 1769; d. Great Annessex, 1810/20; mar. 1st Elizabeth---; 2nd (lic. Som. 28 Oct. 1800) Mary Ann Bozman, b. c1780; d. July 1849 (Som. Mortality Schedule). William Bozman in 1811 made bequests to Mary, Dolly, Nancy, and Elizabeth Gunby Lankford, daughters of Noah Lankford, to be paid as they come of age (Som. Wills EB23:164). The 1798 tax list shows Noah with 857 acres, including "Bostons Purchase," "Boston," "Neighbors Content," "Snow Water," "Discovery Enlarged," inherited from his father. Mary Ann Lankford, his widow, dated her will 2 Aug. 1835 (prob. 31 July 1849), making bequests to daughters Mary Ann Holland (house and lot "Snow Water"), Elizabeth G. Paden, Amelia N. Lankford; son-in-law George L. Holland to be executor (Som. Wills JP9:159). Three children, by second marriage (born near Marion Station, Somerset Co., Md.):
 1. Mary Ann, b. c1806; d. c1848; mar. (lic. Som. 24 Feb. 1824) George L. HOLLAND, b. c1805; he mar. 2nd (lic. Som. 21 Feb. 1849) Elizabeth Ward, widow of ELLIJAH SMITH WARD (B3); George was head of household 691, Brinkley's Dist., 1850. Daughter of George and Mary Ann:

- a. Amelia, b. Sept. 1836; mar. (lic. Som. 17 July 1855) ISAAC WALSTON (S-G7).
2. Elizabeth Gunby, b. c1811; mar. 1st (1831) Henry PEDEN (p. 401, No. 12).
3. Dolly, b. 1815; d. Quindocqua, 1878; mar. (lic. Som. 27 Jan. 1834) Isaac K. GREEN (1808-1860); their daughter:
a. Esther (Hester) Anne, b. 30 Jan. 1838; d. Kingston, Som. Co. 27 Apr. 1908; mar. William Henry WILSON (p. 443, No. 4 v).
- viii. Benjamin, b. 13 Nov. 1772; d. young; the land bequeathed to him by his grandfather Benjamin Lankford passed eventually to his brother, Noah.

6 DAVID LANFORD (c1742-1774); mar. 1st Martha Adams; 2nd Mary, daughter of Abraham Outten (d. c1787), b. 24 Mar. 1751; she mar. 2nd Thomas Moore. In his will, dated 24 Apr. 1774 (prob. 14 June) David left wife Mary his lands during her widowhood and made bequests to sons William and Abraham Outten Lankford, naming brother Kellam executor (Som. Wills EB5:51). Besides the three sons by first marriage, he had son Abraham by second.

8 BENJAMIN LANFORD (1758-1820); mar. Sarah Archabel Smith. On 2 Oct. 1784 Benjamin Lankford, son of Lazarus, and Sarah Archibel, his wife, for £20, released to Joseph Lankford (of Pusey) all their right to the land that William Smith gave bond to convey to Pusey Lankford, tract "Plunder" (Som. Deeds 28:502). The 1783 and 1798 tax lists show Benjamin in Little Annessex Hundred (the area of modern Crisfield). In 1798 he owned 13 tracts totalling 623 acres, including part of "Watkins Point," part of "Bostons Purchase," and tracts purchased from Gunbys and Wards, with two dwelling houses and 9 slaves.

Benjamin served as a private in the Watkins Point Company, Princess Anne Battalion, Som. Co. Militia, in 1780. It was presumably this Benjamin who was commissioned an ensign in the 23rd Regiment of the Som. Co. Militia 16 June 1797, promoted to Lt. 24 Oct. 1800, later resigning (Md. Del. Gen. 73:70). Children (born Little Annessex, Somerset Co., baptised Coventry):

- i. Henry, b. 31 Aug. 1783; d. Som. Co. 17 Mar. 1841.
- ii. Mary Smith, b. 17 May 1786; mar. (lic. Som. 8 Nov. 1808) Abednego Green.
- iii. Betty Brittingham, b. 12 Oct. 1788; mar. (lic. Som. 6 July 1808) George Dykes.
- iv. Henrietta, b. 2 June 1791; d. 11 July 1861; mar. (lic. Som. 28 Oct. 1812) Thomas Williams Wilkins.
- v. Lazarus, b. 1793/94; d. by 31 July 1855; mar. MARY ANN COTTINGHAM (136).
- vi. Benjamin, b. 17 Nov. 1798; d. 11 Nov. 1886; he was a delegate to the Md. Senate, 1861, when it was locked up to prevent the state's legislature from passing the Ordinance of Secession (Clark, III:27).
- vii. Sarah (Sally) Archabel Smith, b. c1802; mar. (lic. Som. 15 June 1822) her first cousin, William Henry Lankford, son of David and Elizabeth (Long) Lankford, b. 1799/1800; d. 1842/50.

10 BENJAMIN LANFORD (1765-1813); mar. Nancy Hitch. Living in Great Annessex Hundred in 1798, he was designated as Benjamin, Jr., to distinguish him from his somewhat older cousin, designated as Benjamin, Sr. (No. 8 above). About 1810 he administered the estate of his brother-in-law, Thomas M. Hitch, who died childless and whose estate was distributed among his sisters, Nancy Lankford (wife of Benjamin), Nelly Beauchamp, Betsey Perdue, and the children of his sister Suckey (Som. Accts. EB27:119). After Benjamin's death, on 20 May 1816 Richard Hall petitioned the court to divide the real estate of Benjamin Lankford, who had died intestate, leaving children: Martha (wife of Richard Hall, the petitioner), Nancy Hitch Lankford, Nathan and Benjamin Lankford (Som. Jud. 1816:222, 1818/19:251). Benjamin's widow Nancy died before 17 Oct. 1822, when John P. Lankford, her administrator, filed an account, distribution to same children, including Nathan James Lankford (Som. Accts. 1817/28:111).

11 NATHAN LANFORD (1767-1800); mar. Sarah Marshall, who mar. 2nd (lic. Som. 9 Feb. 1802) Thomas Davis. Stephen Marshall, in his will, dated 2 Oct. 1794 (prob. 16 Dec. 1794) made a bequest to daughter Sally Lankford (Som. Wills EB19:343). In the 1798 tax list Nathan owned no land (and he purchased none); he was a tenant on part of his cousin Noah Lankford's (No. 4) land in Great Annessex Hundred. An inventory was filed 26 Feb. 1800 by his brother, William Lankford (No. 9), his administrator. An account of 2 Feb. 1802 showed distribution to widow Sally Lankford and his three children: Polly Lankford, Stephen and John Lankford (Som. Accts. EB24:154, 155), the sons placed under the guardianship of their uncle William Lankford. Children:

- i. Mary (Polly), b. c1790; mar. Thomas M. TULL (p. 434, No. 9).
- ii. Stephen M[arshall?], b. c1792; d. Som. Co. by 13 Feb. 1821; in his will, dated 6 Nov. 1820, he bequeathed property to sister Mary Tull [very recently widowed], if she should marry George Hale, to brother John A. Lankford (executor) and the children of his mother by Thomas Davis, her last husband.
- iii. John Adams, b. c1794; d. June 1838.

12 JOHN PUSEY LANFORD (c1792-1839); mar. his cousin Nancy Hitch Lankford, who d. before 1839. Accounts were filed on his estate by administrators Aaron C. Lankford (his brother) and Samuel J. Porter and wife; distribution was to his children: Samuel J. Porter was appointed guardian to the two sons (Som. Orphan Court Proceedings 1839/43:43). Children:

- i. Sarah Ann, b. c1822; d. 23 Oct./4 Nov. 1862; mar. 1st (lic. Som. 21 May 1839) Samuel J. Porter; 2nd (lic. Som. 11 Aug. 1847) Levin M. Miller; 3rd (lic. Som. 19 Dec. 1854) Severn Handy.
- ii. John Henry, b. 19 May 1823; d. by 10 June 1854.
- iii. Joseph Benjamin James, b. 22 Oct. 1824; d. 24 Dec. 1872.

LAYFIELD - BOZMAN - OUTTEN FAMILIES (pp. 408-410).

7 ISAAC LAYFIELD (1740-1800). He was Captain of a company in the Snow Hill Battalion, Worc. Co. Militia in 1780, and he also signed the oath of fidelity in 1778. In his will, in addition to the bequest to minor son Thomas, he left to grandson Isaac Layfield a plantation where John Merrill lives, known as "Miller Lott"; and he made other bequests to wife Esther, to daughters Elizabeth Sneed, Catty Barrett, Nancy Layfield, to granddaughter Nancy Layfield, and to children of his deceased daughter, Mary Patterson. Witnesses were Littleton Dennis, ESAU BOSTON (31), Zadock Wheeler. All his children (born Pitts Creek, Worc. Co.):

- i. George, b. c1765; d. 1791/26 Nov. 1794.
- ii. Mary, b. c1770; d. c1795; mar. Anderson Patterson.
- iii. Elizabeth, b. c1775; mar. 1st Robert Sneed; 2nd John Taylor.
- iv. Catherine, b. c1780; mar. (1800) James BARRETT (p. 408).
- v. Nancy, b. c1782; d. c1835; mar. LEVIN HENDERSON (D1).
- vi. Thomas, b. c1784; a minor in 1800; d. before 1820.

8 JOHN OUTTEN (1660-1709). All his children (born probably at Morumsco, Somerset Co., Md.):

- i. Thomas, b. 11 Oct. 1684; d. Som. Co. by 18 Aug. 1727; mar. Sabrah Jones.
- ii. John, b. 23 May 1687; d. by 2 Mar. 1735/36.
- iii. Samuel, b. 20 Nov. 1690.
- iv. Abraham, b. c1693; d. Worc. Co. by 5 June 1747; mar. Rhoda Peale.
- v. [Daughter], b. c1695; mar. George Truitt.
- vi. Mary, b. 25 Nov. 1702; d. 27 June 1772; mar. Thomas Purnell, Sr. (1695-1769).
- vii. Hesther, b. 1709; mar. Jonathan Sturgis.

LONG FAMILY (pp. 411-416). It may be noted that between a third and a half of the Boston family is descended from the Longs.

7 DAVID LONG (1714/15-1783). Details for the families of two of his sons:

- iv. David, b. c1747; d. Worc. Co. 17 June 1778 (bond); mar. Elizabeth---, who was his executor. It was evidently his widow Elizabeth Long listed in Queponco Hundred (1783 tax list) holding "Dukesbury"; she d. Worc. Co. by 2 Sept. 1825. In her will, dated 21 July 1821 (Worc. Wills MH27:158) she named children and grandchildren:
 1. Peter, b. c1772/73; d. Worc. Co. by 16 Feb. 1803; in his will, dated 7 Jan. 1803, he made bequests to nephew Joshua Jones (of Levi), sisters Rachel Jones, Sarah Long, and mother Elizabeth Long (Worc. Wills JBR6:28).
 2. Sarah, b. 1774/75; mar. (lic. Worc. 20 May 1806) Elisha DAVIS, and had: Peter Long Davis, Elizabeth Davis; she is listed in 1850 Worc. Co. census, #385, 4th Election Dist.
 3. Rachel, b. 1779; mar. 1st (lic. Worc. 25 Dec. 1795) Levi JONES; 2nd (lic. Worc. 10 July 1821) Samuel LONG; had sons Joshua and Peter Jones; in 1850 living with sister.
- ix. Hampton, b. c1769; d. Monroe Township, Pickaway Co., Ohio, 22 Feb. 1840. On 5 Aug. 1792 he posted bond to the State of Md. to "keep the state harmless from all cost and charge that may arise by means of a certain Betsy Hargrove of Worc. Co. bearing a male bastard child," b. June 1792, begotten by the said Hampton (Hampton and Peter Long securities, Isaac Marshall witness); Hampton posted bond again 1 Dec. 1796 for another child of Betsy, b. Sept. 1796 (Hampton and Coulbourn Long securities, William Parker witness) (Worc. Deeds O:572, R:403); Hampton mar. (lic. Worc. 8 Oct. 1806) Betsy Hargrove.

8 SOLOMON LONG (1704-1772). In the distribution of his estate (Ann. Accts. 70:304) his heirs were: Solomon Long, David Long, Elizabeth (husband Joseph Ward), Mary (husband William Morgan), Sarah (husband Brittain Powell), Jane (husband John Howard), Matilda (husband Henry Corker), Rebecca (husband William Mitchell), Zadock Long (Solomon Long, guardian), and William Long (Brittain Powell, guardian). Two youngest sons:

- x. William, b. c1752; d. Som. Co. by 27 May 1777; single; mariner; in his will, signed 4 May 1777, he made bequests only to brother Zadock Long, brother-in-law John Howard, and friend James Hammond (Som. Wills EB 1:5).
- xi. Zadock, b. 7 Mar. 1756; d. in or near Princess Anne, Md. 3 Feb. 1838; from about 1790 to 1838 he kept a tavern (now the Washington Hotel) in Princess Anne. In his will he left to his son Henry K. Long "the tavern lot whereon he now resides, he to preserve the house as a tavern"; another son, Edward H. C. Long (1808-1865), a graduate of Yale 1828, was elected to the U.S. Congress, 1845.

11 DAVID LONG (c1738-1804); mar. 2nd Anne Gibbons, daughter of Thomas (d. 1801) and Polly Gibbons, b. c1770; she mar. 2nd (c1805) Edward Beauchamp. Children of David, by his second marriage:

- vi. Rosanna, b. c1794; on 11 Apr. 1809 under guardianship of Zorobabel Smullen, brother-in-law of her mother.
- vii. Samuel, b. c1796; guardian accts. were filed for him as late as Sept. 1816 by Edward Beauchamp and his wife.
- viii. Henry, b. c1798; Isaac Gibbons, his mother's brother, was appointed guardian for him 14 Feb. 1809, and guardian accounts were filed for him as late as 15 Apr. 1818.
- ix. Esther (Hetty), b. c1800; d. by 6 Mar. 1811 (guardian accts.); in care of Edward Beauchamp and his wife.

12 REBECCA LONG (c1746-1800); mar. 1st William MITCHELL (c1735-1774); 2nd (?James) HAMMOND. In May Court 1795 Rebecca Mitchell sued Joseph Matthews for defamation of character; he had accused her in 1790 of stealing pigs from James Wilson, Jr.; he admitted his guilt (Som. Jud. 1794/95:233). On 23 July 1799 Rebecca Mitchell was named with Zadock Long one of the nearest of kin to their brother Solomon Long. In her will, dated 2 Feb. 1800, she bequeathed to her Hammond sons a lot in Princess Anne Towne devised to John Done, late of Som. Co., dec'd, by Henry Jackson, dec'd, and afterwards by deed of 17 Sept. 1799 conveyed "to me" by Levin Ballard and Nehemiah King. Children by Mr. Hammond (born probably at Princess Anne):

- vii. Priscilla Purnell Hammond, b. c1778; d. Som. Co. by 4 Dec. 1798; single; in her will, signed 28 Oct. 1798, she bequeathed all her estate to her mother, Rebecca Mitchell; a witness was Ellen Long Howard (Som. Wills EB17:693).
- viii. Solomon Hammond, b. c1780; living 1800; no further record.
- ix. Benjamin Hammond, b. c1782; on 14 Oct. 1805 Benjamin Hammond of Som. Co. for $50 released to John Hammond of Som. Co. all his right in "a Lott of ground and the improvements lying and being in Princess Anne Town... being the same Lott which lately belonged to Rebecca Hammond on which John Done formerly lived" (Som. Deeds Q:64).
- x. John Hammond, b. c1784; on 20 Feb. 1810 John Hammond of Som. Co. sold to Elizabeth Bond Mitchell [his presumed niece] for $120, "part of a Tract... taken out of a tract... called Beckford... adjoining to... Princess Anne, which... belonged to a certain Rebecca Hammond... including three-fourths of the Houses upon Land and Marsh that the said John Hammond had any title to" (Som. Deeds T:337).
- xi. Samuel Hammond, b. c1786; on 1 Apr. 1806 Sam conveyed to Samuel Mullen an "undivided fourth part of a Lot... contiguous to Princess Anne Town... part of a Tract... called Beckford being the Lot... whereon John Done formerly lived, purchased by Rebecca Mitchell alias Hammond at Sheriffs Sale conveyed to her by Elizabeth Jackson, executrix of Henry Jackson, and being at the northwest corner of the said Town" (Som. Deeds Q:205).

MARSHALL FAMILY OF SOMERSET COUNTY (pp. 416-17). Mr. Leslie P. Dryden has recently contributed the following supplemental information for the early Potters.

HENRIE POTTER, b. c1574, and his wife Ann, may be the earliest known ancestors of the Potter family of Somerset Co. They were "in the London Marchant" listed in John Ward's muster of the inhabitants of Elizabeth City, Va., "beyond Hampton River being the Companys Land," in 1624/25 (between 20 Jan. and 7 Feb.), Potter's age given as 50 (Annie L. Jester, Adventures of Purse and Person, 2nd ed., 1964, p. 64). Probable son:

1 HENRY POTTER, b. c1619; d. 22 Dec. 1659/1 Mar. 1659/60. In a deposition of 8 Feb. 1652/53 Potter was aged 32 (Md. Archives 10:236). In Md. Provincial Court 11 Sept. 1647, Mr. William Whitby of Virginia demanded that one Henry Potter, his servant, who had fled from his service out of Virginia "into this province" be returned to him. Potter admitted the truth of the charge, but he apparently borrowed money to buy his freedom (ibid. 4:327, 329). On 22 Mar. 1652 Hugh Lee sued Potter because Lee had to pay damages to Wilby [Whitby] of Virginia since Lee gave the defendant a passage from Va. to Md., the defendant claiming he was a freeman while really being a servant. Potter claimed that Lee knew he was a servant and hired him as a servant after he came to Md. (ibid. 10:237). On 22 Jan. 1652/53, in another suit against Potter and his wife by William Cole, the hearing was postponed until the next court since "defendant's wife lyeth in childbirth" (ibid. 10:229). Potter gave a cow to his wife Elizabeth Potter 27 Oct. 1653, another to his daughter Audry 28 Oct. (ibid. 10:299).

Henry Potter's will, dated 22 Dec. 1659/60, was not proved until 23 June 1662. Since Elizabeth Potter was a widow 1 Mar. 1659/60, it apparently took over two years to get the will to probate; she had married William Greene by 16 Jan. 1660/61. On 11 Oct. 1661 Elizabeth Greene petitioned the court on behalf of the orphans of Henry Potter. On 14 Feb. 1661/62 Mark Pheybo petitioned the court that he had been named overseer of Adrige [Audrey, Adria] Potter, daughter of Henry Potter, by her father's will, and asked that she and her property be turned over to him. On 14 Apr. 1663 John Williams assigned to Elizabeth Greene his interest and right of Elizabeth Holbrooke in assignment for certain crops for use and profit of Christian Potter (ibid. 49:7). In return, Elizabeth Greene assigned a yearling heifer to Williams. On 10 Sept. 1663 George Marshall, "being marryed to the Daughter of Henry Potter," petitioned that he had an interest in servants who made a crop with William Green and James Woosey in 1662 and, having disposed of part of the tobacco to satisfy William Green's debts, William Green stands indebted to him (ibid. 49:73).

In her will Elizabeth Green bequeathed to son John Greene "Dutchman's Parke"; to son John and grandchild Adrian Marshall (under 21) "my pewter and brass"; to Edward Chester, "for making my will, to live this year upon ye plantation of George Marshall rent free." She named grandchild Thomas Potter, daughter-in-law Else, also Adry Dixon and the children of Thomas Dixon and Henry Potter. If Dixon and Potter will not take the boy [Adryan] to bring him "up to learning," then "I bequeath ye boy to Richard Allwood" (Ann. Wills 4:11).

3 ADRIAN MARSHALL (c1665-1716/17); he was living 13 Sept. 1716 when he witnessed a bond among his wife's brothers to divide their inherited land (see p. 412, No. 3), but he died before his wife made her will seven months later, 12 Mar. 1716/17. Three children:

- i. George, b. c1702/3; d. by 2 Oct. 1760; in several depositions he stated his age: 36 on 26 Aug. 1740, 39 on 3 July 1742, 42 on 18 Nov. 1745, 53 on 31 May 1755, 53 on 11 Aug. 1755 (Som. Jud. 1740/42:43, 1742/44:152, 1744/47:97, 1754/57:114, 136). In 1723 he was in the household of his half-brother Isaac Boston, Pocomoke Hundred, and head of his own household in that hundred in 1728, then Annesmessex Hundred 1751-54, and Pocomoke Hundred again 1756-59.
- ii. Samuel, b. c1704; d. c1755; in two depositions he gave his age: 48 on 28 June 1753, 56 in 1759 (Som. Jud. 1752/54:127, 1760/63:37). In 1723/24 he was in the household of his uncle Randall Long, Annesmessex Hundred, in 1725 and 1727 that of his half-brother Isaac Boston, Pocomoke Hundred. He was head of his own household in Pocomoke Hundred 1730-35, Annesmessex Hundred 1738-54.
- iii. Thomas, b. c1712/13; d. by 20 June 1786; see No. 4, p. 417.

MARSHALL FAMILY OF VIRGINIA (p. 417). This pedigree has been worked out by Dr. William R. Bishop, Jr., of Reading, Pa.

5 JOHN MARSHALL settled in Northampton Co., Va. He is probably the John Marshall who was a headright for John Wilkes 18 May 1640 (Fleet, Va. Colonial Abstracts, XXXII:94). His son:

6 THOMAS MARSHALL, b. c1642; d. Northampton Co., Va. 1704; mar. Mary---. In 1664 he purchased part of a tract on Chesapeake Bay, on a neck of land between the Bay and Nassawadox Creek, near present Jamesville (Whitelaw, p. 527); in 1676 he purchased another tract nearby. All his land he left to his son:

7 JOHN MARSHALL, b. c1665; d. Northampton Co. 1720; mar. Sarah---. He enlarged his holdings, purchasing 100 acres more of the Bayside tract in 1710, and other land (Whitelaw, p. 527), all of which he left to his son:

8 THOMAS MARSHALL, b. c1690; d. Northampton Co. 1761; mar. Patience---, whod. 1768. He purchased additional land, east of Machipongo, which he left to son Esme. In 1757 he gave 100 acres to each of his sons, Esme and Thomas J. Marshall, and in his will he bequeathed the balance to them. Three children:

- i. Esme, b. c1720; d. 1769; see No. 9 below.
- ii. Thomas John, b. c1722; d. Dorchester Co., Md. 1773.
- iii. Patience, mar. William ALLEN, who in his will, dated 1 Aug. 1790 (prob. 17 July 1792), among many bequests to relatives and friends, left to Thomas Marshall, son of Esme, land on Pocomoke River on the road from Nassongo [Nassawango] to Dividing Creek (Worc. Wills JW18:49).

9 ESME MARSHALL, b. Northampton Co., Va. c1720; d. Worc. Co., Md. 1769; mar. Mary Nairne, daughter of Robert Nairne (d. 1764) and his wife, Janet Watts. In 1767 Esme and wife Mary of Worc. Co. sold the 269 acres he had inherited in Northampton Co., Va. (Whitelaw, p. 528). One son:

- i. William Allen, b. 28 Mar. 1759; d. 23 Oct. 1816, whose family is to be found on p. 417, column 1.

MERRILL FAMILY (pp. 417-18): No. 6. JOSHUA MERRILL (c1695-1767). In the original edition, evidence seemed to have distinguished two men named Joshua Merrill, father and son, but an examination of Somerset Co. tax lists of the 1720's and 1730's shows only one. In 1734 he was in the household of John Dennis, Jr. He was head of his own household in Pocomoke Hundred from 1735 to 1740, after which he no longer appears because he was in the area absorbed by Worc. Co., created in 1742, but from 1735 to 1750 he was constable in charge of Pocomoke Hundred, and as such, responsible for compiling the tax lists. If there were a Joshua, Jr., one might expect him to appear at least in the 1740 Som. Co. tax list, even if he were born as late as 1724. It is clear that Joshua Merrill was in Somerset Co. in 1723 and 1727. Except for the land he fell heir to by the death of his brother Argalus, which he sold in 1727, he owned no land until 1739. During the years 1723-31, and 1731-34 he may have moved about considerably in other jurisdictions, or he may have lived just across the state line in Accomack Co., where his brothers William and Esau resided.

The identification of two men named Joshua Merrill was based on the Coventry Parish record of the death of a Joshua Merrill on 14 Apr. 1766, and the will of a Joshua Merrill the next year, dated 9 Apr. 1767, proved 25 Apr. 1767. It seems a curious coincidence that the death of one Joshua should fall just between the dates of another Joshua's will, but a year earlier. If there were an error in the year in the parish registry, as is not unlikely, then the actual date of Joshua's death (14 Apr. 1767) would fit neatly between the signing and the proving of his will. The death record is entered at the end of a disordered series of dates, without regard to family groupings, as elsewhere in the Coventry registry: 1765 (death), 1772 (birth), 1773 and 1770 (marriages), 1771 and 1773 (births), 1771 and 1760 (deaths) - and followed by a 3 Oct. 1767 marriage, as if entries had been made haphazardly some time after the events.

Joshua Merrill evidently married twice, both wives named Mary. He married Mary Pryor between Nov. 1719 (when as a single lady with her mother she purchased land) and Aug. 1723, when she and Joshua witnessed the will of John Henderson, Sr. She was still living 9 Jan. 1743/44 when "Joshua Merrill and Mary his wife," as subscribing witnesses, appeared at probate of that will, but she must have died shortly thereafter, for she would have been much too old to be the Mary Merrill who died 1790, the mother of his children.

In addition to land acquisitions alluded to on p. 418, on 29 Mar. 1753 Joshua Merrill, planter, bought from Robert Lamberson for £38.5, 63 acres, "Long Trused," on the south side of Pocomoke River and on the north side of Baker's Mill dam, which "issueth out of Pitts Creek" (Worc. Deeds C:1). On 7 Feb. 1765 he bought from JACOB BOSTON (17) 19 acres of "Boston's Hardship," 9 acres of which Joshua's son William on 3 July 1788 sold to JACOB BOSTON (32). Children of Joshua Merrill and his second wife Mary:

- i. Sarah (Sally), b. c1748; mar. Littleton Long.
- ii. Elizabeth, b. 15 June 1750 (Coventry); mar. Thomas TULL (p. 434, No. 7).
- iii. William, b. c1752; d. Worc. Co. by 15 Dec. 1796 (bond).
- iv. Nancy, b. 1 July 1754 (Coventry); mar. William Wood.
- v. Leah, b. c1756; mar. ESAU BOSTON (31).
- vi. Eleanor (Nelly), b. c1758; mar. Handy Tull.
- vii. Joshua, b. c1760; d. before 1790; no children; he is probably the Joshua Merrill who served in the 1st Battalion of Md. Loyalists with the British Army during the American Revolution, as a private in Capt. Grafton Dulany's Co. and Capt. Caleb Jones's Co., and as a sergeant in Capt. Patrick Kennedy's Co.
- viii. Ann, b. c1762; mar. --- Adams.
- ix. Mary, b. c1767; mar. --- Layfield.

MINSHALL (MITCHELL) FAMILY (pp. 420-22): WALLER.

12 JOHN WALLER, by family tradition possibly a brother of English poet Edmund Waller (1606-87), b. ? England c1617; d. Som. Co., Md. July 1667; mar. (Acco. Co., Va. c1660) Alice Major. Her brother, John Major of Accomack Co., in his will, dated 6 May 1664 (prob. 18 July 1664) bequeathed to "cosson" [nephew] William Waller, son of William, a mare colt; his plantation "to be equally divided betwixt Richard Johnson and William Waller my mother living upon ye said plantation so long as she doth live in ye condition she is in" (Nottingham, p. 1). In 1665 Waller moved to Som. Co., Md., where on 27 Nov. 1666 he was appointed one of the surveyors of newly established Som. Co. "for ye highways & to proceed to ye making a highway according to Act of Assembly." He was dead by 30 July 1667, when John Paynter was named surveyor to replace Waller, deceased. Son: William (below).

13 WILLIAM WALLER (1661-1713/14); mar. Bridget Nelson. Complete list of their eleven children: (1) Elizabeth, b. 14 Nov. 1689; (2) Alice, b. --- 13, 1692; (3) John, b. c1694; (4) Thomas, b. 20 Feb. 1696/7; d. Som. Co. 1767; (5) Jane Ann, b. 22 Sept. 1698; (6) William, Jr., b. 6 Mar. 1700/1; d. Som. Co. by 31 Jan. 1741/2; (7) Major, b. c1702; d. Som. Co. 1748/9; (8) George, b. 26 July 1704; (9) Nathaniel, b. 1707; (10) Nelson, b. c1709; and

- xi. Bridget, b. c1712; mar. (c1734) Isaac MITCHELL (p. 420).

PARKER - SEWARD - TOMLINSON FAMILIES (pp. 422-23).

4 MARGARET PARKER (b. c1663); mar. Josias SEAWARD (SEWARD) (c1648-1690). On 5 Nov. 1677 Josias Seward with Walter Lane, both of Som. Co., Md., bought 300 acres, "Winter Quarter," from William Stevens, to whom it had been granted, and on 11 Oct. 1680 Seward and wife Margaret with Lane deeded it to John Parker of Mattapany, Accomack Co., for 7000 pounds of tobacco (Som. Deeds 6:393). In Seward's will residuary legatees to his land were daughters Phebe, Elizabeth, Margaret, to be of age at 14, each bequeathed a negro. His only land not left to daughter Abigail was 100 acres "which I bequeath to John Parker of Mattapany," Abigail was to be of age at 12 and to be in care of "my brother George Parker" to be educated and brought up by him. The sloop called Kingale was not to be sold as long as testator's brother, George Seaward, will sail in her, "he being to have for the third part of her hire, he keeping the hull of the said sloop in repair; when he shall refuse to sail in the sloop any longer, then it shall be sold" and the proceeds divided among the children. To brother George he left one shallop called the Flyeing Hound, his chest, wearing apparel, one horse, and all printed books except a French Bible "which must remain with---? for the use of any person that shall frequent the same." The remaining personal estate was left to his wife and children equally. His brother George Seaward and Walter Lane were appointed executors. Witnesses were Joseph Robinson, Henry Hudson, Donack Dennis.

PAYNE FAMILY (pp. 423-25).

2 JOHN PAYNE, b. Som. Co., Md. c1695; d. Worc. Co., Md. by 5 May 1744. Children:

- i. Moses, b. c1719; d. by 23 May 1794.
- ii. Isaac, b. c1721; d. Worc. Co. by 22 May 1766 (inventory); mar. Rhoda Patrick, daughter of Matthew Patrick (Worc. Deeds B:160). On 5 Jan. 1753 Isaac Pain, tailor, sold to Joseph Benston of Accomack Co., Va. 125 acres of "Poor Hall"; on 3 June 1754, with wife Rhoda, he sold to Benston 155 acres more of "Poor Hall" (Worc. Deeds G:23, 238). In the inventory of his estate nearest of kin were John and Jacob Payne (Ann. Inv. 108:244). Two of his sons may be John and Thomas, for a John Payne of the Island of Antigua in 1774 gave power of attorney to Thomas Payne and Peter Waters of Som. Co. to collect debts owing to him (Som. Deeds 27:236).
- iii. Jemima, b. c1723; living 1772; mar. Ezekiel Dubberly.
- iv. John, b. c1725; d. 18 Mar./2 May 1777.
- v. Jacob, b. c1727; d. by 13 Aug. 1773.
- vi. Elizabeth, b. c1729; mar. ?Richard? Conner.
- vii. Sarah, b. c1731; mar. --- Roley (Rowley?).

PORTER - ARDIS FAMILY (pp. 425-26). John C. Porter (1793-1832, p. 423, No. 1) appears to be descended from the DENNIS family. Information was provided by Mr. Leslie P. Dryden.

3 HUGH PORTER, b. c1660; d. Som. Co. by 23 Aug. 1717; mar. 1st (Som. Co. 6 Nov. 1688) Mary [name missing from record]; 2nd (by 1696) Katherine Dennis, daughter of Donnock DENNIS (see p. 376), b. c1675. In his will, signed 28 May 1709 (prob. 23 Aug. 1717) Porter named wife Katherine, children Hugh, Rachel, William, Joshua, Francis, and Elizabeth; a witness was Donnack Dennis (Ann. Wills 14:576). But eight years elapsed between the making of his will and his death, and in that time his wife bore him at least two more children. Six of his nine children:

- i. John, b. 7 Aug. 1689; d. by 1709.
- ii. Elizabeth, b. 8 July 1691.
- iii. Hugh, Jr., b. ?c1693; d. 1732; in his will he named not only wife and children, but also brothers Francis, William, Joshua, Jonathan, and McKemie Porter (Ann. Wills 20:524).
- iv. Francis, b. c1706/7; he was listed in the household of Jacob Adams 1723-1725; beginning in 1730 he was head of his own household in Pocomoke Hundred. With him 1730-36 was McKemmy Porter.
- v. Makemie, b. c1709/10; d. by 6 Aug. 1751; see No. 4 below.
- vi. Jonathan, b. c1717/18.

4 MAKEMIE PORTER (also spelled in records McKimney, McCimney, McKimie, McClemy), son of Hugh and Katherine (Dennis) Porter, b. c1709/10; d. Worc. Co. by 6 Aug. 1751 (bond), Betty Porter administrator. His birth can be fixed in 1709/10, for though he appears first in the 1730 tax list in the household of his brother Francis, the 1726, 1727, and 1729 tax lists are missing, and Francis was overlooked in 1728. Makemie appeared last in the Som. Co. tax lists in 1740, in Pocomoke Hundred, in that section which in 1742 was incorporated into Worc. Co. In his household in 1738/40 was James Tull. Makemie Porter appears to be father of:

- i. Matthew, b. c1730/31; d. by 1 Nov. 1793; see No. 5 below.

5 MATTHEW PORTER, presumed son of Makemie Porter (4), b. Som. Co. c1730/31; d. Pitts Creek, Worc. Co., Md. by 1 Nov. 1793; mar. (Coventry Church, Rehobeth, 8 Jan. 1752) Mary Viridian. He appears in Pitts Creek Hundred in the 1783 tax list. As a young man, in 1749-54, he was in the Som. Co. tax lists in Pocomoke Hundred in the household of Noble Tull, brother of the James Tull who was in Matthew's presumed father's household 1738-40. In his will, dated 25 Feb. 1790, he named wife Mary, sons James (to have plantation), Mekemy (executor), and William; daughters Elizabeth, Mary, and Sarah; and grandsons Levin Payne and James Payne; witnesses were Daniel and Elisha Jones, Levy Ellis; McKemmy Porter appeared at the time of probate, 1 Nov. 1793 (Worc. Wills JW 18:138-39). Four of the children (bapt. Coventry):

- i. Makemie, b. 13 July 1753.
- ii. Catty, b. 10 Apr. 1756; apparently d. young.
- iii. Betty, b. 23 Apr. 1758.
- iv. James, b. c1760; d. bh 12 Aug. 1812; see No. 6 below.

6 JAMES PORTER, son of Matthew (5), b. Worc. Co. c1760; d. Pitts Creek, Worc. Co. by 12 Aug. 1812; mar. Sarah [?Davis]. In his will, signed 18 Mar. 1812, he bequeathed to son Levin his plantation, named sons William, Makemey, James, Elijah, and John, and brother Mackemey Porter, executor. Witnesses were Arthur

Whealton, and John and James Davis (Worc. Wills MH4:341-42). Presumed son John C. Porter is listed in the 1830 census in Pitts Creek Hundred, his widow Henrietta in the Southern District of Worc. Co. in 1840. One son:

- i. John C., b. 8 Nov. 1793; d. 9 Dec. 1832; see No. 1 on p. 425.

POWELL FAMILIES (p. 427).

2 ZADOCK POWELL (1781-1856); mar. 1st Sarah Massey; 2nd Nancy Starling. Children, first nine by first marriage:

- i. Laphious M., b. 22 Oct. 1807; d. 27 Apr. 1855; buried Snow Hill Meth. Cemetery.
- ii. Drusilla M., b. 22 June 1809.
- iii. Mary (Molly), b. 13 Aug. 1811; mar. William A. Blades.
- iv. Alexander M., b. 13 Oct. 1813; d. 25 Jan. 1814.
- v. Cumfort H., b. 16 Feb. 1815; mar. Thomas Clayvill.
- vi. Sarah M. A., b. 20 Apr. 1818.
- vii. Nancy, b. 21 Dec. 1820; d. 1826.
- viii. Ambrus [Ambrose?] K., b. 21 Sept. 1823.
- ix. Kendall M., b. 21 Sept. 1827; d. 10 Dec. 1871; bur. Snow Hill Meth. Cemetery; not in Bible, but listed with father in 1850.
- x. Clindest, b. 14 June 1831 (must be Eleanor of 1850 census).
- xi. Rachel, b. 17 Nov. 1834; d. 16 Jan. 1919; mar. James H. Trader.
- xii. William Zadock, b. 16 Oct. 1836; d. 2 Mar. 1922; mar. MARGARET ELIZABETH JACKSON (386d).
- xiii. John, b. 1838/39 (not in Bible).
- xiv. James, b. c1839 (not in Bible).

TILGHMAN (TILLMAN) FAMILY (pp. 432-33).

5 GIDEON TILLMAN (TILGHMAN) (c1644-1720). Probably in 1673 Gideon Tillman lived in Sussex Co., Del., for in a deposition of about 1740 concerning the boundary line between Maryland and Delaware, Tillman's son, Gideon, Jr., aged 57, related that his father told him that he (Gideon, Sr.) lived with Col. Francis Jenkins upon Whorekill Creek, and that the present site of Lewes Town was formerly called Whorekill Town. Every house at the Whorekill was burned by a Capt. Howell to prevent the Dutch from taking the area, for the Dutch had recently captured New York "or some other." [In the third and last conflict between Dutch and English, the Dutch had recaptured New York on 8 Aug. 1673, but peace was restored the next year.] He heard his father say that he helped carry the chain for Jenkins to survey several tracts under Lord Baltimore near Whorekill Town. Col. Jenkins and his father sent their wives to Somerset Co. before the burning for fear of the Dutch, and after the burning Jenkins and Tillman themselves returned to Som. Co. (Penn. Archives, 2nd Series, 16:693). Perhaps the father's memory was somewhat faulty, for he was not married until 1682, unless he had contracted an earlier unrecorded marriage.

6 AARON TILLMAN, b. Manokin, Som. Co. c1697; d. Som. Co. by 25 Nov. 1763; mar. 1st Mary Gibbons; 2nd Margaret Catherine Hull (according to Tillman). John Gibbons (d. 1735) bequeathed 150 acres to Mary, wife of Aaron Tillman, identified as Gibbons' son-in-law, named executor (Som. Wills EB9:181). On 22 Mar. 1750 Aaron Tillman deeded to his son Elisha "for love and affection and 5 shillings" "Tillman's Adventure" (plantation whereon Moses Tillman formerly lived), 180 acres (Som. Deeds 21:87). Aaron was still alive 15 Aug. 1761 when he made a deposition concerning boundaries of "Gideon's Luck" (Som. Jud. 1760/63:117). His estate was administered by Catharine Tilghman, 22 Dec. 1764 (Ann. Accts. 52:180, Ann. Balance Bk., 4:94). Children (born probably at Manokin, Som. Co., Md.):

- i. Anne, b. c1729; mar. William Beauchamp.
- ii. Elizabeth, b. c1731; d. c1807; mar. (Coventry, 16 Dec. 1750) Benjamin COULBOURN (p. 373).
- iii. Elisha, b. c1733; to Dobbs Co., N.C. On 25 Nov. 1763 Elisha Tilghman for £40 deeded to Aaron Tilghman all right to "Tilghman's Adventure" and other lands which came to him as eldest son and heir-at-law of his deceased father, except for two tracts, one purchased by his father from Benjamin Tilghman, the other called "Hog Yard" (Som. Deeds 24:198).
- iv. Aaron, Jr., b. c1735; d. Som. Co. by 8 June 1779; single; he bequeathed to his brothers Elisha and John all his interest in lands in Dobbs Co., N.C., and also named brother Elijah, sisters Anne, wife of William Beauchamp, Peggy, wife of David Adams, Betty, wife of Benjamin Coulbourn, and Sarah, wife of Isaac Marshall (Som. Wills EB1:126).

- v. Elijah, b. c1737; d. by 1790; on 22 Mar. 1764 Elijah Tilghman, mariner, deeded to Aaron Tilghman, mariner, his brother, for 10 shillings, the tract lately surveyed by Aaron Tilghman, deceased, father of said Elijah and Aaron, "Tilghman's Adventure," etc. (Som. Deeds 24:200).
- vi. John, b. c1739; to Dobbs Co., N.C.
- vii. Margaret, b. c1741; mar. (Coventry, 20 Feb. 1766) David Adams.
- viii. Sarah, b. c1743; mar. (Coventry, 17 Feb. 1766) Isaac Marshall.

7 JOSEPH TILGHMAN (1699/1700-1767). In his will, signed 29 Sept. 1763, he devised to eldest son Isaiah "Beans Hall" (100 acres), "Amity" (196 acres); to son Joseph (under 21), plantation "where I now live" called "Thomson's Adventure" (50 acres), also "Joseph's Folly" (66 acres); to son William (under 21), "Matthews Ridge" (60 acres) and "Sapling Ridge" (19 acres); and he named daughters Margaret, wife of James Hayman, Elizabeth, Mary, and Sarah Tilghman; son Isaiah was named executor; James Funniss was a witness (Som. Wills EB4:125-26). Children (born probably Manokin, Somerset Co., Md.):

- i. Isaiah, b. 1726; d. Som. Co. by 12 Oct. 1802 (Som. Wills EB23:53-55); in 1756 he witnessed the will of Jean Lister; most of the land bequeathed to his son was purchased by JAMES BOSTON (68).
- ii. Margaret, b. c1728; mar. James Harris Hayman.
- iii. John, b. c1730; d. young.
- iv. Elizabeth, b. c1735; d. by 25 June 1791 (Som. Accts EB16:463); mar. Mr. Phillips; distribution of her estate was made to the brothers and sisters named here, except John and Mary.
- v. Mary, b. c1738; d. by 1791.
- vi. Sarah, b. c1741; mar. --- Hayman.
- vii. Joseph, Jr., b. c1746; d. by 25 Apr. 1816; see No. 8 below.
- viii. William, b. c1748; d. 19/27 May 1806 (Som. Wills EB23:101).

8 JOSEPH TILGHMAN, [JR.] (c1746-1816); mar. (1785) Nancy Harris Broughton, daughter of John and Mary (Perkins) Broughton, b. 7 Oct. 1763 (Coventry); d. 15 Jan. 1844. In the estate of John Broughton, dec'd, Joseph Tilghman, executor, a payment to Nancy Harris Tilghman was recorded, retained by accountant (executor) in right of his wife (Som. Accts. EB16:532). He served in the Md. Militia in the American Revolution. In his will, signed 21 Mar. 1814, he named wife Nancy H., and children Josiah B., Amelia, James, and Esther Tilghman (Som. Wills EB23:241). Though Matilda was not named among his children, she is identified as a daughter by Mr. Tillman. Daughter:

- i. Matilda, b. 4 Jan. 1790; d. 1850/60; mar. John S. DRYDEN (p. 384, No. 15).

TULL FAMILY (pp. 433-34).

1 THOMAS TULL (c1640-1720); mar. Mary Minshall (c1651-c1685). On 5 May 1679 William Waters of Accomack Co., Va., "for good cause me hereunto moving," deeded to Thomas Tull 150 acres, part of the tract "Waters River," on the upper Great Annesmessex River at the junction of Sewancy or Tull's Creek, and extending along the northern shore of the creek, Thomas Tull "being now settled upon the same land" located on the branch "that parts my dividend of land and the land where Richard Tull now dwelleth." Waters appointed his "well-beloved kinsman Charles Hall" to acknowledge the "deed of gift" (Som. Deeds 6:480). Thomas later divided the tract among his three sons: to John, 6 Dec. 1697, to eldest son Thomas, 5 Mar. 1697/8, and to Richard, 7 Mar. 1700 (Som. Deeds 7:441, 453, 588). In 1688 Thomas patented 200 acres "Winter Range," on the north shore of the Great Annesmessex. He bequeathed 50 acres of this to his son John, the remainder to his wife's son, William Cox, but for some reason it passed to Thomas Tull (Jr.).

2 THOMAS TULL [II], JR. (1668-1720), son of Thomas (1); mar. Sarah Handy (1681-1728). On 11 June 1720 the widow Sarah Tull bought from brother-in-law John Tull and wife Esther 37 1/2 acres of "Hopewell" (Som. Deeds 14:63). In her will she left this land to her son Thomas (No. 4 below).

3 JOHN TULL (1674-1729), son of Thomas (1); mar. Esther Costen (1685-1770). On 11 Jan. 1702 John Tull purchased from Thomas and Ruth Walston 154 acres, part of "Desert," now called "Purchase" (Som. Deeds 7:703). On 16 Oct. 1703 he sold to John Waters the 50 acres of "Waters River" given to him by his father, Thomas Tull (1 above) (Som. Deeds 8:65). On 4 Mar. 1714 he bought

75 acres "Hopewell," on the south side of the Manokin River, from William Fassett (Som. Deeds 11:226); on 11 June 1720 he and wife Esther sold half this tract to Sarah Tull (2 above). On 1 June 1714 John Tull purchased 50 acres "Meadow" from William Catlin (Som. Deeds 11:130). On 19 Nov. 1729 from his nephew Thomas (4 below) John bought 150 acres "Winter Range," and on the same date he purchased from John Harris and wife Rebecca "Harrisons Adventure," part of "Bear Point" (Som. Deeds 17:202). In his will he left this land, "adjacent John Harris," to son John. To son Joshua he bequeathed dwelling plantation, being part of "Desart," also the rest of his lands and marshes lying in Annesmessex and Manokin, on condition that Joshua pay to John's sons Richard and Stephen each £10 at age 21. Children (born Manokin

- i. John, b. c1708; d. Som. Co. by 13 June 1780. He was with his father in 1724-27 (tax lists) in Manokin Hundred, then 1730-59 head of his own household in Pocomoke Hundred. In his will, dated 27 Apr. 1780, he named daughters Mary Gray (joint executor) to have part of "Becan Point," lying between the great ditch and county road; Rhoda Hall ("Bear Point," "Baltimore"); Sarah Tull (joint executor, to have part of "Becan Point"); Esther Tull; also daughter Martha Warwick's youngest child, and Elijah Hall (Som. Wills EB1:136).
- ii. Joshua, b. c1712/13; d. by 16 Oct. 1798; see No. 5 below.
- iii. Mary, b. c1714/15; mar. William Wharton.
- iv. Richard, b. c1715/16; d. Som. Co. by 3 June 1749; no issue in will, dated 25 Mar. 1748/49, named mother Esther Tull, brother Stephen Tull (Som. Wills EB14:25).
- v. Stephen, b. 1717/18; d. by 31 Mar. 1795; see No. 6 below.
- vi. Esther, b. c1719; mar. --- Beauchamp.

4 THOMAS TULL [III] (c1704-1758), son of Thomas (2); mar. Rachel---(c1715-1760). On 19 Nov. 1729 Thomas Tull sold to John Tull [his uncle, No. 3 above] the 150 acres "Winter Range" he had inherited; he was described as grandson and heir-at-law to Thomas Tull (1 above) to whom the land had been granted (Som. Deeds 17:204).

According to 1735 Som. Co. debt books Thomas Tull held 100 (rightly 50) acres "Waters River," 37 1/2 acres "Meadow" (part of "Hopewell"). On 3 Aug. 1783, with wife Rachel consenting, he sold to William Waters the 50 acres of "Waters River" given to his father by his grandfather (Som. Deeds 20:85). On 4 Sept. 174 Charles Cottingham and wife Anne conveyed to Thomas Tull, planter, 189 acres, "Boston" and "Goshen," now called the "Exchange" (Som. Deeds 21:28). On 11 Feb. 1744, as son and heir-at-law of Sarah Tull, he sold "Hopewell" to David Wilson (Som. Deeds 21:139). The 1745 debt books show that he owned 100 acres, "Creedwell," 89 acres of "Boston," and 100 acres of "Goshen," a tract at the mouth of Planner's Creek. In 1749 he patented 24 acres of "Troublesome." An examination of plat maps drawn by the late Harry L. Benson of the tracts in lower Somerset Co. reveals that "Troublesome," on Ease or Planner's Creek, was the approximate site of the present Tull's Corner.

5 JOSHUA TULL THE ELDER (c1712/13-1798), son of John (3). Joshua is shown in 1783 (tax list) in Great Annesmessex Hundred, with lands "Desert," "Tulls Purchase" (154 acres), "Winter Range" (200 acres), "Meadow" (50), "Hopewell" (34 acres), "Addition" (70). Joshua patented "Tulls Addition" (95 acres) in 1790. On 20 Oct. 1794 Joshua Tull, Sr., deeded to his son Thomas Tull (8 below) "Meadow" (50 acres), "Desert" (154 acres), the marsh "Winter Quarter" (150 acres) and the marsh "Hopewell" (37 1/2 acres), all the tracts left to the said Joshua by his father John Tull, also "Tulls Addition," granted to Joshua by patent of resurvey on "Addition" (95 acres) (Som. Deeds 31:37). Children (born Somerset Co., probably at Manokin):

- i. Thomas, b. c1749; d. 9 Jan./5 Mar. 1811; see No. 8 below.
- ii. Esther, b. c fall 1753; mar. Charles Hall. In the account of her grandmother Esther Tull's (No. 3) estate of 16 July 17 (Som. Accts. Box 5, f. 34), the legacy to her granddaughter, Esther Tull (daughter of Stephen), who was under age, is shown as "secured to Esther Tull," "legacy left by decease to Esther Tull and delivered to Charles Hall in right of his wife."
- iii. ? Joshua, b. 30 Apr. 1755; d. Baltimore, 11 Feb. 1840.

6 STEPHEN TULL (1717/18-1795), son of John (3); mar. Sarah Hall, b. 15 May 1725; d. Som. Co. 12 Jan. 1812. On 18 Nov. 1747 Edward Harper of Worc. Co. deeded to Stephen Tull 36 acres, "Providence," adjoining "Harrisons Adventure" (Som. Deeds 21:

288). Stephen patented in 1753 111 acres, "Chance"; in 1749, 119 acres, "Knights Purchase"; in 1760, 212 1/2 acres, "Tulls Addition." In the debt books he is shown owning "Providence," 36 acres, 1759-64; "Chance," 50 acres, 1759; 11 acres, 1761; "Knight's Purchase," 119 acres in 1764; "Tulls Addition," 212 acres, 1768-74. The tax collector in 1783 appears to have overlooked Stephen, who should have been listed in Pocomoke Hundred. In his will, dated 12 Nov. 1794, Stephen Tull bequeathed to wife Sarah all his lands and personal estate during her life; to daughter Sarah, all lands after her mother's death; to grandson Tubman Harris, a desk, a hand mill, and a shooting gun; to James Furniss £20 after "my wife's decease"; to daughter Esther Maddox, a negro; Isaac Harris was to be executor (Som. Wills EB17:381).

On 5 Sept. 1737 John Fleming and wife Eliza Ann of Worc. Co., Burton Cannon and wife Matilda C., George W. Powell and wife Nancy T., William Furniss and wife Leah H., and George S. Harris and wife Elizabeth A., all of Som. Co., conveyed to Samuel S. Coston, for $928.57, all the lands they are entitled to by heirship from Sally Harris, dec'd, daughter of Stephen Tull; Sally Harris by the will of her father was entitled to "Chance," "Knights Purchase," and "Tulls Addition," 212 1/2 acres (Som. Deeds 59:209). Stephen Tull's children, all but apparently three of whom died young, were baptised at Coventry: (1) Priscilla, b. 4 Jan. 1750/51; ? mar. James Furniss; (2) Richard, b. 4 Feb. 1752/3; d. young; (3) James, b. 19 Apr. 1754; d. young; (4) Esther, b. 12 Sept. 1757; mar. Zorababel Maddox; (5) Levi, b. 14 Dec. 1760; d. young; (6) Betty, b. 6 July 1765; ? d. young; and

i. Sarah, b. 25 Mar. 1769; d. 14 Dec. 1818; mar. Isaac HARRIS (p. 398, No. 4).

7 THOMAS TULL [IV], JR. (1739-1818), son of Thomas (4); mar. Elizabeth Merrill. On 24 Mar. 1760 Thomas Tull, Jr., joiner, deeded to William Tull, planter, for £45, "Exchange," 181 acres, being part of "Boston" and part of "Goshen," conveyed by Charles Cottingham to Thomas Tull (4), deceased, father of William and Thomas Tull, the two parties to the deed, and also "Troublesome," 24 acres, but on 29 Jan. 1765, William Tull, of Annesmessex, planter, deeded back to Thomas Tull, joiner, 189 acres "Exchange," part of "Boston" and "Goshen," and "Troublesome," 24 acres (Som. Deeds 24:43, 262). On 26 Mar. 1772 John Cottingham, planter, conveyed to Thomas Tull, carpenter, 23 acres of "Boston" (Som. Deeds 26:179). In the 1783 tax list Thomas appears in Great Annesmessex Hundred owning "Chance" (120 1/2 acres), "Boston" (23 acres), "Partner" (46 1/2 acres), etc. In the 1798 tax list Thomas Tull, carpenter, owned "Boston" and "Chance" (152 1/2 acres), and "Troublesome" (10 acres) in Great Annesmessex Hundred. On 27 Jan. 1806 Thomas Tull, Sr. (no wife) deeded to Thomas Merrill Tull all right to "Boston," "Goshen," and "Troublesome" (Som. Deeds 37:120).

In the bequests in his will, dated 31 Dec. 1816, Thomas Tull named only four children, sons Samuel and Joshua (executor), daughters Leah and Rachel, but he also requested that the residue of his estate be divided among his six children. Witnesses were Benjamin and Elijah Conner (Som. Wills EB23:263). It would appear, however, that he had at least nine children, not merely six, though three may have died young. Children (born Tull's Corner, near the present location of Marion Station, Somerset Co., Md.):

- i. Sarah, b. 17 Feb. 1770 (Coventry).
- ii. Mary, b. 24 Mar. 1772 (Coventry).
- iii. Samuel, b. c1774; d. Som. Co. by 27 Dec. 1826.
- iv. Thomas Merrill, b. c1777; d. by 29 Nov. 1820; see No. 9 below.
- v. Ann, b. c1780; mar. (lic. Som. 31 May 1808) Littleton Long (d. 1810); Anne Long and Thomas M. Tull were executors; Samuel Tull was appointed guardian of the minor children.
- vi. Joshua Merrill, b. 14 May 1785; d. 20 Apr. 1864; mar. (lic. Som. 15 Mar. 1816) Nancy Long.
- vii. Nathan, b. c1788.
- viii. Leah, b. c1792; mar. (lic. Som. 12 Nov. 1822) Kellam Broughton.
- ix. Rachel, b. c1794; mar. (lic. Som. 11 Feb. 1823) Sampson Adams.

8 THOMAS TULL (c1749-1811), son of Joshua (5); mar. Leah. In his will, dated 9 Jan. 1811, Thomas Tull ("of Joshua") made bequests to wife Leah, dwelling house and plantation on east side of the "great Ditch"; to son John, negroes; to son William, all "my land" lying between the Annesmessex and Manokin Rivers; to both sons, "my still"; and he named grandchildren Sarah Ann Fleming and John Fleming, children of "my late daughter" Elizabeth Fleming; daughter Sarah Tull; witnesses were Charles and Samuel

Hall, William Miles (Som. Wills EB23:168). (Children on p. 434.)

9 THOMAS MERRILL TULL (c1777-1820), son of Thomas (7); mar. Mary Lankford, b. 1789/90; she was living with daughter Jane in 1850. On 15 Feb. 1799 Thomas Merrill Tull, with (presumably father) Thomas Tull, and Samuel Tull witnessed the will of William Cottingham. On 9 Feb. 1809, only three years after it was deeded to him by his father, Thomas Merrill Tull and wife Polly deeded to Joshua Tull "Boston," "Gocian," and "Troublesome," as described in deeds, also "Williams Lot," 22 1/2 acres, and land at Dam Landing, part of "Williams Lot," estimated total of 203 1/2 acres (Som. Deeds 40:140, 42:540). On 28 Oct. 1811 Benjamin and Grace Conner deeded to Thomas Merrill Tull (son named), for $210, 5 1/2 acres of "Scotland" (Som. Deeds 41:177).

In the settlement of the estate of Thomas M. Tull, Mary Tull was administrator on 7 May 1823; on 21 Sept. 1824 division was made: one-third to widow, 1/6 of 2/3 to each of the children, as listed below (Som. Accts. JP5:118, 157). On 16 Mar. 1833 Mary Tull deeded to Nathan T. Tull all her right to the land of which Thomas M. Tull died seized, parts of "Come by Chance," "Hog Quarter," "Beards Neck," "Scotland," "Pond," "Long Delight," and "Great Annesmessex" (Som. Deeds 57:8). Children (born Tull's Corner, near Marion Station, Somerset Co., Md.):

- i. Nathan Thomas, b. 1808; d. Tull's Corner 2/31 May 1864; mar. (lic. Som. 21 Mar. 1832) Emaline B. Parker. In his will, dated 2 May 1864, Nathan T. Tull named children Mary G. Tarr, Margaret J., Ann O., and Eliza V. Tull, and Nathan J. P. Tull, executor (Som. Wills SCL5:128); a witness was Samuel L. Tull. One of the daughters:
 1. Margaret Jane, b. Tull's Corner, 30 Nov. 1840; d. 1 June 1908; mar. JOHN BELL WARD (B11).
- ii. Joshua W., b. 1810; d. Som. Co. by 21 Apr. 1877; witnesses to his will were ELIJAH S. and JOHN B. WARD (B10, B11) (Som. Wills SCL5:375).
- iii. Mary.
- iv. Stephen S., b. c1814; d. Som. Co. 24 Apr. 1838 (inventory); Nathan T. Tull was administrator; distribution to mother and brothers and sisters named here (Som. Accts. JP15:131).
- v. Elizabeth A.
- vi. Jane, b. 1818/19; mar. (lic. Som. 2 Oct. 1839) Stevenson Whittington.

WARD FAMILY (pp. 434-36).

4 JOHN WARD (c1720-1793). Children of his son, EZEKIEL WARD (1751-c1825), born Little Annesmessex, Som. Co., Md.):

- i. Thomas, b. c1786; d. s.p. by 1825.
- ii. Henry, b. c1788; d. 1826; mar. (lic. Som. 2 Aug. 1808) Rachel Johnson (d. 1878).
- iii. William, b. c1790.
- iv. John, b. c1792.
- v. Betsey, b. c1805; mar. (lic. Som. 10 Mar. 1823) Whittington Johnson.
- vi. Lovey Ford, b. c1811; mar. (lic. Som. 11 Nov. 1833) Isaac Johnson (of John).

WHITE FAMILY (pp. 437-38).

2 JOHN WHITE (1685-1750); mar. 2nd (c1720) Sarah, widow of Thomas Beauchamp, who signed his will 2 Jan. 1716/17 (prob. 18 Mar. 1716/17), making bequests to sons Isaac and John Beauchamp, daughters Hannah Williams, and Sarah, Elizabeth, Margaret, and Mary Beauchamp, and his wife Sarah, named executrix, son-in-law Thomas Williams to be an overseer (Som. Wills EB9:19). Beauchamp had married first (4 Oct. 1692) Mary Turpin, who d. c1709, and by her had five surviving children:

- i. Hannah Beauchamp, b. 20 Jan. 1692/3; mar. Thomas Williams, Jr. (1685-1768; p. 439, No. 2 i).
- ii. Sarah Beauchamp, b. c1694; d. 1750; mar. Thomas Dixon (1677-1748).
- iii. Elizabeth Beauchamp, b. c1696; mar. William Dixon (1686-1751).
- iv. Mary Beauchamp, b. c1698; mar. Stephen Horsey.
- v. Isaac Beauchamp, b. c1700; d. 1777 (Som. Wills EB5:98).

By his second marriage to Sarah, Thomas Beauchamp had two surviving children:

- vi. Margaret Beauchamp, b. c1713; mar. Esau Merrill (d. 1750).
- vii. John Beauchamp, b. c1715; d. 1733/34; John appears in Som. Co. tax lists in Pocomoke Hundred, first in the household of John White in 1731 (therefore b. c1715); then in 1733 with Edward Hull; since he does not appear in 1734 he had evidently died. In June Court 1733 John Beauchamp, son of Thomas, deceased, orphan above 14 years of age, chose Edward Hull as his guardian; John White of Pocomoke was ordered to deliver up his property (Som. Jud. 1730/33:298).

On 24 Jan. 1732/33 John White filed an account on behalf of himself and Sarah his wife, who was executor of Thomas Beauchamp, deceased; the accounts mentioned payment to Esau Merrill as a legacy to his wife Margaret (Ann. Accts. 11:558). On 23 June 1737 John White, as administrator of the estate of John Beauchamp, made distribution, with payments to Isaac Beauchamp and to Esau Merrill, Thomas Williams, William Dixon, Thomas Dixon, and Stephen Horsey, each on behalf of his wife, one of the representatives, and "to this accountant as Natural Guardian" to his five children, "who are equal Representatives with those aforementioned heirs," Mary, Sarah, Henry, Rachel, Martha [White] (Ann. Accts. 14:339). One problem is that when Henry White, son of John, b. 20 July 1725, was christened at Coventry Church, presumably at the time of his marriage to Abigail Boston, to judge by the position of the event in the registry, he gave his parents' names as John and Abigail (not Sarah) White, but he was between 8 and 12 when his mother died, and he may have given his wife's name as his mother's, or the recorder may have made a clerical error.

An account of 30 Nov. 1751, recorded 9 Apr. 1752, combines the Beauchamp and White estates. Thomas Mullikin and Robert Taylor, in behalf of their wives, and Henry White were all paid their distributive shares of John Beauchamp's estate in the hands of John White, dec'd [they being half-sisters and half-brother of John Beauchamp, through their mother], and Thomas Mullikin in behalf of his wife, Henry White, Robert Taylor in behalf of his wife, John White, Molly White, and Nelly White were all paid their shares of John White's estate. John White's children were listed as Henry, Sarah, Rachel, John, Molly, and Nelly. Thomas Marshall and Hope Adams were securities for Rebecca White, administratrix of John White of Pocomoke (Ann. Accts. 32:133).

WILLIAMS AND ALLIED FAMILIES (pp. 438-41): CATLIN,

9 ROBERT CATLIN THE YOUNGER (c1652-1699); mar. 2nd Hannah. Daughter:

- i. Sarah (1688-c1721/22); mar. 1st Doggett Beauchamp; 2nd John WILLIAMS. Williams filed an account as administrator of Beauchamp's estate 20 Nov. 1719 (Ann. Accts. 1:153, 4:4). In June 1720 Blandina Bozman, executor of John Bozman, sued John Williams and Sarah his wife, administrators of Doggett Beauchamp, over a debt (Som. Deeds 14:52). Doggett and Sarah Beauchamp were parents not only of Gray Beauchamp, but also of three daughters, Hannah, Sarah, and Smith.

POLK - WILLIAMS CONNECTION (p. 441). The relationship of the Polk family of Somerset Co., Md., to President James Knox Polk has been set forth by William Harrison Polk in his book, Polk Family and Kinsmen, Louisville, Ky., 1912. Some supplemental details have been added from Burke's Presidential Families of the United States of America, London, 1975, p. 243.

10 ROBERT [BRUCE] POLLOCK (POLKE) (c1625-1703); mar. Magdalen Tasker, of Moneen, near Strabane, co. Tyrone, Ireland, who d. Som. Co. 1727/28. Pollock served as a Capt. in Col. Porter's regiment against King Charles I in the 1640's. His son:

11 WILLIAM POLK of White Hall (c1671-1739/40), son of Robert (10). He acquired the estate "White Hall" in Som. Co. Two of his children:

- i. Jean (Jane), b. c1698; d. after 1757; mar. James STRAWBRIDGE (see No. 12, p. 441).
- ii. William, Jr., b. c1700; d. c1753; see No. 13 below.

13 WILLIAM POLK, JR., son of William (11), b. Som. Co., Md. c1700; d. North Carolina c1753; mar. (Carlisle, Pa. c1730) Margaret Taylor. He settled first in Hopewell Township, Cumberland Co., Pa., then migrated to "west of the Yadkin River" in N.C. One son:

- i. Ezekiel, b. 7 Dec. 1747; d. 31 Aug. 1824; see No. 14 below.

14 EZEKIEL POLK, son of William, Jr. (13), b. Cumberland Co., Pa. 7 Dec. 1747; d. Bolivar, Tenn. 31 Aug. 1824; mar. 1st (c1769) Mary Wilson, who d. near Pineville, N.C. 1791; 2nd (c1792) Bessie Davis; 3rd (c1812) Sophia Leonard. He served as a Colonel in the American Revolution, later acquired extensive tracts in the Tennessee Territory. One son, by first marriage:

- i. Samuel, b. 5 July 1772; d. 5 Nov. 1827; see No. 15 below.

15 SAMUEL POLK, son of Ezekiel (14), b. probably Tryon Co., N.C. 5 July 1773; d. Columbia, Maury Co., Tenn. 5 Nov. 1827; mar. (Hopewell Church, Mecklenburg Co., N.C. 25 Dec. 1794) Jane Knox (1776-1852) of Iredell Co., N.C.; both buried Greenwood Cemetery. He served as a Major in the War of 1812. Son:

- i. JAMES KNOX POLK, b. 2 Nov. 1795; d. Nashville, Tenn. 15 June 1849; 11th President of the United States. He would be a third cousin of JAMES BOSTON (1782-1836) (68) and of Nancy Williams Stevenson (1782-1843), mother of Henry Martin Stevenson (see 109).

WILSON AND ALLIED FAMILIES (pp. 441-43): JOHNSON, COHOON.

1 GEORGE JOHNSON (1625-1681). An account of the early Johnsons shows that George, son of Edward and Susan (Munnter) Johnson, was baptised at St. George's Church, Canterbury, England, 3 Apr. 1625, and the registry contains the names and marriages of his sisters, aunts, and great-aunts, but no allusions to the Wilson or Dixon family can be found (New England Historical and Genealogical Register, 1913, LXVII:170). George's father, Capt. Edward Johnson, son of William and Susan (Porredge) Johnson, was baptised at St. George's 16 Dec. 1598 and died at Woburn, Mass. 23 Apr. 1672. He migrated to Boston in 1630, but shortly returned to England and brought back in 1636 his wife, seven children, and three servants, settling in Charlestown, Mass. He was one of the founders of Woburn in 1640, and he was the author of The History of New England, published in London in 1654 (Dictionary of American Biography, LX:95).

11 JOHN COHOON (1679-1749). Som. Deeds I.K.L. show that the name was originally spelled "Colehoune." John Colehoune and Jane Carter were married 16 June 1676 by Henry Boston, justice of the peace; to them were born, at Morumsco, five children: Jane, 25 Jan. 1676/77; John, 21 Dec. 1679; Samuel, 26 Oct. 1681; Josina, 29 Jan. 1683/84; and Elizabeth, 3 May 1686.

S1 HENRY BOSTON (c1620-76). His widow, Elizabeth Roger-son Boston, mar. 2nd (Som. Co. 12 June 1677) Henry Lewis of Anne Arundel Co., Md., one of the earliest "attorneys" in the colonial Maryland courts; Lewis in 1678/79 made his wife Elizabeth one of the heirs of his plantation "Lewis Range" on the south side of Patapsco River (Torrence, pp. 290, 322). By 1682 she was widowed, and married 3rd John Bird, for on 2 Oct. 1682 John Bird of Anne Arundel Co., merchant, and Elizabeth his wife, the late wife of Henry Boston, Sr., late of Somerset Co., deceased, deeded to William Planner of Somerset Co., for 2334 pounds of tobacco, the thirds of the tract "Boston Town," 350 acres, of which Henry Boston died seized, that became due to Elizabeth, widow of Henry (Som. Deeds 6:628). Elizabeth Bird died before 6 May 1704, for on that date John Bird of Charles Co., Md. (presumably the same Bird), signed his will, in which he named no wife (Ann. Wills 3:638).

S6 ISAAC BOSTON (c1694-1751), son of Isaac (2). On 13 Sept. 1716, with his step-father Adrian Marshall and John Benson, he was witness to the bond of his uncles John, Daniel, Jeffrey, and David Long (see No. 3, pp. 411-12). As head of a household in Pocomoke Hundred, Isaac appears in the first of the surviving Som. Co. tax lists, 1723, and continues appearing to 1751. With him in 1723 was half-brother George Marshall; in 1724-25, Thomas Godard; in 1725, 1727 half-brother Samuel Marshall. Three sons were subsequently listed as they became 16: Isaac, Jr. (1744-48), Samuel (1746-49), David (1750-51). In 1723-24 Isaac had one negro; in 1727, 1733-34, 1746, 1750, 2 negroes; in 1739, 4 negroes; and in 1730-31, 1735-36, 1738, 1740, 1744, and 1751, 3 negroes. In 1753 his widow Rachel Boston was listed as head of a household in Pocomoke Hundred with one negro, but in Annessex Hundred in 1756, when son Solomon was listed with her. Of the sons for whom there are no separate entries, SAMUEL BOSTON left his father's home in 1750 to live with his brother Isaac in Pocomoke Hundred, where he established his own household in 1751, still there 1753, but he was with brother David in 1754. DAVID BOSTON was head of his own household in 1753 in Pocomoke Hundred, but in Annessex Hundred in 1754, 1756-57. In 1753 he had 2 negroes, in 1754 and 1756-57 only one.

S8 ESAU BOSTON (c1695-1768), son of Esau (4). He is listed in the Som. Co. tax lists in Pocomoke Hundred as head of a household, first (as Ebenezer Boston) in 1724, then continuously until the last of the early lists in 1759 (once as Neser, then Esauer, then Esel). One by one his sons were added as they attained sixteen: Esau, Jr., listed 1738 to 1745, Jacob (1740-46), Lazarus (1744-48), William Boston (only 1744), Matthias (1748-54). From 1744 through 1759 he had one negro. The William Boston listed in 1744 must be a son, perhaps a twin brother of Lazarus, or born nearly a year earlier, who died by 1745.

S9 WILLIAM BOSTON (1701/2-1777), son of Richard (5). He appears in the Som. Co. tax lists first in the household of William Catlin (probably son of his father's guardian) in 1723 and 1725 in Annessex Hundred, but with William Lister in 1724. He was head of his own household in Annessex Hundred from 1727 through 1757; with him in 1735 was Robert Catlin. His sons were listed subsequently; Richard (1750-53), Elijah (1752-57), and William, Jr. (1756-57). He held no slaves.

S15 DANIEL BOSTON (c1746-1832), son of Isaac (6). Mrs. Henry W. (Florence F. Boston) Decker (215), great-great-granddaughter of Daniel, wrote in a letter (13 June 1966) that she had heard that Daniel's wife was Nancy Roach, who was a dedicated worker for the Baptist Church.

S16 ESAU BOSTON, JR. (c1721-1760), son of Esau (8), was in the Som. Co. tax lists in Pocomoke Hundred first in his father's household 1738-45, then as head of his own household, 1746-59.

S18 MARY BOSTON (c1725-1770/73), daughter of Esau (8); mar. JOHN COTTINGHAM (c1715-1788). John was bequeathed by his father, Charles Cottingham, four tracts or parts thereof: "Boston," "Goshen," "Horsey Down," and "Condockway marsh" (i.e., "Rumbling Point"). Only one John Cottingham appears in the Som. Co. debt books, 1755-1774, holding tracts "Boston," "Rumbling Point," and "Turkey Swamp." John bequeathed all his land to his son Ephraim, who in the 1798 debt books is shown in possession of "Need," "Turkey Swamp," and "Boston." The tract "Boston" could have come to John only through his father, Charles Cottingham.

S19 LAZARUS BOSTON (c1727-c1789), son of Esau (8). It is surprising that he does not appear in the Som. Co. tax lists after he left his father's household in 1748, unless, like his brother Jacob, he settled in Worcester Co. (if only for a short time). He does appear in the 1783 Som. Co. tax list in Dividing Creek Hundred, designated "pauper," i.e. owning no taxable real estate.

S20 MATHEW BOSTON (c1730-1763/67), son of Esau (8). He appears in the tax lists first as Mathew in his father's household in 1748, then as Matthias 1749-54. Still as Matthias he headed his own household in Pocomoke Hundred 1756-57, but again as Mathew in 1759. It was very likely his widow, Margaret (Somers) Boston, who was the mother of three illegitimate children born between 1767 and 1774 (p. 356, No. F1).

S36 EPHRAIM COTTINGHAM (1752-1800), son of John and Mary (Boston) Cottingham (18); mar. 2nd (by 19 Oct. 1793) Leah Kellam, John Kellam, Sr., in his will, dated 19 Oct. 1793, made a bequest to daughter Leah Cottingham (Som. Wills EB17:589). On 8 Mar. 1794 Leah signed a deed with her husband (Som. Deeds 30:664). In connection with the petition, recorded 12 Nov. 1800, to divide the lands of the late Ephraim Cottingham, "Boston" and "Turkey Swamp," which Ephraim had left to his son David, since deceased, Ephraim's heirs are given as Levi Holland and wife Sarah and Stephen Somers and Rhoda his wife [Ephraim's sisters], JOSIAH COTTINGHAM (67) and Mary his sister [nephew and niece of Ephraim], and Bridget Boston [niece of Ephraim], daughter of JAMES BOSTON (40), all of age except Bridget. Sarah Holland, eldest daughter [i.e. sister] took the lands at valuation (Som. Jud. 1800/01:329). On 15 May 1801 David Cottingham's uncle, Levi Holland, was executor for David's estate (Som. Bonds EB22:122, 128, 187; Som. Deeds 33:84).

S37 JOSHUA BOSTON (1752-1817), son of Lazarus (19); mar. 1st Sarah Williams (1742-c1790); 2nd (c1790) Nancy Turpin. Two of the children, first by first marriage, other by second:

- i. Levin, b. 1780; d. 1817; according to an account of 15 Apr. 1817 money was due Joshua and Nancy Boston (his father and step-mother) from the estate of Levin Boston; James Boston (his brother) was executor; among items in the inventory (Apr. 14) were: 2 cows and calves; half ownership of the schooner William and James and half ownership of a still worm and tub; 1 book and almanac; and 3400 feet of plank in the woods (Som. Accts JP5:32; Som. Inv. EB31:163, 183).
- iii. Margaret T., b. c1790/94; d. Som. Co. by 8 Sept. 1857; single. In his will, dated 15 Apr. 1822 (prob. 22 May 1822) Matthias Costen Taylor bequeathed to Margaret T. Boston $400, a yoke of oxen, a horse called Prince, and the tract "Taylor's Delight" for life, at her death to go to Thomas H. Newton, apparently his wife's nephew (Som. Wills JP4:41); the latter relationship is made clear by the will of Margaret Fitchett, dated 20 Mar. 1817 (prob. 27 July 1819), who bequeathed all her furniture in Dorchester Co. to her grandson, Thomas H. Newton, and named her son-in-law, Matthias C. Taylor executor of her will (Som. Wills JP4:59). Margaret Boston is listed in the 1840 census (aged 40/50) in the Middle District of Som. Co.; in the 1850 census, as Peggy Boston, she was head of household #942 in Dublin District, aged 50 (probably understating her age) with Polly Outen (b. 1793/4), apparently in the vicinity of Rehobeth (John S. Dryden was listed nearby; see No. 113); her property was valued at $2000. On 20 Aug. 1856, for 300 bushels merchantable shucked corn annually paid in Nov., she leased to William M. N. B. Costen the farm "Taylors Delight" where Henry Johnson resided, evidently near Costen's Station (Som. Deeds LW5:78). In her will, dated 22 Aug. 1857 (prob. 8 Sept. 1857) Margaret T. Boston bequeathed to Sarah A. Hardy farm animals and furniture, $70 in the hands of Jehu Parsons, and $20 in the hands of John Lewis Porter; to Elizabeth Hooten [Outten?] George, a "bounden boy." (No relationship of any of the above individuals to Margaret can be established.) Also in her will, in what amounted to disinheritance, she bequeathed 6 1/4 c each to Sally Landing, Francis Boston, and Samuel Boston (Som. Wills JP 5:293-4), three of the children (141, 141, 142) of her older half-brother James A. Boston (68). She did not name the other nephews, presumably because they had long since left the area and migrated west, and although the other niece Mary was only as far away as Baltimore, her whereabouts must have also been unknown to Margaret.

S42 ELIJAH BOSTON (1755-1830), son of Mathew (20). With respect to his service in the American Revolution, on 27 Oct. 1832 the four daughters of Elijah and their husbands (with the exception of Preson Taylor) signed as heirs of Elijah Boston. Under date of 30 Mar. 1833 an Executive Order from Gov. John Floyd of Virginia certified that Elijah Boston is allowed "L. B." for his services as a Soldier in the Contl. line for the war. On 18 May 1833 the Accomack Co. Court ordered the Register of the Va. Land Office to deliver to P. P. Mayo (attorney) Military warrants due for services of Elijah Boston (Virginia Soldiers of 1776, ed. Louis A. Burgess, Baltimore, 1973, II:582-83).

S43 ISAAC BOSTON (1758-1808), son of Mathew (20). It was evidently this Isaac Boston, an orphan, who in the Nov. Court of 1767 was bound apprentice to WILLIAM COTTINGHAM (34), his first cousin, until the age of 21 to learn the trade of a ditcher (Som. Jud. Rec. 1767/8, p. 13).

All of Isaac's family were buried in the Dean-Boston graveyard, on a farm known as "The Orchard," on the left side of the road leading from Big Mill to Vienna, Md. The inscriptions were recorded by Rev. J. W. Dean of Jersey Shore, Pa., who stated in a letter of May 1870, "When I first saw this graveyard many years ago there were almost 30 gravemarkers in it. All but three... were flat on the ground... I copied as much as I could... Most of the dates... were illegible... When I last saw it in 1957 there was only one stone still in evidence, that of John Boston Dean, the last person to be buried there" (Maryland-Delaware Genealogist, XVII, No. 3, July 1976). Among the stones were "nose inscribed" "Isaac Boston" and "Elizabeth S. Bonwill, widow of Isaac Boston" (no dates). The following information, except for marriage dates, is derived from other gravemarkers in the cemetery.

S-A7 GEORGE W. BOSTON, son of Joseph F. (A3), b. June 1853. The article in The Crisfield Leader, 22 July 1882, dealing with events in George's early life, was reprinted from The Princess Anne Herald. (The article was kindly made available by Lt. - Col. Woodrow T. Wilson of Crisfield, Md.) Under the headline "The Pardon of Notorious Desperado Asked For" editors N. W. Dixon and/or W. R. Reese wrote:

"We were surprised a few days ago to see that application had been made to Governor Hamilton for the pardon of George Boston, a white man who was sent to the penitentiary from this county in 1878. Surely those who signed the petition for the blood-thirsty man must have lost sight of the dark crime of which he was convicted. To be sure, there are some people who would sign a petition to open the doors of penitentiaries and jails and set at liberty all criminals, but we scarcely think Somerset County has many of this class within her bounds. It is a habit with many persons to sign any petition that a friend may present to them without inquiring into particulars -- which is radically wrong - this, perhaps, will account for some of the names that may be found on that application for pardon.

Let us throw some light on the character of Boston and of the crimes of which he was convicted: During the latter part of March 1878, or the first few days of April. . . , Boston was arrested in Baltimore on the charge of larceny. Some months previous to that time he got offended with Mr. James Williams, who resides near Marion Station, . . . and to give vent to his wrath and satisfy his thirst for revenge, he loaded a shot gun heavily, and in the blackness of midnight, when all the neighborhood was in slumber, crept stealthily up to the house of the said Williams, who was his brother-in-law. . . and shot at him through the window as he lay in his bed asleep - fortunately, however, missing him and his wife. He afterwards said he calculated where Williams' head ought to be, and the whole charge went into the pillow where his head usually rested. Had it not been that Williams was sick and restless that night and his head removed a few inches from its accustomed resting place, he must have been killed.

The authorities arrested the would be murderer but he escaped from their clutches and fled to Baltimore. . . [He] was arrested in said city. His trial resulted in a sentence to the penitentiary for nine years. At the same time he pled guilty to an indictment charging him with stealing an ox and this donated two more years for this offense making his whole term of imprisonment run up to August 1889. This is the kind of man that Governor Hamilton is asked to pardon and let loose again in our county. He is no doubt Penitent now - most people are when they are sick or in trouble - but the elements of death and destruction are still in him. We have very little faith in the reformatory influences of the penitentiary, but it has many advantages in preventing would-be murderers and practical thieves from participating in the desires of their hearts.

Should the Governor pardon him it would be an act of great injustice to our people. We hardly think the Executive would pardon a man of such a character if he thought he intended to locate in Washington County, near the possessions of Wm. T. Hamilton. The Governor, during his administration, has made very few mistakes. We hope he will not make one in the Boston case." George must have been pardoned, for he started a family by 1886.

S-D1 LEVIN HENDERSON (c1780-1843), son of W. M. and Elizabeth (Boston) Henderson (30). That Levin was a son of William M. Henderson is evidenced by two deeds. On 30 July 1795 James Harper of Som. Co., Md., deeded to William Merrill Henderson of Worc. Co., for £97, the land formerly sold by Thomas Marshall to James Harper on the road from Cedar Hall to Isaac Layfield's line, part of "Addition and Merrill Hall," 23 3/4 acres (Worc. Deeds A)280). On 28 July 1845 William M. Henderson and Mary Ann Henderson of Baltimore City deeded to Edward Lambden of Worc. Co., for $296, all title to "Merrill Hall," "Widows Change," "Millers Lot" or "Milbis Lot," "Addition to Merrill Hall" or "Addition and Merrill Hall," and "Hog Quarter," 171 1/4 acres, all lands in Worc. Co. of which Levin Henderson, father of William died seized (Worc. Deeds GMH8:332). Apparently all these lands had passed from Levin's father, William Merrill Henderson, to his son Levin, thence to Levin's son.

Levin's widow, Charlotte Jane Henderson (see F3) mar. 2nd (lic. Worc. 20 Jan. 1846) Wheatley J. Atkinson. After the death of her son, Thomas Henderson, Worc. Co., dec'd, distribution was made 13 July 1847 by Edward Lambden, administrator: to Charlotte Jane Atkinson, mother of the deceased, William M. Henderson, Matilda Benson (formerly Henderson), wife of Samuel Benson, Isaac Henderson, Henry Henderson, Ellen Ann Waters (formerly Henderson), wife of Thomas Waters, brothers and sisters of the half-blood to the deceased, and Levin Henderson, son, brother to the deceased of the whole blood, all of one father, 1/7 each (Worc. Accts. 1836/48:460).

S-D8 JOHN S. WALTERS (1844-1879), son of Thomas and Eleanor A. (Henderson) Walters (D5), On 1 Aug. 1866 Mary A. Dryden and Sidney Dryden of Worc. Co. appeared as securities for John S. Walters of Baltimore on a bond of $1000, a sum borrowed from William H. Walters and now being repaid, the parties of the first part releasing to John 1/4 interest of three undivided tracts known as "The Manor Farm," "The Church Place," and the "Benson land" (Acco. Deeds 48:593).

- iv. Susanna Joan Beach, b. Tokyo (Suginami-Ku District), Japan, 16 Feb. 1968.

This branch of the Boston family was brought to light in 1968 by Mr. Leslie P. Dryden of Hyattsville, Md., primarily through his researches in the land records of Somerset Co., Md., as they related to the White and Rikken families, as well as in previously unnoticed wills. Although the family has not borne the name Boston for over two centuries, this is nevertheless the senior branch of the Boston family. Many of its sub-branches remain yet to be traced. (Raised numbers indicate generations.)

S-G1 ISAAC WHITE⁵ (the same as No. 23, p. 27), son of Henry and Abigail (Boston) White (No. 10, p. 21), was born in Somerset Co., Md. 19 Apr. 1747; he died in Somerset Co. before 11 June 1782; he married (c1774) Nanny McCready, daughter of Solomon and Benne McCready, b. 25 Sept. 1755 (baptised Coventry); she died 8 or 9 Feb. 1788. On 9 June 1779 John McKredy signed his will (prob. 12 July 1779), making bequests to, among others, his sister Nanny White ("my best Bead Bolster Blanket Sheet Bedstead Cord and Matt"), to his "indulgent" father, Sollomon McKrede and mother Benny McKredy, to brothers Isaac and Alexander McKredy (Som. Wills EB1:127). (For fuller details on Isaac White and his wife Nanny, see main entry No. 23, p. 27.)

Children (born Somerset Co., Md.):

- i. Abigail, b. c1775; mar. Josiah Lankford; see No. S-G2.
- ii. Nancy, b. c1777; d. c1812; mar. Isaac Rikken; see No. S-G3.
- iii. John, b. c1782.

S-G2 ABIGAIL WHITE⁶, daughter of Isaac (S-G1) and Nanny (McCready) White, b. Somerset Co., Md. c1775; mar. (c1793/94) JOSIAH LANKFORD, probably son of William and Rachel (Willson) Lankford, b. c1766. That Josiah was probably a son of William is suggested by a deed of 8 Aug. 1798 by which Joshua Lankford ("son of William and Rachel") sold to Josiah Lankford, for £35, farm animals, crops, etc. (Som. Deeds 32:268). In the 1800 census Josiah Lankford was listed on the same page as William Lankford, while Joshua and William, Jr., were listed on an adjacent page.

On 8 Dec. 1794 Josiah Lankford was a witness to the will of William Hall (Som. Wills EB17:358). On 1 Feb. 1797 Josiah Lankford and Abigail, his wife, of Somerset Co., deeded to Stephen Collins, for £40, "Cork," 40 acres, adjacent to Solomon McCready's land and to "Collins Adventure," land given to said Abigail White, alias Lankford, by her father, Isaac White, deceased, by will (Som. Deeds 31:524). On 3 Mar. 1797 Josiah Lankford and his wife Abigail deeded to Dr. Thomas Williams, for £400, 150 acres of "Isaac's Fortune," on the Pocomoke River, where Josiah Lankford now resides (Som. Deeds 32:162). On 28 May 1797 Josiah and Abigail Lankford deeded to Isaac Rikken (Abigail's brother-in-law, No. S-G3), for £10, all title to 20 acres of marsh, "Clone Mill" (Som. Deeds 32:217). In the 1798 tax list Josiah Lankford was an occupant of part of Jesse Powell's land in Little Annemessex Hundred (the present area of Crisfield). On 26 Mar. 1800 Josiah Lankford sold to James Barrett, for £30, cattle, furniture, and other items (Som. Deeds 33:91). Josiah is listed in the 1820 census, in the household two females born 1794/1804, two males born 1804/10, and one female born 1810/20, possibly their younger children. No documentary evidence has been found that Josiah and Abigail had children. A son may be the Josiah Lankford listed in the 1840 census, aged 50-60, his age possibly reported incorrectly; he is listed next to Nathan J. Lankford in Lower Somerset Co. Since the 1830 census is lost, and Josiah and Abigail do not appear in 1840, they had presumably died between 1820 and 1840.

Child (possibly):

- i. Josiah Lankford [Jr.], b. c1794.

S-G3 NANCY WHITE⁶, daughter of Isaac (S-G1) and Nanny (McCready) White, born Somerset Co., Md., probably near the present location of Crisfield, c1775; died Somerset Co. about 1812; mar. (c1793/94) ISAAC RIGGEN (RIGGIN), son of Stephen and Sarah (Matthews) Rikken, b. 11 Sept. 1765 (bapt. Coventry); died Somerset Co. by 14 Feb. 1837; he mar. 2nd (lic. Som. Co. 1 June 1813) Polly Ward, born 1792/93, living with her son John in 1850. By his second marriage Isaac Rikken was father of (1) John Thomas W. Rikken (1814-Dec. 1857); (2) Julia Ann Rikken; (3) Emaline P. Rikken; (4) Rosy I. Rikken, b. 1825/26, who mar. (lic. Som. Co. 23 Nov. 1851) Gilbert Sorin Milbourne (see No. 316);

(5) George W. Rikken (b. 1832/33); and (6) Edward T. Rikken.

According to the 1798 tax list Isaac Rikken held the part of "Isaac's Fortune" (89 acres) inherited by his wife Nancy, as evidenced by a deed of 3 Sept. 1838, whereby Thomas Hall and Sarah his wife, David Wallston and Elizabeth his wife, Robert Price and Mary his wife, and Nancy M. Rikken, of Somerset Co., deeded to Stephen Rikken, for $168, all lands of which Isaac W. Rikken died "seased," being part of a tract called "Isaac's Fortune," lately occupied by Isaac Rikken, which he got by and "threw" his wife, Nancy White; among the signatories were Sally Hall, Betsy W. Walston, and Mary Ann Price (Som. Deeds 59:483).

In addition to this original holding, on 23 Feb. 1798 Isaac Rikken purchased from Dr. Thomas Williams, Jr., for £500, 150 acres of "Isaac's Fortune," which had been conveyed on 3 Mar. 1797 to Dr. Williams by Josiah Lankford and his wife, Abigail, Rikken's sister-in-law, land identified in the 1797 deed as being on the Pocomoke River (Som. Deeds 32:46). On 4 Dec. 1806 Isaac and Nancy Rikken deeded to Isaac McCready, for £27, part of "Isaac's Fortune," located between two tracts, - "McCready's First Choice" and "Matthews Adventure" - 3 acres, the borders set by commissioners appointed to mark them (Som. Deeds 38:83).

In his will, signed 5 Jan. 1834 (prob. 14 Feb. 1837), Isaac Rikken bequeathed to son Stephen, named executor, and purchased of Josiah Lankford and wife, part of "Isaac's Fortune," 150 acres; to son John T. W. Rikken part of a tract purchased of James Harper's heirs, part of two tracts, once called "Peamon," the other "Tarso," containing together 164 acres; to sons Edward T. and George W. Rikken equally, part of "Peamore" [sic] and "Tarso," 199 acres; and to son Isaac W. that part of "Isaac's Fortune" inherited from testator's wife, Nancy. To daughter Julia Ann Rikken he left a tract purchased of George McCready, "Tully Brisk," 70 acres; to daughter Rosey I. Rikken, part of "Long Meadow" purchased of William Cox; and he made other bequests to daughters Emaline P. Rikken, Mary Ann Rikken, Betty W. Rikken, and Nancy McCready Rikken, and Sally Hall, who "has already received her full portion." He named ten children as his residuary legatees, but made no provision for his second wife Mary, who survived him. Witnesses to the will were Stephen Bounds, John Cohoon, and George Hargis (Som. Wills JP4:267). An administration account was filed on the estate of Isaac Rikken on 27 Oct. 1838.

Children of Isaac and Nancy Rikken (born Somerset Co., Md. probably on a plantation on the Pocomoke River):

- i. Sarah (Sally) Rikken, b. c1795; mar. 1st (lic. Som. Co. 6 Mar. 1816) WILLIAM COX; 2nd (lic. Som. Co. 14 July 1829) THOMAS HALL. On 28 Mar. 1823 William Cox deeded to Isaac Rikken [his father-in-law], for $200, part of "Long Meadow," on the north side of the Pocomoke River and on the east side of Morumsco Creek, 50 acres (Som. Deeds 51:147). Thomas and Sally Hall had left the county by 1840, or had died.
- ii. Stephen Rikken, b. c1797; d. by 20 Dec. 1841; see No. S-G4.
- iii. Isaac W[white?] Rikken, b. 1799/1800; d. by 3 Sept. 1838, apparently unmarried and without children.
- iv. Elizabeth (Betsy) W[white?] Rikken, b. c1804; d. 1847/50; mar. David Walston; see No. S-G5.
- v. Mary Ann Rikken, b. 1809/10; mar. Robert Price; see No. S-G6.
- vi. Nancy McCready Rikken, b. c1811/12; living 25 May 1841 1841, when she witnessed her brother Stephen's will, but she had died by 1850.

S-G4 STEPHEN RIGGEN,⁷ son of Isaac and Nancy (White) Rikken (S-G3), born Somerset Co., Md. c1797; d. 25 Aug. /20 Dec. 1841; mar. (lic. Som. Co. 17 Feb. 1829) Margaret H. Hall, daughter of William H. Hall and possibly his [2nd wife?] Rose Long, b. c1807; d. by 1840?; he apparently mar. 2nd (lic. Som. Co. 25 Aug. 1841) Margaret Conner.

In his will, signed 25 May 1841 (prob. 20 Dec. 1841) Stephen Rikken bequeathed to his only son, Joshua James Rikken, his dwelling plantation, "Isaac's Fortune," 164 acres, and a negro girl Gertrude. To two of his daughters, Margaret Ann Elizabeth (eldest) and Sarah Allen Elbert, were left a tract of land adjacent to the land on which their father lived, to be divided equally between them; to his youngest daughter Emily Frances Hall Rikken he bequeathed $700, the rest of his estate to his three daughters equally. His stepmother, Mary Riffin, was to have the care and bringing up of his eldest daughter. His brother-in-law Tubman L. Hall was named executor. Witnesses were Levin Tyler, Mary Riffin, and Nancy M. Riffin (Som. Wills JP5:65). In 1850 his two youngest children, Joshua and Emily (listed as Amelia), were in the household of their uncle, Tubman Hall.

Children (born Somerset Co., Md.):

- i. Margaret Ann Elizabeth Riffin, b. c1830 (but 1824/25 in 1860 census); mar. (c1850/52, not Som. Co.) CHARLES C. HALL, b. Md. 1819/20. On 10 June 1856 Charles C. Hall and wife Margaret A. Hall of Van Buren Co., Iowa, according to an agreement made through their agent, Tubman L. Hall, of Somerset Co., to sell to Thomas Bell the land left to Margaret by the will of her father, Stephen Riffin, the said land having been bequeathed by the will to Margaret and Sarah jointly with remainder to the survivor, Sarah being dead, now sell for $1000 the land to the heirs of Thomas Bell (Som. Deeds 73:155). The Halls were in the 1860 census in Van Buren Co., Van Buren township, household 1938, but had apparently moved on by 1870.
- Children (born Iowa):
 1. Kate Hall, b. 1853/54.
 2. Josephine Hall, b. 1855/56.
 3. Emma Hall, b. 1857/58.
- ii. Sarah Allen Elbert Riffin, b. c1832; d. 1841/50; single.
- iii. Joshua James Riffin, b. 1835/36; mar. (lic. Som. Co. 18 Oct. 1859) Esther A. Cox. On 22 Jan. 1859, for $1500, Joshua J. Riffin sold to Charles T. Marshall 202 acres devised to said Joshua by his father, Stephen Riffin (Som. Deeds 73:747).
- iv. Emily Frances Hall Riffin, b. 1840/41; mar. (lic. Som. Co. 13 Jan. 1864) WILLIAM McBRIDE.

S-G5 ELIZABETH (BETSY) WHITE⁷ RIGGEN, daughter of Isaac and Nancy (White) Riffin (S-G5), b. Somerset Co., Md., probably on plantation "Isaac's Fortune" on the Pocomoke River, c1804; d. Somerset Co. 1847/50; mar. (lic. Som. Co. 21 Jan. 1825) DAVID WALSTON, son of George and Leah (Adams) Walston, b. Somerset Co. c1799; d. Somerset Co. by 17 July 1845. He had previously mar. (lic. Som. Co. 25 Jan. 1820) Elizabeth Davis, who d. 1821/24, and had a son George Walston, b. c1821; d. May 1844/June 1845. David Walston signed his will 13 Apr. 1840 (prob. 17 July 1845) bequeathing to his wife Betsey W. Walston (named executor) a 40 acre tract, parts of "Edwin" and "Meadowground," all the land "leading to Morumsco Creek," the land to go after her death to her heirs "had by David Walston." The residue of his estate was to be equally divided between his son George and "all my heirs by Betsey." Witnesses were Henry W. Matthews, Mary A. Long, Thomas W. Long (Som. Wills JP5:116). Henry W. Matthews, administrator c. w. a. of David Walston, filed an inventory dated 30 Sept. 1845, and on 15 Mar. 1847 an account, with distribution to widow, the one third part, and to testator's daughter Nancy W., wife of Thomas Adams, to his son Isaac Walston, and to his daughter Ellen Walston. George Walston, one of the distributees named in the will, having died before his father, his name did not appear in the distribution (Som. Accts. SWJ2:77,100).

In the 1850 census son Isaac Walston was in the household of Noah Thomas, b. 1822/23 (No. 734, Brinkley's District), with his cousin Isaac Price. Nearby (household 720) was Isaac's grandmother, Leah Walston, aged 68, with her daughter and son-in-law, Samuel and Leah Coulbourn (see p. 385, No. 22), and nextdoor (No. 735) was Isaac's aunt, Mary Ann Price. Isaac's sister Eleanor Walston was in the household (No. 777) of Jacob Bell. Also in the Noah Thomas household were Patsy Langford (50), and Mary (22) and William Langford (16). Also nearby was Betsy Riffin Walston's step-mother, Mary Riffin (aged 57) in the household of her son John (aged 36) with two of her younger children, Rosey (24) and George (17).

Children (born Somerset Co., Md., probably at Morumsco):

- i. Nancy Walston, b. c1826/28; mar. THOMAS ADAMS (no further record).
- ii. Isaac Walston, b. c1830/31; d. c1865/70; see No. S-G7.
- iii. Eleanor (Ellen) Walston, b. c1832; no further record.

S-G6 MARY ANN RIGGEN,⁷ daughter of Isaac and Nancy (White) Riffin (S-G3), b. Somerset Co. 1809/10; mar. (lic. Som.

Co. 21 Mar. 1837) ROBERT PRICE, who d. 1846/50. His widow in 1850 was in Brinkley's District, head of household No. 735, with daughter and two youngest sons (see S-G5), next door to Noah Thomas, in whose household her eldest son was living.

Children (born Somerset Co., Md.):

- i. Emeline Price, b. c1838; no further record.
- ii. Isaac Price, b. c1840 (Mar. 1838 according to 1880 census); see No. S-G8.
- iii. Joseph Price, b. c1843; no record after 1850 census.
- iv. Jackson Price, b. c1846; no record after 1850 census.

S-G7 ISAAC WALSTON,⁸ son of David and Elizabeth W. (Riffin) Walston (S-G5), b. Som. Co. c1830/31; d. Som. Co. c1865/70; mar. (lic. Som. 17 July 1855) Amelia Holland, daughter of George L. Holland and his first wife, Mary Ann Lankford, b. Som. Co. Sept. 1836 (1880 census) or 1841/42 (marriage record); d. Som. Co. ?c1890. Amelia mar. 2nd (Som. Co. lic. 10 Apr. 1872, same date at St. Peter's Meth. Church, Hopewell, near Crisfield) John B. Morris, b. N. J. c1824 (census) or c1836/37 (marriage record); d. Som. Co. c1894. He had previously mar. Sarah (Sally) A. Ward, and was father at least of (1) Marcella, b. 20 May 1855, whomar. his wife's son George Walston; (2) John T., b. 9 Nov. 1856, whomar. his wife's daughter Mary E.; (3) Isaac S. Morris, b. 5 Nov. 1860 (bapt. St. Peter's); and apparently (4) Josephine Morris, b. 29 June 1861 (bapt. St. Peter's, but there may be an error in one of the latter dates). John B. and Amelia Morris had at least two children of their own, bapt. St. Peter's: (1) Ida Marion Morris, b. 26 Apr. 1873; and (2) Edmund Hersey Morris, b. 18 Nov. 1875. John B. Morris was an oysterman. Isaac Walston was a farmer in Brinkley's District in 1860.

Children of Isaac and Amelia Walston (born Somerset Co., Md., presumably in Brinkley's District):

- i. Mary Elizabeth Walston, b. Sept. 1856; d. c1916; mar. John T. Morris; see S-G9.
- ii. George David⁹ Walston, b. 27 Nov. 1858; d. 31 Mar. 1908; see No. S-G10.
- iii. Isaac T. Walston, b. c1861/62; d. evidently by 1896; mar. (Som. Co. 7 Mar. 1883) Margaret B. Ward; no children; she mar. 2nd (Som. Co. 25 Feb. 1896) Robert H. Sterling.
- iv. William Hodson Walston, b. 23 Apr. 1864 (bapt. St. Peter's); mar. (St. Peter's, 4 Apr. 1888) Maggie N. Nelson, b. 1868/69; no children. He was a boatman in marriage record.

S-G8 ISAAC PRICE,⁸ son of Robert and Mary A. (Riffin) Price (S-G6), b. Som. Co. in Mar. 1838; d. ?Som. Co. by 1900; mar. (Som. Co. 1 Jan. 1866) Anne E. Stevens, b. Del. c1833; she had mar. 1st (lic. Som. 21 Aug. 1849) George Foster and was mother of Sarah Elizabeth (b. 1854/55) and David T. Foster (b. c1857).

Children (born near Marion Station, Somerset Co., Md.):

- i. Joseph Walter Price, b. 1867; d. 1945; see No. S-G11.
- ii. George F. Price, b. c1869/70; see No. S-G12.
- iii. Effie L. Price, b. c1872; mar. Franklin W. Henderson; see No. S-G13.

S-G9 MARY ELIZABETH ("LIZZIE") WALSTON,⁹ daughter of Isaac (S-G7) and Amelia (Holland) Walston, b. Som. Co. Sept. 1856; d. at her home at "Spencer Town," 5 mi. from Crisfield, Som. Co. c1916; mar. (St. Peter's, Hopewell, 10 Aug. 1876) JOHN T. MORRIS, her step-brother, son of John B. and Sarah A. (Ward) Morris, b. Som. Co. 9 Nov. 1856 (bapt. St. Peter's); d. Som. Co. at his home, Parsonville area, 8 Dec. 1933; both buried St. Paul's Cemetery, Marion Station (no stones). According to the 1900 census he was a fisherman; his wife "Lizzie" had borne 6 children, of which 4 were living in 1900. He owned his own land.

Children (born near Marion Station, Som. Co., Md.):

- i. Minnie A. Morris, b. Sept. 1878; d. 10 Nov. 1914; mar. William E. Ward; see No. S-G14.
- ii. Child, b. c1880; d. before 1900.
- iii. Fletcher D. Morris, b. Oct. 1882; d. 5 July 1954; see No. S-G15.
- iv. Sula Mae Morris, b. Apr. 1885; d. 14 Nov. 1978; mar. Raleigh M. Ward; see No. S-G16.

S-G10 GEORGE D[AVID?] WALSTON,⁹ son of Isaac (S-G7), and Amelia (Holland) Walston, b. Som. Co., Md. 27 Nov. 1858; d. of pneumonia, at his home, 3 miles from Marion Station, Md. 31 Mar. 1908; mar. (St. Peter's Meth. Church, Hopewell, 8 Aug. 1877) Marcella W. Morris, his step-sister, daughter of John B. and Sarah A. (Ward) Morris, b. 20 May 1855; d. at home, also of pneumonia, ten days after her husband, 18 Apr. 1908; both buried Quindocqua Meth. Cemetery adjoining St. Paul's, Marion. Mrs. Walston was already ill of pneumonia at the time of her husband's death. According to their joint obituary in the Crisfield Times (provided by W. T. Wilson), "both were devout Christians; they had been members of Quindocqua [Methodist] church for a number of years. Mr. Walston was also a Sunday School teacher and a trustee in that church." On 15 Apr. 1908 George Walton's widow, Marzella, and Beulah Green, only daughter, renounced administration of George's estate, requesting that administration be granted to J. Fletcher Green. The request was also signed by Lizzie Morris and William H. Walston (Som. Wills TD 21:111), the latter two sister and brother of George Walston. George was a mariner, according to marriage record, but in 1900 census he was a farmer in Lawson's District, owned his own land; his wife had borne one child, living.

Child (born Som. Co., at Phoenix, near Marion Station):

This branch of the Boston family came to my attention through a letter in July 1968 from Mrs. Ethel LeCompte Dorrett (S-H10), who had seen a copy of the recently published history of the Boston family, which was owned by her good friend, Mrs. John J. Jones (468). The book included her grandmother, Mary Elizabeth Boston LeCompte Wright (S-H1), but her descendants had not been traced farther. Mrs. Dorrett thereupon most generously contributed the following information that she had already collected on her branch of the family. (Raised numbers indicate generations.)

S-H1 MARY ELIZABETH BOSTON⁷ (the same as No. 143, p. 66), daughter of James A. (68) and Nancy (Adams) Boston, b. Somerset Co., Md., probably on the "Cokesbury Farm" near Dividing Creek, 31 Jan. 1835; d. Baltimore, Md. 27 Jan. 1907; mar. 1st (South Baltimore M. E. Church, Baltimore, 10 Oct. 1854) THOMAS FRANCIS LeCOMPTE, son of Joseph and Hannah (Raymond) LeCompte of New York City, b. N. Y. 1819; d. Baltimore, 24 May 1869; she mar. 2nd (Canton St. M. E. Church, Baltimore, 18 July 1877) JOHN J. WRIGHT, b. 1817; d. Baltimore, 1882. All are buried in the Boston family plot, Mt. Olivet Cemetery, Baltimore. The family were Methodists. They were living in Ward 17, Baltimore (household 1057) according to the 1860 census; with them was Nancy Boston, Mary's mother.

Thomas LeCompte was listed in the census as an engineer, but according to family tradition he was a first mate on a [? cargo] vessel, and he would be gone for a year at a time; when he returned, he would bring each of the children a pound of raisins, suggesting that he may have sailed to the Mediterranean.

The family for some years lived at 3117 Dillon Street, Baltimore. About 1861 they left Baltimore and moved to Cambridge, Md., in Dorchester Co., where Thomas opened a grocery store, but when his business proved unsuccessful, between 1862 and 1865 he took his family back to Baltimore.

Children, by first marriage (all but third born Baltimore):

This branch of the Boston family was brought to my attention by a letter in January 1982 from Walter L. Jones (S-J20), then of Ormond Beach, Fla., later of Princess Anne, Md., who had traced his Taylor and Henderson lineage back to Martha Boston Henderson in Accomack County, Virginia, but had not succeeded in tracing it farther. He explained that he had seen a copy of The Boston Family of Maryland on a visit to relatives in Newark, Delaware. His great-nephew, Wade Thorp, who had been assigned a paper at the University of Delaware on his family roots, had discovered in the Delaware Historical Society, Wilmington, a copy of the book, which he took his uncle to see. It confirmed Walter's conviction that his great-great-grandmother, Martha Boston, was in fact descended from Henry Boston.

Walter Jones then began sending me a wealth of material on his family that he had been collecting, including a draft of a pamphlet, a brief family history of his grandfather Taylor's descendants, which he had planned to distribute to interested relatives. And he continued as an enthusiastic collaborator, collecting and sending new information. After he moved to Princess Anne, early in 1984, we planned to meet there to become acquainted and to promote our collaboration, but shortly before our scheduled meeting in September 1985, for which I had made a special trip to the Eastern Shore, I learned with sorrow and great disappointment that he had died suddenly of a heart attack just two weeks previously. He was only 62. It is most regrettable that he could not have lived to see the results of his loving labors appear in published form and to share in the further recent discovery of another branch of his family, in St. Mary's County, Maryland (S-J10a), that he had not been aware of.

S-J1 MARTHA BOSTON,⁶ eldest daughter of Elijah Boston (No. 42, p. 34), b. presumably at Pitts Creek, Worcester Co., Md. c1781; d. Accomack Co., Va. 1841/50; mar. (Accomack Co. 16 Oct. 1799) JOHN H. HENDERSON, son probably of Lemuel and Scarborough HENDERSON (see p. 400, No. 4) of Accomack Co., b. presumably in Accomack Co. c1770; d. Accomack Co. by 25 Oct. 1841. His presumed father, Lemuel Henderson, d. Accomack Co. by 26 Nov. 1797 (Nottingham, pp. 345-46). Although John Henderson did not give his wife's name (Martha) in his will, referring to her only as his wife, she was his wife on 27 Dec. 1830, long after their children were born.

John Henderson signed his will and its codicil 29 Oct. 1839. After the usual preliminaries, "I John Henderson, Sr.... being weak of body but of a sound... memory..." he declared:

"First, I give to my son John the land which I bought of William P. Berry, upon the condition that he pays to my son Samuel the sum of $416 within three years from my decease, and that he pays to my son Lemuel the sum of $416 within five years after my decease; but in case of the death of my son John without lawful issue, then the said lands to be divided between my sons Samuel and Lemuel; and in case of the death of either Samuel or Lemuel without issue, then the money or land to be equally divided between the surviving sons.

Second, I give to my son John the horse which he has in his possession called Lyon.

Third, I give to my son Samuel the horse which he calls by the name of Charley.

Fourth, I give to my son Lemuel the sum of $80.

Fifth, I give to my beloved wife my teaster bedstead and the bed and furniture belonging to the same exclusive of her dower in my estate.

Sixth, I give to my daughter Mary Savage at her mother's death my bureau, but if her mother wishes it she is to keep it as long as she lives.

Seventh, I give unto my grandson John Taylor, upon his reaching the age of fifteen years, the sum of $20 to be paid him out of the sale of my personal estate.

Eighth, it is my will and desire that my executor hereinafter named shall sell the balance of my personal estate not given off as legacies and that the same after paying my just debts and funeral expenses be equally divided between Betsey Rusel, Scarborough Taylor, Mary Savage, John, Lemuel and Samuel Henderson.

Lastly, I nominate and appoint my son John Henderson executor of this my last will and testament...."

In a brief codicil he added the request "that my son John take the black children that were bound to me, and to pay to my estate the sum of $40 for same and that sum to be equally divided between my children." The will was admitted to probate 25 Oct. 1841 (Accomack Co. Wills, 1828-1846, p. 413).

S-J8 OLIVER HENDERSON TAYLOR,⁸ son of Henry W. and Scarborough (Henderson) Taylor (S-J3), b. near Temperanceville, Accomack Co., Va. 19 Apr. 1837; d. Withams, Accomack Co. 16 Sept. 1922; mar. 1st (lic. Worc. Co., Md. 21 Jan. 1860) Mary White Kelley, b. ?Worc. Co. 8 Jan. 1840; d. Horntown, Acco. Co., 6 or 16 Aug. 1875; he mar. 2nd (Nashville, Acco. Co., 4 Mar. 1876) Alice Aydelotte, daughter of Benjamin Franklin and Harriet (Hargis) Aydelotte, b. ?Worc. Co. 7 Oct. 1851; on a visit to her son Moody, in ?Pocomoke, Md., she suffered a stroke, and died a week later, 28 Oct. 1923 (at Pocomoke? or Withams), buried with her husband at Downings Cemetery. Her father, Ben Aydelotte, was a Mexican War veteran who kept a store in Big Mills, Md., a stone's throw from Accomack Co.

As a boy Oliver Taylor was apprenticed to a shoemaker on Chincoteague for five years; at the end of his service he was given a suit of clothing. After many years as a shoemaker, he turned to farming. In 1879 he "traded the house in Horntown . . . [and $100] for a farm at Withams, three miles west of Oak Hall. On Christmas Day the family moved to its new home - a structure consisting of big room, little room, colonnade, and kitchen. This house was replaced in 1906 by the two-story dwelling that still stands."

An active and energetic member of Downings Methodist Church at Oak Hall, he served on its official board and as Supt. of its Sunday School and a member of its choir. A lengthy obituary in The Peninsula Enterprise praised him as "a man of the highest principles, and . . . of such strong personality as to succeed in leaving those principles to succeeding generations. . . . He took an optimistic view of life, . . . and would always greet you with a happy smile and words of good cheer." (Information collected by his grandson, Walter L. Jones.)

INDEX

Every descendant of Henry Boston in this book is listed here, as well as the spouse of each (where known) and the spouse's parents. Women are indexed under maiden names. Numbers here (and at the top of each page in the body of the text, in Appendix I, and in the Supplement) refer to entries, not to pages. A capitalized surname indicates that two or more persons of that name appear in the text; if all persons of that name appear under only one or two numbers, only the surname may be listed here, not individual names. A capital letter A, B, C, D, E, or F preceding a numeral, such as A73, refers to Appendix I; a capital S, such as S1345 or S-A73, refers to the Supplement. An S in parentheses, such as (S)1575 or (S)C142, indicates that the individual appears in both the main text and in the Supplement. A small letter following a numeral, such as C188a, refers to the normal numbered sequence (the preceding number may be C187 or C188).

INDEX TO APPENDIX III and NOTES TO APPENDIX III (pp. 358-457A)

All references are to page numbers. A capitalized surname followed by a page number indicates some account of a family as a whole or of several persons of the same surname within another family. An individual name generally is listed only if it appears in isolation within a family of a different surname. Only family members are indexed, not witnesses to wills, executors of estates, or other presumably unrelated persons. If a name is cross-referenced from one family to another or to the Boston family, it is not listed here, nor are surnames of married daughters. This index also lists names other than Bostons in Appendix II.
